OAK CREEK COMMUNITY PLANNING ENTHUSIASTICALLY FOR THE "ARKANSAWERS' REUNION."

MUCH INTEREST IN "ARKANSAWERS' REUNION"—MANY ARE COMING

Interest in the "Arkansawers Reunion," at Oak Creek, ten miles southeast of Bronte, to be held on the 4th Sunday in May, which is May 28, is running high.

The wide-spread and growing interest is due to three things:

1. Is the unusually interesting program the committee having the arrangements in charge have been able to provide this year. The fact that Dr. J. D. Sandefer, who himself is an "Arkansawer" and "ain't ashamed of it," is the memorial speaker for the day, will bring literally hundreds and hundreds of people from far and near. Then the coming of the Simmons University Cowboy Band for a sacred concert is a feature of entertainment rarely ever provided in this part of West Texas—for the Cowboys "know their horns" and know how to "toot 'em." Then the other features of the day's program, the more local than the other features mentioned above, yet none the less capable and pleasing entertainers. There will yet be some other features added, members of the committee believe, by next week at which time full announcement will be made.

2. The second thing that has contributed to the universal and far-spread interest in the reunion is the wide publicity that has been given the occasion. In behalf of the committee and the others interested in promoting the reunion, The Enterprise editor who has done the publicity work for the committee, desires to thank each and all the editors throughout this part of the West who have generously given space in their columns in giving publicity to the occasion. From far and near they are writing and sending word that they expect to be with the "Arkansawers" on May 28. Some are writing from other places to know about concession rights and so forth. Letters received by the writer this week from distant counties brought greetings and good wishes for the "Arkansawers" though the writers did not think they could be present personally.

Everybody at Oak Creek has turned "Arkansawer" for the time being and doing anything and everything they can to make the many "Arkansawers" and their friends who go there for the day to feel that they are "as welcome as the flowers in May."

The reunion grounds will be cleaned and seated and otherwise arranged to accommodate the great throngs that are expected to be in attendance.

Get ready, folks, get ready—don't miss it!—and remember, to bring a well-filled lunch basket.

BRONTE YOUNG LADY FAVORITE AT SCHREINER

Miss Susie Tannehill of Bronte and Mrs. Albert Baze of Robert Lee returned Monday from Kerrville, where they had been week-end guests at Schreiner Institute.

Festivities of the 1933 senior class of Schreiner Institute were in progress. It is the custom of the senior class of this boys' school each year to elect the three most beautiful and popular young ladies in Texas, and the three young ladies thus honored are given a reception and are invited to attend and be the guests of the Institute.

Bronte, Austin and San Antonio were the three fortunate cities for 1933, in the matter of furnishing the most beautiful and popular young ladies, according to the voting of the senior class this year.

Everybody in and around Bronte will compliment the young gentlemen of the 1933 class of Schreiner Institute for their wonderful ability to pass judgment on feminine beauty—this would be true, even, if the two young ladies from Austin and San Antonio were "ugly as a mud fence;" for any time any other part of the whole world needs a beautiful young woman all they will have to do will be to come to Bronte. We are speaking only the truth—and are recording the fact here, simply to call the attention of "the big-eyed world" to the rightful title of "the old home town," namely, "Bronte—the home of beautiful young women."

DEDICATED TO MY MOTHER—FOR MOTHER'S DAY MAY 14, 1933.

Mother dear, Oh, how I love you!—
Only I alone can know—
And my love for you will deepen,
As with age I surely grow.

How I love your toil-worn fingers,
And your hair of silvery white;
By your side I love to linger,
In the stillness of the night.

There is no time half so happy,
There is no time half so sweet,
As the time spent by our fireside,
Sitting quietly at your feet.

I cannot bear your burdens,
And your heartaches and your cares,
But, I am on my way to Heaven,
As an answer to your prayers.

To me, there is none other,
That can with you compare—
For you are my darling mother,
Sitting in your old arm chair.

Sitting by your window reading,
In that dear and precious Book—
I am glad that you have taught me,
Ever on your Christ to look.

I am glad that you are my mother,
I am glad, I am your child,
For I know there is no other,
Half so tender and so mild!

Again, I say I love you,
In the only way I know,
And I hope that in the future,
More like you to ever grow.

COMPLIMENT SENIOR GIRLS AT TEA

A musical tea given by the Woman's Progressive Club honoring the High School senior girls and their mothers, was held at the home of Mrs. I. M. Cumbie on Tuesday afternoon, from 5 o'clock to 6 o'clock.

The tea table was laid with white filet lace cloth over yellow satin and was appointed with silver services. A silver basket filled with white and yellow roses centered the table, while silver candlesticks held yellow tapers both on the table and the buffet. These senior class colors featured the decorations throughout the rooms used. Small hand-painted scrolls tied with yellow ribbon held a congratulatory message, and each honor guest was given one.

Mrs. Frank Keeney presided at the tea table being assisted by Mesdames Clint Duncan, O. H. Willoughby, A. N. Rawlings, T. M. Wylie and T. H. Rogge.

The numbers composing the program were a piano selection "Dance of the Demons" by Mrs. C. C. Holder; reading, "When Mother Goes to Club" by Katherine Dunson; reading, "A New Brother" by Garner Pitts; vocal solo, "When You and I were Young, Maggie," by Mrs. L. T. Youngblood; reading, "An Expression School Romance," by Bettie Sue Pitts; song, "Barcarolle" by class girls.

Mrs. I. M. Cumbie directed the program.

Honor guests attending were, Una Vay Clark and Mrs. Homer Clark; Sadie Odum and Mrs. Henry Hudman, Beatrice Mitchell and Mrs. Paul Good, Louise Gideon and Mrs. W. J. Gideon, Mary Louise Holder and Mrs. C. C. Holder, Virginia Youngblood and Mrs. L. T. Youngblood, and Nerva Pruitt.

About fifty guests were present. They were received by

SAM SEAY DIES

In the passing of Sam Seay of Marie community, at a Ballinger hospital Monday afternoon, another of the good men and pioneer citizens of this part of West Texas was taken away.

The body was returned Monday night to the family home near Marie, and Monday afternoon, following religious services by Rev. N. W. Pitts, the body was followed by loved ones and a large concourse of old-time friends to the Bronte cemetery where it was gently put away for its last rest.

S. M. Seay was born in Fayette county, February 28, 1857, making him to be in his seventy-sixth year when death claimed him. He came to West Texas in the late nineties, making him one of the pioneer citizens of this section.

The surviving members of the immediate family are his wife, Mrs. Alvie Seay, two sons, Sam Jr., of Marie, Ernest of Albuquerque, New Mexico; and two daughters, Mrs. Ila Coleman of Tahoka and Mrs. Cora Carlile of Snyder, all of whom were present for the funeral.

Deceased was one of the old school southern gentlemen, honorable to the last ditch and always for the right and the things that made for honor and integrity; a good and patriotic citizen and always stood for the best and highest ideals in public as well as private life.

Deceased united with the Marie Baptist church in 1918 and was a faithful and true member till death.

The sorrowing family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

Who is the Big Secret in "the House of Secrets" that the seniors are trying to unravel?

the hostess, and Mesdames Lucy Warner, B. P. Williams and R. L. Keyes.

MRS. FRANK KEENEY, LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Frank Keeney entertained Saturday afternoon with a prettily appointed luncheon, at her home. Roses and daisies formed the floral decorations for the home.

A color scheme of pink and green was carried in the menu, and in the appointments of small tables where the guests were served.

The hours following the luncheon were spent in playing bridge and solving "Jig Saw" puzzles. The prize for high score for bridge was won by Mrs. Cova Collier.

The guest list included, Mrs. O. W. Chapman, Mrs. Clint Wilkins, Mrs. L. T. Youngblood, Mrs. M. A. Butner, Mrs. Albert Rawlings, Mrs. Lucy Warner, Mrs. O. H. Willoughby, Mrs. I. M. Cumbie, Mrs. Cova Collier, Mrs. Clint Duncan, Mrs. Cecil Glenn, Mrs. R. E. Cumbie, Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham, Mrs. R. L. Keyes, Mrs. N. W. Pitts, Mrs. T. C. Price, Mrs. Milton Wylie, Mrs. C. C. Holder, Mrs. Charles Keeney and Mrs. Lula Hines of San Angelo.

The Brookshier community is to observe Mother's Day, Sunday, with an appropriate program, dinner on the ground and an all day program. The writer acknowledges an invitation from his good friend, J. L. Stephenson to be present. But an appointment that had already been arranged for at Tennyson keeps us from being with the good people at Brookshier.

Robert Knierim and Floyd Bridges were in attendance at the WTCC convention at Big Spring Thursday.

Don't miss the senior play, Tuesday night, May 23—at the school auditorium.

J. E. Renfro, ranching on the Wendland ranch, vaccinated 1,585 head of lambs and kids on the 20th, 21st and 22nd of April for soremouth, and on the 21st day of May every lamb and kid showed perfect soremouth ulcers. This particular ranch is being watched to see if soremouth shows up on the vaccinated lambs and kids at a later date.

A demonstration in the vaccination for soremouth was held on the I. A. Bird ranch near Sanco, Saturday morning, May 6th by the County Agent.

A demonstration of the use of soremouth vaccine will be held at the Jim McCutchen ranch, near Robert Lee, Friday, May 12th. Also the use of the slatted tables for tying fleeces will be demonstrated.

A demonstration in the use of a new drench for stomach worms is being carried on at the Bill Chapman ranch near Robert Lee. Several old ewes and yearling ewes have been cut out, drenched, and will be drenched two more times in the next thirty days. Results of the use of this new drench are being watched with interest.

Ed Roane has completed this year's work on his newly terraced field. These terraces are of the broad-base type, and have been well built. Mr. Roane has the rows already laid off for planting this year's crop. These terraces are wide enough for crops to be planted on them.

There have been 108 applications totaling $8,150. for Crop Production Loans in Coke County this year. This is an average of $75.48 per application against an average of $110. per application in 1932. Evidently the 18,000 cans of food, the 38,000 pounds of cured pork and all the eggs and milk reported by 82 applicants have been of some good to the farmer.

Now is a good time to start out, feeding that calf you want to kill and can this winter. Feeding a calf from the time he is 3 months to 9 months of age only requires about 900 pounds of maize heads, about 200 pounds of cotton seed and about a thousand pounds of fodder. Feeding this calf each day after his mother is turned out will insure a real fat calf, and one with a desirable carcass when dressed.

Albert Roe sold the 23 head of yearlings he had on feed at his place last week. Simpson & Russell put 159 head of yearlings in the dry lot to finish out after feeding on the range during the winter. These yearlings are being fed on a balanced ration of maize heads, cottonseed, ground sorghum stalks and limestone flour.

ANNUAL FARMER'S SHORT COURSE ANNOUNCED

The Annual Farmers' Short Course, which is held at the A & M College each year, has been announced, and the dates set here. Bring on your syrup-ma for the week beginning Monday, July 29th. Many changes have been made in the usual procedure. (Continued on page three)

MOTHER'S DAY TO BE OBSERVED AT TENNYSON

There will be observance of Mother's Day, at Tennyson, Sunday, at the Baptist church.

The writer acknowledges an invitation from the church to be present and bring the message of the occasion.

"Mother's Day" is one of the happiest thoughts that ever was conceived in human mind.

We are looking forward, anticipating a delightful time, for we always enjoy meeting with the Tennyson people.

VOTED FOR HIM—THEN "SKINS" HIM

After "skinning" his "jimferguson" person from "hades to breakfast," "Uncle Bill" Kellis, editor of the Sterling City News-Record, who took some "fancy shots" at us last week because we recently shamed Roosevelt and John Garner for being parties to the "dirty deal" by which 3.2 beer was forced upon the country, regardless the express prohibition in the federal constitution, closes his little "love song" to the object of his affections—and who by the way is the choice of the overwhelming majority of the Democrats of Texas (not a "gilliwampus" voted for him, it is reasonable to suppose) with these words:

"If jimferguson could have gotten his hands on the highway funds, business would have picked up. If they create an oil commission, maybe he can get in on that and make a lot of money."

Now, "Uncle Bill" if it were not for my "lamb-like nature," I would feel like giving you an "editorial skinning." Are you "so lost to state pride and national patriotism" that you would implicate the governor of Texas with the above direct charge against her husband, who in reality is the governor. Indeed, "Uncle Bill," I do not know what to say about you—and worse still, your "jimferguson" person is there by your vote. If your words are not the "depths of party inconsistency and party disloyalty" what would you call it? Are you, really after all, a gilliwampus? Please answer me that.

It isn't very lady-like, do you think, "Uncle Bill," to say all the mean, "nasty" things you say about your "jimferguson" person for whom you say you voted in the general election? At least, is it very democratic, do you think, after he was elected by such an overwhelming majority of the "rock-ribbed democrats," like yourself? O, what depths into which we have fallen!

SHIELD EXPERT HERE

H. M. SHEVNAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the St. Angelus Hotel, San Angelo, Wednesday only, May 17, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Mr. Shevnan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly but increase the circulation, strengthens the weakened parts, thereby closes the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting, or any position the body may assume no matter the size or location. A nationally known scientific method. No understraps or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevnan will be glad to demonstrate without charge or fit them if desired.

TEN CENT DEMOCRATS, NOT MANY

There is a wail of lament sent out from the state democratic headquarters at Austin.

A report received by The Enterprise from the finance committee, to which has been committed the gigantic task of collecting ten cents apiece from "the loyal democrats of Texas" to lift the financial burden in the form of a deficit from the back of "the dear old party," reads piteously.

The report says: "The best showing to date has been made in the Sixteenth Congressional District, which is represented by Representative Ewing Thomason." Then the report gives four counties in this district, in which the ten cent democrats have come across with the assessment—yet there are thirty eight counties in the district.

What a wonderful showing! Yet how basely ungrateful are the faithful!—only four counties out of thirty eight, and still that is the best showing in the State. The report further states that the larger places like Houston are not "putting up" the coin to amount to anything at all. Now that is something to complain about. Houston, the home of John Henry Kirby and the central location of brewers and brewery interests. But what do they care for the "dear old party," except when they want it to serve their liquor-making interests—then, they will "dig deep"—John Jacob Rascob, for instance, that distinguished (?) democrat, who came from republican ranks that he might use the Democratic party to kill "damnable prohibition." And in order to stampede the little fellows all over the country, he gave according to his statement, under oath, $65,000 to destroy prohibition. But, now, having his end accomplished, far as he can go, with money, he does not dig up any more for the "dear old party."

We still say that the brewers, other liquor-makers and those who are going to profit by the return of beer and other liquors should count it a joy to pay the party's debt—for the party has certainly served them faithfully and sold itself soul and body to the liquor crowd. All men who favor maintaining the highest standards of temperance and sobriety and in protecting the boys and girls from the pitfalls and shame and ruin and damnation that the liquor crowd in charge of the so-called democratic party are trying to bring back upon the people to curse the land, should save their ten cents with which to fight the coterie of un-American leaders that have gotten control of the party.

TREATMENT OF PELLAGRA

"Pellagra is a disease that is caused by not eating the right kind of food and shows itself usually by a strange kind of reddening and scalding of the skin," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. "The person with pellagra usually suffers loss of appetite, indigestion, diarrhea, soreness of the mouth and tongue, nervousness, low spirits and more or less weakness."

"Thousands of Texans suffer with this disease and approximately one thousand die each year. More cases appear in the spring and early summer months than at any other time of the year. This is because more people live on a restricted diet during the winter. It comes to those whose diet does not contain all that is needed to keep one in good health. The missing essential in the diet is called the pellagra prevention factor or vitamin. We know this because people who eat the right kind of food do not have the disease, because those who do have the disease and eat the right kind of food do get well and remain well as long as they maintain a proper diet and also because when people are fed the wrong kind of food they develop the disease. Pellagra is not a communicable disease. The treatment should be directed by your doctor and the main thing is diet. Do not rely on patent medicines.

"The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat and as many fresh vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, brewers yeast, and fresh fruits are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family or personal likes. In this way you may avoid pellagra."

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Long were visitors to Arlington first of the week. They went to take Mrs. Long's father home, who had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Long for the past several weeks.

BRUTON'S PLACE HAD SUCCESSFUL OPENING DAY

Bruton's Place, C. E. Bruton, owner and manager, had Opening Day Saturday, as was announced in The Enterprise last week. Mr. Bruton was opening his new place and business. He has just completed him a modern store and service station building on highway 70, on the southwest corner of the block in which The Enterprise building is located.

Throughout the entire day, Mr. Bruton and his clerks and helpers were busy. Sandwiches, coffee and cake were served to all who came. Mr. Bruton had advertised some very special prices on some lines he carries, and especially in those lines he had heavy sales.

Speaking to The Enterprise, Mr. Bruton stated that his sales for the day were double what he had expected—"therefore," said Mr. Bruton, "of course, I am pleased and I am also deeply grateful to the people for the splendid opening day they gave me."

COMMISSIONERS' COURT

The Commissioners' Court convened in regular session on May 8, and transacted the following business:

N. C. Baker was appointed justice of the peace of the Tennyson precinct.

The quarterly reports of Willis Smith, county clerk, and Mrs. Daisy McCutchen, treasurer, were approved.

The court ordered that each county commissioner shall hereafter receive for per cent of his salary supervising roads out of the road and bridge fund.

The court allowed accounts for the past month to the amount of $465.00, and the following amounts for supervising roads:

- E. T. Sparks, 10 days $50.00
- E. T. Holman, 10 days $50.00
- J.K. Lofton, 10 days $50.00
- Ben Brooks, 10 days $50.00

Each member of the court was allowed $5.00 for one day's attendance at court.

The court canvassed the returns of an election held in the Bronte Rural High School district, May 4, to determine whether or not a tax of $1.00 on each $100.00 valuation in said district shall be levied and collected for supplementing the school fund, and the result was, 102 for the tax, and 5 against the tax.

E. W. Hudman made a trip to Brady Saturday returning Sunday. Mr. Hudman reports conditions dry and unfavorable down that way.

SHORT COURSE

"Our staff members, with the cordial co-operation of the teaching department and the Experiment Stations, are busy perfecting arrangements for such laboratory and field work with milk, meats, leather, syrup, grapes, figs, pine poles, lumber, wool, mohair and what-nots. Sorghum seed are already planted, and the mill will soon be building with all of its facilities strainers and filters are already here. Tanning vats are being built, and the hides will be ready to be scrapped the first day. Best of all the new Animal Industry building will be ready soon, and here we can carry on all our meat curing work. Too, the Agricultural Engineering Course we have ever held."

LITTLE RUBEY PEARL GURLEY DIES

Ruby Pearl Gurley, little thirteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gurley of Fort Chadbourne, died Friday night at midnight, in a San Angelo hospital and burial was in the cemetery at Fort Chadbourne Saturday afternoon, following religious services at the graveside.

Rev N. W. Pitts and the writer conducted the religious services.

The little girl had been ill since before Christmas. She had suffered from the influenza, the measles, scarlet fever and pneumonia. From these several attacks her little body became devitalized and other complications affecting her heart and kidneys developed. There were no alarming symptoms however until a few days before her death. When the symptoms became alarming the little one was taken to the hospital. But her condition was such that medical aid was of no avail. Hence, when death came Friday night it was to bring relief from suffering to the little body.

Ruby Pearl was in the 6th grade of the Bronte school. It was a beautiful scene Saturday afternoon at the graveside when several little girls of Ruby Pearl's class came, each with an armful of spring-time's beautiful flowers and laid on her casket.

Many old-time friends and acquaintances of Ruby Pearl, and of her parents and of the other members of the family came and mingled their sorrow with the grief-stricken parents, the aged grandfather and other sorrowing loved ones. The little body was buried out there in a quiet place, beneath the native mesquite trees, in the boughs of which the birds will sit and warble their melodies above her grave till the Lord shall come again and call for His own.

May all who sorrow have divine comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Herron and son, from Abilene were Sunday visitors with Mr. Herron's mother, Mrs. Mack Herron, and other relatives. Mrs. Herron who has been ill for a long time is fast improving now, which is good news to all their old-time friends. Mr. Herron took time to say that he was surely going to be present at the Arkansawyers' Reunion, if nothing happened to prevent.

Floyd Bridges is counting himself as very fortunate. He had a well bored for water on his place, the old Hudson ranch, south of the river and the other day the drillers struck a large vein of pure, wholesome water. Its location is not over forty yards from where a well was sunk some years ago and only a dry hole was the result.

THE WOMAN'S PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Members of the Woman's Progressive Club were delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon, May 4, when Mrs. W. J. Gideon was hostess.

A very impressive "Mother's Day" program was rendered. Eighteen members responded to roll call with "One Attribute a Good Mother should have."

Numbers on the program included papers on "Biblical Mothers" by Mrs. B. F. Bridges and "Historical Mothers" by Mrs. L. T. Youngblood.

Mrs. Lucy Warner presided over the business session, at which time plans for future activities of the Club were discussed.

A delicious salad course was passed at the close of the program.

Mrs. Clint Duncan will be hostess to the Club, on Thursday, May eighteenth.

B. E. Modgling, W. J. Gideon and Rev. Wallace Dunson returned Wednesday from a fishing trip to the Pecos river. Thus far we have seen no fish and have heard no fish stories.

Mrs. Tom Modgling, Mrs. Maggie Mitchell and Mrs. Robert Herron are visiting relatives at Eunice, New Mexico.

"The Clay is The Thing," by the senior class, Tuesday night, May 23—don't miss it!

Remember not the Alamo—but May 28th—it's "Arkansaw."

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Whitt and children made a trip to Goldthwaite Saturday, returning Sunday night. Mr. Whitt's mother, Mrs. Emma Whitt, returned with them and will spend a time here. Mrs. Whitt is just recovering from a long spell of illness and has come with the hope that the change in climate will bring back her health and strength.

Thrills, mystery and fun when "Clay is The Thing" is presented by the senior class.

Who is "Miss Calloway?"
