

Nazareth girls capture state tennis championship

15¢ Per Copy

The princesses of Texas tennis became queens Saturday. IN THEIR third straight trip to the Class B state tennis tournament, Patti Hochstein and Dolly Wethington of Nazareth High School captured the championship in girls' doubles.

The senior duo, in their final bid for the state title which had eluded them as sophomores and juniors, captured the big prize by coming from behind to defeat Terri Flores and Norva Lehrmann of Rule, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, in the championship match.

And Nazareth's sophomore girls' team, regional runners-up Rachel Pohlmeier and Rosemary Schulte, didn't do badly at the state tourney, either. In the opening round, they forced a playoff against Flores-Lehrmann of Rule before losing the match to the eventual state finalists, 3-6, 6-3, 1-6.

NAZARETH'S two senior girls, meanwhile, posted a solid 6-0, 6-4 win over Tana McNair and Patty Crince of Leuders. [See Nazareth Girls, Page 11]

Judy Steffens third at state

Judy Steffens, Nazareth sophomore, placed third in the discus throw at the Class B state girls' track meet in Austin Friday.

SHE SAILED the discus 106 ft., 5 in. to outdistance all but two other regional champions in the event.

Sue Schlee of Priddy won the discus throw with 117-10, and Vickilee Coburn of Paint Rock was second with 108-11.

Cindy Schacher of Nazareth, regional champion in the triple jump, didn't place in the state meet.

IA Club wins state crown

The large stock trailer which Dimmitt High School's Industrial Arts Club built this year was named the best group project in the state during the Texas Industrial Arts Students Association fair in Austin Friday and Saturday.

SENIOR Dudley Wooten won an individual championship, a blue ribbon in advanced woodworking for his massive triple dresser with hutch. Wooten's big antique-pine dresser was termed by instructor Denton Lingle as "one of the outstanding individual projects we've ever had in our woodworking department."

Six other DHS industrial arts students—three boys and three girls—won individual state ribbons in woodworking projects and written exams at the state competition.

The Industrial Art Club's stock trailer captured the blue ribbon in its level, then was named the champion project of the entire group-projects division.

TO WIN the championship plaque, the DHS club's trailer had to compete against all other first-place group projects from schools of all sizes, "and there was one Class AAAA school there that had more students in its industrial arts department than we have in our whole school," Lingle said.

It was the second state championship group project for the DHS Industrial Arts Club, whose members also have won 10 individual state championships in the last six years.

The long, red, gooseneck trailer is six feet wide, 20 feet long, and has a covered front half and tandem axle. Club members built it from milled steel, using their own blueprints.

INDIVIDUAL state winners, in addition to Wooten, were: —Lance Loudder, second place in advanced woodworking with a walnut cedar-lined chest with velvet tufted top.

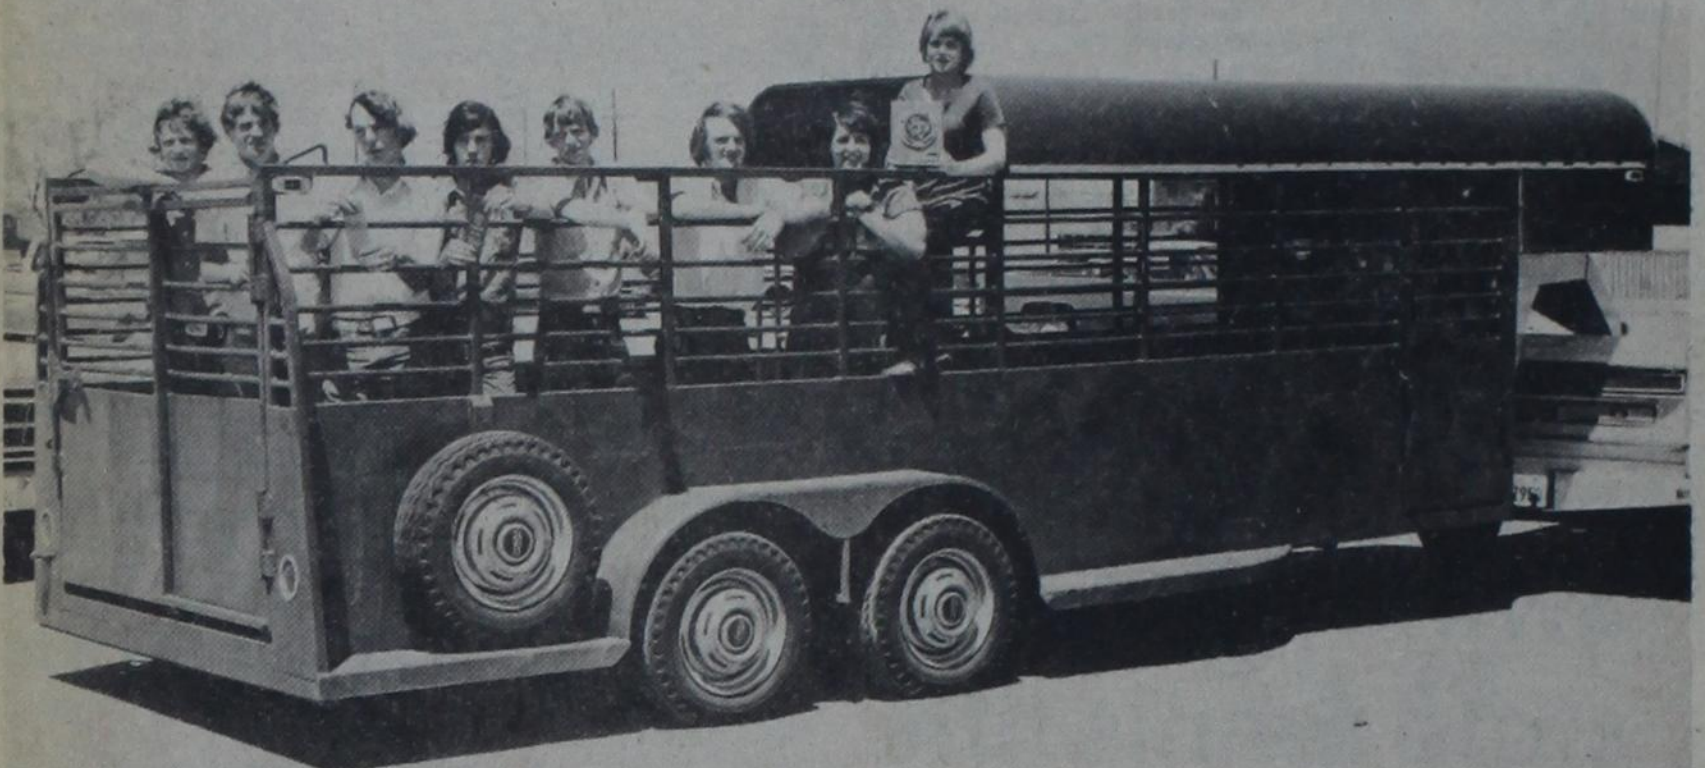

—Norma Wall, second place in beginning woodworking with a walnut cedar-lined chest with velvet tufted top.

—Jimmy Cleavinger, second place in power mechanics written exam, beginning level.

—Frank Ethington, third place in power mechanics written exam.

—Darrell Lacy, second place in advanced woodworking with a walnut cedar-lined chest with velvet tufted top.

—Michael Cox, second place in advanced woodworking with a walnut cedar-lined chest with velvet tufted top.

STATE CHAMPION PROJECT—Seven members of Dimmitt High School's Industrial Arts Club show off their 20-ft. livestock trailer, which was named the best group project in the Texas Industrial Arts Students Association state fair in Austin Saturday. These youths and their fellow IA Club members built the big red trailer of tubular, plate and structural steel, using their own blueprints. The trailer won first place in its level.

then was named the best group project in the show, competing against projects from all other schools of all sizes. IA Club students making the Austin trip were [from left] Jimmy Cleavinger, Dudley Wooten, Brent Armstrong, Frank Ethington, Kurt Wales, Rick Wright, Lance Loudder and Club Sweetheart Sandra Carpenter.

about dimmitt and castro county by b. m. n.

As you probably noticed we had a substitute take advantage of our absence, and move in on this column last week. It's my opinion that Don expressed the opinion of the people of the community in expressing regret caused by the moving of Dr. Blackburn to Junction. The good doctor has been an asset to Dimmitt and environs during the years he spent here, and we are proud he passed our way, and we want him to know, for vital signs sure, that he is denied the privilege of burning any bridges.

Viola and I visited relatives and friends in Falls and Bell County last week and in the process attended the bi-annual homecoming at Rogers. All of Texas that we saw had on its Sunday clothes for this season of the year. From the Caprock on the pastures were lush and well stocked with cattle, including calves, cows and bulls and others. Maybe the cattle population is down enough to keep the price of beef up enough to get the industry back on a profitable basis. All crops, according to my calculations, are late but should grow off well as there seems to be plenty of moisture, in fact, it rained several times while we were at [See DIMMITT, Page 11]

Half-time entertainment will include men's and ladies' lay-up relays. Teams will be auctioned off to the highest bidder and owners of the winning team in each division will receive a prize.

Members of the Dimmitt-Exs are Bill Glidewell, Ronnie Kenmore, Kent Lindsey, Don Moore, Ray Bradley, David Land, Kenneth Cleveland, Larry Birdwell and Mark Cleavinger.

Basketball game benefits cancer

A team of Amarillo radio and television news personalities including Bobby Brooks, Steve Oakly and Bill Tell Zortman, will take on the Dimmitt-Exs in a charity basketball game Saturday, May 17.

PROCEEDS from the game will be donated to the American Cancer Society.

Half-time entertainment will include men's and ladies' lay-up relays. Teams will be auctioned off to the highest bidder and owners of the winning team in each division will receive a prize.

Helen Richardson reception planned

A reception in honor of Helen Richardson, principal of the South Grade School, will be held Friday, May 16 at the Castro County Country Club from 6:30 to 9 p.m.

MRS. RICHARDSON is retiring after 44 years in the field of education.

Thomas gets probation

In district court last week, Willie James Thomas received an eight-year probated jury sentence for robbery.

THE district judge gave five-year probated sentences to Maurice Limicy and Sam Thomas Jr. for burglary.

Juan Aranda charged with DWI, second offense, received two years probation.

AVERITT/Do we want consolidation?

[Editor's Note: Before its June 2 adjournment date, the Texas Legislature is expected to revamp the financing method for the state's public schools. This is the second in a series of interviews with the three school superintendents in our county, giving their opinions on the various school-finance plans now before the legislature.]

avored by Gov. Briscoe—but would not make the "weighted pupil" program mandatory statewide.

Supt. Ted Averitt of Hart was gratified over the house committee's action. He had been in Austin just a week earlier, with Supt. Charlie White of Dimmitt and 15 other school superintendents from this area, to testify before the committee in favor of Kubiak's substitute provisions.

However, Averitt realizes that last Thursday's committee action was just the first bingle, and that the rest of the game still remains to be played.

DESPITE its support by school administrators and the Texas State Teachers Association, the Kubiak substitute faces certain compromise of its teacher-pay provision, and possible defeat on the House floor. It already has drawn fire from Gov. Briscoe, House Speaker Bill Clayton—and from Rep. Tom Massey, chairman of the committee that endorsed it.

Still, Supt. Averitt feels the Kubiak substitute is a step toward survival for his school district. Averitt feels the state's smaller school districts are literally fighting for their lives in the school-financing battle, and the Kubiak substitute at least bought some time.

In the long run, as I see it, this weighted pupil approach would have the same effect as the consolidation plan of 1968," Averitt said. "It would force the consolidation of the smaller school districts—the Class B, A and AA schools. It would hurt all three school districts in our county."

HERE'S WHY: The

weighted-pupil concept would equalize educational opportunities and school funding by assigning different grades, subjects and circumstances. The weight would range from a basic 1.00 for a pupil in grades 1-6, to 2.63 for a vocational agriculture student, to 4.91 for an orthopedically handicapped student, to 5.32 for a severely multiple-handicapped pupil.

Each subject and circumstance would have its own assigned weight, Averitt explained, and basic school funds would be allocated to a district according to the total "weight" of its enrollment.

To equalize school taxation statewide, school districts would be required by the Governor's Bill to adopt a uniform property-assessment system, based on actual market value of the property.

THIS would cause school taxes throughout Castro County to skyrocket. Averitt said: "I think our property

King wants farm bill

Carl King, president of Texas Corn Producers Association, has sent telegrams to congressmen from all the corn producing states encouraging them to use all their influence to urge fellow congressmen to override the presidential veto of the farm bill.

"WE certainly aren't happy with the farm bill but we feel it's the best we can get," said King. "The provisions of the bill—the price support—wouldn't cost the government a dime if it was administered right."

According to King, the 65% parity on feed grains which the bill established wasn't enough. "But it may look like a lot to us if we have a surplus of feed grains this year."

"We don't want anything that would cost the government money, we just need a little assurance that would let us go ahead and grow our crops," King noted.

Scouts need used uniforms

A "uniform bank" for new Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts is being started in Dimmitt.

BILL BEHREND, Cubmaster and chairman of the Scout Executive Committee, urges all parents with used uniforms they'd like to donate to turn them in at Behrends Insurance Agency.

Conservationists set awards program

The Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District's awards program will be held Saturday at 7:30.

THE program originally scheduled for May 3, was postponed due to the Castro County Crusade. Tickets mailed earlier will be used. Anyone who returned tickets but can attend should contact Earnest Sammann.

Babe Ruth opens with two wins

Dimmitt's senior Babe Ruth team has an early season record of 2-0 after beating Littlefield 9-7 Friday and Morton 8-0 on Monday.

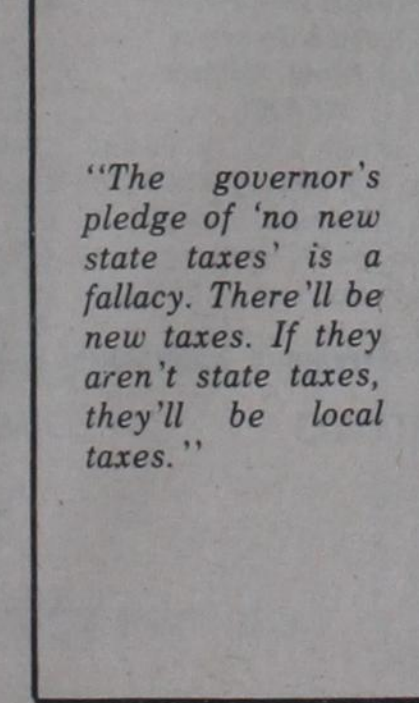

GOING into the sixth inning, Littlefield had a 7-4 lead but the Dimmitt team staged a five-run rally to take the lead, which Rafael Navaro protected in the top of the seventh.

Navarro, pitching the last two innings, gave up no hits, walked two and struck out two. In the first five innings, Brad Glenn gave up seven hits and three walks while striking out eight.

Littlefield pitchers gave up eight hits, seven walks and eight strike-outs. In Monday's game, Morton was held to one hit and four walks by the Dimmitt team. Glenn pitched six innings, giving up the hit and three walks while collecting 11 strike-outs. Navarro walked one and struck out two in the seventh.

Last Thursday night the House Public Education Committee tabled the controversial "Governor's Bill," which would assess all property (including farmland) on market-value basis and distribute funds to the state's school districts on a complex "weighted pupil" formula.

WHILE turning thumbs down on the Governor's Bill, the committee favored a substitute bill by Rep. Dan Kubiak of Rockdale. Kubiak's bill would hike the starting teacher salary to $10,000, and would establish pilot programs using the "weighted pupil" approach

"The governor's pledge of 'no new state taxes' is a fallacy. There'll be new taxes. If they aren't state taxes, they'll be local taxes."

Sheffy's chatter

Kids' baseball, band festival keep parents busy

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

The young crowd in Dimmitt is getting the attention this week.

THE LITTLE League baseball teams are keeping parents busy and the big church crusade was well attended.

Mrs. Dwayne Bishop, the junior high band director's wife and Ann Touchstone told me about the Junior High Band and Sixth Grade Band Festival to be held at the High School Auditorium May 10 under the direction of Dwayne Bishop.

There will be approximately 25 schools represented from this area. The mothers will be out there with food and encouragement.

And some of the goodlooking high school girls remind you of the junior-senior banquet May 10 at South Grade Cafeteria. This is the big dress-up affair. I like to go look in on the party.

MR. AND Mrs. Bedford Smith went to Amarillo Friday to attend the Revival Fires Rally at the big Coliseum, then on to Shamrock where Rev. Smith will preach at the Sunday morning services at the First Christian Church.

Billye Wesson and Joe and Jackie James of Hereford spent the weekend in Tulsa, Okla., visiting Billye's daughter Billye Morgan and husband Charles and her son Mac and Judy Wesson.

Shirley and Harold Stephens went to Dallas and Mineral Wells this past week to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Robert Stephens. She is survived by a daughter Nila Stephens James of Dallas. Nila attended high school here in Dimmitt while she was living in the home of the Ozro Stephens, former Dimmitt residents. Some of her classmates were Ted Sheffy, Garnett Holland, J. R. Brown, Bessie Mae Bradley, Waurayne Hughes and several others who still reside in Dimmitt.

Mrs. James Patman of Dallas has been visiting her cousins, Maurine Henderson, Mildred Kyle and Carl Simmons. The family received word last week of the death of Mae Simmons in Dallas. She was a sister-in-law of the group and a former Dimmitt resident. Seems it was heart failure, no sickness involved. She was found on the bathroom floor a few minutes after talking to her sisters.

GUY WALDOP had quite a serious heart and other type surgery a month ago. He is able to get the fire trucks going now.

And Mrs. Bob Buntyn has also had surgery.

Alma Umberson spent a few days in Alamogordo, N.M. visiting her son Dee and Nona and the girls. Alma lives at South Hills Manor.

Tommy and Donna Stafford and girls have moved back to Dimmitt from California. They are living in the B. L. Moore farm house northeast of town. Tommy is in the house development business.

Did you see the news in the Amarillo paper that Rick Wright was given the Dory Funk full scholarship to WTSU? That is nice. And Robert Mayberry won a scholarship last month. And Cindy Sides was the award winner of a cooking medal. We do have smart kids in Dimmitt.

Vandiver or Mrs. James Welch for reservations for the spring luncheon to be in the Library Assembly Room Wednesday, May 14.

Dale Broadstreet is with the Navy at San Diego. He attended high school at Dimmitt. Dale is the son of Harold and Laura and grandson of Mrs. E. H. Broadstreet.

Betty Allsup and son Rex went to Mangum, Okla. recently to attend her aunt and uncle's 50th wedding anniversary party. Betty was flower girl at their wedding. Oh, yes, their names are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. McCasell. They saw many friends and relatives. Then last weekend they went to Pueblo, Colo., to visit son and brother Gene who is with a bread company there. He took them many places to see the mountains and creeks. Betty has taught school here for many years and Rex is with Walt's Super Market.

There was a large crowd of friends of Andrea Davis at Frances Frazier's Saturday morning, honoring Andrea with a bridal shower. The table was pretty with a white over blue cloth and flower arrangement of orchids and bluebonnets. Her grandmother Mrs. Clyde Davis of Littlefield was there, also the bridegroom-to-be, Morris Price, had brought his mother and grandmother Mrs. J. C. Price and Mrs. Audrey Price of Lubbock. Andrea and Morris will be married in First Baptist Church Chapel in Lubbock on May 24. She will receive her degree in Social Welfare May 17 from Texas Tech. She had completed her field practice by working in the Department of Public Welfare in Lubbock and also at the State School there. Andrea's mother is Billye Gwyn Davis.

MY BROTHER Kenneth and his wife Gertrude Knox came up from Kerrville to visit us, Sid and I, then on to Vigo and Claude to visit the other sisters and a brother.

Mrs. E. H. Broadstreet had a good visiting trip to Fort Worth recently where she saw her mother and step-father Mr. and Mrs. George Payne and three brothers and sisters. Went on to Jacksboro, Chico and Decatur to visit friends. She saw Mrs. John Broadstreet a former resident of Dimmitt.

May I add my goodbye to Dr. Dennis Blackburn who is moving to Junction, the pretty town in the Hill Country? Don Nelson said it for all of us in last week's News.

Nancy Hays went to Austin a while back to see her daughter Carol and Kent Hance. They went to several extra nice parties, one for the Senators and their ladies, a luncheon at the Onion Creek Country Club and one of the Austin lawyers hosted a dinner at their home. Austin has so many nice things to see, such as the big LBJ Library, Capitol, and on and on. Her daughter Mary and Rob LaRue came to Austin from Fort Worth to see them. Mary teaches in a private school there.

NETTI Graham, Retta and Billie Cluck and Josie Bradford spent Monday in Lubbock where they lunched out, visited and window shopped.

Edd and Jackie McLeroy and daughter Judy, Gladys Benson and Mrs. Tex Conard spent several days at Camp Summer Life near Taos, N.M., attending a crafts and recreational lab. Edd butchered a lamb and hosted a cookout for maybe 60 people.

The young preacher Jerry Wyatt has been laid up with the mumps. Hope he is out by now. The thought of the mumps makes my throat hurt even after 50 years.

THE FRIDAY Bridge Club met at the Country Club with Bobbie Damron as hostess. She served pick-up foods to Cindy McDaniel, Jan Querze, Josie Bradford, Billie Cluck, Ruth Wooten, Brenda Andrews, Dee Williams, Kathy Hewett, Jo Beth Shackleford, Jeanie Johnson, Betty Dennis and Betty Paterson who was high scorer. Clyde Sr. and Faye Damron are home from a sightseeing trip to South and East Texas. They went through the Hill Country to San Antonio. The flowers put on a show for the tourists this year, on up to Austin, Dallas, east to Texarkana and Hot Springs, Ark., and took another route home. They also visited relatives along the way. Much rain in that part of Texas.

Kenneth Jackson is in a Lubbock hospital for a checkup to see if the heart has healed up the way it should. He should be home by now. His family went along for moral support.

Nazareth

Swiftettes take state tennis title

By AGNES BROCKMAN

Quite a number of folks from Nazareth went to Austin last weekend for the State Tennis and Track Tournament. Our girls Prati Hochstein and Delphine Wethington won first in the finals and Judy Steffens won third in the discus. We're proud of you, girls.

IT WAS a foggy, damp morning early this Monday, but the sun is shining now and the wind is blowing fairly hard with no clouds in sight. What a nice rain wouldn't do for us right now. But we have the Rogation Days this week and sometimes we get rain then. Anyway we'll be praying that we do.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hudson and baby spent the weekend at the Paul Venhaus home.

August and Sandra Brockman and family of Clovis,

N.M., Cathy and Dennis Roy and family of Oklahoma City, Pat and John Murden of Los Angeles, Bernard Brockman of Amarillo, all visited over the weekend in the home of their mother, Julie Brockman. August and family have just returned from a four-year tour of Japan.

Brigitta Dobmeier spent last weekend in Levelland with Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Bush. They have a baby son named Jarrod Danial, born April 29. Mrs. Bush is the former Elaine Dobmeier.

JOE SULLIVAN of Chicago stopped by to visit his in-laws, the Florence Albrachts Tuesday night and Wednesday. He was sent by the school where he teaches in Chicago to TCU in Fort Worth for a three-day course.

Ed Ramaekers and son Rex, and Francis Wilhelm went to Maryville, Mo. to pick up a combine. On their way they stopped at Olpe, Kan., to visit the Nub Hoeltings.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday morning for the grade school and high school graduates. Rev. Father Stanley gave a very inspiring sermon. After Mass the Christian Mothers sponsored a breakfast for them at the school cafeteria.

AFTER THE evening Mass, which was the Catholic Daughters of America Communion Sunday. Liturgical services were held for all our deceased members. The Annual May Crowning of the Blessed Virgin then took place.

Mrs. Alphonsa Huseman had eye surgery at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo last Saturday.

Tom and Pat Brockman visited with relatives for a short time Saturday evening in Nazareth.

ED DRERUP had the misfortune of getting his face and arm burned with anhydrous ammonia last Friday evening. He was in the hospital a day or two.

The Catholic Daughters had their annual salad supper and card party Sunday evening. Several members from Amarillo, Slaton, Hart and Hereford were present.

BUSTER Cooper flew out to California on business and he brought young Keir Scott to Dimmitt for a three-week visit with his grandmother Aural Davis while his mother Keitha is having a good trip to Spain. The daughter Suzie Ellis of Dodge City, Kan., will come for Keir next week and fly him home later.

MOTHER

It is so important that a child feel secure and loved the first weeks and months of its life. Our foremost authorities say that if a child's spiritual and emotional welfare is neglected in the early weeks of life, there is a great chance of permanent damage to its personality growth.

Therefore, on this day, we honor not only the beloved mothers of our adults and youth, but the very young mother who has both the tremendous responsibility and the precious opportunity to mold the life and character of the very young child. May she seek early God's help, who in the person of the Son, said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

TEXAS TALK
By David Hays

Demand for quality cotton continues to increase. Not only is the use of natural fiber rebounding, but the by-product market is also expanding. Since average cottonseed meal is at least 41 percent protein, it is becoming increasingly important as a primary feed for cattle, sheep and horses.

Expeller, Hydraulic and Solvent are processes used to produce meal or cake from raw cottonseed. Expeller and Hydraulic processes leave about 5 percent fat content in processed meal while the Solvent process leaves less than 1-1/2 percent.

Research now underway may result in an economically feasible method of limiting Gossypol (a cottonseed toxin) content to low enough levels to make cottonseed meal a primary protein supplement for swine and poultry. Success could significantly increase this by-product demand.

VERA SCHULTE [right] of Nazareth received a plaque for second place in the verbal communications competition at a Secondary Office Education Association state leadership conference at San Marcos recently. Outgoing state parliamentarian, Teresa Caswell of Levelland, also received a plaque. Both women are students at South Plains College.

Cheathams to end teaching careers

When the bells sound on the last day of the current school year, they will signal the conclusion of the teaching careers of H. L. and Irene Cheatham of Hart.

THE Cheathams, both born and reared in rural Lamar County, near Paris, met while teaching at Ambia Schools near Roxton and were married within a year.

Both received their bachelor's degrees from East Texas State University. Cheatham also holds a master's degree from East Texas.

Cheatham began his 39-year career as a Texas educator in 1936 at Jennings, in rural Lamar County. From Jennings, he moved to Ambia as principal.

AFTER four years at Ambia, he assumed teaching and basketball coaching duties at Blossom. Five years later, he was named high school principal and basketball coach of Delmar High School.

In 1946, the Direct school system named Cheatham its superintendent of schools. When the Direct schools consolidated with the Central school district, Cheatham was named high school principal and basketball coach.

During his eight years with the Central school system, he served in various capacities, including several years as elementary school principal.

mentary school principal. IN THE fall of 1957, Cheatham became a math teacher at Paul H. Pewitt Junior High. He served in that capacity until 1962, when he joined the faculty at Hart.

A 13-year career at Hart has seen Cheatham serve as junior high math teacher, high school principal and supervisor for the Hart and Nazareth schools 10 of the 13 years.

MRS. CHEATHAM'S 30-year career as a teacher began at Ambia in 1935. After four years of teaching there, she took a nine-year leave of absence from the profession to devote full time to serving as a wife and mother of three children.

She resumed her teaching career in 1948 at Direct, where she taught elementary grades for eight years.

Following her resignation at Direct, she assumed duties as third grade teacher at Paul H. Pewitt Elementary at Naples. She served there five years before accepting the position of third grade teacher at Hart, which she has held for 13 years.

The Cheathams will move to Paris in June. There, Cheatham plans to catch up on the 13 years of fishing he missed out on while living in West Texas. He also plans to work part-time in business.

Mrs. Cheatham will return to full-time duties as a homemaker, catch up on sewing and attempt to keep her husband at home long enough to maintain a garden.

Retirement will also allow the Cheathams to spend more time with their three children, James of Garland, Sandra Shaw of Huntington and Richard of Lubbock, and their seven grandchildren.

Their new address will be 85 NW 28th, Paris, West Texas. Friends are urged to drop in for a visit and a possible tour of the best fishing holes.

County holds workshop to make disaster plans

Next week, May 12 through 16, the Castro County Civil Preparedness Organization will conduct a plans and operations course to revise and update the Emergency Operations Plan.

THE Emergency Planning Workshop is designed to provide an up-to-date briefing on disaster preparedness functions and responsibilities, to answer questions relating to disaster preparedness and to provide a current emergency plan with functional standard operating procedures for each area of responsibility.

Officials responsible in each area will assist in writing sections of the plan which fall within their area of responsibility. The course will be directed by a staff member from the Texas Department of Public Safety.

THE BUDDY Poppy which will be offered to you on the streets soon is sold by a volunteer. All proceeds will go to the relief and welfare of the needy veteran, his widow and orphans.

Community residents assist in Crusade

By TEENY BOWDEN

Several from the community attended the Larry Jones Crusade in Dimmitt each night last week. Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelan, and Mrs. Thomas Parson served as counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Elkins and Chris, Mrs. Gale Sadler, Mrs. John Seiver, Carl Bradley, Mrs. J. Paul Waggoner, and Lee and Lynn Brown sang in the choir. Lee Bradley, Thomas Parson, Cliff Brown, and Noah Spencer were ushers for the Thursday night service, Lyle Shive and Lee Brown Monday night, Chris Elkins and Lynn Brown Saturday night, and Robert Duke Friday and Sunday nights. Noah Spencer and Thomas Parson were responsible for ushers from the Sunnyside Church. Mrs. Thomas Parson represented the Sunnyside Church with nursery workers. Mrs. J. Paul Waggoner, Mrs. Ezell Sadler, Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mrs. Thomas Parson, Mrs. Charlie Hall Jones, Mrs. Roger Owens, and Mrs. David Sadler helped out with the nursery Thursday night. Mrs. J. Paul Waggoner and Mrs. L. B. Bowden helped Saturday night.

JAMES Smith of Amarillo, the sound man for the Larry Jones Crusade gave his testimony in the Sunday morning services at the Sunnyside Baptist Church.

Rev. Raymond Jones attended the Crusade Pastor's breakfast in Dimmitt Thursday morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parsons attended the puppet clinic in Lubbock Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brown and Lynn spent the day in Lubbock Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brown to help them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They took them out to dinner and then to the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodward where the rest of the family gathered. All their children and all but two of their grandchildren were present for the celebration - Mr. and Mrs. Hylton Brown, Tim and Gayle Ann of Plainview, Capt. and Mrs. Melvin Copeland and Jennifer of Lubbock and the Cliff Browns.

LEE Brown, Debbie Wilson, Kelley Haydon, Dina Jo Hampton, Joe Fuller, Tommy Graham, Clint Dawson, Daneen Wilson, Baldomero Saucedo and Deanna Merriott left Friday morning with the other Springlake-Earth Wolverine Band members for the contest in Colorado at Canon City over the weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Haydon accompanied them. They were scheduled for two field shows and two parades while there.

Mrs. Gene Ross, Mrs. Hershel Wilson, and Mrs. L. B. Bowden served on the district petit jury Monday and Tuesday in Dimmitt. Mrs. Bowden served again Wednesday. Mrs. Jerry Hampton reported for jury duty both Monday and Wednesday but didn't have to serve.

Daniel Montiel entered an ash gun cabinet-stereo combination in the senior woodworking division of the Industrial Arts Club of Dimmitt in the Texas Industrial Arts Students Association Show in Austin Friday and Saturday.

Kelley Haydon was elected as the Springlake-Earth cheerleader for the 1975-76 year from the senior class last Thursday. She was also elected as head cheerleader.

MRS. John Gilbreath was with her father, D. A. Barnett, in Methodist Hospital this week and last week. He is slowly improving. He was moved from ICU to a private room last Friday.

Joel Bradley, as well as the other children, had the chicken pox, but they did not set him back any. He is more alert now and is taking two feedings a day by mouth. He is also taking cerebral palsy therapy in Lubbock once a week to improve the usefulness of his left arm and leg, and it seems to be helping.

Steve Morgan was in Austin Tuesday through Thursday with the other cast members of the one-act play, "The Miracle Worker." They competed in state competition Wednesday.

Mrs. Ila Haydon left the middle of the week for Weatherford to visit a few days with relatives and friends there.

Mrs. Lillie King went to Amarillo this week to visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Francis King and her mother, Mrs. F. M. Sweeney and Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bradley and family and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bradley and family had dinner in Dimmitt Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bradley to help their grandmother, Mrs. Elmer Dixon celebrate her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Brown and Lynn had supper Sunday night and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bob Swinney and Dawn in Lubbock.

Kelley and Jeanne Haydon participated with the Earth Church of Christ youth in an outing in Plainview recently. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Haydon and Jimmy Alair helped sponsor the group.

Mrs. Wauline Lilley of Plainview had dinner and visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Paul Waggoner.

Summerfield plant recycles waste

The largest facility ever built to recycle cattle feedlot waste has commenced production at Summerfield.

OPERATED by the BioCon Division of Searle Agriculture, Inc., the new facility uses a bacterial digestion process to convert cattle manure into a soil conditioner, called "Tilleez," that improves the tilth and fertility of farmland.

The facility can accomplish in about six days a biological conversion of manure that would take a year to complete in nature. Company officials estimate that the plant will recycle approximately 150,000 to 200,000 tons of feedlot waste per year.

Dr. William C. Hackett, general manager of the BioCon Division and a developer of the recycling concept, describes Tilleez as "a useful resource recovered from an ecological problem. The process creates a commodity of value to farmers and, at the same time, reduces the odor of the manure as an environment concern," he said.

The heart of the BioCon plant is two 400-foot-long vats, each capable of holding up to 1,700 tons of waste. After being pulverized, manure is distributed in vats where bacterial action converts it into soil conditioner.

SOIL conditioner produced at the Summerfield facility will be available in bulk to High Plains farmers through agricultural supply distributors.

The recycling concept used by BioCon was pioneered under Dr. Hackett's direction at a cattle feed yard in Ohio. The Summerfield operation utilizes a bacterial digestion principle developed in Ohio but has certain adaptations for the Southwest.

Notary sign-up starts today

All presently commissioned Notaries Public desiring re-appointment for the new term which begins June 1, 1975 and ends June 1, 1977, must pay the required fee of $4 and file a new oath and bond with the County Clerk between May 1 and May 15, according to Mark White, Texas Secretary of State.

THE necessary application forms are available in County Clerk Zonelle Maples' office.

White emphasized that Notaries Public should not send requests for appointment or for commissions directly to the Secretary of State as the law specifically provides that the County Clerk approve Notary Bonds and forward copies of the application to the Secretary of State.

Antique shop opens near Hart

The county's newest business is Jeanie's Antiques, Etc., which opens today three-fourths of a mile east of Hart, on the Plainview highway.

OWNED and operated by Jeanie Prather, the store features antique furniture, Japanese and Chinese works of art, a small line of Indian jewelry, a large line of antique books (most of which are at least a century old), unique jewelry from all over the world, tapestries, objets d'art, pottery, refinished furniture, primitive woven items, and a complete line of greeting cards and other paper products.

"My shop won't be a typical antique shop by any means," Mrs. Prather said. "I like for people to be pleasantly surprised by our merchandise when they come into my shop. It's not a store you can go through in just an hour."

Mrs. Prather, who is just in her 20s, is one of the youngest antique dealers in the business. Yet she has been an antique dealer five years, has owned two shops in Amarillo, has toured the antique "circuit" with bookings at shows in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, has served as a consultant for Sagebrush Art Gallery in Amarillo, and also serves as an appraiser of antiques.

HER SPECIALTY is converting old objects into decorative items and "conversation pieces" through repair, restoration, refinishing and decorating.

"Antiques are among the foremost investments in the United States now," Mrs. Prather said. "Many people don't realize that when money is tight, antiques go up in value — especially such things as Steuben glass, Gallay cut glass and porcelain, and so forth."

Collectors' items in her new store include a cremation vase from the Ming Dynasty, a set of hollow ducks with ivory feet, beaks and eyes (which were used to age opium in the Chi Lung Dynasty of the 18th Century), copper-enameled vases and decorative objects, primitive woven items such as bedspreads, quilts, doilies, and tapestries, soapstone items, and pre-1920 brass plates, bowls and dishes.

SHE ALSO is a dealer for pottery made by Max Braverman of Taos, a well-known biologist who produces a unique high-glaze, lead-free pottery that's oven-proof, freezer-proof and dishwasher-safe.

Mrs. Prather is serving free coffee and cookies to all customers who visit Jeanie's Antiques, Etc. during its first two weeks. The store is open every weekday except Wednesday, and on Sunday afternoons, she said.

Group discusses mutual problems

A group of divorced people meet on Monday nights in Hereford to discuss mutual problems.

THE GROUP, sponsored by the First Baptist Church in Hereford, meets in formal fellowship from 7:30 to 8 p.m. A program follows from 8 to 9. Speakers on subjects such as child-rearing, legal and emotional problems are featured from time to time.

All divorced people are invited to attend the meetings which are held each Monday in the church's Fellowship Hall.

The Dallas/Fort Worth Airport will cost $800 million. When the Atlanta International Airport opened ten years ago, it made Georgia the gateway to the South and the money poured into Atlanta. The Dallas/Fort Worth Airport hasn't brought any boom yet; instead it may be a potential financial bust.

FIVE years ago, airport planners estimated that DFW would board almost 12 million passengers and handle 275,000 tons of cargo by 1975. Based on the figures so far this year, the estimate isn't even close. DFW will probably board seven million passengers and handle only 60,000 tons of cargo. This means that the airlines using the giant facility will have to bear a much larger share of the cost of operating the airport.

Landing fees were originally estimated at 50 cents per 1,000 pounds, or 10 times the 5 cent rate charged at Love Field in Dallas. The landing fee on opening day was 62 cents. It has since been raised to 97 cents and airline sources say it will hit $1.02 shortly. For Braniff International, the largest user of DFW facilities, the move from Love Field means an increase of $9 million in landing fees and property rentals last year.

The recession wiped out prospects for a healthy growth in traffic, but the delay in getting a highly sophisticated surface transportation system between terminals and various facilities has caused a jump in DFW operating costs. The system, called "Airtrans" is now carrying passengers and the manufacturer of the system says it is performing satisfactorily in all respects.

ALTHOUGH it is not as critical in the operation of DFW, the continued use of Love Field has drained revenues from DFW, almost $2 million last year. Despite court action by both Dallas and Fort Worth, Southwest Airlines is actively flying schedules between Dallas, Houston and San Antonio from Love Field.

Pilots are highly complimentary about the safety features of DFW and passengers are expressing more enthusiasms about the facilities than they did in the months following the formal opening.

Hearings moved to Southwest

Hearings to determine the future of natural gas for irrigation fuel have been moved from Washington to the Southwest, where farmers will be hardest hit by loss of natural gas.

SESSIONS, each expected to last three days, will be held in Lubbock, Albuquerque and Phoenix.

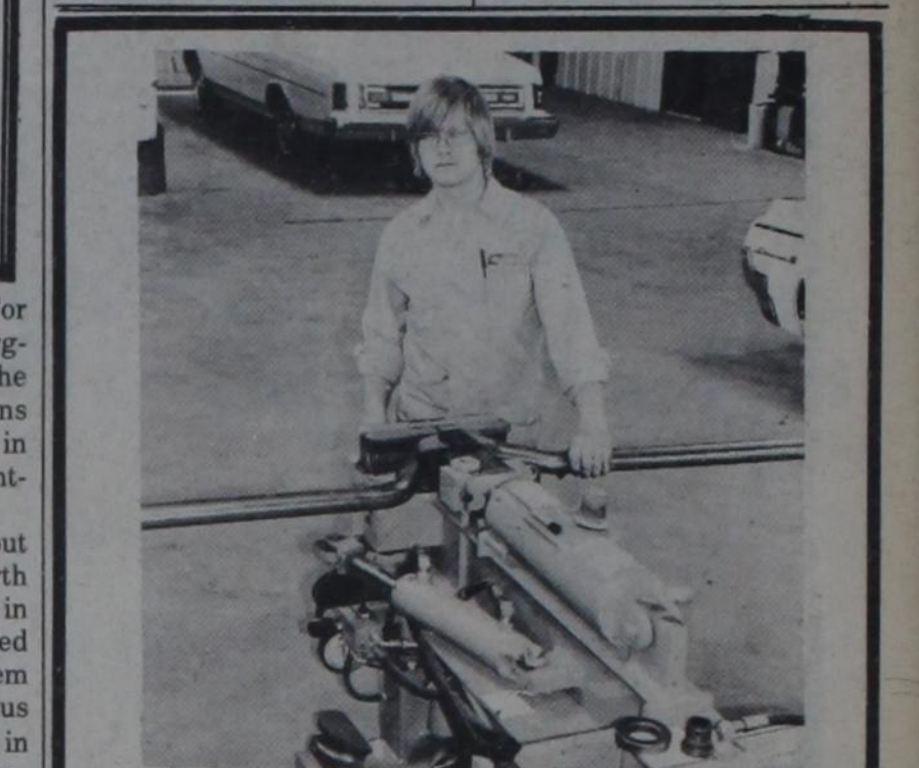

There will be no curtailment to natural gas for irrigation until the hearings are over and the initial decision is reached by an administrative law judge, according to a spokesman in Senator John Tower's Washington office. However, observers predict the issue will be ultimately decided by the Supreme Court.

The future of natural gas as a farm fuel has been in question since the Federal Power Commission issued a ruling last December which lowered the use of natural gas for agriculture from second to third priority.

MRS. EMORY DALE GANNAWAY
... The former Dee Anne Clevenger

Couple recites vows at Lubbock Friday

Miss Dee Anne Clevenger became the bride of Emory Dale Gannaway Friday at the Broadway Church of Christ chapel in Lubbock, with Doug Perrin officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deryl Clevenger of Hart. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Emory Gannaway of Lubbock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal-length candlelight satin gown with embroidered lace insertions in the v-neck. The dress featured long narrow sleeves, a lace wedding ring collar and appliques on the Empire waist and chapel length train. A chapel length veil of illusion and embroidered lace was caught in a Juliet cap of lace studded with pearls.

Mrs. Neil Baldrige of Austin, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Peggy Krewson of Phoenix, Elizabeth Stephens of Hart, Nola Dixon of Hart and Mrs. Joe Bell of Sacramento, N.M. were bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were Dayna Hagemann of Abilene and Renee Rodgers of Balch Springs.

The attendants wore formal length, Empire waist dresses in rainbow colors. The dresses had rounded necks with ruffles and short, bell sleeves.

BEST MAN was Roy Gannaway of Lubbock, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Mark Blau of Midland, Damon Richards of Roswell, Mike Roller of Garden City, Mich. and Rick Russwurm of Lubbock.

Royce Gannaway of Lubbock and Jeff Settle of Edmonson were ringbearers. Candlelighters were Kelly Hagemann of Abilene and Kay Rodgers of Balch Springs. Ushers were Duane Clevenger of Hart, Dave Thetford, Roger Weibusch, Steve Swain, Cliff Crumpler and Joe Small, all of Lubbock.

Wedding music was presented by Mary Leslie Diggs, soloist and the vocal group from Broadway Church of Christ.

The church was decorated with baskets of daisies, gladioli and iris and spiral candelabras.

A reception was held in the church's fellowship hall.

THE BRIDE attended Hart schools, Lubbock Christian High and Lubbock Christian College. She is presently employed as a secretary for Big State Realty in Lubbock.

The groom, a graduate of Monterey High in Lubbock, is a candidate for May graduation at LCC.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 5313 19th St., No. 10, Lubbock.

FEWER trips to the grocery store will result in a lower food bill. Plan the shopping list carefully so that a once-a-week trip to the grocery store is all that's necessary, suggests Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Fair plans underway

By IRENE KEATING

The outstanding Home Demonstration Club Woman of Castro County will be named at the annual luncheon Monday at noon in the County Exposition Building. Nominated for the honor by their local HD clubs are Nell Ingram, Bethel; Centrie Mayberry, Dimmitt; Maxine Ballard, Flagg; Wanda Miller, Hart and Donna Allen, Town and Country Club.

THE FIRST of this week I attended a meeting at the new State 4-H Center at Brownwood. That is a nice place and our 4-H'ers will enjoy going there.

Remember that plans are being made for a county fair this year. The divisions will be open for both youth and adults. Categories will include canning, handwork, clothing, baking, photography, crafts and flowers as well as garden and field crops. If you are interested in the fair please let me know as we need to get our fair catalogue compiled. Please volunteer to help with this. The fair will be scheduled for late August or early September.

Perhaps spring is finally here. We can all enjoy the pretty flowers and green trees. It seems that it took us a long time to have warm weather. If you haven't planted your garden yet you may do so any time this month. Remember to plan your garden so it won't be needing maximum care when you plan to be on your vacation.

THIS IS cleanup/fixup time for most of us. It is nice that spring gives most of us the extra energy we need to do this. Try washing your windows with a mixture of 1/2 cup kerosene in one quart warm water. (The kerosene will float.) Dip your soft rag in this and wring out gently and wipe your windows clean with an old bath towel. This is economical and an excellent cleaner - good to get those water spots, etc. off your windows.

Shower honors bride-to-be

Teresa Broadstreet, bride-elect of Sandy K. Parsons IV, was the honoree at a coffee and shower Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. Florene Leinen.

GUESTS were greeted and presented to Miss Broadstreet, Mrs. Sandy Parsons and Mrs. Harold Broadstreet by Mrs. Gordon Fore.

Special guests were Mrs. Charles Putnam and Mrs. E. H. Broadstreet, grandmothers of the bride-elect and Mrs. Elizabeth McDowell of Hereford, aunt of the prospective groom. Also, Kay Broadstreet of Amarillo.

Refreshments were served from a table covered in linen and adorned with a lace umbrella, flowers and a bride and groom. Coffee, punch and hot blueberry muffins were served by Kim Lindsey, Sherri Vaughan and Vera Patton.

Teresa Bruegel was at the guest book.

Book Club sets spring luncheon

The Dimmitt Book Club will hold their annual spring luncheon Wednesday at 12:30 in the Rhoads Memorial Library.

The program will include a guest reviewer arranged by Mrs. Noel Gollehon.

Members planning to attend can make reservations by calling Esta Vandiver or Reta Welch.

... The former Mary Lynn Bagwell

Miss Bagwell, Stillings exchange wedding vows

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Delbert Stillings are at home in Alamosa, Colo., following their April 26 marriage.

THE BRIDE is the former Mary Lynn Bagwell, granddaughter of the Jim Bagwells of Dimmitt. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bagwell of Poncha Springs, Colo.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stillings of Alamosa.

The double ring ceremony was held in First Christian Church of Alamosa with Rev. Paul Hendricks officiating. Mrs. Charlotte Wilcox played traditional wedding music on the organ and Charles Stillings, sang "The Wedding Prayer." The bride was given in marriage by her father.

MAID OF HONOR was Karen Bagwell, the sister of the bride, Barbara Bagwell, the bride's sister and Irene Stillings, the groom's sister were bridesmaids.

Groomsmen were John Jones and Randy Garrison. Ushers were Delbert Barton and Lawrence Johnson.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Saguache Colorado High School and a 1974 graduate of Adams State College. She is presently employed as a secretary at the college.

THE groom, a graduate of Alamosa High in 1970, attended Adams State for two years. He is a 1973 graduate of Brand's School of Western Saddlery in Powell, Wyo., and is presently self-employed in the leather business.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Jim Bagwell of Dimmitt, the bride's grandmother; La-Trelle Bagwell of Apple Valley, Calif.; Mrs. Orlan Bell of Perryton; Mrs. Richard Weeks and Debbie of LaGrange, Wyo.; Mrs. Thalia Clubb of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Bagwell of Dimmitt.

The couple's address is 4468 South Road 104, Alamosa.

April vows unite couple

Jeanie Sutton and Dale Prather were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony April 25 in the Castro County Country Club, with Rev. Bedford Smith officiating.

DAUGHTERS of the bride served as her attendants. Lisa D'Ann carried a basket of yellow flowers and wore a yellow dress with a sheer white overlay. Georgia Ruth carried a small satin pillow bearing three rings. She wore a blue floral dress with a light blue overlay.

The bride wore a floor length yellow dress adorned with an orchid corsage. She also wore a diamond bracelet given to her by the groom.

Sandy Parsons III was best man.

Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clements of Monahans, hosted a reception after the ceremony.

Cake, coffee and punch were served from a table covered in green and decorated with a centerpiece of white mums and yellow roses.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Dale Maxwell of Dimmitt, Mrs. Dub Brice of Amarillo, Mrs. Thelma Northcutt of Pecos and Beth Maxwell of Dimmitt.

Mrs. J. B. Prather of Hale Center and close friends of the couple attended the service.

Following a short trip to Taos, N.M. Mr. and Mrs. Prather, and the girls are at home a few miles from Hart.

Donna Bishop

August vows scheduled

Mrs. Harvey Bishop announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Donna, to Mike Bruegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bruegel Sr., of Dimmitt.

A GRADUATE of Olney High School, the bride elect received her degree in elementary education from Texas Tech. While at Tech, Miss Bishop served on the Student Council for the College of Education. She is currently employed with Lubbock Public

SITTING PRETTY is La Deene Carmichael of C&S Equipment Co., showing a Wood's Model 214 rotary mower-shredder. It cuts a 14-ft. swath as it shreds stalks, cuts brush, mows or clips pasture. Equipped with gear-driven twin blades, the Model 214 has fold-up wing sections for safe and speedy road transport. You'll be sitting pretty, too, with a Wood's Model 214 rotary mower-shredder!

C&S has the mower you need

Just what size mowing job did you have in mind?

IF IT'S A big stalk field that needs shredding or brush that needs to be cleared, you can't do better than the Wood's Model 214 rotary mower-shredder.

Or if it's a big yard area that always seems to be ahead of you, you need a John Deere lawn and garden tractor.

You'll find both at C&S Equipment Co.

FOR THOSE big shredding jobs, the Wood's Model 214 cuts a four-row swath, up to 100 acres per day. It's now being featured in a pre-season special sale.

"Wood's is an old, dependable company—they've been building mowers longer than nearly anyone in the industry," says Goldman Dyer, C&S sales manager.

The Model 214 is loaded with dependability features—fold-up wing sections, two gear ratios, quick-change blades, torsion bar shock protection between gear boxes, stalk baffles, manual or hydraulic height adjustment, safety shields and maximum structural strength.

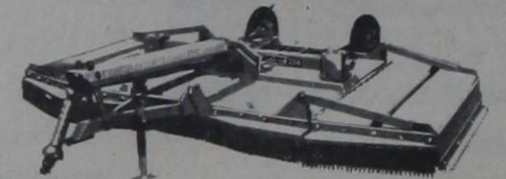

FOR THAT big lawn-mowing job around your house, let a John Deere lawn and garden tractor give you back your weekends.

In addition to mowing, a John Deere lawn-garden tractor will also plow, roto-till, blade, grade, sweep, haul, spray, or throw snow. It's just a matter of picking the handy attachments you want.

THE JOHN DEERE Model 300 lawn-garden tractor features a 16-hp engine and smooth hydrostatic drive. It will give you back your weekends!

Never have the little yellow wildflowers along the draws been prettier or more prolific. They've covered the slopes of the Frio Draw between Dimmitt and Hereford with a solid blanket of bright yellow. There are also a lot of them along the Running Water Draw, and on the slopes north of town.

Incidentally, what are they? I've heard them called everything from wild mustard (which they may be) to buttercups (which they aren't).

THE HOSTILITY which some of our fellow Americans are showing toward the Vietnam refugees is disheartening. Such an arrogant attitude, with its oblique racial overtones, seems out of place in a nation that was founded and largely built by refugees.

The plaque on the Statue of Liberty that reads, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses" doesn't have any footnotes saying "Except when we have an 11 1/2% unemployment rate" or "Unless your ways are foreign to us." I think these grippers are our real refugees—from our nation's humanitarian ideals. They ought to have a talk with a former Hungarian freedom fighter, or with a first-generation Cuban-American, and learn what those ideals really mean.

"The credit belongs to the person who can show where the strong man stumbled, or point out how the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena—who, if he succeeds, realizes the thrill of high accomplishment, and who, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be among those cold and timid souls who knew neither victory nor defeat."

—Theodore Roosevelt

I WISH those who are calling for Henry Kissinger's resignation as secretary of state would get off his back. The Vietnam debacle has triggered a clamor among Kissinger's critics in Congress, in magazines and in other forums of debate. They're pointing out that the peace pact in Vietnam didn't last, that his Middle East plan fell through, that the oil-rich Arab nations are severely punishing us for our support of Israel — and that Kissinger should admit he has failed, and resign.

I don't remember hearing Kissinger promise us a rose garden. HE HAS tried to achieve positive goals within the framework of long-established US policies and stances. He has carried out his complex work dramatically, with a refreshing personal diplomacy, slicing through the red tape that had earned the nickname of Foggy Bottom.

Why, after all should we have expected one man, or one nation's foreign policy, to hold back the red tide which had been rising in Vietnam for 30 years, which had time on its side, and which was fiercely determined to gain control of that country sooner or later?

Kissinger did what we wanted him to do in Vietnam. Reversing a US involvement in Southeast Asia had spanned the administrations of seven presidents, he got us out. All other considerations were secondary to us.

DID YOU or I really expect at the time that the civil war in Vietnam would never rekindle? We preferred not to think about it, right? And when the Viet Cong violated the Paris Agreement, and trampled it underfoot, and the time came for us to honor our latest written commitment to South Vietnam or quit, Congress voted to quit. For the first time in our nation's history, "abandonment" and "peace" were compatible terms.

Kissinger's goals in Vietnam obviously were peace and US disengagement — not failure and abandonment. Sure, he fell short of his stated goals. So did Congress, and so did the US and South Vietnam military.

Yet Kissinger dared greatly — and I think he is to be admired for trying. He is the man who "is actually in the arena." He may be bloodied, but he remains as one of the few bright spots in our executive branch. Let's not hound him out of office for trying to give us what we wanted.

It is nice to see and visit friends of yesteryear, but good taste demands that you be generous in any assessments, or remarks, concerning the evidence of the passage of time.

During the 43 years that we have lived in West Texas Viola and I have made the trip to Central and South Texas innumerable times, many of which were over State Highway 36. For a number of those years that old road wasn't even paved from Jonesboro to Abilene, but today it is one of the most traveled two-lane highways in the state. Like most people, when traveling, we seldom stop to investigate places that might be of interest. For forty-odd years we have driven past a sign, at a place about 18 miles northwest of Temple, that pointed to the west to "The Grove." Many times we had glanced at the little white church through the trees, maybe a quarter of a mile from the highway.

On the way down we made a quick decision that we had time to see just what might be at The Grove, so we detoured and are little proud that we did. The little church was about what we expected, but in order to find a good place to turn around, we had to drive past the church for a few hundred yards and that's when we really discovered The Grove. All of a sudden there was a rather large concrete building, and when we made a left turn in front of the building we were on the Main Street of The Grove. The front of that old building boasted three signs. The first sign, all near the top of the rather tall building, was "The Planters State Bank," across the center "Graham General Mercantile Co.," and last, "U. S. Post Office, The Grove, Texas."

After a quick inspection through windows we decided that the doors had been closed never to be opened to the public again. We also inspected another old wooden building that I assumed had served as a wagon yard building in the distant past. Then there was the waterwell in the middle of the street in front of the building that attracted our attention. There was a roof over the well, supported by four poles, with two well worn benches on opposite sides. Right in front of that old bank, general store and postoffice building was a hitching rail. That old hitching rail was exactly like hundreds of others that were once in use throughout Texas, and it hadn't been put there for atmosphere. It had been there for many years and was well worn attesting to the fact that many animals had been tied there while the rider or driver attended to business.

We didn't have time to let our imagination explore the possibilities that could have made the unrecorded history of The Grove, Texas.

After visiting all of our other relatives, we spent Wednesday night of last week with Viola's niece, Frieda Hansen, and her husband Bill and son Gary. I mentioned our stop at "The Grove" and how I thought it might be a good idea if some Bell County organization would head a drive to make that old building into some sort of a historical museum. Bill's interest was aroused because, like us, they had noticed the church at The Grove but had never driven by the place. They made plans to drive as far as The Things looked bleak for the Nazareth girls in the championship match as they lost their first set to Flores-Lehrmann, 4-6, and fell behind in the second set, 0-3.

"I was afraid they had had it," Supt. Joe King commented. "It didn't look like there was any way they could pull it out."

BUT WITH their backs to the screen, Hochstein and Wethington fought back to take six of the next seven points and win the second set, 6-4. They continued their determined play in the third set and posted a 6-3 victory to win the match and the state championship.

It was Nazareth High School's third state tennis championship. Kim King won the state girls' singles title in 1973 and 1974.

In a story on the local Heart Association in last week's issue of the News, it was erroneously reported that this year's Heart Fund drive raised approximately $20,000.

THE CORRECT figure, according to Heart Fund Chairman Edd McLeroy, was approximately $2,000. The exact amount, he said, was $2,105.87.

"That's the biggest total we've ever had," McLeroy said. "and we'd like to thank everyone who made this total possible."

SANDRA Carpenter, local Industrial Arts Club Sweetheart, "represented our school very well in the state sweetheart contest, and we were all proud of her," Lingle said.

Fourteen DHS students entered woodworking projects in the state contest.

"The competition was a lot tougher this year," Lingle said, "because all regions except ours had regional fairs for judging, then brought only the projects that scored tops in their region."

THE REGION'S traveled to Austin aboard Dan Nelson's motor home/bus (another former state-winning project), and Rex Wooten towed their projects in the club's trailer. Sixteen other adults accompanied the students to the state contest.

What's a Procto?

A procto is a test for colon-rectum cancer, one of the most common forms of the disease.

STATE WINNERS in the advanced level of woodworking at the Texas Industrial Arts Students Association state contest were these two Dimmitt High School seniors. Dudley Wooten (left) won a first-place ribbon with his antiqued-pine triple dresser with hutch. Lance Louder (right) won a second-place ribbon with his cedar-lined chest of rosewood. The youths had to design their own projects and build them of stock lumber, doing all the work themselves in the school's woodworking shop, under the supervision of instructor Denton Lingle.

HARMAN'S In Dimmitt Where The Action!

Year gives opportunities to Turkish AFS student

A year in the United States is giving Mustafa Tosun from Cyprus a chance to further his interest in electronics.

MUSTAFA, an American Field Service student attending Dimmitt High School and living with the Carlos Calvert family this year, has been interested in electronics most of his life.

"I started making a radio when I was in the third grade," said Mustafa. "I finally finished it in the eighth grade, after working on it nearly every day."

Now, he may be one of the first foreign citizens to get a radio operator's license in the US.

"They just changed the rules so official representatives of foreign countries can apply for a license. I took part of the test already and now I have to take the written test, Mustafa explained.

"They just changed the rules so official representatives of foreign countries can apply for a license. I've taken the tests

EXCHANGE STUDENT MUSTAFA TOSUN
"Dimmitt seems to me like one big family" and I should know about the license in about four weeks," explained Mustafa.

"At night I take a course, 'Communications in Electronics' from David Voit. That's how I learned enough to take the operator's test."

Mustafa believes his year in the US will help him get a scholarship at an American university in the Mideast to study electronics after he graduates from high school next year.

IN ADDITION to what he has learned about electronics, Mustafa will go home knowing how to help his mother.

"My three sisters always helped Mother with the housework. I guess I never even knew what our kitchen looked like," said Mustafa with a laugh. "Around here, everybody helps out, I have learned how to fix sandwiches and hamburgers and I know how to do some housecleaning now."

Mustafa has also put his drawing ability to good use. Besides drawing cartoons for his American nieces and nephews, he has designed the program covers for plays and programs at the high school this year.

DURING the Battle of Flowers in San Antonio, Mustafa was one of around 60 exchange students attending an AFS Festival there. The festival gave the students a chance to visit with each other and see the sights of San Antonio.

"I really enjoyed the weekend," noted Mustafa. "We toured the city, went to Battle of Flowers events and had parties. The parade Friday was the largest one I have ever seen. I made better friends in just three days than I have made in my whole life at home."

"The climate down there reminded me of Cyprus so much that I felt homesick," he said.

"It seldom gets below freezing at home so we have flowers blooming all year. Mother grows over 200 kinds at our house," said Mustafa. "I guess you'd say the climate is almost perfect in Cyprus. Sometimes it gets one or two degrees below freezing and snows a little. The warmest temperatures are in the low 90's. About five years ago we had winds for the first time in history and one town had three tornadoes

4-H'ers advance to state contests

Six Castro County 4-H'ers qualified for the State 4-H Roundup by taking second places in District competition Saturday.

NINETEEN other local 4-H'ers also placed in the one day Round-up held in Canyon.

Only first and second place winners in the senior division are allowed to go to state. Those qualifying from Castro County were Bernard and Elaine Acker in horticulture preparation and use and the share-the-fun team of Brent Graef, Leisa Graef, Margie Wilhelm, and Joy Slaughter.

Also in the senior division, Keith Hutto placed third in swine demonstrations and the rifle team of Leslie Heard, Doug Acker, Steve Stanton and Randy Wilson placed fourth.

IN THE junior division, the family life educational activity demonstration by Kim Sides and KaKa Bruegel won first. Second place winners were Scott Simpson and Rodney Hunter, dairy demonstrations; Tammy Behrends and Laura Downing, horse demonstration and Bobby Hochstein, Adrian Stanton, Clayton Acker, Norris Cole and Kevin Ginn, rifle team.

Also, the electric demonstration team of Beth Benton and Janet Sammann took third and the sheep demonstration team of Greg Odom and Shane Smithson placed fourth.

Pioneers meet in Hereford

The Mid Plains Pioneer Association will elect 1975 officers and present the Pioneer of the Year award at a meeting Saturday, May 24 in the Hereford Bull Barn.

THE meeting will get underway at 9:30 a.m. A free lunch will be served at 12.

Included on the agenda are a welcome address, response, reading of minutes and treasurer's report and election of officers. Also, recognition of the oldest man and lady present, the man and lady traveling farthest to attend and finally, the Pioneer of the Year.

There will also be an open house at the museum all day.

NHS honors athletes

Nazareth High School athletes were honored Monday night with an All-Sports banquet in the school cafeteria.

RECEIVING special recognition were Charles Heck, winner of the Swift Award and the boy athlete with the highest scholastic average, Vera Birkenfeld, girl athlete with the highest scholastic average and Rita Pohlmeier and Delly Wethington, co-winners of the Swift Award for girls.

The Swift Awards go to senior athletes who have shown outstanding attitude, character and desire while competing in at least two sports. Runners-up for the awards were Patti Hochstein, Bernie Huseman and Keith Birkenfeld.

Patti Hochstein and Delly Wethington, state tennis doubles champs, received a standing ovation.

Certificates were presented to all athletes earning letters this year.

Cathy Wilson, a senior guard for the Wayland Flying Queens and guest speaker, showed slides of her team and talked about the ingredients of a winning team.

HHS athletes get awards

Local students get SPC awards

Vera Schulte of Nazareth and Dean Smithson of Dimmitt were honored as outstanding students last Wednesday at South Plains College.

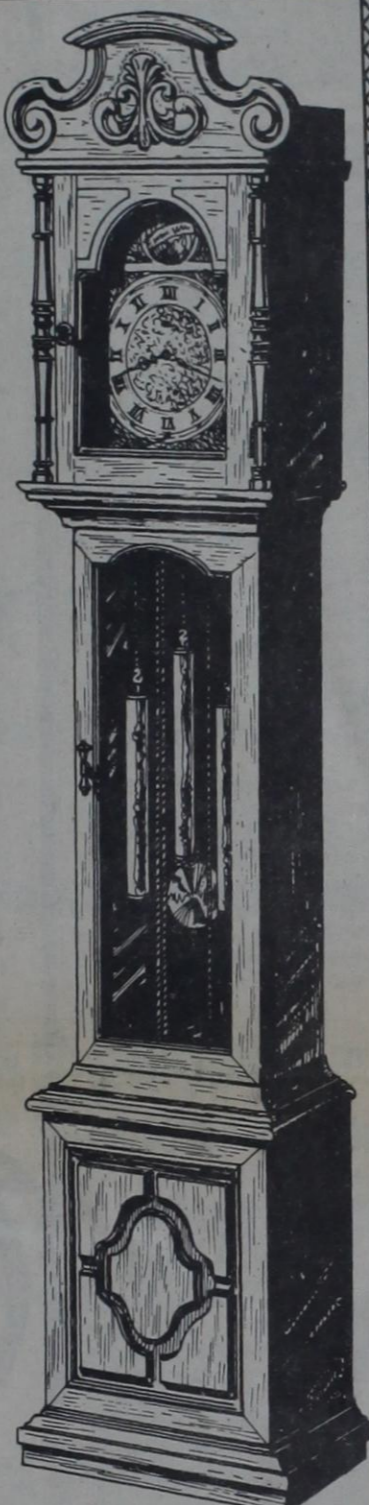

FACULTY from each department selected one outstanding student on the basis of scholastic achievements, to be recognized at a departmental awards convocation.

Miss Schulte received her award from the two-year secretarial science program. Smithson was recognized by the agriculture department as a member of the livestock evaluation team.

Mental health asks support during May

The Texas Association for Mental Health, in observance of Mental Health Month, is conducting a house-to-house fund campaign during May. CHAIRMAN of the Dimmitt drive is Mrs. Robert Buntyn. Campaign workers will be wearing tags and carrying volunteer packets. According to Mrs. Buntyn, 83 cents of every dollar donated goes to research, educational services and public information. Seven cents goes for campaign materials and the remaining 10 cents goes to administration of the state-wide mental health program. In Castro County, mental health services are served through the Family Services Center, 412 NW 3rd, Dimmitt. The center is a satellite of the Central Plains Mental Health and Mental Retardation Service Center in Plainview. Questions concerning the service can be answered by Judy Birdwell at 647-2409. NEARLY 100,000 men, women and children donate a day of their time and effort each year to conducting the VFW Buddy Poppy sale.

More about

Averitt

[Continued from Page 1] owners in the Hart district would have to pay at least 50% more in taxes if the Governor's Bill were to go through.

Also, it would result in tax money being funneled from school districts in this area to poorer districts downstate, and to the impacted districts in San Antonio, El Paso, Houston, Dallas, Austin and other metropolitan areas.

And it would force the people in the Hart, Nazareth and Dimmitt school districts to consolidate their schools or pay extra to keep their community schools going. The Governor's Bill is designed for an optimum school size of 1,600 students. To have a school with that enrollment, Hart's and Nazareth's school districts would have to consolidate with Dimmitt's.

THERE could be lots of other major changes in public education in our area if the schools consolidated, and Averitt doesn't like any of them.

"In our rural area, think what it would do to the athletic, band and UIL programs, with one school in the county," Averitt said. "All competition would probably level out to just two classes—AAA and AAAA. Think of how many kids are getting to participate now who wouldn't get to in a larger system. And look at the travel you'd have just to play an athletic schedule."

Averitt said that Dr. Richard Hooker, author of the Governor's Bill, was asked by the superintendents in Austin two weeks ago what the maximum time should be for a student to ride a school bus.

"HE SAID one hour in the morning and one in the afternoon should be the maximum," Averitt recalled. "Dimmitt and Hart, I'm sure, already have kids riding one hour or more. Consolidation would mean that a lot of kids would be riding a lot longer than an hour."

Averitt favors a one-cent state sales tax as the fairest way to finance public education—as do Supt. Charlie White of Dimmitt and Supt. Joe King of Nazareth. But the sales tax is considered a dead issue in the legislature, Averitt learned during his recent trip to Austin. "Bill Clayton told us there's just no possibility of a one-cent state sales tax," he said. "The governor will veto any new tax proposal, and the legislature couldn't muster the two-thirds majority required to override the governor's veto. A lot of our legislators were elected on campaign promises of no new state taxes, as was the governor."

AND THE governor's pledge of "no new state taxes," Averitt said, is a fallacy.

"There'll be new taxes. If they aren't state taxes, they'll be local taxes. The governor's weighted-pupil approach throws the tax burden back to the school districts. That's what chaps us."

Those are some of the reasons Averitt is glad that the Governor's Bill has been successfully bottled so far. And Sen. Max Sherman of Amarillo told the visiting superintendents two weeks ago that he, too, is opposed to the Governor's Bill and that he thinks it has even less of a chance in the Senate than it does in the House.

The Kubiak substitute, Averitt feels, would get the starting teacher salary up ("They'll compromise on a base of about $8,000"), and would buy some time while the weighted-pupil concept is being tested in pilot programs. During that time, another legislature might adopt a state sales tax that would truly equalize public school financing and allow the local school to remain a viable part of the small community.

Key Club sends three members to convention

By ALTON FIELDS

Randy Wilson, president of the Dimmitt Key Club, Max Wohlgenuth and Curtis Broadstreet have returned from Dallas where they attended the Oklahoma-Texas Key Club District Convention.

Accompanying these three Key Club members were sponsors Carl Bruegel and Dale Fowler. Bob Harrington, the "Pastor of Bourbon Street," was the main speaker for the convention.

THE KEY Club is a service organization for high school students and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At present, the Dimmitt Key Club is at the halfway mark of raising $1,500 to erect a new sign in front of Dimmitt High School. The all-brick structure will designate the "Home of the Fighting Bobcats" as well as provide space for messages of upcoming events at Dimmitt High School. The Key Club hopes to have the money raised and the sign erected before school is out next year.

TWO OF the club's main fund-raising activities were to clean up the football field after each home game and a workday, in which each member hired out for one day and donated their earnings to the club.

Rites held for Mrs. Barton

Services were held Friday in Earth for Mrs. A. C. Barton, mother of Melvin Barton of Dimmitt.

MRS. BARTON, 82, died Wednesday in Muleshoe. She was a resident of Earth for 55 years.

Bill Reese officiated at services in Earth Church of Christ. Burial was in Springlake Cemetery.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Haley of Earth, and Mrs. Gladys McCord, also of Earth; three sons, Weldon and Ardis, both of Earth and Melvin of Dimmitt; a brother, W. A. McCool of Earth; 15 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Band Festival is Saturday

The Dimmitt Elementary and Junior High School Band Festival will be held Saturday at the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

BANDS from Bovina, Kress, Springlake, Tulia, Olton, Ralls, Idalou, Abernathy, Lubbock Christian Junior High and Frenship will compete with the Dimmitt Junior High and Sixth Grade Bands.

Judges for the festival are Pat Patterson of Sweetwater High School and Gerald Smith of Panhandle High School. They will judge concert playing and sightreading performances.

Solo, ensemble and twirling events will also be judged, with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bales of Canyon assisting as solo and ensemble judges.

The Dimmitt Junior High Band will open the festival at 9 a.m. The Sixth Grade Band will perform at 10.

TURNING OFF a gas yard light consuming 18,000 cubic feet of gas will save 159 gallons of crude oil equivalent a year. Replacing it with a 30-watt electric bulb would save 148 gallons a year without sacrificing safety or aesthetics, reports Lynn Bourland, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Profit Maker for the Plains!

Pioneer® brand 828 is one of the highest yielding sorghums you can plant. It responds well to good management on good land with plenty of water. Many Plains growers like 828 because it holds its quality and threshes well even after an early freeze or snow. Semi-compact heads of dark red grain on sturdy stalks make Pioneer brand 828 a beauty in the field.

View from the Library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

If you have read "Papa's Wife" and "Papa's Daughter" by Thyra Ferre Bjorn, then you will want to read her latest book, "The Golden Acres". This is an old-fashioned love story that spans the generation gap—the older generation's quest for peace and security and youth's desire for independence and love.

We have two books by Catherine Cookson that are new in our library and you may want to read these. "A Grand Man" concerns a young girl who knew that her father's drinking was breaking her mother's spirit and ruining her home, but neither the taunts of her schoolmates nor the gossip of neighbors could shake her belief that Mike Shaugnessy was a pillar of respectability and sobriety. Set in the vast tenement sections along England's Tyne river docks, "A Grand Man" combines humor, mature insight and many heartwarming touches to present a realistic and unsentimentalized story of profound love.

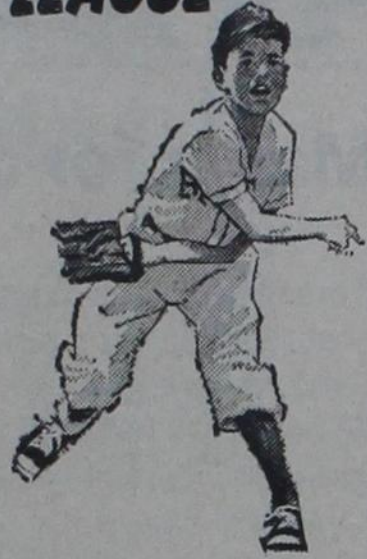

Another novel by Catherine Cookson "Our John Willie" deals with two brothers, Davy who had managed to save his young brother Willie, deaf and dumb from birth, from a flooded mine shaft. The waters had taken the life of their father and the two boys were left orphaned and penniless. Miss Peamars had become a reclusive eccentric surrounded by ruin and decay. It was only when she decided to open her heart to the scruffy orphans that her life began to change dramatically.

IN "Shoulder the Sky", D. E. Stevenson's fans will have the delightful experience of renewing their acquaintance with some old friends whom they first met and came to love in "Vittoria Cottage" and "Music in the Hills". This is another tale of the Scottish Border Country and continues the story of James Dering Johnstone and his bride Rhoda. Just back from their honeymoon Rhoda faces a dilemma: How does a girl accustomed to an artist's life in London take life on a sheep farm? Unwittingly, her neighbors solve the problem.

Verletta Witt helped with the showing of the film "The Peanut Flyer" at the Children's Story Hour last Friday. Melba Sanders told stories and served candy to 16 boys and girls. Lynette Rials and Shirley Schacher stayed to help.
