

Back to school

Registration and starting dates set

It's back-to-school time and all the students in the county will be registering for classes next week, and some will be starting school.

The three school systems will all have new time schedules, along with other changes brought about by recent legislation.

Dimmitt schools will start registration first, but the Nazareth schools will be the first to start classes. Dates and times, as well as new class times are listed below by school district.

DIMMITT

Registration: All students on Monday. Elementary students will register from 1 to 4 p.m. in the west cafeteria. Students who are not pre-registered need to bring a birth certificate and health record. Lunch tickets may be purchased and room assignments will be given.

In the middle school, students in grades 4-6 will register from 1 to 4 p.m. in the old foyer in the west end of the building. Eighth graders will register from 1 to 2:30 p.m. and seventh graders from 2:30 to 4 p.m., both in the middle school library. Immediately after registering, seventh and eighth graders will report to the middle school auditorium for school pictures, and should come dressed appropriately. (Pictures for grades 4-6 and elementary students will be made Sept. 28.)

High school students will register in the high school cafeteria, juniors and seniors from 1 to 2:30 p.m., and sophomores and freshmen from 2:30 to 4 p.m. School pictures for grades 9-11 will be taken immediately after registration. Pre-payment is required, and package prices will be $6, $10, $13, $18 and $23. All students will have their pictures put in the yearbook, but those wanting one of the packages will need to pay.

First day: Aug. 27 for students, with teachers involved in inservice Monday through Friday of next week.

Class day: Teachers will be required to be at school from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Grades K-3 will dismiss at 3:10 p.m.; all other classes will remain in school until 4 p.m. Regular classes will start at 8:45. The period from 8 to 8:45 a.m. will be used for meetings, special activities and for tutorials on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Other remediation or acceleration may also be made available.

HART

Registration: On Tuesday, elementary students will be registering from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 3:30 p.m. All kindergarten and new students in the district must present a birth certificate and health record.

Also on Tuesday, high school students will register, with seniors set for 8:30 to 9:30 a.m., juniors from 10:30 to 11:30, sophomores from 1 to 2 p.m. and freshmen from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday junior high students will register, with eighth graders reporting from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. and seventh graders from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m.

First day: The first day of classes will be next Thursday, with inservice for teachers starting Friday.

Class day: The first bell will ring at 8:40 a.m., with the tardy bell set at 8:45. Dismissal of all students will be at 4 p.m. Last year, the schedule was from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

NAZARETH

Registration: The high school principal will enroll all high school students Tuesday, with seniors set for 9 to 10 a.m., juniors from 10 to 11 a.m., sophomores from 11 a.m. to 12 noon and freshmen from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

Grades K-8 will register at the beginning of the first day of classes.

First day: Teachers will start inservice Friday, with classes set to start Wednesday. Opening ceremonies will be held at 8:30 a.m. on the front lawn.

Class day: Classes will begin at 8:20 a.m. each day and will dismiss at 3:45 p.m. for all students. Last year the schedule had been from 8:45 a.m. to 3:40 p.m. Supt. Johnny Mason said there may be a slight variation in the times, which will be announced later if necessary.

Rains total up to 11 ins.

'MONSOON' REFLECTIONS—Dimmitt now has a lot of beach-front property as the result of the wettest August week on record. This is the lake on the south city limits, which is usually dry at this time of year.

Heavy rains that started last Wednesday evening have totaled as much as 11 inches in places. The rains have been great for most local crops, many of which will "make" now without any more expensive irrigation water.

What's all that quietness in the countryside?

It's the sound of costly irrigation engines not running because of rains that dumped up to 11 inches of moisture on the county's croplands during the week.

A weak but stationary cool front that stretched from the Big Bend area all the way to New England served as the trigger for moist Gulf air to form big, heavy rainclouds over the area. The clouds kept forming daily, and the rains kept coming, making it the single wettest week of any August on record.

Dimmitt has received an official 5.51 inches since last Wednesday evening. The area's 61-year average for the month of August is 2.33 inches.

The rains were "extremely beneficial to our corn and grain sorghum," County Agent Seth Ralston said. "A lot of our farmers were ready to make their last application of water, but this will make the corn crop."

Whether the rains benefited the beautiful cotton crop here remains to be seen.

"Just about everybody in our area had already watered their cotton," Mike Bryant at Five Point Farmers Gin between Dimmitt and Hart said. "The rain kinda hurt more than it helped. The sun is going to have to come out now." Ralston encouraged cotton producers "not to water at this point because of the potential for bollworms."

"I think these rains will be enough to make the cotton crop," Ralston said. "You'll just have to keep watch on the plants and see how they do. But in many cases,

Wage, citizenship suits settled; damages awarded

Out-of-court settlements of two federal lawsuits have resulted in back pay and damage payments for on-field workers and Hispanic residents of the county.

More than 150 persons collected money at La Estrellita Dance Hall Friday as the result of an out-of-court settlement between the International Union of Agricultural and Industrial Workers and Dimco Industries, Inc., Dimmitt vegetable firm.

The settlement provided for payments to a total of 173 workers.

The union, headed by Jesus Moya of Hereford, had filed the suit in US District Court in Amarillo in 1983, claiming that Dimco had failed to pay federal minimum wages to onion planters in 1981, 1982 and 1983, in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and the Farm Labor Contractor Registration Act.

The settlement was signed July 30, and Dimco made its payment last Wednesday to a trust account administered by the Texas Rural Legal Aid in Hereford, which handled the suit for the union.

Randall Marshall, the TRLA attorney who represented the union in the case, reported that 150 to 155 persons collected money here Friday. The payments averaged $221.96 per worker.

"I believe that just about everybody who collected money Friday was from Dimmitt," Marshall said. "We have the names of the additional people (who were plaintiffs in the suit), and will get in touch with them and get their money distributed to them."

The onion planters all worked under crew leaders who contracted with Dimco to do the planting on a piece-work basis.

"Our position was that Dimco was the real employer and that the crew leader just the intermediary — a necessary foreman," Marshall said. "Even though Dimco contracts with crew leaders, our position was that Dimco is ultimately responsible for both the pay and the keeping of records."

Dimco officials said the company's attorney had advised them not to comment publicly about the lawsuit or the settlement.

In another civil suit that was settled out of court, the Texas Dept. of Public Safety (DPS) and Deaf Smith County have agreed to pay damages to any Hispanic person who has been arrested, charged, jailed or questioned by their departments for alleged violations of the immigration laws.

In a legal notice in this week's issue of the News, US District Judge Mary Lou Robinson notifies "all persons of Hispanic descent" within DPS Region 5 that they may be entitled to damage payments "if a DPS trooper ever questioned, arrested, detained, incarcerated, or charged you with being in the country illegally while you were traveling in the Panhandle area."

The DPS has agreed to pay a total of $40,000, and Deaf Smith County has established a pool of $11,000 to settle the case.

The settlement stemmed from a suit filed in 1979 by Pedro Cervantes through the Texas Rural Legal Aid office in Hereford. Cervantes charged that DPS officers arrested him on suspicion of being an illegal alien and that he spent four days in Deaf Smith County Jail while law officers refused to acknowledge documents that proved he was born and raised in the US.

The settlement provided for Cervantes to be awarded $8,000 in damages from the DPS and $2,000 from Deaf Smith County, and for a second plaintiff in the suit, Juan Lozano, to collect $2,000 damages from the DPS.

Also, the DPS agreed to pay a total of $40,000 for damages to other Hispanic persons who can prove similar treatment, and Deaf Smith County agreed to establish a pool of $11,000 to pay damages to persons who have been jailed there for alleged violations of the immigration laws.

"I would expect that the full $40,000 will be distributed," said the TRLA's Randall Marshall.

GETTING THE FEEL of Texas life by trying on cowboy hats and boots at Sheffy's Western Wear are Castro County's three new AFS foreign exchange students. From left are Anna Foster of Australia, who is staying with the Lyman Schroeder family and will attend Dimmitt High School; Maria Henriksson of Sweden, who is staying with the Don Gregory family and will also attend DHS; and Yocasta Reina of Honduras, who is staying with the Eugene Hochstein family of Nazareth and will be Nazareth High School's first AFS student.

SLAP-STAKE—Rehearsing a skit entitled "In Transylvania" for the forthcoming Follies, the Gypsy fortune teller Hammorah [Ann Murphy, right] explains to Fred [Dickie Schacher] and his wife Carol [Maureen Foskey] that there are three ways to kill a werewolf—by using a stick, a stake, or schtick. This is one of many music and comedy acts now in rehearsal for the annual community production, which will be staged Sept. 8 and 9 to kick off the 1984 Harvest Days celebration.

'Turnrow meetings' on bollworms slated

Area cotton producers are invited to attend two "turn-row meetings" Monday to discuss the bollworm problem now developing in cotton.

Allen Knutson, Extension agent-entomology, said the first meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. and will be two miles east of Dimmitt on Highway 86. The second meeting will begin at 1:30 p.m., half a mile west of the intersection of US 385 and FM 2397 (Easter Highway) on the Carl King farm. A meeting for the Hart area is also being planned; contact the Extension office for time and place.

The meetings will be held in the field to provide growers hands-on experience in evaluating, identifying and managing bollworm infestations. Emphasis will be on scouting techniques, pest and beneficial identification, and making treatment decisions. All interested growers are invited.

Three local youth place third at District 4-H Fashion Show

Three Castro County 4-H'ers won third place in their division and category at the District 4-H Fashion Show held recently in Lubbock.

In the senior division, Teresa Jackson won a blue ribbon and took third place in the evening and specialty wear category, while Charlynn Hunter won a blue ribbon and took third in the active sportswear category.

Melinda Wilson won a blue ribbon and took third place in the non-tailored daytime wear category in the junior division.

Other ribbon winners include Gwen Wilson with a blue ribbon in non-tailored daytime wear and Sheryl Simpson with a red ribbon in tailored daytime wear, both in the senior division.

In the junior division, Melissa Brockman won a blue ribbon for her tailored daytime wear, while red ribbons went to Bobbi Hochstein in evening and specialty wear and to Mary Jane Lumbra in active sportswear.

First and second place winners qualified to advance to the state show in the senior division. Martha Jo Hyman of Dimmitt and LaWanda Wilson of Hart served as judges in the show.

Free cheese to be given

Free cheese and other commodities will be distributed Tuesday at the County Expo Building, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Only one allotment will be given per family, according to Castro County Community Action Office Manager Wannie Stevens, who also noted that those picking up the commodities must present their own Social Security, Medicaid or AFDC card for identification purposes.

The same income guidelines will be used as were used the last few times, and an income certification will be done quarterly.

Stevens added that a record will be kept on each recipient and will be on file at her office.

New law eases home loan snag

A new federal law enhances the use of funds for the single-family housing program operated by the Farmers Home Administration, J. Lynn Futch, FmHA state director, said this week.

No additional funds are involved.

The new law clears up the division of loan funds that must be allotted to "very" low-income applicants and to those in the next higher bracket, low-income.

The earlier congressional requirement that FmHA housing loans must be made so that 40% were constantly going to very-low income people has been replaced so that now up to 40% of the funds available will be used for very-low-income families, Futch said.

"This means that loan applications from both low and very-low-income rural applicants can be processed at the same time without regard to some arbitrary relationship between the two groups."

On the go

It was fun watching the Olympics during the rainy weather when we couldn't get outside. The closing ceremonies were as spectacular as the opening ceremonies. The dancers from Seoul, Korea with all the beautiful costumes and fans, the dancers from the Dance Theatre of Harlem, the 100,000 blue flashlights, the Spaceship and the friendly alien being who appeared (he was 7 feet and 8 inches tall) were all so impressive.

Mrs. Leola Rials, her daughter Pat Evan, her daughter Jeanie, and Karen Rials, daughter of J. R. and Lynette Rials went to Aztec, N.M. to visit Mrs. Rials' daughter-in-law, Nelda Rials. Aztec is 14 miles east of Farmington. While there, they celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Rials' oldest granddaughter, LaNai Rials Barton. LaNai's sister Sabrina is the mother of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rials' first great grandchild. The baby's name is Miranda.

While in the area Pat was hoping to be able to visit some of the many Indian ruins in that area. In June, Karen, Lynette, and Darla Rials had stayed on the actual Navajo Reservation itself for a week with 27 other members of Lee Street Baptist Church. They were there for their annual Mission Trip.

The pastor of the church in which the Lee Street group stayed is Brother Tom Gueritto. Brother Tom is a full-blood Navajo Indian, as is his wife Dorothy. They are hoping to come out in August to visit the church during their revival. The Lee Street church group really enjoyed the Navajo tent revival. It was an old-fashioned revival with different speakers almost every night. Now some of the people from Brother Tom's church in Tohatchi, N.M. are going to come to share the joy of Lee Street's revival.

Some of the favorite visitors to Tohatchi from Dimmitt were a couple of clowns called Sunshine and Jellybean. It was hard to tell who enjoyed Sunshine and Jellybean the most, the Navajo children, or Brother Tom. Unfortunately, Lollipop was unable to go on Mission trip this year, but has been seen in the company of Sunshine and Jellybean at South Hills Manor. This group seems to like to sing, joke, and clown around. Be on the lookout for them.

Ed and Betty Freeman left Dimmitt on Monday, July 30 and drove to Tulsa where they stayed with an old friend, Ruth Sutherland. While in Tulsa they also visited one day with friends at Hominy and Skiatook, Okla.

On Thursday, Aug. 2, they drove to Dallas for a spiritual retreat. En route they stopped at noon at Atoka, Okla. where Ed made up Rotary. Also, while in Dallas, they had dinner one evening with Betty's cousin's daughter and husband, Rich and Kay Acosta.

On Sunday afternoon, they drove to Mt. Ida, Ark. with a friend Lillian Shipman, and visited with her and her husband, Paul, until Friday morning. Ed preached to the residents and staff of the Lake Ouachita Home for Senior Citizens on Thursday evening, and during that week acted as chaplain to all the residents.

On the return trip the Freemans visited friends at Wister and Wewoka, Okla.

CHARGE!—Linemen practice their three-point offensive stance, firing out and pulling during conditioning drills on the first day of two-a-day workouts at Dimmitt High School Monday. The Bobcats are working out in "shoes and shorts" this week, and will put on their pads Monday for the beginning of contact work. They'll cap their second week of workouts with a scrimmage at Bovina Aug. 24.

Cat's Corner

Many Dimmitt residents' quiet morning was shattered Monday as an enthusiastic Bobcat football team hit the practice field . . . all that yelling, screaming, hollering at 7:30 a.m. . . . Boy, those coaches are noisy Yes, folks, it's two-a-day time for the Bobcats. I'll bet that by Wednesday there will not be a tube of Bengay or Deep Heat in town.

It is also two-a-day . . . all day . . . time for another group, the cheerleaders. They are out at the field at each practice with moral support AND cool drinks for the boys after practice. Between the practices (since they have nothing else to do), they make signs, posters, practice their routines . . . and just to keep their day full, they sell ads for the football program.

Which brings me to my point . . . the kids work hard, so be a Bobcat/Bobbies Booster and join the Booster Club.

We'll meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the DHS cafeteria.

Rodeo tickets now available

Reservations can now be made for the annual Cal Farley's Boys Ranch Rodeo, which will be held over the Labor Day weekend.

Reserve box seats are priced at $4.50, reserve section seats are $3.50, general admission tickets are $2.50 and tickets for children ages 6-12 are $1 each.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting the Boys Ranch office at 600 West 11th in Amarillo or by calling (806) 372-2341.

Approximately 10,000 people are expected to attend the nationally famous event. A reunion of ranch graduates is also held in conjunction with the rodeo.

4-H trap team wins at state

Four Castro County 4-H youth won first place honors at the State 4-H Trap meet held recently in San Antonio.

The two-man junior team of Mark West and Todd West took first, along with the two-man sub junior team of Jay Gruhlkey and Kevin Wheelless.

Todd West took fourth place honors in high individual scoring in the junior division, after hitting 49 out of 50 and then participating in a four-way tie breaker for first place.

The five-man senior team of Kerry Lewis, Scott Hays, Jerry Rickert, Bart Huseman and Mike Huseman placed sixth. Kevin Wheelless ranked sixth high in individual scoring in the sub-junior division.

Ty Kellar and Royce Schulte also competed in the state meet.

The Castro County 4-H Trap Club will hold its annual awards program Monday night, beginning with an ice cream social at 7 in the courthouse assembly room.

Awards will be presented for high-point individuals in the sub-junior, junior and senior divisions. Also, the most improved shooter will be recognized.

The event is open to all club members and their families. Those attending are asked to bring ice cream or cookies.

Early teal season set

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has set the special early teal duck season for Sept. 15-23 statewide.

Meeting in Austin, the commission also retained the same bag and possession limits as last year, four teal ducks (blue-winged, green-winged and cinnamon) in the aggregate per day, eight in possession.

Shooting hours are sunrise to sunset.

Rodney Kleman on dean's list

Rodney Kleman of Nazareth, senior animal science major, has earned "Dean's Honor Roll" status at Texas A&M University.

To be named to the Dean's Honor Roll, a student must earn at least a 3.75 grade point ratio, out of a possible 4.0, during the most recent grading period. The student must also be registered for 15 semester hours.

Dove season starts Sept. 1

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission has set the dates, zone boundaries and bag limits for the 1984-85 dove hunting seasons.

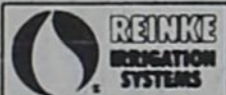

The state again will have three dove hunting zones, with provision for a special white-winged dove hunting season in a portion of the South Zone during the first two weekends of September.

The names of the zones were changed: the Panhandle Zone is now the North Zone; the Central Zone retains its name, and the Rio Grande Zone now is referred to as the South Zone.

In the North Zone, mourning dove season is Sept. 1-Nov. 9. Shooting hours will be one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Daily bag limit will be 12 mourning, white-winged and white-tipped (white-fronted) doves in the aggregate, including no more than two white-winged and two white-tipped doves per day; with a possession limit of 24 mourning, white-winged and white-tipped doves, including no more than four whitewings and four whitetips in possession.

Rev. and Mrs. Bentley Gwyn, Christi and Holly left early Tuesday morning for Glorieta to attend the Church Training Conference. He attended the Advanced Master Life Conference. Rev. Jim Brokenbek from Plainview filled the pulpit Sunday in his absence. He is a licensed minister with several years experience in Baptist Student Work, including Wayland for five years. He worked with Rev. Gwyn while they were both in Tech, and they also attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary together.

Verna Sadler took Rev. Bentley Gwyn's place in the Youth Bible Study following the Sunday night services preceding the summer puppet seminar.

Embree Roy and Willie Mae Sadler attended the funeral services for Tommy Lewis in the First Baptist Church in Olton Monday morning.

Cliff Brown received word Saturday morning that his uncle, Jordan M. Brown of Lovington, had passed away earlier Saturday. His wife, Kate, is a cousin of the Loudders. He also learned that his mother's brother of Dallas had had a massive heart attack near Raton while he and his wife were on their way to Colorado for a vacation.

Gale and Verna Sadler and Adis Roberson of Wayland returned home Tuesday night from Glorieta. They came by Santa Fe and visited with a cousin, Barbara Allison and her husband Don. At Glorieta they stayed in the cabin of First Baptist Church of Plainview as guests of her cousin, Dr. Dorothy McCoy of Plainview. Dr. and Mrs. Strauss Atkinson also stayed there. Conference on child abuse set

The first Governor's Leadership Conference on the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect will be held Sept. 5-7 in Austin at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. Joint sponsors of the conference are the Governor's Office, the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers (PTA), and the Texas Dept. of Human Resources.

"Because violence toward children concern us all, programs to reduce child abuse and neglect must involve a wide cross section of the community," Governor and Mrs. Mark White said in their invitation to concerned Texas citizens to attend the conference.

The focus of the conference will be on prevention, with emphasis on the community's role and responsibility in reducing child abuse and neglect. More than 50 workshops and panels are planned, covering a wide variety of child abuse prevention topics.

Special guest participants include Gov. White, First Lady and honorary chairman of the Child Abuse Prevention State Advisory Council, Linda Gale White, State Sen. Chet Brooks, and State Rep. Stan Schlueter.

Other special guests will be Michael Groh of Minnesota's Wilder Foundation, Jean Boone of the Children's Defense Fund, Linden Wheeler, president of the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse, Su Ellen Fried, immediate past president of NCPA, and legendary folk singer, Odetta.

Conference registration fee is $50 ($65 after Aug. 15). For conference and registration information, call Janie Fields at the Texas PTA office 512/476-6769 or write Governor's Leadership Conference, 225 Congress Avenue, Suite 190, Austin, 78701.

Correction

In the Police Calls in last week's issue, the News reported that W. E. Grant was issued a citation by city police following an accident involving his pickup and a car driven by Shari Schilling of Nazareth.

However, Grant was not issued a citation.

The accident occurred Aug. 1 at the intersection of North Broadway and East Dulin. The Police Dept. said Grant's pickup was stopped at the time of the accident, and that no citation was issued to either driver.

Schraders are at home in Abilene

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schrader II are at home in Abilene following a honeymoon trip to the Northeast after their Aug. 4 wedding.

Jo Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Parker of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Schrader of Van Wert, Ohio.

The father of the bride conducted the formal, double ring ceremony in the Fourth and Bedford Church of Christ in Dimmitt.

Serving as maid of honor was Cara Miller of Lubbock. Bridesmaids were Jackie Anthony of Lubbock, Juanita Turner of Waco, Dawn Sutherland of Fort Worth and Annita Whitt of Grand Prairie, sisters of the bride, and Pat Parker of Tulsa, Okla., sister-in-law of the bride.

Mark Jolly of Key West, Fla. (Dyess Air Force Base), served as best man. Groomsmen were Chris and Mark Schrader of Van Wert, Ohio, brothers of the groom, Mike Sutherland of Fort Worth and Todd Whitt of Grand Prairie, brothers-in-law of the bride, and Cliff Parker of Tulsa, Okla., brother of the bride.

Jack Cabaness of El Paso and Clint Small of Las Vegas, Nev., nephews of the bride, served as candlelighters. Ringbearer was Tim Schrader of Monroeville, Ind., cousin of the groom. Kristen Sutherland of Fort Worth, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. At the registry was Jeri Lunsford of Amarillo.

Ushers were Geoffrey Thomas of Brooklyn, N.Y. (Dyess AFB), and Jay Small of Edmond, Okla., cousin of the bride.

Music was provided by a chorus of voices from the community, including Renise Blair, Hazel Nelson, Becky Killingsworth, Ann Murphy, Zeldia Ellison, Bill Murphy, Dale Wells, Don Nelson and Nolan Froehner. The group presented the selections "Walk Hand in Hand," "Candle on the Water," "Turn Around," "Wedding Prayer," the traditional processional by Wagner, and "Praise the Lord" (Lobe Den Herren, a German hymn), as the recessional. Also, Killingsworth gave a solo performance of "I Pledge My Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a formal-length gown designed by Mori Lee of New York. The bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline outlined in Chantilly lace and decorated with seed pearls. The same lace and pearls accented the empire waistline and extended down the front and back of the chiffon skirt. The lace was also used for the bishop sleeves, ending in a wide cuff, and for the "pick up" flounce, which extended along the entire cathedral-length train.

A halo of white stylized flowers anchored her veil. The scalloped edge of the veil was decorated with Schiffly lace and accented by a blusher of white illusion. Satin ribbons trailed down the back of the walking-length veil. Her bouquet was a cascade of fresh vining ivy and white carnations, some whole, some feathered and some tipped in blue.

Her feminine attendants wore identical margot-blue taffeta gowns designed by Adela of New York. The bodice featured a scoop neckline that came to a low "V" in the back. Short puffed sleeves and a wide self-fabric sash at the natural waistline added to the look. The softly gathered skirt was floor-length. Each bridesmaid carried a single long-stemmed white carnation edged in blue, surrounded by blue gypsophilia, and tied with white lace bows.

The flower girl was attired all in white, with a three-quarter length gauze Kate Greenaway® design dress with a circular collar with lace insets. Her hair was drawn back with a bow of blue picot ribbon and white lace. She carried a satin and lace basket with blue picot bows, and scattered blue and white ribbons as she walked down the aisle.

In the church, two 15-candle spiral candelabra flanked the wedding party. The arch before which the couple exchanged vows was formed by candelabra holding 28 French-blue tapers, laced with garlands of greenery and decorated with French-blue and white bows. Under the arch was centered a three-point candelabrum which held the unity candle. The pews were decorated with blue bows and tall, triple candelabra holding clear votive candles.

At the reception following the ceremony, the bride's table was covered with a white, floor-length cloth and centered with a silver five-branch candelabra holding hurricane globes and blue candles. The bride's cake consisted of four heart-shaped cakes topped with three graduated round layers separated by four-inch columns. A miniature bride and groom stood beneath a double arch of seed pearls on top of the cake, which was decorated with blue roses and silver leaves. A silver punch bowl and crystal appointments completed the table decorations.

Serving at the bride's table were Carla Carpenter of Winslow, Ariz., Tina Pat Jones of Lubbock, and Shawn Miskell of Edmond, Okla., cousin of the bride.

The groom's table was laid with a Margot-blue, floor-length cloth. The centerpiece was formed by two American flags flanking a picture of the couple, with the groom in his Air Force uniform. The red velvet cake was decorated to depict an airplane carrying the bride and groom, surrounded by the words of the Air Force song, "Off we go, into the wild blue yonder . . ."

Coffee was poured from a silver coffee service.

Servers at the groom's table were Brenda Mesmer and Brenda Hand, both of Abilene.

Members of the houseparty were Becky Andrews and Suzan Collins. Reception hostesses were Carolyn Jones, Dorothy Vaughan, Betty Carpenter and Murna Miller.

Special guests included grandparents of the couple, Irene Small of Carlsbad, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wise of Van Wert, Ohio, and Mrs. Sam Schrader of Ft. Wayne, Ind.

The bride is a 1981 graduate of Dimmitt High School and is currently a senior at Abilene Christian University.

The groom is a graduate of Van Wert High School and is an Airman 1st Class stationed at Dyess AFB in Abilene.

ALTHOUGH bats are among the most relentlessly persecuted animals on Earth, Europeans recognize their beneficial value to man as pollinators of fruit and nut trees, dispersers of seeds and predators of pesky insects, says International Wildlife magazine. Bats are legally protected in all European countries as well as in Russia. In fact, thousands of bat "houses" have been placed in national forests throughout Europe, especially in England.

Jack Stewart and Christi Wilson

Wilson to wed Stewart

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Wilson of Galesburg, Ill., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Christi, to Jack Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lilley of Dimmitt.

School and Carl Sandberg College, the bride-to-be is currently attending Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Okla. She is majoring in mass communications.

The couple will exchange vows at 2 p.m. Sept. 22 at the First Lutheran Church in Galesburg.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and is attending PSU with a major in physical education.

Livingston is new home for Mr. and Mrs. Bo Richardson

After a honeymoon trip to Galveston Island, Mr. and Mrs. Bo Richardson are at home in Livingston.

They were united in marriage July 20 in a formal, double-ring ceremony in Soda Baptist Church in Livingston, with Bro. Dewey Parrish officiating.

The bride is the former Roxane Birkenfeld, daughter of Ida Gibson of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Wilson Richardson of Livingston.

The mother of the bride served as matron of honor for her daughter, and the father of the groom served as best man.

Organist Mary Heines played the selections "Theme from Endless Love," "The Wedding Song," and the traditional wedding march.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride wore a formal-length dress of organza overlaid with lace. It was styled with a Victorian neckline. Sheer organza with lace appliques formed an inset at the neckline, and sheer lace formed the long sleeves. A lace ruffle accented the yoke and the same lace formed a stand-up collar and the cuffs. Lace ruffles also trimmed the two tiers of the full, gathered skirt, which formed a chapel-length train.

She wore a hairpiece made of white carnations, yellow daisies and baby's breath, and carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

The church was decorated with bouquets of white carnations and yellow daisies.

MR. AND MRS. BO RICHARDSON
... She's the former Roxane Birkenfeld.

At the reception after the ceremony, the three-tiered wedding cake was served, along with punch. The cake was frosted in white with yellow trim.

Servers at the reception were Sheila Brockman of Midland and Erlene Fritz of Temple, sisters of the bride, and Connie and Audrey Brockman of Midland and Rebecca and Andrea Fritz of Temple, nieces of the bride.

The bride is a 1982 graduate of Nazareth High School and a 1984 graduate of Tyler Junior College. She is employed by Exploration Employment Services, Inc., of Livingston.

A 1981 graduate of Livingston High School, the groom is employed by Sam Houston Electric Coop of Livingston.

Six Point Plan for Fair and Effective Farm Policy

Part 1

In my last column I talked about the regional meeting held by Agriculture Secretary Block to listen to farm representatives' views before writing the 1985 farm bill. I was invited to speak at the meeting and used the opportunity to tell the Secretary what I'd heard in my travels throughout the 19th district. I organized my message into six specific proposals for future farm programs. I'll discuss the first three in this column and the remaining points next time.

First, State and County ASC Committees must have more discretion and authority. National programs must be able to respond to local conditions. In the South Plains area, recent weather and a severe cost/price squeeze have created a situation in which only a flexible, responsive program can be administered fairly.

Second, farm bill sign-up should be extended until at least April 16th. This year the sign-up deadline was March 16th and the ACR program was binding. This does not allow farmers enough time to effectively consider price prospects, financing, weather and other factors. In contrast, the deadline in 1982 was April 16th and sign-up was non-binding. This allows farmers the opportunity to make the most intelligent decision and encourages greater participation in farm programs. The deadline for sign-up should be no earlier than April 16th.

And third, individual farm yield calculations must reflect true production capability. In recent years, weather has significantly reduced yields in the South Plains area. It is essential that these farms' individual yields are not calculated so low that their payment yield becomes out of proportion to their ability to produce. Some adjustments in the system have helped; however, the present mechanism does not provide a realistic picture of the individual farm. A more responsible method of calculation would lead to a stronger agricultural economy for the farmers and residents of the South Plains.

These three proposals ask for nothing more, or less, from Washington than a farm bill that is fair and effective for all farmers. If this is accomplished, more West Texas' producers will participate in the program and the nation's farmers and farm economy will benefit.

I want to hear your comments on these and other proposals for fair and effective farm policy. Write to me at 1606 Avenue X, Lubbock, 79401. We must make certain that the voice of West Texas is heard when Washington writes farm legislation for 1985.

Larry Combest is a fourth generation West Texan raised on a West Texas farm. He served as area President of the F.F.A. and received the Sante Fe Award at the National F.F.A. Convention in 1963. He served as legislative aide for agricultural policy for Senator John Tower and is a candidate for U.S. Representative, 19th District.

ANOTHER RESULT of the recent heavy rains in the county has been water damage at the C.R. Anthony store in Dimmitt, which was in the process of getting a new roof installed. With the old roofing materials stripped off and the new not installed, a lot of water seeped through, damaging some merchandise and the interior of the store. Manager Leroy Maxwell said that the damaged area will be repaired as soon as possible.

District Governor visits Rotary

Rotary District 573 Governor Charles Beil spoke to the Dimmitt Rotary Club at a club assembly last Thursday night and at the club meeting Friday.

He played a taped message from Rotary International President Dr. Carlos Canseco, who encouraged the club members to get back to the basic tenets of the club.

Beil also encouraged club members to be more than a "lunch bunch," but rather to seek out more areas of service. He added that goals have been set for the Dimmitt Club to have one Paul Harris Foundation fellow and three additional sustaining members, to show a net growth of 6% in membership, to sponsor a new club, and to increase the attendance average to 81%.

He commended the club for being the only one in the district to sponsor an Interact Club.

Beil's wife, Joan, also accompanied him on the visit. Seventeen club members and five Rotarians attended the Friday meeting.

Club member Paul Garcia was presented with a plaque in recognition of perfect attendance for the 1983-84 club year.

Tri State Fair sets special "free" days

The Amarillo Tri State Fair, set Sept. 1-8, has instituted special days for this year's fair that will allow free gate admissions to certain groups of people.

On Tuesday, Sept. 4, college students and military personnel will be admitted free with I.D. card. On Sept. 4-6, Amarillo school teachers and school employees will be admitted free with passes.

Amarillo school students will be guests of the fair with passes valid for Sept. 5-6. Senior citizens will be admitted to the grounds free with a Medicare card on Sept. 6.

On the last two days of the fair, Sept. 7-8, area school students and teachers from 26 counties will be admitted free with special passes.

Farm tour is planned

A farm tour will be conducted Wednesday, Aug. 29 for area residents. The tour, which begins at 9 a.m. at the parking lot of the Soil Conservation Service office, is sponsored by the Castro County Crops Committee; Castro County Extension Service, the Soil & Water Conservation District, and the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce.

Various farming and irrigation techniques will be seen and a lunch will be served at the Bethel Community. The lunch will be sponsored by Texas Corn Growers Association.

County Extension Agent Seth Ralston urged all persons interested in taking the farm tour to mark the Aug. 29 date on their calendars.

Local farmers may apply for FmHA emergency loans

Castro County has been declared eligible for Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) disaster emergency loans. Generally, that means that farmers who have lost at least 30% of their production due to the drought are eligible for FmHA loans. Proceeds from crop insurance and the PIK program are taken into account when determining eligibility.

FmHA County Supervisor John Wolf III is urging farmers who are interested in receiving an emergency loan to get their applications in to FmHA as soon as possible. Wolf said, "We hope farmers will get their applications in early rather than waiting until near the deadline which is Dec. 4. The longer they wait, the more chance there is for long delays in getting their checks. If the applications come in early, we can avoid backlogs and speed up the process."

The FmHA office is at Southwest Third & Bedford, Dimmitt. The telephone number is 647-5141.

Senior Citizens

Castro County Senior Citizens Center is located at Third and Jones and is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. A nutritious meal is served daily from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Membership is open to anyone who is 50 years or older, without discrimination as to sex, color, race, national origin, ethnic background, religion, denominational preference, political party, or handicap.

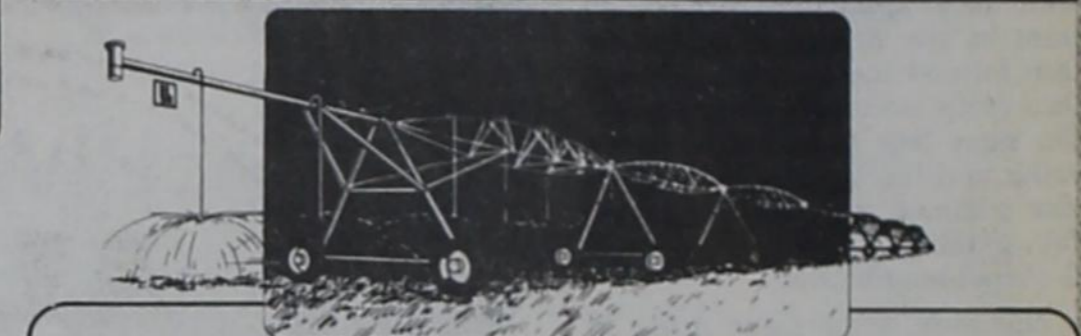

Bridge will be played today (Thursday) and Friday, as well as Wednesday at 10 a.m. Duplicate bridge is played on Monday evenings.

Exercise classes are held every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10 a.m. This is a great way to get in shape and to keep healthy. There will be a Bible study Monday at noon. This week's study will be Job 38:42.

The monthly covered-dish supper will be Tuesday at 6 p.m. This will also be the monthly birthday party. The evening will be spent playing table games.

WHEAT was the second leading cash crop in Texas in 1983 with sales of $638 million. Of that, $199 million came from the Panhandle.
