Third Annual Arkansawers' Reunion Next Sunday

10,000 People Expected at Third Annual Arkansawers' Gathering

Reports for Hundreds of Miles Indicate Record-Breaking Attendance at This Year's Meet. Program and Details are Completed.

"Big oaks from little acorns grow!" And the Arkansawers are impressed with the absolute truth of the above.

Only three short years ago the Arkansawers who have been behind the organization of those from that state, who promote the Arkansawers' Reunion, had their first annual gathering—it was on a modest scale. But it was pectations, both in the program that continued from start to close, with increasing interest and to the supreme delight of the large numbers that thronged the reunion grounds throughout the day. It is estimated that more than 5,000 people were in attendance.

The program was such in its nature that those directing the affairs of the reunion feel that organization was made permanent and it was decided to make the reunion an annual affair.

The second annual reunion held last year, eclipsed all ex-

Sunday Chautauqua. And that

THANKS TO ALL

The Enterprise in behalf of the Arkansawers extends this word of appreciation and thanks in advance to all who are cooperating so splendidly to make the Third Annual Reunion what it promises to be—one of the most elaborate and tastily varied and continued-pleasing programs ever offered in the West.

Especially to Mesdames C. C. Holder and E. A. Hankins for their cooperation in arranging the state songs of both Arkansas and Texas, the Winters quartette, the Cow Boy Band, Dr. Sandefer, in the great address, all who know him, know he will bring on the topic he will discuss: The Place of the Home in Our American Life, and to all entertainers, both the little ones and the older ones, who are cooperating, to bring a program that will leave only golden memories with all who attend. Likewise, the program committee for their untiring efforts in arranging the program, to those who aid in anyway inswinging things, into shape for the big day—to each and all, in behalf of the Arkansawers, we say "thank you."

means that the program last year was rendered by artists in their several features of entertainment. Hence the humorous and the comic were interspersed, but not a thing that was low or the least suggestive of the wrong and hurtful things. The leaders in the organization deeply believe that such a day and such an occasion and such a program as that of the Arkansawers' Reunion, West-Texas-wide in its scope, is one of the very best days that can come to all the people. While the occasion is called the Arkansawers' Reunion, yet in reality it is expected that everybody who chooses to do so may come and all are invited to come. So, the Arkansawers state that the organization is made up of native born Arkansans, those who ever resided in Arkansas, the descendants of Arkansans, and the friends of Arkansans.

ARKANSAWERS' REUNION PROGRAM

Third Annual Arkansawers' Reunion, at the Reunion Grounds, at Oak Creek, Sunday, May 27, 1934.

MORNING

- 10:00 America, everybody singing, led by Mord Tucker, Winters.
- 10:05 Invocation.

- 11:20 Address: The place of the Home in our American Life, Dr. J. D. Sandefer, Abilene.

NOON

12:00 Lunch.

A table arranged by families designated will be provided to serve the guests of honor. Others will arrange their lunches by families, or as they prefer. But, be certain of this: unless you are a guest of honor, or invited by some of your friends to lunch with them, you had better bring your lunch. The attendance has become too large for a general picnic spread—hence, the above arrangements. Let everybody take notice and be governed accordingly.

AFTERNOON

- 1:30 Vocal rendition, Miss Beryle Rutherford.
- 1:35 "We're Chums You See", Master Kenneth St. Clair, Forth Worth.
- 1:40 Reading, "Come to Texas", little Miss Frankie Beth Strohm, Robert Lee.
- 1:45 Program by the Brock Children, Bronte.
- 1:50 Original Poem: "Down in Arkansas," Mrs. J. L. Loyd, Norton. (It is reported that this lady attended the Arkansawers' Reunion last year, and she heard so many wonderful stories about the "Old Bear State," her imagination became highly inflamed and the muse of poetry moved her to cast the verses.)
- 2:00 Song: The Arkansas Traveler, Mrs. C. C. Holder.
- 2:05 Reading, Mrs. George Thomas, Bronte. (This lady is a Granddaughter of Arkansas.)
- 2:10 Vocal Number, Winters Quartette.

- 2:20 Sacred Concert, The Cow Boy Band.
- 3:20 Some "Arkansas Sass" and "the future of our Reunion," President J. D. Sandefer.

- 3:50 "I'm One uv em," led by Hon. W. D. Holcombe of San Angelo, with addresses, not exceeding five minutes each, by the following: Dr. Barton, San Angelo; Hon. W. D. Jones, San Angelo; Prof. B. M. Gramling, Robert Lee; Prof. E. A. Hankins, Bronte; Hon. Frank Van Horn, Christoval; Hon. W. H. Jobe, Sweetwater.
- 4:15 "Arkansaw Traveler," "Uncle White" Turner, Norton, and his "String Band".

- 4:25 Bouquet of flowers to the oldest and the youngest native born Arkansan present. (Mrs. W. L. Hayley of Norton who has always kindly supplied the flowers from her lovely flower garden for this beautiful scene, has graciously consented to do so again.)
- 4:30 Vocal Number, Winters Quartette.
- 4:35 What I think of "the Herd" of "Arkansaw Strays" in "the Texas Corral." John Hendrix, Sweetwater; L. T. Youngblood, Bronte; Robert Knierim, Bronte; Frank Dickey, Ballinger, and H. O. Whitt, Bronte. Speeches not to exceed five minutes each.
- 4:55 "The Last Word," by everybody who desires to speak.
- 5:00 Doxology and Benediction.

The program is only tentative—subject to change and corrections. There are others the committee desired, but arrangements are not yet perfected.

Come without fail—in your happiest mood and without your "gruches," and lets have another day together like last year—a day of pure and wholesome and refining entertainment by the above capable entertainers, under proper and wholesome and happy environments.

Mrs. W. W. Mitchell,
G. A. Best,
H. Baldwin,
Committee.

NO COLD DRINK STAND THIS YEAR

Due to the fact that the Arkansawers' Reunion is held on Sunday, and the further fact that those who promote the reunion are all evangelical Christians and hence believe in the Christian Sabbath, nothing is desired on the grounds that will divert our annual gathering from the above ideals. Hence there will be no cold drink stands on the grounds, under the sanction or approval of the leaders of the reunion. There will be an abundance of pure, wholesome ice water on the grounds, absolutely free.

Committee

Hence that includes anybody and everybody who chooses to attend.

The program this year is "rich as cream." Read the program (Continued on page two).

CARL RUNGE OF MASON FOR CONGRESS

The name of Carl Runge of Mason, former District Judge of the 33rd. Judicial District, will be found in the announcement column of this paper as a candidate for Congress. Judge Runge is 42 years of age, is well and favorably known throughout the District and other portions of the state, being a native of Mason county and a member of a pioneer family which has been a resident of the District for eighty years. He is a grandson of Dr. William Runge who settled in Kendall county in 1854 and a son of Judge Rudolph Runge who as a youth in 1867 helped to erect the first saw mill on the Concho river which sawed the timbers preparatory to the construction of Fort Concho—now San Angelo; and a son of Mrs. Theresa Runge nee Marschall of Gillespie county. He married a daughter of Thomas Murray, pioneer ranchman of Mason County, and a sister of A. T. Murray who was murdered in 1929 while Sheriff of Mason county. He is the father of two sons aged ten and twelve.

Ranchmen, Farmers and Business Men Requested Him to Run

A petition bearing the signatures of 223 McCulloch County ranchmen, farmers and business men was presented Judge Runge requesting him to make the race for Congress. McCulloch County is not in the 33rd. Judicial District where he was Judge. The petition set forth that Judge Runge "has always been closely identified with the livestock farming and business interest of this section and has an adequate and sympathetic understanding of the legislative and economic needs of this District. He has been an outstanding civic leader in the development of this section and we recommend him as an honest, capable and efficient representative to the people of the 21st Congressional District." After receiving the above petition and numerous requests and assurances of support from all over the District, Judge Runge decided to become a candidate for Congress. Thereafter he received petitions (Continued on page eight) from the Counties where he served as District Judge bearing the signatures of about two thousand persons endorsing him for Congress.

Not a Professional Politician

This is his first race. He has never before run for public office, but twice the voters of Mason county wrote his name on the ticket for County Attorney and he held the office for two terms. Shortly thereafter upon the death of Judge McLean, he was appointed District Judge of the 33rd Judicial District and although apparently assured that he would have no opposition he was not a candidate to succeed himself.

Successful Record as Judge

During the time that he was District Judge he tried several cases that attracted state-wide attention, among them the Ferguson suit against the State Highway Department tried at Austin where he was sent to sit for Judge Moore who was sick. The decision in this case, like most others tried before him was affirmed by the higher Courts. Because of the correctness of his decisions and the dispatch with which he transacted business, he kept court costs at a minimum and saved the taxpayers money.

Educated in Texas

He is a graduate of Mason High School and attended the University of Texas from 1909 to 1912 and from 1913 to 1915, graduating from the academic and law department of the University of Texas and receiving both the B. A. and LL. B. degrees. While at the University of Texas, he helped defray his expenses by working in the Co-op Book store, doing student assistant work in the Academic Department and being a Quiz Master in the Law Department. He also played football and track teams.

Also Taught School

At the age of sixteen he taught a country school in Mason county and five years later taught in Seguin.

Services as Lawyer and Citizen

He was admitted to the bar in 1915 and a member of the State Bar Association and is licensed to practice before all the Courts of Texas, the United States Supreme Court, Inter State Commerce Commission and several other Departments and Bureaus of the federal Government. He organized the Mason National Farm Loan Association so that farmers and ranchmen could secure loans from the Federal Land Bank and continued to practice law in Mason County until 1917 when he enlisted in the Signal Corps and became an instructor in the Air Service. After the War he engaged in the practice of law in Mason in 1919.

As County Attorney he helped prosecute numerous cattle, goat and sheep theft cases. He has always been a booster for good roads and as Secretary of the Puget Sound to Gulf Highway Association he helped secure the designation of State Highway No. 9, Federal 385. As Director of the Gulf & West Texas Railroad Company, he represented San Angelo, Brady, Mason, Fredericksburg and San Antonio before the Inter State Commerce Commission at Washington. With Elgin O. Kothman, the owner of the Premier Ranch and producer of registered Hereford cattle, he is the builder and owner of the Fort Mason Hotel a modern 54 room fire-proof structure in the town of Mason.

He was chairman of the Mason County Relief work until he announced for Congress and with his assistants rendered splendid service in behalf of the unemployed of Mason County. He is a past President of the Mason Chamber of Commerce and the School Board. He is a member of Fort Mason Post of the American Legion.

Readily Accessible

Because of his residence in the central part of the district he is most readily accessible to all of the citizens of the District. Besides knowing the needs of the district from actual experience and education, he has the ability and moral courage to properly represent the same.

Platform

Judge Runge said: "I believe in proper respect for duly constituted authority and observance of the principles laid down in our Constitution, a common sense but rigid enforcement of the law and a closer cooperation between the law enforcement agencies of the State and Federal Government so that lawlessness may be suppressed. The great livestock and farming industries and kindred interests of this district should be represented in Congress by a man who from experience and training understands their needs. I have no extended platform and no promises to make except that in the event of my election, I will attend strictly to the duties of a Congressman from this district and will try to take care of the problems of the district as they arise. "We are living in an extreme abnormal time and such sudden and radical departures from the recognized fundamentals are taking place that no sincere man can advocate a program with any hope of fulfillment other than as above set forth."

This is good news to their many friends at both Blackwell and Bronte.

PILL ROLLERS SMASH THE HASHERS, HARD

About a week ago The Bronte Enterprise had an article advertising for competition for the Hashers. From all indications etc., this ad was put in the paper by the Hashers manager, Mr. D. K. Glenn. It seems that the pill rollers had been playing around to let the hashers get in the lead. So they decided to go to work and play ball. Since then the Hashers have not won a ball game. The pill rollers have taken four games in succession, making the count stand five wins for both sides.

I passed by the City Cafe and I found Mr. D. K. Glenn eating Poached eggs, which was the only thing he could keep on his stomach, he was so sick and blue..

CLUB SOCIAL

The Two Table Bridge Club entertained their guests with a picnic supper at Wiygle Hole Wednesday evening. Games and swimming provided the diversion for the group.

A business session was held for the purpose of selecting a reporter. Plans were made to meet once a week. This includes two regular meetings a month and two socials which will occur alternately. The name for the club will be selected at the next meeting.

The members and their guests included Earl Eubanks, Susie Tannehill, Gwendolynne Higginbotham, Pauline Glenn, Lois Lambert, Needa Clark, Ralph Petty, J. Robert Knierim, James Wallace Clift, Curtis Smith, D. K. Glenn, T. F. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Hayley, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonald Jr.

WEST TEXAS RODEO A BIG PROGRAM

C. N. Baker, manager of the West Texas Rodeo, states to The Enterprise that a program that will eclipse anything the West Texas Rodeo has ever been able to stage, and rarely equaled anywhere, is being rapidly arranged for Bronte's big West Texas Show which is set for June 28, 29, 30.

The star rodeo performers of all the country, both men and women, are being booked for this big event.

And the prizes and purses already totaling $750, will mount much higher, it is thought, by the time of the show.

Mr. Baker has already given the event wide publicity, but he expects to advertise it much more thoroughly before time for the big event.

Mr. Baker plans to make it the biggest bull-bellowing, horse-snorting event ever "pulled off" in these parts.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hudman returned Friday night from a visit with Mrs. Hudman's sister, Miss Sadie B. Odom, at Dallas. Miss Odom is in training at a hospital, as a trained nurse. Miss Odom passed all her preliminary examinations which admits her to take the regular and full course as a nurse. Mr. and Mrs. Hudman report a delightful trip.

Exit, sweet girl graduate. Enter, June bride. Thus, the scenes on the great stage continually are changing.

Yes, Clyde and Bonnie are no more—but, the Arkansawyers are here yet. However, they may not survive the ordeal of the withering fire of the scathing tongues of H. O. Whitt and his cohorts, Sunday—from reports we have from reliable sources.

Of course, no one will condone the wrongs of Clyde Barrow and his female consort in the crimes they committed in their outlaw careers. But, they are paragons of moral excellence with the traitor that betrayed them into the hands of the law—no course of human conduct is more infamous and less excusable than that of a traitor. To have the confidence of one and then willfully for selfish ends betray that trust, is beyond the limits of all honor, and one who is thus guilty surely can only live to despise and distrust even himself.

That name "Witt," surely is misspelled—it should be "wit." A "wit," as we understand it, is one who provokes laughter from the passing throngs by his antics. Evidently that is the big thing that the gubernatorial candidate in question is doing. In the days when it began to dawn that it was not popular to be a prohibitionist and that legal liquor was going to return the candidate in question "summersaulted" and stated that he had been a pro for forty years, or to that effect, but was thoroughly convinced now that he was wrong in his theory. And, his latest declaration was that he favors repeal of the state prohibition amendment. Well, any man who has reached the age of forty years, then, declares that he has studied and advocated a question affecting public morals for forty years, and now is convinced that the things for which he had contended for a life time are wrong—it is not a safe thing for the public good to elect such a man to such position of power and authority as that of governor. A man with no more stability of thought and purpose might not be dependable in an emergency should such an hour come. It is far better for a man to "stay with his guns" and go down in defeat than to forsake his cherished principles of a life time simply for "a mess of political pottage." Hence, it seems it is evident to all thoughtful people that Mr. "Witt" is a "wit."

ARKANSAWERS' REUNION

(Continued from page one) elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise and you will see that it is shot through and through with the wholesome and uplifting, yet at the same time, there is that which will make you both laugh and cry.

The reunion grounds at Oak Creek are unexcelled as a place for such a gathering. It is the bend of Oak Creek and the great pecan trees intertwine their branches thus making a spot of solid shade, with just enough sand to prevent the dust. Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of the reunion, attended last year for his first time. Upon reaching the grounds he remarked that even the grounds reminded him of "Arkansaw"—that it reminded him of a bend in Bear creek, near "Nubin Ridge," his boyhood home.

It had been hoped and planned through the year that Governor J. M. Futrell, Governor of Arkansas, would be with the Arkansawyers this year. But, his minute matters involving the governor's duties prevented his coming. Only last Sunday he wired canceling his promise to be present. This, of course, is deeply regretted. It is hoped yet that at a future reunion Governor Futrell may be able to attend. The Arkansawyers feel themselves most fortunate in having available Dr. J. D. Sandefer. For, there is not a platform speaker on the American continent who excels Dr. Sandefer. And with the great and timely theme he has, it is felt that people should come from afar and hear this great man on this great theme—gather up your children and all the other parents and children of your community that you possibly can and be present at 11 o'clock and hear this great address.

Hence, the "Arkansawyers" throw wide open their doors next Sunday and bid one and all, even from afar, to come and enjoy the day's fine program and the happy fellowship with them. Oak Creek Community cannot be excelled. So, they also join in the invitation to everybody. The local citizens of the community are meeting Thursday, and thoroughly cleaning the grounds and getting ready for

Penrose B. Metcalfe

CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR FROM THE 25TH. DIST.

PROF. AND MRS HANKINS CLOSE SCHOOL WORK

Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Hankins closed their school work with the Bronte school, last night, as the commencement exercises of the graduating class were held.

Prof. and Mrs. Hankins have been with the Bronte school for two years—two of the most stressful and difficult years, perhaps, in the entire history of the school. The stressful conditions were brought about by the depression. Often they and the other members of the faculty taught without their pay, or at least they had to wait for their pay.

Prof. and Mrs. Hankins taught here many years ago—hence they had many friends among the old-time citizens of the town and community. Likewise they have made many new friends during their sojourn here these two years. Prof. and Mrs. Hankins have almost lived at the school house during the school months.

There are not many teachers in Texas more fully panoplied for teaching, far as preparation for their work is concerned, in the matter of thorough mental attainments. The writer happens to know that Prof. and Mrs. Hankins hold five diplomas each from schools of recognized merit. Both hold an M. A. degree—hence, indeed, it is not often that teachers so fully equipped for their work are found in a school the size of the Bronte school.

The many friends of Prof. and Mrs. Hankins, one of whom the writer is, regret to give up Prof. and Mrs. Hankins. And, as they go away, they can do so, with the assurance that they are enshrined in the hearts of their friends because of their noble, gentle, unselfish lives.

Blessings attend you always, friends of ours, wherever you go.

MRS. R. S. MOORE BURIED HERE

Mrs. R. S. Moore of Snyder, died Sunday afternoon, in a Ballinger hospital, and the body was buried in Fairview cemetery, Monday afternoon, following religious services at the Bronte Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Wallace N. Dunson, assisted by Rev. Lewis Stuckey.

Deceased is survived by her husband and three sons and seven sisters, two of whom are Mesdames Will Mackey and J. Black.

Deceased was a woman of devout and beautiful character, having been a member of the Methodist church from her girlhood.

The Enterprise extends sympathy to all who sorrow.

The pill rollers and hashers, Bronte's two "crack" ball teams, played the Robert Lee Locals, Monday afternoon, in a winning game of 12 to one.

Mrs. Alice Barnett from Jackson, Tennessee, sister of I. E. Davis, is visiting Mr. Davis and family. Mrs. Barnett thinks the climate here is wonderful.

Miss Louise Gideon returned home Saturday afternoon, from Ozona. Miss Gideon attended the Ozona High school this year which is one of the best high schools of all the country. Miss Gideon took a business course. In her final examination she made a wonderful record in dictation. She took seven words a second for five minutes, and made one hundred per cent in correctness.

FARM DEBT ADJUSTMENT WORK IN TEXAS

There is now a new hope for thousands of farmers who, burdened heavily with debt, live constantly in fear of foreclosure and dispossession of their farm homes and life savings.

Governors of more than two thirds of the states have taken steps to further farm debt adjustment work. This work is directed at bringing about voluntary debt settlement, either by composition and scale-down of all indebtedness to a point where it can be handled as a new loan, or by extension agreement that will permit worthy debtors to work out their financial difficulties.

At the request of Mr. Henry Morganthau, Jr., former Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, the Governor of this state named a State Committee, who assisted him in selecting the County Committees to carry on this great work.

Although the Farm Credit Administration is advising with the Governor in this effort, it is not the work of the Federal Government. It is primarily a responsibility to be shouldered by leaders in each community at the request of the Governor.

The local committees are selected to represent both creditor and debtor, and every effort was made to choose members who will deal fairly with both groups. They will not help the farmer who has knowingly dealt unfairly with his creditors, or who has abandoned his property and has not provided for its proper care.

No greater responsibility and no greater test of true patriotism and good citizenship has ever been put to these men by our State and Nation, and they should receive the support of every agency available in the task of restoring our farm and ranch homes to a profitable and going basis with the aid of the Government agencies at their command.

In the presence of this impartial committee the debtor tells his problems, and the creditors list their claims, and all discuss in a private hearing what might be done. Frequently merely getting the parties together is sufficient to bring about a settlement. Creditors, as a rule, would prefer to have their debtor retain possession of their farm, if reasonable settlement can be reached where he makes an equitable distribution to his creditors of the income he can pay on his indebtedness.

If the farmer has made an honest effort to meet his debts, if he is a good manager and farmer, and if his inability to pay in full has been due largely to the general conditions beyond his control, it is likely that this farmer would be a pretty good type to remain on his farm. Frequently such debtors will be able to pay more to their creditors than farmers who might replace them. It is also likely that if this farmer remains on the farm, although in debt, he would do a better job of farming as a titleholder than a tenant. This would be especially true if some arrangement were agreed to whereby he would have a chance to repay his debts in time. In most cases creditors will appreciate these conditions. If the debtor's case is not hopeless, foreclosure will be avoided in a large percentage of cases handled by the committee.

Whatever agreement is suggested, however, will come to nothing unless it is accepted voluntarily by the creditors. Although the local farm debt adjustment committees are appointed by the Governor of the State, the Committee cannot and will not compel acceptance of any proposals they put forward. Their usefulness lies in their capacity to propose a sane, workable plan of debt settlement, some plan that will appeal to the intelligent self-interest of both the debtor and the creditors, and at the same time avoid unnecessary foreclosure.

Our committees have been very successful in making hundreds of adjustments in this State and have stopped numbers of foreclosures. They are ready to assist any farmer in distress and see that his creditor's interest is justly protected.

Farmers wishing to take advantage of this service should contact the local county Committee, and failing to make proper adjustments, the County Committee will then call upon the State Committee if the occasion demands.

The local committee is composed of the following members: E. R. Conely, chairman, W. M. Williams, H. A. Williams, H. C. Varnadore and Ed Roan.

The Texas Farm Debt Conciliation Committee is composed of twelve members, R. J. Murray is chairman, and Hugh Weaver, State Supervisor, State Office, State Committee is located at Austin, Texas.

Have You Seen the Frigidaire '34?

End your refrigeration worries the modern electrical way! The safe preservation of foods, according to food chemists and medical authorities, require a temperature below 50 degrees . . . constantly maintained.

Modern Electrical Refrigeration assures this necessary low temperature . . . automatically. When the temperature in your Electric Refrigerator rises to 50 degrees, the freezing unit is automatically turned on . . . when it has been brought down to the correct level, the unit automatically switches off.

Moderate first cost and low operating expense are added considerations suggesting the immediate purchase of a new model Frigidaire.

The Frigidaire '34 operates quietly and with amazingly small amount of current, has automatic ice tray release, automatic defrosting and many other important features.

This is the "Electrical Age." A Frigidaire will be another step to your All-Electric Kitchen.

Your increased use of electric service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule and adds only a small amount to your total bill.

BRONTE HI SENIORS GO TO CHRISTOVAL

Friday morning at five o'clock, the seniors left for Christoval to spend the day. They arrived at eight and breakfast was served to a hungry bunch.

Boats were rented and the group enjoyed boating, swimming and kodaking.

Lunch was served at 12:30 to the Seniors, their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. Thorp, owners of the park, and

On page two The Enterprise carries the announcement of Hon. Carl Runge as a candidate for Congress from this district. At the conclusion of the article the carry over line states "Continued on page eight." This is in error—it is continued on page three. Therefore, the reader is kindly requested to turn to page three for the continuation of the article. Regretting the error, we thank you.

Mr. J. W. Stephenson Sr. Ice cream was served at intervals throughout the afternoon to all who were able to partake.

At four-thirty the bus was loaded with a blistered, tired group to return to Bronte.

MEDITATIONS.

I heard the King of the Hoboes speak on the question: "Shall we give money to beggars?" He was in favor of it.

Please don't turn round in the middle of the boulevard. If you haven't made up your mind where you are going, turn in somewhere and get a road map.

SENIOR BARBACUE

One of the most enjoyable outings of the year, was spent at the Arledge Crossing last Thursday evening. Mr. Hankins and three of the senior boys went down at twelve o'clock and started the meat to cooking which consisted of a big fat goat. Mr. Hankins returned to town at 3:30 and rounded up the other seniors. They went down in a school bus, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Hankins in their car.

When they had all arrived at the river, some of them decided to go swimming, while others waded at the crossing.

About 6:30 o'clock the guests arrived. The guests consisted of teachers, parents and some members of the school board.

At 7:00 o'clock word rang out, along the beautiful Colorado river, for everyone to gather around the table, while Mr. Hankins returned thanks.

The eats consisted of barbecued goat, bread, pickles, onions pinto beans, ice cream and cake. There were two delicious cakes that were baked for Mr. Hankins.

We are indebted to Mr. Hankins for the barbecue and most of the eats. The Senior Class furnished the ice cream.

Forty-three were present at the supper.

After supper we talked and played games. When the hours begin to shorten and it came time to go home, all could say that they had had a very happy time. We then returned for a few hours sleep. The girls stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Hankins, while the boys stayed in the Baptist Tabernacle, so that all could leave early Friday for Christoval.

TEACHER HAS NEW HAT

The seventh grade of the Bronte school reports that their home room teacher, Prof. Roy Brey, was "strutting around" the school grounds the other day with a "new" white straw hat. He took special pride in "tipping his hat" to everyone he met.
