Although primarily promoting the development of farming and livestock raising techniques, club work also stresses the importance of the home, and a well-rounded life in general. No doubt the vaunted agricultural achievements of our nation are partially due to the work and research done by the young club people of the country. Through the instruction they have received from their many competent leaders they have grown into adulthood with a clear understanding of the importance of the home in the life of the individuals, and as a result of their homemaking training have brought the best in the American tradition to the rural homes of America. The youth of the county deserve every encouragement possible, and everyone will have an opportunity to offer them their share of encouragement this week-end by attending their annual show.

Texans will be exposed to a new unexperienced phase of politics this year. This will be the first time that state politics will be directly influenced by a native son having top billing in the Presidential campaign. John Nance Garner and L. B. Johnson have had the distinction of representing their state in the second place on the ticket, but historically the vice-presidential candidate seldom is a subject of much interest and in that capacity the two former Texas candidates failed to generate the statewide interest that will undoubtedly be present in the upcoming campaign. This is not to say that President Johnson hasn't always been in close contact with politics on the state level, but there has never been a time when the political situation in Texas meant so much to him or any other man from Texas. Even people who don't like Johnson realize and admit that he is a master politician and his supporters believe that his unique talent in that field can also cause him to become the outstanding statesman of our time. The political muddle that has been the fare of Texans for the past several months just might prove to be a blessing to government on the state level. The so-called conservatives and liberals of the Texas Democratic party have been at each other's throats for the past several years now, with the result of a stalemate in state government that has contributed little to progress so far as our public institutions are concerned. Chances are small that there will be anything but a continuation of the present ultra-conservative state government, controlled by the vested interests, for the next two years but maybe the fact that we have a political moderate from Texas in the White House will have some effect on the conduct of our conservative state officials.

In recent weeks the conservative combine in the state has been yelling loud and long about the pressure from Washington keeping their fair-haired boys from running for office, mainly the U.S. Senate. They should know about pressure, they have applied it to Texas politics for more years than it is comfortable to remember. In the past some of the ones, yelling the loudest now, became devoted workers in the Republican party when their special brand of pressure failed to get results. For instance when Allen Shivers couldn't intimidate Governor Stevenson he led the conservative apparatus, masquerading under the name of Democratic Executive Committee, into the Republican camp. If those birds wanted to run against Senator Yarborough it's a free country. Washington couldn't have prevented one or all of them from running. The thing that kept Kilgore, Shivers, et al from making the race for Senator was a few samplings of public opinion that proved to them that Senator Yarborough wouldn't be a push over for any of the on again off again so-called democrats.

The Young Democrats of Amarillo did the John Birch ridden Golden Spread a great favor Sunday afternoon by buying time on TV channel 4 for the broadcasting of a speech by Gordon Hall. The speech was recorded Saturday evening when Hall spoke to a gathering, in one of Amarillo's high school auditoriums, under the auspices of the Potter-Randall counties Young Democrats Club. There have been pieces in the papers for

Changes In Wheat Standards Effective May 1

The U.S. Department of Agriculture will tighten official United States standards for grades of wheat, effective May 1.

In his announcement, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said the new standards would improve the competitive position of U.S. wheat in world markets; help combat restrictive trade policies in some areas; enable the Commodity Credit Corporation to better guarantee the quality of grain owned by the public; provide substantial taxpayer savings in the export subsidy program; and strengthen the price of wheat for the farmer who grows a quality product.

In general, the new standards—based on smaller ranges of tolerance for grades—will mean less dirt, foreign matter and dockage in American wheat. Quality factors of weight, soundness and cleanliness can be more readily and more precisely measured today than in the past.

Maximum limits are set for "total defects"—damaged kernels, foreign material and shrunken and broken kernels. Total defects in grade No. 1 have been set at 3 per cent, in grade No. 2 at 5 per cent. Limits are also set in the other numerical grades.

Limits for shrunken and broken kernels are cut from 5 to 3 per cent for grade No. 1 and 12 per cent for grade No. 2 and 20 per cent for grade No. 5.

Minimum moisture content for wheat graded "tough" is reduced from 14 or 14.5 percent (depending on the class) to 13.5 percent for all classes. The change also eliminates moisture as a factor in determining sample grade.

"Dockage" is recorded in half percent with other fractions reduced to the nearest whole or half. Dockage is material other than wheat which may be readily removed by cleaning. It is not a grade determining factor but is recorded on inspection certificates.

These changes, explains Tom Aaron, grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, are intended to better reflect the quality of the wheat in the price received by the producer. During a transitional period after May 1, grain inspectors will, on request, show the grade of wheat under both standards.

CONSERVATION CONVERSATION

"If tomorrow's newspaper revealed a foreign nation was plotting to steal America's topsoil, acre by acre, over the next twenty years—to bring us to our knees for food—we would be stressed into immediate action. The Government would mobilize to save our soil. Congress would pass legislation, we would be at war! And overnight, the hearts of every citizen would beat with sincere emotion for our long-forgotten, newly discovered friend, the land."

—Joseph W. Frazer

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D.
Commissioner of Health

Some research has been done, but the fourth leading cause of death presents a mammoth and diverse challenge. Indications are that there is more involved in an accident than just a simple occurrence - fall, poisoning or burn.

The most dangerous time of the day, as far as home accidents go, appears to be the period immediately preceding the evening meal - between three and six - the highest point of hunger and fatigue of the day.

Children in families under stress of some temporary type are more susceptible to accidents.

As far as cause-effect relationships, little is known. And unfortunately, much of the available knowledge and just plain common sense go unheeded. For example, we know poisons can kill, but babies continue to crawl under the kitchen sink and drink to their death the poison left there.

Although we don't have all the answers, we can apply knowledge that we have and question the label "accident" before stretching it to cover a death or injury in your home.

Jaycee Jake Says

Jaycee interest was stimulated at the club's most recent luncheon meeting by presentation of an "American Heritage" film strip with sound. The film was followed by a lively discussion which resulted in the consensus that it was too controversial for further showing to politically unsophisticated groups.

The film did have the positive result, however, of stirring interest in a new Jayce program called "Speak Up, Jaycee!" which can be compared directly to Toastmaster Club activities in that it trains participants to speak on their feet without preparation. Nearly unanimous interest was displayed it is likely that the program will be instituted soon, under the leadership of Don Newman.

Jaycee Radio Day will be aired on February 29, 1964, when Dimmitt Jaycees will take over Radio Station KDHN for the entire day, with all continuity and announcement conducted by Jaycee members. This upcoming activity is intended to inure directly to other Jaycee sponsored activities; KDHN has consented to return two-thirds of proceeds from Jaycee—sold radio time to the Jaycee treasury. In this connection, Jaycees have sold radio commercial announcements to Dimmitt and area merchants.

Harry Brown was given a vote of thanks by Jaycee members for his participation in the club's light bulb sale campaign. Also brought out was the fact that Goodwin Miller was overlooked inadvertently in previous publicity having to do the Boys Ranch grain program. Miller donated his time and resources to hauling grain to the Ranch.

Screwworm Program Observes Second Anniversary

The screwworm eradication program has just completed its second full year of operation on a highly successful note, and even more favorable results are expected in the year ahead.

Only one screwworm infestation has been reported in the five-state eradication area since January 1.

The massive eradication project which involves the release of millions of sexually-sterile flies that disrupt the insect's reproductive capability, was begun on February 14, 1962.

Since then, more than eight billion screwworm flies, reared in a huge plant near Mission and sterilized through exposure to an atomic energy source, have been released by airplanes in screwworm-infested areas of the Southwest. This technique, along with preventive measures used by farmers and ranchers, has reduced screwworm incidence by more than 99 percent, entomologists say.

With the decrease in infestations in the United States, eradication workers are turning their attention to activities along the border between the U.S. and Mexico. A large portion of the sterile flies will be dispersed in a strip along the border extending from the Gulf of Mexico to a point below the state of Arizona. This barrier is to prevent fertile screwworm flies from migrating out of Mexico and reinfesting Southwest.

Although screwworm infestations have become a rare occurrence in Texas, eradication workers insist that it is still important for livestock producers to be alert for screwworms in their livestock. Until the barrier has been completely established and thoroughly tested, the possibility will exist that a fertile screwworm fly could migrate into the Southwest from Mexico, they say.

The Longhorns made 14 out of 24 free shots.

Dennis McLain Honored As Hart Best Beau

AMMO NOTES

by Wm. F. (Bill) Bennett, Agronomist, Western Ammonia Corporation

APPLICATION OF NITROGEN
The proper time of application of nitrogen fertilizer depends on the soil, crop and type of nitrogen fertilizer being used.

Let's look first at the fact that the major sources of nitrogen in this area can be classed as ammonium nitrogen, nitrate nitrogen or a combination of the two. Anhydrous ammonia, urea and ammonium sulfate are nitrogen fertilizers containing only ammonium nitrogen. Ammonium nitrate contains half ammonium and half nitrate nitrogen. Nitrogen solutions will vary in ammonium or nitrate nitrogen content, depending on the materials used in preparing the solutions.

This sets the stage for reaction with the soil. The positively charged ammonium ion reacts with the negatively charged clay particle in the soil. It will stay attached to the soil particle until it is changed by bacteria or utilized by the young plant. Nitrate nitrogen, on the other hand, is negatively charged and will not react with the soil but will stay in the soil solution. As a result, nitrate nitrogen will move both up and down with soil moisture.

The next item to consider is the conditions under which the ammonium will change to nitrate. This changeover starts taking place when the soil reaches about 65 degrees and the bacteria become active.

Bacterial activity increases slowly as the soil warms up, thus increasing the rate of changeover. By the time the soil reaches about 90 degrees, the changeover to the nitrate form is fairly rapid. Soil temperatures in this area reach about 65 per cent in May or June and will usually reach 90 degrees in August.

These considerations tell us that ammonium forms of nitrogen can be safely applied any time in the fall after the soil temperature goes below 65 degrees. Nitrate forms of nitrogen probably can be safely applied to our heavier clay loam soils without any appreciable loss, since water movement through these soils is not too rapid. To be safe on nitrate sources of nitrogen, they should be applied about the time the plants will need a good supply of nitrogen.

Early application of ammonia has some important benefits from the standpoint of convenience. The job is done early when time and equipment are available. You don't have to worry about sidesteering nitrogen when you need to be cultivating. Too much moisture may hinder sidesteering.

The question often comes up on whether it is ever too dry to apply ammonia—my reaction is seldom, if ever. If the chisel marks can be properly covered, there will be little chance of losing ammonia on dry soils. Soils can often be too wet to apply ammonia since it may be difficult to cover the chisel opening. Poor physical condition where soil is exceptionally cloddy may also prevent proper application of ammonia.

The main point to remember on nitrogen is to apply a sufficient quantity and get the job done. Losses of nitrogen from early application of ammonia will be small if any.

Conservation Essay Winners Announced

—Carol Schulte
Who will live in the world twenty years from now? Youths of today will. What kind of lives will they live? They will live lives the same as today if they help to conserve our natural resources. Many people do not even give thought to the useful resources we have. This is why youth should be greatly concerned with conservation.

Our resources are forests, grass, forage lands; animal life, water, soil, and minerals. They give us food, clothing, shelter, heat, medicine, and beautiful scenery. Some resources can be replaced, such as forests, grass, forage lands, and animal life. Others which cannot be replaced are soils and minerals. It is very important to conserve the resources which cannot be replaced, but it is just as important to conserve the ones which can. Remember that it takes just a short while to destroy resources and a very long time to replace them.

As a result of determination, and thanks to the resources the country offered, the ancestors of our youth were able to build a life here. Life is still going on today, but will it tomorrow? There are many things that can destroy life which we cannot help. But there are some things which we can help. Conserving our natural resources is one, Youth, especially, can take an important part in this.

It is a youth's responsibility to learn about the resources that need to be saved and protected. A youth should know the laws of conservation and follow them. Undertaking some conservation project in school or community will also be a help. It depends on the youth to save now and to enjoy later with his children's children the many conserved resources.

—Marvin Hoelting
The youth's stake in conservation is very important to the country and the countries around us. It is also important for the youth because they make the future. Before we can do much about it, we have to know what the phrase means. Conservation simply means the protection and wise use of our natural resources. Did I say simply? Yes, but is it all that simple? Our natural resources are not only limited, but many of them can be easily damaged or destroyed. Now, what can youth do to help? Each and everone of us uses natural resources everyday. It is our duty, now, to see that our children and our children's children get the same advantages.

We have to be especially careful when we are handling resources. When we are out camping, one match can ruin much of our forest, our carelessness around a dam can start a flood, and one shot can reduce our wildlife. Our stake in conservation will determine the economic value of the land and the nation.

We, ourselves, are the most important resources in any nation. The health, happiness, and well-being of everyone of us will depend highly on our surroundings. The social worker, the city planner, the game warden, the policeman, and the doctor are concerned with conservation. We are those men of the future. We will be living on the land and we will be enjoying the outdoors. We will be filling the soil and we will be drinking the water. If we want to be happy, let us stand up and be counted in the conservation of our natural resources.

—Molly Lupton
"Youth Stake In Conservation"

The youth should take a specific stand in the conservation of our resources which are vital factors in the existence of the United States. The conservation of our resources, such as water, soil, forests, wildlife, oil, and minerals, is extremely important to our well-being. Everything which we produce comes from our vast amount of resources either directly or indirectly.

Soil and water conservation are of great importance to us in order to produce the terrific amount of food, clothing, and shelter which this generation and the ones to come must have in order to survive. We must at this time begin to be more conservative with our land and water.

In order to conserve our land, we should not overproduce the land, keep it from being eroded by wind or water, and have some kind of vegetation of the land that is not in cultivation.

We should also save our water. By "save", I do not mean not to use any, but that we should not waste it as we sometimes see in the summer, when the bar-ditches are full of flood water from irrigating. Next to air, water is of the most importance to our existence. Some of its uses are drinking (humans and animals) industry, household use, a home for aquatic life, plants, transportation, recreation, etc.

Guests attending the coffee include Diker Stanford, Vaudene Giles, Peggy Prather, Gail Parsons, Nancy Ross, Betty Tiffin, Jane Blackburn, Charlene Hulme, Marie White, Mary Sweatman and Carolyn Shelton.

Also Maretta Smithson, Linda Smithson, Norma Webb, Sandra Clark, Virginia Stanley, Martha...

Pace Quickens In Presidential Nomination Race

With national party conventions only months away, the pace is quickening in the race for the Presidential party nominations.

In the Democratic Party, President Johnson is almost sure to run again for President.

In the GOP (Grand Old Party) the race is wide open. The first person to announce his candidacy for the Presidency was New York's Governor Rockefeller. Soon afterwards, Goldwater joined in the race and just recently, Mrs. Chase Smith, a Senator from Maine, says she will give it a try. Among the non-candidates are Michigan's Governor Romney, Pennsylvania's Governor William Scranton, and Richard Nixon, former Vice President and presidential candidate in 1960. William Scranton has said that he has no intention to run, and Romney says that he has troubles in his home state of Michigan. Nixon moved from California to New York, and he has entered the law profession.

Last autumn, when the Presidential race was getting underway, Goldwater and Rockefeller were neck-and-neck, but it would have been a hard struggle, no matter who the Republican candidate was, to beat Kennedy in the election.

At that time, Goldwater had a slight edge among the announced candidates, as the best man to run against Kennedy, but non-candidates, such as Nixon, had even higher ratings, according to popular opinion polls. Now, with Johnson as President, the general opinion is to have a more neutral opponent to Johnson. The polls show that Johnson has more support than the late President Kennedy has. For example, in a recent poll, Johnson got about 80 per cent of the votes to Goldwater's 18 per cent. In other polls taken from the same people, Rockefeller has 16 per cent to Johnson's 80 per cent, while Nixon, a non-candidate, had 30 per cent to Johnson's 60 per cent. Nelson Rockefeller's popularity has improved somewhat, but Goldwater's popularity has fallen off.

Whoever runs against Johnson for the Presidency in 1964 will have a hard struggle, and the 1964 elections will prove to be an exciting contest.

Dimmitt, Friona Split Another In District Play

Dimmitt's mighty Bobcats rolled to another victory Tuesday night as they rolled by Friona 76-58. Dimmitt took an early first quarter lead 17-10. Dimmitt held the half time lead 37-19. The Bobcats rolled into the third quarter with a comfortable 56-36 lead. Clint Summers and Steve Hutton lead the Cats as each netted 17 points. Landol Frazier also netted 14 points. Dimmitt's Bobbies did not prove to be so successful as they fell to Friona 68-46. The Friona Fems jumped to an early lead as they left the first quarter 16-4. Friona held the half time lead 31-21. Friona kept up its tremendous scoring to end the third quarter 46-35. Linda McColum lead the Bobbies with 25 points and Sharon Lilley trailed close behind as she netted 17 points for the Bobbies.

Dimmitt High School Students Participate In Delta Kappa Gamma Meeting

Saturday, February 15, eight students from Dimmitt High School went to Friona to take part in a District meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, a club composed of teachers from the surrounding area.

Miss Bernice Littlepage, Dimmitt teacher who had been called off from the previous Saturday because of snow. The program deals with the building of responsible young people through the various clubs and organizations of the churches and the schools.

Kathy Gollehon opened the program by singing God Bless America, and This is my Country. Linda McColum gave the introduction by telling of the American Heritage and then told how the Student Council helps develop leaders. Pat Moran gave reasons for the importance of the National Honor Society and its part in building responsibility in young people. Dennis Cleaver told about the Athletic department and Arlene Reid about the Future the Future Teachers of America. Linda Davis discussed the valuable information gained through the Girls' and Boys' State program. Phoebe Strother closed the program with the role of the church in the development of christian young people, ready for their part in the future.

Snooper

Well, it was back to the old grind this week while the hopes of snow vanished for the time being. The students continued their very active social life.

Some of the more—ah—vigorous activities were:

Paul Easterwood is still having trouble with his famous "red bomb" called a Ford. If you get a chance, ask him what his opinion is on the Ford, but when you do, step back, because on this matter he possesses a quick temper that could lead to serious injuries.

It seems that Larry Scoggin has had trouble getting his Physical Science in activity hall. When he gets about half finished, along comes Ricki and tears up his paper.

Well, it seems that the Latin I class has done it again! You guessed it, folks, a new teacher. Her name is Miss Gaddes. She is taking the place of our ex-teacher, Mrs. Cleveland. In the jive of the high school student she is classified as a "real neat swinger." As for Mrs. Cleveland, we take our hats off to her because when there was no one to teach this very difficult course, she tried at least to teach us, while learning herself. We would like to thank you for your great personality and understanding; and for putting up with us in your short teaching term in Latin. We would especially like to thank you for putting up with the brats of the class (Steve, Paul, Sue, Pat, and Dale) not to mention any names.

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers of America met on February 13, with Jacky Nichols presiding.

It was decided to postpone the party planned earlier until after the Best Beau Banquet.

April 7 is the day set for the Future Teachers to teach in the lower grades.

The meeting was adjourned.

Personality of the Week

Dimmitt High School has a new student. I guess the luck of boys for the Senior class ran out, but why worry about Senior boys when we can have a new freshman girl.

This week Mary Gilbert registered with our school system. This fifteen year old girl was born on May 5, 1948 in Silverton, Texas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gilbert.

Mary and her family recently moved with her family from Friona Texas.

Yes, everyone has to take certain subjects in high school and it looks like Mary got stuck with it too. Now, is that a very nice way to load a new student; putting loads of lessons before her? Oh, well, I suppose she will just have to suffer along with the rest of us. Mary got to take the following subjects: English I, P.E., Algebra I, Homemaking I, and Physical Science.

Mary collects different recipes for her hobby and I suppose that she also tries out these recipes. That is the first sign of a good homemaker. Along with her hobbies, Mary has her favorites. Why does everyone like blue? Oh, anyway, blue is also Mary's favorite color. Her dream car is the Ford, and her speciality, food-wise, is fried chicken. While driving in her blue Ford eating fried chicken, she would love to be listening to Sugar Shack on the radio which is by the way, her favorite song.

It's nice to find a person who hasn't any pet peeves she simply states "I don't dislike anything."

Mary says that she has known and liked Dimmitt for a long time and she especially likes the school but everyone knows that the students, who Mary says are very nice, make up our big and beautiful school.

Let's all watch out for Mary Gilbert in the Freshman class and see if we can make a new friend.

New Teacher On Campus

I'm sure everyone has noticed the new teacher on the campus of Dimmitt High School. She is Miss Linda Redman. Miss Redman's hometown is Amarillo, Texas.

This is Miss Redman's first time to teach since she graduated. She received her P.A. degree from West Texas State University. Miss Redman teaches English III, Spanish I and Spanish II.

She enjoys reading, swimming, writing and church work.

Miss Redman said, "I think the school system is very friendly and efficient, the students are very cooperative and very nice. I enjoy teaching here very much."

We want to welcome Miss Redman to our campus and hope she learns to love the campus of D. H.S. as we do.

Senior Of The Week

Who is that one senior girl who is more vivacious than anyone else around, one with the ever present smile? Why, it could only be Carolyn Holcomb, of course. How Carolyn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Holcomb, and her two brothers and two sisters could have survived these past seventeen years I'll never know; but somehow from the date of her birth, March 22, 1946, until the present time, they have endured all of her little pranks.

They say a person's true personality is shown by his likes and dislikes; this must certainly be factual for Carolyn likes friendly, happy, people, and dislikes grouches. No wonder this is true for I doubt that there is a person in Dimmitt that has not been stirred or cheered by this girl's friendliness and warmth.

Carolyn's favorites are: Hobby - reading and playing bass clarinet color - all colors
 food - beans and cornbread car - Pontiac
 actor - John Wayne
 Actress - Sandra Dee movie - "Tammy and the Doctor"

Busy, busy, busy certainly describes our celebrated charmer for she is engaged in all types of clubs and activities. She has membership in the Latin Club, F.T.A., F.H.A., and band.

Her talents are not just appreciated by a few, but by her entire class and school. Her junior year brought her acclaim as the "most friendly" girl in her class, and this year she was a member of the All-regional Band.

This girl, the one who seems to have a magical charm, has been very easy to write about, and much more that has not been said, could be written; but how does one explain the wonderful feeling one receives just from getting a smile from Carolyn, or the sincere pleasure one notices at just being around her. Let us then close with this one wish—Good luck to you, Carolyn, as you leave your family and friends this fall to attend the University of Arkansas to prepare for your career as an English teacher. May you always have the best, for you are the best.

Our Campus

"We want to wish the basketball boys the best of luck as they proceed into the District 3-AA Championship! Do your best team! We're behind you all the way!"

—Annual Queen Candidates were elected last Monday. Good Luck, Girls!!

—Band Favorites were selected last Friday! They were selected by secret ballot as the favorites of each band member. These two lucky people were Nancy Hays and Jacky Nichols

—The Football and Basketball boys selected their candidates for Football and Basketball Queen last Thursday! We also want to wish each and everyone of you girls the best of luck!!

—All the seniors have been measured for their caps and gowns! Now only the anticipation of waiting for the night to wear them is in store!

—The F.T.A. members will be trying out as teachers on April 9, when they will be teaching classes for one day.

Some seniors are anxiously awaiting the results of the A.C.T. test they took in Canyon at W.T. last Saturday.

Girl Talk

Ralph is a typical basketball player, tall, dark, and handsome—aren't they all? He works out in the fieldhouse every afternoon. He exists for the most part on milk, fried liver, cream of wheat and corn flakes. He doesn't smoke, drink or eat "foreign food," and he has never learned to like coffee.

Ralph has taken you to two really tremendous movies and fallen asleep in both of them. For your birthday he has your tennis racket restrung and gives you a five-year subscription to SPORTS DIGEST!!

You know he likes you because he throws bits of wadded up rolls at you in the cafeteria and you're the only girl that he lets touch his D.H.S. jacket.

He never goes out with anyone else but he was once overheard telling his fellow teammates that marriage has ruined an awful lot of good athletes.

WHAT TO DO??

Try to make him see that girls are necessary. Get interested in sports. If you can just once come up with a basketball statistic or Olympic record he doesn't know, he'll never stop being impressed.

Meanwhile, learn scientific muscle massage. If there's a movie you really want to see, slip a benzidine in his Cream of Wheat and make him take you.

When those rolls start flying in, laugh and pour iced tea all over his mashed potatoes. Wear your big brother's All-American basketball jacket and tell Ralph how terrible he looks in blue.

Tell your girl friend, while he's within listening distance, how ridiculous you think marriage is (or some other rash statement).

HAPPY EASTER AND happy holiday. . . (your boyfriend)

Football And Basketball Queen Candidates Selected

Oh, well, I suppose she will just have to suffer along with the rest of us. Mary got to take the following subjects: English I, P.E., Algebra I, Homemaking I, and Physical Science.

Mary collects different recipes for her hobby and I suppose that she also tries out these recipes. That is the first sign of a good homemaker. Along with her hobbies, Mary has her favorites. Why does everyone like blue? Oh, anyway, blue is also Mary's favorite color. Her dream car is the Ford, and her speciality, food-wise, is fried chicken. While driving in her blue Ford eating fried chicken, she would love to be listening to Sugar Shack on the radio which is by the way, her favorite song.

It's nice to find a person who hasn't any pet peeves she simply states "I don't dislike anything."

Mary says that she has known and liked Dimmitt for a long time and she especially likes the school but everyone knows that the students, who Mary says are very nice, make up our big and beautiful school.

Let's all watch out for Mary Gilbert in the Freshman class and see if we can make a new friend.

"We want to wish the basketball boys the best of luck as they proceed into the District 3-AA Championship! Do your best team! We're behind you all the way!"

—Annual Queen Candidates were elected last Monday. Good Luck, Girls!!

—Band Favorites were selected last Friday! They were selected by secret ballot as the favorites of each band member. These two lucky people were Nancy Hays and Jacky Nichols

—The Football and Basketball boys selected their candidates for Football and Basketball Queen last Thursday! We also want to wish each and everyone of you girls the best of luck!!

—All the seniors have been measured for their caps and gowns! Now only the anticipation of waiting for the night to wear them is in store!

—The F.T.A. members will be trying out as teachers on April 9, when they will be teaching classes for one day.

Some seniors are anxiously awaiting the results of the A.C.T. test they took in Canyon at W.T. last Saturday.

Girl Talk

Ralph is a typical basketball player, tall, dark, and handsome—aren't they all? He works out in the fieldhouse every afternoon. He exists for the most part on milk, fried liver, cream of wheat and corn flakes. He doesn't smoke, drink or eat "foreign food," and he has never learned to like coffee.

Ralph has taken you to two really tremendous movies and fallen asleep in both of them. For your birthday he has your tennis racket restrung and gives you a five-year subscription to SPORTS DIGEST!!

You know he likes you because he throws bits of wadded up rolls at you in the cafeteria and you're the only girl that he lets touch his D.H.S. jacket.

He never goes out with anyone else but he was once overheard telling his fellow teammates that marriage has ruined an awful lot of good athletes.

WHAT TO DO??

Try to make him see that girls are necessary. Get interested in sports. If you can just once come up with a basketball statistic or Olympic record he doesn't know, he'll never stop being impressed.

Meanwhile, learn scientific muscle massage. If there's a movie you really want to see, slip a benzidine in his Cream of Wheat and make him take you.

When those rolls start flying in, laugh and pour iced tea all over his mashed potatoes. Wear your big brother's All-American basketball jacket and tell Ralph how terrible he looks in blue.

Tell your girl friend, while he's within listening distance, how ridiculous you think marriage is (or some other rash statement).

HAPPY EASTER AND happy holiday. . . (your boyfriend)

Bills Underway For New Feed Grain Program

The High Plains agricultural economy has operated at a peak the last three years according to Bill Nelson, executive vice president of G.S.P.A.

Most towns and communities have reported record retail sales! Record farm machinery and equipment sales! Record individual farm and city income Record contributions to community charitable organizations! Record construction permits! Record Bank deposit!

"In an area with 2 million acres of dry land and 2 million acres of irrigated land devoted to the production of grain sorghum this is what happens when the price supports move from $1.52 to $2 per hundred, the market price goes from $1.35 up to $1.80, and when even at the high price sales at home and abroad increase," comments Nelson.

The current Feed Grain Program under which these area developments came about is in effect through 1965, Nelson declares. "This should not lead to complacence cy however as there are several factors in the Feed Grain Program that can and probably would be carried to less favorable levels for grain sorghum if (1) there is no wheat legislation and large stocks of cheap wheat should develop and if (2) some of the proposed wheat bills were passed."

Currently there are several bills before both the House and Senate endeavoring to "solve" the wheat situation. Some of them call for completely abolishing the current Feed Grain Program, others call for varying degrees of interchangeability between wheat and feed grain acres, prices and markets.

Be Ready For The Unexpected

If an emergency catches you unprepared, what you don't know about protecting your home and family could be costly and even fatal.

Tommy Hollmig, Extension specialist in Rural Civil Defense at Texas A & M, points out that in early America, every family had a survival plan. When a fire, flood, or Indian attack threatened, each person had a job to do. Natural disasters, tornadoes, floods, blizzards, fires, hurricanes, still happen. Now, the possibility of nuclear war or even a nuclear accident poses additional threats. If you plan for an emergency before it occurs, your chances of being alive and healthy afterward will be increased.

Hollmig suggests picking the safest place in your home or on your farm. Add shielding to make it better. Be ready to take advantage of the best shelter available at all times. Store a two weeks' supply of food, water and other necessities. $70 A MONTH if you can qualify for a FHA Loan. 3 bedrooms, lots of closets, mahogany paneling. $9250 total price. $350. down and closing costs. Call Tom Hughes 647-3640. 13-tfc

A Message For Parents

Set an example by handling money in a systematic way Teach your children to form the habit of saving a small portion of the amount you give them.

A Message To The Children

Once there was a boy who got a nickel. Instead of spending it for gum or marbles he started saving his nickels. Soon he had a whole dollar. Now he could buy something much better than gum or marbles.—Grown-up saving is like that, too, as your parents know. When you grow up, if you want to stay happy and not be worried, you must learn to save small amounts of money every month until you have big amounts. All through your life you can live better and buy what you need and even take care of troubles if you save every month in the credit union.

Resume Of State P-TA Board Meeting Presented

by Mrs. Woodrow Killingsworth, District 8 P-TA President—
 Yes I am very glad to be home. Only one day later than expected, due to the extreme bad weather. I want to give to you a brief resume of the work that was accomplished during the Texas Congress of Parent and Teachers State Board meeting held in Austin Feb. 24. At the Pre-convention District Presidents meeting in San Antonio last November, I was honored with being elected to serve, this coming year, as chairman of the District

Presidents within the State of Texas. Through this medium the District work is carried on to the State level. As well as State back through the Districts to the locals. The chairman of the State chairman, Mrs. Angus McDonald, Austin and myself served on the State Executive Committee. Committee reports were given such as budget and finance, Procedure and Bylaws Program, Office, Workshop, Scholarship, Health, Convention and Publications, were discussed, approved and recommended to the State Board of Managers for adoption.

The State Board of managers consist, State President, ten Vice Presidents, Parliamentarian, Recording Secretary, Historian, immediate Past State President, twenty three state chairmen, twenty two District Presidents. During this meeting recommendations were either adopted, rejected or tabled for further study. Two vacancies were filled on the State chairmanship rosters, Mrs. Red Lambert, Vernon elected as State chairman of Character and Spiritual Education. Dr. W. T. Haynie, Borger elected as State Chairman of Legislation. The Local Unit Program for 1963-64 was adopted. An extensive orientation of the program was given Monday night by Mrs. Marvin Armstrong, Lubbock (State Vice-President and State Chairman of Program Com.) and her committee of eleven members. We were very much impressed with the way it was presented and of all the work that has been done and still more to do. Our theme for 1963-64 is as follows: We the PTA cooperate in the school story monthly topics for the Local Unit Program: SEPTEMBER—Together We Help A Child By Improving Our Working Partnership OCTOBER—Together We Help A Child By Supporting Quality Education NOVEMBER—Together We Help A Child By Increasing Educational Opportunities DECEMBER—Together We Help A Child By Cultivating An Appreciation For The Cultural Arts JANUARY—Together We Help A Child By Providing Adequate Pupil Personnel Services FEBRUARY—Together We Help A Child By Stressing The Values Of

Our American Heritage MARCH—Together We Help A Child By Creating A Love For Learning APRIL—Together We Help A Child By Developing Individual Abilities MAY—Together We Help A Child By Promoting Good Health Along with these monthly topics will be given a list of purposes, questions to consider, methods of presentation, and a list of references to use in preparation. Within this program much study has been done and more is being done on the "Drop Out" problem that seems to be a growing menace in our school over the State of Texas as well as other states of the union. I firmly believe it is time that we as parents and teachers with our board of education need to set down and take a good look at our homes, churches, schools and communities and try to find out why we have so many children that are not interested in obtaining their High School Diplomas. Let's be sure that we as parents are the best living example for our children to follow. Are we sending our children to school for our teachers to teach them what we as parents should have done the first six years of their life when we were their own private teachers. Think on these things. Your local PTA's need you. Lets get behind them and do the very best we can in improving our working partnership in supporting the best quality education for our children and children all over the world.

say that President Johnson hasn't always been in close contact with politics on the state level. Eric there has never been a time when the political situation in Texas meant so much to him or any other man from Texas. Even people who don't like Johnson realize and admit that he is a master politician and his supporters believe that his unique talent in that field can also cause him to become the outstanding statesman of our time. The political muddle that has been the fare of Texans for the past several months just might prove to be a blessing to government on the state level. The so-called conservatives and liberals of the Texas Democratic party have been at each others throats for the past several years now, with the result of a stalemate in state government that has contributed little to progress so far as our public institutions are concerned. Chances are small that there will be anything but a continuation of the present ultra-conservative state government, controlled by the vested interests, for the next two years but maybe the fact that we have a political moderate from Texas in the White House will have some effect on the conduct of our conservative state officials.

study program and strategies. price of wheat for the farmer who grows a quality product. In general, the new standards—based on smaller ranges of tolerance for grades—will mean less dirt, foreign matter and dockage in American wheat. Quality factors of weight, soundness and cleanliness can be more readily and more precisely measured today than in the past. Maximum limits are set for "total defects"—damaged kernels, foreign material and shrunken and broken kernels. Total defects in grade No. 1 have been set at 3 per cent, in grade No. 2 at 5 per cent. Limits are also set in the other numerical grades. Limits for shrunken and broken kernels are cut from 5 to 3 per cent for grade No. 1 and 12 per cent for grade No. 4 and 20 per cent for grade No. 5. Minimum moisture content for wheat graded "tough" is reduced from 14 or 14.5 percent (depending on the class) to 13.5 percent for all classes. The change also eliminates moisture as a factor in determining sample grade. "Dockage" is recorded in half percent with other fractions reduced to the nearest whole or half. Dockage is material other than wheat which may be readily removed by cleaning. It is not a grade determining factor but is recorded on inspection certificates. These changes, explains Tom Aaron, grain marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, are intended to better reflect the quality of the wheat in the price received by the producer. During a transitional period after May 1, grain inspectors will, on request, show the grade of wheat under both standards.

Theme for the conservation essays was "Youth's Stake In Conservation." This is the third year the local SCD has sponsored the contest. Winning entries from here will be entered in the Fort Worth contest. The District hopes to attract entrants from Hart and Dimmitt schools next year. See page 8 of the News to read the winners' essays.

In recent weeks the conservative combine in the state has been yelling loud and long about the pressure from Washington keeping their fair-haired boys from running for office, mainly the U.S. Senate. They should know about pressure, they have applied it to Texas politics for more years than it is comfortable to remember. In the past some of the ones, yelling the loudest now, became devoted workers in the Republican party when their special brand of pressure failed to get results. For instance when Allen Shivers couldn't intimidate Governor Stevenson he led the conservative apparatus, masquerading under the name of Democratic Executive Committee, into the Republican camp. If those birds wanted to run against Senator Yarborough it's a free country. Washington couldn't have prevented one or all of them from running. The thing that kept Kilgore, Shivers, et al from making the race for Senator was a few samplings of public opinion that proved to them that Senator Yarborough wouldn't be a push over for any of the on again off again so-called democrats.

The Young Democrats of Amarillo did the John Birch ridden Golden Spread a great favor Sunday afternoon by buying time on TV channel 4 for the broadcasting of a speech by Gordon Hall. The speech was recorded Saturday evening when Hall spoke to a gathering, in one of Amarillo's high school auditoriums, under the auspices of the Potter-Randall counties Young Democrats Club. There have been pieces in the papers for (Continued on Page Four)

It used to be the dogwood blooms which set off politics in Texas. But the Legislature changed that when it moved primaries to May and June.

So, Texas candidates are losing no time in getting down to rough-house campaigning.

Gov. John Connally and his rival for the Democratic nomination, Don Yarborough, spoke to the AFL-CIO

Committee on Political Education, but neither asked for endorsement.

Labor made no endorsements in races for state offices. Instead, it centered its interest on Washington. It gave strong support to President Lyndon Johnson and Senator Ralph W. Yarborough and to the re-election of Texas Congressmen who support the Johnson program. It urged union members to help defeat Congressmen who do not support the LBJ administration.

Republican candidate for U. S. Senate George Bush complained Cope failed to invite Republicans to its meeting.

John Van Cronkhite of Dallas announced his withdrawal from the Senate race after what he called "unbelievable pressure." But Gordon McLendon, conservative Democrat, said he was in the race "as solid as a grand piano set in concrete."

Former District Attorney Dan Sullivan of Andrews provided the upset of the session. COPE leaders recommended that the group support former Sen. Robert W. Baker of Houston for the statewide Congressional seat now held by Rep. Joe Pool. Sullivan made a speech that sold many delegates, and when it came to a showdown, the roll call vote was 139-139. As a result, COPE endorsed no one for the place.

PETTICOAT POLITICIANS—

A look at the roster of Democratic candidates for the legislative shows 404 contestants for 150 seats in the House of Representatives, with 13 of these women. And three women are among the 83 House candidates on the Republican side of the ledger.

Two of the 16 female candidates are incumbents—Miss Maud Isaack of El Paso and Mrs. Myra Banfield of Rosenberg.

Texas also boasts a woman state senator, Mrs. Neveille Colson of Navasota. She is a veteran with 24 years' service in the House and Senate. However, Senator Colson drew a four-year term last year and is not up for re-election.

History shows that women have had scant success in state elections. One notable exception is the late Miriam A. Ferguson, governor of the state from 1925 to 1927 and from 1933 to 1935.

Whether their luck will be better in legislative races in 1964—a leap year—remains to be seen. It may be significant to note that as of January, 1964, the number of Texas women aged 21 and over was estimated to be a little more than 3,000,000, while their male counterparts were estimated to number less than 3,000,000.

FREE VOTER REGISTRATION CONTINUES—

Registration of voters who want to qualify for free votes in federal elections will continue through March 7. County tax collectors are issuing the free receipts which may be obtained by direct personal or mail application.

Holders of the free registrations cannot vote in state or local races, in constitutional amendment or bond elections—only for president, vice president, U.S. senator, U.S. representative and congressman-at-large.

State attorneys emphasize, however, that the free registration receipts are good for primary elections, the November general election and any special election involving federal offices during the coming year. In other words, those who have them can vote in their party primary for senator, congressman and congressman-at-large or in any special election for these offices, as well as the general election.

Voters over 60 in cities of 10,000 or more population who did not get their poll tax exemptions before the January 31 deadline cannot qualify for special registration. Over-age voters in smaller cities need no certificate at any kind.

RECORD VOTE PREDICTED—

Although the official compilation of poll tax payments and exemption certificates is not due from State Comptroller Robert Calvert until the first of April, many county tax assessor-collectors have stated they expect the number of qualified voters to exceed 1960's 2,594,000.

This prediction does not take into account registration of those voters who cast ballots in federal races only. Registration for federal certificates seems to be going slow, but poll-tax registration also ran slow until the last week in January.

A statement by Pat O'Keefe, executive director of the State Democratic Committee, indicated that interest in voter registration seems lightest in rural areas.

Republican party officials have not hazarded a guess on the score, but are hoping to get 300,000 Texans to cast ballots in their May 2, primary. Total of 1962 GOP primary participants was 135,000.

EMPLOYMENT—Statistics just released by the Texas Employment Commission show that the employment figure for December was a record high for non-farm employees 3,305,600, an increase of 26,500 over November.

This figure was 67,600 above the jobholder total for December, 1962.

Although the State Health Department reported an "uninterrupted decline" in the Texas birth rate per 1,000 population between 1956 and 1962, the state's population continues to rise.

Births in 1962 totaled 244,069. New settlers moving in from other states accounted for a 200,000 increase, helping to make the population pass the 10 million mark last year. But at the same time the number of deaths for one year reached an all-time high of 81,118.

Heart disease was the leading cause of death, accounting for 33 per cent; cancer was second with 15 per cent; apoplexy, third with 12 per cent of the deaths; and accidents of all kinds, fourth with seven per cent.

APPOINTMENT BY POPULAR VOTE—

Governor Connally, who must make some 850 appointments during his current two-year term of office, decided to let local voters make the decision for him on a pointment of a judge for the 100th judicial district.

This district, which embraces Ca-son, Hall, Donley, Childress and Collingsworth counties, lost its judge with the death of Judge Luther Gribble.

Connally said he will appoint the winner of the Democratic primary election to serve out the remainder of the late Judge Gribble's term. He said, "Since the election is reasonably close at hand, it is my view that the voters should have the opportunity to select a judge of their choosing."

COURT SPEAKS—

Supreme Court set arguments for March 18 on a Corpus Christi case testing whether the new Sabbath closing laws can be circumvented by "emergency" purchases.

Nueces County District Attorney Sam L. Jones Jr. pushed the appeal from a Fourth Court of Civil Appeals decision that Shoppers World, Inc. of Corpus Christi complied with the law banning sales of certain items on the Sabbath when it required purchasers to sign certifications of "emergency" before buying.

However, Jones maintains that the certifications amount to a subterfuge, when more than 200 so-called "emergencies" arise on an average Sunday.

SHELL SUIT THROWN OUT—

Texas oyster fishermen cannot sustain a lawsuit to nullify the State Parks and Wildlife Commission order permitting shell dredging close to live oyster reefs in Trinity and Galveston Bays.

So ruled District Judge Jack Roberts in agreeing with the position taken by the attorney general's office that the oystermen have no vested interest in oysters belonging to the state. Therefore, they cannot appeal the commission order.

SHORT SNORTS—

Texas Water Commission approved moving of the site of a proposed $10,200,000 dam on the salt form of Red River seven miles upstream—Texas Animal Health Commission reported only one sample of screwworms for the entire period of December 29 through February 1—State Highway Department authorized a bridge across the Trinity River in Polk County between Goodrich and Shepherd as part of the four-lane highway project (US 59) from Houston to Lufkin—State Bar Association is conducting a secret poll on preferences for candidates for the State Supreme Court and Amarillo Court of Civil Appeals—The Board for State Hospitals and Special Schools was designated by Governor Connally to administer a new state-federal planning program in the field of mental retardation—the following counties are being tested for brucellosis eradication by Tex. Animal Health Commission staffers: Bell, Bexar, Caldwell, Collingsworth, Guadalupe, Hale, Hall, Live Oak, Lubbock, Palo Pinto, Randall,

Uvalde, Wilson, Crockett, Reeves and Throckmorton — Agriculture commissioner John White said Rio Grande Valley citrus farmers are being "invaded" by sterilized fruit profiles from Mexico, for a scientific study on their traveling habits—Texas Industrial production rose six per cent during 1963, and outlook for continued expansion of the economy in 1964 is "generally promising," reports The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.
