PRICE 50 CENTS

NUMBER 41

We're #1! Members of the WHS Flag Corps are shown with the first place trophy they received in Saturday's Winterguard competition at Lubbock. The troupe from Winters beat seven other contenders in the class 2-A division, and was only one point behind the overall point winner, Andrews, a 5-A school.

From the left are Alisa Presley, Diane Abernathie, LisAnne Smith, Tina Melton, Brooke Killough, Loy Blackshear, Mandy Hall, Jennifer Matthews, Kristin Deike, Brenna Mikeska, and Angela Bryan.

The precision team will perform their award-winning routine for the public on Monday, October 14 at 7 p.m. in the gymnasium. See related story on page 6

Emotions and helmets are high in celebration of the Blizzards' 40-7 victory over the Jim Ned Indians.

Blizzards blast Indians

Winters found its offense Friday night with an overwhelming win over the Jim Ned Indians 40-6.

David Roman ran for five touchdowns, leading the Blizzards to their first victory of the year.

On the opening offensive attack, Roman scampered 38 yards for the Blizzards' first touchdown. Jamey West kicked the extra point to make it 7-0.

Winters' excitement was short-lived as the Indians returned the next kickoff 89 yards for a touchdown. The kick failed, leaving the score 7-6.

The Blizzards quickly regained control of the game and Johnny Rodriguez scored next on a 9-yard run midway through the first quarter after a good drive by the Blizzard offense. West again made the extra point and the score was 14-6.

A good, aggressive defense by Scott Thorpe and Jody Guy kept the Jim Ned offense at bay most of the night. Adrian Albarado and Brandon Boles added interceptions to help stop any Indian offensive charge.

David Roman continued on the offensive with a 14-yard touchdown run in the second quarter and 5 and 91-yard runs in the third quarter. Roman ended up with 18 carries and 242 yards.

The offensive line seemed to continually open holes to allow the backs to make good yardage on almost every play. Playing on

Monte Baker and Jody Guy suffered sprained ankles during the game but should be ready for Friday night's contest with Hawley.

The Blizzards play the Bearcats at Hawley on Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Winters takes on Hawley Bearcats

The next district opponent for the Blizzards is the Hawley Bearcats. Hawley is 4-1 overall and 2-0 in district.

The Bearcats beat Jim Ned handily and won over Haskell last week 28-6. Winters lost to Haskell the week before by a score of 15-14.

In the Harris ratings, Hawley is ranked 107th and Winters is ranked 145th. Harris picks Hawley to beat the Blizzards by 12.

WTU lowers rates

Customers of West Texas Utilities Co. have some good news in the form of lower costs for electricity beginning with October bills. The lower costs are produced by a one-time credit and a reduction in the fuel cost portion of the bill.

"Our continuing efforts to lower boiler fuel costs and related transportation costs were successful and prompted the reduction," said, Gary Moore, WTU's area manager. Those efforts include renegotiation of supply and transportation agreements, construction of a gas pipeline to the Fort Phantom power station near Abilene to provide better access to suppliers, and improvements in the efficiency of some plants so they burn less fuel to make electricity.

The credit will be issued on customer's electric bills during the billing month of October. An average residential customer using 660 kilowatt hours of electricity will see a reduction of $13.17 on the bill that month. The actual reduction for each customer is based on their previous month's use of electricity.

The reduction in the fuel portion of the electric bill will be in effect for all upcoming months. According to Gary Moore, it will mean an average 3.5 percent reduction from costs last year.

The Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT) recently granted the company's request to reconcile fuel costs for April 1987 through December 1990 and adjust the fuel portion of the bill to recover projected fuel costs. WTU filed the request last February.

West Texas Utilities Co. serves 177,000 customers in a 52 county area that stretches from the Red River to the Rio Grande.

St. John's Lutheran Church to install new pastor

On Sunday, October 13, at 4:30 p.m. St. John's Lutheran Church of Winters will observe the installation of James Hanson as Pastor. Bishop Mark B. Herbener of the Northern Texas-Northern Louisiana Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America will be the presiding minister.

Clergy from the Rolling Plains Conference and other areas will be participating along with the officers of St. John's Lutheran Church parish.

Following the service, there will be a light supper and reception at 5:30.

The public is invited to attend this special service and reception.

Pastor James and Ramona Hanson

Pastor James (Jim) Hanson and his wife Ramona arrived in Winters on September 15, at which time they assumed the responsibilities of pastoring St. John's Lutheran Church. Pastor Jim will be officially installed in services on Sunday, October 13.

Prior to moving to Winters, the Hansons have served in Crookston, Minnesota; Glendive, Montana; and Hardin, Montana.

Jim is a graduate of St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minnesota, and Luther Northwestern Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. His father was also a Lutheran pastor and his three brothers are all members of the clergy.

Pastor Jim and Ramona have five children: Nathan, a pastor in American Falls, Idaho; Kathryn, a teacher in Odessa; John, a pastor in Waupaca, Wisconsin; Paul, a teacher in Odessa; and Timothy, who is employed by an environmental engineering corporation in Minneapolis. The Hansons have four grandchildren, Ezekiel, Samuel, Anna, and Peter.

Jim enjoys golf, photography, singing and writing. He has written four clergy study-type books and hopes to complete additional books.

Ramona enjoys many types of handwork and sewing. She also "makes the best bread and apple sauce" according to Jim.

When asked about his feelings of living and serving in Winters, Pastor Jim replied, "We're rural people and enjoy the clergy life in rural areas. We're grateful for the friendly, open community and congregation at St. John's."

Winters ReHAB Roundup chuckwagon breakfast

Join the Winters ReHAB Roundup for a cowboy breakfast Friday, October 11, 6:00-8:30 a.m. at Peoples National Bank parking lot. The ReHAB Chuckwagon will be here asking Winters to show support for the 1991 Cattleman's Roundup for Crippled Children. Make a donation or pledge of livestock and then bring your Brandin' Iron -- you'll get to brand the chuckwagon. The breakfast is for everyone and is free, but the ReHAB is going to ask for a donation of either livestock or cash. To arrange for pick up of your livestock call Gary Pinkerton at 754-5310 (office) or 754-4394 (home), Randall Conner at 754-5373 (office) or 754-5760 (home) or Mac Sayles at 754-5526 (office) or 554-7884 (home). Livestock donations may also be brought to the breakfast. A pen will be available.

OIL BUSINESS . . .

By Reg Boles ©1991

As you may recall, we were discussing the topic of gas proration and its complications and consequences.

We left off with how ineffective the current system utilized by the Texas RRC is, and how a solution would have to be developed for gauging demand in a more effective way.

Assuming that could be done, would prices be affected?

Looking at it from a simple supply-demand perspective, one would think it would help keep prices stable for the most part. Proration, at least in theory, should provide a smoother price transition in times of demand changes, also.

Let me try to explain.

For example, if a proration system that works is in place, and if demand starts to slip, as it is now, then the system should prevent prices from dropping immediately. Instead, prices would drop, but in a more deliberate manner, because the loss in market would be shared by all producers. No one producer would be allowed to flood the market with gas, he/she would be restrained by his/her share of the allowable.

Theoretically, the total allowable would roughly equal the amount of gas that was needed for that period.

In the opposite situation, the amount of gas supply would only be allowed to increase to meet demand. Prices would therefore not escalate too quickly, since a supply would be somewhat assured.

The idea is to keep prices in a range that allows for long term planning and tries to smooth out the peaks and valleys of petroleum supply and demand.

All fine in theory, but will it work?

Maybe. If someone doesn't follow the rules, the whole thing falls apart.

Is it fair?

A tough question. Proration is a market control method that has been justified over the years by saying it was a 'conservation measure.' While it is true that proration only controls the supply and must change as demand changes (an outside market force), the proration system is an artificial market control. And, although it does not set price, it does affect price, so it provides market influence.

For the pure 'free-marketer,' it is an aberration from the natural law. For those in the gas selling and producing business, it is a possible lifeline.

It is hard to say if proration will really help solve the problems in the natural gas market, but proponents say it should be given a chance to work. The RRC creates a current method is not so bad, while admitting it is flawed. The consumer groups say it is another way to raise prices at the expense of the consumer.

At this juncture, there has only been discussion with no real action to reform the proration system. If the success of the oil proration system in the 1960's is any indication, maybe gas proration should be improved to become a market force to get the gas market through the current trough. But, nobody really asked me, did they?

A review of the Hill Country Firemen's Convention

Fastest time for 6-Lady Pumper Team went to these Winters ladies: From the left, Betty Easterly, Teresa Davis, Jill Bredemeyer, Debra Lindsey, Rhonda Cook, and Rebecca Smith (kneeling). The winning time was 18.53 seconds.

Murray Cleary of Sonora, left, displays the trophy she won for the One-Lady Hose Race at the convention. The traveling trophy has been established in honor of Mrs. Nina Bedford (right) who is a charter member of both the Winters Auxiliary, established in 1948, and the Hill Country Firemen's Auxiliary.

Teresa Davis turns on the water after connecting her 50-ft. hose during the 3-lady race.

Winters Fire Chief, Johnny Merrill gives the welcome address to approximately 275 attendees of the Hill Country Firemen's Convention. Winters served as host for the semi-annual convention.

Poe's Corner

by Charles Poe

Katherine Frieberger of Dallas sings Runnels Is My County, My Home Sweet Home for the first time on the streets of Winters from the back of a pickup. David Guion, composer of the song, is at the piano.

Guion had his problems

David Guion's dream of concert hall fame was shattered when he was forced to return home in 1914 by the outbreak of World War I.

Disappointed but not defeated, Guion found employment in Texas colleges, and he tried his hand at composition. Some of his original works attracted the attention of music publishers in New York, and by 1918 he had manuscripts accepted by two large firms.

Teaching and a limited recognition in the concert world were not enough, so in 1930 Guion decided to try his luck in New York City. He arranged an audition with the music director of the Roxy Theater and was soon awarded a contract for a week-long appearance.

Guion was the star, supported by several well-known singers, the Roxy Symphony orchestra, the Roxy Male chorus, and the Roxyettes, a group of 32 dancing girls. The exposure at the Roxy brought contracts with NBC Radio, several individual radio stations, and an awareness of the man and his music across the nation.

Among the tunes that were widely heard after the 1930 success, it was "Home on the Range" that caught the public's ear, by 1934 it was the most popular tune on the air, but its performances were stopped by legal action. Guion, NBC, and several publishers were jointly sued for half a million dollars. They were accused of infringement of copyright. The plaintiff argued that Guion had used material composed in 1905 as the basis for his arrangement. The court ruled that all versions of the song were in public domain.

Guion's version, containing new music for the third stanza and therefore unique, regained its position on the airwaves; and its acceptance by the public continued after the short interruption. Guion's association with the song reached high places; in 1936 President Franklin D. Roosevelt phoned him and called him "Mr. Home-on-the-Range."

David Guion's association with Baylor University came only in recent years. He had already deposited some of his manuscripts and printed music in two libraries. About 75 items were in the Fine Arts Department at the University of Texas in Austin, and 23 manuscripts were in the Dallas Public Library Music Manuscript Collection.

Early in the 1970's Guion sought a suitable depository for his remaining materials, and decided on Baylor University at Waco. Box after box of material arrived, all of it to be identified and stored in the Crouch Music Library.

Guion's gift to Baylor was the accumulation of personal treasures from a lifetime of activity. Boxes of studio photographs and snapshots, scrapbooks, files and piles of clippings, contracts, letters, manuscripts of his unpublished memoirs and his story about Mlle. Stinky, a favorite dog. In addition there are manuscript copies of music, arrangements and published editions of many of his pieces, and recordings of his work.

Baylor responded eagerly to Guion's gift and Dean Daniel Sternberg presented some of his work on several occasions with the composer as the honored guest. It was the second song recital that was remembered. On July 8, 1973, the concert in Roxy Grove Hall, featured not only Guion's music, but the composer as accompanist, playing the piano for the entire program, as his favorite pieces were performed.

It was fitting that the final selection was a performance of "Home on the Range," the song that Guion had introduced to New York at the Roxy Theater. This time it was "Home on the Range" in Roxy Grove Hall at Baylor. Guion was again on the stage, and the audience was applauding the Cowboy Composer.

Spirit Filled Happenings

By Dixie Leverett, Church Editor,
Guiding Light Spirit Filled Baptist

In the spring of 1982 I had a dear friend that was younger than I with two children, a girl 10-years old and a little boy 7-months old. Cindy had waited 9 years to have this baby because she had had her spleen removed and had to build up her health.

When I invited her on Friday night she seemed to be doing so good and was on top of the world. I left the next day to go on a short trip with my family, and when I returned on Tuesday, there was a note on my door to call this other friend immediately.

I rushed to the phone and placed the call and she said she had some bad news for me; Cindy had died on Monday. The day that I had left, Saturday, she has caught the flu and with no spleen it spread very rapidly through her body.

It was a very sad time for me and her son whom I kept for over two years after her death and we moved to Winters. Every time I looked at him it reminded me of how fast our mortal lives can be over.

I never got to say goodbye to her; but I know that I will see her sweet self in Heaven someday. I will never forget how much I have to look forward to. Thank you Lord Jesus for your promise of everlasting life.

Matthew 16:26-27: For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? For the son of man shall come in the glory of his father with his angel: and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

Our children will be treated to an ice cream party and a skating party for their attendance in Sunday School and Children's Church. Great going! You are a fabulous bunch of young people.

We are planning a Hallelujah Night for October 31. There will be Christian fellowship, games, prizes, and lots of fun for children and adults alike.

Guiding Light Spirit Filled Baptist Church is located at 1017 N. Crier in Winters, Texas and is a spiritual light growing ever brighter in a seemingly darkened world. Reverend John Haley is pastor.

First United Methodist Church
Winters, Texas

1891-1991
CELEBRATING OUR 100TH ANNIVERSARY

The First United Methodist Church historical marker was dedicated in 1919. The marker is located on the North East side of the church. Evelyn Yates Mills, daughter of charter members, cut the ribbon for the special historical dedication. The first church building of any denomination in Winters was the Methodist Church.

The present church is the fifth church to be built on the same site. The church was constructed in 1970 and the first service was held on January 10, 1971. Dedication services were held on July 16, 1978, when the church was debt free.

The sanctuary features the Casavant-Freres Organ. The present membership is 456 members with about 100 being non-residents. There is an average attendance of 127 in morning worship. Forty-four pastors have served the church the first 100 years.

Two descendants of charter members of our church have been lifetime members of the Methodist Church in Winters. They are Evelyn Yeats Mills and Lucille Adams Hill.

Evelyn Mills, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Yeats. The Yeats first settled near Winters on Bluff Creek, in 1889. Mr. Yeats built a four room house and since there was no Methodist Church nearby, he invited a Methodist preacher to hold religious services in their home. As a result of these services the Methodist Church was organized in Winters, August of 1891.

Evelyn was born March 7, 1895 in Winters. She was an active member of the local church many years. She enjoys working in her beautiful flower gardens. She married Halley Mills. They had four children, Leland of Winters, Kenneth of Monahans, Carroll who died in 1946, and Weldon who died in 1989.

Lucille Adams Hill is the granddaughter of Georgia Adams, a charter member of the Methodist Church in Winters. Lucille is the daughter of the late John and Maude Adams, both active members of the church for many years. Lucille married Emory Hill in Winters in December of 1939. Their daughter, Maudella Hill Reeves lives in Abilene. Lucille enjoys hard work and has made many items for this years Lord's Acre.

Lucille is also furnishing many interesting historical items which will be on display. These are not only church related items but also a picture album of people of our community in the early 40's. There are pictures of persons serving in the armed forces and other local pictures of interest of the community. This album belonged to Lucille's late sister, Alice Adams, a life-time member of the Methodist Church in Winters. These historical items of the church and album will be of great interest to many of you.

Join the congregation this week-end, Saturday, Oct. 12th and Sunday October 13th. Saturday, we will begin exciting activities at 10:00 a.m. at the church, serving coffee and juice. Historical items will be displayed. At 11:00 a.m. special worship service will be held in the sanctuary. The youth of the church will serve lunch in the fellowship hall following the service.

The annual Lord's Acre will be held Sunday, October 13, at the community center. Tickets for the Lord's Acre are available from members of the church or may be purchased at the door. An auction will be held following the lunch. A group from Tolar will be entertaining both at the Saturday worship service and at the Sunday Lord's Acre luncheon.

All past members, present members, out of town guests, and friends of the community are invited to join with the congregation to praise God for our heritage and rejoice with us in this special 100th Anniversary of Methodism in Winters.

Evelyn Mills cut the ribbon as the late Rev. Roy Crawford watched. The ribbon-cutting ceremony took place in 1968.

Student Council sponsors "Kiss the Pig" contest

The WHS student council met for a regular meeting on October 2, 1991, at 5:30 p.m. Several items were discussed.

Homecoming plans are taking form. Beginning October 21, the student body will be involved in different activities throughout the week. There will be a theme each day with the student body dressing up and participating in activities for the day.

The pep rally on Homecoming Friday afternoon promises to be very special. The student council is sponsoring a "Kiss the Pig" contest. Students will be voting for a teacher to kiss a live pig during the pep rally. The student body is really looking forward to this event.

There will be a Homecoming Dance on Saturday night, October 26, at the VFW building. The dance is sponsored by the WHS student council and is open to all WHS students, faculty, school board members and ex-students. The dance will be from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. and will feature the band, "Southern Cross". Cost of the dance will be $5.00 per couple and $3.00 per individual. Refreshments will be included in the admission price. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed.

The WHS student council voted to have cards printed with a "Don't Drink and Drive" message. These cards will be included in all the Homecoming Dance invitations. The week of Homecoming is National Red Ribbon Week, and the student council will be linking the two together with the "Don't Drink and Drive" message. Student council members will also be handing out red ribbons on Wednesday, October 23. All students are urged to wear one.

Student council representatives have adopted other students at WHS as their secret pals. Every student has a secret buddy and everyone has enjoyed the nice notes and goodies left in their lockers. Members were urged to continue the surprises for their buddies.

In addition, the fall district convention was discussed. All members are interested in attending but spaces are limited. The convention will be held at Tarleton University in Stephenville on October 28. A group of representatives and officers will be attending.

The WHS student council continues to grow with more "work-on" members joining the organization. The council now has 40 members, and this does not include the officers.

Laura Dees, council sponsor, is excited to see such interest in school activities and Blizzard Pride.

Indians defeat Winters J.V.

The Jim Ned Indians defeated the Winters J.V. last Thursday by the score of 20-6. The Blizzard team scored first to jump out to an early 6-0 lead. The Winters offense put together its best scoring drive of the season by going 50 yards on 9 plays. Bruce Reyes scored on a 10 yard run. The extra point attempt failed, making the score 6-0 in favor of Winters, ending the first quarter.

In the second quarter the Indians scored on a two yard run. The two point conversion was good, making the score at halftime 8-6 in favor of Jim Ned.

The Indians scored again in the 3rd and 4th quarters. All the Indians scores were set by long runs or passes.

The Blizzard offense did show signs of coming around. "This was by far the best offensive game we have had this season", stated Coach Cathey. "Even though we did not score many points we were able to move the ball. Our own mistakes stopped us, not the other team."

Coach Cathey said several of the Blizzards had a fine game. Brock Guevara led the offense, while Chane Reagan and Lance Donica led the defense.

The Winters J.V.'s next game will be at home this Thursday as they host the Hawley Bearcats.

Plan now for special Homecoming weekend, October 25 & 26

8th Grade Breezes beat Jim Ned

The Winters Breezes defeated the Jim Ned Indians 14-6 in a very hotly contested ballgame. Again as in each game of the past two weeks, the Breezes had to call upon their defense to pull it out.

The Breezes scored first on a five-yard run by Jerry Esquivel late in the 2nd quarter. In the 3rd quarter, the Breezes made a big stand and finally recovered an Indian fumble on the one-yard line. The Indians finally scored on a long pass play on the first play of the 4th quarter. The game was tied 6-6.

The Breezes began a 70 yard, 14 play drive, culminated by a 9 yard touchdown pass from John Belew to John Biddix. Jerry Esquivel ran the 2 point conversion for the final 14-6 score. The Breezes had 1 fumble recovery by Kevin Conner and 2 interceptions, 1 by Michael Mostad and 1 by Jesse Ortiz.

The Breezes play at home against Hawley on October 10.

Go Blizzards!

David Roman covers some of the 242 yards he gained against the Jim Ned Indians. Roman scored five touchdowns in the 40-7 victory for the Blizzards.

Band boosters update

Congratulations, Winters High School Flag Corps! Winters was well represented at the Midland State Flag Corps competition on Oct. 5, as many parents and fans cheered the Flag Corps while they were presented a huge trophy honoring the Class 1-A and 2-A State Champions....Winters! Booster members enjoyed seeing the video of the competition at their meeting on Oct. 7.

The Winters Blizzard Band will participate in the October 26 marching contest at Shotwell Stadium in Abilene. Everyone is encouraged to attend and support the band while also enjoying the bands from other schools.

Mr. Henry announced that plans are underway for the Band Festival to be held in Winters in late April or early May. The twirlers have been fitted for their "furs" and will soon be wearing them during their performances.

Just in time for the holidays, the elementary, junior high, and high school band members are selling gift items to raise funds for their future projects and trips. You can do some early shopping and support these kids, too, by listening to their sales-pitches and buying their products.

The next Band Booster meeting will be on Nov. 4 at 7:00 p.m. in the band building. Please attend and show your children you are interested in their band and what they are doing.

Museum news

October was designated as membership month at the meeting of Z.I. Hale Museum members Tuesday at the Rock Hotel. Dues are $10 for individual or family, $100 for lifetime membership. Dues are from October 19 to October 1992.

The museum belongs to the community and those who pay dues are entitled to vote.

Kay Colbum, president, presided, and Selma Dietz read minutes of the previous meeting, which were approved as corrected.

Financial report for the Museum and Rock Hotel was presented by Edna England, treasurer. A fund is being set aside for repairs on the hotel.

Mary Margaret Leathers, curator, announced that Nina Hale had given several antiques to the museum and they had been classified. She also said that Helen Crenshaw, Green Thumb worker, had been recertified.

Wanda Smith, special exhibits director, said that she and her helpers, Norma Eoff and Hattie Belle Bishop, were making plans for the quilt show November 8th and 9th. They are asking everyone to bring their quilts. Some new features will be added to the show.

Members voted to sponsor the community lunch at the Rock Hotel, Thursday noon, on October 17. A planning committee was appointed.

Gerald Smith, coordinator of house and grounds, announced that the premises would be in order for all events, including the Baldwin community reunion and the reunion of the 1936 WHS graduating class, Saturday, October 26.

Directors have been working for some time on revising by-laws. The membership voted to adopt them when they are presented by Mac Sayles during unfinished business. The revision was necessary to cover the Rock Hotel, new addition to the museum property.

Precision and poise are exhibited during the first place performance of the Winters Flag Corps during Saturday's competition.

Winters Flag Corps takes first at West Texas Auxiliary Championships

The Colorguard of Winters High School took the 1A-2A guard competition by storm. The guard made an impressive showing in their first competition of this caliber, which was held at Coronado High School in Lubbock, last Saturday, October 5th.

In the Preliminary Competition, Winters displayed true artistry as they performed their first selection to the 1979 New York hit musical "They're Playing Our Song".

The audience was fascinated by the amount of props, flags and individuals who made this production possible. By the end of the show, the audience was thoroughly enjoying the show, and not looking at the competition as such, but as an entertainment.

The Colorguard displayed professionalism and showmanship as they exited the floor to "Everything I Do, I Do For You" from the movie "Robin Hood".

The Guards were judged by Missy McCurry of Houston. At one point of the show the judge commented, "You make me want to sing along with ya'll." By the end of the performance the judge was convinced this was the winning show in the 1A-2A contest.

Scoring a 94 in Prelims, Winters had the second highest score in all of the 5A thru 1A units, one point short of Andrews, 5A-4A class.

Finalist's in the 1A-2A competition were Rankin, Iraan and Winters. All judges placed Winters in first place with a combined score of 276 out of 300 possible points.

The Guard also competed in Ensemble Competition. Divided into two groups for this competition, both groups earned a I rating, winning them individual medals.

The first group consisted of Loy Blackshear, Alisa Presley, Tina Melton, Diane Abemathic and Angela Bryan, performing to "Barbara Ann". The second group was made up of Brooke Killough, Jennifer Matthews, LisAnne Smith, Kristin Deike and Brenna Mikeska performing to "Cheyenne".

Celestino Sosa says, "As a choreographer and instructor, I find these young ladies willing to work and determined to succeed in all that they do."

I would like to invite the community of Winters to the performance of the Championship show on Monday, October 14, at 7:00 p.m. at the Winters High School gym.

I look forward to seeing you there."

The group would like to thank the parents who made it possible for the unit to succeed in their endeavors. A sincere thanks goes to Mr. Jim Matthews for the construction and design of the unit's props and to Rhea Parramore for the silks.

A big thank you goes to the Band Boosters; all would not be possible without the financial aid they have given.

Chamber Memo

Witches, witches, where are the witches?? Soon they will begin appearing in yards around town and in the windows of businesses downtown.

Judging will be held sometime the week of Halloween, so hurry and make your plans to have your yards and windows ready by October 28th. Please call or come by the Chamber Office to register your residence and yard for the contest. That way, our judges will know where you are located.

Children will be trick or treating downtown on Halloween evening, the 31st of October. Treats will begin downtown at 5:00 p.m., ending about 5:30 p.m. As they are treated, the children will be going up and down the sidewalks and anyone is invited to come to town just to watch the little ones in their costumes and funny faces.

Arts and Craft Reservations are coming into the office for the Show to be held November 8th and 9th. Get your entries in while there is still space available.

HALLOWEEN - Trick or Treat - Oct. 31st

ARTS & CRAFTS - November 8th & 9th, Lunch served both days

The Literary and Service Club of Winters will hold its annual Turkey Dinner on Friday, October 25, from 5:30 to 7:30 at the school cafeteria.

Cost for the meal which includes turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, green beans, candied yams, Texas toast, dessert and drink will be $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for children ages 10 and under.

Carry-out orders will be available.

Tickets may be purchased from any Literary and Service Club member or at the door.

The Literary and Service Club extends a special invitation to all ex-students and visitors to attend this meal for an enjoyable time of delicious food and fellowship prior to the Winters homecoming game.

Surveyor's office to be closed temporarily

The Runnels County Surveyors Office will be closed effective October 1, 1991 due to Felix Itz, longtime Runnels County Surveyor, moving to Fredericksburg for rehabilitation following his recent surgery. Mr. Itz came through the surgery with flying colors, despite the fact that he has attained the remarkable age of 101 plus.

Having family in Fredericksburg to watch after him during his rehabilitation will be a great comfort to him.

His address in Fredericksburg is:

Felix Itz
 % Knopp Nursing Home #1
 Hwy. 16 North
 Fredericksburg, Texas 78624
 Felix faithfully has served the County as Surveyor since 1958.

What a pear!
 Floyd Millorn displays a 3-lb. pear he picked from one of four pear trees in his orchard in the southern part of Taylor County. Mr. Millorn says only one of the trees has produced this larger-than-average crop which is perfect for canning.

Winters retirees travel by convoy to Missouri

Five couples from Winters decided to see another part of the country last month so they hooked up their travel trailers and hit the road.

Dorotha and Ray Laughon, Thelma and Kenneth Sneed, J.C. and Tommy Hodnett, Jack and Lorretta Pierce, and Arlene and Monroe Boles set out for Branson, Missouri.

The group traveled to Texoma the first night, then on to Branson the second day. They settled at the Pine Haven RV camp about five miles outside Branson, near White River, Lake Taneycomo below Tablerock dam and lake.

While in Branson, the group enjoyed a very comical show performed by Box Car Willie, Mel Tillis, Jim Nabors, and a wonderful violinist and fiddler named Shoji Tabuchi.

The Winters travelers also took a cruise on "The Lake Queen" which included a narrative story of the White River history and entertainment by two young singers during dinner.

After a week in Branson and meeting many other retirees from Illinois, Kansas, Wisconsin, Arizona, Pittsburg, and many other places, the group traveled to Eureka Springs, Arkansas. There they attended another good hill-billy jamboree, the Passion Play, and viewed the giant statue of Christ.

After traveling through much of Oklahoma and Arkansas, the adventurers ended their ten-day journey with a welcomed trip home to Winters.

New books at the Winters Library

- The Turkey War by Douglas Ringer
- The Calling by Sterling Watson
- The Jade Woman by Jonathan Gash
- The Woman Who Was God by Francis King
- Life Style by Peter Warner
- The Women's House by Joan Lingard
- The Garish Day by Rachel Billington
- Lilian's Story by Kate Greenville
- Aspen God by Janet Dailey
- Children's books
- Lucy and the Gift-Wrapped Guests
- My First Story Book
- Happy Birthday Water!

"Have trailer, will travel" say these Winters folks as they depart for Missouri. Left to right are J.C. and Tommy Hodnett, Raymond and Dortha Laughon, Arlene and Monroe Boles, Thelma and Kenneth Sneed, and Loretta and Jack Pierce.

Community of Caring Project S.A.F.E.

Childhood, where everyone begins, has the power of fable. Big people are supematural and the world is magic -- or far too often -- tragic.

This past June brought not only unpredictable weather and rain, unpredictable politics, and continued economic difficulties, but with it also the darker side of Winters families.

We broke a record (state wide) but not one to be proud of: 387 children over the past several months were victims of child abuse/neglect. One hundred thirteen (113) children were investigated for physical abuse, 126 for sexual abuse, and 123 cases for neglect. The Department of Human Services was busy.

We have 900 children within our school system and all of them deserve to be protected from this. These spiraling numbers represent a public outcry due to increased public awareness and education.

Our community may still be shocked, but we are progressing beyond the point of just being shocked and judgemental to the more important issue of being helpful.

Now the question. How? How can these children from dysfunctional families begin to change their fate?

Community of Caring update is written and contributed by various interested and concerned citizens of Winters.

Need invoices, statements, delivery tickets, or other office forms? Call The Winters Enterprise at 754-4958. We print almost anything!

The more we have learned about child abuse the more we have abandoned preconceived ideas about where and why it occurs. We have learned that one key to prevention is to bring the problem out in the open. We must teach the parents to overcome the fear of asking for help - a fear which could trap them into abusive behavior. And we must encourage community members to direct their resources (time, money, whatever...) to support and reach out to those parents, and not forget the children.

Parenting in the 90's will undoubtedly be as complex as it has always been. Parents who are preoccupied with their own struggles to survive are usually less equipped to look after the needs of their own children. Children have the right to a safe and secure environment and families belong together.

This city has the resources, people, and power to teach parenting skills and coping strategies which can be of help to families under stress or on the verge of abuse and neglect. Childhood should be a happy time.

Together we can make the magic happen

TIPS program going well

by Fran Kidwell

The Winters ISD TIPS program is continuing to do well. Third graders were added this past week, and beginning Monday, October 7, 4th, 5th, and 6th graders were admitted. The addition of these students made the total enrollment right at 80. This includes first through sixth graders.

One of the objectives of TIPS, besides providing a quality environment for after-school care is to assist students in tutorials and homework. Parents are encouraged to check with their children about the completion of assignments. In the event a child is unable to complete his homework during program time, he should be expected to finish it at home. During tutorials, reading and writing will be addressed as well as practicing multiplication facts and other math skills.

The children are enjoying a good snack each afternoon, thanks to a great deal of help from Mrs. Nell Ballard, director of cafeteria services in the district.

Children attending TIPS (Terrific Intermediate/Primary Students) may be picked up each afternoon in the first classroom of the Industrial/Arts building. All children are in this room watching a video (provided free of charge by Holloway's) so everyone will be in a central location when it is time to be picked up by their parents.

Back the Blizzards!

Texas Tech and A&M fans enjoy trip

On a chilly Saturday morning, several carloads of Winters residents headed for Lubbock to see an exhibition of college football.

Starting the trip from Main Street in Winters were Jim and Josh Lincycumb, Beth and Aaron Bradley and Judy and Marie Spill, and the Randall Conner family. Before the caravan got out of sight of the Winters water tower, there was a flat tire on the vehicle driven by Randall Conner, trip organizer. His passengers Mark Deike and J.W. Angel were expert flat fixers and the group was ready to roll.

Meanwhile, the group was expanded to include Allen, Gwen and James Andrae, Jennifer Prewitz; Mike, Jason and Justin Mitchell; George, Susan, Mary and Michael Mostad; Randall, Brandon and Jennifer Boles, and Robert Bedford. Joining the group at Sweetwater were Raider boosters Paul and Becky Airhart.

The first scheduled stop was a quick "pit" stop at Post. The journey continued on to the next meeting place at the edge of Lubbock. At that spot, Aggie boosters Charlie, Laura, Lance and Jamie Brown joined the group along with their passengers, Barrett Brown and Marcie Pritchard.

After gulping down an early lunch, the caravan made their way through Lubbock to the Tech campus. By this time the sun was shining and coats were quickly shed.

Meeting the gang at Jones Stadium were Charles, Jane and Ashley Allcorn, Wes and June Hays, Brent and Brad Mikeska, and the Scotty Belew family. Former Winters residents Roeneal and Phyllis Boles also joined the group.

A thrilling pre-game activity was the Tech sky diving team. Twelve parachuters jumped from 13,000 feet to land in the center of the playing field two minutes before kick-off.

Charles and Fran Kidwell came from the flag competition to join the gang at the stadium. There were also several Winters high school students sitting with the group. Although the game was less than exciting, the Winters group had a great time being together.

After the game, everyone met at a Lubbock restaurant for a good meal. College students from Winters, attending both Tech and A&M joined us there.

With sunburned faces and both high and low team spirits still remaining, the group agreed it had been a fun day in Raiderland (especially for the Aggies).

Tana Gibbs honored with baby shower

Tana Cheyenne Gibbs, infant daughter of Saffron and Kenny Gibbs, was honored with a baby shower, Sunday, October 6, at 3:00 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church, Winters.

Tana was born September 17, 1991.

Tana and her mother, Saffron, were honored guests.

Hostesses were: J'Lynn Cooper, Linda Dry, Sherry Kurtz, Michelle Knight, Sandy Mesey, Oneta McKnight, Carmela Polston, Marthiel Russell, Eva Leta Smith, Marsha Smith, Sue Spill, and Deedra Yates.

Ballinger FUMC to host Lord's Acre on Oct. 12

First United Methodist Church of Ballinger will conduct its annual Lord's Acre Festival on Saturday, October 12 at the church fellowship hall.

A Children's Fair will begin at 2:30 p.m. for children of all ages. Festival goers may browse at the Country Store, Gifts Galore and Granny's Attic, beginning at 4 p.m.

An all-you-can-eat BBQ supper will begin at 5:30 p.m. Cost of the meal is $5 for adults and $3 for children under age 12. Carry-out orders available by calling 365-2323.

An auction, starting at 6:30 p.m. will conclude the day's activities.

CONFEDERATE POSTMASTER...
With the election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, John H. Reagan, a U.S. congressman from Texas, and others began planning a secession convention. Reagan was sent, in 1861, as a Texas congressman to the new Confederate government. President Jefferson Davis appointed him Confederate Postmaster General. In May of 1865 Reagan and Davis were captured by Union troops. Reagan spent 22 weeks in a Union prison before returning to Texas.

Crews News

by Hilda Kurtz

The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail instead of his tongue.

Bernie Faubion and Linda Duggan hosted the Saturday night supper. Only a small crowd came. The farmers were probably still in the fields. After the 5:30 p.m. meal, President Dale Duggan held a brief business meeting. Bernie read the minutes and Linda read the treasurer's report. There was some discussion on the Halloween Carnival on Saturday, October 26th.

Eileen and Marque are the committee members. They have an early reminder; bring cakes for the cake walk and prizes of any kind for Bingo games. There will be more on this Halloween Carnival later in the news.

Melvina Gerhart and Selma Dietz will be the hosts for the November supper.

After the business meeting, Archie Lancaster from North Runnels Hospital held the CPR class. Three EMT trainers helped out. Jeremy, son of Eileen and Mike Prater, was the youngest person in class to be certified.

The Mike Prater family and Carolyn and Jerry Kraatz were at the Jim Ned school football game to watch Chad Kraatz play on Thursday.

Doris Wood and her two grandsons, Jim and Aaron Calcote, spent the weekend in Ft. Worth with relatives and took in the T.C.U. and Arkansas football game. Arkansas won.

Eileen Prater attended the Chapter I advisory committee meeting at Winters High School. Afterward she and Mike attended the square dance lessons at the community center.

On Friday Eileen carried son, Jeremy, to his doctor in Abilene, and later shopped.

Visiting the Bill Mathis family over the weekend, were her brother John and Marie Whaley and their children, Alison and Cole, of Denson, also a cousin, Helen Alexander visited.

Sorry to hear Harvey Mae Faubion has been having a lot of trouble coughing, which cracked three of her ribs, last week. Her brother, Walter Pape and Gladys Cotton came for a visit Saturday.

Brother Oscar and Janie Fanning, from Abilene, Jack and Juanita Sheilds, Karen, Wesley, John and Stephine McGallian from Wingate had Sunday dinner with Nila and Therin Osborne. Louise Osborne and Nila Osborne were in Ballinger on Sunday to see Stephine McGallian play soccer.

Randall Kurtz of Ballinger, got off the tractor Monday to eat with me.

Gary Hill of Eastland spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Claudia. Mr. and Mrs. James Lanhan of Abilene came during the week.

Chester McBeth spent Saturday with his sister, Mable White, and enjoyed dinner and a nice visit.

Georgia Gibbs attended a baby shower for her great-granddaughter, Tana Gibbs, at the Methodist fellowship hall in Winters on Sunday afternoon.

Connie and Georgia Gibbs surprised Adeline Grissom when they came for a good old visit Monday night.

Ruth and Bradley Pape were in Ballinger shopping and visited with Carolyn Kraatz at the Pizza Hut. They all enjoyed pizza.

Library Board will meet Oct. 10th

Library Board to meet this Thursday evening, Oct. 10th, at 6:00 p.m. in the Library on North Main.

Plans were made at the last meeting to have a table set up at the Square Dance, October 26th, to receive donations to Friends of the Library.

Presently, volunteers are helping to get books in the Library catalogued and in order. As soon as this task is completed, there will be a "Big Book Sale," possibly at the Arts and Craft Show in November.

If you would like to donate time and/or money to your Community Library, contact the Library at 754-4251. Honorariums and memorials are always appreciated.

Letters to the Editor Policy

Letters to the editor on issues of general interest are welcomed by The Winters Enterprise.

Please write your name and address on the letter and include a phone number for verification. Letters submitted without signatures will not be published. We will consider requests to include initials only or a pseudonym in the published letter, but the letter with signature and phone number will be kept on file in the Enterprise office.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor:

I am writing in regard to unkept lots here in Winters. This complaint was brought before the city administrator with no results. The lots in question are in the 300 block of Murry street. These lots present a hazard to these little women with allergies. They are an eye sore, and varments are more prevalent.

This location is not the only one that needs to be cleaned up. With the help of the citizens of Winters, maybe something can be done. Concerned citizens who wish to make Winters a better and prettier place should call the City Hall to report these unsafe and unsightly locations.

David Carroll

Dear Editor:

We are asking the citizens of Winters to please take a moment and drive by the area where we live - the 300 block of Murry. Take a look at the weeds that are six feet tall. And in those weeds are trash, rats, and other undesirable. We have asked the city administrator to clean this area but we've gotten no help.

What about the city ordinance requiring clean lots? Must we continue to tolerate these terrible weeds and rodents?

We try to keep our properties clean and orderly. Is it too much to expect the City to do the same?

Letter to the Citizens

The area has been blessed this year with an abundance of rain. The rain has helped to make plants grow, but has also created a problem by making the weeds and grass grow. This growth has created a very real opportunity for fires and then accompanying destruction.

If each of you, both citizens and property owners, would cut the weeds and mow the grass it would decrease the possibility of fire. When "Old Jack Frost" gets here and kills all the vegetation, we will have perfect conditions for fires. So, we would like to ask for your assistance in cleaning up vacant lots and overgrown lots.

The City of Winters does not have the money or manpower to clean up the properties so your help and cooperation are essential. Since this is National Fire Prevention week, it is a perfect time to ask for your help.

Johnny Merrill
Fire Marshall

Dear Editor:

I am sure that a lot of people in the county suffer the same problem on taxation that I do. My business and building hasn't paid its way for the last three years. The building insurance lapsed 4 years ago because I was not able to afford it. Utilities except electricity were cut off for a year, and that has been disconnected for a good while. The building has been for sale three years but no one wants an old building even at the price that the equalization board puts on it. At the time for protest valuation, I was in the hospital. The value was $3,250 in 1990 and was considerable more than I paid for the building in 1972. Now it's valued at $11,110 dollars. It took part of my social security for three months to pay the taxes last year, now it's just a matter of time before it will have to go for taxes. I am not looking for sympathy for myself all together, but when the actual value of property goes down due to recession, and the adjusters go up especially to the elder people it is a great injustice. It's only a matter of time until the taxing entities own the property due to delinquent taxes. The property that once made a modest living has become a noose around the owners neck.

Yours truly,
Billy J. Emmert

Dear Editor:

There seems to be some confusion surrounding the Winters Public Library and the newly organized Friends of the Library Club. Perhaps I can clear up some details for the public through this letter.

The Friends of the Library Club and its' library board are strictly volunteers who donate time, effort, and funds into their own treasury to be used for books and provisions for the Winters Public Library.

We have no political power or vote on anything that pertains to the physical plant of the existing library or its budget. This function belongs to the Library Advisory Council, which is composed of a membership of two representatives from each interested civic organization in the community plus any individual who has been recommended to the Council and accepted. These members in turn elect officers by secret ballot in January to begin serving a one year term in April.

Quarterly meetings are supposed to be held each year. Any interested party may find the names of the current Council in the library.

As president of Friends of the Library Club, I pledge our concern as a library group to promote the library and each citizen's privilege to support and use it often.

Sincerely,
Pat Bishop
Friends of the Library

Cancer Society to meet

The North Runnels Unit of the American Cancer Society will meet Monday, October 14, 1991 at 5:15 p.m. in the Chamber of Commerce Building. The public is invited to attend.

Blizzard designers - these second graders were winners of last week's coloring contest sponsored by IGA Lawrence Brothers supermarket. The weekly contest involves children from various grades coloring their own Blizzard designs on paper grocery bags. The bags are then distributed at the supermarket each Friday.

Wingate Sew and Sew Club met

The Wingate Sew and Sew club was called to order by Lucille Prichard, president, at their regular meeting October 1st at the Lion's club building. Roll call was answered by nine members and minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

A quilt was completed for Lucille Prichard and one was put in the frames for Lessie Robinson, who will be hostess for the next meeting. One visitor, Jessica Prichard, attended.

Card of Thanks

The Winters Volunteer Fire Department would like to thank all of the merchants who donated door prizes and advertisement for the convention we had last Saturday.

The Winters Volunteer Fire Department could not operate without all the support of the businesses of Winters and the Winters area. We appreciate the help.

College/Technical School Night Oct. 14

Junior and senior students of high schools in the Big Country who are planning to pursue a higher education and the parents of these students will have an opportunity to meet and talk with representatives from various colleges, universities, and vocational training schools at a college/technical school program at Abilene High School on Monday, October 14, at 7:00 p.m. Representatives from forty institutions have been invited. In addition, representatives from the Air Force, Army, Marine, and Navy ROTC programs and a representative to discuss financial aid will participate in the program.

The evening program will begin in the auditorium where Victor Flores, President of the Abilene High School Student Council, will preside. Mr. David Baum, Director of Guidance and Counseling, Abilene Independent School District, will welcome the students and parents. Following the general meeting in the auditorium, each student and parent will have an opportunity to attend three discussion groups of thirty minutes each to obtain information about three different schools in which they are interested. College representatives will discuss entrance requirements, application procedures, estimated yearly cost, courses of study, types of housing available, financial aid, and other topics of concern to students and parents.

Representatives will be present from:

Abilene Christian University, Midwestern State University, Air Force ROTC, Navarro College, Aladdin Beauty College, Navy ROTC, Angelo State University, Northwood Institute, Army National Guard, Schreiner College, Art Institute of Dallas, Southern Methodist University, Austin College, Stenographic Institute of Texas, Baylor University, St. Mary's University, Cisco Junior College, Texas A&M University, Concordia Lutheran College, Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service, East Texas State University, Texas Christian University, Federal Aviation Administration, Texas Tech University, Hardin-Simmons University, Texas University of Cosmetology, Hendrick Medical Center Medical Technology, Texas Woman's University, Howard College, Trinity University, Howard Payne University, University of North Texas, Incarnate Word College, University of Texas at Austin, Lubbock Christian College, Wayland Baptist University, Marine ROTC, West Texas State University, McMurry University, Western Texas College, and Midwestern State University.

WMU studied Islamic religion

by Charlsie Poe

The First Baptist women's missionary union began their program Tuesday with a prayer led by the president, Jo Olive Hancock. A solo, "God's Grace," was sung by David Speegle, accompanied by June Sibley at the piano.

Pledges to the flags and Bible were led by Sarabeth Heidenheimer. A song after each pledge was directed by Darlene Sims.

The new 1991-92 WMU Yearbooks were presented to the members. The minutes were read and approved. Sims presented the names of missionaries who had birthdays by writing their names on autumn leaves and having each member read one. Sims led in prayer.

After a group song, "I love to Tell the Story", Beth Bradley presented the program by naming the different kinds of maps.

We are all familiar with a Runnels county map where we live but we must change our frame of reference as we look at different maps. Many people use the Peter's Projection map, introduced in Europe in 1974. There are physical maps, political maps, topographical maps, navigation, and military maps.

The Islamic women look at the world in a different frame. Their religion is one of submission.

To understand the Islamic world, we should know that Muslims believe that "There is no God but Allah. Mohammad was a great prophet and the last of all prophets. Islam stresses obedience to the Koran and righteous conduct". Good deeds are a must to get into heaven.

Women lead very restricted lives. The sexes do not mix socially or religiously. They do not always receive formal education. Some do not leave their homes without being escorted by a male family member. Many still wear veils over their faces.

Following the program, the Baptist Woman's World Day of prayer for November 4 was announced as an associational wide meeting to be held at the First Baptist Church in Winters, who will furnish the meal. Ramona Akins of Ballinger will conduct the program from 11:00 to 12 noon, followed by lunch, to conclude the Day of Prayer. There will be a get acquainted period from 10:30 to 11 a.m.

All visitors are welcome to take part in the activity of the day.

VETERINARY UPDATE

Raising baby calves on the bottle

Raising baby calves on a bottle can be an enjoyable and financially rewarding experience but it can also be frustrating, disappointing and expensive.

The greatest problems that you will have to deal with are pneumonia and diarrhea, either by themselves or a combination of both diseases occurring simultaneously. Usually you don't see one without the other.

The source of your baby calves is of utmost importance. It is best to obtain them from a reputable source that you can trust. Calves purchased on the farm are generally healthier than calves obtained from an auction barn. Do your best to make sure that the calves have had adequate colostrum (the cow's first milk) to insure that they will have some resistance to disease.

Do not buy calves that are already sick! Not only do you stand a good chance of losing these sick calves, but these calves will spread their diseases to your healthy calves causing even more losses.

Before you buy your calves have your feeding and health programs already figured out. Know what you are going to do and how you are going to handle your health problems before you ever buy the first calf.

Prevent as many problems as you can. It is much easier and much cheaper to prevent these baby calf diseases than it is to try and treat them.

Too often we are called when the wreck has been going on for several days and there has already been considerable death loss.

Have adequate facilities. Be sure that you have isolation areas for sick calves. Plan your program so that you have adequate time to do everything that is necessary.

What I mean by this statement is that it takes a lot of time to not only feed these babies, but cleaning and disinfecting feeding equipment is also necessary.

And spend some time just looking. Observe them. Don't let a problem get out of hand before you discover it. Respiration and consistency of bowel movement should be observed on every calf at each feeding. Clean and disinfect water troughs or tubs daily.

Treating sick calves can be very frustrating. Using the right medications at the right time is critical. We like to see you prevent these problems if at all possible, but sometimes a disease outbreak will occur and more often than not, these turn out to be wrecks.

Stay away from oral antibiotics! Observe carefully and maintain strict cleanliness of equipment.

If you plan on getting into the baby calf business, please come by and consult with us before you buy any calves. Maybe we can help you prevent most of these problems.
