It has been conceded all during our American history that the influence of the free press, newspapers, magazines and other periodicals, have considerable bearing on the forming of public opinion, political, cultural, and otherwise. It is generally realized or understood by the reading public that there are various categories of opinion aside from the factual news stories that are not supposed to be opinionated. Staff members of the various papers write the editorials and they are classified as editorials, and are recognized as the editorial opinion of the newspaper institution. These we read believing they are locally conceived and produced. Then a staff member of a paper may have a column, and if it is a large paper the reading public is aware that opinions expressed therein are the opinions of an individual, possibly someone they know personally. Then there are the syndicated columnists, and there are some of them, whose columns appear regularly in certain newspapers throughout the United States. I am an avid column reader and I feel like the people that produce syndicated columns should on occasion have information or an idea that might be worthwhile, but after all they are just what they are supposed to be, the expression of the opinion of the writer.

Locally I read Charles Guy's column, "The Plainsman" in the Lubbock morning paper. I like his style, his loose and easy way of writing, but I seldom agree with a thing he says. If I needed advice on an important matter Charles Guy would probably be the last fellow that I would consult. "A to Izzard" by Wes Izzard in the Amarillo morning paper is another locally produced column. Although Izzard's writing is more sophisticated than that of editor Guy's, they both are just about as reactionary as you can get. Through the efforts of Izzard and Guy the Panhandle Plains area reading public have been brainwashed with the ultra-conservative bleatings of the two big boys in the local journalistic field. Like Barry Goldwater, neither of the regional columnists can find anything about America or the United States government to their liking without going back into history thirty to fifty years. It is a little hard to understand how men of their type made the transition from the horse and buggy means of transportation to the deluxe cars and jet air liners without accepting like improvements in government and human relations. I believe, as many other Democrats believe, that as we have progress in one area of our national life, such as in the field of science, automation, transportation, etc., we must also have progress in the governmental rules and regulations necessary for orderly day to day living conditions and opportunities for the individual. This all can be accomplished under our constitution without amendments or doing violence to its intended purpose. This has been the aim of the Democratic administrations throughout our history. Naturally mistakes have been made, but the advantages gained through progress in achieving a better life for the individual more than offsets the attendant mistakes.

Whether we like it or not automation has and will continue to disrupt the employment of the individual and unless there is some concern for the rapid changing picture in the labor situation, unemployment will not only be an economic headache it will be a national tragedy. We must have a government that realizes and understands the plight of the individual, as well as the need for a profit by the all-powerful corporations. Mr. Izzard, Mr. Guy and the Republican nominees have castigated the government of the United States, the labor unions (which represents people) and all facets of our national life until they truly believe that people like Senator Yarborough are evil because they recognize the problems that affect the daily lives of the common man and propose to do something to keep his lot in step with the advancement of technology in other fields.

The New Deal under President Roosevelt, the Fair Deal under President Truman, the New Frontier under President Kennedy and the Great Society proposed by President Johnson are foreign to the Republicans' way of thinking. It doesn't take much research, however, to determine that there has been more progress in individuals standard of living and a higher percentage of profit in the business community under the vision and foresight of Democratic administrations than in any other periods.

So far as the reaction any nationally syndicated columnists are concerned a good sample of their way of thinking appeared recently in Amarillo Globe-Times. Holmes Alexander, a regular contributor to the Amarillo paper started his column, "A bunch of the boys were being pulled Up There." Then he went ahead to tell how and why they voted for Goldwater and Miller. Interviewed were General McArthur, George Washington,

Save Dollars By Proper Operation Cotton Pickers

Cotton farmers interested in saving costly dollars on each bale produced should consider carefully the way they operate their mechanical pickers.

The difference between operating a mechanical cotton picker improperly and handling one skillfully may be as much as $14.50 or more per bale, says Beverly G. Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Driving the picker off-center on a row often results in skinning off pieces of bark from the cotton stalks, explains Reeves. Being quite difficult to remove from cotton in the gin, bark may show up in the sample at the classing office. Cotton classed "bark" automatically loses one grade and receives a one cent per pound penalty in the loan, he points out.

As an example of what this might mean to you, let's say that your cotton was down-graded from M 1-3 -32 to SLM 1-3-32 because of "bark." A difference in price of $1.90 per one hundred pounds and the additional one cent penalty means a total loss of $2.90 per one hundred pounds or $14.50 on a 500-pound bale, explains the specialist.

Therefore, a properly adjusted, carefully operated cotton picker can save hundreds of dollars during a harvest season. This, says Reeves, should be reason enough for making ure the picker operator keeps the machine centered on the row and does a good job of operating it in the field.

MRS. GERALD M. ACKER
nee Miss Judith Ann Irlbeck

Judith Anne Irlbeck -- Gerald M. Acker Wed In St. William's Catholic Church

Wedding vows were read at 4 p.m. Tuesday, September 29, in St. William's Catholic Church for Miss Judith Anne Irlbeck and Gerald M. Acker. The Rev. Bart Basteroi officiated at the double ring ceremony and nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Irlbeck, Route V, Tulia. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Acker of Canyon.

Large bouquets of pink and white gladioli decorated the main altar, with smaller bouquets of the same flowers placed on the side altars.

Mrs. Albert Schoenenberger, Nazareth sister of the bridegroom, played selections on the organ, and accompanied vocalists Mrs. Tom Brockman and Mrs. Leo Durbin of Nazareth.

The bride's father presented her in marriage. She was attired in a formal gown of white French taffeta designed with jewel neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points at the hands. The semi-bell skirt fell from a bias outlined midriff section of the gown's bodice. Accents were Alencon lace motifs embroidered in seed pearls, iridescent sequins, and pear-shaped pearls over a flower-type design of the intricate lace pattern on the bodice.

A pearl coil crown trimmed in crystal tear drops held her fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white with white orchids, trimmed in white lace and pearls.

The bride carried a 50 cent piece dated 1856, belonging to her great-grandmother during the Civil War, and borrowed from her mother.

For something new and blue, she carried a blue crystal and sterling silver rosary, a gift of her aunt, Sister Agnes Imelda.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Daniel Irlbeck of Nazareth. Miss Jan Middleton of Happy was bridesmaid and Miss Bernadotte Irlbeck of Nazareth sister off the bride, bride, was junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore street-length dresses of dacron and cotton polyester in varying shades of pink with matching hats. They carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations with white trim.

Daniel Irlbeck of Nazareth cousin of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Albert Irlbeck, Tulia, brother of the bride, and Francis Acker of Nazareth, nephew of the bridegroom. Ushering were Paul Irlbeck of Tulia, brother of the bride, and James Acker of Nazareth, brother of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Irlbeck wore a blue wool suit with black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue accessories. Each had a corsage of white carnations with pink trim.

For a wedding trip to New Mexico the bride traveled in a gold wool tweed suit with black accessories. She added the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live east of Nazareth where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. The bride was graduated from Tulia High School in 1963 and attended Amarillo College one year. Her husband is a 1959 graduate of Nazareth High School. He has served in the Armed Forces, stationed in Hawaii.

First Christian Church To Have Gospel Preaching, October 4-14

The First Christian Church, 600 Western Circle, Dimmitt, will hold EVANGELISTIC SERVICES Sunday, October 4, through Wednesday, October 14. Here you will find worship after the New Testament pattern, simple and sincere. Christian Churches recognize no creed but Christ, have no discipline or rules but the inspired Word of God.

Lloyd Wayne Dunn of Los Alamos, New Mexico, will be the guest evangelist. Mr. Dunn is a graduate of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary and Ozark Bible College, Joplin, Missouri. In his new six month ministry in Los Alamos he has led that congregation to third place in the "Lookout National Attendance Contest" with a 47 per cent increase in attendance. Nearly forty have been added to the membership of the local Church. Special talks, illustrated by magic, will be presented especially for the young people.

Mrs. Lloyd Dunn will assist as pianist and bring a special number each evening on the beautiful "Vibra-Harp." Loren Dickey, local minister, will be the song evangelist.

We feel fortunate to be able to present this Evangelistic Party to our community. We invite you to hear them! You'll be thrilled by the preaching and the music. Services begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. each evening, except Saturday, according to Loren Dickey, minister.

Republican Candidate For U.S. Representative Speaks In Dimmitt

Bob Price, Republican candidate for Congress, speaking to an estimated crowd of 50 in Dimmitt Monday evening (Sept. 28), described his Democratic opponent as our "absentee congressman". Price, a Pampa rancher and businessman, spoke at his Castro County Kick-Off rally.

Price stated "Our Congressman has missed 20 per cent of the critical votes during the 88th Congress. He often pairs with members of opposite view, rather than take the trouble to hear the debate. He lives in Maryland, works, sometimes, in Washington, and votes 1 out of 5 times from anywhere except the floor of the House—or, doesn't vote at all.

"If all a Congressman had to do was pair on votes in the House of Representatives, then any competent secretary could sit in the halls of Congress," Price continued. "The people of this district have the right to ask what are we paying our Congressman $30,000 a year for when any secretary would do what he does for 1/4 the pay."

"My opponent comes to the Panhandle only when it is politically helpful to do so, and he dodges issues wherever he goes. Even casual reading of his record shows you he is prone to absenteeism. He absents himself from his work, his district, his constituents, and his responsibilities. Our Congressman is an Absentman.

Price campaigned in Vega, Adrian, Friona, Farwell, and Dimmitt Monday. Tuesday, he will campaign in Sunray, Dumas, and Miami, where he will address his Roberts County Kick-Off at 8 p.m. in the City Hall.

President Jackson and others. These conservatives don't only stop the clock, they want to turn it back. I contend the writer has no conception of how Great Americans would vote if they could return to the present day scene. I am inclined to believe they would vote the Democratic Party ticket straight, but I will refrain from polling them. They met and discharged their obligations, present problems belong to the living.

In the same issue of the Amarillo paper columnist William F. Buckley Jr. took note of the switch of Senator Thurmond from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party. The writer was so elated over Thurmond's switch that he thought it would be a good idea for all Southern Democratic Senators to change their allegiance to the GOP. What he didn't mention was the fact that Thurmond, like Allen Shivers, hadn't supported a Democratic nominee for President for years, and that he rarely, if ever, voted with the majority party in the Senate. It is highly unlikely that there will be a mass exodus of Democratic Senators from the party just to follow a man, who for all practical purposes has never been in the party.

That's right, public opinion is sometimes influenced by screwball ideas of off-beat writers.

Andy Shuval, State President of YD spoke to the group concerning the activities of state and local YD. Shuval said, "This political campaign is a lot of fun."

He declared, "We got to win. Our opponent has challenged the very basis of Americanism."

Shuval told the group some of the roles of the president. He asked, "Which candidate is best qualified?"

Presidential roles include leader of world's free nations, chief of his party and be chief executive.

Shuval told the YD, "This campaign is one of the biggest challenges we have ever faced."

Grain Sorghum Chat

by Wes Anthony

Just recently my wife attended the State Convention of Women Home Demonstration Clubs held in Rice Hotel at Houston. Also attending were Mrs. James Welch and Mrs. E. F. McRee.

As each lady registered she was given a small neatly packaged bag of rice. This package deal was sponsored by "The Rice Council."

As you probably know my wife and I do quite a lot of running around and we find it very interesting that many people do not know what maize is.

I wonder if it would not be a good sound business practice if we would see that each hotel and motel in the County had a small container of maize to hand to each registered guest.

If the Chamber of Commerce or someone else, will furnish the container, I will give the first 500 lbs. of maize and help fill the jars.

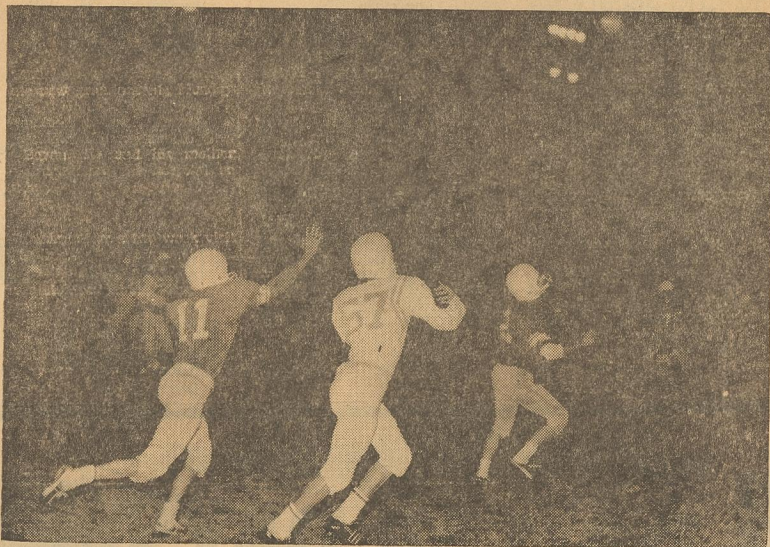

Homemakers Club To Meet Tonight

SWIFTS STOP DIMMITT "B"

Nazareth Swifts took their second victory for the season as they defeated the Dimmitt "B" and freshman team Saturday night, 32-8.

The two teams met in Bobcat stadium at 8 p.m. and battled for the win. This is the second 11-man victory of the season for the Swifts who are inexperienced in 11-man games. The Swifts played 8-man football last year.

Dimmitt was hurt in this game by inexperience since Coach J. D. Covington had to use several of his regular "B" team members in the varsity game against Tulla, Friday night. The Saturday night lineup consisted of mostly freshmen.

Ricky Gerber scored the first Nazareth touchdown on a sweep around right end. Extra point attempt failed.

The Swifts took to the air for their second touchdown. Greg Pohlmeier caught a 20-yard pass from Quarterback Marvin Hoelting and dashed 21 yards for paydirt.

Again R. Gerber scored for the Swifts in the first quarter when he went 40 yards for a touchdown.

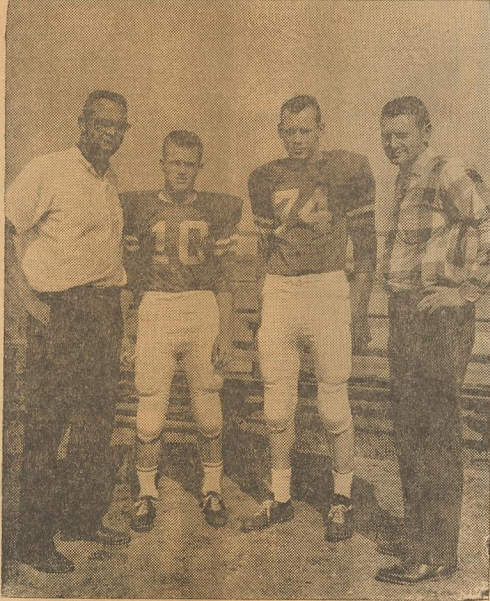

The Swift quarterback passed to Clyde Schulte for the extra points. Score was 26-0 at halftime.

R. Gerber scored the final touchdown for the Swifts in the fourth quarter on a 10 yard run around end.

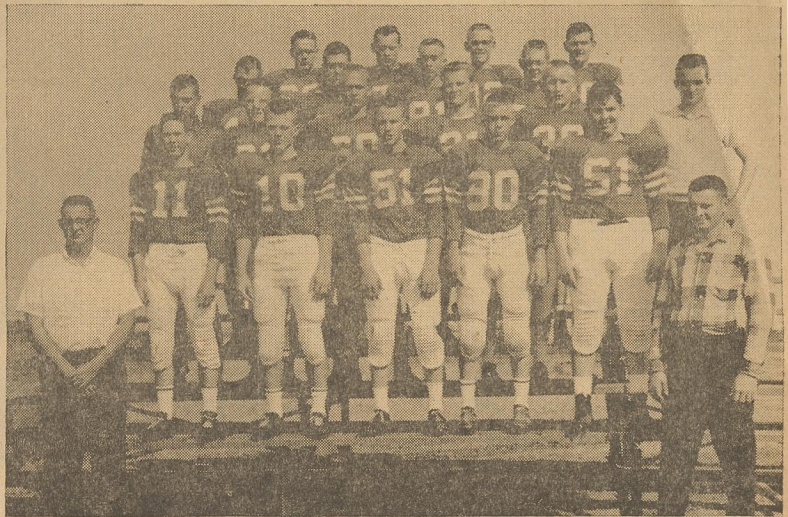

Tommy Stafford made the lone run for Dimmitt. He also ran the conversion points.

An interesting sidelight of the game was that Nazareth coach, James Gibson is the brother-in-law of J. D. Covington, Dimmitt's head coach.

The Swifts will meet Hart at 7:30 p.m., October 9 at the new Nazareth football stadium for their district game. Hart's present record is 0-3. The Swifts held a 2-0 record and will go into district play with this record since they are open this week.

Hornets Sting Bobcats, 35-0

The Bobcats, showing good form the first quarter but being overpowered the last three, lost to an old rival, Tulia Hornets Friday night, 35-0.

The Bobcats had two scoring opportunities in the first quarter but both drives were stopped short of the goal line. The Bobcats contained Tulia's speed and kept the Hornets with their backs to the wall during the first quarter.

The first drive started on the 50-yard line when Dicky Dyer recovered a Tulia fumble. The touchdown attempt was stopped on the Hornet 7-yard line. After Tulia was forced to punt, the Bobcats again drove the ball down to the 17 but could not pick up enough for a first down.

Tulia took over and started a drive that consisted mostly of sweeps touchdown early in second quarter. Their second touchdown was set up by a fumble recovered on Dimmitt's 38-yard line. Six plays later Tulia scored and ran the extra point to lead 14-0. Tulia's kick-off was fumbled by Dimmitt and recovered by Tulia on the 25-yard line. They took the ball over from the 25 and kicked the extra point to lead 21-0 at halftime.

Tulia took advantage of an intercepted pass in the third quarter to move the ball 36 yards and score. Tulia's last touchdown was set up late in the third quarter when a fourth down punt didn't get off and the Hornets took over on the Bobcats' 21 yard line. The Hornets used five plays to push the ball across the goal line. The Hornets ran the extra point over to make the final score 35-0.

"We were hurt a lot on offense and defense by not having Tommy Nichols with us," comments Coach Covington.

"Dan Petty and Gene Carson are well now after missing our last three games and Anthony Mays' leg should be well enough for him to see action Friday night," declares Coach.

"We play Morton here Friday night and it is homecoming for us and I think with everyone back we will be able to play a much better game."

F.T.A. Meets

The Dimmitt Chapter of Future Teachers of America met on September 21, 1964, to read application letters. Dues were set up at $1.50 a year.

September 22, the group again met with the new members attending. Plans were made concerning various activities in store for this year. Among activities planned are a breakfast, patriotism program, and National Education Week Meetings are scheduled for the first and third Tuesdays of each month.

Congratulations!

On Monday, September 21, Patty George and Gene Carson became the proud aunt and uncle of a baby boy. He was named Gregory Brian and weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dabby George of Plainview. The mother is the former Louise Carson. Our congratulations to Aunt Patty and Uncle Gene!

WHAT A MESSY BUNCH! These freshmen were initiated into the local Dimmitt F.H.A. Chapter amid rolls of toilet tissue, extra smears of lipstick and plenty of laughter. See story for details. —Staff Photo

Initiation Into F.H.A. Proves To Be Exciting For Little Sisters

The big question among all the big sisters for the past two weeks was, "Do you know who your little sister is?" Mine brought me some home-made brownies today! I cannot wait until Tuesday, when I find out who has been leaving the candy in my locker.

Tuesday finally came and the little sisters were revealed to the big sisters. The older girls presented tokens of appreciation for all the deeds that had been done for them. Everyone then enjoyed sandwiches, lemonade and cookies before the initiation of the freshmen began. After cleaning up the little sisters were blind-folded and led into a dark, mysterious room. If anyone happened to be passing, they would have heard screaming and outbursts, as there were many who did not like the dog food on their hands, jumping off high ledges, or being branded with the F.H.A. symbol.

To all the little sisters who were so generous and kind, we big sisters would like to give a big thank-you and we hope you enjoyed it as much as we did.

Bobcat Tale Philosopher

... And Let Your Colors Fly!

It has been said that experience is a maker of men. It can be that experience is also a maker of ability. With those who lack experience, how can ability truly be measured? The more practice and time spent in learning, the more able the inexperienced become. It can be seen here in Dimmitt High School.

If spirit drops, and enthusiasm is at a low, what can be expected of the team? Interest must be kept at an all-time high, not only in the student body but with the many outside boosters who have so avidly supported our team in the past. Opposing forces, whether internal or external, cannot be allowed to dampen our vigor. Scores are not the only record that is kept. "Attitude plays a big part in making the grade. Indifference must be screened out.

As ability increases with experience and the scores climb toward the season's peak, so should our zest acquire its tang. Let's not give up so early in the fight. Be true to your school and let those colors fly!

HS Journalist Gives Biographical Facts Of Johnson

The Bobcat Tales Staff would like to present its second article in a series on the presidential candidates. The week's topic is a brief summary of the life of Lyndon Johnson.

Our present President, Lyndon Baines Johnson, was born August 27, 1908, near Stonewall, Texas. As the story goes, on that same day his grandfather predicted that he would become a United States Senator. He family has a history of public service, as both his father and his grandfather served in the Texas legislature.

Since money was scarce in the Johnson family, he held a number of part-time jobs during his high school and college years. In 1930 he graduated from Southwest Texas State Teachers College with a B.S. degree.

He taught school in Houston only two years before he became secretary to Texas Congressman Richard M. Kleberg. In 1935, he studied law at Georgetown University in Washington, D. C. In that same year he was appointed Texas director of the National Youth Administration; two years later he resigned to run for Congress.

He was elected and served eleven years in the House of Representatives before being elected to the Senate for twelve years. He was elected Democratic leader by his fellow Senators in 1953, and remained in the Senate until 1960 when he was selected vice-president. As majority leader in the Senate, he soon became recognized as a master of persuasion and compromise. His effectiveness as a leader was enlarged by the fact that he was working with an administration of an opposing party. Instead of becoming an errand boy for a Democratic President, he had a chance to speak out for his party and for the Legislative branch of the government.

When World War II broke out, he joined the armed forces and served in the South Pacific as a lieutenant commander in the Navy. However, after seven months, President Roosevelt ordered all congressmen in the military service to return to their jobs.

Four years ago Johnson tried to win the Democratic Party's nomination for the Presidency, but he lost to John F. Kennedy. He agreed to run for the vice-presidency, and the two men were elected.

For nearly three years he was our vice-president. He served on a number of important committees and often acted as President Kennedy's representative on trips to other countries. When Mr. Kennedy was killed, Lyndon Johnson became President.

Mr. Johnson married Claudia Taylor on November 17, 1934. They have two daughters, Lynda Bird, 20, and Lucy Baines, 17. The family are members of the Christian Church.

Homemaking I F.H.A. Members Dress For Kid Day, Tuesday

On Sept. 22 in the halls of D. H.S. were seen many short skirts and pig tails. The F.H.A. held its annual initiation on Tuesday. The girls of Homemaking I were required to dress as kids as part of their initiation into the Future Homemakers of America.

Often between classes one could hear the words "air raid" being called out. At this time, the girls had to get down on their knees and remain until their Superiors gave them permission to get up. Among other things, the girls had to propose to some boy. They were also required to carry books for the older members of F.H.A., buy them cokes and candy, and do other odd jobs for them. Each year this day has turned out to be a body and this year did not change the trend.

Students Attend

Nuclear Physics Symposium

The Dimmitt High School science department has planned a year highlighted by many extracurricular activities. Among new additions to the department is Mr. Culpepper's co-worker, Mr. Hughlett, who teaches physical science, chemistry, and physics.

In the biology department Mr. Culpepper has several new aids. A new aquarium has been added, along with tropical fish, and students will receive greater opportunity by using more live specimens for study than in previous years. Biology classes are larger than ever before; but, "Students are getting exceptionally good grades," said Coach Culpepper.

According to Mr. Hughlett a paramount need in his department is new equipment for the chemistry classes, and especially for the physics class.

Mr. Hughlett already has inter-

Spotlight Shines On Mrs. Nelson

Yesterday I had a friendly chat with one of our new teachers and I found out a lot of interesting things. Her name is Rosalind Nelson and she was born in Lindsay, Kansas.

Mrs. Nelson's main hobbies and interests are all phases of home-making including sewing, interior decoration as well as reading music and drama.

Alvis Fuquay was born in Mount Vernon, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuquay. He has one sister, Melba, who is now Mrs. J. E. Fuller.

He attended school in Mount Vernon, Texas. He earned his Bachelor's and Master's Degree at East Texas State in Commerce, Texas.

Mr. Fuquay was in the Army Air Force from December of 1942 until February of 1946.

Other jobs held by Mr. Fuquay include coaching football at Winfield, Stanton, and Seagraves. He was also football coach for the Dimmitt Bobcats before he became principal.

On June 27, 1954, he married Sue Danley of Ranger, Texas. The Fuquays are the proud parents of one son, Duane, who is eight months old.

Mr. Fuquay lists his hobbies as watching football, playing golf, and working.

He likes any funny movie and enjoys reading historical novels.

Young Democrats Meet To Organize Castro Co. Club

Thursday, September 24, forty-five Young Democrats gathered in the Community Room of the Bank for one purpose-to strengthen their Democratic beliefs. Several Young Democrats came from Hereford, Bovina, and Mulshoe.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 by Joe Cowen and Ray Bearden, the county Democratic Chairman. At this time, Joe Bullock of Palmer-Bailey Counties told the group about their club.

At last the awaited time arrived. The State President of Texas' Young Democrats, Andy Schuwall, spoke about all of the present campaign smearing going on and how the Democrats should try not to add to the chaos.

The Constitution, By-Laws, and dues were decided upon and the group made arrangements to affiliate with the State organization.

Behind the Bylines

"Would everyone please stay out of the halls during lunch?" These are some familiar words said by our principal Mr. Fuquay.

Alvis Fuquay was born in Mount Vernon, Texas, to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Fuquay. He has one sister, Melba, who is now Mrs. J. E. Fuller.

Dress-Up Day Planned At DHS

Polish up those dress shoes, and brush off that suit! Friday, October 2nd, is dress-up day at good ole' DHS. The girls are expected to wear heels and something dressy, and boys should wear either a suit or dress pants and a dress shirt.

The purpose of this day is to take the place of the traditional Western Day. Since it is the day of Homecoming, it is decided that dressing up would make a much more and pleasant day for students, teachers and visitors.

When asked what they thought about it, these people replied: Paul Easterwood - I guess it's all right. George Froelner - Cowboy day is every day.

Miss Britten - I think it's an excellent idea. Marie Phillips - I'd rather have Western Day. Gary Crum - I don't like to wear ties.

Jeroka - I think it's marvelous. Janis Moore - It's nice, but Western Day is a lot of fun. Johnnie Holcomb - I like it.

Jackie Johnston - I'd rather have dress-up day because I don't have any Western clothes. Alice Acker - I already had a western suit made.

Ann Scarborough - Western day is traditional, but this will be nice for a change. Kathy Leinen - It will make Homecoming nicer.

Mary Tumlinson - It's different. Bruce - Fuller - I think the kids have more fun on western day, and dress-up day will be a flop for some people.

Jan Willis - It's different, but I like Western Day. Miss Griffing - I think it would be more fun to throw someone into the tank with a suit or heels on.

Mrs. Dollar - It doesn't matter to me. Gineer Gibbs - I like the idea, but I'd like to have Western Day, too. Charles Holge - All right, I guess. Joanie Hammons - OK by me.

Alice Acker's Ideal Boy

Most Handsome - Steve Hutton. Cutest - Stanley Byrnes. Nose - Bobby Lindsey. Hair - David Vaughan. Eyes - Bruce Fuller. Teeth - Steve Meyers. Smile - Bruce McRee. Hands - Tommy Maples. Laugh - Gary Winkle. Walk - Tommy Gross. Physique - Kenneth Oldham. Best Dressed - Arnold Acker. Friendliest - Butch Butler. Most Athletic - Tommy Nichols. Height - Dickie Dyer. Meanest - Richard Connell. I.Q. - Johnny Linn. Personality - Don Minchew. Best All Around - Paul Easterwood. Most Likely to Succeed - Charles Harris.

Don Minchew Named Senior Boy Of The Week

"Miss Britten, make Kerry quit bothering me." Are these familiar words? Surely they are to those in Bookkeeping class. Yes, Richard Don arrived in Plainview on April 15, 1947 to Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Minchew.

Even though Don may seem to be a little bit on the quiet side (at times), he has never been one to sit quietly by and watch everyone else do the things he enjoys.

During his Freshman year, Don was a member of F.F.A. and the Bobcat football team; he was elected as Most Likely To Succeed by his classmates.

In his Sophomore year he was elected to the Student Senate and once again chosen as the class' Most Likely to Succeed in his Junior year he was re-elected to the Student Senate and elected as class Parliamentarian.

For his Senior year the Senior class honored Don by electing him as Vice-President. He plays slot-back in the Dimmitt Bobcat football team this year and plans to be in F.T.A. and perhaps the Lyre Club.

Don has been in the Dimmitt Bobcat Band for the past four years and this year was elected as Vice-President of that organization.

Be on guard girls! Don's hobby is collecting bows. But could someone whose favorite pastime is watching T. V. actually take all those bows? Ask some of the girls and see or look in his car if you have a chance.

That's not all he does, but Don's other deeds are usually constructive. Don likes the favorite "Bed-time Story" best of all the movies he has seen recently but Doris Day and Jimmy Stewart are the best actress and actor scheduled on any "Everybody Loves Somebody" and "Ricky Nelson is his favorite singer."

Read any good books lately? Don vows. My Six Convicts is the very best ever published. Yes, Don has a favorite color—Metallic Blue—and a favorite car—a Chevelle—and his favorite food—fried chicken is the most important thing ever cooked.

After graduation Don plans to attend Tech and major in accounting. He's already sure that he will miss all of his friends in D.H.S. even Miss Britten. I know that I speak for all of the students of D.H.S. whenever I say that the students of our school will be the ones that will surely miss Don but the story of Dimmitt High School will carry the name Don Minchew as one of the ones that helped to make the history of our school.

New Faces

The new faces this week belong to Judy Renfro and Caria Ward. Both girls are members of the Junior class.

Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Renfro. She came to Dimmitt from Amarillo where she attended Palo Duro High School. Judy's favorite subject is world history. Her favorite book is Deep Summer. Judy's favorite singer is Brenda Lee. She enjoys listening to good music and her favorite song is "In the Misty Moonlight."

In the Hollywood spotlight her favorites are Paul Newman and Janet Leigh, and her favorite movie is The Ten Commandments. When Judy goes out to eat, her first choice is Mexican food. And anything red catches Judy's eye first.

Judy's ambition is to be a beautician or an airline hostess. She enjoys sewing and cooking.

Carla Ward is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward. Carla transferred here from Paducah High School in Paducah. Carla's enjoys her homemaking class best. She chooses Death Be Not Proud as her favorite book. The movie of our late President, John F. Kennedy, PT 109 is her favorite. Carla says her favorite actress is Doris Day, and favorite actor is John Wayne. Carla collects country and western records, therefore Jim Reeves is her favorite singer, and her choice of song is "White Lightning." Steak is Carla's favorite food on the menu. Red is Carla's favorite color, too. Along with collecting records, Carla likes to spend some of her spare time sewing. When she finishes high school, Carla would like to be a hairstylist or a secretary.

Both girls agreed that the students at DHS have been friendly and nice to them.

The Shadow

This week began with the traditional Monday night band practice. Miss X attended band practice with Nancy Howard and Al'lan Webb.

After band she was seen riding around with Ronnie Johnson. Tuesday Miss X played "air raid" all day, and Tuesday night went to the F.H.A. Pledge Party and got initiated. Wednesday night found Miss X at Church. Miss X stayed home Thursday, but Friday night she attended the ball game, and marched with the band at the half.

Saturday Miss X attended the Freshman football game with Nazareth, and later had a coke date with Ronnie Hutton. Sunday climaxed an exciting week for Miss X, as she went to the formal Initiation of F.H.A.

Of course, this could be none other than our cute freshman, Poppy Byrnes.

Joanie Hammonds Named Senior Of The Week

The sun shone bright on November 24, 1946, when Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hammonds were presented a beautiful brown-eyed blonde at Lubbock, Texas. She received the name of Loretta Joan after due consideration from her relatives.

Little did Mr. and Mrs. Hammonds know that at this time they were about to rear a very talkative telephone conversationalist. No Joanie doesn't devote all of her time to telephoning. A vast amount of it goes for collecting records and seeing exciting movies like the "Longest Day" Gary Grant is the most debonaire actor and the bright Debbie Reynolds completes the theatrical favorites of Joanie.

As far as music is concerned, Jimmy Rogers is simply wonderful when he sings the favorite "In the World I Use To Know". Her favorite color is blue and the best food is a good old T-Bone.

While Joanie lived at Cotton Center, she was honored with several offices in F.H.A. Among these were Vice President, Parliamentarian and reporter. She was Majorette for two years, All-Around Class Favorite her Freshman year, and M.Y.F. Vice-President and Treasurer.

We, the students of Dimmitt High School show a friendly "Welcome" to this new Senior and hope that she will enjoy Dimmitt as much as we do.

Khrushchev Says Russia Has New Terrible Weapon

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev announced that Russia had developed a "monstrous new terrible weapon" that can destroy all of humanity. But the Soviet leader did not describe it.

Khrushchev's statement was coupled with another fierce attack on Red China and Mao Tze-tung for its territorial claims against the Soviet Union.

Russia's top Asian expert Abutalib G. aurov, charged Red China with persecuting thirty-five million non-chinese within its borders, including those living in Tibet, Sikkim, and Inner Mongolia.

Khrushchev said later that he had no such a weapon, all the weapons he had did the same job. No weapon could out do another. Khrushchev denied ever saying that he had such a weapon.

On the next play James Miller went 32 yards for the score. Tullia had 304 yards on the ground while holding the Bobcats to a mere 34 yards rushing. Tullia had 17 first downs to 6 for Dimmitt.

Next week the Bobcats meet the Morton Indians in a Homecoming contest. The Indians, an ex district foe, post a good record but the Bobcats should give them a good game.

J. H. (JACK) KULTGEN

Kultgen Serves As Member Of Texas Hwy. Commission

J. H. Kultgen, member of the Texas Highway Commission, was born February 23, 1897, in Chicago, Ill. He received his schooling in his home city of Chicago.

During World War I the Commissioner served as a pilot with the U. S. Army Signal Corps in Texas. He has been associated with the automobile business since 1921, Waco since 1936. He is president of Bird-Kultgen, Inc., Huaco Motors, Inc. and the Huaco Corporation and is a director of the First National Bank of Waco, Texas Life Insurance Co., as well as many other business enterprises.

During World War II Mr. Kultgen took leave of absence from his business to serve as regional food rationing executive for six states of the Dallas region. He was later district director of the Fort Worth Office of Price Administration.

Mr. Kultgen has long been an active good roads enthusiast, serving as director of the Texas Good Roads Association from 1947 to 1962 and president of that association from 1951 to 1955. He has also served as director and president of the Brazos River Authority, as a member of the United States Study Commission representing the Brazos River Basin, and president of the Waco Chamber of Commerce Baylor Stadium Corporation and Heart of Texas Fair Association. He is an honorary member of the Waco Rotary Club.

LBJ Former Employee Of Highway Dept.

As National Highway Week and preparation for the Nation's Presidential election coincide this year, it seems the perfect time to tell one of the Texas Highway Department's favorite stories.

For one of the Texas Highway Department's most famous ex-employees is President Lyndon B. Johnson.

As a youth of 15 or so, Mr. Johnson worked for the Highway Department near his home town, Johnson City, in Blanco County. That was back around 1922. The project he worked on was U. S. 290 and the average pay was $3 a day.

The boy performed such varied tasks as running office errands, driving a gravel truck, clearing brush and rocks from the right of way, and helping field survey parties. Department employees who worked with him recall, however, that even then Lyndon Johnson had his eyes on the future.

"Even then Lyndon always used to say he was going to be President," reminisced one employee. He had big ideas, and he wanted to do something big with his life.

The story goes something like this:

The President's boss in those days was a J. W. Puckett, now deceased. Puckett used to pick up young Lyndon and his other men to drive them out to the job site in his work car—which apparently was an exceedingly rattle-trappy car. And one day Lyndon commented that "riding in this car isn't much better than walking"—and Puckett forthwith fired him for such youthful impudence.

Old acquaintances of the President say that Mr. Johnson always punctuates the story with a chuckle. Whether he's teasing or truthful, no one really knows.

But nevertheless, it makes a humorous case when you realize that today the Highway Department has designated a special number for the road which passes by Mr. Johnson's home: Ranch Road 1.

Making speeches, modeling dresses and building radios are among the many activities of 4-H Club members. Support 4-H during National 4-H Club Week, September 26 - October 3.

D. C. GREER

Greer Is State Highway Engineer

Dewitt C. Greer, State Highway Engineer, was graduated from Texas A & M University in 1923 with the degree of Bachelor of Engineering. He joined the Texas Highway Department in 1927, after extensive experience in construction and city engineering.

In 1929 he was named District Engineer at Tyler, Texas, serving in that capacity until 1936 when he became Chief Engineer of Construction and Design at Austin. In 1940 he was named State Highway Engineer of Texas, the position he now holds.

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Highway Research Board; Tau Beta Pi, an honorary engineering fraternity; a past president of the American Association of State Highway Officials (1950) and has served as a member of the Executive Committee of that organization for two decades.

At the annual meeting of the American Association State Highway Officials in 1953, Mr. Greer received the George S. Bartlett Award for outstanding contributions to highway progress. In 1962 he was named among the "Top Ten Public Works Men-of-the-Year" by Kiwanis International and the American Public Works Association. Official United States delegate to the International Roads Federation Regional Conference in Oslo, Norway, in 1954 and in Sydney, Australia, in 1961. Mr. Greer has traveled extensively worldwide in behalf of better highway transportation.

The Texas highway network has grown from a system of 20,359 miles when Mr. Greer became its chief administrator to a system of more than 65,000 miles today. Employees have doubled and the Highway Department's annual operating budget has increased by more than 1,000 per cent during his tenure. Mr. Greer is an active lay leader in the Methodist Church.

Women Drivers Take Ribbing

With National Highway Week upon us, women drivers should be prepared to take a little ribbing as thoughts turn to stories of highways.

This story comes from the Texas Highway Department.

In 205 B.C., the Romans passed a law prohibiting women from driving chariots, because of their tendency to be reckless. However, the girls embarked on a 25-year campaign of protest. About 180 B.C., they stormed the capital. In their defense, Marcus Cato made a speech about women's rights, and the girls got their licenses back.

In Athens, Greece, about the same time, Lycurgus sparked a campaign to clamp down on women drivers and succeeded. It was, however, a bitter victory. First to break the law was Mrs. Lycurgus. She was fined 6,000 drachmas.

New Trend Seen In Highway Construction

The most encouraging news yet released during National Highway Week is that there seems to be a new trend underway on construction projects.

Instead of flagmen, flagwomen are beginning to be seen on the job at road construction sites in several states. Apparently the Montana Highway Department started the trend.

It reasons? Motorists who have been annoyed by the delay which accompanies the familiar sign "Stop for Flagman," forget their impatience when the flagman turns out to be a flag-girl with a sweet voice and charming smile.

Qualifications for a flagwoman are a good smile, public relations manners, and easy on the eyes.

So watch these construction sites—any day now you may see a flagwoman instead of a flagman.

Fifty-two per cent of 4-H Club members now come from urban or suburban homes.

National Highway Week Features Fifth Freedom

With National Highway Week in session—and a theme of "mobility Your Fifth Freedom". . . it is interesting to compare the mobility freedom of the U. S. to that of other countries.

The Russians, for instance, have intricate traffic rules, even though traffic is extraordinarily light by U. S. standards. And to get a license is difficult.

This means, among other things, that the foreign embassies are dependent mostly on Soviet chauffeurs. Very few Americans in Moscow have ever passed the Soviet driving test. Among other things you have to be approved by a panel of physicians, not merely one; included are an eye doctor, a cardiologist, a back specialist, and one who tests reflexes in the soles of your feet. You have to work out traffic problems with model cars on something that looks like a parking lot, and prove that you can take apart and mount on engine.

Traffic accidents, for anybody, are a very serious matter—and offenders are punished with severity. Even if you scrape somebody's fender you can lose your license for a year, and if you accumulate three violations you lose it for life.

In the interest of safety, no more than two persons are permitted on the front seat. Late in 1956 two hospital workers in Podolsk got drunk, ran off with an ambulance and went on a joy ride with their wives. The ambulance hit a bus, and later knocked down and injured two pedestrians. The ambulance driver abandoned his vehicle and ran away. He was caught and sentenced to 25 years in jail.

Where Are The Brick Roads?

Where have all the brick roads gone? You may find yourself wondering this as your attention turns to highways during National Highway Week, October 4-10.

It wasn't too long ago that most streets and even a few rural highways were paved with brick. But now it is rapidly vanishing under ribbons of asphalt or concrete.

Brick pavement, once commonplace in America's cities and towns, is going the way of the streetcar, the corner soda fountain, the horse-drawn milk and ice wagons, and the auto rattle seat.

Not folks really aren't sorry to see the brick paving go, however. They remember how it caused their cars to vibrate and hum, and that it's slippery when icy or wet.

In several ancient parts of the world, brick-topped roads laid down by Imperial Rome still are in use today. The antiquity of brick roads vies with the antiquity of history itself. For thousands of years, men devised no better road-building material than brick, or brick-like cut stones. Some records date back to 2,200 B.C. Brick pavement outlasts all others on streets where there is an absence of heavy truck traffic.

It was late in the 1800s when American cities and towns, eager to get out of the mud, began to search for a paving material that would hold up under steel horse-shoes and wheels. And brick was the most plentiful and reliable material for transforming dirt or gravel roads into all-weather roads.

The advent of the horseless carriage after 1900 brought an increased clamor for adequately-paved roads, and brick pavement was given new impetus. In 1914, there were about 1600 miles of brick pavement in the U.S., and by 1924 this had increased to 4,319.

But by the 1920's concrete and asphalt had been developed, and, more important, methods of building roads of these materials were refined. Brick as a paving material then started a decline from which it never recovered.

Most roadways that originally were paved with brick now are covered with either asphalt or concrete, often providing an excellent base for the newer pavements. Texas has no brick highways left, although the west bound lane of U.S. 180 between Weatherford and Mineral Wells is an example of a brick road now covered by asphalt.

Paving bricks were laid by hand by men called "bricksetters." A skilled bricksetter could lay bricks at what seemed like a miraculous speed. Some could lay more than 500 feet of 20-foot-wide pavement a day. They were paid 50 cents an hour—twice as much as the men who assisted them. The bricks were not the same as those used for buildings. They were longer and thinner, more like tile.

If the Interstate system in Texas—3,029 miles—was being built by the bricklaying system, the completion date probably would be no earlier than the year 1996, or perhaps even past the year 2000. The Interstate goal is 1972, and Texas is right on schedule.

Highway Ghost Story Told

A good ghost story is always appropriate, even during National Highway Week.

And the Texas Highway Department can boast one of the most authentic ghost stories about highways that we've heard.

It's the Ghost Light of U.S. 90. If you want to see it, people who have seen it say the best vantage point is on U.S. 90 about 12 miles west of Alpine in West Texas. If it's shining, it will be visible on the horizon to the southwest, at the foothills of the Chinati Mountains.

But that's the thing about the Ghost Light. It shines now and then, unpredictably, and it never shines when anyone tries to trace it down.

For a hundred years, everyone from Boy Scouts to ranchers and scientists have tried to stalk the source of the light. They have tried to sneak up on it by jeep, on horseback, on foot and by helicopter. In almost every instance, the light shines brightly as its stalker advances upon it, but each time the light flickers out.

Legend has it that the light is a candle-like flame that is the soul of a wayward Apache brave condemned to roam the Chinatis forever. If this is so, that old Apache is a mighty whimsical ghost.

The light is visible most nights, winter and summer. But capricious ghost that it is, its behavior is erratic and it may not appear for several hours. And some nights not at all. And when it does choose to glow, it may appear a few degrees to the left or right of where it shined before. The Chinati ghost is manifestly a gadabout.

What could the Ghost Light be? There is a choice of theories, none very good.

One explanation is that the light is the moon's reflection from a vein of mica. But no ich vein has been discovered. And besides, the Ghost Light beams when there is no moon.

It has been suggested that the light could be caused by phenomenon known as "swap gas." But West Texas is no swamp. And geologists discount the possibility of natural gas reserve in that area.

So maybe it's a mirage? Why not? Mirages do occur in such stratified air as that region boasts. But abide, Mirages, for all are reflections of distant arid light lights. The Ghost Light the Chinatis has been seen now more than 100 years. And hundred years ago, the bright light in those parts was a pion's kerosene lantern—hardly a scientific refract with the brilliant candlepower of the Ghost Light, which sometimes glares like headlights of an oncoming train.

What else might it be? The work of a prankster? A prater more than 100 years old? Hilly Well, then, several generations of pranksters? Not likely. Fortiles is a long way to hike for gaz. Besides, none of the manxpeditions which have sought the Ghost Light's source has tied up a sign of life.

It is almost ironic that not far away astronomers McDonald Observatory are prog secrets of stars a billion lightyears distant. Yet they are asplexed as anyone by the riddle the Ghost Light of U.S. 90. Tmountains have kept their secreell. In 100 years and more, th have yet to give up the ghost.

And those who haven't it may invoke the wonderme of child hood astronomy. Of s and ghost lights one may pot, "How I wonder what you ar

Drivers Need To Make Changes In Long-Established Driving Habits

As more and more multi-lane expressways in Texas are opened to the highway traveler, drivers find that minor changes in long-established driving habits must be made.

Two words—one old and one new—are the keys to safe vehicle operation on the new freeway system. The old word "caution" is just as important on the new multi-lane highways as on the narrower ones they replace. The new word is "gradual," a word that will help drivers adjust to high speed conditions of the new expressways.

No matter what you do, while driving on the expressways—enter or leave—change lanes—pass or pull off—do it gradually.

Many drivers, Texas Highway Department engineers point out, are geared to pre-expressway driving habits. They apply two-lane highway practices to four-lane situations.

Up-to-date driving techniques are a must if the 3,029 miles of Interstate highways in Texas are to fulfill one of our basic missions—reducing the highway death toll.

The new expressways are the safest highways ever built and every known safety feature has been engineered into their construction. However, whether they accomplish their full goal depends on a second ingredient—the human element.

One of the new features you will notice as you enter the modern expressway is replacement of the "Stop" sign with one that says "Yield."

This new sign has two meanings. First, it means if the roadway is clear of vehicles you may enter the expressway without coming to a complete stop.

However, if the roadway is not clear of traffic it takes on the meaning of the "Stop" sign and the driver must come to a complete stop. Then when the roadway is clear of vehicles the driver can proceed.

As you enter the expressway you will find you are in an acceleration lane. Use it to pick up speed before entering the main lanes, matching yours so that of traffic already moving on the expressway.

Traffic conditions on the expressway are different from the two-lane highway. First, you do not have to contend with oncoming traffic. It is similar to driving on a one-way street with no intersection. Second, you can pass in either direction—take your signal your attention and then make your move gradually.

Next, be alert to the signs placed along the roadway by the Texas Highway Department. Observe maximum and minimum speed limits. Remember, on an expressway it's just as dangerous to be a "slow driver" as it is to be a "speeder".

Because expressway speed is much faster a greater distance between vehicles must be maintained. "Tailgating" following too close to the vehicle ahead—is a major cause of expressway accidents.

A good "rule of thumb" is to leave one car length for every 10 miles an hour of speed. At 70, you must maintain at least seven car lengths between your auto and the one ahead. This will give you time for decision making and action if the driver ahead does the unexpected.

If you experience an emergency such as a flat, an overheated radiator or engine trouble, remember the word "gradual"—signal your intention and then gradually pull over to the shoulder on the right. Never come to a stop in a traffic lane.

Take a ten-minute break during Long stretches of expressway driving contribute to fatigue, and make "rest breaks" very essential. The Texas Highway Department has rest areas along the Texas highway system. Stop a few moments and stretch—take a short stroll and get some fresh air—then you can proceed on your way refreshed and alert.

Continue to dim your lights when meeting oncoming traffic even though separated from it by a median. Also, dim when approaching a car from the rear so as not to "blind" the driver with headlight reflection and glare.

Plan your exit well in advance and watch for the Texas Highway Department signs which will warn of your approach to exit locations. Slow down gradually as you approach the exit lane; and, after entering the lane be ready to obey the "stop" or "yield" sign.

If you miss your exit continue to the next one. Under no conditions may a U' turn be made on a freeway.

By following these simple rules and adding a good measure of plain common sense you will find Texas' modern freeways are safe, time saving—and a joy to drive.

Whooping Crane Sighted Near Cherokee, Okla.

One of the rare whooping cranes was positively identified this morning resting on the Salt Plains National Wildlife Refuge near Cherokee, Oklahoma. Refuge Manager Lyle Stemmerman was able to make positive identification of the bird.

Although Salt Plains National Wildlife Refuge is on the direct migration path to the big birds' preferred wintering grounds, the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge near Austwell, Texas, on the Gulf Coast, the sighting was unusual in that the bird is far ahead of the normal migration timetable. A total of 32 whooping cranes left the refuge in Texas last spring headed for their breeding grounds in northern Canada.

Until the birds return to Aransas this winter, it will not be possible to make an accurate estimate of the success of this year's reproduction.

Under complete and intensive protection by state, federal, and Canadian wildlife authorities, the whooping crane is staging an uphill battle for survival from the all-time low of 17 birds in the 1930's.

Young County Farmers Receive FHA Assistance

Mr. Marlis C. Barker, County Supervisor of Castro and Hale Counties, advises that 45 young farm families are receiving loans to assist them in the purchase of farms, the construction of essential farm buildings, the acquisition of livestock and machinery, and funds for the further development of their resources this year.

"Over 1,000 young farmers less than 35 years of age have received the financial and technical assistance of the Farmers Home Administration in Texas this year," stated L. J. Cappelman, State Director. Mr. Cappelman reported that, "One of the major endeavors of the Farmers Home Administration in 1964 is to assist young farmers in accomplishing the extremely difficult task of acquiring the capital and the skill needed to take over the farms of their retiring elders."

Mr. Barker stated that over the past three years, many young farmers who received the assistance of the Farmers Home Administration have been formally recognized as outstanding young farmers in the State by various publications and farm organizations.

The County Supervisor advised that this financial assistance is available to young farm families who are unable to obtain adequate credit from private sources, meet all other eligibility requirements, and have the ability and the desire to become successfully established farming and ranching operations.

Tax Man Sam Sez

The keeping off records is a favorite subject with the Internal Revenue Service. For quite a few years the good tax folks have been encouraging taxpayers to keep better records. On occasion this "encouragement" takes the form of disallowing the taxpayer's deduction during an audit because he can't prove the deduction. The new series of public service TV spot films issued by Internal Revenue Service points out that the changes in the law make it more important than ever to keep tax records.

Guess we had better get around to straightening up those receipts and posting up the family books.

'Instant' Coffey Considered All American Material

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI)—Give him an inch and he'll take at least five yards—instantly.

That's the way with Junior (instant) Coffey, the University of Washington's top backfield candidate for all-American honors this football season.

The 205-pound fullback from Dimmitt got off to a great start last Saturday when he racked up 140 yards in 26 carries against Air Force in a season opener. Ironically, he needed only a short yard to give the Huskies a victory. But the Air Force line in a goal line stand did not give Junior the necessary inch and the Falcons won the game 3-2.

But it was Junior's show most of the day. In one burst through the line he ran for 37 yards—and he carried three Air Force tacklers on his back for the last six or seven yards of that effort.

"That Coffey is unspillable," remarked one punster fan.

Coffey's performance against Air Force put him fourth on the list of all-time Husky rushers. He now has accumulated 1,106 yards on the ground. Only Hugh McElhenney, Charlie Mitchell and Joe Jones are ahead of him and if Coffey stays healthy he'll undoubtedly be second only to McElhenney's 2,499 yards before his college football career is finished at the end of the season.

Coffey led the AAWU conference in rushing during his sophomore season with 581 yards. Last year, he missed the first three games with a broken foot and netted only 385 yards rushing.

Coffey is majoring in education and while he is not an outstanding scholar his grades are adequate.

He is soft-spoken both on and off the field and is a favorite among his fellow players.

Last year, Coffey was sidelined with troublesome feet.

Most mountain animals are more vulnerable to approach from above. Goats, elk, sheep, deer and bears seem to concentrate their vigilance on what lies below.—Sports Afield.

Here's why it's smart business to harvest your cotton with a HESSTON V-22

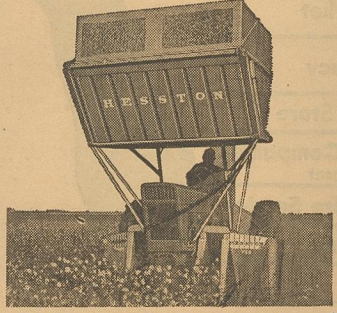

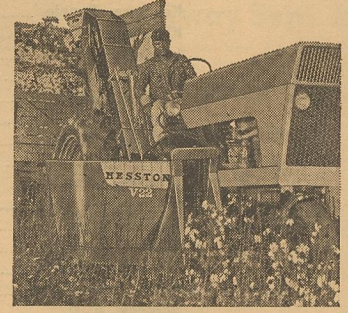

SOLID ROLL STRIPPER HARVESTED THIS

HESSTON V-22 HARVESTED THIS

PROFITS INCREASE WITH THIS BRUSH HARVESTER (some call it a flexible roll stripper)

Whether you call it a brush harvester as Hesston does... or a flexible roll stripper, as some others do... the Hesston V-22 Cotton Harvester with its unique brushing action gets more cotton and cleaner cotton than the best solid roll stripper available. Hesston works in cotton making up to three bales; it will strip shoulder-high, irrigated cotton, and it has proven its efficiency in open and storm-proof varieties, rank stalks, and bumble-bee cotton. The reason is Hesston brush action. The two-roll V-22 has rotating nylon brushes with alternating rubber paddles. It is available in either the trailer model or new 1,000-lb. capacity basket model with exclusive front dumping... hydraulically. The vertical air stream elevator has green boll separating efficiency up to 97%. Not only is the V-22 profitable, but it is a trouble-free machine to own. It is available for a variety of tractors. Compare the V-22 with any other. You'll see the difference in the field; you'll receive the difference at the gin.
