by b. m. n.

Castro County voters will have an opportunity Saturday to cast ballots in a comparatively small bond election, but an election nevertheless that is very important in the future development of the county. Balloting will be on the issuance of $120,000 in county bonds for the purpose of constructing an Agri-Business Coliseum suitable for the housing of the Junior Fat Stock Show, the County Fair and the numerous other county functions that require a facility of this type. Castro County has long been numbered among the progressive counties of the Panhandle, and of course the Panhandle is one of the most, if not the most, progressive regions in the state. It is to be hoped that county voters will turn out in large numbers Saturday and put their stamp of approval on this needed facility and program which was instigated and promoted by interested civic-minded citizens from all parts of the county.

In this election, as is probably the case in any election, where taxes and public funds are involved, there is considerable confusion as to the effect that the issuance of bonds will have on the tax structure of the county. It is assumed immediately that the county would of necessity be required to increase its income to retire the bonds on maturity and that that would have to be done through increased taxes. This is a natural assumption. On the other hand however, it is possible that the county court could arrange to absorb the payments on the bonded indebtedness into its present budget, thus avoiding any increase in county taxes.

According to county officials the repayment schedule on $120,000 bonded indebtedness at 3 1/2 percent interest over a 20 year period would amount to approximately $8,250.00 annually. It is very reasonable to assume that a small annual payment of this amount could be defrayed by the natural growth of taxable property in a rapidly developing area such as Castro County. At present the county has no bonded indebtedness with the exception of Road District No. 2, and the county has the money to make the payment of the last installment on that issue.

Without the advice of council of an auditor, or someone that is qualified to advise, it is difficult indeed to determine accurately as to how financing of a bond issue of this size could be absorbed by the present county budget. But from figures selected at random at three different periods during the past year it would appear that it would be highly probable that the $8,250.00 annually could be arranged from present county income. A true picture of county finances, without a complete audit report, would be difficult indeed and as it hasn't been the policy of the county to publish a financial report any assumption that we might make here would of necessity be based on a spot check. According to information furnished by County Judge Raymond Wilson the accounts in the various county funds on the dates indicated were as follows:

In September, 1964, balances in the accounts of the four precincts were: Precinct 1, $39,537.00; Precinct 2, $16,551.02; Precinct 3, $85,588.06; Precinct 4, $66,957.34. These balances were at the close of the fiscal year.

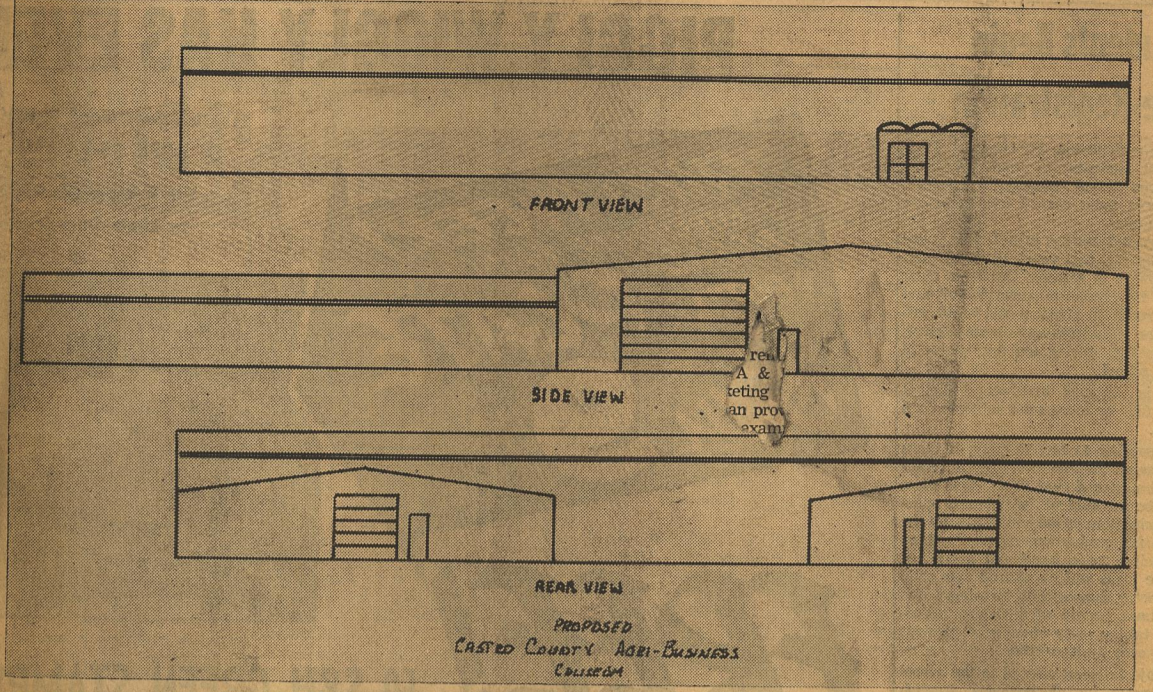

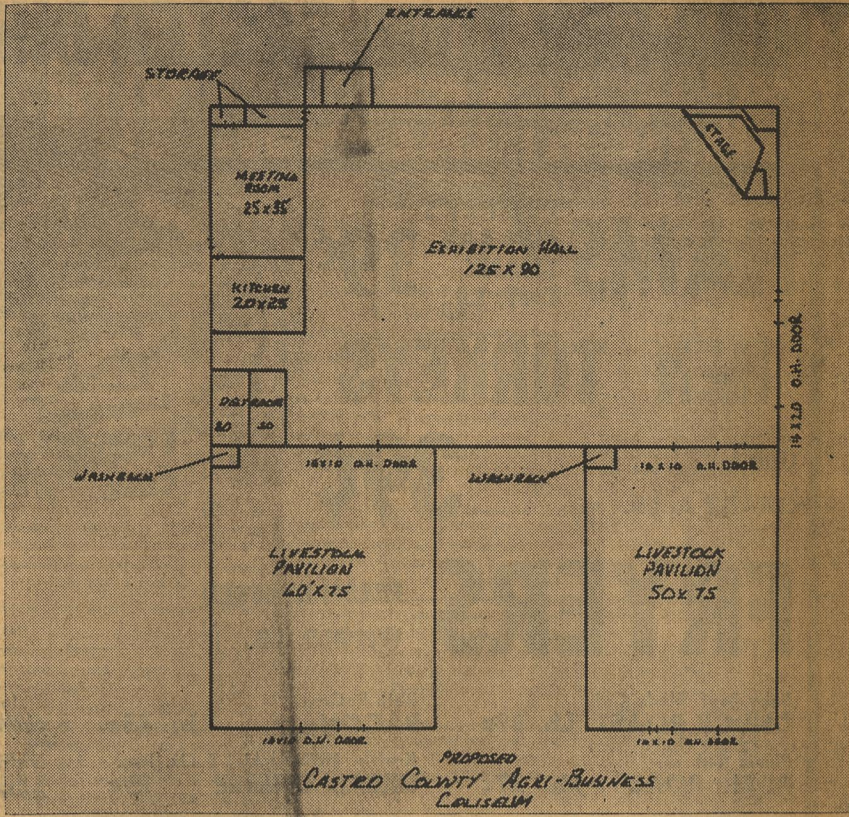

In January, 1965, balances in the accounts of the four precincts were: Precinct 1, $36,289.49; Precinct 2, $17,818.00; Precinct 3, $69,084.00; Precinct 4, $61,639.28. Balances in other county funds in January were: General Fund, $28,793.00; Officers' Salaries, $26,184.00; Courthouse and Jail, $40,600.00; Road and Bridge Fund, $11,066.31.

April, 1965, balances in the various funds were as follows: Precinct 1, $17,151.00; Precinct 2, $6,665.00; Precinct 3, $64,061.00; Precinct 4, $61,951.00; General Fund, $29,951.00; Road and Bridge Fund, $11,426.00; Courthouse and Jail, $44,469.00; Officers Salary, $24,475.00.

The above figures should partly reflect the financial condition of the county at various seasons of the year and possibly give a fair average of the various balances throughout the year. With an apparently healthy financial situation in county funds in the various departments it shouldn't be too difficult to absorb a fairly minor expenditure of $8,250.00 annually without any change in the tax structure of the county. In event the proposed bond issue receives a favorable vote it is hoped and believed that county officials would make every effort to absorb the bond payments into the present budget without the necessity of increasing taxes whatever.

All governmental subdivisions in Castro County, including the cities and school districts of Nazareth, Hart and Dimmitt, have met their responsibilities to a rapidly developing economy by providing needed facilities both in service and building categories. Neither of these communities, however, should be expected to provide a building so sorely needed as the proposed Agri-Business Coliseum, this is and should be the responsibility of the county government. Thousands of dollars are spent each year in the county in developing 4-H Club, FFA and FFA projects which are shown in obsolete metal buildings that detract from the end result of the work accomplished by the young people participating in these organizations. As an encouragement to the youth program each year county merchants and interested individuals pay a premium to the youngsters when they hold their annual livestock sale.

PUBLIC NOTICE

In an interview with County Judge Raymond E. Wilson, Paul Hilburn, Superintendent of Schools, & Kent Birdwell Tax Assessor-Collector of Castro County, the following questions were propounded concerning the upcoming bond election for construction of an Agricultural Building:

Question to Judge Wilson:

If the bond issue is voted will it be necessary to increase our taxes to pay these bonds? Answer: Yes.

Based on a 20-year repayment schedule paying interest at about 3½% how much interest will we pay?

Answer: Approximately $45,000.00.

Then our total indebtedness will be about $165,000.00, right?

Answer: Yes.

Question to Kent Birdwell:

How much will this raise our taxes?

Answer: Based on a 20-year repayment schedule we would have to raise our taxes approximately 7½%, or about $18,368.44 per year.

Question to Kent Birdwell: But we only need about $8250.00 per year to pay these bonds. Why do we have to raise our taxes $18,358.44 per year?

Answer:

Because the county is already assessing the maximum rate of 95c per $100.00 of valuation. So we will have to raise our valuation by the 7½%, thereby raising all the different taxes collected on the State and County tax rolls. This includes the State taxes, Water District taxes, Hospital District taxes, and the County Road taxes.

Question: Based on an annual payment of $18,368.44 per year for 20 years what will the total expenditure be?

Answer: $367,368.80.

Question: To Paul Hilburn, Dimmitt Superintendent of Schools: Will the raising of the County Valuation affect any other taxes paid here in our county?

Answer: Yes, one of the factors that determine the local fund assignment to the local school districts of the State is the State and County valuation. When our county valuation is increased a million dollars it increases local fund assignments approximately $6400.00 per year. Over a 20 year period this would mean an additional cost to the local school district of $128,000.00

Question: Gentlemen, based on the total estimated costs to the State and County and to the local school districts what will be the total cost of the bond issue?

Answer: $495,368.80.

Fertilize Lawns Early In Season

Applying a complete fertilizer to lawns soon after spring growth begins has many advantages, according to Neal Pratt, an extension agronomist at Texas A & M University.

Pratt says spring lawn fertilization encourages early growth and early green color, improves water-use efficiency, and increases hardiness and drought resistance because fertilizer helps the grass to develop a stronger, deeper root system.

Complete fertilizers are those containing nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium, Pratt said. Common examples are 12-12-12 and 10-10-10. The numbers represent the pounds of the nutrients in each 100 pounds.

Pratt emphasizes that fertilizer should be bought on the basis of its guaranteed analysis.

The rule-of-thumb in applying fertilizer to lawns is to use 1 1/2 to 2 lbs. of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet, according to the agronomist. With the complete fertilizer recommended for early application, the other nutrients will naturally be applied at about the same rate.

As an example, Pratt says a fifty-pound bag of 10-10-10, which would contain five pounds of each of the nutrients, would be just right for the spring application on 2,500 square feet.

The agronomist says that during summer an application of fertilizer that is high in nitrogen should be made every eight to 10 weeks.

The Bethel Home Demonstration Club met at the community building on Wednesday afternoon April 7th. Mrs. Donald Gilreath, vice-president presided in absence of the president Mrs. Murray Snyder, who was ill. Plans were made for the program to be presented when we request the Mulkey Club on April 29. Mrs. Edd McLeroy, Dimmitt, was guests.

Her subject was "Recreation". She gave points to be considered in planning such as: choose games that are appropriate to the size of the group and suitable to the location and to the ages of the players. She pointed out that leaders should be sure to know the game, should have all equipment ready and to get the attention of the players before starting the game.

Mrs. McLeroy directed the group in a number of games. Mrs. George Sides also directed a game. This was followed by a clever skit presented by Marilyn McLeroy, Susan Benson and Vicki Vaughan of Dimmitt. Mrs. McLeroy and Mrs. Joe Benson assisted the girls in preparing for the skit. Club members present were Mrs. Monte Boozer, Mrs. Hubert Edwards, Mrs. Jack Howell, Mrs. Milton Bagwell, Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Houston Lust, Mrs. J. C. If you've been sitting tight waiting for just your kind of car, with just your kind of power, at just your kind of price—wait no longer!

Chevrolet. It's a bigger, more beautiful car this year. Which is why that handsome silhouette could be mistaken for cars costing a thousand—even two thousand—dollars more.

Chevy II. No car so trim has a right to be so thrifty. But thrifty it is, with money-savers like brakes that adjust themselves and a long-lived exhaust system.

Chevelle. This one's got lively looks, spirited power, a softer ride—and remarkable room atop a highly maneuverable wheelbase. No wonder it's today's favorite mid-size car.

Corvair. Ask any '65 Corvair owner how it feels to drive a car with such easy steering, tenacious traction and responsive rear-engine power. And be ready to do lots of listening.

Hi folks, this week we will discuss the types of fires and the types of fire extinguishers to use on them. First if you have extinguishers in your home, make sure everyone is familiar with their operation. Also be sure they know what class fire to use them on, as it can be dangerous using some types of extinguishers on some classes of fires. The fire service groups fires into three classes, namely Class A, B, and C. First class A fires. These consist of paper, wood, cloth, trash etc. where quenching by water or insulating by general purpose dry chemical is effective. Water is excellent to extinguish this class of fire, because it saturates materials and prevents rekindling of the flame. Foam and dry chemical are also excellent for use on this class fire depending on the size of the fire. Second is the class B fire, burning liquids. These consist of gasoline, oils paints, cooking fats etc., where a smothering action is required to extinguish the fire. Do not use water on this class fire as water will only spread the fire and not put it out. Foam, carbon dioxide or general purpose dry chemicals are excellent extinguishers to use on this class fire.

All three types have a smothering effect. Carbon dioxide dissipates leaving no residue, therefore does not effect equipment or foodstuffs. Foam and dry chemicals will not dissipate therefore have a lasting effect in extinguishment of the fire. Third is Class C fires, electrical. This class consists of live electrical equipment such as electric motors, switches, switch boxes, appliances, live wires, etc., where a non-conducting extinguishing agent is required. Do not use water or foam on this class fire, as they are a conductor and electrical current will follow it back to the user of either. Using either can be fatal, when used on an electrical fire. General purpose dry chemical extinguishers are highly recommended for use on all three classes of fires. Remember never use water on class B or C fires. Your fire dept. has fire extinguishers for sale and we will be very happy to help you figure your needs or make recommendations. Please feel free to call on us at any time if we can be of assistance to you.

Since the last writing your fire dept. made three calls. Two were made in the city and one country call in prec. No. 3.

Class scheduled for April 15, 1965. Pumper hook ups.

Guess we better go now. Parting Words: The best prophet of the future is the past. On this spot a home used to stand, until a match got out of hand.

FOR IMPROVED POLICE TRAINING

I have long believed that a police academy similar to our present military service academies could be of tremendous benefit to the Nation by providing first-class training for police officers who, upon graduation, could take the lead in their States and local communities in the fight against crime and delinquency.

The Federal government owns property, material, and equipment in many parts of this country that would be excellent locations for such an institution; facilities that could be quickly transferred to meet the needs of such an academy. Should Amarillo Air Force Base be eventually closed, as is presently anticipated by the Defense Department, it could be one of the finest locations for such an academy and would be ideally suited not only from the standpoint of climate, available facilities, and geographic location, but also from the standpoint of the basic properly tempered with the pioneer spirit.

The President's Commission on Law Enforcement and Administration of Justice, when appointed, will be assigned to answer this question: "Is the Nation as a whole providing adequate education and training opportunities for those who administer the criminal laws?" The Commission's answer to this question may accompany a recommendation that a national police academy be established. Such an academy would pay dividends in many ways. It would enable many who enter the law enforcement field to obtain additional education, better equipping them for a career that could measurably increase their earning capacity. It would provide a source of well-trained and well-educated law enforcement officers from which the many counties, cities, and municipalities as well as the States and the Federal government could staff their law enforcement agencies. These men would be well equipped in many fields but would also be able to work in a coordinated effort with other agencies.

Since 1935, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has conducted the very excellent "FBI National Academy" here at its headquarters in Washington, graduating in the past 30 years some 4,000 police officers who attended one of the two 12-week sessions held each year. Graduates of the FBI National Academy are serving in police and sheriff's departments in the Panhandle. The purpose of the FBI academy has not been to train a large number of police officers. It has emphasized the training of experienced career men in the law enforcement arts so that they will return to their departments capable of providing better administration and leadership and in passing along, through improved training programs within the departments, some of the knowledge they have acquired. The success of the FBI National Academy is well known, as is the contribution made to better law enforcement by specialized short-term training courses conducted by the FBI throughout the country. But enrollment in the FBI National Academy is extremely limited; no more than one member of a police department may attend any 12-week session. I believe that the good work done by the FBI in its school would be vastly complemented by providing a training academy to school a large number of police officers new to the profession and whose work will be on the "beats" and in the patrol cars before they may expect promotions into administrative ranks.

The fight against crime requires trained police officers. I feel very strongly that the problems created by crime and delinquency have reached the point in this country where affirmative action must be taken to provide better training.

Choose Outdoor Plants With Care

Select plants for the outdoor living area with the same care and finesse that is used in selecting a fine piece of furniture for the interior living area.

Too often, says Everett Janne, Extension horticulturist, Texas A & M University, plant purchases are limited to impulse buying with no thought of where the plant will be used, or what its ultimate size will be. The urge to use plants that will give a quick effect will usually result in an outdoor living area filled with plants which soon outgrow their assigned space.

Over-planting is another tendency possessed by many home owners who are trying to secure a quick effect. This is fine if one has the fortitude to throw out the surplus plants as soon as they begin to crowd each other, says Janne.

But for the best effect and to insure lasting enjoyment, the homeowner should realize that a well landscaped area requires planning and time to develop. Frequently the landscaping of the home must be done on a limited budget. This can be done very easily by breaking down the development into projects extending over several years, advises the horticulturist.

Priority should be given to the establishment of the trees and lawn. Once these are established, shrubs and flower beds can be added as funds and time become available.

Before making purchases of any kind, it is best to have a basic plan in mind. A publication available

Special Seasonings Know No Season

Special seasonings for familiar foods know no season, reminds Mrs. Gwen Clayatt, Texas A & M Extension consumer marketing specialist.

These seasonings can provide year-round enjoyment. For example, when frying chicken, sprinkle the coated chicken pieces with chopped chives or onion and a little thyme and rubbed sage. Then cook as you always do.

If you are preparing pork chops for dinner, after browning sprinkle the chops with curry powder, or, if you are not a curry fan, sprinkle the browned chops with dill seed. Then add a little water, cover and cook until fork-tender.

When you have some fully cooked ham to slice and you want to serve it hot, you may want to try this method. Spread prepared mustard over the ham slices cut a fourth to three-eighths inch thick. Then sprinkle on brown sugar generously. Broil the mustard-brown sugar topped ham slices until hot and the topping bubbles.

If veal chops or steaks are on the menu, or a change you may want to marinate them in a well-seasoned French dressing over beef steaks or lamb chops before broiling. These and other special seasonings know no season, the specialist reminds.

Castro County Highest With Soil Testing

Texas farmers are going to the state's soil testing laboratories in ever-increasing numbers for answers to how much and what kinds of fertilizers to use. Castro County is leading in the state from standpoint of samples tested. The County had 1,071 tested during January and February.

Extension Soil Chemist C. D. Welch at Texas A & M University reports that 13,922 soil samples were submitted to the three Texas A & M Laboratories and those at Stephen F. Austin State College and Wharton Junior College during January and February.

The Lubbock facility received 6,175 samples for the period, a new record, Welch said. The College Station lab received 4,447 samples; the Baylor County lab at Seymour handled 429; the S. F. A. lab 1,562 and the Wharton lab 1,309 samples.

Welch listed the top six counties from the standpoint of samples tested as Castro, 1,071; Lamb 921; Hale 886; Colorado 622; Floyd 504 and Harris 459. Out-of-state samples were tested from Arizona, Colorado, Missouri, New Mexico, Nevada, Louisiana and one came from Mexico, he said. The chemist noted that only a few of the state's 254 counties, most were strictly range counties, failed to be represented in the totals.

Welch said the amount of fertilizer moving into consumer channels during the six months from July - December 1964 was 50 percent higher than for the same period in 1963. Also that for the first two months of 1965, fertilizer tonnages purchased were slightly higher than for the same months in 1964.

He said numerous factors contributed to these increases but perhaps the most significant was the realization by more farmers and ranchers that adequate fertilization is an important key to efficient production.

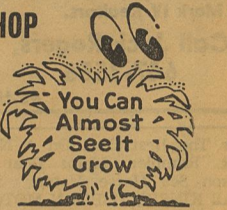

The potential for improved profits out, for fertilization to be a profitable through proper fertilization is still investment, it is necessary to carry far below that possible in most regions, he said. However, he pointed out and often improve other production practices.

County Women Attend District THDA Convention

Attending the District I Texas Home Demonstration Association meeting in the Student Center on the West Texas State University campus in Canyon on Thursday, April 8, beginning at 10 a.m. were Mrs. James Welch, County THDA Chairman, and delegate, Mrs. Rayphard Smithson, delegate, Mrs. Irvin Ott, delegate, and other home demonstration club members, Mrs. Wes Anthony, Mrs. S. R. Hutto, Mrs. Andy Behrends, Mrs. Billye Gwen Davis, Mrs. Buck Brandon, Mrs. Waymon Birchfield, Mrs. Vern Lust, and Mrs. Earl Lust, and the County Home Demonstration Agent, Rebecca Gaddis.

Presiding throughout the meeting was Mrs. A. E. Hodges, District I Director.

Dr. J. P. Cornette, President of West Texas State University, welcomed the women to the campus. In his brief talk, he made this thought-provoking statement, "People don't change, they just become more so!"

Miss Edith L. Wilson, District I Agent, introduced the extension staff. Mrs. Hodges recognized THDA Board members and visitors.

Mrs. C. R. Berkley, State THDA President, stressed the importance of setting attainable goals, for without goals, we would stand still. "Women in the Changing World" was the topic of the guest speaker, District Judge Mary Lou Robinson, 108th District, Potter County, Amarillo. She informed the women of their "deplorable" position in regard to Texas law, using actual cases as references and examples.

The workshops - recreation, 4-H, family life, citizenship, health, and safety - convened at 1:30 p.m., with at least one representative from each county attending each workshop.

At 2:30 p.m., the assembly reconvened. THDA reports were given by each county THDA chairman.

The final report of the credential committee revealed that a total of two hundred eighty-two women were present - one State Board member, one district agent, two past vice-presidents, eighteen home demonstration agents, forty-nine delegates, and two hundred eleven other home demonstration club women.

The 1966 District meeting will be held in Dallam County. The 1965 State meeting is September 22-23 in Austin. The National meeting is August 9-13 on the Purdue University campus.

Students Pass On Three Amendments

Three amendments to the Constitution of Dimmitt High School were presented to the Student Body Wednesday, April 7. They were explained by Student Body President, Steve Hutton and then voted on by all the students. After all the votes were counted, all three amendments were accepted with an overwhelming majority. These amendments were:

- (1) The name of the organization Student Senate shall be changed to Dimmitt High Student Council. This was changed because all of the surrounding schools use this name and we are associated with them in various district and state organizations of Student Councils. (238 for; 16 against)
- (2) The members of the Student Council must maintain an average of 70 or above. This was done because under our present system of grading 60 is passing. (240 for; 15 against)
- (3) Those candidates nominated from the floor, for Vice President and President, must present a petition signed by at least 25 members of the student body. This amendment was proposed so that forthwith will be given to the nomination of a person from the floor. The Student Council spends about four hours selecting two candidates for each office. More time and thought will now go into all nominations for the offices. (218 for; 37 against)

Religious Emphasis Assembly Given

Freedom in the world today was the main idea that Mr. Hugh Blaylock of the First Methodist Church conveyed to the student body Thursday, April 8, in the High School Auditorium. Mr. Blaylock also emphasized that young people today are looking for freedom.

This assembly was the first of a series of religious emphasis assemblies to be sponsored by the Student Council. The assembly was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance led by Steve Hutton and a prayer led by Don Minchew. After the prayer, Kristi Webb led the student body in some songs. Linda Schreck then introduced the Rev. Blaylock who gave us his lesson. The assembly was concluded with a prayer by Jay Nelson.

FHA Chapter Has Supper

The FHA salad supper was held at 6:00 p.m. in the high school cafeteria on Thursday April 8, 1965. Guests at the meeting were the eighth grade girls who will be joining FHA next year and the Young Homemakers.

Allan Webb, the 1965-66 president of Mikrai Adelphi, presided over the meeting. She told the purposes, the creed, the colors and what they stand for, and the motto to all of the eighth grade girls. Next she introduced Mrs. Hottel and Mrs. Snider who crowned the two girls who were Miss FHA this year. Miss FHA of the Mikrai Adelphi was Kay Bradley. The girl chosen for Miss FHA of the Megalad Adelphi was Linda McCollum. Both girls received rhinestone crowns and a gold chain.

Following the presentations, Mary Lee Stone and Cecilia Vandiver led the group in several humorous songs. Concluding the meeting Mrs. Ben Holcomb, president of the Young Homemakers, gave a very interesting talk on the purposes of the Young Homemakers and what they were doing to promote a better community and family life. She also discussed the qualifications for their Little Sister.

Before adjourning the meeting, Mary Lee Stone and Cecilia Vandiver led the girls in the song of the Future Homemakers of America. The meeting was then adjourned.

American Heritage Emphasized During April 5 Thru 10

The past week of April 5th through the 10th was a colorful week for the surrounding area. A number of American Heritage Programs were given at Wayland Baptist College.

Monday night, April 5th, Thubten Jigme Norbu, brother of the Delai Lama of Tibet, presented a film, mostly in color, which featured the only motion pictures in existence showing the actual flight of the Delai Lama from Tibet. It also included: Lhasa, the capitol; colorful processions; Tibet's festival of the New Year; the Monastery life; magnificent Himalayan scenery; Red Chinese soldiers; and costumed ritual dances; ancient religious ceremonies; the Palace of Patala; Monks and Abbots.

Several students from Junior High School and High School, Mr. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Newman, Mrs. Smith and Miss Littlepage went to Plainview Monday night and watched the film. They personally talked to Thubten Jigme Norbu. The film was very inspiring and educating. Getting acquainted with Mr. Norbu was also an experience that will never be forgotten by many of the students.

The whole week was scheduled with interesting and educating programs.

The present session of Congress is engaged in finding solutions for perplexing questions of foreign relations and internal policy as difficult as any which history has seen. Republican Senator John Tower of Texas has the additional responsibility of being a member of the minority party. Senator Tower was scheduled to speak Tuesday, but a meeting detained his speaking. I am sure his speech would have proved very interesting. Thursday, Dr. Walter Posey gave a presentation on the personality of the Rough Rider, Teddy Roosevelt. Dr. Posey is a leading historian and educator and one of the profession's most entertaining speakers and interesting individuals. Thursday night Dr. Posey spoke about "The Heroic Era in Southern Protestantism." Friday, Dr. T. A. Larson of the University of Wyoming head of the American Studies program at the University spoke. This is the pilot program of the Coe Foundation activities and is interesting to us for a number of reasons: it provides opportunities for some of our teachers, and we hope that we will soon be able to present a similar program for teachers in our own region to attend summer studies on similar scholarships. Saturday, Dr. Robert A. Brown, one of the most controversial historians of our time, spoke. He has entered into the fight against the skeptical historians who attempt to "debunk" the traditional respect with which we regard our basic document and the founding fathers. Dr. Brown discussed the origins of the Revolutionary War in the light of the Marxian concept of history as the conflict between the classes. Each day proved to be very interesting and educating.

Changing Of School Song Considered

There has been some controversy in Dimmitt High over the changing of our school song. Many feel that it should be changed since it is the same music of the Russian National Anthem. Others argue that the song has special meaning to them, and they do not think it will seem like the same Dimmitt High School which they attended in the past. Many of the exes have strong feelings against changing it, also. They feel that Dimmitt High has always been a proud school, with a great school spirit. The school song has not interfered with this reputation in the past; it will not in the future.

Here are a few of the responses we received when we asked them: "How do you feel about changing the school song?"

Danna Odom - I don't like it, it's always been that way and I don't see any use in changing.

Kathy Huckabay - It's the thought behind it that makes the difference. If you think of it as the Russian National Anthem, it should be changed. If you think of it as the Dimmitt High School song, it ought not be changed.

Poppy Byrnes - I think it should not be changed, because it means a lot to the exes when they come back to Homecoming.

Johnna Hastings - I don't think it should be changed because it is the Anthem when the Czars were in control, and it is not the anthem right now.

Pat Moran - I'm against having it changed because it's meaningful to all the exes, and if it were changed, they would feel like they had never been a part of Dimmitt High. We aren't going to change the name of the county just because it is Castro are we?

Susan Hopson - I don't want to come back after graduation and hear another school song. It won't be the same.

Gene Carson - I think it needs to be changed.

Joe Bill Butler - I think it should be changed.

Janice Baldrige - I think it should be changed, too.

Jeanetta Howell - I don't want it changed!

FHA Presents Film To Students

Tuesday the FHA presented the film, "A Desk For Billie." This film told of the child of a poverty stricken family, who was obsessed with the desire to rise above her environment. Billie belonged to a family of migrant workers. Her parents had no desire to improve either themselves or their daughters; the girl worked for every thing she could get, and received an education through her own efforts, and the help of a high school English teacher. Billie's family moved often, as the source of income was selling homemade baskets. Billie was forced to undergo the added hindrance of attending several different schools each year, and yet she graduated from high school at the head of her class in Los Angeles, California.

It is indeed strange that people like Billie can fight insurmountable odds to gain success, while those who have adequate family backgrounds and average intelligence often fail. It is a question of desire. It takes desire to attain success.

FHA Bake Sale Was Profitable

The bakers of Dimmitt's two FHA chapters brought in a new profit of $80 at their bake sale Saturday, April 10, in three of Dimmitt's supermarkets - Moore's, Taylor and Sons and Piggly Wiggly.

Among the goods sold were German chocolate cake, cherry, chess, and pecan pies, tea rings, and banana nut loaf.

This successful event brought a close to a very busy and enjoyable FHA week.

House Raising

The boys in woodworking have started on a big project. They are building a house as one of their projects. Besides the boys in the wood working class, a group of five seventh graders from the Pre-Vocational Agriculture class come over every day to help with the work. The house consists of two bedrooms, living and dining area and one full bath. The boys started on the house about two weeks ago and they hope to finish it in the last part of May. The frame of the house is built now and the boys will soon start up with the roof. The finished house will have 105 yellow pine siding and will be built according to city specifications on wiring and plumbing. All the wiring and plumbing of the house will be done by the Vocational Agriculture classes. The boys are enjoying the work very much and are gaining a variety of experience as they work on the house. Another progress report will be made as the house progresses.

Student Senate News

The Student Senate met Wednesday with Steve Hutton presiding. Letters were read about changing the school song. The first letter was from Hazel Merritt, who also attended the meeting. She was against changing it for the fact that it was the "Russian National Anthem", but she felt that it would be just in changing it if the students wanted a more inspirational song. The other letter was from Phyllis Mooney who thought the song was a beautiful piece of music and it had always meant something to her. She thought of it as a Dimmitt High School song and not a Russian Hymn. Smith will be contacted to get other information concerning the other side of the argument.

Members then volunteered various items for the Time Capsule to be presented in one month.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

school for a week. She went home school for a week. She went home and came back with a beautiful engagement ring. Marcie, did it take a whole week to get it? Congratulations Marcie!

Carol Johnson, would you please cover your hand, that big flash from that diamond is blinding us.

Boy, another TV star. Bob Bradford, a DHS junior will appear on TV April 18th on "Teen Talk" at 3 o'clock on Channel 10.

Who are they? We are privileged to have three student teachers in DHS. They are: Nancy Cleavinger and Marcia Merriman who are teaching Home Economics and Tracy Angeley who is teaching Agriculture. Mrs. Kenneth Cleveland has been a substitute teacher for Mrs. Nelson who was absent from school the past week.

Senior Girl Of Week

Danna Odom Plans To Major In History At Wayland Baptist College

This week's brown-eyed, brunette senior was born November 29, 1946, in Olddale, California.

She is quite active in sports and other activities as shown by her membership in the Dimmitt Bobbies four years, FHA four years, and Pep Club two years.

Her hobbies include swimming and reading. Since she reads a great deal, she is almost an authority on books and thinks that the best book she ever read was Exodus.

Her past time not only includes reading but also running around. She says that she likes to carry out this past time in a blue Starfire, eating Mexican food and listening to Dean Martin sing "Everybody Loves Somebody Sometime." She also seems to be the type person who would enjoy seeing "My Fair Lady" at the theater and she likes movies starring Doris Day or Cary Grant.

She has her serious moments among those of pleasure, and in a serious moment she decided to major in history at Wayland Baptist College after graduation from good 'ole DHS.

We thank you heartily, Danna, and wish you good luck in all future attempts.

Personality of the Week

Our personality of the week is an outstanding 5 ft. 5 in. sophomore girl. It is easy to find this interesting person if the songs "More" and "Orange Blossom Special" are being played because she will be in the midst of the listeners; then too, if Elvis Presley is singing, she devotes her full attention to him. To say a little more about our personality, she likes the movie, "Gone With the Wind", and her favorite actor is Sean Connery, but Ann Margaret takes the cake as a favorite actress. Our brown-haired blue-eyed sophomore likes the color pink and fried chicken. Her pet peeve is common to this part of the Panhandle: the wind. As for a car, a yellow Chevelle is the best on the market.

Yes, Miss Linda Sue Harman is our personality of the week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harman, born on November 20, 1948.

New Teachers

The vocational departments of DHS are beginning to realize that spring is here. The agriculture classes have had a student teacher, Tracy Angeley of Earth, Texas, for the past several weeks.

Mr. Angeley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Angeley. A number of his interests revolve around his agricultural background. His favorite book is Horseman - Pass By; favorite singer is Hank Williams; favorite song is "Don't be Angry." Mr. Angeley is also active in sports (football and in rodeoing and finds working livestock and dogs worth most of his spare time. His favorite movie is "Magnificent Seven"; actor is Jimmy Stewart; actress is Sophia Loren. As usual our he-man likes steak, but white is his favorite color.

At the time, Mr. Angeley is working on his B.S. degree in Agriculture. He made this comment about DHS "I think it is a fine school and I have found the students and teachers very easy to know and work with."

Mr. Angeley, the students of DHS would like to wish you the best of luck on your degree work. We hope we helped make your work worthwhile.

Elliotts Attend Classroom Teachers Annual Convention

The eyes of Texas' Teachers were focused on Dallas this past weekend when more than 1,000 Classroom Teachers from every part of Texas met for their Ninth Annual Convention. Most important subject discussed by those attending the meeting was of course, the subject of teachers' salaries.

Mrs. W. T. Elliott of the Dimmitt Classroom Teachers Association was one of several local teachers participating in the meeting. Mrs. Elliott teaches at North Grade School, Fourth Grade where Weldon A. Skinner is the principal.

It is interesting to note that Mrs. Elliott has been teaching for 3 years and is active in many community affairs in addition to being active in professional organizations such as the Classroom Teacher Association work. Teachers like Mrs. Elliott form the backbone of the Classroom Teacher Organization - ALL for improved professional standards and better education for Texas Children. These teachers are part of the "Texas Teach" Corps.

Certainly, the eyes of Texas are focused on these teachers of the TEXAS TEACH CORPS.

Mrs. Lois Rutter Speaks To Local Garden Club

Mrs. Lois Rutter, Hereford, who is a National Life Judge in Garden Clubs, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Dimmitt Garden Club Tuesday.

She said, "Without design you do not have an arrangement, only a bouquet."

Refreshments were served from an Easter tea table decorated by hostesses Mrs. George Bradford and Mrs. Charles Vandiver.

Fifteen members and four guests were present. Guests attending were Mrs. W. L. Alexander, Mrs. H. E. Hershey, Mrs. Frank Pollard and Mrs. Rutter. Also present was new member, Mrs. James Horton.

Firemen Have Hot Dog Supper

Dimmitt's volunteer firemen and their wives attended a hot dog supper at the fire station Saturday night.

Attending were Messrs and Mesdames Jack Ebeling and sons, John Hardy Woods and sons, Al Lytle, Harlin Dodd and daughters, James Slough, Karen and Cleta, Guy Waldrop, R. D. Rodgers, Joe Wall and daughters, Pete Jacks and daughters, Leon Sanders and daughters, Nig Morrison, Clarence Wood, Mike Patterson and son, Pat Patterson and Mr. Pat Harbour.

Guests for the evening were Mrs. Lena Calhoun, Connie Rodger and Kathy Griffith.

Check Dietetic Food Labels

If you are among the one out of four women or the one out of five men who are overweight, perhaps you'll want to consider some of the low-calorie foods available.

It may be worth your time, however, to be informed about what these foods actually are, says Mrs. Gwen Clayatt, Texas A & M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Some of these foods are on the dietary food counter only because they are salt-free, and not because they are any lower in calories in the dietetic form than in the regular form. Dietetic canned vegetables and tomato juice - - which generally cost about one cent more per serving - - are examples of salt-free foods.

Low-calorie dietetic foods may contain non-caloric vegetable colloids instead of oils - - as in salad dressings - - or they may be packed in water rather than in oil - - as in brine packed tuna fish. Or they may have fat extracted, as in beef slices in barbecue sauce.

It's important to read the labels on these products to know exactly what they do contain and to note their caloric value. Some show little caloric difference from their non-dietetic counterparts.

Other foods, such as salad dressing and gelatin desserts, do reduce caloric values considerably.

Another consideration is to determine if the caloric reduction is significant in relation to cost. A dietetic gelatin, for example, might cost 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents more per serving. Homemakers can make low-calorie gelatin desserts for less by combining plain gelatin and unsweetened fruit juice.

"Consumers need to decide whether the calories saved in low-calorie dietary foods are worth the extra cost," Mrs. Clayatt says.

The earliest cast iron amulets are recorded from the 6th century B. C. in Cyprus.

Rev. Frank Pollard Plans "Monologue" Sermons For Week

Mr. Frank Pollard will preach "monologue" sermons during noon-day services April 26-30 at the First Baptist Church.

These sermons are preached as though a Biblical character was telling his own experience to another person.

"This is an attempt to capture some of the 'aliveness' of God's Word," says Rev. Pollard. "These sermons are based on pure Biblical stories about people whose experiences lend us more assurance in Christ's ability to give meaning to the living of our days," he continued.

Monday, 26th. "It Happened in a Jail." The jail-keeper at Philippi relates one of the most exciting stories of the Bible as he tells how some prisoners helped him escape the bondage of sin.

Tuesday, 27th. "What the Apostle Told the Roman." History relates that Phillip, the Apostle, spent many years ministering in Hierapolis, an island Asiatic city, famous for its medicinal hot springs. In this setting, Phillip tells a retired Roman army officer of his experiences with Christ.

Wednesday, 28th. "My Testimony" by Bartimeus. "A man who has been blind all of his life tells how Christ opened the eyes of his head and his heart."

Thursday, 29th. "A Lesson in Greatness." After the reading of the first letter of the Apostle Peter in an Asiatic church, Andrew explains what his brother meant by the statement, "Be clothed with humility."

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

TO HELP SMASH THE SMUT PEDDLERS

The House of Representatives acted April 5 to protect American families from the forced intrusion into the homes of morally objectionable material. On your order, under the terms of this bill, the Postmaster General must require the sender to halt his mailing to you or to your child ren of any mail matter you believe to be obscene, indecent, or vile.

You make the determination of what is obscene, and mailers must respect your decision or face a contempt charge.

Under existing statutes aimed at smut peddlers, defining what is and what is not obscene is a question of ten tangled in courtroom controversy. On the same day the House passed the bill to help you control your own mail, the Supreme Court agreed to hear the appeal of one Ralph Ginzburg, who in December, 1963, was sentenced to five years in Federal prison and fined $28,000 upon his conviction for sending obscene material through the mails. The Federal judge who tried Ginzburg termed his publications "dirt for dirt's sake and dirt for money's sake." It remains to be seen whether the Supreme Court will sustain Ginzburg's conviction, and the crucial point at issue will be the definition of obscenity.

The bill just passed by the House makes an end run around the problem of defining obscenity. Each person who receives mail is free to apply his own definition. If he feels that unsolicited mail addressed to him - - or to his children - - is obscene, he may return such mail to the Postmaster General and require him to notify the sender - - who, if he fails to comply, can be hauled into Federal court and punished for contempt.

Enactment of this bill will go a long way to help curb the vile traffic in pornography. The mass mailers of filth will find that millions of American parents have suddenly come into the possession of a means to curtail their operations. Its enactment will be one more blow aimed at what some have called the "pornography industry" - - a business web "earning" its unscrupulous practitioners millions, perhaps billions, of dollars each year. Last year, according to Post Office Department estimates, more than a million American school children were sent material soliciting their purchase of smut disguised as "art," or "literature," or "culture," or "education."

Ginzburg's publications, for which he was convicted in Philadelphia, were being sent to teenage children. When this came to my attention I immediately embarked upon a course to help put a stop to this entire venture. The offensive magazine was Eros Magazine, Inc. It was only after a heated exchange of correspondence that I was able to find out that this corporation - - was nothing more than a protective front. Had been incorporated by Ginzburg, his wife Susan, and Mrs. Celia Abelson. All of the stock was owned by Ginzburg. In his own words, he wrote, "I am the only stockholder in Eros Magazine and the Board of Directors consists of myself, my wife Susan and Mrs. Celia Abelson." The people of

About Dimmitt . . .

The premium at the recent Fat Stock Show sale amounted, in the aggregate, to $16,960.77 or twice the amount of the annual payment that is proposed to supply adequate housing facilities for this, and other county wide functions.

Interested citizens of the county are sponsoring an advertisement in this issue of the News, appearing on page 10, setting forth figures supplied by county and school officials and designed to give the effect of the bond issue on the county tax structure.

The figures are a result of computation based on a million dollar increase in county property valuation for tax purposes. The valuation increase, if necessary, would seem to be inflated as it would produce an additional $9,500 per year at the 55 cent county tax rate while we are told that $8,250.00 is all that would be needed to meet the bond installments. Money derived from other tax levies would remain in county funds with the exception of the state and water district taxes.

Castro County operates under the same statutes as does other counties, and just a minimum of inquiry will reveal that other progressive counties throughout the state are busily engaged in the business of furnishing need facilities for county functions. This is another opportunity for our county to live up to its responsibility in providing a much needed facility.

Smithsons Have Son
Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Smithson, former residents of Dimmitt, are the proud parents of a baby boy born March 25 in Spiegel Hospital, Garland.

The boy weighed 9 lbs. and 3 ozs.

This country can draw their own conclusions as to why these peddlers of filth think they need some kind of semi-false front behind which to hide. It might be well to remember that their first defense is always, "My Constitutional rights of freedom of speech and freedom of the press."

It has been my opinion for many years that the entire procedure is nothing more than a sinister attempt to create legal entanglements that will defeat the very purpose of the laws and the Constitution behind which they are trying to hide. The Communists have been using this method for a long time - for example, their constant pleas of the Fifth Amendment.

The time has come in this country to recognize the fact that words can be as offensive as physical blows. The written word can be more offensive many times than the spoken word, and much more widespread. It is time to stop begging the question and to face the fact that obscenity, filth, and pornography, whether spoken, written, portrayed on the screens of movie houses, or shown on television, can produce nothing more than an immorality and corruption of morals than can and will destroy this nation as surely as Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. Let us hope the Supreme Court meets this challenge.

The Agri-Business Coliseum would cost a total of $170,280 at end of 20 years according to figures released by Kent Birdwell, County Tax collector.

The bonds voted would be $120,000 and interest for 20 years at 4 percent would be $50,280 according to Birdwell. The county would have to make a payment of approximately $8,510 per year to take care of the coliseum, indebtedness says Birdwell.

In the main area, there is a small meeting room proposed with dimension 25 ft. by 35 ft. The kitchen will be 20 ft. by 25 ft. There will be overhead storage above these two areas. Rest room facilities will be provided in the coliseum.

A total of 21,750 square feet have been planned in the tentative proposal of an all-metal building with concrete floor, 9 1/2 ft. steel walls and insulated throughout. The building will be heated with five overhead heaters and two panel rays. The final building plans if the bond issue passes will rest with the commissioners court.

Hospital Auxiliary

New Officers Installed

Plains Hospital Auxiliary met Saturday morning for installation of new officers. Mrs. (Dr.) Helen Braafladt installed the officers. Assisting the doctor was her nurse, Mrs. Virginia Gilbreath.

"Shots For All" was the theme of the installation.

Dr. Braafladt told the group "You are most fortunate to get me for your installation services today. I have no doubt my name will go down in history along with Salk, Flemming, Florey, etc. as the discoverer of the new 'wonder drug' Amdriacillin. New officers in the Women's Hospital Auxiliary will find this drug indispensable."

Nurse Gilbreath administered the shots by pinning on a white carnation corsage decorated with a medicine syringe.

The historian, Lena Mae Cooper, received following shot. Dr. Braafladt said, "Your job has to do with the scrapbook, clippings, glue. . . This shot contains no glucose but it relieves hysteria when after gluing clippings in the scrapbook you find you have inadvertently glued in your birth certificate showing your right age."

Publicity chairman, Ruby Wood's shot included "This shot contains a filter so you may sift out the sediment and report who said it and what it meant! It also has a sustained release factor which will prompt you at the correct intervals to get newspaper notices in on time."

The treasurer, Helen McLean, received medicine in a shot which allows her to see double when needed.

Texas Farmers Receive 247 Loans In Poverty Program

Mr. L. J. Cappelman, State Director of the Farmers Home Administration, announced that 247 loans to individual families have been made in Texas under the provisions of the Economic Opportunities Act of 1964, which is one of the powerful weapons of the United States Department of Agriculture being used in President Johnson's all-out war on Poverty Program.

These loans were made to individual farmers and rural residents in most sections of Texas. A farm family is a family who is operating a farm they own or lease, and is producing at least a portion of their subsistence from crops or livestock. A rural resident is classified as one living in a town of not more than 2,500 population.

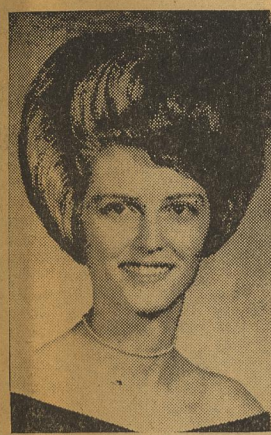

Economic Opportunity Loan to farmers may be made to improve their farming operations; to buy more land, livestock, machinery and equipment; construct needed farm buildings; and to pay annual operating expenses for feed, seed, and fertilizer. These loans may be obtained by farm and rural families to finance rural-based, but non-agricultural enterprises. Funds may be used to purchase land, construct buildings, buy and install equipment and pay normal operating expenses of a variety of non-agricultural enterprises such as a farm machinery repair shop, TV and radio repair shop; ladders; spraying equipment and tools to be used by painters and carpenters; blacksmith shop; septic tank and sewage disposal system servicing; custom and wood cutting equipment; portable sheep and goat shearing equipment; etc.

Economic Opportunity Loans are for the purpose of helping low-income rural families raise their income level. Rural families who need a small amount of capital to improve their incomes may borrow up to $2,500 for 15 years at 4% percent interest. These loans are secured by a promissory note by the borrower and a loan agreement scheduled in accordance with his ability to repay.

Families and single individuals with incomes which are too low to cover basic needs, and who, with the assistance of the Farmers Home Administration county supervisor, are successful in developing a plan of operation which will provide a reasonable prospect of increasing their earnings through a small amount of credit from a farming operation or other non-agricultural enterprise, and who are unable to obtain adequate credit on reasonable terms elsewhere are eligible to receive the loans.

Mr. Cappelman also advised that Economic Opportunity Loans may be made to finance processing, marketing, purchasing and service type cooperatives which directly benefit low-income families living in rural areas. These loans may be scheduled for repayment over periods up to 30 years at an interest rate of 4% percent. The cooperative must pledge as security for the loan a property lien and pledge of revenue.

Some examples of cooperatives which might receive a loan are those packing, selling and shipping products grown on members' farms; marketing items constructed in home workshops of members, such as handicraft items; processing farm products; providing custom farm work for members; and wholesale buying of essential farm operating items such as machinery, seed, and fertilizer. These loans may be made to establish or newly formed cooperative associations made up of a membership two-thirds of whom are low-income rural families, and serving predominantly families in this group.

Milady Garden Club Studies Attractive Table Decorations

"Enhance your family meals with plate garnishes and table decoration," Marty Benton told Milady Garden Club members Monday in their regular meeting.

"Create a setting suitable to the occasion to add cheerfulness to your meals," the speaker said.

She continued, "Simple garnishes as mint, parsley, lemon wedges, olives and mushrooms add zest to a hurried meal."

"Melon balls, celery fans, fruit flowers, radish roses, dumbbells (stuffed olives on tips of slim celery sticks), carrot curls and frosted grapes are special touches to company meals."

Bobbie Bruegel explained displays of table arrangements to the Club members. She said, "Keep your table silver simple in design so that decorations are more versatile."

She continued, "If you are tired of your dining room decoration try dyeing your table cloth a different color though still in keeping with hues of your china."

"Try a simple yet bright flower arrangement on your table," Mrs. Bruegel declared. "This adds personality to your dining area and also charm and atmosphere during your meal." She added, "Be sure and keep the arrangement low enough for conversation across the table."

Other comments made by Mrs. Bruegel included, "For a very interesting meal, serve each course of the meal in a different colored pottery. Then reflect each color of the pottery in your table arrangement. Add interest to your meals by having interchanging formal decor and simple decor."

Bernice Dutton made several arrangements suitable for table decor. The effects of style and color with china and table settings.

Ice cream, spiced pineapple chunks and nuts were served from a lace cloth with a pink background to the club members. Centerpiece was of blooming peach and plum branches on a base of pink egg nest and colored eggs.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texans: Winds and serious drought in recent weeks have prompted talk about a repetition of the disastrous drought of the 1930's. The need for continuation of the Great Plains Conservation Program is even more evident today than it was when the program was begun.

Because of the necessity for sound conservation programs, I have constantly and fervently opposed any cut-back in conservation which might lead us back to the Dust Bowl days, when tragedy fell upon land and people. The benefits of these voluntary cost-shared conservation contracts between landowners and the government are field-proven, and they certainly should not be reduced.

This is a program that goes to the heart of rural re-development, of curing rural poverty, in addition to its preservation of land. By developing a complete farm conservation plan, by converting cropland to grass to keep the soil in place, and by eliminating and controlling moisture consuming moisture consuming brush, farmers and ranchers have benefited through protected resources and a new economic stability for their land. As our Texas Plains are besieged by another year of drought and wind, the wisdom of scrupulously observed soil conservation practices is again being illustrated. Those who have benefited under the Great Plains Conservation Program have done so at a nominal cost of $2.03 per acre — a small price to pay for the retention of productive land and the avoidance of hardship caused by diminishing topsoil.

Those who have returned to the old practice of cultivating every available acre of land, after their conservation contract has run out, are now realizing the great hazards that are run when sound conservation policies are not adhered to.

If any change is to be made in our conservation programs, they should be expanded, as the value of conservation is well known, and the proposed cutbacks would be a detriment to our lands.

Jaycee Jake Says

Well, hello again! Glad to be back with you after a long absence. Things are really humming in the Jaycees. Plans are being made for the coming year and it sounds like a busy one. The word has been "Go, Go, Go" and that's just what the Jaycees are doing.

The board of directors with the exception of Bill Henderson attended a recent work forum in Friona. Bill Henderson, Gary Hufhines and Jaycee-Elite Yvonne Hufhines attended a work forum in Lubbock Sunday.

The board of directors and member Pete Wright met Thursday night to set up plans and procedures for the year.

The Jaycees plan to represent Dimmitt with a good delegation at the State Convention to be held April 22-24 in El Paso, aycees and Jaycee-Elites attending are Messers and Mesdames Jimmy Presley, Robert Barton, Rayphard Smithson and Pete Wright.

You think that is enough activity to crowd into busy schedules? These Jaycees have planned an annual Easter Egg Hunt, Sunday at the city park.

Eggs will be hidden for children from one to twelve. Three age groups will be hunting eggs in different areas of the park. The 1-3 year olds will have an area, the 4-7 year olds will have a special place and the 8-12 year olds will have a section. Now I've never seen a Jaycee that couldn't hide Easter eggs as good as the Easter Bunny. So bring the kiddies out to the park at 3 p.m. Sunday for a big hunt. Prize eggs will be wrapped in money and hidden throughout the three sections.

One final note to be said. The baseball park is cleaned up, watered down and ready for the first ball games of the season. This is another annual project of the Dimmitt Jaycees.

It sure seems good to be talking with you again, I'm going to try and keep the line hot if I can keep in step with these going Jaycees.
