At this time of year, we must pause to recognize those members of our community who make up our EMS system.

EMS, meaning Emergency Medical Service, Week has been designated by Governor Clements and by Winters Mayor Randy Springer. We join in the special week for the recognition of these very special people.

As I write this, I may get a bit carried away. You see, I have had the privilege of being a part of our EMS for the past several years and, perhaps, may have a bit more insight into these people.

Over the past five years we have seen the Emergency Medical Services in Winters grow from a very basic ambulance service to a service that provides specialized care for critical patients.

It has not been all red lights and sirens. The members of our EMS are almost constantly training, improving skills, obtaining advanced certification, teaching other EMS personnel. There have been many hours spent by these people to construct a better communications system, to upgrade the emergency vehicles and to make sure they are ready when needed.

These dedicated people, when their name is on the schedule, strap on a walkie talkie and stand ready to respond on a moment's notice.

It takes a very special kind of person that will devote the literally hundreds of hours required for advanced certification, to arrange their lives to suit their place on the schedule to be able to respond.

In Winters, and north Runnels County, we are very fortunate to have a large number of these people.

You might take a moment to say "Hi" to these people. They are our neighbors and, through their efforts, we can be proud of an Emergency Medical Service that provides our community with integrity and the highest level of care possible.

I am both humble and proud to be a part of North Runnels Emergency Service and must thank, personally, these great folks.

Parish Mission

Winters Catholic Church, from Sunday to Thursday, September 24 to 28. Father Andrew Kulzow, formerly priest at St. Joseph's Church in San Angelo, will conduct this mission. Special mission sermon Sunday, September 24 at 9 a.m. Sermon and prayers Monday through Thursday at 7:30 p.m. All are welcome whether or not they are members of the parish.

EMS Week salute for our EMT's

In the past five years, North Runnels Emergency Service, Inc. has been very active. Along with its responsibility for emergency medical service for the northern half of Runnels County, the personnel of North Runnels EMS have been active in conducting a number of basic EMT certification classes, two Special Skills classes, and is now working with Texas State Technical Institute in sponsoring a Paramedic Completion course that includes Advanced Cardiac Life Support.

When the service began, it offered only a basic life support service. North Runnels EMS now provides an advanced level of care for the residents of the area. NREMS also is equipped to provide long distance transportation for very critical cardiac patients and ventilator patients and is one of the very few services skilled and equipped to do this.

Pictured (l-r) are Mildred DeBerry, EMT/SS; Sandy Bland, EMT/SS and Paramedic Student; Linda Ruks, EMT; Archie Lancaster, EMT/SS and Paramedic Student; Joyce Weems, EMT/SS and Paramedic Student; Caroline Priddy, EMT/SS Paramedic Student; Bobbye Stone, EMT and Randy Nolte, Paramedic and owner of North Runnels Emergency Service.

EMS Week proclaimed for September 17-23

Whether the circumstance is a building collapse in Brownsville, a fire helicopter crash near Bridgeport, or the suspenseful three day rescue of a little girl from a Midland well, specially trained emergency medical services personnel are able to respond at a moment's notice. Their skills routinely make the difference between life and death.

In recognition of their expertise in averting loss of life in emergencies, Gov. William P. Clements has proclaimed the week of September 17-23 EMS Week in Texas.

Every year, Texas emergency medical services respond to more than a million calls for help, in crises ranging from multiple-casualty incidents to the more common cases of cardiac arrest, motor vehicle accident, near drowning, or fractured leg.

More than 40,000 people in Texas are certified by the Texas Department of Health (TDH) as Emergency Care Attendants, emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs), and Paramedics. Twelve hundred groups around the state now provide pre-hospital emergency medical care in their communities.

"EMS has come a long way since we started out," said Gene Weatherall, chief of TDH's

Bureau of Emergency Management. "The old ambulance law of 1943 required EMS workers to have only an 8 hour Red Cross certificate, a first aid kit, and a backboard. But since the '70s, people throughout the state have volunteered for training and certification at much higher levels so that they could provide high quality pre-hospital medical care."

Landmark EMS legislation, was passed by the 71st Legislature, should further raise the quality of care for patients received outside the hospital. Amendments to the EMS Act require licensing of EMS services, and authorize TDH to design a trauma system for Texas. Under the Trauma system concept, comprehensive emergency care would be available more quickly to the severely injured patient.

EMTs spend a minimum of 120 hours in class, learning how to assess and stabilize a patient's condition before transporting him to an emergency room. Also, each must complete 20 hours of clinical observation and three emergency ambulance runs before being certified as an EMT. Paramedics perform in-vasive emergency medical procedures such as cardiac defibrillation, airway intubation, and intravenous drug administration. They must complete a minimum of an additional 400 hours of training beyond the EMT requirements.

Nearly half of the people who work in EMS are volunteers. "Emergency medical service in Texas could not exist without volunteers," Weatherall said. In July, 541 of the 1,194 ambulance firms in Texas were volunteer organizations.

Many local EMS organizations offer training for the public. Interested citizens should call a local EMS or the Texas Department of Health at (512) 453-7550 for materials or for more information on training.

Horse Club to hold playday Saturday

The Runnels County Horse Club will have an open playday on Saturday, September 23, at the roping arena, located on the Bronte Highway North 158, at 7 p.m.

The playday will consist of barrels, pole bending, rescue race, relay race, flag race, ride a buck and musical race.

Cost will be 50 cents per event entered. Ribbons will be awarded to winners of each event.

For further information, contact any member of the Horse Club.

Lawrence purchases 5 supermarkets from Furr's

Five West Texas supermarkets have been purchased by Sweewater grocery executive Jerry Lawrence, Furr's Inc. announced in Lubbock last Thursday afternoon.

Jan Friederich, CEO of Furr's, said three Super Duper stores in Clyde, Eastland and Winters were sold, along with two Furr's stores in Brownwood and Breckenridge.

"These stores were on the outskirts of our delivery area and their locations, age and volume of business combined to work against them in our long-range plans for development," Friederich said.

The Furr's announcement said that Lawrence will continue to operate the stores and that he is taking applications from employees who wish to stay on.

"Mr. Lawrence can make these stores an effective contributor to his operation," Friederich said.

Lawrence, 55, a former mayor of Sweetwater, now operates 16 supermarkets in West Texas and Oklahoma, including two Fiesta Food locations in Abilene.

First Baptist Church plan to celebrate 100th anniversary

The First Baptist Church is making plans to celebrate its 100th anniversary Sunday, March 18, 1990, with a homecoming and special services.

A former pastor, the Rev. Harry Grantz, of Amarillo, will preach at the morning service.

A catered noon luncheon will be served at the Community Center with singing and fellowship to follow. Other events will be announced later.

The Centennial Committee is asking for your help in locating all former staff members.

Members of the committee are David Speegle, chairman; Susan Conner, Arlene Boles, George Mostad and Charlsie Poe. The Rev. Glenn Shoemaker is pastor and ex officio member.

Lisa Howard could use some help for her heart

"Why me?"

Lisa Howard said she sometimes gets angry and asks that question. But most of the time she just tries not to think about the congenital heart condition that will one day require a heart and lung transplant.

Lisa, 22, has Eisenmenger's Syndrome. Eight years ago, doctors said she wouldn't survive one year.

Lisa fooled the doctors, but the Howards must raise almost half the cost of the $185,000 operation before Lisa can join a donor waiting list.

"We just need help," Lisa's mother Viola Howard said. "It might be a week, it might be a year."

A fund to raise the $85,000 needed to put Lisa on the waiting list has been set up at the American National Bank in Abilene.

Lisa's condition is caused by a birth defect in which a heart valve that keeps blood from the lungs failed to close at birth or a few days after birth.

The valve is open before birth because the unborn child receives its oxygen from its mother.

The failed valve, a condition called "patent ductus arteriosus,"

Clothing Room to be open Saturday

The Clothing Room of Main Street Church of Christ will be open Saturday, September 23, from 8 a.m. until 12 noon.

Persons in need of clothing are invited to come by and visit the Clothing Room.

can be closed surgically if found soon enough.

The Lisa Howard Heart Fund was set up. Viola Howard said, because people at the Houston Transplant Center urged her to begin raising money now to be ready when the operation is unavoidable.

The operation may cost even more, Viola Howard said, if the Houston hospital is not ready in time for Lisa. The operation would then be performed in California and cost more, she said.

Viola Howard said Medicaid would not take care of the cost, and insurance would "not touch the first $85,000."

Irene Fowler

Irene Fowler, of Madill, Oklahoma, died Sunday, September 10, 1989.

Born August 10, 1911 in Cooper, Texas, she moved to Winters with her parents. She was married in Winters to Hilton Fowler in 1928, and moved to Madill, Oklahoma in 1935. Her husband preceded her in death September 15, 1945.

She was a member of First Baptist Church and was a retired nurse's aid.

Survivors include two sons, Chester of Vidor, Texas and Tommy of Madill; four daughters, Faye Murphy of Abilene, Louise Renfro of Beaumont, Frankie Jarreau and Sarah Hawthorn, both of Vidor; a brother, Monroe Boles of Winters; three sisters, Ruby Bailey of Winters, Jewel Skaggs of San Angelo, and Florene Cambell of Ballinger; 15 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Services for Irene Fowler were held in Madill, Oklahoma at 2 p.m. September 12 in Watts Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Lyndale Adams officiating. Interment was in Woodberry Forest Cemetery.

Pirate Log

Last year, Mrs. Meyer's 5th and 6th grade classes wanted to have a project that would involve the students in doing something for the school, would let them interact with the people of the community, and let them have some fun. They decided to collect aluminum cans to raise money and use it to buy books for the school library. With the cooperation of the community, much can stomp from the students, and a trip to Abilene to sell the cans, they were able to purchase four new books. Those books have been placed in the library this year and our students are enjoying them very much. Thanks to Mrs. Jody Meyer and all who helped with the project.

Mr. Burnett's 1st and 2nd grade classes are studying water so they are making paper, sea aquariums.

Mrs. Sneed's 3rd and 4th grade classes are making a volcano in Science class that will erupt on Friday.

Mrs. Derington's 7th and 8th grade classes have begun making a Texas quilt in Social Studies Class. With each unit studied, something new will be added to the quilt.

Grades three through eight were fitted with their basketball shoes this week. They are anxious for basketball season to start.

Randy West, Deputy Sheriff for Runnels County, started the DARE program Thursday. This is a drug awareness and prevention program that will be presented one day a week, for seventeen weeks. We thank Mr. West and the Sheriff's Department for sharing this program with us.

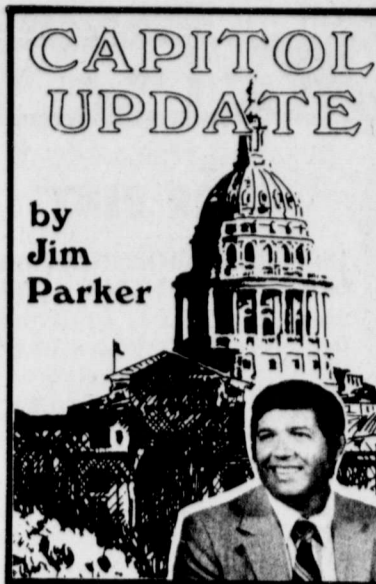

AARP looking for 1990 income tax volunteers

As the 1990 tax season approaches the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) is accepting applications of persons interested in assisting the elderly with their income tax.

Nationally, over 1.5 million persons were helped last season through the Tax-Aide Program co-sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service. In Texas over 80,000 persons were assisted, including many shut-ins.

Volunteers of all ages can perform this important service and AARP membership is not required. Training will be provided. Volunteers usually work four hours per week providing free income tax help to older adults in sites such as libraries, churches and senior centers.

AARP is the nation's largest organization of Americans 50 and older, retired and working.

On November 14 the Texas Legislature will be called back into session to consider Worker's Compensation once again. If the third time truly is the charm maybe the Legislature can get it right this time.

I have received some significant criticism for voting against both the House version of the Workers' Compensation "reform" package and the Senate version of the "reform" package. The truth is I didn't see a great deal in either one to warm my heart and brighten my outlook. Unfortunately, special interests have become so entrenched in and dependent upon the existing system that it truly has come to be something vastly different upon the existing system something vastly different and more complicated than a way to compensate injured workers and limit employers' liability.

You see, Workers' Compensation was originally intended to benefit the employer at least as much, if not more, than the employee. It limits employer liability to 401 weeks at the then current compensation rate. That rate is now $238 per week. In other words, if an employee were seriously injured on the job (excluding actual medical expenses or being totally and permanently disabled), the maximum benefit would be approximately $95,000. So much for astronomical workers' compensation settlements.

The system was truly designed to create a stable work place for both employers and employees. The employers benefit from limited liability, the employees benefit from the security of a standard that he does not, in theory, have to sue to get.

You say it sounds like a pretty good system? You get a gold star. It was a pretty good system until all the various interest groups became addicted to the ancillary benefits they receive from the system. They know who they are and they are not just the much maligned trial lawyers. They include, but are not limited to, plaintiff's defense attorneys, insurance adjusters and those who sue in bad faith or encourage such suits. I am convinced from my most recent experience that if an injured worker does not get an attorney, until the Industrial Accident Board can be beefed up to provide an increase number of case reviewers, some very unpleasant things are almost certain to happen to him or her. The system was never intended to be like this.

There is blame aplenty to go around and like all addicts, these interest groups just can't kick the habit. They have "farmed" the workers' compensation system for so long that the system has ceased to be a means to an end and has become an end in and of itself.

There can be no reform to any meaningful degree unless and until we return to the basic goal of providing stability and security for employers and employees, without regard to third parties, with premiums charged based upon claims made. Simply stated, the safer you are the less you pay.

I am desperately eager to vote for a good Workers' Compensation reform package. My attitude about the issue is not unlike the old saying about art. I don't know much about it but I do know what I like.

For a Workers' Compensation system, ideally, I believe the following provisions are necessary.

1. Premiums should be tied to claims for each individual employer with a reasonable time in which to establish a safety record. Premiums may be high for the first year but after a safety record is established, premiums must be reduced substantially for those providing a safe work place, both as a reward and incentive to maintain it.

2. Fees for attorneys should be tied to services rendered. The Industrial Accident Board should use the authority they presently have to determine what percentage of the reward should be paid in attorney's fees. It should be based on the amount of work the attorney was required to do on the case and should not automatically be set at the maximum of 25%.

3. There should be a schedule provided for specific injuries.

4. There should be provisions for deductibles to be paid by employee.

I may not see all of these provisions but when I see a Workers' Compensation bill that I like and one I can come home to defend, I will be the first to vote for it. As of yet, I haven't seen one.

4-H Club News

There will be a 4-H meeting on Monday, September 25 at 3:30 p.m. in the High School AG Building.

Anyone that is nine years old or in the third through 12th grade is invited to attend and join 4-H.

Each 4-H'er needs to fill out a registration form so that they get on the mailing list and sign up for the projects that they would like to participate in.

Patricia Hohensee and Mike Mauldin, County Extension Agents, will present a program on Parliamentary Procedure and tell us about the County Food Show coming up.

Refreshments will be served.

Sheep and Goat meeting to be held

There will be a meeting hosted by Coleman, Runnels, Concho and McCulloch counties for area sheep and goat raisers. This meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 26 at the Panther Creek School in Coleman County. The meal will begin at 6:30 p.m.

This meeting will be similar to the meeting we had last year with one new twist—we have added another complete program. This program was designed to give the audience two completely different programs and subjects to choose from, or give a program for the producer's spouse to participate in, whichever the case may be.

The program for this year's seminar will cover several topics. Program I will have Dr. Frank Craddock, Sheep & Goat Specialist from Uvalde. He will be discussing sheep requirements and what is needed to meet those for her to produce. Then we have Dr. George Ahischwede, Sheep & Goat Specialist from San Angelo. He will be covering how long it takes to change traits in a herd such as wool, size, etc. He will also discuss cashmere and its major points. Then on Program II, (the new one) we will have Lisa Shell representing Fibre Faire in San Angelo who will be giving a program on Home Wool & Mohair Spinning and Weaving. Lisa will actually be spinning and weaving during her portion of the program. We will also have Jimmy Cahill from Sonora, representing Ol' Sonora Trading Company, discussing Commercial Mohair Processing and the products.

As you can see, we have a program for everybody. It will be interesting even if you are not associated with the Sheep & Goat industry. So come down and join us. All we ask is that you call Kerry Shropshire, CE-AG in Coleman (915) 625-4519 or your local county agent by September 22 to let us know you'll be there so we can have enough food cooked for you.

Remember—that's September 26 at 6:30 p.m. at the Panther Creek School.

Keep eligibility for USDA Programs

If you rent or own farm land, you need to know about something called "Sodbuster." It's a provision of the 1985 Farm Bill that states if you break out highly erodible cropland for crop production, you may lose eligibility for USDA Programs.

The Soil Conservation Service can tell you if your land is highly erodible, and can help you maintain your farm program benefits.

Check with SCS before breaking out new land and stay eligible for farm program benefits.

WHS Homecoming 1989 set for October

This year homecoming will be October 20. The Blizzards will host Reagan County at 8 p.m.

The Homecoming Queen will be elected by the high school students. A Coming Home Queen will be chosen by the Ex-student Association. Both will be announced during the half-time ceremonies. This year the Homecoming Committee will be honoring the Classes of 1939 and 1964.

All exes are encouraged to attend. There will be a business meeting and reception for all WHS exes in the old gym immediately following the game.

Governor Bill Clements designates Young Farmer Week

The week of September 17 through 23 has been designated Young Farmer Week by Governor Bill Clements. The Young Farmers of Texas is an organization whose active membership is made up of people age 18 to 40 who are interested in agriculture and agriculture education. Young Farmers provides an excellent way for former FFA members and others interested to become involved in the agriculture of Texas.

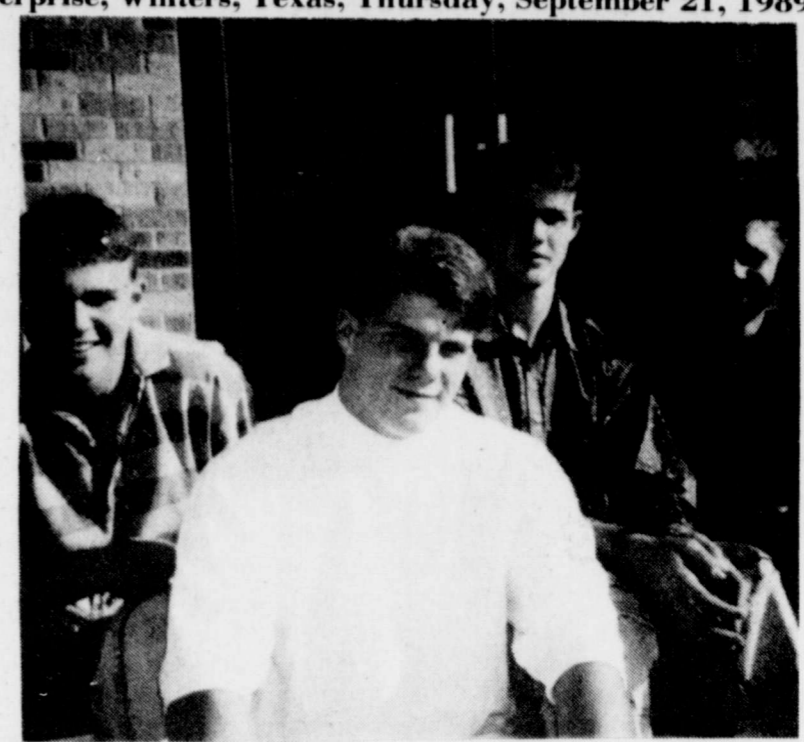

Young Farmer chapters provide not only quality education in agriculture and related fields but also provides the community with an organization that wants to "give back." Many chapters in Texas give scholarships to local students. Other chapters are involved in the local stock shows not only by donating labor but also by purchasing animals to support youth. Several chapters across the state are involved in the Adopt a Highway litter control program. Young Farmers are community minded.

Leadership development and fellowship are also roles Young Farmers chapters fill. From conducting a meeting to speaking up for agriculture to tractor pulls and equipment auctions, the Young Farmers are there.

On the local level, the Winters chapter has been actively providing community service by providing educational programs for area farmers and ranchers.

Other activities of the Winters chapter include tours to agricultural areas of Texas, such as the Valley of Texas, Lubbock area, and the San Angelo area. The chapter also pays the yearly rental on the stock trailer the Winters FFA Chapter uses. They also offer a scholarship to a graduating senior from Winters High School each year.

West Texas Fair Scramblers

Bowhunters reminded of archery regulations

Archers planning to hunt during Texas' archery-only hunting season for deer and turkey October 7-November 5 should be aware of state archery regulations, including some new regulations on the use of crossbows by handicapped persons.

Law enforcement officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department said the longbow, which includes recurved and compound bows, must be hand-held and hand-drawn with no mechanical devices built into or attached to the bow that would allow the archer to lock the bow at full or partial draw.

Also, no device to propel the arrow is permitted other than the energy stored by the hand-drawn bow, and the bow also must have a minimum peak draw weight of 40 pounds.

Arrows used in taking game animals and game birds may not be poisoned, drugged or explosive. Each arrow must bear the name and address of the user in a non-water soluble medium.

When hunting turkeys and any game animal other than squirrels, the arrow must be equipped with a broadhead hunting point that measures at least 7/8 of an inch in width and have a minimum of two cutting edges.

Crossbows are not authorized for use in hunting game birds or game animals except that persons having an upper limb handicap may use a crossbow to hunt deer and turkey during the archery-only season, October 7-November 5, provided: (1) no telescopic sight is attached to the crossbow, (2) the crossbow has a minimum of 125 pounds of pull, (3) the crossbow has a mechanical safety, and (4) the bow conforms with the requirements applicable to arrows as described above that are authorized for legal use with the longbow.

"Upper limbed handicapped person" means a person who has a permanent loss of the use of fingers, hand or arm in a manner that renders the person incapable of using a longbow, compound bow or recurved bow. While hunting deer or turkey with a crossbow, persons handicapped in this manner must have in their immediate possession a physician's statement certifying the extent of the disability.

FEDS aid Texas crime victims

U.S. Senator Phil Gramm has announced the award of $2,531,000 to the State of Texas by the Department of Justice to help support state and local agencies that provide services for crime victims and their families.

The award is from monies in the Crime Victims Fund in the U.S. Treasury that was established by the Victims of Crime in 1984. The fund is financed with fines and penalties assessed on convicted federal defendants.

Program guidelines require states to give priority to supporting programs that provide services to victims of sexual assault, spouse abuse and child abuse.

The Department of Justice is responsible for protecting citizens through its efforts for effective law enforcement, crime prevention, crime detection, and prosecution and rehabilitation of offenders.

Junior varsity wins 21-0 over Roscoe

The Winters Blizzard junior varsity team improved its record to 2-0 with a win over Roscoe Thursday night at Blizzard Stadium. The first win of the year for the J.V. was against Coleman, 21-0. The Winters J.V. dominated the game with an exceptional effort from both the offense and defense.

In the Roscoe game, Winters started off slowly by allowing Roscoe to mount two first half drives to within the Winters' 20 yard line. The defense tightened down and Roscoe turned the ball over on downs. The first half ended with Roscoe failing to score. The second half saw the blizzard J.V. take control of the game and finally ended the ballgame with a 21-0 win.

The team will travel to Hamlin this Thursday.

The 7th grade game will begin at 5 p.m. followed by the 8th grade at 6 p.m. and the J.V. will start at 7:30.

RRC levies fines

The Railroad Commission assessed a total of $27,500 in administrative penalties this week to eight oil and gas companies for problems under commission well plugging and pollution rules.

D.K.W. Energy of San Antonio was penalized $1,500 for a problem with one well on the C. C. Grobe lease in Bexar County; Gary Bucher and William R. Akers DBA Rover Oil Company of Fort Worth were fined $3,000 for a problem with one well on the Watkins lease in Brown County; W. J. Whitt of Moran was penalized $1,000 for one well on the F. G. Coates Unit lease in Shackelford County; Woodside Oil Company of Lubbock was fined $6,000 for a problem with one well on the E. Y. Murphy lease in Borden County; and Great South Oil Corp. of San Antonio was penalized $10,000 for one well on the Baird lease in Lee County.

Three operators agreed to pay penalties without admitting any violation of Commission rules. Jam Resources, Inc. of Caldwell paid $500 for one well on the Colvin No. 2 lease in Lee County; Service Clearing Corp. of Dallas paid $500 for one well operation Lisa needs "is not rare, but it is uncommon," said Dr. James Williams, a surgeon at Humana Hospital.

While heart transplants have become almost routine and increasingly successful, Williams said, not enough lung transplants are performed to show similar success.

"Compared to the alternative," Williams said, the risky operation is an attractive choice.

Ironically, salt—a food doctors advise most people to cut back on for health reasons—is one of Lisa's main weapons against her disease.

The disease causes high blood pressure of the lung, a condition not related to regular high blood pressure.

"There's nothing you can do for it," Lisa said. "I had to learn how to keep my red blood cells at a lower level."

"I eat a lot of salt," she said, "because salt kills red blood cells."

The disease often leaves Lisa so exhausted, she will sleep as much as 23 hours a day for several days.

Lisa's condition was diagnosed in 1979 when she became exhausted and weak after participating in junior high physical education classes.

Lisa, who now avoids physical exertion, said the doctors didn't think then that she would live one year.

"She fooled them," Viola Howard said, "but she can't fool them forever."

Editor's Note: This article was taken from The Abilene Reporter News. Lisa's sister, the former Sandy Howard was employed at The Winters Enterprise several years ago.

on the Cowan-McKinney "A" lease in Archer County; and Three P Operating Company of Newcastle paid $5,000 for problems with fluid oil and saltwater discharge from a storage tank on the Johnson H-S lease into Brushy Creek in Young County.

To date in 1989, the Commission has levied more than $739,000 in pollution and well plugging penalties. Last year, the Commission assessed some $951,000 in such penalties.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Our Founding Fathers, in order to secure the blessings of liberty for themselves and their posterity, did ordain and establish a Constitution for the United States of America, and

WHEREAS, It is of the greatest import that all citizens fully understand the provisions and principles contained in the Constitution in order to support it, preserve it and defend it against encroachment, and

WHEREAS, The two hundred second anniversary of the signing of the Constitution provides a historic opportunity for all Americans to learn about and recall achievements of our Founders, and to reflect on the rights and privileges of citizenship, as well as its attendant responsibilities, and

WHEREAS, The independence guaranteed to the American people by the Constitution should be celebrated by appropriate ceremonies and activities during Constitution Week, September 17 through 23, as designated by proclamation of the President of the United States of America in accordance with Public Law 915.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Randy Springer by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of Winters in the State of Texas do hereby proclaim the week of September 17 through 23 as Constitution Week, in the City of Winters, and urge all citizens to pay special attention during that week to our Federal Constitution and the advantage of American Citizenship.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Texas to be affixed at September this 16th day of the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighty-nine and the Independence of the United States of America, the two hundred thirteenth.

Signed Randy M. Springer

$500 Awards offered to young wheat farmers

Young Texas wheat farmers are eligible to enter an essay contest to compete for three $500 leadership development awards of which 60 will be awarded nationally. The program of the Texas Wheat Producers Association and National Association of Wheat Growers is sponsored by Monsanto Agricultural Products Company. The awards are designed to acquaint young wheat farmers with the wheat association organizational structure, leadership development, policy development and the education aspects of attending wheat organizational meetings.

The $500 awards are to defray the cost of the winners to participate in their choice of either the National Association of Wheat Growers 1990 Annual Convention to be held in San Antonio, Texas in January, or the NAWG Summer Leadership Conference to be held in Steamboat Springs, Colorado next July.

Any Texas wheat farmer between the age of 20 to 35 years, who has not previously participated in either of the NAWG meetings mentioned above is eligible to enter. The winners are selected based upon the content of their brief 50-word essay, explaining why they would like to participate in a NAWG meeting.

Entry forms may be obtained by either writing or calling Rodney Mosier, of the Texas Wheat Producers Association office (803 Texas Commerce Bank Bldg., 2201 Civic Circle, Amarillo, TX 79109; Telephone number 806/352-2191). The deadline for entering the contest is November 1, 1989.

Memo from the Chamber of Commerce

Congratulations to the Coaches and Blizzard team of Winters High. Both of our teams are have been winning their games and we want you to know we are proud of you and the great efforts you have been putting forth.

Entries for the Annual Arts and Crafts Show are coming in to the office. If you plan to participate, give a call to 754-5210 and let us know. Every year the show gets better and this year will not be an exception. The entries indicate new items will be coming and new people. Booths are $25 for two days, electricity provided, $15 for outside booths.

The Lord's Acre Dinner and Auction will be held October 15 at noon in the Winters Community Center, sponsored by the First United Methodist Church.

Tickets will be available for the lunch: $4 for adults, $2 for children. The lunch will consist

Rex Allen returns to help with WTRC Cattlemen's Round-Up

Popular entertainer Rex Allen will arrive in Abilene this week to lend West Texas Rehabilitation Center a helping hand by voicing his support of the Cattlemen's Round-Up for Crippled Children.

Benefiting the Rehab Center in Abilene and San Angelo, the 30th annual Round-Up will feature eight livestock sales, including the cattle sale which is set for Monday, September 25, at Abilene Auction. A horse sale is slated for September 30, also at Abilene Auction, and the sheep and goat sale will be held October 9 at Junction Stock yards. All sales begin at 1 p.m. Special sales offering live stock donated by ranchers throughout the southwest are scheduled in Haskell, September 23; Coleman and Stephenville, October 4; San Saba, October 12; and Brownwood, October 24.

A long-time celebrity friend of West Texas Rehab Center, Allen will speak to WTRC board members during their quarterly meeting Wednesday (September 20) in the Gist Memorial Conference Center.

Also on Allen's agenda are appearances Thursday (September 21) at a breakfast honoring volunteer CRCC chairmen and at a press conference at WTRC's cattle pens.

Known by fans of all ages as the narrator of Disney feature films, Allen is a popular spokesman whose entertain-

Deadline for entering Sorghum Grain Contest nears

The deadline for entering the 1989 Grain Sorghum Yield and Management Contest sponsored by National Grain Sorghum Producers Association (NGSPA) is approaching. Entries must be marked at least thirty days prior to harvest of the contest field and harvest results must be mailed to National Grain Sorghum Producers Association by midnight December 1, 1989.

Winners will be named at the county, state and national levels. National and state winners will be recognized at a banquet during the NGSPA winter meeting at the Wyndham Hotel in Corpus Christi, Texas, February 11 and 12 1990.

National First Place winners in each division, irrigated and non-irrigated, will win a trophy and a cash award of $1,000 from NGSPA. In addition, the top three national winners in each division are eligible to attend the Leadership 2000 Seminar sponsored by Ciba-Geigy and NGSPA. The seminar, to be held in Corpus Christi on February 13 and 14, is a training program designed to help sorghum producers develop leadership and communication skills.

"We are pleased to provide the national winners with the opportunity to attend the Leadership 2000 program. The workshops will be led by experts in their respective fields. The winners will acquire leadership
