DOUSING THE REMNANTS OF A GRASS FIRE AROUND UTILITY POLES on Highway 153 East were Coleman County Electric Co-op workers. The fire, that occurred at 3 p.m., Thursday, February 8, burned approximately 10 acres of land between the home of Bud Davis and place of Albert Brown. It is believed that the fire was ignited by an electric fence.

Is there no interest for summer baseball/softball leagues?

Very few turn out; next meeting set February 20

With only 13 people present Wednesday, Feb. 7, at the first 1996 meeting of the Winters Area Baseball Association, the future of baseball in Winters is questionable. Many volunteers are needed in order to successfully complete another season.

The meeting was held at 7:30 p.m. in the City Council chambers. Mary Lynn Presley, girls president, called the meeting to order.

The election of the Board of Directors was not conducted due to lack of attendees.

Volunteers are needed for boys president, vice president, secretary, two directors, and chairpersons for the following: protest committee, concession stand committee, sign painting committee, work/cleanup crews, umpires, coaches, and assistant coaches.

Present volunteers are girls president, treasurer, inventory committee, purchasing agents for boys & girls, and advertising committee.

Another meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, February 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Catholic Church, immediately following sign-up. Items on the agenda include the Board of Directors elections and discussion as whether to stay in Little League or return to Texas Teenage for the boys.

Dates set for sign-up are Tuesday, Feb. 20, and Friday, Feb. 23, from 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Catholic Church. Registration fee is $25 and cap money is $5 (a total of $30 due upon registration). Late sign-up date is Monday, March 4, with an additional $5 due as a late fee.

Discussion was heard on the following with no action taken at this time:

- Fund raiser meal tentatively set Sunday, Feb. 25,
- Inventory update and coaches meeting,
- Baseball buttons at $4,
- Umpire and coach clinics for T-ball, girls, and boys, and
- Pixie League for 4- and 5-year-olds with same entry fees as other teams. Parents would be the umpires, and kids would play just for fun.

Research will be completed on needed work (i.e. rocks and holes in the field, dugout backstop, and moving gate to other side of dugout) and the Coke scoreboard, all for the north field.

Mrs. Presley reported that there were approximately 285 children in the league for 1995, with 19 teams and only 11 sponsors.

FBI, State Attorney continue investigation at Heritage Oaks Nursing Home in Ballinger

By ROENEAL BOLES
Special to The Winters Enterprise

Mystery still surrounds the FBI investigation at Heritage Oaks Estates, a local nursing home. FBI agents and the U.S. Attorney's office in Lubbock have declined to comment other than to confirm they were looking at patient records at the 120-bed nursing home.

Rumors began to surface early last week about the investigation, and Dalton Hughes of Abilene, owner of Heritage Oaks, confirmed that FBI agents had presented a search warrant at the nursing home and examined patient records on two occasions.

Hughes stressed the fact that the FBI was not investigating the home, but was looking through the files of patients who receive outside services from companies which bill Medicare. Included in those outside services are medical supply companies and physical therapists.

Hughes also confirmed that the former administrator, Darlene McDaniel, and her daughter, Lalanie King, who was director of nurses for the home, had been terminated as of last week. Hughes said he was not aware of anyone being charged with anything, but that he felt their continued association with Heritage Oaks might reflect negatively on the nursing home.

He reiterated he was not aware of any wrongdoing, he was just trying to protect the nursing home's reputation.

Lalanie King told the San Angelo Standard-Times that the dismissals were linked to her brother, Sean McDaniel, who operates a medical supply company in Eastland. Neither Darlene McDaniel, Lalanie King, nor Sean McDaniel were available for comment prior to press time.

Hughes told the Ballinger Ledger that Heritage Oaks had zero deficiencies in the latest state survey. He said that 75-80% of Texas nursing homes have failed to have acceptable ratings following the enacting of more stringent regulations.

In the interim, while he is searching for a new administrator and director of nurses, Assistant Administrator Gay Howard is acting administrator and Assistant Director of Nurses Julie Richardson is acting DON. He said he hopes to have the two positions filled in the very near future.

Ballinger City Councilman Bob McDaniel has sought to disassociate himself and his McDaniel Medical of Ballinger from the McDaniel Medical of Eastland, which is associated with his son, Sean, by placing an advertisement in the Ledger saying his company is not associated with the Eastland company and has no business dealings with any nursing home.

McDaniel says he has been divorced from Darlene for several years and hasn't seen his son recently. He says he wants to distance himself from his son and assure people he is in no way involved with the investigation at Heritage Oaks.

JOHN PAUL BELEW signs his letter of intent to play football at Trinity Valley Community College in Athens. He made the decision with hopes to eventually play Division I football, and turned down offers from Cisco Junior College and Angelo State. Also present for the special occasion were WISD athletic director Robin Byrd (left) and John's parents, Scotty and Peggy Belew.

OIL BUSINESS . . .

By Reg Boles ©1996

Ask any schoolkid about energy. The answers you get are illuminating, indeed.

At a recent career day, a friend of mine in the oil and gas business was all set to put on a short presentation of what "Daddy does for a living." That is, until the school counselor called up to ask if he could spend a little less time on oil and gas and more time on something more "positive."

When you ask kids where gasoline comes from, less than half know. When you ask them which type of energy provides the most of our requirements, solar and wind power inevitably come up. When you mention to them that over half of our daily consumption of petroleum comes from outside of our country, after a chorus of "so-whats," the teacher usually chimes in with "Are you sure?"

What is the reason for this basic lack of understanding of a particular product that everybody uses daily and depends upon for the basic necessities of life?

Firstly, the petroleum industry itself is responsible for not doing a better job of keeping the public educated and informed. The people in this business have always allowed their internal diversity to prevent a unified message from being presented to the public.

Secondly, the public schools do a poor job of presenting a broad, fair, accurate, and effective review of the subject of energy. Most curricula concentrate on teaching kids about the environmentalist point of view regarding energy. Wind, solar, and other somewhat exotic forms of energy are presented as a majority of the program on energy. Emphasis is continually placed on recycling, and renewable energy sources.

It is rare indeed that fossil fuels are even discussed. If they are, then the Exxon Valdez is held up as the example of how much damage can be done by an overzealous, but dying industry.

The only problem with that type of approach is that it isn't real. Fossil fuels provide 75 percent of our energy and nuclear (also down-trodden during science lessons) provides about 15 percent more. The rest, although discussed ad-nauseum in elementary school, share the final 10 percent.

The kids and their teachers deserve to know reality. Energy is vital to our lives and our livelihoods. Furthermore, oil and gas fuel their cars that they drive each day, make the milk cartons that hold their milk, and coat the wheels of their rollerblades.

Writing petroleum off as a worthless has-been is just not accurate. How did Mark Twain say it... "The reports of my demise are grossly overstated and premature to say the least!"

Senior Citizens Nursing Home News by Billie Ruth Bishop

We had the Valentine King & Queen presentations on Wednesday with a special program.

Also this was the week for our monthly birthday party. Our honorees for February are: Erma Ueckert (2nd), Frank Collins (7th), Odella Coalsen (10th), and Edna Parramore (23rd). Congratulations to these four people. Hostesses for the affair were ladies from the Drasco Baptist Church. They provided refreshments and gifts.

Mr. Doc Pinegar is a new resident. He is in room 17. We welcome him to our midst.

Our sympathy is extended to Nelda Voss in the death of her husband, Fred Voss. Next week we have 6th grade kids coming on Tuesday at 10:45 and 3rd graders coming in at 12:45. We always look forward to seeing Fran Kidwell and hearing the kids sing.

On Friday of that week, we will have Floy Hodge visiting us and giving us a history of Irish potatoes. This is the day we call French Fry Friday. This sounds interesting.

Methodist Church to begin celebration of Lent, Feb. 21

The First United Methodist Church is beginning its Lenten Services February 21 at 7 p.m. with Ash Wednesday Service. This will be a time of special spiritual preparation for sharing in the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent, begins with a self-examination. The palm branches, representing the previous year, are burned and made into ashes.

The name "Ash Wednesday" comes from the practice of marking foreheads of penitent worshippers with a cross of ashes obtained from the burning of the palm branches.

On Palm Sunday, March 31, Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem will be re-enacted by members waving palm branches.

April 4, Maunday Thursday, is celebrated by receiving communion.

Easter is April 7 with sunrise services at daylight at the Winters Country Club. Breakfast will be served. An Easter service follows at the church at 11 a.m.

Members of the community are invited and welcome to attend any of these services.

Texas invades Canada

Senior adults of First Baptist Church were entertained with a slide program of beautiful Alberta, Canada, Thursday. It was presented by Myrtis and Wilburn Davis of Ballinger.

They are members of the Texas Baptist Men who donated a new classroom building at the Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary.

Leaving Texas on July 22, the Davises pulled their fifth wheel trailer and traveled 1,908 miles to the seminary. They returned home August 31, after being in Canada one month.

"When we arrived," said Myrtis, "they were having prayer meeting. Afterwards they came out and helped us unpack our trailers."

Work was underway on a 18,000 sq. ft. building that will more than double the seminary's capacity and provide for expansion of the library in its present location.

Classrooms, professors' offices, a bookstore, student lounge and a large chapel area and kitchen will occupy the new space while the current space is modified for library expansion, a new office for the Development Director and a conference room.

Foam blocks, which go together like children's building blocks, are being used to provide insulation. While the hollow space in the middle allows for rebar and concrete.

The walls have been practically filled with the second and last pouring to be done. The Texas Baptist Men will provide the money for materials as well as the volunteers to construct the new building.

Canada is an enormous mission field, larger in size than the United States. Despite its closeness to the U.S., Canada is one of the most unevangelized nations in the world. Only 7% of Canadians are Christians.

Begun in 1987, the Canadian Southern Baptist Seminary carries with it the excitement of a fresh vision for reaching Canada for Christ. Led by its president Dr. Richard Blackaby, a third generation Canadian Baptist leader, the seminary has been moving forward rapidly.

Its land, consisting of 144 acres of beautiful fields bordering the eastern slopes of the Rocky Mountains, provides space for major expansion in the future.

Wilburn Davis became involved in 1967 when he took his two oldest sons to Mexico to visit a missionary whom he had met in Rowena. He went from there to North Alberta and visited Keith Hale who lived on a ranch and pastored a church at Worsley. Hale had two sons who were also preachers in North Alberta.

Davis took his three sons on the next visit. They went by plane and landed at Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. His wife stayed at home to care for her ailing mother, with the help of her daughter.

While attending a Baptist Convention in Amarillo in 1994, Wilburn signed an agreement to return to Canada in July of 1995.

"We were volunteer builders and went at our own expense," said Myrtis. Dinner in the evening was furnished, but the women had to cook it, our training and theological degree was provided.

The trailers were parked behind eight apartments and a green house. There was a walkway behind the trailers leading to the convention center. The green house was full of beautiful flowers and vegetables planted by the Baptist Women in May.

Working hours were usually Monday through Friday, but when a group of experienced brick layers came to help they worked on through Saturday.

Refreshments were always furnished at snack time. They came in beautiful packages but everything is in French or English and difficult to read. The favorite is vinegar flavored potato chips.

The Davises had a nice surprise when they had to buy a new clutch for their R.V. for $500.00, our dollar is worth $1.30 in Canada.

The couple met in Corpus Christi during the war. He was in the Navy. They came to Ballinger in 1979 where he had some land. Davis is a retired J.P. and she was a math teacher. They are members of the 7th Street Baptist Church.

Letter to the Editor

Winters must be a very special place

A week ago we were in Winters to be with our son-in-law and daughter, Mike and Linda Mitchell, following the death of our grandson and their son, Justin Mitchell.

We were overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and concern shown by so many. There were so many who ministered to all of us.

The over abundance of food, the large number of floral offerings, the sincere expressions of sympathy through visits at the funeral home, the teenagers who were so willing to share their comfort, the generosity of the Chevrolet dealer and friends to provide a car for Mike and Linda until they can get another. Then there was the football team with many friends who stood in the bitter cold wind to pay their last respects for Justin.

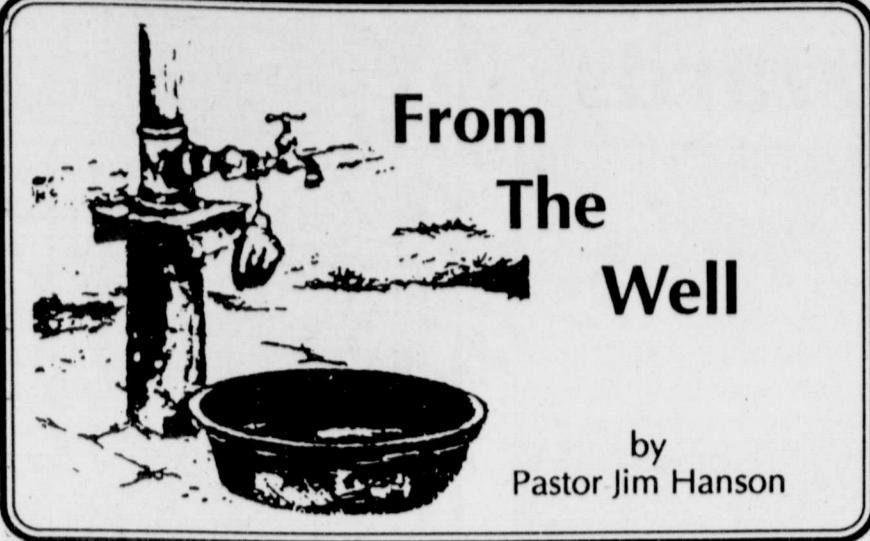

Winters must be a very special place. We are forever indebted to all of you. May God bless you for helping to lighten the load of sorrow.

From The Well

by Pastor Jim Hanson

I don't know when it started. This current interest in angels, that is, I do know that a few years ago, there was a thing about kitchen witches. These were doll-like figures of witches that people were to hang in their kitchens. I don't know what good they were to do — perhaps none at all. But I do remember Ramona saying, "I don't want any witches in my kitchen — what I really need is a kitchen angel!" And sure enough, hearing her request, some of her friends gave her...kitchen angels.

And, it seems, ever since, I have been seeing angels all over the place — angels pinned to your shoulder, angels on mobiles hanging from the ceiling, angels that sit on the ledge. I think we have at least twenty in our living and dining room at the parsonage.

Along with these pins, and figures, there are angel calendars, angel note-cards, angel cartoons, angels in the movies, and TV documentaries about angels. Every Saturday night a number of my parishioners religiously watch the T.V. show "Touched by an Angel." There are 164 books on angels listed in the Kansas City library, and ten to fifteen titles in airport bookstores. Someone has written that there is even a 900 number you can call for information about angels, but I haven't seen it. For sure, the angels are here.

But, what about real angels? Or are there really angels out there? And, if so, what is the reason for so many angel sightings in our time?

The Bible has many stories that have angels in them. In the story of the Exodus, when Israel was caught between the sea on one side and the Egyptian army on the other, "the angel of God, who had been leading Israel's camp, now moved and went around behind them" (Exodus 14:19) to protect them from the Egyptians. In the book of Acts, angels deliver Peter and the apostles from jail (Acts 5:19-20, 12:7-11). And send them to people in need of their ministry (Acts 8:26). Angels guide and protect God's people.

Angels also deliver messages and give instruction. The births of Ishmael, Samson, John the Baptist, and Jesus were all announced by angels. Angels warned Lot to leave Sodom and Joseph to leave Bethlehem. Angels were at the empty tomb on Easter morning and told the women "He is not here, He is risen," and told them what to tell the disciples.

There are many other stories about angels in the Bible. And, early Christian writers, Jerome and Augustine and Oregin, all wrote about them. One of the prayers of the church that is often prayed at our church is, "Therefore, with the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might!" One of the hymns of my childhood was, "Evening when I go to sleep, fourteen angels watch to keep," and one of my favorite evening hymns is "Now the day is over." Stanza four reads, "Through the long night watches may your angels spread, Their bright wings above me, watching round my bed." After singing that one, many of us can fall peacefully asleep.

Modern popular stories are remarkably consistent with the Bible stories. Angels guide and protect — like the two college students, stalled in a blizzard, were towed back to town by a parka-clad man who then disappeared, tow truck and all. They give instruction and warning, encourage good works, and sometimes come in answer to prayer.

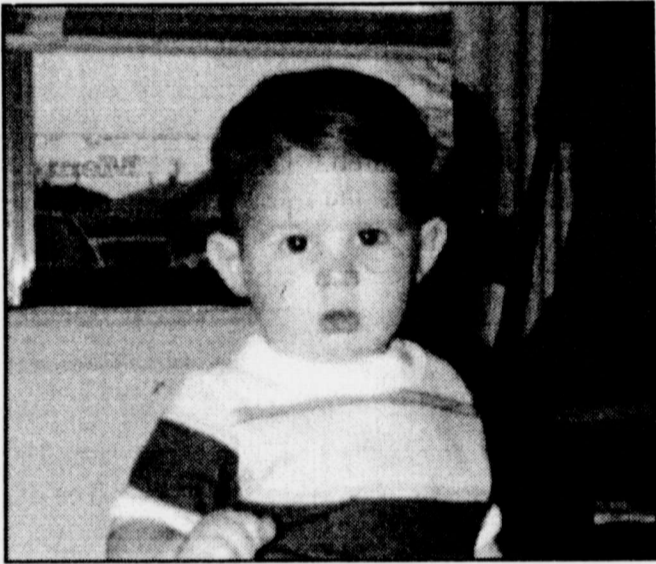

What do all these angel-sightings in our time mean? I remember a professor I had in seminary who once said, "The testimony of Scripture is quite clear — when there are a lot of angel appearances, God is about to do a mighty thing." I do believe that so many angel-sightings in our time must mean God is up to something, something big.

If you don't share that belief, for sure all these appearances do quicken the child-like faith inside of me, and encourage a childhood prayer,

"Angel of god, my guardian dear, to whom God's love entrusts me here.
Ever this day be at my side
To light and guard, to rule and guide."

And, in you, too?

Happy 15th

City Council and school plan local youth contest

Announced in the City Council meeting of February 12, City Administrator Aref Hasson, Alderman Garry Goff, and School Principals Charles Kidwell and Terry Wyatt are working together to devise a painting contest for students. The purpose of the contest is to familiarize the youth of the community with city government and to develop a more positive relationship between the two.

Working under the supervision of their teachers, students will consider four areas in which to paint: agriculture, petroleum, industry, and education. One winner from elementary and one from high school will each receive $25, a proclamation from the city, and recognition at an upcoming council meeting.

The contest will be conducted during the first part of March, with winners announced no later than March 8. Paintings will be displayed in Council Chambers.

Hasson, Alderman Tommy Russell, and Mayor Dawson McGuffin recently traveled to Austin to research further requirements for the Main Street Program. Dr. Russell mentioned selected cities receiving the grant have a population of under 5,000, and indicated that this is a self-help project requiring a commitment to hire a half-time person. According to Hasson, Winters will apply again for the grant. The Council has assigned Russell to the project.

For the third, and most likely final, time since 1990, Winters will again apply for the maximum $20,000 funding to the Texas Department of Transportation for beautification to the city through the TxDOT Enhancement Program. Plans and specifications include decorative breaks in sidewalks, decorative lights, landscaping, and irrigation for the downtown areas along Main and West Dale Streets. Federal funds, if approved, must be matched by 20 percent.

In attendance representing the Co-ed Softball League were Louis Esquivel, Alfred and Deedra Yates, Angela Brewer, and Manuel Esquivel. The League had previously proposed to the Council that Winters build a regulation size softball field at Elm Creek Reservoir Park. Construction, including a parking area and concessions stands, would require approximately 14 acres. Hasson contacted the Texas Department of Parks and Wildlife for the availability of a grant, and reported that a second grant is possible. Necessary paperwork will be completed, and an application submitted.

Hasson was elected to one of the five policy committees of the Texas Municipal League. His committee will familiarize relevant issues pertaining to non-fund mandates on utilities, environment, and public safety, then report recommendations prior to the issues becoming law.

In response to a request from Attorney General Dan Morales, concern was voiced through a resolution in reference to the North American Free Trade Agreement. It is feared that Texas highways may be damaged by heavy loads from Mexico. It is also feared that Texas laws will be violated and drug trafficking will become a large problem. Letters were mailed to Washington authorities.

Other correspondence addressed included:

- Police Department grant approval,
- chipper grant,
- approval of water tower plans and specifications by State authorities,
- a security pledge protecting city funds at First National Bank-Winters branch,
- monthly reports from the City Administrator, Chief of Police, and Municipal Judge, and
- approval of bills and previous minutes.

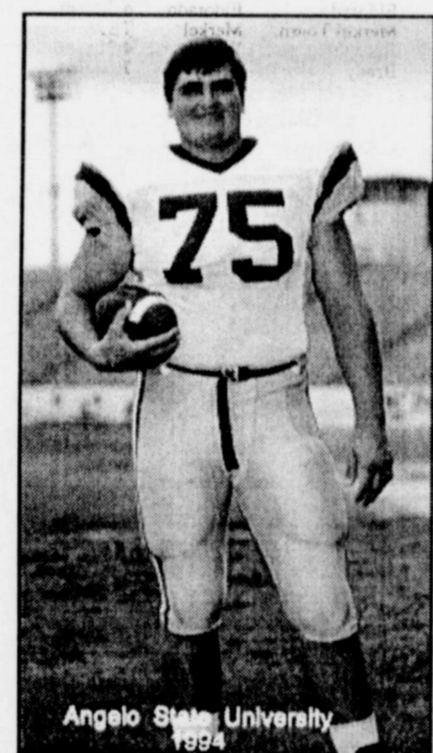

NEW 70 MPH SPEED LIMIT SIGNS in Runnels County on U.S. and State highways were rotated to face traffic Wednesday, February 7, by TxDOT employees Charles J. Wearden (left), Fernando Sanchez, and Maintenance Technician IV Julio Galvan (not pictured). The signs had previously been installed facing pastures, awaiting final approval by the Texas Transportation Commission. According to Carla Baze, Maintenance Supervisor of the Runnels County Texas Department of Transportation, she received word in conjunction with the Taylor County TxDOT to open U.S. 83 North a day ahead of schedule. Other U.S. and state highways in Runnels County also were approved for the change on February 7.

Robyn Parramore wins All-American Vocational Student Award technology-based classes, and is running for a regional FHA office. She is the daughter of Robert and Rhea Parramore.

Special thanks is extended to the Winters Area Business and Industrial Corporation and Mr. Charles Bahlman for providing a committee to review the local applications and select the recipient of this award.

Each local winner will advance to the state judging level. A panel composed of vocation education professionals from each state will select state winners who will then advance to the national competition.

Card of Thanks

The Junior Class of WHS wishes to thank the community of Winters for supporting their recent Mexican Dinner fund raiser. The dinner was a huge success, and an apology is due to those who came toward the end when the food supply ran out. Such a large crowd had not been anticipated.

A special thanks to the parents who helped cook and serve the meal, and to the class sponsors who helped organize the event.

A BIG thanks to Dottie Loudermilk who worked so hard and worried so much.

Crews News by Hilda Kurtz

Work hard and save your money, and when you are old you will be able to buy the things only the young can enjoy.

Hopewell Church visitors on Sunday were Mrs. Carolyn Webb and her mother, Edith Everett. Jewel and Richard Denny came for the night services.

The W.M.U. met at the church on Monday morning for mission study. Romana Akins, Dee Faubion, Netha Kerby, Mildred Morrison, Melvena Gerhart, and Nila Osborne were present.

The Hopewell Baptist Church would like to share our blessing with everyone. When our beloved pastor of ten years, Reverend Oscar Fanning and wife Janie gave resignation, and the Kenny Cartwright family moved—Eileen being our pianist—we felt like the bottom had fallen out of our world. But through prayer, the Lord blessed us Sunday, February 11, with Reverend Ferris Akins and wife, Ramona. Reverend Akins will be our pastor and his wife, Ramona, our pianist. The Lord is still on throne and is still answering our prayers.

Adeline Grissom, Katherine and Luke Thomas were in Abilene on Sunday visiting with Phyllis, Von, Jeff, and Jennifer Byrd. They celebrated on early Valentine's day with a pot luck lunch.

Mildred Morrison has belated news. Vada Fern Minter of Ballinger spent Wednesday through Sunday with Mildred due to the death of Selma Berry who was buried in the Crews Cemetery last week. Families that stayed day and night with Mildred were Buddy and Charlotte Southerland and son Gary and his two daughters of Odessa; Tee Berry; Betty McKinney of Houston; Maureen Scott of Sweetwater; and Martha Morrison and son Michael, his wife, and two kids. Vicki and Kevin came on Monday.

On Wednesday, Mildred Morrison attended the funeral of a dear friend, Mrs. Helen Dillaha of Snyder.

On Sunday, the 11th, Juanita Shields and Helen Alexander went home with Mildred Morrison after church services. They enjoyed lunch. Bradley Scott and Denise Bennett of Sweetwater came in the afternoon.

Noble Faubion and Carolyn Kraatz helped Mary Louise Dunivan move to the big city of Winters on Monday.

Nila and Therin Osborne, Sue Campbell were supper guests Thursday night with the Wesley McGallian family. Nila and Therin visited Bro. Oscar and Janie Fanning in Abilene Saturday evening. Marvin and Melvena Gerhart entertained and sit with their three grandsons, Bryant, Braden, and Bryce in the Mikeska home in Wingate on Saturday night.

Georgia and Connie Gibbs' grandson, Kenny Gibbs of Winters, is in a Dallas hospital after having back surgery on Thursday. His parents, Jean and Connie Mac Gibbs; wife Saffron, and son Lane are in Dallas to be near him. We wish Kenny the best.

Pat and Earl Cooper attended the dedication Sunday in church for Kayelan Drake, daughter of Dodie and Ed Drake. Afterwards, all the families had lunch at The Shed in Wingate. Later in the evening, they drove to Bronte to attend the birthday party for Elizabeth Shultz in the home of her great-grandparents. Elizabeth celebrated her first birthday. She is one-year-old.

Marqué and Will Mathis attended Desiree's basketball game on Saturday morning. Winters played Jim Ned.

Doris Wood spent Saturday in Abilene with her daughter's family, the Maloys.

I had a nice short visit with Bob and Sissie Alexander Monday. Later I had lunch with Mary, Camille, and Caitlin Kurtz. Before going home, I went out to see Harvey Mae Faubion. I had a nice visit, and while there she gave me this news for my column.

Melvena Gerhart and Nila Osborne came by on their way to Bible study. Walter Pape of Santa Anna and Gladys Cotton of Ballinger came over the weekend.

Brenda Jacob of San Angelo spent the weekend with Margie Jacob. On Saturday, they watched the Winters-Jim Ned basketball game. Brenda, Margie, and Cookie were in Abilene shopping. On Sunday, they attended the Mexican dinner that the Junior class sponsored at the school cafeteria. Later they went by to see Mike and Carol Kozelsky, and all honored Kathryn Kozelsky and Brad Van Zandt on their birthdays. They enjoyed ice cream and birthday cake.

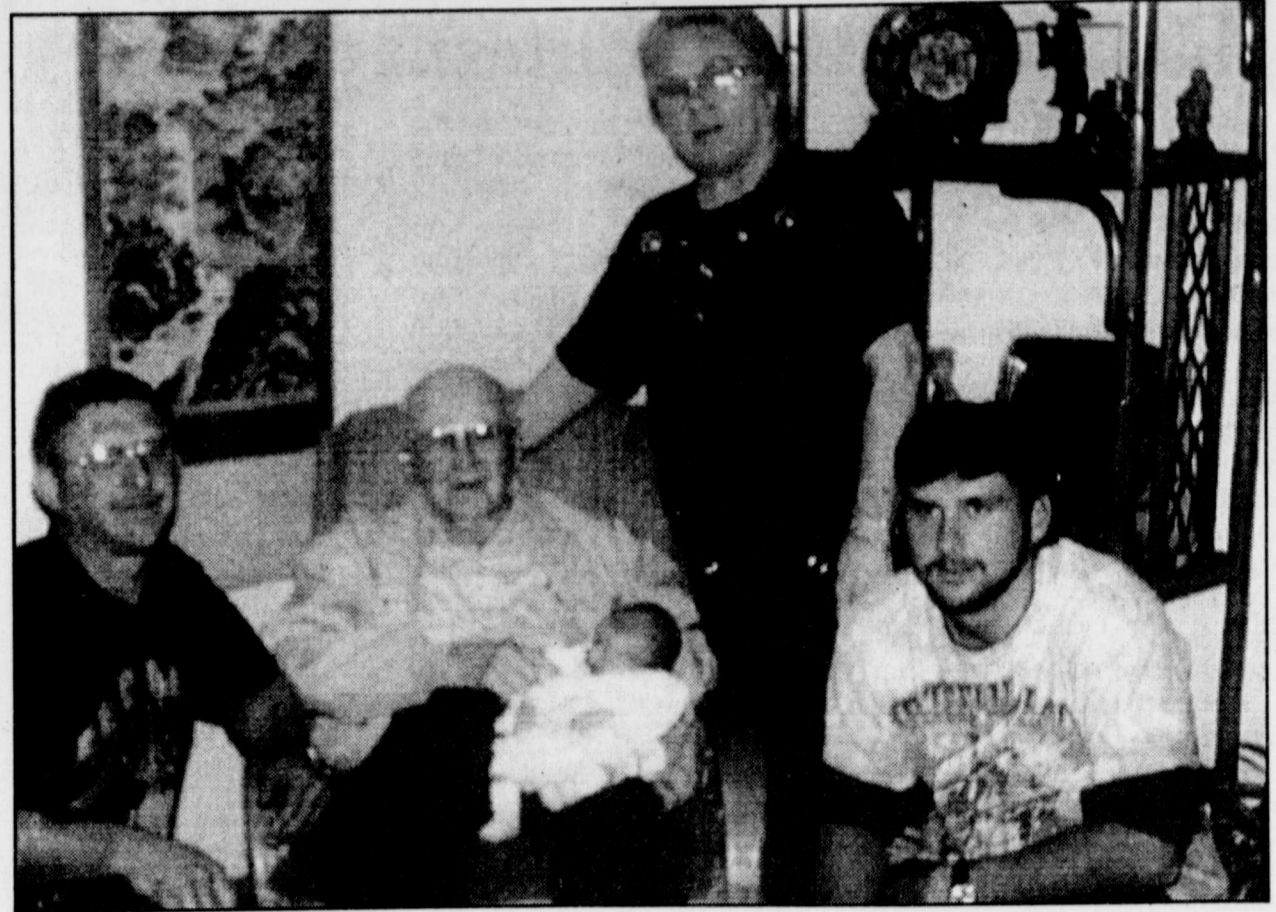

Also on Sunday, they went by to see Margie's neighbor, Corra Petrie, who is staying in the Winters Senior Citizens Nursing Home.

Therin Osborne carried Coleman Foreman to the Ballinger Hospital Friday for his doctor's checkup and treatment. Came home on Saturday. Then Coleman had an appointment with his heart doctor in San Angelo on Monday. His report was good.

WE WILL BE CLOSED Monday FOR A NATIONAL HOLIDAY

John McGregor to seek re-election as Runnels County Attorney

Currently, McGregor estimates about one-half of his time as county attorney is spent dealing with local government administrative matters, and the other one-half is spent working with various law enforcement agencies and/or dealing directly with misdemeanants and their attorneys.

Lately, pleas to sometimes very old cases, along with new ones, have led to fines and costs reaching almost $400.00 per day in revenue for the county. These amounts should climb as cases continue to be handled in a judicious manner. Additionally, McGregor feels these times of pressing mandates from state and federal rules, as well as jail problems in the county, require an up-to-date and experienced county attorney.

McGregor has announced his bid for re-election as Runnels County Attorney. McGregor grew up in rural Eldorado, Texas, before going to SMU, serving 3 years in the regular army, completing his undergraduate degree at Angelo State, and completing his law degree at Texas Tech University.

Moving to Ballinger in January of 1974, and since being licensed to practice law in April of 1974, McGregor served from that time through April, 1981, in the County Attorney's office under the guidance of O.L. Parish Jr., longtime Runnels County Attorney. He also served 3 years as Assistant District Attorney under both Dick Alcalá (now Judge of the 354th District Court) and Steve Smith, presently the District Attorney for Runnels County. A total of 13 years has been spent in vigorous, aggressive criminal prosecution, trying cases ranging from speeding in J.P. Court to murder in District Court.

McGregor desires a smooth running county government, plus an active and moving criminal docket, and he says that since September, 1995, much progress has been made in both these areas.

The father of two sons, McGregor believes that stem enforcement of misdemeanors can go a long way toward preventing repetition of crimes and provide a safer and more secure county for all citizens.

McGregor is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the State Bar College of Texas, as well as the District and County Attorney's Association. He also has a private civil practice in Runnels County.

Everetts to provide new sound for Ballinger radio stations

The Federal Communications Commission has granted the license transfer of KRUN-AM and KCSE-FM in Ballinger to SEC/CESS Broadcasting, Inc. Steve and Ellen Everett are the principals involved in SEC/CESS Broadcasting. The Everetts will be active owners of the broadcast properties directing the daily operations.

Listeners will hear a new sound on the Ballinger stations. Everett said the two stations will be separated with each featuring distinctive programming. KRUN-AM will remain country with strong local news, sports, and weather emphasis. The stations have installed a direct link, state-of-the-art, satellite fed weather station from the National Weather Service which will offer up-to-the-minute weather information. According to Everett, KCSE-FM will become a new pure gold formatted station with hits from the 50's, 60's, and 70's. Everett said the station will be showcased as "Case 103."

Steve Everett began his broadcast career in Ballinger at the local stations in 1968, as a student at Ballinger Junior High School. He returned to Ballinger in 1976 to help establish the FM station that went on the air that year. After leaving Ballinger, Everett was named general manager and national sales manager for CDI Abaris Communications, Chicago, Illinois, owners of KIXY-FM and KKSA-AM.

Everett left Abaris Communications and developed a new 100,000 watt FM station, KBIL-FM in San Angelo.

The Everetts purchased KNEL-AM/KIXV-FM in Brady in 1983 and KXYL AM/FM in Brownwood in 1990. They have recently sold those properties to concentrate on Ballinger.

Everett has received several state news and production awards. He served as a member of the Texas Association of Broadcasters where he was the liaison committee chairperson for Texas broadcasters and the Federal Communications Commission. He spearheaded the small market broadcasters representation on the state board.

Everett has been recognized by the Texas Soil and Water Conservation Districts as the News Person of the Year. He has served as President of the Brady/McCulloch Chamber of Commerce, President of the City's Proud Crowd, Board of Directors of the McCulloch County Industrial Foundation, Board of Directors of the McCulloch County Crimestoppers, and as an active member of Project Graduation county schools.

The Everetts are active members of the Brady community where they have devoted numerous hours raising money for the youth of the Brady area.

Steve and Ellen Everett are the parents of two children, Shelley, a sophomore at Abilene Christian University and Chad, a junior at Brady High School. They are members of the Sunset Ridge Church of Christ where he served as a deacon.

Amy Heathcott of Winters FFA and Misty Dawn Pritchard of Runnels County 4-H were among the winners at the Fort Worth Calf Scramble.

Amy caught her calf on Thursday, February 1, and Misty got hers on Friday, February 2, both during the 8:00 p.m. performances of the Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show Rodeo in Will Rogers Coliseum. Featured during each of the 30 performances of the Stock Show Rodeo, the Calf Scramble includes participants from 4-H Clubs and FFA Chapters from across the state.

Amy, daughter of Denny and Barbara Heathcott of Winters, and Misty, daughter of Johnny and Deb Pritchard of Winters, will each be presented with a certificate valued at $500 for successfully catching, haltering, and leading a calf to the scramble judges.

The sponsor for Amy's effort will be Congressman Pete Geren of Fort Worth. The sponsor for Misty's effort will be Black Diamond H Ranch, Dallas, Texas.

CRP bids approved

Runnels County recently held a CRP sign-up to replace those acres that were released early due to a buy-out program.

A total of 20 bids and 2003.4 acres of cropland were received.

Of the 20 bids, only 9 were approved with a total of 622.0 acres. The average bid rate was $29.05 per acre with $27.44 being the accepted average rate.

After purchasing heifers of their choosing, winners must follow a set of Calf Scramble guidelines and return to show their heifers in the Junior Division of the 1997 Southwestern Exposition and Livestock Show. In addition, they have an opportunity to share in a $20,500 scholarship fund for use in their freshman year in college. Scholarship selections will be based on points awarded for correspondence with the sponsors and the Stock Show office, record keeping on each heifer, results from showing in Fort Worth next year, and an essay outlining future goals.

Title sponsors for this event are Mrs. Baird's Bakeries and Justin Boots. Justin awards a pair

Free Colorado blue spruces

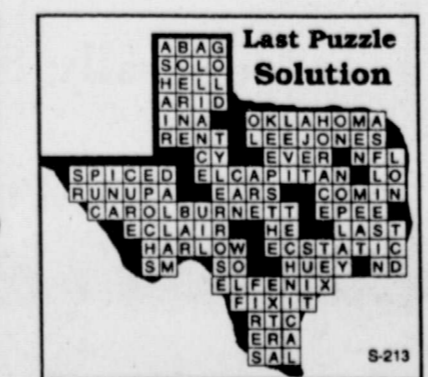

Ten free Colorado blue spruce trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during February, 1996.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

Colorado blue spruces have silver blue-green color and compact conical shape. They can be used as individual ornamentals, an energy-saving windbreak, a privacy screen, or as living Christmas trees.

The trees will be shipped post-paid at the right time for planting between March 1 and May 31 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow, or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and receive the free trees, send a $10 contribution to TEN FREE BLUE SPRUCES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by February 29, 1996.

Area ranchers, farmers may allow stock to graze CRP thru March 31

Runnels County has been authorized to graze CRP through March 31, 1996, to alleviate that livestock emergency that exists due to significantly reduced availability of forage resulting from ongoing drought conditions.

Grazing privileges may be either:

- 1) used to feed livestock owned by the CRP participant.
- 2) rented or leased to a livestock producer in an approved county.

Participant requirements:

- 1) file a request to graze CRP acreage.
- 2) leave at least 25 percent of each field or contiguous fields ungrazed for wildlife cover.

3) re-establish CRP cover at their own expense if the cover fails as a result of the emergency grazing.

4) obtain a modified conservation plan to include grazing requirements determined by Natural Resource Conservation Service.

5) be assessed a payment reduction of not less than 10 percent of the annual rental payment, as determined by the state committee.

6) install any needed livestock facilities, such as fences or watering facilities, at their own expense.

The 1997 CRP annual rental payment scheduled to be made after October 1, 1996, will be reduced by the number of acres actually grazed times the per acre payment reduction rate, as determined by the State committee.

Payment reductions will not be less than 10 percent of the annual rental payment.

The required reduction may be prepaid by the participant or the participant may elect to have the annual rental payment reduced by the appropriate amount.

Grazing CRP acres would eliminate old grass and stimulate new growth. This would be beneficial to the livestock producer and to the CRP producer.
