Voters elect Sneed, three incumbents as hospital trustees

With only one contested race, voter turnout was light in last Saturday's election.

Voters elected Randall Sneed and three incumbents to the North Runnels Hospital board of trustees.

Election results are as follows:
 Randall Sneed, 77
 Phil Colburn, 76
 Randall Boles, 63
 Archie Jobe, 57
 Jim Lincycumb, 33
 Santos Rocha 13

Colburn has served on the board of North Runnels Hospital since 1989; Boles since 1981; and Jobe since 1987.

WISD board of directors and city council members voted a few weeks ago to cancel their elections because all candidates were incumbents running unopposed.

—ACCELERATED READING AND RIDING—

OVER 200 ELEMENTARY STUDENTS were rewarded with a bike ride to the city park last week for their reading efforts. The students participated in a nine-day Accelerated Reading challenge where each child read and passed testing on two grade level books.

Elementary students read to ride

On May 1, more than 200 Winters Elementary School students were rewarded with a bike ride to the park for their reading efforts. Each grade, from kindergarten through sixth grade, had a reading challenge. The students who met the challenge were invited to a bike ride with Principal Terry Wyatt and several teachers and parents.

This exciting event was part of a new supplemental reading program at the elementary school called the Accelerated Reader. The program is based on the simple concept that reading books helps create quality readers.

The program is simple. Children read a book then take a test on a computer at school. The test will have five, ten or twenty questions about the book. If the child passes the test, then the child earns points. The number of points varies by book. Books with higher reading levels and that are longer are worth more points. The children then can use the points they earn to "buy" prizes at the school 'store'. Many of the local businesses have generously given products to the AR prize store.

Last week's bike ride started at noon and, due to the large number of participants, was divided into two groups.

Winters police officers escorted the riders to the park where the children were able to participate in four riding activities—an oval track laid out on the big parking lot which was for casual riding; the challenge course by the bus barn, requiring precision turning and bicycle control; a cross-country course which wound around the baseball fields and included several dirt piles which allowed the riders to "motocross"; and finally, the slow races in the park where the children were lined up and the last one to cross the finish line without putting their feet on the ground, was the winner.

The students were able to play and rest in the city park, and the school provided punch for them to drink.

High school, junior high to begin block schedule in 97-98

During the regular session of the WISD board of trustees on April 14, members voted unanimously to approve the modified accelerated block scheduling in the high school and junior high beginning with the 1997-98 school year.

Students will change from the traditional seven period day to a modified accelerated block schedule. This change is largely due to increased state graduation requirements.

Over the past several years, the state has been in the process of phasing out earlier programs and replacing them with plans which have more mandatory course requirements and an increased number of state credits.

During the school board meeting of April 14, members also voted to raise the required credits from 22 to 25 for graduation, effective with the 1997-98 incoming freshmen.

Next year's WISD freshmen will choose between two graduation plans: The New Minimum and the New Recommended.

According to information received from Ketta Garduno, WISD Secondary Counselor, the New Minimum plan is designed primarily for students who are planning to go to work directly after graduation. Compared to earlier minimum plans which required 21 state credits, the New Minimum plan requires 22 state credits. In addition, the following courses are now mandatory: speech, computer (Business Information Processing), and either world geography or chemistry I.

The New Recommended plan establishes a more rigorous course load for students planning to attend a four-year college or university. This plan requires 24 state credits. Compared to the old Advanced plan, the New Recommended has the additional requirements of speech, world geography, and specific advanced courses which the students select.

Generally, students who want to go to a junior college or technical school may choose either the New Minimum or New Recommended. When deciding which plan to follow, such students should consider their own abilities and career goals.

The maximum number of credits that can be earned on a seven period day schedule is 28. The increased number of required credits on the New Recommended plan makes it difficult for students on a seven period day to fulfill their academic requirements and still have the opportunity to participate in more than one elective area.

Because of this, many schools in Texas have changed to some type of block schedule. Coleman High School, San Saba Junior High and High School, and Ozona

High School, as well as numerous other systems around the state, are already on the modified accelerated block schedule. The three area schools have reported that both their teachers and students have been pleased with the change.

After researching the various alternatives and receiving feedback from other districts, the Winters Secondary School Campus Improvement Committee and teachers recommended the new schedule to WISD trustees.

The modified accelerated block will allow each student to earn eight credits each year for a total of 32 possible credits during four years of high school. While students currently carry seven courses at once, next year they will be responsible for only five at a time. Three of these courses will conclude at the Christmas break. After Christmas, three new courses will begin. In addition, the students will have two classes which last all year. Both band and athletics will be taught as year-long classes. For students not participating in band and athletics, other courses will be scheduled during these times.

Students who fail a required course during the first half of the year will immediately retake the course during the second half rather than waiting until the next school year.

Garduno reports that the modified accelerated block schedule offers several advantages to students. Because of the ability to earn more credits, the reduced course load, and the opportunity to repeat failed courses sooner, administrators and faculty anticipate more participation in elective areas, reduced student stress and reduced failure rates.

If any further information is needed, call Mrs. Garduno at Winters High School at 754-5516.

Want to see Winters grow? Please attend town hall meeting Tuesday, May 13

Residents of Winters and the surrounding area are urged to attend the Town Hall Meeting on Tuesday, May 13, at the Rock Hotel beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The purpose of this important meeting is to determine interest in participating in the Main Street Program for Winters.

Each year, five small and three urban communities are selected for the Texas Main Street Program. That is, they are selected if the city applies for this designation and enough interest is shown from that city to be included in this program which was formally launched in 1981.

Over thirty states in the USA participate in this program. It remains among the most successful downtown revitalization programs in the nation.

City councilman Tommy Russell reports, "In Texas alone, 108 cities have participated and almost all of these cities have had the creation of more new jobs and the establishment of new businesses—not to mention the pride and excitement of a "new" look. I strongly support this program for our town."

FUTURE EMILIO? Stealing the show was Charles Tamez, age 3, as he sang into his grandfather's cane while music played from the main stage during Mayfest activities, Saturday, May 3.

If you remember from last time, we were talking about liquefaction of natural gas. I was indicating to you that this has potential for a large impact on the future fuel needs of the world.

To get to my point, I led you through the movement of natural gas from the reservoir to the sales point. I had just related to you how LNG (liquefied natural gas) was made liquid temporarily to facilitate movement great distances.

Unfortunately, it requires special conditions in the vessel of transport (ship or pipeline) to keep the gas liquid for its journey.

Now, the good part. Up to now, it has been considered not feasible to make natural gas into a liquid fuel under atmospheric conditions (14-15 psi and 70-80 degrees). This may be changing.

Actually, the process is not unknown, but it has not proven to be cost effective—yet.

In the last few months, several companies working independently have refined an old technology to produce liquid fuel from natural gas. The technology is complex but the economics are not.

Until the recent developments, costs for producing liquid fuel, including the cost of the feedstock (natural gas), was more than the market worth of the liquid fuel. It was a nice academic exercise to produce synthetic liquid fuel, but it was nowhere near commercial.

Now, with a large enough throughput, small-scale apparatus can produce fuel at costs of less than $15 per barrel. By reducing the cost of the capital required to build life-size plants to produce liquid fuel from natural gas, and with improved conversion technology, costs of $10 per barrel of produced liquid fuel are within reach.

If these technologies prove to be workable in practical use, then a vast new market for natural gas will open up. This is good news for gas markets.

But, what does this mean for crude markets?

Hard to say for sure, but, depending upon the timing of the field application of the technology (3-5 years, best guess), it could come at a time when most needed—before crude producing capacity catches up with rising demand in that time frame. However, it will moderate any price increases that might come about from higher demand that would otherwise be filled by newly discovered crude.

It shouldn't depress prices, because the application of the technology will be slow, with global application at least a decade away. During that time, demand will most likely have risen sufficiently to absorb a large part of the additional available supply from synthetic liquids.

And, the technology still has to be field proven. Heard that one before?

We'll keep tabs on it for you. Stay tuned...

Terminators win second in Ballinger Tournament

The Terminators showed up in Ballinger Saturday, May 3, to play a lot of softball and bring home individual trophies for overall second place.

Their first game was at 9:30 a.m. against Ballinger's Runners. The Terminators won 14-9.

The girls then played the Coleman Pink Panthers at 12:30 p.m. and won again with a score of 16-11.

The next game, against Eula at 5:00 p.m., was very exciting. The Terminators led the Eula team right up to the very end, but lost on the last play of the game. The final score was 8-10.

In the next round of play at 8:00 p.m. against the Coleman

It Takes Two Things to Hold Home Trade at Home

With good automobiles and good highways a merchant cannot afford to sit back and think of any customer as "his."

- Two important things to help keep "hometown dollars" at home: 1. A well-selected stock of quality merchandise that is fairly priced. 2. Letting the potential customers know about the goods by means of consistent advertising.

After 200 years, the best medium yet discovered for advertising is still your local hometown newspaper which serves your local area.

People can't buy what you have if they don't know you have it.

MEMBER 1997 TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

From The Well

By Pastor Jim Hanson

Pastor Jim Hanson

It truly is spring! We've really had one this year in West Texas. Instead of going from winter to summer, we've had spring in between. Many cold days sprinkled in among the warmer ones. Many wet ones among the dry. For sure, lots of wind. But wind in West Texas is always part of the weather.

But, it's springtime. There is a freshness in the air. A greening of the earth. Blossom time. This year the wild flowers will truly color the highways and by ways with blue and pink and orange and white and purple. You name it.

It's time to set out bedding plants. And tomatoes. And get the garden ready. I'm not much of a gardener, but I am getting into the flower beds more often — as I get older and smarter. It is a special time — when I take the time to give the flowers a drink. To clip off a few roses. To pull a few weeds that sneak in and grow so close to the flowers that you can't use a hoe. Then it is "hand work." The kind of "hands on" — the weeding that requires a human touch.

A colored lady who raised the most beautiful roses was once asked, "What do you do to make your roses so wonderful?," expecting to get her way of planting, fertilizing, and dusting. She replied, "Well, honey, I've got three rules for raising roses. First of all, I loves'em. Secondly, I loves them more. And, thirdly, I keeps on loving'em." So true. For love is always more than words. It is giving of one's energy and pouring it into love's object.

Spring means gardening. And, when we do, we are joining God. It's like the poem I found once planted in a garden in the hill country near Kerrville. At the H.E. Butt Retreat Center. Put there to remind us what gardening is all about. It was written by Rudyard Kipling, an English poet. It goes like this,

Gardens are not made by saying
"Oh, how beautiful," and sitting in the shade.
Then seek your job with thankfulness
and work till further orders,
If its only netting strawberries,
or killing slugs on borders:
And when your back stops aching,
and your hands begin to harden,
You will find yourself a partner in the glory of the garden.
Oh, Adam was a gardener, and
God who made him sees,
That half a proper gardener's work is done upon his knees.
So when your work is finished,
You can wash your hands and pray.
And the Glory of the Garden
It shall never pass away!

And, even as we join God in gardening, He is pouring His spirit into us. At least that's what Jeremiah the prophet said — many years ago — "and their soul shall be as a watered garden." (31:12)

There is a garden that lives within our soul. A secret place. A peaceful place. A golden spot. Deep within our well. No wonder that my neighbor once said, as he left his flower bed to join me in mine, "You know, Jim, there's something different about planting flowers and working in its bed. I feel different. I feel better. There is a kind of peace that comes."

For sure. When the garden in our soul gets connected with the garden in our yard, the Creator comes in and does His miracle in both. Praise God — for the springtime in our souls!

Letters to the Editor

National Foster Care Month County foster care presentation May 15

Dear Editor:

May is National Foster Care Month, a time to honor America's foster parents for their dedication and work. Foster parents play a vital role in the battle against child abuse and neglect—serving not only the children, but everyone.

Today, as the number of child abuse and neglect reports continue to grow, the importance of foster families has never been greater.

Runnels County needs more foster parents.

The Runnels County Children's Protective Services Board will host a presentation on foster and adoptive care on May 15 at 7 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Ballinger. Elaine Johnson, Family Outreach case manager with Child Protective Services in Abilene, and Elizabeth Graham, children's case worker from the West Texas Center for MHRM, will provide information and answer questions.

All adults who are interested in becoming foster or adoptive parents, or who are simply interested in promoting the well-being of abused or neglected children are invited to attend.

Sincerely,

Karen Rightmire

Chairman, Runnels County Children's Protective Services Board

In thanks to Misters Rocha and Smith

Dear Ms. Boles:

Your readers 'need to know' Santos Rocha and Rick Smith of your city. I'm told that they are employed by Texas Department of Criminal Justice-Institutional Division, just outside of Abilene, Texas, and if your automobile becomes inoperative on a given Sunday afternoon, you'd be lucky to find yourself on their route from work to their home in Winters.

On Sunday, April 20, past, at about 1:00 p.m., I had to stop in Abilene for gasoline, and after paying for same, returned to my vehicle to resume my trip home to near Iowa Park, Texas. On entering my auto, I found that it refused to start — enter the picture Misters Rocha and Smith; they rendered aid in getting it to start only to find that the alternator had locked and burned the drivebelt — no trouble, these gentlemen guided and led me, out of their way home, from the NE side of Abilene around the NW and to side of town to open "Auto Zone Store" where they assisted me in procuring replacements of the belt and alternator and installed them — taking some 2-2/12 hours of their time, after hours from their work, before resuming their trip to Winters and home. These fine, young men deserve and have my undying gratitude, and I hope that they are accorded all the respect that I feel they deserve — which is untold.

Yours truly,

O.W. "Newt" Newman

Library needs volunteers for Summer Reading Program

by JOYCE KRAUSE, librarian

Volunteers are needed to help with the Summer Reading Program at the Winters Public Library beginning in mid June.

Teenagers and adults are needed who are willing to be "story tellers," to assist children in research on inventors and inventions, and to do demonstrations on the way things work. Books are available with ideas to help in these areas.

New books at the library include Tami Hoag's "A Thin Dark Line," Lyvrlie Spencer's "A Small Town Girl," Danielle Steele's "The Ranch," and John Grisham's "The Partner." For children, the new Blue Bonnet Award list of books for 1997-1998 are available, and we are in the process of marking the AR (Accelerated Reading) books in cooperation with the Winters Public School.

The library paperback exchange in our "dungeon" has been newly reorganized. For those who like to read paperbacks, all you have to do is bring a number of your paperbacks and exchange them for a like number of paperbacks of your choice. There is no signing of cards. Just tell the librarian how many you have, and when you have finished reading them, return them to the library to exchange for more.

You are invited to come to the library and get a book of your choice and purchase a ticket on the ladies 26" bike. Funds will be used to either pay on air conditioning or new books.

Rosie Rocha wins Miss Junior Winters, Teen

ROSIE ROCHA

Rosie Rocha, daughter of Santos and Janie Rocha of Winters, was named Miss Junior Winters, Teen on March 1, 1997. She will travel to Orange, California, on July 31 to attend the 1997-1998 Miss Junior America State/National Finals, competing for over $20,000 in cash, prizes, and trophies.

During preliminary finals competition, Rosie will only compete with girls from Texas of the same age group. A queen in each age group will be crowned from each state of California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, and Washington. The ninth finalist will come from either Alaska, Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, or Texas.

State queens will receive a crown, sash, and the official Junior American wrist watch. State queens then compete for the West Coast National title.

Rosie is a junior at Winters High School where she is a twirler and member of the track and softball teams. She currently serves on the Prom Committee.

She has participated in contests of the National Baton Twirling Association and the University Interscholastic League, winning numerous awards. In 1994, she placed third in NBTA State as Miss Majorette of Texas. She was a NBTA State Solo Champion in 1996 and also received second place U.S. Southwest Regional International Solo Champion in 1997. Other titles include Advance Military Strut Champion and International Basic Strut Champion.

Rosie is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the church youth group of North Main Church of Christ.

She was honored to be a SnoQueen contestant.

As a city queen, Rosie is now eligible to attend a workshop/seminar which is conducted by a prestigious casting director/acting coach and must participate in an advertising program in lieu of a costly entry fee. Her sponsor is Lacey Lane Day Care of Winters.

GOOD CONDUCT AWARD WINNERS for the fifth six weeks at Winters Elementary School were (clockwise from Principal Terry Wyatt) Monica Flores, 4th grade; Benji Valles, 5th grade; Jeremy Sherman, 5th grade; Tacarra Belk, 6th grade; Kori Martinez, 3rd grade; Jennifer Yates, 2nd grade; Shelby Walker, 1st grade; and Vince Trevino, kindergarten. Names of all students achieving citizenship, dependability, honesty, and positive effort are submitted by teachers every six weeks. One student, chosen by draw, from each grade receives the honor of dining with Principal Wyatt and/or Mrs. Paula Roach, counselor, in the kitchen lab.

V.F.W. to hold supper

Post 9193 Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary will meet Monday, May 12, beginning with a supper at 6:00 p.m. at the post home, Highway 83 South.

Please call Isabell (Shavella) Esquivel at 754-5029 and offer your help.

Following the supper, an open installation of V.F.W. and Auxiliary 1997-98 officers will be held.

"Oh, My Dear" was the dilemma for townspeople and city officials during the recent first grade musical showing how people and deer learned to get along and live happily side by side. Pleading their cases were 'mayor' Robert Nava and 'ladies' Britney West and Shelby Walker with an entire herd of deer behind them. Seventy-two first graders presented the entertaining program to a capacity crowd. The play was under the direction of first grade teachers Sherry Cavazos, Karen Colburn, Chris Parramore, and Cheryl Sneed, and music teacher Fran Kidwell.

Rumor has it that Terry Wyatt, elementary principal, did not have to turn the lights on in his office on Friday, as his sunburn glowed enough to light the room!

A great time was had by all of the children and the adults.

The next AR challenge has already begun and will end on May 20. A grand Water War with water guns is scheduled on May 23 for the winning readers.

So, if you see your child reading instead of watching TV, now you'll understand why.

Annual Girl Scout Awards Banquet set Wed., May 14

The 3rd Annual Girl Scout Awards Banquet will be held Wednesday, May 14, 1997, in the school cafeteria.

Presentation and posting of the flags will open the ceremonies at 5:30 p.m. and will be followed by recitation of the Girl Scout Promise.

Following presentation of awards, a potluck meal will be served. If you do not know what type of food item (vegetable, meat, or dessert) to bring, please contact your daughter's girl scout leader. Award presentation will be announced first so that families may leave to attend church services.

Girls will be awarded for year-long accomplishments and volunteers recognized for their dedication to the organization.

Friends and family are invited to attend.

Jennifer Boles to compete in national tennis tourney

Jennifer Boles, a junior elementary education major at McMurry University in Abilene, has won the singles championship of the American Southwest Conference tennis tournament.

Jennifer now advances to the NAIA national tennis tournament in Tulsa, Oklahoma, on May 19.

The ASC individual tournament was scheduled for Brownwood on April 25th and 26th but was moved indoors to the courts at Fairway Oaks Country Club in Abilene because of the weather.

Jennifer is a 1994 graduate of Winters High School where she played varsity tennis for four years, winning two district titles in doubles.

In addition to her tennis activities at McMurry University, she is co-president of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, member and chaplain of TIP social club, member of the Physical Education Club, and serves on the Student Activities Council. She was elected Junior Class Favorite this past November, and was recently elected sweetheart of the HIR fraternity. She was recently honored as the Most Inspirational Player of the McMurry tennis team. She has been named to the Dean's List with a 4.0 average, specializing in reading and physical education.

During her freshman year at McMurry, Jennifer was voted Most Valuable Player of the Lady Indians basketball team, and received All-Conference Honorable Mention. She switched from basketball to tennis during her sophomore year at McMurry.

She is the daughter of Randall and Jean Boles.

Winters exhibit at the Western Heritage Classic

Winters will be one of fourteen area towns featured at a new exhibit during the 12th Annual Western Heritage Classic, May 10, at the Taylor County Expo Center.

The new exhibit called "Howdy Neighbor" Community Showcase will give area towns an opportunity to promote history, special events, and important features significant in each community. The booths will be open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 10, in an open pavilion just north of the round building on the Expo grounds.

The Western Heritage Classic is a major event for the region attracting some 30,000 visitors each year. In addition to the popular ranch rodeo held Friday and Saturday evenings, other features include a chuckwagon cook-off, cowboy poets, ranch horse competitions, western dances, western art show, children's rodeo, vendors of western gifts and attire, and the largest bit and spur show in the country.

The opportunity for towns in the region to participate in the special exhibit is sponsored by Texas Midwest Community Network. TMCN member towns reserving booth space include Albany, Anson, Baird, Breckenridge, Buffalo Gap, Cisco, Comanche, Eastland, Gorman, Hamlin, Haskell, Ranger, Sweetwater, and Winters.

When you attend the Western Heritage Classic this year, be sure to visit the "Howdy Neighbor" Community Showcase.

Poe's Corner

By Charlsie Poe

A new memorial in Washington, D.C.

Sunday's Abilene Reporter-News published the official dedication of the FDR Memorial in our nation's capitol observed in a three-day celebration, May 1, 2, and 3, 1997.

When it was announced some time ago that the prospect was underway, I was pleased to give a contribution to a president who did so much for our country.

The greatest thing I remember was when he gave the word for the rural people to have electricity in 1936. It took until 1939 for us to receive the needed wiring. I was out of town having surgery at the time and received a letter from my ten-year-old daughter. "Dear Mother, The house is a mess but the lights are bright."

What a wonderful gift for those who are trying to read by a small kerosene light. My parents were greatly helped by the Social Security Act.

Not long ago, I received a nice certificate of recognition stating that I was officially listed in the Founders Registry of the FDR Memorial, Washington, D.C., and an invitation to attend the celebration by David B. Roosevelt, grandson and chairman of the commission.

Charlsie Poe

He wrote, "This is only the third presidential memorial dedicated by our nation this century. It is also the first and only one to honor a First Lady. A statue of Eleanor Roosevelt will pay tribute to her role as America's first delegate to the United Nations, after FDR's death.

"So whether or not you can attend the official dedication, you will certainly want to plan a future visit to this magnificent memorial you helped to build. What a legacy you are leaving for future generations."

The letter continued to say the memorial will be beautiful almost beyond description. You can see the Jefferson Memorial just across the Tidal Basin (that's the white domed building to the left). Also visible from the site are the Washington Monument and the Lincoln Memorial.

Water is one of the loveliest features of the memorial, which is situated between the Potomac River and the Tidal Basin. Water courses throughout the 7.5 acres in the form of waterfalls, small brooks, and reflecting pools.

By the time they are finished, a total of 300 mature trees and 3,000 new plants and shrubs will have been added. The famous cherry trees, still bare, soon will be in spectacular bloom. This will truly be an outdoor paradise.

A sampling of quotations from FDR to be inscribed on the memorials granite walls:

- "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself."

- "We must be the great arsenal of Democracy."

- "The only limit to our realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today. Let us move forward with strong and active faith."

- "The structure of world peace cannot be the work of one man, or one party, or one nation...it must be a peace which rests on the cooperative effort of the whole world."

Since this was written, I have learned that Halley Sims is also listed on the Founders Registry—perhaps there are others. It would be nice if we could have a group to visit the celebration.

Say congrats to a graduating senior

The Winters Enterprise is now accepting expressions of congratulations to 1997 Seniors!

The expressions will be printed in the 1997 Graduation Tabloid, along with pictures and write-ups of each of the seniors.

Available sizes and prices follow:

- 2" x 4" $15.00
- 4" x 2" $15.00
- 4" x 4" $25.00
- 6" x 4" $40.00

If a picture is to be included, please add an additional $5.

Please send your information no later than May 14 to 104 N. Main, Winters, TX 79567 or call (915) 754-4958.

MOTHERS, continued

Dear Moma,
Thank you for all the things you bought me. For example my new shoes and shirt that you bought me yesterday. Also for helping me with my problems, homework and other stuff like that. What I like about them is they help me and they don't punish me when I do something wrong. I also love you more than what you can think of. Even more than my favorite things that I like. I remember when you told me that you loved me even more than what you said. I will always love you.
Sensiraly your lovable kid Claudia Llanos

Dear Wonderful Mommy,
I love you so very much for giving me life, clothing, food, and hapiness. I also love you for giving me your love.
Love you lots, Kathryn Hailer

Dear Grandmom,
Thank you for all the nice things you do for me. You make good peanut butter and jelly sandwiches. Thank you for letting me watch your TV after school.
You are very kind.
Your Grandson, Kenneth K.

Dear Mom, (Diana E.)
I appreciate your being my mother and I hope you will have a good mothers day.
I love you, Adam Escalona

Dear Mom (Maria Ovalles)
I appreciate you help me and my math. I go to the store. I love you and had a Happy Mother Day.
I love, Amanda Ovalles

Dear Mom, (Tammy)
I appreciate every thing you do for me. I Love you. I Love you for letting me have cats and even now I'm allergic to them. Your the best mom in the world. You are so nice to me so I Love.
I Love you, Adam Fine

Dear Mom,
I thank you for all the things you do for me like caring for me when I'm sick, and running my bath water for me. I love it when we get to go to the movies. I also love it when you make chocolate cake, and pumpkin pie. I love you more than I love ice cream.
Love, Amanda

Dear Nanny,
Thank you for taking care of me all these years. Your good at making me happy. I love it when I come home, and your fixing little pizza's. One more thing I love is when we watch Well-Of-Fortune together.
Love your girl, Amber

Barbara Tounget receives ARMC service award

Barbara Tounget of Winters was among 85 employees honored by Abilene Regional Medical Center with their 1996 Service Awards. These employees' years of service to Abilene Regional Medical Center and its predecessor institution, West Texas Medical Center, totalled more than 850 years. Barbara was honored as a 5-year employee.

Employees received a pin commemorating his or her years of service.

Abilene Regional Medical Center is a comprehensive healthcare system, offering individualized, patient-centered inpatient, outpatient, and emergency services provided by experienced medical professionals to the 323,000 residents of 17 surrounding counties.

With more than 800 employees, Abilene Regional Medical Center is the sixth largest employer in the city of Abilene and second highest paying taxpayer. In 1995 alone, ARMC returned more than $63,140,000 healthcare dollars to the Texas Midwest, with an impact of $189 million on the area's economy.

City working to beautify town

The grounds beneath the south water tower will be transformed into a small park complete with trees, flowers, a bench, and a walking trail. That was the decision of the City Council as they met April 28. Expenses will be covered by an approved grant and the city will not have to contribute any additional funds.

As projects of the city code enforcement, the lockerplant property and 600 Roberts has been cleaned. Property at 224 N. Church was cleaned at the expense of the property owner. Demolition is scheduled as soon as possible at 405 Popular and 607 Trinity.

City Administrator Aref Hassan reported on his meeting April 24 with John Greer, Texas Department of Transportation-Aviation Division. Mr. Greer discussed relevant information in obtaining a grant for renovation of the Winters Airport and recommended meeting with the TxDOT Aviation Division in Austin. Aldermen Russell, Bahlman, and Gerhart will join Hassan for this trip on May 14.

The Council tabled action on the purchase of a loader from Runnels County and on options of the Texas Municipal Retirement System until further information can be obtained.

Foster care presentation on May 15

The Runnels County Children's Protective Services Board will host a presentation on foster care on Thursday, May 15, at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Ballinger.

Elaine Johnson, Family Outreach case manager with Child Protective Services in Abilene, and Elizabeth Graham, children's case worker from the West Texas Center for MHMR, will provide information and answer questions.

All adults who are interested in becoming foster or adoptive parents, or who are simply interested in promoting the well-being of abused or neglected children are invited to attend.

April sales tax rebates decrease

As reported by the office of State Comptroller John Sharp, April sales tax rebates for the city of Winters decreased 9.04 percent as compared to the prior year's April payment. Rebates totaled $8,030.64 this reporting period. For the prior year's reporting period, rebates totaled $8,829.23.

This month's payments include sales taxes collected in February and reported by businesses filing monthly returns in March.

Receipts in Miles decreased 25.51 percent; Ballinger decreased 23.99 percent and reported $23,385.27 in payments.

City sales tax rebates to date for Runnels County for the 1997 reporting period total $222,318.72, a 6.87 percent decrease as compared to last year's period total of $238,739.56.

The current city sales tax rate for Winters and Ballinger is 1.5 percent. Miles is 1.00 percent.

Hale Museum conducting membership drive

The Z.I. Hale Museum continues to grow and expand.

Several significant items to be exhibited have been received, and several community activities have been hosted by the museum this year.

It is hoped that the first floor of the Rock Hotel Conference Center will be completed by summer. After the first floor is finished, the exterior of the building will be completed and landscaping provided.

A $50,000 grant was received in December which allowed the progression to its present state and hopefully will allow completion of everything but the second floor.

The second floor will be an extension of the Z.I. Hale Museum with several exhibits already in the plans. The veterans organizations in the area have set a goal of raising $5,000 for a special veterans exhibit. Funds of $50,000 to $60,000 is still needed to totally finish the second floor and install a required elevator.

Everyone is invited to join or renew their membership for this year. Family membership is only $10 and business membership is $25. These funds are used to keep the museum operating during the year. When the Rock Hotel renovation is completed, the hotel will be available to members for receptions, meetings, etc. at a nominal charge.

Winters has one of the nicest museum facilities in this part of Texas for a community of this size. It is asked that you support your museum by sending in your membership fee today. Also, volunteers are needed to help in museum activities.

If you would like to contribute to the veterans exhibit or to the Rock Hotel restoration in general, you may include that donation with your dues. Dues may be sent to Z.I. Hale Museum, P.O. Box 42, Winters, Texas 79567, or given to Julie Springer at the Chamber of Commerce.

Health Notes
At North Runnels Home Health our focus is providing the best care possible for patients and helping them care for themselves. We believe the more our patients know the better care they can receive.

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE
Alzheimer's disease (AD) is a progressive, degenerative disease that attacks the brain and results in impaired memory, thinking and behavior. It affects an estimated 4 million American adults.
AD usually has a gradual onset. Problems remembering recent events and difficulty performing familiar tasks are early symptoms. Additionally, the patient may experience confusion, personality change, behavior change, impaired judgment, and difficulty finding words, finishing thoughts or following directions. How quickly these changes occur will vary from person to person, but the disease eventually leaves its victims totally unable to care for themselves.

"Our caregiving tasks become easier when we are able to let go of old expectations."
Forgive yourself if things don't go just right. When you lose patience and shout or get angry, don't waste energy by being hard on yourself. Immediately give a soft word and gentle touch to the patient. Be grateful that your loved one may quickly forget an oversight or mishap.

Reservoir News

by BILL & JEAN LAFAIR, lakekeepers

Thanks to the energy and creativity of Nathan and Herb Bentrup, there is a nice, clean picnic area on one of the beach areas on the west side of Elm Creek Reservoir. They said it only took three to four hours to complete the project.

Besides picking up trash and mowing, they rearranged the loose, dry wood in the area to outline a circular driveway around the natural landscaping. They collected and arranged the loose rocks to form a fireplace, or chimney, complete with a very substantial stack of wood.

The Bentrups can take a lot of pride in the end result, all natural.

We forgot to ask them what to name this beach. Herb said Nathan did most of the work. Should we name it "Nathan's Nook?"

We've received a lot of comments from the people who have seen it. They all agree with Nathan, that there are many primitive areas around the lake that could be improved naturally and be more useful and attractive.

This beach Nathan and Herb chose to adopt has another story behind it. (Sorry this is not a fish story.)

While Kenneth and Sandra Moore were staying in one of the newer camp spaces, Ken was out in the boat, fishing on the west side of the lake, when a slow, steady mist turned into a heavy rain, complete with high wind and a little hail. Even the white caps had white caps! He was afraid to try to make it across the lake to the campgrounds, but he wasn't looking forward to sitting there in the boat until the storm passed.

He beached his boat on "Bentrup's Beach" and covered himself with the trash bag that had been tied around a tree and left for future use. That was the closest thing Ken could find to shelter on the west side of the lake, and he wanted the ones responsible to know how much he appreciated the refuge it offered.

Besides some beautiful trees that have been donated by individual citizens, there have been about 50 trees planted around the park by the Street Department employees—Charlie, Felix, Bob, Jack, Nick, and Cotton. The trees are all a nice addition to the park.

On behalf of ourselves and the City of Winters, we thank Gene Greason and Acorn Glass of Odessa for supplying and installing the new mirrors in the bathrooms. Mr. Greason enjoys camping and fishing here and appreciates what the City is doing to make improvements. This is one way he is making an effort to say "thanks."

NATHAN (left) and HERB BENTRUP created an all natural picnic area on the west side beach of Elm Creek Reservoir. See related picture.

NATHAN'S NOOK, on Bentrup's Beach of Elm Creek Reservoir, stands ready for campers. Rocks were neatly piled to form a fireplace (right), complete with firewood stacked between the branches of a nearby tree. Loose dry wood was used to make a circular drive.

Conservation News & Notes

By Kay Mansell, District Technician

Order fish from Runnels SWCD through May 21

Most of Runnels County has received more than its average rainfall for the spring, which has filled up or at least put water in most of our tanks, so now would be a great time to consider stocking it with fish.

The Runnels Soil and Water Conservation District is again sponsoring its annual fish program for stocking or restocking of area farm ponds. The program will continue through May 21 with delivery of fish as the Natural Resources Conservation (NRCS) office in Ballinger on May 28, 1997.

Available species, sizes, and pricing are as follows:

Channel catfish 3"-6"	.50 each
Channel catfish 6"-8"	.75 each
Blue cat 3"-6"	.55 each
Largemouth bass 1"-4"	.75 each
Bluegill sunfish 1"-3"	.45 each
Hybrid bream 1"-3"	.45 each
Red ear perch 1"-3"	.55 each
Minnows (300-400 per lb., flathead or shriner)	$9.00 per lb
Sterile grass carp (available with TPWD permit, see NRCS office for information)	$12.00 each

The vendor will provide bags, air, and water necessary to transport your fish to their destination.

It takes 115 gallons of water to grow enough wheat for the average loaf of bread.
