STRANGER CALLS—LEAVES A "BIT O' SUNSHINE"

Wednesday afternoon, the editor was truly engaged in "honest toil" "slinging printer's ink" and otherwise engaged in the momentous (?) task of issuing this family weekly, when a man entered the office door. "I am a stranger," he said, "but I just wanted to call and meet you. I reside at Sweetwater. I read your paper of two weeks ago with your fine writeup of the winning of the five hundred dollars by Mrs. Stevens of Sweetwater in the nation-wide style contest carried on by Levy Bros. of our city. That was a fine boost you gave everybody and West Texas as well. I was passing through and I just wanted to stop and meet you." Then about as quickly he told us goodbye and went his way.

We finally managed to stop him long enough to get his name and line of business. He was Bill Cole—just plain, old "Bill Cole." Mr. Cole is special representative of The Great American Life Insurance Company. And Mr. Cole "knows his insurance." He gave us more information in five minutes about insurance than we have been able to learn in a third of a century—in fact,

Edward Cumbie Goes to National FFA Covention

Edward Cumbie departed Wednesday morning for Shelby, Michigan, where he goes as state representative to attend the National FFA Convention, which convenes at Shelby the 15th of this month.

At the state FFA meet at El Paso recently young Cumbie was elected secretary of the state organization. By his official position in the state organization he automatically became eligible to membership in the national organization with all his expenses paid to the national gathering.

Edward went from here to Dallas via train. In that city he joined the state party to the national meeting, and they are en route via automobile.

Rules of the national organization allow five delegates from Texas. These include four boys and the state supervisor. This group left Dallas Thursday via auto and expect to be in Shelby in time for the opening of the national convention.

The group expects to go on a sight-seeing tour to different places and expect to get back to Texas September first.

ENJOY CHEYENNE RODEO AND THEIR TRIP TO THE NORTHWEST

The Enterprise editor was in Winters Tuesday, calling on the business institutions of that city that seek the business patronage of the people of the circulation territory of The Bronte Enterprise.

We called on our good friend, Jno. Q. McAdams, president of the Winters State Bank. We found him busy "gathering up the broken threads of business" at his desk that accumulated during his absence on his two weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. McAdams had just returned from the Cheyenne rodeo and a vacation trip to different points in the great Northwest.

Miss Gladys Ash is in a San Angelo hospital for treatment.

Miss Lois Epperson from Coleman is visiting her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Epperson.

about all we have ever known is to pay the premiums promptly. Indeed, we enjoyed the brief call of this "sunshine dispenser" and hope he may call often.

We regretted however to learn that Mr. Cole's father-in-law, and our friend, G. H. Johnson, is not in the most robust health at this time. We hope he may soon be himself again.

Local Pastor to Lead Meeting in Norton Church

Rev. J. H. Thompson, pastor of the local Methodist church, goes to Norton today, where he will lead in a revival meeting in the Norton Methodist church, the meeting beginning tonight. Rev. Hubert Crain is pastor of the Norton Methodist church, and he and his interested members are looking forward anxiously and hopefully for a meeting that will be community-wide in its results.

Rev. Thompson, however, will be in his pulpit with his congregation Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Thompson requests The Enterprise to emphasize, he requests the members all to be present Sunday morning. Everybody is cordially invited to worship with this congregation Sunday morning.

Baptist Church News

Even though Rev. Hayes was not able to be with us in the revival meeting after Monday of last week, we feel that the meeting was in no way a failure. There were some thirty rededications in the meeting and we had one addition by letter and eight conversions. The largest crowd attending the meeting was last Sunday night. The pastor tried to preach in a constructive way, so the work could be built up. We feel more encouraged about the work than ever before.

Wednesday evening of last week, the deacons met and organized. Bro. R. E. Cumbie was elected chairman of the board and Bro. Clint Wilkins secretary, with Bro. J. B. McCutchen vice chairman. This is the first time in several years the deacons have had a functioning board. Their monthly meeting will be every second Sunday afternoon.

The men's Bible Class is to have its annual social affair next Wednesday. They are to have with other things barbecued chicken. We urge a large attendance of men next Sunday in Sunday school.

The young people of the church are planning their trip to the Baptist Encampment at Menard which begins August 21. This is the only vacation some of the young people will have for the year. I know it will be the pastor's only vacation.

As for myself, I could stand a short vacation. Since the last of April I have done the preaching in seven revival meetings and have preached 96 times and had 75 conversions and 52 for baptism, with 27 joining the church by letter and 78 rededications. What a glorious hard summer!—besides the general care of my own church. I am doing the singing in a revival at Maverick at the present time. We are having between a hundred and fifty and two hundred in each evening service and another revival is in progress in the community also. The services will go on longer, but we will begin a revival meeting at Barnett school house, seven miles northwest of Ballinger this Friday night.

Remember Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sunday. The pastor will preach at the morning hour. We had 110 in Sunday school last Sunday.

A. V. Bradley, Pastor.

Will Wrinkle, Charles Sims, R. L. Wrinkle and Jess Scott are in Mills county on a fishing trip—poor little fishes!

Bronte School Opening Date is September 12

By order of the Board of Trustees the Bronte school will open its doors for the 1938-1939 session, Monday, September 12, 1938, which is the second Monday in September and the usual fall opening date.

Bronte prides itself in being able to secure a faculty second to none in this section of West Texas and therefore is looking forward to a most profitable and pleasant term of school for the incoming year.

The faculty is now composed of Prof. Bob B. Covey, superintendent, Mr. Mullins, principal, J. T. Henry, Mrs. J. T. Henry, Miss Nell Lowry, Mrs. Geo. Thomas, Miss Whitaker, Miss Clyburn, Mrs. Hull, Miss Roach, Mrs. Warner, Mr. Brinell, Mr. Smith, Miss Mings, Miss Vanderford, Miss Raper.

Supt. Covey reports that he is highly pleased with the school spirit found in Bronte and its surrounding territory and communities. With the splendid faculty now selected and the whole-hearted cooperation of all patrons and everyone concerned he sees no reason that the Bronte School should not continue on the onward and upward path.

Present scholastics will not permit the addition of more teachers.

PIONEER BLACKWELL LADY DIES; BURIAL AT MAY, TEXAS

Mrs. L. C. Reaves, age 87, died at her home in Blackwell, Wednesday, August 10, 1938. Deceased was known to all of her friends as "Granny Reaves."

Deceased was born at Coffeyville, Kansas, May 14, 1851. She was married to W. B. Reaves, January 30, 1878. Her husband preceded her in death in 1899.

Deceased and family came to Blackwell thirty years ago and have made their home there since that time.

Deceased is survived by five children. The children are R. H. Reaves, Blackwell; W. E. Reaves, Miles; Miss Ethel Reaves, Blackwell; Jack Reaves, Lubbock; Mrs. Willie Russell, Winters. Besides the children there are 13 grand children, two great grand children, two brothers and two sisters. All the relatives had been to see her within the past two weeks.

Deceased was a member of the Primitive Baptist church. Religious services were held at the Blackwell Baptist church, conducted by Elder E. C. Mahurin, a Primitive Baptist minister of Wingate, assisted by Rev. J. H. Dean, pastor of the Blackwell Baptist church, and Rev. A. J. Jones, pastor of the Blackwell Methodist church.

Following the religious services the body was taken to May, Texas for interment, in charge of Frank Keeney, undertaker at Bronte.

Thus another long, useful, beautiful life came to the end of its earthly way and the dear one has passed on to her reward—her life, devoted to her children and friends will live on like the refrain of some sweet song to bless those of the family circle and all who knew her.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bo" Pierce from Crane are visiting Mrs. Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Gilreath this week.

Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Henry are attending the sheep and goat show at Junction.

CROP PROSPECTS IN BRONTELAND FINE

Indications at this present writing are that the FDR relief program is going to get a solar plexus "knockout" throughout Bronteland—and that "poce pronto."

Just now this section is favored with the best crop prospect since the 1930 depression struck. If the crop materializes and the prices are anything like normal we are going to be almost suffering with prosperity in this part of the land. So mote it be!

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hudman and children are in Mineral Wells for an indefinite visit with relatives.
