RUNNELS SWCD ELECTION—Edward Bredemeyer of Winters (left) was recently elected to serve zone 4 of the RSWCD. Senator Bill Sims (right) was in attendance.

The RSWCD sponsored a cowboy breakfast and the Texas Extension Service provided a program on sheep management and predator control.

Special election called for Winters liquor option

Voters within the Winters city limits will decide on October 30 whether or not to allow the sale of alcohol for off-premises consumption.

Runnels County Commissioners on Friday called for the special election after approving the results of a local option petition that has been circulating in Winters in recent weeks. The election will determine whether or not the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages for off-premises consumption will be allowed within the city limits.

At present, sale of all alcoholic beverages is prohibited from the Hatchel community north to the county line which includes Winters.

Eva Reyna, who spearheaded the petition, says her interest in the local option stems from concern for her community.

"It seemed a little bit ridiculous to go seven miles (to Hatchel) to buy alcoholic beverages when we could use the revenue here in town," she said. "We need to keep our tax dollars here."

Reyna said she and her group of 35 volunteers gathered more than 250 signatures, well above the number required to push for the special election.

The longtime Runnels county resident said she feels the option has a "pretty good chance" of being approved by voters.

"Everyone that I've talked to has been in support of it. Of course, I'm sure there's a few that are against it but it comes down to a matter of free choice."

If approved by voters, the local measure would be identical to Justice Precinct 1 which includes Ballinger and all points to both the Concho and Coleman county lines.

Early (absentee) voting for the Local Option Election to be held October 30, 1992, is in progress in the Runnels County Clerk's Office through October 26th. Written requests for ballots must be received by October 23rd at Box 189, Ballinger, Texas.

Registered voters residing within the city limits of Winters will be eligible to vote in this election.

Voters will also have the opportunity to vote early on Sunday, October 25th from noon until 5 p.m. at the new Runnels County Tax Branch Office located at 143 West Dale, Winters, formerly Springer Pharmacy or at the County Clerk's Office in Ballinger.

Justice Precinct 6, which encompasses the Miles area, allows the legal sale of beer while Justice Precinct 7 allows the legal sale of all alcoholic beverages in the Rowena area, said Runnels county Clerk Linda Bruchmiller.

In other business during their regular meeting, commissioners discussed salaries for county employees for the coming year and established a calendar for payment of expenses and operation.

Commissioners also agreed to bond the new veterans county service officer J.B. McGuire at $5,000. McGuire replaces J. Frank Nance who retired September 30.

The court also approved a request from GTE for two new cables in precincts 1 and 2, approved the hiring of Delia Martinez as a new full-time jailer and agreed to allow early voting in Winters for both the local option and general elections.

The next regularly scheduled meeting of the court will be 10 a.m. Nov. 12 in Judge Murchison's office at the county courthouse.

Two in a row for the Big Blue Crew Winters 30—Anson 6

VICTORY CELEBRATION—Spirits and helmets were riding high as the varsity Blizzards enjoyed their win over the Anson Tigers 30-6.

A 30-6 win over the Anson Tigers gives the Blizzards two in a row. The "Big Blue" is picking up steam.

The Blizzards started with a fumble recovery by Andy Esquivel at Anson's 30 yard line. A little running and a little passing and David Roman scores the first touchdown for Winters. Jamey West's extra point kick was good, to make the score 7-0.

On Anson's next possession, Chane Reagan recovered a fumble. Because of penalties, the Big Blue was stopped and Jamey West kicked a 23 yard field goal. At the end of the first quarter, the Blizzards were ahead 10-0 and it looked like they were in control.

Jim Calcote then scored on a 5 yard run after a good drive. Winter 17, Anson 0. Things were looking good at this point, but the Winters coaches were still a little nervous.

And well they should have been, because Anson scored a touchdown before the half. The second half turned out to be more of the first—good defense, good running, and good passing. Roman and Calcote each scored another touchdown and the Blizzards machine was rolling.

Winters ended up with 20 first downs and 319 yards on offense. Jim Calcote was the work horse, carrying 26 times for 143 yards. He received honorable mention to the Abilene Reporter-News' area high school football players of the week. John Belew had an excellent night also, completing 7 of 12 passes for 103 yards.

Coach Slaughter said, "These are two great weeks in a row for the offense. Twenty first downs is dynamic play."

The defense also had an outstanding night, holding the Anson offense to 173 yards total. Albert Bernal ended up with 5 solo tackles and 11 assists. Bernal also received honorable mention by the Abilene Reporter-News.

Russell Parramore had an interception with about 7 minutes left in the game to really ice the Tigers.

The Blizzards meet the Stamford Bulldogs at Stamford this Friday night. Stamford was upset by Jim Ned this past Friday by a score of 28 to 14.

The Bulldogs were early season favorites to finish in the running for district honors. The loss to Jim Ned makes their season record 4-1, however this loss may not stand.

Jim Ned is currently involved in an incident involving an ineligible player.

Jim Ned High School has forfeited football games to Baird and to Hawley because of use of an ineligible player. Head football coach Jim West said the school did an investigation last week and discovered that the boy in question did not live in the district. He did not play in last Friday's 28-14 district victory over Stamford, and the student no longer attends school at Jim Ned. The district could issue other penalties against Jim Ned if it so chooses, therefore the win over Stamford may be in question.

The Blizzards travel to Stamford this Friday night to meet the Bulldogs at 7:30.

Chris Gardner (5'8", 175 pounds) is the big gun for Stamford with 4.5 speed in the 40.

The Big Blue Crew will have to stop Gardner and continue to play aggressive offense to beat Stamford.

Prison official to be on hand at important community meeting

What: Community meeting
Where: Winters High School Auditorium
Date: Tuesday, October 20
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Subject: Proposed prison facility

A representative from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice will meet Tuesday, October 20, with any and all parties interested in the proposed prison facility. The representative will attempt to answer all questions from the general public concerning the proposed facility. The TDCJ met with approximately 60 Texas communities in the past year for the same purpose—the education of the public.

The proposed facility would generate approximately 300 jobs for Winters and the surrounding area and the Winters Area Business and Industrial Corporation urges everyone with any interest, whether positive or negative, to attend the meeting and let your opinion be known.

Strong community involvement is vital to this project.

Police in high speed chase

At approximately 2:00 a.m. on October 9, Winters police officer Virginia Skaggs observed a 1980 Pontiac Grand Prix being driven erratically at excessive speeds in the southeast section of Winters.

When Officer Skaggs attempted to stop the vehicle, the driver turned out the car lights and sped onto Main Street and south toward Ballinger. The driver then turned west at Hatchel onto a county road.

Winters Police Chief Carey Balentine and Officer Mike Hennigan, aided by members of the Ballinger Police Department and the Runnels County Sheriff's Department, responded to assist Officer Skaggs in pursuit of the Pontiac. Law enforcement officers temporarily lost sight of the vehicle due to its high speed and excessively dusty roads.

At one point in the high speed chase Officer Hennigan rounded

OIL BUSINESS . . .

By Reg Boles ©1992

The long tortuous path for passage of the National Energy Strategy (NES) is over.

The bill is ready for the President's signature after Congress created a compromise version from Senate and House bills. It has been through a lot, though, since its first introduction.

What's left is akin to a skeleton dressed in a Halloween costume: it looks like an energy policy, and it has the outward structure of an energy policy, but, unfortunately, it has no guts.

The final version of the bill bears little resemblance to what President Bush proposed about 18 months ago. Provisions regarding opening the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge (ANWR) to exploration, expanding offshore access, and certain tax provisions that would equalize the oil industry with other heavy industries did not make the trip.

What does the final bill contain?

1. Easier and faster licensing of nuclear power plants;

2. New government-mandated efficiency standards for light bulbs, electric motors, shower heads, etc.;

3. New government-mandated standards for federal, state, municipal, and private fleets for conversion to 'alternative fuels' (alternative fuels to be defined by the federal government);

4. Tax breaks for development of renewable energy sources (wind, solar, etc.);

5. Opening of market for generating electricity beyond huge utilities to the smaller non-traditional producers of electrical power;

6. Unspecified Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) relief for independent oil producers (to be worked out by separate tax committee);

7. Protection for Canadian (yes, Canadian) gas imports from price discrimination (prevents U.S. from charging an import fee on Canadian gas);

This list includes the most important provisions, although the 1000+ page document contains other more subtle aspects that are beyond my comprehension at this time.

There is no provision regarding state's rights to prorate gas (or oil) production. This provision was finally booted after filibusters from various Congressmen regarding the unconstitutionality of such a bill. Unfortunately, most folks in Washington D.C. still think that gas prorationing is an all-new, sinister plot by southern states to drive up gas prices. (It's certainly not new, and it can't do that much to drive up prices—see earlier columns.) What does it all mean to the oil and gas business?

The full impact will not be known until the final bill is published and more fully analyzed, but there are a few conclusions that can be drawn at this point.

Independents stand to gain IF the tax committee doesn't mess up the final wording of the bill regarding AMT relief. Anyone holding gas reserves MAY benefit, because 'alternative energy' sections of the bill regard natural gas as 'alternative,' thus increasing the market for gas. (We'll have to wait and see how much market increase results.)

Otherwise, oil companies see very little in this bill. Major oil companies will hardly feel a ripple from the bill's passage and implementation.

The bill is a hodge-podge of special interest provisions. The strongest lobbies had the biggest impact. Thus, an energy bill that is trumpeted as having the unified purpose of decreasing oil imports and increasing self-sufficiency is really contradicting and sometimes self-defeating.

For instance, Canadian gas imports will tend to offset increased domestic gas production. Increased renewable energy uses will not be able to replace petroleum in a timely manner, so oil imports will still tend to increase as domestic oil production decreases (because there are really no concrete incentives in the bill to increase domestic production). I could go on and on.

The bottom-line is that Congress is not capable, in its present form, to create a smart, purposeful policy because it is too responsive to special interests and regional bias.

Vote the son-of-a-gun's out is the only solution.

First Baptist's Beat

Dr. Jack Ridlehoover to speak at First Baptist Church

The First Baptist Church of Winters is extremely pleased to invite you to hear Dr. Jack Ridlehoover of Abilene in revival services scheduled for Sunday, October 18 through Thursday, October 22.

Jack Ridlehoover was born October 2, 1930 on a farm near Gunter, Texas. He attended Gunter Elementary School, Royse City Elementary and High School, and graduated in 1947 from North Dallas High School.

Dr. Ridlehoover is married to Betty Jo Knight of Dallas and they have two children and five grandchildren.

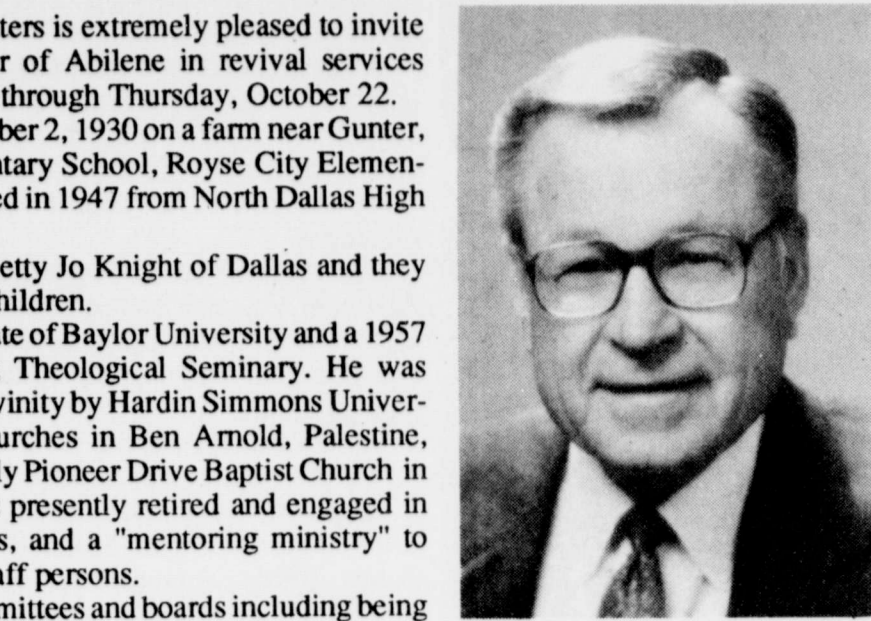

Dr. Ridlehoover is a 1952 graduate of Baylor University and a 1957 graduate of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Divinity by Hardin Simmons University in 1983. He has pastored churches in Ben Arnold, Palestine, McGregor, Dallas, and most recently Pioneer Drive Baptist Church in Abilene from 1963 to 1992. He is presently retired and engaged in interim pastoring, supply, revivals, and a "mentoring ministry" to young and troubled pastors and staff persons.

He has served on numerous committees and boards including being on the Board of Trustees of Hendrick Medical Center and the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. He has had articles published in "Church Administration Magazine," "Proclaim Magazine," and "The Baptist Standard," and has been a contributor to two books.

The Minister of Music for the October 18-22 revival at First Baptist Church will be Mark Tolar, who is Minister of Music at Pioneer Drive Baptist Church in Abilene. Mark and his wife, Doretta, have one daughter, Courtney who is three years old.

The church choir will meet at 6:00 p.m. Sunday evening to rehearse, and at 6:15 p.m. Monday through Thursday evenings.

Dr. Jack Ridlehoover

Triple L welcomes new members

The Triple L Club for senior adults was well attended Thursday, October 8, for a covered dish meal and program of music by W.L. and Jan Thompson.

New books were distributed to members and a number of new members were welcomed. They were Kenneth and Thelma Sneed, Verlone Anthis, Walter Durham, L.B. and Mary Watkins, W.L. and Jan Thompson and Bonnie Fairey.

Members were enthusiastic about the program of work outlined, especially the gifts for the 20 Headstart children and the party November 13 at which their equipment will be presented.

The Thanksgiving dinner for members is planned for Thursday, November 12.

Doretta & Mark Tolar

Christmas fellowship planned by Bethany Class members

The Bethany Class met at noon on October 6 in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church for their monthly luncheon and business meeting. Members present were Ethel Mae Clark, Lorene Moreland, Billie Whitlow, Jimmie Davis, Opal Hamilton, Vivian Foster, Elsie Sanders, Jo Olive Hancock, Bennie Fairey, and Omega Priddy. Visitors were Rev. Glenn Shoemaker, Mae Sanders of San Angelo, Marguerite Russell of Brownwood, Jeff and Sarabeth Heidenheimer, and Pat Simpson.

The prayer before the meal was led by Rev. Shoemaker.

Following the luncheon, the business meeting was opened with Bennie Fairey presiding. Vivian Foster led the group in prayer.

Minutes and treasury reports were given and approved and reports were given by group leaders. Jimmie Davis was elected to fill a group leader vacancy. Plans were formulated for a Christmas dinner to be held December 11.

The devotional, "Delighting God's Will," was brought by Sarabeth Heidenheimer, who closed with a prayer.

The prayer before the meal was led by Rev. Shoemaker.

Canterbury Villa News

by Ruth Keesee

BALLINGER—Lupe Ramos and Beatrice Ledford of Ballinger are new residents of Canterbury Villa. Margaret Wachter was a resident for a short time.

Please remember the family of the late David Bryan in your prayers. Sympathy goes out to his loved ones.

Thanks are extended to Tweety Warren and Ann Patterson for their Monday hymn singing, to Ouida Dickinson for help with October donations, to the Stitch 'n Time Club for sewing bibs, to Rosmund Holle for help with sewing projects, and to Bernice Halfman for her lovely bulletin board decorations.

Appreciation is extended to J.B. Teeters, Ballinger Fire Marshall, for his inservice on fire prevention and to Bill Foster, publisher of The Ballinger Ledger for his talk.

Some of the decorations for fall were made possible through the help of Vernon Jonas, W.J. Cervenka of Rowena, and Jack B. Fry. Thanks to Grant Teplicek of Ballinger Feed and Grain Co. for providing burlap bags and twine for the scarecrows. Cornstalks for the autumn display were donated by Ed Poehls of Bronte. Other items came from Mrs. Tommy Reneder, the United Methodist Church, Agnes Lovelady, and Cheryl Marriott.

Pumpkins are still needed and anyone who would like to help with this need may call Ruth Keesee at 365-2538.

Plans are progressing for the Haunted House and volunteers are needed for the same. Call the above number if you can help. Candy donations for Trick or Treat are also welcomed.

Special activities this week will include "Roll Around America" for Columbus Day, a "Time Flies" clock social, a "Bald is Beautiful" contest for male residents and a homemade dessert cart for Home-made Dessert Month.

The October birthday party will be sponsored by the ladies of the Church of the Nazarene on Thursday, and a gourmet coffee social will be enjoyed on Friday.

Remember, volunteers are always welcomed for the activities programs. Welcome to the newest volunteer, Eva Blythe.

Runnels Baptist Association to meet in Ballinger Oct. 19

First Baptist Church of Ballinger will be the site of the 85th annual session of the Runnels Baptist Association on October 19.

At the afternoon session, beginning at 2:30 p.m., reports will be given by association leaders and representatives from Texas Baptist children's homes, universities, and hospitals will speak. Bill Walters, Director of the Church Building Planning Department with the Baptist General Convention of Texas will be one of the speakers during this session.

The W.M.U. installation will begin at 5:00 p.m. and the evening meal will be served at 6:00 p.m.

The evening session begins at 7:00 p.m., featuring a sermon by Rev. Garland Whitmire, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bronte. Rev. Whitmire will preside at all sessions.

The public is invited.

Hale Museum to host annual meeting of historical association

The Z.I. Hale Museum will host the Edwards Plateau Historical Association annual meeting the first Saturday in October, 1993. This announcement was made Tuesday, October 6, at the monthly meeting of the museum foundation.

Neuman Smith of Ballinger, president of the Historical Association, will preside over the day-long session of the twenty county membership. Anthony Lange of Norton is vice-president. Anyone interested in area history is invited to become a member.

During the meeting of the museum foundation, Mrs. Earl (Beatrice) Harris, contributor and avid supporter of the museum, made a suggestion that containers be distributed throughout town in Winters for donations to the museum. Mrs. Harris, who is blind, made the statement that she would give money each time she went to town if the containers were accessible. The suggestion was adopted and Kay Colburn, president of the foundation, was appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

The annual quilt show, November 6 and 7 at the Rock Hotel, will include a new feature. Wanda Smith, chairman, announced that the ladies may sell their quilts if they wish. Each person will handle her own sales and contribute 15% to the hotel. All types of quilts will be shown.

Literary and Service Club's turkey dinner before Homecoming game

The Literary and Service Club of Winters will serve turkey and dressing in the school cafeteria on Friday, October 23, before the Homecoming game with Hawley.

Serving will begin at 5:15 and conclude at 7:30.

The meal will include drinks and dessert for a price of $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for age ten and under. Carry outs will be available.

Senior Citizens Nursing Home News

by Billie Ruth Bishop

The Sr. Citizens Nursing Home has two new residents, Douglas Cole in Room 3B and Bell Blackmon in Room 2B. They would appreciate cards and visits.

Rachel Selden passed away Wednesday, October 7. She was loved by all who knew her and will surely be missed. A brief memorial service was held Friday morning and attended by her friends at the nursing home.

Thanks to Lucille Pritchard for the crocheted house shoes. They will be put to use.

Thanks, also, to the Lacy family for the apples, brought from New Mexico, and to the Turners for the drinks they bring each week.

Quilts made by club's joint effort

The Wingate Sew & Sew Club met October 6 in the Lions Club building. The meeting was called to order by Lucille Pritchard, president. Roll call was answered by nine members; Annie Faye King, Martha Odell, Oma Lee Overman, Mildred Patton, Ethel Polk, Kelly Poor, Lucille Pritchard, Lessie Robinson, Pauline Huckaby, and Tyler Poor. Minutes were read and approved, and dues were collected.

Following the business meeting, a quilt was tacked for Kelly Poor and another quilted for Martha Odell.

Oma Lee Overman will be hostess for the October 20 meeting.

PETE LYNCH'S STAND ON ISSUES...

Jobs...

- The State MUST attract businesses to create jobs. THE STATE hired over 36,000 new employees IN THE LAST TWO YEARS. That's NOT creating jobs: it's costing taxpayers (YOU & ME) money.
- The corporate income tax does not help to attract business into the state. My opponent voted FOR the tax; lawyers are exempt from the tax. HE IS A LAWYER! (Vote #216 House Journal p 1826 on HB-11, Aug. 13, 1991, as rewritten by the Senate) Education....

- The ISD is the ONLY way we have of keeping any control over what goes on in our schools. We are in the twentieth year of the federal lawsuit, and all that has happened so far is the erosion of education for political purposes. No one has addressed the problems in school that are NOT teacher related:
 - DRUGS
 - ALCOHOL
 - SUICIDE
 - RAPE
 - ASSAULT
 - PREGNANCY
 - ROBBERY

Those looking to Austin to solve everything will be sadly disappointed, if the same majority is returned to the State House.

Crime....

- We have the RIGHT to put criminals in tent camps until new prisons are built, but not the GUTS! I will sponsor legislation to keep convicts in prison for a minimum of 75% of the sentence before allowing them before a parole board.

State Personal Income Tax....

- —NO—. We have to learn to cut spending. Instead we budget for everything we WANT, not the things we NEED. Taxpayers are getting nothing in return -- unless more crime, more taxes, and less education are what they want.
- What is happening to the lottery proceeds which were supposed to go to the school fund? (The liberal hogs are rooting around with blood in their eyes - they just can't wait for the next session to start spending it for anything but its' original purpose.) PLEASE NOTE: On August 5, 1991, an Amendment to HJR-8 (the legislation passed to allow the votes to approve or reject a state lottery) would have allowed the voters to prohibit law makers from imposing a State INCOME TAX while a state lottery was operational. My opponent, John Cook, voted against the amendment. (Vote #125, House Journal P. 68B) Now, how do you think he will vote if he makes it back to Austin?

Breezes 27—Anson 0 7th grade takes another win

The Winters 7th Grade Breezes continued their hard, hard work and determination and came away with a 27-0 win over the Anson Jr. Tigers. On the Breezes' second offensive play, Eric Bernal made a 68 yard run for a touchdown. Marshall Scates ran the two-point conversion for a 8-0 score.

After Scates recovered a fumble, the Breezes drove 55 yards in three plays, Scates scoring from 15 yards out. He also kicked the extra point, making the score 15-0. Midway through the second quarter, Tony Torres was sprung for a 50-yard touchdown jaunt. The Breezes led 21-0 at the half, just missing another score before the half when Dennis Conner caught a 65-yard pass from Bear Nitsch.

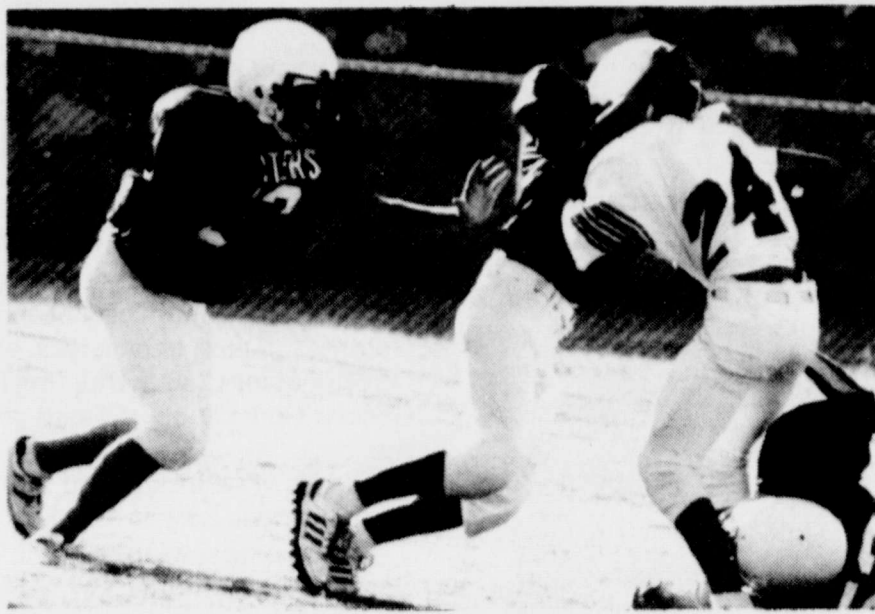

Taking the kickoff in the second half, the Breezes took the ball 62 yards in seven plays, with Eric Bernal scoring the final touchdown from 33 yards out. The final score was 27-0.

The Breeze defense recorded their third shutout with Marshall Scates recovering a fumble and Michael Ramirez intercepting a pass. The Breezes' record now stands at 4 wins and 1 loss.

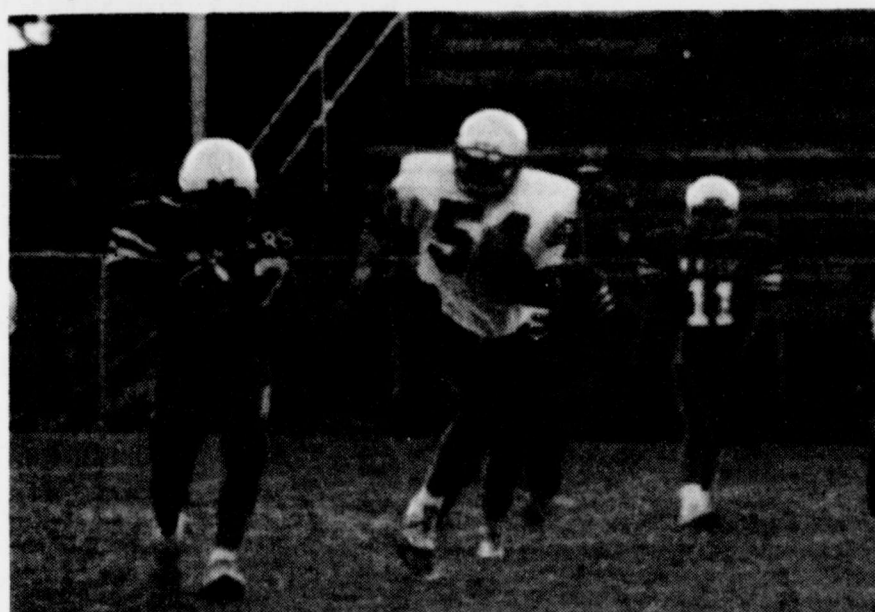

The Breeze offensive line doesn't get much notice, but has been doing a good job making running room for the backs. The line is made up of center, Michael Pritchard; guards, Justin Minzenmeyer and Daniel Cortez; tackles, Michael Sanchez and Michael Ramirez; tight end, Dennis Conner; and alternating at split end, Glenn Tischler and Stacy McMinn.

With no time to rest the Breezes must take on a multi-talented Stamford team here October 15. Coach Ed Henley stated, "We need to have a good week of workouts to get ready for a very physical football game."

Come out and support the Breezes.

HEADLOCK TACKLE—Lance Guevara of the 7th grade squad gets a firm grip on the Anson ball carrier with some support ready from #62 Justin Minzenmeyer.

ON THE MOVE—#32 Arnold Silva gains important yardage for the 8th grade Breezes against the Tigers. #11 is Steven Garza.

Winters 36—Anson 6 8th Breezes outstanding

The Winters 8th grade Breezes defeated Anson 36 to 6 Thursday night to even out their district record at 1-1-1.

Arnold Silva scored two touchdowns, set up two others, and scored two 2-point conversions. At the conclusion of the game, Silva had over 250 yards total rushing.

Contributing to the scoring, Abraham Vasquez scored on an eight-yard hot pass, making the two-point conversion on the same type pass play.

Steven Garza scored a touchdown on a quarterback sneak.

Abraham Vasquez, Jace Wade, Chris McCaslin, Justin Mitchell, James Andrae, Adam Cruz, Joe

Luevano, Oliver Ortiz, and Steven Garza all ran the ball well.

Adam Cruz led the defense with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. Paige Bishop recovered an onside kick. Also recovering fumbles were Steven Cross and Brent Jacob. The big hit of the game came from James Andrae.

The defense stiffened after allowing Anson a touchdown on their first drive. Mario Rodriguez, Steven Cross, Austin Jobe, Cat Rivera, Allan Conner, James Andrae, Johnny Lancaster, Jace Wade, and Chris McCaslin were outstanding on defense.

The Breezes host Stamford Thursday, October 15.

Cross country team's performance improves

The Winters Blizzards cross country team finally showed the effects of the hard work they have been putting in. The Blizzards ran very well against competition from classes 1-A through 4-A.

"We didn't have a real high finisher but just ran real well overall," Coach Henley said. "We have one more meet, the Blizzard Invitational, before the district meet which will be run at Anson October 21." He continued, "The Blizzard JV also ran very well, as the times and places will show. This will make our varsity people run better and make them better on down the line."

Blizzards 20—Anson 8 JV spoils Anson's record

The Anson Tigers junior varsity came to Winters Thursday night with a 5-0 record, which the Blizzard JV was glad to spoil.

The Blizzards moved the ball well, with over 300 total yards of rushing for the game, for which the offensive line deserves a lot of credit. This was the second week in a row for the JV to turn in over 300 total yards rushing. Good job!

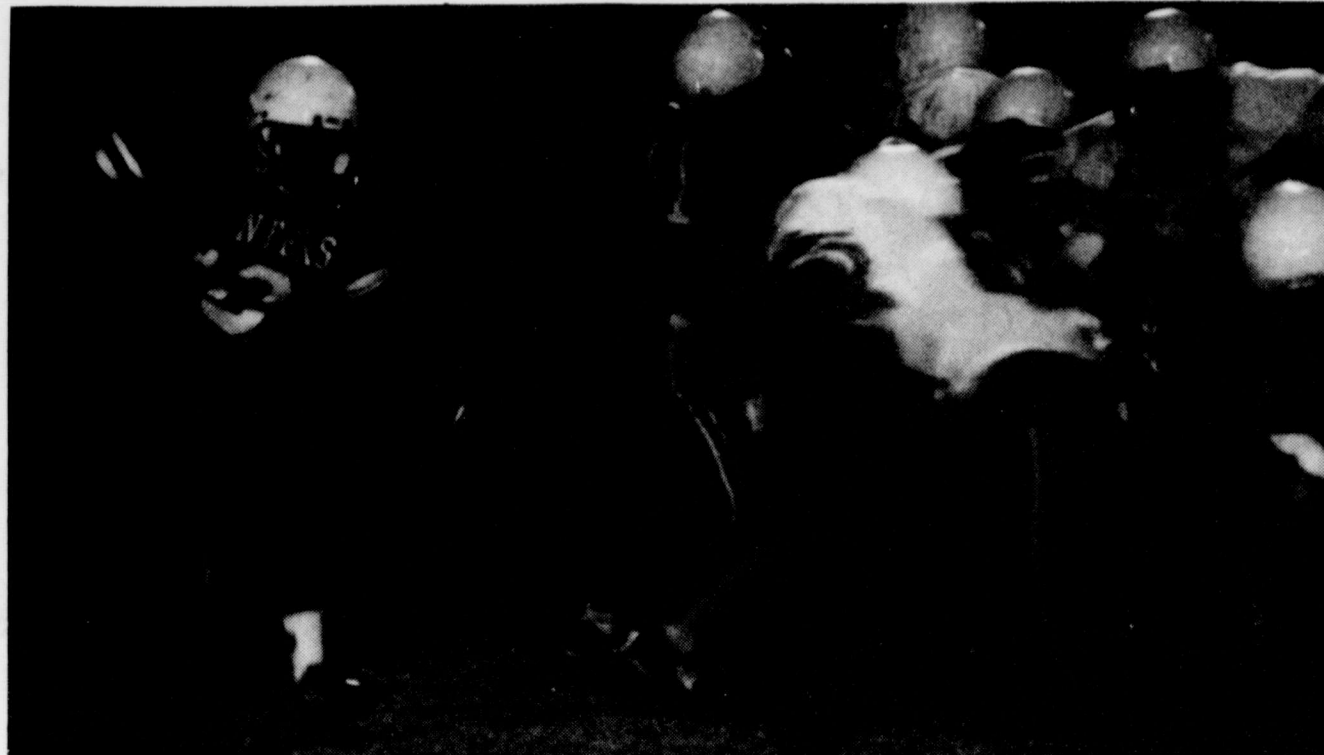

Anson was strong and is a good team, but the Blizzard JV defense broke only once, on a reverse play. This game marked the third game for the JV Blizzards to spoil a perfect record for the opponent.

There were several big plays in this game. Robert Silva had a 45 yard run and broke 4 tackles. Kevin Conner caught two passes for over 30 yards and had one touchdown. Lupe Roman caught two passes for over 40 yards, and Mike Hernandez caught one for 35 yards.

The Headhunter award goes to Cody Whittenburg. Skulls go to Ashley Lewallen, John Biddix, (interception) Lupe Roman, Jason Carrillo, Presiliano Sanchez, and Jason Mitchell.

On offense, football awards go to John Biddix for a touchdown: Robert Silva, touchdown; Kevin Conner, touchdown; and Lupe Roman, who had several great catches.

Captains for this game were Alvin Perez, Robert Castillo, Jesse Ortiz, and Charlie Burton.

ON THE RUN—Robert Silva, #10 of the junior varsity, moves the ball against Anson as the Blizzards rolled over the Tigers 20-8 to spoil their undefeated record.

BUSTIN' THROUGH TO VICTORY—The 8th grade Breezes came out strong and finished with a big win, 36-6, over Anson.

Crews News by Hilda Kurtz

I'm convinced that newborn babies can think. Why else do they yell the moment they see the kind of world they're in?

Those attending the Royal Services at Missions Monday morning in Hopewell Baptist Church were Dee Faubion, Netha Kerby, Selma Dietz, Melvena Gerhart, and Nila Osborne. Visitors were Bryan Mikeska and Stefanie McGallian of Wingate. Vivian Brevard, once a resident of the Crews community, now of Tyler, will have a birthday October 17. It would be nice to give her a shower of birthday cards. Her address is Vivian Brevard, Southview Nursing Center, 3505 South Old Jacksonville Rd., Tyler, Tx., 75701.

Linda Denson of San Angelo spent Saturday with Fairy Alcorn. Katherine and Luke Thomas of Dallas spent the weekend with Adeline Grissom and other relatives. Ricky and Patsy Grissom of Winters came on Saturday. Adeline's granddaughter, Stacy, and Patrick Colton Wolworth of Lubbock also visited. Melinda Amidon, Adeline's granddaughter of Guam, called Sunday night.

Helen Hokit of Sonora and her daughter, Caroline Blackburn of the Virgin Islands, dropped in to see Doris Wood during the week. Jimmy, Frances, and Garrett Chapman of Ballinger had lunch with Hazel and Selma Dietz Saturday.

Gary Hill of Eastland and Mike and Ronald of Sweetwater visited Claudia Hill during the week. Melvena and Marvin Gerhart's grandson, Bryant Mikeska of Wingate, is spending a few days with them.

Louise Osborne of Winters spent Saturday with Nila and Therin Osborne. Mark, Tammy, and Justin Kaczyk of Winters ate supper Saturday with Georgia and Connie Gibbs. Georgia and Connie spent Sunday with Slim Self.

Bro. Oscar Fanning and Therin Osborne spent a while with Coleman and Lawan Foreman Sunday. Those from Crews attending Karen Kraatz' pink and blue shower at the House of Faith in Winters were Bernie Faubion, Georgia Gibbs, Melvena Gerhart, Carolyn Kraatz, Dee Faubion and her two daughters. Eileen Prater was a hostess.

Visiting Lawan and Coleman Foreman during the week were Coleman's uncle, Glenn Foreman of Granbury; a cousin, Frank Foreman of Winters; and another cousin, Gene Knissen. On Saturday Coleman's brother, Wayne Foreman, and brother-in-law, Gene, of Arlington also were there.

The Bill Speegle family of Abilene spent the day with the Bill Mathis family on Saturday. On Friday Marke, Desiree, and Will Mathis and Eileen, Jeremy, and Tiffany Prater were in Rowena. They bought three pigs from Clarence Schafer. Desiree's Duroc for her 4-H project is named Aubrey. Jeremy's 4-H pig answers to Twinkie and Tiffany's 4-H beauty is called Pinkie.

The Prater and Mathis families took part in the 4-H Bike-A-Thon in Ballinger.

Jeremy Prater says he shot six more dove and barbecued them. Sounds good, Jeremy.

Attending the FFA barbeque Sunday in Winters were Nila and Therin Osborne, Helen Alexander, Bro. Oscar and Janie Fanning.

Former Winters couple to celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Tessie and J.R. Lacy of Bloomfield, N.M., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Saturday, October 24, 1992, from 2-4:00 p.m. in the fellowship building of the North Main Church of Christ in Winters.

Tessie Brown and J.R. Lacy were married October 26, 1942, in Las Vegas, Nevada, where Lacy was stationed in the U.S. Army. J.R. went to work for Phillips Petroleum Company on November 8, 1945 and worked for them until his retirement in 1980. During his tenure with Phillips, J.R. and Tessie lived in Oil Center, N.M., Goldsmith, Seminole, and Rankin, Texas.

Tessie taught fourth grade in Rankin until she retired in 1980, whereupon they moved back to Winters. Both Tessie and J.R. graduated from Winters High School. In August, 1988, they moved to 28 Road 5151, Bloomfield, N.M., to be nearer their grandchildren.

The Lacys are long time members of the Church of Christ.

The couple has three children; Carole Lacy of Midland, Jerry Lacy of Farmington, N.M., and Susie Puckett of Durango, Co., and four grandchildren, Jason and Jennifer Lacy and Lacy and Jodi Puckett.

Chamber of Commerce recognizes outstanding business

In an effort to recognize the many fine folks of Winters in both the city and rural areas, the Chamber of Commerce will salute a local farmer, rancher, business, or individual.

Janice Pruser is owner of Winters Flower Shop...and More located at 119 South Main in Winters.

The flower shop was started some 50+ years ago and was located on the corner of West Parsonage and North Melwood, across from the old Barnes ice house. Mrs. A.D. Lee moved it to the present location. Upon her death, Mayme Little became owner. Mrs. Pruser purchased the business in April of 1988. The shop has one full time employee and several part-time besides Mrs. Pruser. She believes that her business is best described by a phrase coined during her grand opening: "Anything that can be said or done with flowers, we can do it!"

Winters Flower Shop...and More also has tuxedo rentals, gift items, and they are in the process of expanding the wedding section. The wire services available are F.T.D., Carik, and N.F.E. Teleflora will soon be available, also. Business hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on Saturday. The telephone is answered 24 hours a day and, if necessary, they work on holidays for funerals, etc.

Janice Pruser was born, raised, and educated in Winters. She married Robert L. Pruser in January of 1967 and they have two children; John Roger and wife, Melody, and Leslie Rene' Pruser, who owns a beauty salon in Winters. The Prusers recently remodeled the old George Pruser, Sr. home west of town and moved into it in April of 1992. Janice enjoys being with her family and doing just about any kind of handwork and sewing. She also likes to work in the yard, cook, and have a group come in for a meal. (She adds that she hasn't done much of the latter since buying the flower shop.) She then said, proudly, "Soon I will be trying something new—spoiling, loving, and enjoying my first grandchild. In fact, life in general is a great hobby."

Mrs. Pruser says that Winters is already a pretty great place to live; but could be, in some areas, a little more cooperative and fair minded. She thinks this could be accomplished if people would take into consideration the person with whom they are dealing; their thinking, attitude, stability, and life in general and not to assume that just because an individual is involved in everything done in Winters, they don't care about what happens to Winters. "Everyone's parents have a great influence on the life of their children," she states, "so I guess my parents, Herman and Theodora Frick, have had some influence. The greatest influence of all has been God because; no matter what, He is always there to help, listen, and be a friend. Although sometimes we don't like His answers, if you trust Him, things will turn out right in the end."

Eastern Star stated meeting

Winters Chapter #80, Order of the Eastern Star, will have its regular stated meeting, Monday, October 19, 1992, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge Hall on West Dale St.

Worthy Matron, Edna Ruth Self, and Worthy Parton, O.J. Murray urge all members to attend.

Council approves abatement

In regular session on October 12, the Winters City Council approved a resolution for tax abatement in the city limits of Winters.

The resolution is just the beginning of the abatement program. Criteria and guidelines will have to be established but this current action is a step in the right direction for the growth of Winters.

Other items of discussion Monday night included sponsorship of the Resource Conservation and Development Committee. City Administrator Aref Hassan was appointed as the City's representative to the Runnels County organization. This is affiliated with the Soil Conservation Service and is organized to obtain federal grants for all kinds of development.

After a lengthy executive session, no particular action was taken and the bills were approved.

The circus is coming

Allen Bros. Circus will show in Winters on Thursday, October 29th, under the sponsorship of Winters Rodeo Association and performances will be given at 5 and 7 p.m. at the Rodeo Grounds.

At Allen Bros. Circus you will find exotic beasts, such as a cage-full of lions and fighting Bengal tigers.

Circuses and zoos are an important part of protecting our endangered species. Along with providing people the opportunity to see a variety of animals in a closed location, many now have successful breeding programs to help replenish animals now being lost due to man's encroachment on their natural habitat.

Circuses give many people that never have a chance to go to a zoo the opportunity to see exotic animals. Allen Bros. urges you to support and protect all wildlife.

From The Well

by Pastor Jim Hanson

At the time of my writing this column, we're getting ready. We're getting things in order, getting tickets, arranging transportation, making reservations, and all those things you do before you make a trip. One of the most frustrating things this time of year is deciding what clothes to pack. When you're heading up north, it could be snow. Or it could be hot. It's hard to know what to take.

We're going up for Mother's funeral. My brothers and sisters-in-law will be there. Our children will be there. Mother's grandchildren and some great grandchildren will be there. And cousins and friends. It will be a kind of homecoming, a kind of celebration. After all she lived ninety-six years, and that's worth celebrating. After the funeral service, and after lunch, we're going to get together in one big room and everybody will have a chance to say something about Mother, and what she meant to them. Personal. And yet, to be shared. We honor the dead by remembering them, by bringing them back into our conversation and into our lives.

In a way I'm a little apprehensive. Mother was the glue that held us boys together. Most of the time since Dad died twenty six years ago, we came together to celebrate her birthday or her anniversary, or some special occasion. Now there will be no more birthdays of Mother to bring us together. I wonder if we boys will get together anymore. It would be too bad if we didn't.

Funerals are an "up and down" time. Your feelings are like a roller coaster. You are glad to see your family and you are sad that Mother died. Bittersweet. I hope we all feel free to express our feelings, to hug, to cry, to smile, and to laugh. It's all part of the party.

She was really ready to go. I can remember calling her about two weeks ago. She was telling me that two of her best friends had died. So, she asked me, "Jim, with all my friends dying, do you think God is trying to tell me something?" I said, "Mother, do you think God is trying to tell you something?" She replied, "Yes." So I asked her what she thought God was telling her. She said, "He's telling me to get ready!" I asked, "Are you?" And she said, "Of course I'm ready."

She was ready. She lived by faith in her Lord. And she died in that faith. She didn't have to trouble herself as to what to pack. When one goes on that trip, the biggest and best one, to our eternal destination, we leave it all behind. You don't take anything. You are just took. By the hand. All the way home. By him. Victory in Jesus. Hallelujah! Praise God for heaven. She's home, free.

"Whodunits" highlight Girl Scout weekend at Lake Brownwood

About eighty Cadette Girl Scouts enjoyed a weekend of fun and mystery at Camp Wood Lake in Brownwood, October 3 and 4. Girls who love a good mystery were invited to solve "whodunits," written especially for this event.

Prior to the weekend event, each girl received a character sketch on who she would portray in the mystery. She then used her own creativity to prepare her disguise and came to camp "in character."

Upon arrival, the girls divided into three groups for a scene-setting activity for three different murder mysteries. Clues were revealed periodically, and girls gathered clues on their own to discover who committed the crime. Each girl was allowed two guesses, which went into a sealed box, and the person with the earliest correct guess was the winner. Super sleuth Angela Shoemaker of Winters was the first to deduce the murderer in her mystery. She received a camp T-shirt for her efforts.

Other activities enjoyed over the weekend were sailing, canoeing, swimming, and crafts.

Attending the event were Jeanna Kozelsky, Heather Watkins, Amy Heathcott, Monica Parramore, Angela Shoemaker, Judy Spill, and leaders Brenda Watkins and Chris Parramore.

Payne reunion first in 53 years

Eleven cousins, grandchildren of John Wesley Payne of Comanche, met in the home of Mrs. Fred Damron of Ballinger on Saturday, October 10. This reunion was the first time in 53 years these relatives had all been together.

Children of Marvin Payne attending were Treva Newton of Abilene, Chester Payne of Hamilton, and Margaret Hurt and Geneva Strickland of Comanche.

Liza (Payne) Hurt's children, all of Comanche, in attendance were J.W. Hurt, Ora Boyd, and Ova Cottrell.

The children of Copeland and Vera (Hale) Payne of Crews at this gathering were Evahjo Bozeman and Evelyn Klutts of San Angelo and Eron Hudgens and Earlean Damron of Ballinger.

Sales tax receipts decrease for both city and county

Sales tax receipts for the city of Winters decreased 19.29 percent for August as reported to the Comptroller in September. The receipts totaled $9,588.20 this reporting period. For the reporting period in 1991 receipts totaled $11,880.47.

Receipts in Miles increased 39.85 percent; Ballinger reported an increase of 1.01 percent. Overall, Runnels county decreased 4.97 percent.

As reported by the office of State Comptroller John Sharp, sales tax rebates to date for Runnels county for the 1992 reporting period total $504,800.27. Compared to last year's total of $488,483.07, that is a 3.34 percent increase.

Poe's Corner by Charlsie Poe

A travelogue of Thailand was presented to the First Baptist Women at a meeting held in the fellowship hall Tuesday. Both Bradley conducted the program as an interview with the wives of two missionaries.

For 40 years Ronald and Evelyn Hill have anchored their lives in the rich soil of Thailand. From Bangkok they have served over all Thailand and are now in Lampang. The rainy season is ending in October and the air is cooler. The Spears have spent almost 38 years in Thailand. Recently they began a new work down south on the trunk of the elephant. (Thailand's outline on the map looks somewhat like an elephant's head.) Krabi is home to this couple.

Even though the Hills and Spears were pioneer missionaries in Thailand, they did not arrive in time to see King Mongkut, who was made popular by "The King and I." He reigned 100 years before their appointments.

Both couples have gazed at the Grand Palace, which was built in 1782 as the centerpiece of the capital city of Bangkok, known as the "city of angels."

In addition to rice dishes, Evelyn Hill said, "The people eat noodles, vegetables, and lots of sea food. Where they are poverty-stricken they eat dogs, snakes, and locusts—anything available."

Jeanie Spear added, "Don't forget the abundant fresh fruit, such as pineapple, pomelo (resembles grapefruit), bananas, oranges, grapes, and papaya—to name a few!"

It has been 100 years since the events in "The King and I" were pictured. In Bangkok most dress in western clothes. Men wear business suits to work in offices. However, outside the city, people often wear the pasin, which is a sarong-type skirt and blouse.

Formal dress for women is embroidered Thai silk. A woman wears a long skirt with a double pleat in front and long sleeved, high-necked overblouse. This is often accented with a metal belt and designed jewelry.

Government workers and students are required to wear uniforms. The Spear's four children are grown but they still have their white shirts with the school emblem and their name embroidered on them, along with their royal blue skirts and pants.

Like many career missionaries, the Spears taught their children at home. However, they also attended local Thai schools to learn the language, make friends and have a real feel for the culture.

Both Hill and Spear agree that their best family experiences were in the unique places in Thailand, saying, "We have traveled around the world, going back and forth on furloughs. We always went through Europe so the children could experience some of the things they had studied."

Hill says that a missionary wife and mother is a "Jack of all trades," teaching one's children, and making a home for them. One of her responsibilities is teaching English in a new college.

Spear says that her main tasks have been working with her husband in planting churches and training leaders. "Among the ministries I've had are cooking classes for women and girls. Cookies, made from my chocolate pinwheel recipe, were served to the king himself at a special ceremony in a city where we lived."

Cookies are a universal favorite around the world!

Winters well represented at firemen's convention

The Hill Country Firemen's Association convention was held in Junction on Saturday, October 3rd. Twenty-five members of the Volunteer Fire Department and VFD Auxiliary from Winters were in attendance.

In racing competition, the six-man pumping team from Winters finished in first place. The ladies' team of three won second place, and the ladies' polo team was third. A lot of practice, time, and hard work was put into these races and Winters VFD is proud of the results.

Jennifer Davis of Winters was elected sponsor in the men's morning meeting. In the election of officers during the ladies' auxiliary luncheon, the following were elected:

- President—Jill Bredemeyer of Winters
- Vice-President—Karla Luttrell of Sonora
- Secretary-Treasurer—Rhonda Cook of Winters
- Historian—Judy Medders of Eden
- Parliamentarian—Debra Lindsey of Winters
- Chaplain—Teresa Davis of Winters
- Sweetheart—Amber Alberts of Sterling City

Chamber Memo

by CECLIA KNIFFEN

A call for help from the Chamber of Commerce to all members. The Chamber is asking for a pot of stew or dessert or both, if you would like, from each member for the Arts and Crafts Fair lunch on Friday. If you are not a member of the Chamber, and would like to contribute your special stew or dessert, your contribution would be appreciated.

The public is invited to eat at the Fair on Friday, November 6 and Saturday, November 7. Friday's menu is stew and combread; Saturday's will be chicken spaghetti. Each meal will include a drink and dessert for a price of only $3.50.

If you haven't booked your booth, you will want to call right away, as space is going fast. An unfurnished 8 X 10 floor space is $20.00. A furnished 8 X 10 floor space is $25.00 and this includes a table and two chairs. Each booth is limited to two exhibitors. Exhibitors furnish their own backdrops. Electricity is available, but you must furnish your own extension cords. Deadline for entry is October 30. See you at the Arts and Crafts Fair!

Welcome to another new business on Main Street! Memorial Monuments owned by Charley Eubank is not yet open, but work is being done on the building. The Chamber is looking forward to its opening.

Texas farm girl is a success in Oregon

Jeanine Poe, daughter of Charlsie Poe of Winters, was recently honored by Country Companies Insurance Agency for 10 years of service with the insurance and investment group.

Miss Poe has been a resident of Tillamook, Oregon since 1978 and has been closely associated with the Farm Bureau for the past 10 years. She says that being from a Texas farm family is an advantage to her in her work as an agent with Country Companies. The company can provide a wide range of insurance and investment products and services including auto, home, life, farm, ranch, health, and disability income insurance.

Statewide water issues symposium in San Angelo

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service is sponsoring a statewide water issues symposium, "Water in 2020: Will it be there?", October 22 in the San Angelo Convention Center.

The purpose of the symposium is two-fold: 1) to explain the new water legislative issues and, 2) to present the newest information on water quality and conservation technology.

An impressive list of speakers, including State Senator Bill Sims of San Angelo; O.H. Ivie, for whom Ivie Reservoir is named; and Dr. John Sweeten, Associate Department Head and Extension Program Leader for Agricultural Engineering at Texas A&M University will address a wide variety of topics throughout the day.

Registration is $10 in advance or $15 at the door. Make checks payable to West Texas Water Conference and mail to Tom Green County Extension Office, 113 W. Beauregard, San Angelo, Texas, 76903.

For more information, contact Patricia Hohensee, Runnels County Extension Agent, P.O. Box 658, Ballinger, Texas, 76821. (915)365-5042.
