SEEKS ORIGIN OF THE NAME OF BRONTE

Mrs. Pearl G. Boynton, local postmaster, received the letter below from a lady in Arkansas, whose name was formerly "Miss Bronte:"

Holly Grove, Arkansas,
 February 15, 1933.
 Postmaster,
 Bronte, Texas.

Dear Sir:
 I am very desirous to know where and how Bronte, Texas got its name. Will you kindly give me any information that you might know? Or give me the names of some of the older settlers that I might find out the desired information.

I was (Miss) Willye Bronte before I was married.

Thanking you in advance,
 Yours very truly,
 Mrs. P. E. Terry.

A copy of The Enterprise of its issue of June 5, 1931, was sent the lady. That issue has an article by Miss Mildred Heidel, entitled, "Bronte." Miss Heidel's article has the following relative to the question about which the lady asks:

"An application was made for a post office in 1888. 'Bronco' was suggested as a name but

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Announcing services at the Methodist church for Sunday, March 19:

Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching service, 11 a. m.; Epworth League, 6:45 p. m.; Evening worship, 7:30.

As your pastor, it is my sincere desire to meet everyone who is a member of this church at these services. This is your church. I am your pastor and leader. I will not be in position to render the service and spiritual leadership, I so much desire, unless you take advantage of these services each Sabbath. These services—the sermon, the prayer and the exhortation—represent the pastor's thought and concern for you. His sermon will be an expression of his deepest thought and greatest concern for you, and his desire and effort to give spiritual leadership for the weeks to come.

Those who are habitually absent from the worship without was rejected by the Postal Department, as there was already a post office by that name. The name 'Bronte' was finally decided upon. It was named after Miss Charlotte Bronte, an English novelist."

MRS. E. W. HUDMAN DIES

Mrs. Belva Hudman, beloved wife of E. W. Hudman, died at the family residence in Bronte, early Sunday morning, after an illness of only some three days. She was stricken with pneumonia Thursday night, but there were no alarming symptoms until Saturday morning. She suffered much through that day. A physician was called from Ballinger Saturday night, in consultation with the attending physician, Dr. J. D. Leonard. All was done that affection and skill knew to do, but all to no avail.

The suffering of deceased was intense yet she was perfectly rational until within a few hours of her passing. Saturday night before she went into a state of coma, she talked freely with her husband and other loved ones and friends who were present. Without any excitement or regret except that of leaving her husband and the two little motherless boys she and her husband had with them, she was perfectly willing to go. She made her last request of each of her loved ones, then, gave instruction as to her burial, going into minute details—just as if she were going away on some delightful journey. The writer for nearly forty years has stood at the bedside and seen many people die. But, the passing of this gracious woman was one of the most triumphant deaths we have ever witnessed.

Interment was in Bronte cemetery Sunday afternoon, following religious services at the Church of Christ, directed by Elder Horace Teddlie of Sweetwater aided by the writer, at the request of deceased. The obsequies were simple and quiet as deceased had requested. "I want no pomp and show at my funeral," she said, "sing some of the sweet hymns of worship, (here she named two hymns she desired should be sung) and do not say too many good things a—" cause constitute the church's gravest problem and greatest burden. Let us begin now to relieve the church of this unnecessary burden by being in our places at each and every service.

I wish to take advantage of this space to express our sincere gratitude to the church and also to the people of the community for the royal reception given us. Although we have only been in your town some ten days, we feel very much at home.

Our one aim and desire is to serve this community.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend all services at the Methodist church.

Vocational Agriculture Livestock Judging Contest at A. & M. College, April 17th

A Vocational Agriculture Livestock Team, composed of three boys and about ten F. F. A. band members are making arrangements to participate in the annual Livestock Judging Contest which is to be held at A. & M. April the 17th.

For the next two or three weeks both Vocational Agriculture classes will make a special study and will get the actual practice in judging livestock which will include the following classes: Fat beef cattle, breeding beef cattle, fat hogs, breeding hogs, and mutton sheep and breeding sheep.

The three boys that are to make the judging team have not been selected at the present time, but will be selected in the next week or so—after they have been tried out here. The boys that saw the champion calves at San Angelo will have in their minds what an ideal calf should look like, which will help them considerably in determining how to place one calf above another in a class of four.

All members of the Texas F. F. A. Band are invited to be present on April 16 and 17 at College Station, to make the music for the occasion, and it is our desire to have at least 10 of the 13 boys there who made the trip to the National F. F. A. Convention last fall.

The boys that fed and exhibited calves this year were very much pleased as to the financial outcome, as well as the educational point of view. The sole purpose of taking projects is not to make money, but to put into practice the things they study. After the boy has mastered the theory and then puts it into practice we feel that he has really accomplished something that will stay fixed in his mind.

The problems that are being taught in our Vocational Agriculture Department are practical problems, and such as confront our farmers every day. Such problems as judging livestock, culling poultry, soil improvement, plant improvement, saw sharpening, soldering, diseases of plants and animals and various such practical problems, are included in our programs of work.

R. R. Petty,
 Vocational Agriculture Instructor.

COMMISSIONERS' COURT

The regular monthly term of the Commissioners' Court met March 13, 1933, and transacted the following business:

The court ordered that no further bounty be paid by the county on wolf or cat hides after April 10, 1933.

The county depository was ordered to disburse or pay out no county funds on county warrants and to pay only treasurer's checks.

The tax collector's report for January 1933 was approved.

The court allowed accounts to the amount of $479.00, and allowed the following amounts for supervising roads:

E. T. Sparks, 7 days	$35.00
E. T. Holman 10 days	$50.00
J. K. Lofton 11 days	$55.00
Ben Brooks 9 days	$45.00

The county judge and each commissioner were allowed $5.00 each for one day's attendance at court.

Mesdames Wade Rees of Center Point and Carroll Wood of San Antonio, returned to their homes Tuesday, after a visit of a week with relatives and friends.

Thirty years from now the children of today will recall the panic of 1932 and 1933 and they will be telling the people how to overcome the panic of that day, by relating how it was done in 1933.

THE MONDAY BIBLE

BY ROY LESLIE CRAWFORD

Matthew 7:7: "Ask and ye shall receive," etc. Who is there that has never uttered a prayer? Perhaps in time of danger. Or in sorrow. Maybe in times of extreme joy, exultation, or success.

Who is there that has not prayed and felt that his prayer was not answered? Has a sense of failure of prayer caused you to lose faith in prayer? Have you stopped praying because you felt that it was no use?

Are you sure prayers are answered? Is your belief in prayer a kind of hazy notion that prayer is a magic ceremony which is sure to produce the desired results if it is performed according to the right formula? Is prayer a sort of hokus-pokus trick by which we fool ourselves into believing we have received what we prayed for? Or is it a kind of legal process by which we force God to come to our terms?

Or is it a fellowship with God through which we get better acquainted with Him through constantly walking and talking with Him?

SORRY FOR THOSE WHO COME AFTER

On the whole I feel a great pity for the younger generation. Life was comparatively so easy for us and it is going to be so hard for them. We grew up in an age of expansion and confidence; they have come in for an age of contraction and perplexity. The writing on the wall looked rather encouraging for us; what they see is well, not "Mene, Mene," like Belshazzar, but a gigantic note of interrogation. Does this bother them much? I really do not know, for they rarely take their elders into confidence.—Dean Inge.

The above deals with a tragic situation. Some of the statements made we believe—but some of them we do not believe, even though they emanate from a great source.

It is a severe indictment against both generations, the present and the one "coming after." For any generation of people to finish their lives, pass out and leave the world worse than when they came, and took up the world's affairs is an awful indictment of that generation. No one has upon him but one responsibility and that is so to contribute to the common good during his days that the world is made better and happier. And the man or woman who does not so direct the currents of his activities that the above is true concerning him, whether of high or low estate, is a curse upon the earth—it would be better for such an one and for the world, had he not been born.

It is a severe indictment against those who are to "come after." No one has the right to sit down and lament his life away because he was not born under a "lucky star." Too many have risen from obscurity and become the first of their day and generation. Hence, in America this can and will still be true. That there is an economic situation that makes the future less hopeful for the youth of today, no one will deny. And the present generation—everyone, both men and women—should set himself to the one end, namely, a complete cleanup in this fair land, from ocean to ocean, both as to economic conditions and moral ideals. We need again to have propounded to us:

MARRIED

At the editor's home, Tuesday afternoon, March 14, 1933, Mr. Lloyd Yocham of Rankin and Miss Nora Mae Hodges of Mertzon were united in marriage, the writer officiating.

Mrs. Harvey Yocham of Bronte, an aunt of the groom, had been visiting relatives at Rankin. The groom and his brother were to bring Mrs. Yocham home. Conferring with his bride-to-be, they decided to convert the trip into a pre-bridal trip, she would come with him, and they would get married while here.

The groom at one time made his home here, and has many friends, who when they know his bride will congratulate him on his good fortune in winning the one he has as his life's companion.

The bride is a modest, charming, cultured young woman and is qualified in mind and heart to be the companion of the one to whom she has betrothed herself.

The writer joins with the friends of both these happy young people in wishing them every blessing as they start upon the journey of life together.

THE WOMAN'S PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Subjects dealing with the Lone Star State were discussed at a meeting of the Woman's Progressive Club, on Thursday afternoon of last week, when Mrs. Allen Butner was hostess to the Club at her beautiful country home, three miles north of Bronte.

Mrs. Butner directed the program, which began with the names of "Texas Heroes" as roll call.

Mrs. O. H. Willoughby gave a splendid talk on "Historic Spots in Texas," and Mrs. Lucy R. Warner read an interesting paper on "State Monuments, Markers, Parks, Etc."

"The Raven"—by James, was reviewed by Mrs. Charles Keeney.

"Texas, Our Texeas" was sung by the club.

A very clever contest on Texas, and a period of games followed the program.

A delicious salad and sweet plate, carrying out the St. Patrick colors was served to twenty members and five special guests, including Mrs. W. N. Dunson, Mrs. Walter Byers, Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham, Mrs. John Clapp and Mrs. Omar McQueen.

Mrs. Cova Collier will be the next hostess.

RECEPTION

Miss Lottie Ivey is the leader of the little ones in their work in the church. Mrs. T. C. Price impersonated Miss Ivey. It is thought by some, now, that the little ones will have to be taught again as to who really their leader is.

Mrs. B. E. Modgling is president of the Woman's Home Mission Society of the church. The called for a report on the woman's work. Mrs. Louise Johnson hastily arose and rushed to the front. Speaking of "doubles," Mrs. Modgling is fully convinced that she now has a "double" and hereafter, when she can't attend the meetings of the society, she will send Mrs. Johnson, as it will make no difference, since no one could tell the difference anyway.

Last but not least of the fun was the impersonation of "the financial side" of the church and its work. Mrs. Louise Johnson is the church's treasurer—hence first, last and all the time, she is interested in "the collections." Mrs. Irving Cumbie, to the delight of all, and to the amusement of Mrs. Johnson, "showed the church's treasurer going after the money."

Refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed by all, as welcome was extended by all present, both old and young, to the new pastor and his wife.

Rev. and Mrs. Dunson returned home and found somebody had been "prowling" about the parsonage. Upon going to the kitchen for further investigation they found the kitchen table piled up high with groceries and all kinds of delicious edibles—discovering that they were the "victims" of "an old-fashioned Methodist nouncing."

Mrs. Alfred Taylor directed the program of the evening and by her adentness kept the program going through without a single interference from first to last.

Thus, under most happy auspices the new Methodist minister and his wife take up their work with their congregation.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. BELVA HUDMAN

Sad is our separation here,
But, grand will be our meeting over there—

There, we will see her face so fair,
In that Land where there is no care.

How sad to think she is gone!
One so dear, so kind, so sweet!—

But, dear ones, we are not alone,
And she has gone the Lord to meet.

God loves those who fear Him,
And from Him never wander;
Dear Belva has gone with Him to be,
In the Heavenly Home, up yonder.

In her life she proved to us,
That she loved the Lord, by doing His will,

And she, by her beautiful life,
Will continue to be with us still.

She was loved by many, many friends,
And, now, their hearts are sad,

But, they will meet her again,
after awhile,
Then our hearts will be glad.

In the home circle, she was a jewel rare,
Loved and treasured by them all,

But, now, she is gone away,
In answer to her Lord's call.

How we shall miss her in the church,
And will grieve at her vacant place,
But God has seen fit to call her—
We must bow to the edicts of His grace!

Her work on earth is ended,
Her life's mission is fulfilled,
And now her dear hands are folded,
And her loving heart is still.

Dear Belva, is gone but not forgotten
To her Heavenly Home above,
There forever to be with Jesus,
Where all is joy, peace and love.

To me, she was as a sister,
Ready always, to do for me her best,
And how I, now, shall miss her,
In human words can never be expressed.

Yes, we will miss her sweet voice,
And also her face so fair;
We will miss her from the home—
We will miss her everywhere.

Oh, God, help us to live as pure,
As the one we have now laid away,
Then, when He shall call us,
We will meet her on that Glad, Sweet Day.

One who loved her.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Butner and Mrs. T. C. Price went to Lubbock Thursday for a week end visit with their children.

Read the large ad of the Qui-Si-Sana Clinic elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise. Dr. Lindley has effected some remarkable cures. A Bronte citizen took treatment for hemorrhoids five years ago. If you are suffering with this dread and dangerous disease, you should see Dr. Lindley. If we remember correctly, 5,000 die in Texas, every year. If let alone, the disease quite often develops into cancer—then, the case is generally hopeless. If you are suffering from any disease that Dr. Lindley treats, but do not have the ready cash to pay for the treatment, see us—we might be able to suggest a way by which you can get treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Hudman and children who were called here Sunday on account of the death of Mrs. Elmer Hudman, returned to their home at Caddo Wednesday.

AUGUST SEIPP, WINTERS, BURIED HERE, FRIDAY

August Seipp of Winters, died at his home in the Mann community, Thursday morning, March 9, and the body was buried in the family lot in the Bronte cemetery, Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, following religious services at the graveside. The religious services were conducted by Rev. F. O. King, of Abilene, pastor of the Mann Baptist church of which deceased, was a member, and Rev. M. C. Golden of Ballinger, an old-time friend of deceased and family.

The ministers both paid tribute to the worthy and useful life of deceased, and held out to the sorrowing family the glorious hope of a reunion in the world to come. The choir from Maverick sang sweet and beautiful hymns.

Deceased was born at Fredericksburg, September 17, 1872, and moved to Runnels county in 1899. Settling in the Mann community, he established his farm home where he resided until his death.

Deceased is survived by his wife and three children: Lester, who lives at home; Mrs. Dorothy Taff of Abilene, and Waller of Ballinger; two brothers, Emil of Maverick, Waller of Ballinger, Mrs. Annie Sessions of Wingate, Mrs. Ross Bullock of San Angelo, Mrs. Hulda Olsen of Rockford, Colorado, and Mrs. Emma Vance of Austin.

A large concourse from several cities and towns and communities attended the funeral, thus attesting the many friends of deceased and family.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEET

There will be a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association, in the school auditorium, next Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

A special program is being arranged that includes every room of the school, from the primary to the seniors.

It is requested and urged that the parents, especially, as well as all others attend this meeting and enjoy this program.

SUFFERED FOURTEEN YEARS—IS A WELL MAN TODAY!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I had prolapse piles fourteen years. When bowels functioned the reaction would turn out completely and be as large as my fist. I had tried many Doctors and many things with no relief. Hearing of Dr. Lindley I went to him at once; I was certainly suffering the morning I walked into his office. Life had meant nothing to me nor did it mean anything to me then. After taking the first treatment, which was practically painless, I began to get better and today, I am a well man! I have been living in and around San Angelo for many years. I am located at the Central Hotel. I will be glad to answer any inquiries.

WOMAN HAD LOST ALL HOPE—DR. LINDLEY CURED HER

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I was a sufferer with rectal trouble for fourteen years standing. I was treated by many physicians for this trouble until I had almost given up hopes. I felt at times as if I would lose my mind or would suicide. Hearing of Dr. Lindley I at once came to him for examination and treatment. I began immediately to get better from the first treatment. I was not detained from my household duties while taking treatments but I felt better and stronger all the time.

I am now perfectly well and have been for some time. It would be a pleasure to answer any inquiries concerning Dr. Lindley and his treatments.

TREATED BY MANY DOCTORS FOR 50 YEARS—DR. LINDLEY CURED HIM.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I had been suffering with piles and fistula trouble for a period of fifty years. I had been treated by Doctors for many years. My trouble was as bad as ever. Hearing of Dr. Lindley I came to him. At this time I could hardly walk or get around. I was suffering continually. As my trouble had existed for such a long standing it had become a cancerous ailment; my trouble was indeed serious. After the first treatment I began to improve and at this time I am a well man.

MRS. HUDMAN DIES

(Continued from page one) about me, for I do not deserve them." A large concourse of long-time friends and neighbors gathered to pay tribute to the memory of their friend.

Belva Eubanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks was born in Arkansas, January 21, 1885. When just a little girl she came to this part of West Texas where they made their home for some time, then moved to Richland Springs.

Deceased was married to E. W. Hudman at Richland Springs December 23, 1900. They came at once to Bronte and have made their home here continuously since that time.

Deceased was a member of the Yeoman Lodge, but the local lodge ceased to function some years ago.

When not much more than a child deceased became a member of the Church of Christ and was a devoted member to the last. She will be missed in the circles of her church.

A husband, an adopted son, Lloyd, two brothers, Anderson and Charley Eubanks, and two sisters, Mrs. A. S. Eubanks and Mrs. M. E. Rouse, with quite a number of other relatives and a host of friends survive to mourn her passing.

But, to loved ones and friends she has left a heritage in her sweet, pure, unselfish, gentle life that is worth more than the gold of the world. The Enterprise joins with the many friends of the family in extending deepest sympathy in this sad hour. May He who was her strength and stay in her last hours be the source of help to each and all of her loved ones in this hour of loneliness and bereavement.

WOMAN'S MISSION SOCIETY

The Woman's Home Mission Society of the Bronte Methodist church, met Monday afternoon, March 13, at the home of Mrs. T. C. Price, with 24 members present.

Great interest is being shown in the contest for members. The reds won over the blues in Monday's meeting. The blues had 10 members and 2 visitors present, and the reds, 14 members and 4 visitors.

Mrs. R. L. Keys, our Bible teacher, being absent, Mrs. B. E. Modgling directed the lesson, which was taken from the Old Testament prophets.

Following the Bible lesson, refreshments were served.

Mrs. Robert Knierim will be hostess next Monday afternoon, March 20. We extend an invitation to all the ladies of the church. "The Society needs you."

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Baker, and little son, Billie C., returned Tuesday evening from a trip to Austin and other points. At Austin Mr. Baker attended to business. From there they went to Dallas, visiting relatives there and at Arlington. After attending the Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, they came to Clyde and visited relatives. Mrs. Baker's mother, Mrs. W. A. Good who was visiting at Clyde returned home with them.

The cow, the sow, the hen—blessings on all of 'em, for they are "the hope of the country" at this time.
