OUR ADVERTISING RATES

Recently J. D. Luttrell had occasion to run an advertisement in The Enterprise and the same ad in a Midland newspaper, word for word and space for space. We did not know Mr. Luttrell had inserted the ad at Midland until we presented him a bill for same. When he saw the amount we had charged him he remarked, that he saw our rates were fair—that we had charged him three cents less than he paid for the same ad in a newspaper in that city. We try always to maintain fair and equitable rates consistent with the service we try always to render.

MRS. J. C. W. BEATY DIES

Mrs. J. C. W. Beaty of Weslaco died at the home of her son, L. W. Beaty near Bronte, Tuesday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock, June 15, 1937, after a lingering illness of several weeks.

Deceased was stricken at her home at Weslaco. She was brought to the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hicks of Miles—Mrs. Hicks is her daughter. She remained there for some weeks. A few weeks ago she was brought to the home of the son a few miles northwest of Bronte, where she lingered until death came and relieved the pain.

Deceased was a native Texan—she was born in Coryell county, and was eighty years old when she was called to quit the walks of life. Her maiden name was Margaret L. Padgett and on the maternal side of the family she came from a historic ancestry. She was the great-grand-daughter of Zachary Taylor, the twelfth president of the United States. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Padgett. Mrs. Padgett was the daughter of John Taylor, Jr., whose father John Taylor, Sr., was a son of Zachary Taylor.

Deceased was married to J. C. W. Beaty February 4, 1874, in Coryell county. The family first moved to California in 1886. They returned to Texas, to Tom Green county, in 1891. After a few years they located on Valley Creek in Runnels county, moving into Coke county, near Bronte and resided here until 1910 when they moved again to California. About fifteen years ago they returned from California to Texas, locating in the Rio Grande Valley, near Weslaco, which has been their home since that time.

Deceased is survived by her husband and the following children—five sons and four daughters. The sons are S. T. Beaty, San Bernardino, Calif.; Harry Beaty, Los Angeles, Calif.; E. J. Beaty, Los Angeles, Calif.; B. J. Beaty, Alhambra, Calif.; the daughters are Mrs. S. H. Dittmore, Water Valley; Mrs. D. F. Hicks, Miles, Mrs. Weva Bowman, Yucaipa, Calif.; Mrs. W. L. Shafer, Pasadena, Calif. All the children, except three of those in California who could not come, were present for the funeral. Besides the husband and children deceased is survived by a brother, W. T. Padgett of Ballinger, and two half-sisters Mesdames C. A. McBeth, Eutopia and Mattie Davis, Winters. Likewise quite a number of grand children and great-grand children survive.

Funeral services were not held until Saturday afternoon, awaiting the arrival of the children who came from California. Elder Luther Roberts, minister of the Church of Christ at San An-

Happy Echoes From Highway 70 Celebration

From many persons in various places there have come happiest words of appreciation with reference to the highway 70 celebration held June 9. But, from no one have happier words come than in the letter below, from Mr. T. N. Carswell, manager Board of City Development of Abilene to Mayor R. E. Cumbie. Mr. Carswell wrote Mayor My Dear Mr. Cumbie: Cumbie as follows:

The four of us who composed the Abilene delegation to your highway opening picnic celebration are genuinely appreciative of the invitation you extended to us to participate in the festivities. We enjoyed every minute of our stay.

All of us are convinced that the days of West Texas hospitality are not over. The generosity of your citizens, the gracious women who prepared the food, the quality and quantity of it, all together demonstrate a community friendliness that omens well for you and for Texas. Blessings upon every one of you. I hope we here in Abilene may some time have the opportunity to demonstrate a like kindness.

Cordially yours,
T. N. Carswell, Sec.-Mgr.

REV. MORELAND TO FILL METHODIST PULPIT

The Enterprise is in receipt of a card from Rev. J. H. Thompson, pastor of the Bronte Methodist church, who is away in an evangelistic meeting at Leander, requesting us to announce that Rev. Moreland of San Angelo, will occupy the pulpit at the Bronte Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Enterprise is advised that Rev. Moreland is a young minister in San Angelo. Pastor Thompson extends a cordial invitation to everybody to hear Rev. Moreland Sunday morning.

WILL RESIDE IN BRONTE

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wojtek of Robert Lee have come to Bronte to make their home.

Before their marriage at Santa Anna June 10, Mrs. Wojtek was Miss Charlotte Oakes. She was a teacher in the Silver school the past year and hence is no stranger in Bronte.

Mr. and Mrs. Wojtek are domiciled in the beautiful cottage of Mrs. Carrie Williams. The Enterprise bids welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Wojtek to Bronte and we join their many friends in wishing them every blessing in life, as they start the journey together.

Mr. Wojtek will be active manager of the Texas theatre.

gelo conducted the religious services at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A large number from Bronte and the Bronte country and other places over West Texas attended the funeral. Deceased had been a member of the Church of Christ for about forty years. Elder Roberts spoke beautifully of the life of deceased and words of hope and comfort to the bereft husband, children and grand-children and others who were in sorrow.

Following the religious services the body was taken to the cemetery and put away to rest undisturbed until the world shall be no more. The aged husband and others of the family have the deepest sympathy of all in this hour.

REV. AND MRS. J. H. DEAN PLEASING CALLEMS

Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Dean of Blackwell were callers at The Enterprise office Friday morning.

Rev. Dean is pastor of the Blackwell Baptist church. He only recently became pastor and a month ago he and Mrs. Dean came from Abilene to Blackwell to make their home. Though in Blackwell only a few weeks these genial people had already found much in the members of their congregation, as well as the people of the entire town and community about which to speak in most praiseworthy terms.

Though their visit was brief, yet to the editor it was most enjoyable.

In the first place, Rev. Dean, somehow, just has the map of "Arkansaw" spread all over his face. Hence it only took a few minutes for "the fact to out" that he was "a native of ol' Rack'n-sack." This, of course, made him feel to us more as "a long-lost brother." In the meantime Mrs. Dean's eyes kept sparkling—then she remarked: "I am no stranger in Bronte. I taught school here in 1923 and 1924." Then when we asked her maiden name and she replied: "Miss Birdie Jones," we agreed with her that she was not a stranger—that we remembered her.

And as Rev. and Mrs. Dean went away we did not feel that strangers had called but rather that "two members of the family" had been to see us.

We are glad that Rev. and Mrs. Dean have come to Blackwell to make it their home—~~for~~ we can at least be neighbors. We wish them many long, useful and happy years of service with the good people of Blackwell.

COKE'S OLDEST LADY DIES

Late Monday night, June 21, 1937 there passed from the walks of life, the oldest lady, far as The Enterprise can learn, ever to be an inhabitant of Coke county. That lady was Mrs. Samuel Price, who lacked only a little more than a year being a centenarian. Her exact age was ninety-eight years, two months and twenty-four days. This made her to be born March 27, 1839.

The maiden name of deceased was Miss John Ann Galloway. She was born near Van Buren, in Franklin county, Arkansas. At the age of four her parents died and she made her home with her oldest brother. The family came to Texas when deceased was five years old. They settled finally in Grayson county. There she grew to womanhood.

In 1859 deceased was married to Samuel Price. They moved to Lillano county where they made their home until the death of her husband in 1885. Five children were born to them, all of whom survive. The children are Mrs. G. L. Bridges, Bronte; T. C. Price, Bronte; Mrs. A. E. Reeves, Fort Worth; Mrs. John Brantley, Bronte; J. W. Price, Bronte. Besides the children, there survive 27 grand children, 24 great-grand children and 3 great-great-grand children. With these, a host of longtime friends sorrow over her passing.

For some time deceased made her home with her son, J. W. Price, a few miles southwest of Bronte. The funeral services were held in the afternoon Tuesday, at the home, conducted by Rev. J. H. Thompson, pastor of the Bronte Methodist church. Following the religious services the tired, worn body was follow-

Approves Article On Governor's Two Inconsistencies

The Enterprise is in receipt of the following appreciated letter from the editor's longtime good friend, E. W. Smith of Blackwell, giving his endorsement to the stand we took in last week's issue relative to the inconsistencies of Governor Allred on the questions of old age pensions and gambling:

Blackwell, Texas,
June 21, 1937.

The Bronte Enterprise,
Bronte, Texas.

Dear Editor:

I have read with interest your article in the last issue of The Enterprise of Governor Allred's two inconsistencies. May I commend you for the same?

Yes, Brother West, your head was good, your cites were clear and you "hit the mark." We need more men and fearless editors like yourself. "Stay by your guns"—for, you are right. As ever your old friend,
E. W. Smith.

Thanks to you, my dear, good friend. Such words from men like you are sufficient compensation and encouragement to make me or any other sincere man, to "look straight ahead."

But, regardless as to the approval or disapproval of any man and every man, Governor Allred in his compromise on social gambling has done much to encourage the evil and promote the most hurtful forms of the vice. It is tragic, as we see it that he was not sufficiently brave to stand against the counter currents and tell them that "they shall not pass," when it comes to any kind of gambling.

Barney and Harry Beaty returned Tuesday to their homes in California. They came to the funeral of their mother, Mrs. J. C. W. Beaty ed by loved ones and friends to Fairview, and out there it was put away gently for its last sleep and rest, not to be disturbed, in the quiet place of its abode, until the Lord shall come again.

The pall bearers were Leroy Price, S. T. Hallmark, Christian Brantley, Clint Duncan, Cecil Glenn, James Glenn.

Rev. Thompson gave a historical sketch of deceased which was remarkable in more ways than the unusually long number of years deceased had lived and lingered here. For eighty-two years deceased had been a member of the Methodist church, professing faith in Christ and uniting with the church when she was sixteen years old. Hers was a life of service to God, to her family and home, to her country, her friends, and the world at large. During her years she read the Bible through twenty-five times.

Of the hundreds and hundreds of obituaries the writer has written in his nearly forty years as editor of newspapers, Grandmother Price is the oldest person to die concerning whom we have ever written. While her days were long and many, yet the gloriously beautiful part of it is in the things she did while she tarried here. Truly, it can be said of her, as the Master said of a faithful woman in His day: "She hath done what she could."

And now may she rest undisturbed and may her rest be sweet to her, as she shall "rest from her labors, and her works follow her."

HIGHWAY EDITION SENT FAR AND NEAR

The Highway 70 Celebration Edition of The Enterprise, issued the 11th instant has found wide circulation. Every copy of the Edition down to the very last one has been taken.

The copy to be sent the farthest away, far as we have information regarding the matter is the copy that Postmaster R. J. Epperson sent to a kinsman in Idaho.

We appreciate the many kindly words that have come to us, both from the "home o folks," and those from other o places.

HIS CHILDREN REMEMBER HIM

S. A. Kiker is one father, at least, in Bronte who is glad that Father's Day, which was observed last Sunday is in vogue.

Thinking nothing about such an occurrence until it happened, Mr. Kiker's children presented him gifts as tokens of their love for him.

Appended to the gift of one of his daughters, Mrs. B. E. Modgling, was a tribute to him as her father:

Dearest "Daddy":
This little gift is not very much, but it is given with the greatest love to the best "Dad" in the world—one to whom I owe what I am.

The influence of the prayers you offered at the family altar will ever live with us children. What child could go astray with such a father and mother?
Adah.

BABY SON BORN

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Maxwell, Jr., at a hospital in San Angelo, Wednesday, June 16, 1937, a bouncing baby boy. The young gentleman has been christened W. H. Maxwell, III. Though a little late in doing so, yet The Enterprise bids welcome to this fine young man into this great, big, mysterious world, about which no one knows much. And may he "cut all the capers" worthwhile that have been planned for him by his fond parents.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT MARIE

J. Black, postmaster and merchant at Marie, was in Bronte Wednesday.

Mr. Black informed The Enterprise that the third quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held there Sunday afternoon, with Dr. J. T. McClure, Brownwood, presiding elder, presiding. Rev. Hubert Crain of Norton is pastor of the Marie church. The time for their annual revival meeting will be set next Sunday.

Woodrow Leonard of Youngstown, Ohio has been visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Leonard. Mrs. Leonard is spending a time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fulcher at San Angelo. Woodrow was with a steel company at Youngstown. The strike came on and the steel plant closed down. So, Woodrow hid it for Texas where strikes are not known. Woodrow said that he kept up with the happenings of "the old home town" through "the old home town paper."

Members of the Wilkins family injured two weeks ago in a car wreck at Oak creek on highway 158 are reported doing as well as could be expected.

PRAISES ROOSEVELT PLANS OF RECOVERY

J. M. West of Des Moines, New Mexico, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Benson, and son, Carroll, of Hamlin, and Miss Maxine Benson of Abilene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, were guests of the editor and wife this week. Mr. West is a brother and Mrs. Benson is a sister of the editor.

Mr. West's home is in extreme North-east New Mexico which puts him almost in the heart of the "Dust Bowl" that has suffered so intensely from the effects of the dust storms. Aside from being engaged in the general mercantile business which necessarily compels him to keep himself advised as to the conditions of his part of the country, as they actually are, he is also a member of the New Mexico Senate from his district. His political studies of his part of the country as well as of the whole of New Mexico give him a more full dependable understanding than otherwise he could have.

Mr. West said that the conditions in the dust bowl have not been overdrawn, far as he has read—that in his immediate part of New Mexico and that section of the dust bowl there has been absolutely nothing made on the farms and ranches for five years. The main crop of that section is beans, and when the bean growers get a good crop and an average price for their beans, it is one of the most prosperous sections of the land. But, the drouth has continued so long there is no sub-soil moisture whatever and the scattered rainfall they have had through the five year period of drouth does no permanent good whatever. As a result Mr. West stated that the Roosevelt policies of relief for the people through WPA and other relief agencies has been a means of sustaining life to the overwhelming masses of the farmers and ranchmen in the dust bowl. And due to that fact Mr. West said that the Roosevelt plans of relief had meant all to the people of that part of the country. As a consequence it has made Mr. Roosevelt and democracy in New Mexico, which has a long line of republican rule written into its history, very popular.

Speaking of the local political situation in his State Mr. West stated that the situation is much improved over what it was formerly. He said that Governor Tingley does not "play politics" in the appointments he makes of men to carry on the work of administering the state's affairs—he says that the efficiency of the applicant for a job and not the "political pull" of the applicant is the determining factor on the part of the governor as to whether or not the applicant gets the job. May it be so in Texas!

HERE ON FISHING TRIP

S. L. Pierce and four sons from Morton, Cochran county, were here the latter part of last week on a fishing outing in the Colorado river.

Mr. Pierce is an abstractor of Cochran county and has done much abstract work for local County Commissioner S. A. Kiker, Judge McNeil Wylie, and other members of the Coke county commissioners' court, in connection with the Coke county school lands in Cochran county.

For the above reason Mr. Pierce was not a stranger here, but was "among his friends." Mr. Kiker, therefore, showed the visitors every courtesy, "for," said Mr. Kiker, "Mr. Pierce always shows us every kindness when we are in his town."

The visiting fishermen had only medium luck but enjoyed their outing very much. Mr. Pierce is a fine, pleasing gentleman.

Mrs. Nathan Johnson and little daughters have gone to Brownfield for a three week visit with Mrs. Johnson's parents.

AT BAPTIST ENCAMPMENT AT MENARD

VISIT AT MILES

Mrs. S. T. Hallmark and brother, J. A. Smith and family, were week end visitors in the home of Mr. Smith's daughter, Mrs. Bert Hester, at Miles. Others in the party were Miss Billie Joe Embree of Ballinger and Misses Vondal McIver and June Vance of Kermit.

The men folks went fishing on the Concho river, made a large catch of fish and brought to the Hotel where all enjoyed an immense fish fry.

Miss Lorie Jackson who is attending the summer session of Howard Payne College at Brownwood spent the week end at home. Miss Jackson will teach again in the Mazeland school at Wilmeth.

Miss Elizabeth Leonard, one of the teachers in the Bronte schools, who is attending the summer school at Texas Technological College, spent the week end in Bronte.

E. Yarnell of Norton was in Bronte Wednesday. The Enterprise acknowledges a pleasant call. Mr. Yarnell reported that crop prospects in his section are most excellent. A hail storm a few weeks ago beat the cotton down terribly, but the cotton is coming better now than ever.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express in this way, our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks to our friends for their kindly thoughtfulness and helpfulness during the days and weeks of the illness of our dear wife, mother and grand mother, Mrs. J. C. W. Beaty, and for your tender sympathy and gentle ministries, when she was dead, in her putting her away for her last sleep. We shall always cherish every deed and kindly word. And to us the flowers were beautiful and reminded us of her sweet, pure, gentle life. May God bless each and all of you.

J. C. W. Beaty, children and grand children.

TWO RATS FOR EACH PERSON IN TEXAS

Austin, Texas, June 23.—Texas sustained a fifteen million dollar loss last year, on account of rates, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The figure is a low estimate based upon the probable number of rats in the State, two for each person. No doubt many suffered losses that would pay their taxes, and this does not take into consideration the losses from diseases, time, and money, caused by the rat.

Typhus fever is on the increase in Texas, said Dr. Cox, and the rat is the cause of its spread. Old World typhus fever has a high death rate, while the type we have in Texas, sometimes called Brill's Disease, has a low death rate. It occurs among persons who work or live in rat infested buildings. It was the observation of this fact that led to the discovery that rats are carriers and transmitters of the diseases. It appears that the rat suffers attacks of this form of typhus fever and that the fleas harbored by the sick rat bite man and thus human infection results.

Although this disease is not commonly fatal, it cannot be considered lightly. The intense headache, the high fever and the great mental depression are its most unpleasant features. Like in sea sickness, the patient's greatest fear is that he is not going to die. The illness lasts about two weeks.

The control of typhus is very difficult and it depends upon the extermination of rats and this is no easy matter. Trapping and poisoning help, but the best results are obtained by starving the rats. This is done by having all buildings where food is stored ratproofed. The State Department of Agriculture will be glad to assist communities in their program for the extermination of this pest.

ATTENDS BOY SCOUT JAMBOREE AND SCHOOL

Waldo Fletcher departed Wednesday night for Washington, to attend the Boy Scout Jamboree.

From Washington, following the jamboree Mr. Fletcher will go to New York to attend a Scout school. Mr. Fletcher was selected by Texas officials as one of forty out of several hundred applicants to attend this school.

Rob. Herron and Dick Pruitt made a rushed trip to Bronte, from Eunice, New Mexico, Friday night, returning home Sunday afternoon.

METHODIST W. M. S.

The Methodist Womens Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon and completed the Bible Study: "The Radiant Heart." Five women were present.

CARD OF THANKS

COKE COUNTY BOY PROGRESSES RAPIDLY IN NEWSPAPER WORK

It generally is true that Coke county young men and young women, as they go out in life, always achieve in a worthwhile way.

But, perhaps, far as The Enterprise is advised, Winston Gardner, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gardner of Robert Lee, holds the record.

The following is from the Kilgore Herald, and shows the remarkable record of young Gardner in his chosen line of work as a journalist:

Winston completed his four year course in journalism June 3 and will receive his degree, and at once steps out into active work—something, not many young journalists do.
