Congressman sponsors petition in support of protecting the Pledge

Wepledge.com says it is beginning a drive to secure ten million signatures at its on-line petition in support of the proposed Constitutional Amendment protecting the Pledge of Allegiance and the National Motto.

The amendment is being sponsored by Congressman Chip Pickering. "The on-line petition gives easy access to those who support this amendment to express their opinion," says Donald E. Wildmon, chairman of American Family Association which is sponsoring the Wepledge.com drive. "We expect this to be the most signed petition in history." Individuals can sign the petition by going to Wepledge.com.

The proposed legislation would protect the Pledge and Motto into the Constitution, making it impossible for two judges to rule it unconstitutional. The three-man court made the ruling following a suit by an atheist.

The proposed amendment reads: "The first article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States shall not be construed to prohibit the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, which shall be, "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for

Letter to the Editor

Reader says government official can't take God out of our hearts

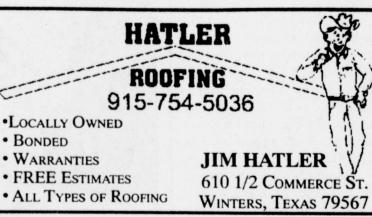

I wanted to express my opinion of taking God out of the pledge. Also taking prayer out of school, and saying we can't pray before football games or school functions.

First of all, I love the Lord with all my heart, mind, and soul, and no one is going to take that away. In our hearts and spirit is where God should be. If they take his name out of everything on earth, they can't take him out of my heart.

I admit it's like a slap in God's face when somebody comes up with something else to take God out of. I think the way we react, as Christians, ought to reflect the God we're serving. Jesus forced himself on no one, only those who were able to get him in their heart would he enter.

I've been somewhat embarrassed by some reactions I've seen! If someone says take God out of this or out of that, then pray that person into God. I've known several people that claimed they were atheist of didn't believe in God, only to find out later that they were on the verge of finding the Lord but were fighting it!

He's always in our hearts, Terry Loehman

Pastor Jim Hanson

It's time for the 23rd Psalm. With all the stuff that's going on...corruption in high places, terrorism, immorality, sexual perversion...to name a few, it's hard to keep a focus. It's time for all of us to say "All we like sheep have gone astray." And then to turn to the Good Shepherd as we see Him presented in this wonderful Psalm.

It has been a close friend of mine for years...ever since I learned it by heart as a young boy. I have put myself to sleep with it, I have recited it with patients in hospital beds, have led congregations in reading it at hundreds of funerals, and it always works. Because it is the truth of God.

A few months ago I read an account by a pastor on how he gave this Psalm as a prescription for healing to a friend of his. The man was living in anxiety. Even if the stock market was stable and he was doing well, he couldn't sleep at night and was nervous all day long. The pastor told him to read the Psalm the very first thing in the morning. Out loud. Slowly. Like a child. And then, to reflect on the words. Get the picture. In mind. And into heart. And then, to do the same just after breakfast, after lunch, after supper, and just before going to bed. And to do the same routine for 30 days. After the 30 days were up, the man called his pastor and said, "It works." Of course.

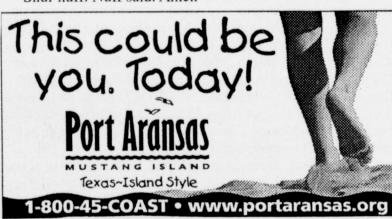

I remember a time, while serving a congregation in Montana, that I called on an old sheepherder in the hospital. He had immigrated from Norway and had spent most of his life out on the sheep ranches. When I entered the room and started visiting with him, he looked up at me and smiled, saying, "I suppose you are calling on me because you need new members for your church." I responded, "Hardly. Why would I want an old codger like you who is all worn out and about to die to join my church?" I came back the next day. He said, "Preacher, I like you. You tell it like it is. Let's talk.'

So we did. And as time went on, we shared the Shepherd Psalm. A few months later he died. Not as a member of my church. But, for sure, a member of the Shepherd's flock.

Robert Ketchum, the cartoonist wrote a book entitled, "I Shall Not Want." In it he tells of a Sunday School teacher who asked her group of children if anyone could quote the entire 23rd, Psalm. A golden haired 4-year-old girl was among those who raised her hands. A bit skeptical, the teacher asked if she could really quote the entire psalm.

The little girl came to the front of the room, faced the class, made a perky little bow, and said: "The Lord is my shepherd. That's all I want."

She bowed again and went and sat down. Shur nuff. Nuff said. Amen

New TEA policy prohibits sale of Foods of Minimal Nutritional Value in school foodservice areas

WISD will no longer offer students sodas, chewing gum & certain candies

On April 22, 2002 a new policy for Foods of Minimal Nutritional Value (FMNV) was issued by the Texas Education Agency (TEA) to all public schools in the state of Texas.

The basic policy is the same United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) policy that has been in effect for many years. For example, FMNV may not be available in school foodservice areas during meal periods. The revised policy redefines the term "foodservice area" in terms of function rather than location.

is any area where Child Nutrition Program (CNP) meals (breakfast, lunch, and snacks) are either served and/or eaten. This may include "eating areas" that are completely separate from the traditional cafeteria and serving lines such as hallways, assembly rooms, outdoor courtyards, classrooms, etc. The policy also and welfare of our student prohibits schools from giving away such items where reimbursable meals are served.

There are only four categories of restricted foods covered by the policy: soda water, water ices, chewing gum, and certain candies. Other snack type foods and candies which are not restricted foods are not covered by the policy.

This is the minimum policy that is required by federal CNP regulations. A school district or school may adopt more strin-The school foodservice area gent local policies or proce-

Clack says Janet Cason, WISD Food Service Director, will offer a variety of nutritious alternatives including bottled waters, fruit juices, and Gatorades, as well as nutritious regulated by USDA and not snack bars and items with lower sugar content. "Janet's going to experiment and try different items to gauge the student's likes and dislikes. Comments from Dr. Billy Warrick, Extension Agronomist

The wide range of rain received this year complicates many management decisions.

Some producers are needing to apply additional nitrogen and the best method to do this after blooming begins is with a foliar application. Urea is used by a number of producers for this purpose and their primary question is how much.

The cotton plant can absorb about 5 to 6 pounds of nitrogen per application. So a producer would be applying 10-12 pounds of urea per acre. If a higher rate of nitrogen is applied, leaf burn can be expected. The foliar appli-As long as we can keep a good cations can generally be made on growth can be managed fairly eas- to the plant. Due to cost, most producers won't make more than three applications.

> Grain Sorghum—The late July rains may delay harvest in some of the early planted fields. Due to the drought stress suffered at the first of the season by these plants, the potential for charcoal rot will be high, particularly in hybrids that are susceptible. Early planted fields should be harvested as soon as the grain moisture is low enough for storage/selling purposes. Long delays will see plant lodging of 10 percent or more.

NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE TAX RATE 2002 Property Tax Rates in North Runnels Hospital

This notice concerns 2002 property tax rates for NORTH RUNNELS HOSPITAL. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Deadline nears for YMCA fall football registration

YMCA Youth Football registration is now underway for the Fall 2002 season. Games will be played in San Angelo for seven consecutive Saturdays beginning in mid-September.

The deadline is nearing for league sign-up and volunteers are desparately needed. Each division needs four to five volunteers to coach the team and only three volunteers have shown an interest at this time. Winters coordinator Jimmy Ripley said, "We need to get these kids signed up and we need volunteers. If we don't have the volunteers there won't be a program!" Ripley also noted that if the local program does not get off the ground, there will not be space in the Ballinger football program for Winters kids.

Three age divisions are set for students entering the third/fourth grades, fifth grade, and sixth grade.

Registration forms are available from now until August 17 at Video Hut in Winters or by calling Jimmy Ripley at 754-4435 or 660-5729. No child will be denied the opportunity to play YMCA football due to finances. Financial assistance may be obtained by those who qualify and payment plans are also available.
