

Home Ec. Girls—Backed by the Bronte School and Faculty—Enter The Bronte Enterprise Subscription Campaign

Interest and enthusiasm in The Enterprise Subscription Campaign among the schools of the Bronte section of country is growing and glowing.

This week the Home Economics Department of the Bronte school, enters the field and becomes the duly acknowledged representative of the Bronte schools in the Campaign for subscribers for The Enterprise, and thus at the same time secure some much needed money for the Home Economics girls in their work.

Miss Marguerite Christie is in charge of the Home Economics Department and is doing real work in her line in developing the young women and girls in her department in the things which, plainly speaking, is to teach girls to grow up to be intelligent and capable housewives and how to manage the other affairs of the home.

After the conference among members of the school faculty, directed by Superintendent Nathan Johnson, it was decided that no department of the school needed whatever funds may accrue from the Campaign more than the Home Economics Department. Miss Christie and her fine group of girls and young women being willing and anxious to enter the Campaign, the entire faculty has thrown its force and influence behind the Home Ec. girls and all will work and boost for this department of the school—for whatever aids one department of the school likewise aids the entire school. And one of the finest things that can be said of the Bronte school this year is that with reference to the splendid harmony and co-operation between all the departments of the school.

Statement from Supt. Johnson
To the patrons of the Bronte Schools:

All of you practically are aware that The Bronte Enterprise, our local newspaper, is not only in sympathy with all our school work, but also is a constant booster, not only for our own school, but all the schools of its circulation territory, and that D. M. West, the editor, has generously outlined a plan by which all the schools that will, may profit, and some one school can realize a most splendid gift. The Enterprise offering as it does, the liberal commissions as outlined in the Subscription Campaign Plan is an opportunity not very often afforded schools to get more than average compensation for the amount of work done, but the offer of $50. CASH Award to the school that shows it deserves it most, is something unusual and is a very unique plan by which The Enterprise seeks to aid the schools, and at the same time the editor hopes to realize sufficient financial returns at least to justify the venture and thereby completely cover his circulation territory in the matter of getting subscribers, both new subscribers and renewals.

Our school has thrown itself behind Miss Christie and her Home Ec. girls. They are going afield to contact the people of our school district for their subscriptions—both renewals from those who are already subscribers, and for any who may not be subscribers now, to become subscribers. They will get a good per cent of your subscription as commission, then if they win the Grand Award of $50 it will mean much to their work.

So, folks, this is an appeal to you to get behind our Home Ec. girls and thus get solidly behind our entire school. Let's put it over in a great way.

Appeal from Miss Christie and Her Home Ec. Girls

The following appeal is from Miss Christie and her girls:

Dear Folks of the Bronte School District:

We have entered the contest for the Cash Award of $50, offered by The Bronte Enterprise to the school that will secure the greatest number of cash subscribers in proportion to the present scholastic population of the schools that enter the contest.

With all the others of our Bronte school faculty and pupils behind us, we are going to do our best. We want you to aid us. If we do not get the Grand Award we will get sufficient in the commissions to compensate us for our efforts. But, if you will throw yourselves solidly behind us, we will not quit working till the last minute, to win the Grand Award which will mean so much to our work.

HOW TO SOLVE THE FARMER'S PROBLEM

For several months, in line with a group of some of the best men I have known, and with the help and cooperation of this splendid little paper, I have worked, without a cent of pay, or any hope of reward other than the pleasure of seeing the people I belong with—that is, the men who live, or, at least, try to, from the products of the soil—get a little better chance to enjoy the blessings of liberty which the constitution was ordained to insure.

After many months of hard study by direct contact with the farmers and many others, we are confronted with various stand-patters and mossbacks who apparently do not ever intend to concede that the other fellow knows anything about the case unless he yields without question to their ideas.

Ballinger Gas Company Enters the Bronte Field

Bronte has no deep waterway outlet, nor is it on any across-the-country natural gas line—but the "old home town" is "far, ing sumptuously," thank you, as this glad Thanksgiving Day of 1937 arrives. We have as good telephone and electric service as any of the metropolitan cities, and in recent months, it has come to pass that the natural gas people think so much of Bronte, they are coming now and offering to deliver gas at the very doorsteps of the people of the town and surrounding country, by the truckload.

The latest bidder for the patronage of the people of Bronte and the Bronte section of country in the natural gas line is the Ballinger Gas Company. Mr. Jones Taylor, one of Ballinger's fine men and splendid citizens, is manager of the Ballinger Gas Company. Mr. Taylor is a hustler. Therefore, he starts in this issue an advertising campaign with reference to the product his company distributes—it is Yurown gas.

Yurown gas is a gas manufactured at the gas wells, and is a much hotter gas than the pipeline gas. The Ballinger Gas Company has gas systems they install for individuals and schools, churches, and others who desire the convenience and comfort that natural gas affords.

Read the ad of the Ballinger Gas Company in this issue and if you are interested Mr. Taylor will greatly appreciate an opportunity to explain to you more fully with reference to the wonders of Yurown gas and the gas system he sells. While we have not known Mr. Taylor long, yet we say to our readers that we believe fully you can rely upon whatever statements Mr. Taylor may make in his business transactions. He is a genial, likable man and you will appreciate knowing Mr. Taylor personally.

Watch the columns of The Enterprise for further advertising of the Ballinger Gas Company, telling more about the Yurown gas—it will be informative and interesting reading.

MY FIRST IMPRESSIONS OF BRONTE REV. A. V. BRADLEY

I must say that my first impressions of Bronte as a town were not made recently. When I was a wayward country boy visiting my sister Mrs. Lee Drake in the Marie community some 15 years ago, I had frequent occasion to come to Bronte for trade. One thing that impresses me now though is that I never even dreamed of being the humble pastor of the First Baptist Church of this place at that time. I was not even a Christian then; did not go to church, at least not very often.

However, there are some things of value that impress me at present. The clean appearance of the town will attract even a casual visitor. The friendly way in which the people have as a whole welcomed us makes an imprint that one will not lose. The sincerity of the church people in their Christian life is a challenge to any preacher to do his best.

There is another thing that is valuable to any community and that is God-given talents that are cultivated for the Master's use, and I find it so in this fair community. Talents to sing, to play instruments, and to speak for Him. These used for the Lord can go a long way in lifting a world out of sin and dependency.

The young people have impressed me that they are the finest that any community could offer. I am very fond of young people and I have the highest regard for them and great confidence in them. They will be the leaders of community and Nation in the near future.

The adults lead me to believe that they have lived here for a long time and expect to live here next year, therefore they are going to see to it that they have good homes, good schools, and good churches.

Feeling that the above statements are true, I am sure that our stay in your community will be one of profit to our lives, and we trust to the community. We want to be called upon at any time by all who desire our counsel or service.

Will Modgling Dies at Wichita Falls, Wednesday

Sadness was universal in and around Bronte Wednesday morning, as it became known that Will Modgling of Quanah had just died in a Wichita Falls hospital. Death was due to injuries sustained Monday afternoon of last week, near Wichita Falls, in a car wreck, which resulted in the instant death of a neighbor lady and friend of the Modgling family, the injury of Mr. Modgling and slight injuries to others in the car. The wreck was caused from a blowout. Mr. Modgling and the others in the car were en route to Fort Worth to visit Mr. Modgling's daughter, who, a few days ago, under went major surgery in a Fort Worth hospital.

Mrs. T. M. Modgling of Bronte, mother of deceased, was in Fort Worth at the time, with the granddaughter.

When the news of the accident came the three brothers, Barney, Walter and Floyd, and a sister, Mrs. Eskew, from Robert Lee went to Wichita Falls to be at the bedside of their stricken mother, where Floyd has remained. Upon the receipt of the news that the loved one had died, the brothers and families and two uncles, R. E. Hickman and Ed Hickman of Edith went to Wichita Falls and from there the family will go this Thanksgiving day (so dark and sad and lonely for the family!) back to Quanah, and there this afternoon, following religious services, the body will be put away, in his home town by adoption, to rest beside his two baby children undisturbed until time shall be no more.

Will Modgling was another of Bronte's boys who left his home town and went out into the world and made good. He was engaged in the meat jobbing business in Quanah, where he was recognized as one of the town's substantial business men, and one of its most splendid citizens.

Deceased is survived by his companion, his children, his mother, brothers and sisters, one sister being in Venezuela.

The Modgling family are known throughout West Texas and have hosts of friends who are in sorrow with them.

To the companion, the children, the mother, and all the others of the stricken family, The Enterprise joins in deepest and tenderest sympathy in this tragic hour.

Tennyson School House Burns Late Wednesday

As we are getting ready to go press tonight (Wednesday) the telephone news comes to The Enterprise that the Tennyson school house was destroyed by fire a few hours ago.

This is indeed tragic news for that fine community. It was only yesterday that we called at the school house and found Prof. Jones, Mrs. Jones, and Miss Davis, the teachers, all busy as could be, and Prof. Jones spoke hopefully and optimistically about the school.

The Tennyson people are educationally-minded and only a few years ago erected an elegant, commodious, beautiful little brick structure at the foot of Mt. Margaret, which made it an imposing scene upon which to gaze as one passed along the beautiful highway, circling around the mountains.

The Enterprise got the information only semi-authoritative that the district carried only about four thousand dollars insurance—if this is correct, it will not nearly cover the loss the school has suffered.

Texas Theatre Enters Its Second Year

Texas theatre—Bronte's own picture show—is no longer a baby, except in the affections of the people of Bronte and vicinity. Texas is now a "yearling"—and it is no "dogey," either, but a thorough-bred, when it comes to supplying pictures for the entertainment of its patrons.

November 16, last year, the Texas opened its doors as a play house in Bronte. The three Wojtek brothers: Otto, Victor and Frank—"three princes" of good fellows, own and operate the Texas. They have a picture show house and plant equal to those in much larger places than Bronte. They have a natural gas heating system for winter and air-cooled for the summer—therefore, one can almost "suffer" from comfort any time he may choose to visit the Texas. And the Wojtek brothers, always genial and courteous to the nth degree make their show house to have about it an atmosphere of "welcome to everybody" that those who go there for entertainment are always pleased because of the cordial reception extended them by the owners and operators of the Texas.

The Enterprise congratulates the three brothers as they enter upon the second year of their play house in Bronte.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Newsome of Norton were guests Sunday of Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Bradley. Mr. and Mrs. Newsome and Rev. and Mrs. Bradley are long-time friends.

KITTEN BOB CAT CATCHES CHICKEN SOON AS FREE

Bruce Bolander and Travis Wallis from Crosby county and Afton Snyder and Jake Duskey from Bronte went deer hunting on the Jones ranch in Culberson county last week.

The hunters killed three deer—Fravis Wallis, a 7-point buck; Afton Snyder a 9-point buck, and Bruce Bolander, an 11-point buck. The deer were killed within two hours after the season opened.

The party of hunters returned to the home of J. A. Snyder Thursday night. They killed a mother bob cat and caught a baby bob cat under a ledge of rock and brought home with them. At the J. A. Snyder home, shortly after the hunters arrived, the baby bob cat gained liberty for itself from imprisonment. And true to its instinct, the first thing it did was to catch a chicken and serve itself a fine, delicious meal of Coke county chicken.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warner and children from Anson were weekend visitors with relatives and friends. While here Mr. Warner took occasion to square his subscription on account with the "old home town" paper and to set his figures in advance, for all of which we thank Mr. Warner.

McCutchen; A. D. Spencer, Jim Simpson, Mattie Gibson; Misses Mary Pruitt, Gladys Simpson, Zadie Gibson.

SHARING HAPPINESS—Thousands of children, homeless from the winter floods of 1937, housed in refugee camps by the Red Cross were made happy by Junior Red Cross boys and girls who sent them tons of toys and books. Red Cross recreation workers kept them entertained.

LITTLE OLD LADY

It was Red Cross Sunday. All afternoon she had sat behind the snowy curtains of her parlor window. Her thin withered hands fluttered about the pocketbook in her lap. There was an extra dollar in it. There always had been one ready for years. But two Roll Calls had come and gone and no one had stopped to ask her to join. She was waiting for the Red Cross worker to pass down the block; hopeful yet with anxiety, veiled under the patience of old age. Surely there had been some mistake about the last two times, when she had to go painfully to headquarters to join. She wondered, waiting. Her lips trembled ever so slightly. She could not believe they had forgotten her.

The Roll Call worker on her house-to-house canvass paused in front of the small frame house, undecided. Of course, every one knew what a struggle the poor old couple was having to live on his pension check. He was probably away now—at the Soldier's Home where he spent winters of late to leave the small income to her, to cover the added expense of coal. She must be very lonely, poor dear, hardly able to move about. There was time; just to drop in and say hello, nothing more.

The door flew open before the worker reached the top step. "Come in, come in," the thin old voice quavered with excitement and pleasure. "I was expecting you, you see."

The purse lay on the parlor table beside it, neatly pressed out, the dollar bill.

"I have always belonged to the Red Cross," her eyes beamed proudly behind thin gold-rimmed spectacles, "ever since it was founded by Clara Barton. I tend to be a member the rest of my days."

The house was owned by E. R. McLendon. Mr. and Mrs. McLendon had part of their furniture stored in one room. Some of Mr. McLendon's and Mrs. Stone's furniture was saved. Prof. and Mrs. Stone lost all of their clothes.

Jack Stuart and Andy Gump, of Eunice, New Mexico are visiting in Blackwell this week.

Baptist Worker's Council

Last Thursday the Baptist had a Workers Council meeting at the Baptist church.

The speakers were, Rev. Shirer of Temple, Rev. O'Brien of Stamford, Rev. Powell of Abilene, Rev. Williams of Abilene.

Dinner was served to the large crowd in attendance. A number of out of town people were present.

DISTRICT S. S. MEET

A District Sunday School meeting was held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

The song service was conducted by the Divide Baptist church. The speakers were Willie Pillion of Shep, Rev. Dunlap of Sweetwater, Rev. Orval Herndon of Hylton church. There were one hundred and eighteen present. Everyone reported a good meeting.

Over 1,100 Aermotors In the Last 6 1/2 Years

That Is the Record We Have Made Since We Took the Aermotor Agency in March, 1931

March, 1931, just 6 1/2 short years since we took the agency for the Aermotor Auto-Oiled Windmill, yet we have placed over 1,100 of them on West Texas farms and ranches during that time—a record of which we are justly proud, for QUALITY is what did it!!!

THE AERMOTOR is a superior Windmill at a price you can afford to pay!

THE WINDMILL with many outstanding features!

A STRONG WHEEL with only six bolts!

Try them all and you will find the Aermotor Mill will give you longer and better service at less cost than any other Mill on the market!

For more than forty years the Aermotor has had the distinction of being "The Windmill that runs when all others stand still!"

If in doubt, ask the man who owns one!!

Aermotor Mills Have Records Of Over 35 to 40 Years!

If the original Aermotor Mills (that required oiling every few days) will run 35 and 40 years and more (as has the one pictured at left, now in use in Runnels County) how long will the present Aermotors run when they are completely self-oiling and have removable bearings? No one is able to answer this question!

If you will examine some of the first Auto-Oiled Aermotors (that have been in service for 20 years) you will find the bearings and gears still in perfect condition. Beyond a doubt, you get the most for your money when you buy an AERMOTOR!!!

"Thanksgiving Day"
Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter into his gates with Thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.—Psalms 100.

Have you observed growing flowers—how that they always keep their faces toward the sun? Why? Because they receive their beautiful colors and fragrant odors from the sun. It means life to the flower to face its master, the sun. And too, if the flower could speak our language, we would hear it say, "Thank you, my King."

Shall we not realize that "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness neither shadow of turning."

We shall turn our faces to Him "from whom all blessings flow."

FARMERS' PROBLEM

Among the different types of these men we find the fellow who declares that if we will adopt this per cent of tillable acres as the basis for acreage control he is with us but if we don't he is not. Another says, "if you will stop that rennow up the creek from going as he is doing, I will let you do me most any way and I will stay with you."

What we need today is for more men to join in with us and search for the defects in our plans, and after we find them, get rid of them, and then proceed to establish a permanent system that will be fair to all, with special privileges to none.

Half-Minute Sermon

"REDEMPTION"

BY REV. A. V. BRADLEY

"It is God who has delivered us out of the dominion of darkness, and has translated us into the Kingdom of His dearly-loved Son, in whom we have our redemption—the forgiveness of our sins. Christ is the visible representation of the invisible God, the Firstborn of all creation. For in Him was created the universe, of things in heaven and on earth. And He is before all things, and in and through Him the universe is one harmonious whole. Col. 1; 13-17 (Weymouth)

1. Redemption from above—not earthly
 - a. We were in darkness
 - b. God translated us—removal from one state to another
 - c. This was done through Christ
 - d. Our sins are forgiven
 - In like manner, God redeemed the physical universe
 - a. Darkness was upon face of earth. Gen. 1; 2
 - b. God through Christ changed its condition
 - c. Earth was made perfect
 - d. The universe is one harmonious whole to day.
- Why? Christ holds it with the word of his power. The Christian should be one harmonious whole why? Because Christ holds him by the word of His power.

Mav'rick School News

From CHATTER BOX

West We are glad to be back with The Enterprise, its readers and the schools of this section of West Texas again.

Thus far, this has been a very busy year. We have had the State Deputy Superintendent, Mr. Muddock, with us. He presented Mr. Griggs with the Certificate for Standardization, which was attained again this year. We are very proud of our school. We hope to be a better school next year than in the past.

The basket ball boys are very proud of their new basket ball suits. They were bought with the proceeds from the carnival. They take this means of thanking those that helped with the carnival, for without that help the suits could not have been bought.

There are four rooms in the Maverick school. Each room will contribute the news of their activities separately.

First and Second Grade News

We made a tepee with the aid of our teacher, Miss Borders. We made the tepee of six willow poles seven feet long. We covered the tepee with brown wrapping paper. We drew Indian patterns on the tepee. We painted them red, yellow, blue, green, purple and black.

We are Indians in a play. We use the tepee in our play. We wear Indian suits made of tow sacks. We are going to play an Indian Rhythm Band piece.

We have some new language books.

Third, Fourth and Fifth Grade News

There are three grades in our room. The grades are the third, fourth, and fifth. Our teacher's name is Miss Davis.

The fourth and fifth grades are going to present a Thanksgiving play. The name of it is, "A Real Thanksgiving." The characters are: Mother, Lovell Lee; Prudence, Mattie Landers; John, Roscoe Frazier; Indian, Bitsy Whitley; Father, Gary Simpson; Lost child, Grace Ann Burson; Schoolmaster, Dorothy Lee. The boys and girls will sing a song called "Our Blessings."

Sixth and Seventh Grade News

Our teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Griggs. We are a small but busy group. This week we have been busy reading and dramatizing the poem, "Courtship of Miles Standish."

Freshmen and Sophomores

The Freshmen and Sophomores have been busy practicing on a Thanksgiving Pageant.

Both classes received their report cards last week, and everyone was pleased over the grades. Of course, there might have been a few disappointments, but they will be brought up to surprises and thrills the next six weeks.

Russell Carlton is the "One and Only," since he had the honor of killing a four-point buck in Mason county last week. Russell, do not brag too much, for the next shot may be a failure.

The basket ball boys feel their importance after the game at Pumphrey last Tuesday. No wonder. The score was 28-0 in Maverick's favor.

Miss Marguerite Christie, the popular teacher of the Home Economics Department of the Bronte schools, was called unexpectedly to Fort Worth last week end. While there it was her happy privilege to look in upon the Central Texas Methodist Conference which was holding its annual session there at that time.

ROBERT LEE vs. BRONTE

With a rivalry and tradition that always make their games a fight to the finish, the Bronte Longhorns and the Robert Lee Steers tangle horns in their annual Thanksgiving battle here on Turkey Day.

Beginning at 2:30 o'clock, the game carries an additional importance in that the game has a bearing on the district championship.

A Bronte victory would insure a tie for the crown for Coach Mullin's Longhorns. A defeat would put the Longhorns out of the championship picture, and Mertzon and Norton would share the crown.

The Longhorns came out of their Norton battle Friday with a victory and fewer injuries received in any game this year. Coach Mullins has his boys primed physically and mentally to see that Robert Lee doesn't spoil their championship dream.

Robert Lee has a much improved team over the one Bronte defeated, 34 to 0, in a season opener on September 25, having won 3 out of 5 conference games since Robert Lee defeated Miles, 7 to 0; Lake View, 14 to 12; and Wingate, 26 to 0; Mertzon defeated the Steers, 51 to 0; in the early season, and Norton won over them, 26 to 0. But previous games have little bearing when the Longhorns and Steers battle to settle a 10-year-old football struggle.

In 1927 Robert Lee ran over Bronte's first football team 78 to 0. And the next seven games also were taken in hand by the Steers of Robert Lee. But Bronte came back with eight straight victories, the series of wins beginning in 1932, under Coach H. A. Fitzhugh. In 1935 each team won a game, and last year Bronte won the two games by the score 6 to 0.

With the victory at the first of the season, Bronte has won 12 games to Robert Lee's 9.
