BRONTE, COKE COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1942

NUMBER 35.

M. P. Coleman Dies After a Lingering Illness

After an illness of some weeks early Saturday afternoon, August 29, 1942, M. P. Coleman died at the family residence in Bronte. Interment was in Fairview cemetery, Sunday afternoon, following religious services at the Bronte Baptist church conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Eldridge.

Deceased was a native Texan, having been born in Panola county, August 9, 1871, making him to be in his seventy-first year when death came and called him from the walks of life. He had been in excellent health until several weeks ago, he was almost suddenly threatened with blindness. His condition grew to be serious—he was carried to a hospital in San Angelo but no relief was had. He was then carried to specialists in Houston and after a thorough diagnosis the family was advised that there was no relief and the inevitable would have to be met. The sufferer was returned home and all that human affection and devotion could do was done until the end came Saturday and brought surcease from suffering.

Deceased and Miss Ruth Rosser were married in 1894. She was the daughter of Rev. W. H. Rosser who died in the same home where deceased passed away, May 13, 1929. He was one of the truly pioneer Baptist ministers of Texas and was pastor of the Bronte Baptist church for many years—and he was truly one of God's noblemen, a great preacher and a prince as to his life and character, and as true to a friend as the needle to the pole. Personally one of the best and truest and most loyal friends we ever had, passed when this great preacher and princely man died.

To deceased and wife 9 children survive to sorrow over his passing. The children are Mrs. H. T. Sims, San Angelo; Mrs. E. L. Caperton, Bronte; Mrs. Elva McCutchen, San Angelo; Mrs. B. C. Baker, Houston; Sgt. Raymond Coleman, U. S. Army, Comstock; H. R. (Bob) Coleman, San Angelo; Mrs. H. O. Hester, Bronte; Buck R. Coleman, Bronte. There are 12 grand children, 8 boys and 4 girls.

Deceased came with his family to Coke county in 1903. He was converted and united with the Baptist church in 1893, and was baptized by his father-in-law-to-be, Rev. W. H. Rosser. He was a member of the church for 49 years.

Truly a good man is gone—he was the friend of mankind and always stood for justice and right as between men. His pastor spoke fine and beautiful things to the memory of deceased in his funeral address Sunday afternoon. A large concourse attended the last rites thus attesting the esteem in which deceased was held.

The Enterprise joins with the hosts of friends of the family in tenderest sympathy in this sad and lonely hour.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reaves of Blawell were in Bronte Wednesday afternoon en route to Austin to visit their daughter. Mr. Reaves plans to sit in the conclaves of the Texas Democratic Convention which meets there next Tuesday, September 8th.

Junk Rally Gets Twenty Tons of Scrap and Metal

The junk rally was held in Bronte Saturday as scheduled and as it had been advertised. For three weeks the Enterprise carried large display advertisements furnished by the government. Two of the ads were paid for by certain large industries as a donation to the government in gathering the waste junk, with agreement on the part of The Enterprise with the government that we would get the last ad sponsored by local business concerns and others—all of which was done. And we here now in this way express thanks to every one who aided in sponsoring the last display. We have sent copies of last week's issue of the paper, as it was requested of us, to representatives of the government, that they may know that we kept faith with them and also know who had part in sponsoring the junk rally ad.

H. E. Smith, of Robert Lee, was present and explained in detail as to the junk question and that the government needed the junk and that it was the patriotic duty of the people to bring in the junk and let the government have it.

And evidently the rally is bearing fruit—for, C. E. Bruton, chairman of the local committee in charge, advised The Enterprise Thursday at noon, that the total amount of junk gathered in was 43,000 pounds. Of this amount Mac Eubanks had gone to the homes of the people and picked up 22,000 pounds, while there had been brought in to the committee and weighed by Mr. Bruton 21,000 pounds—and the junk is still being brought in.

Keep on, folks—don't let a pound of junk you don't need go to waste—for, it is essential and highly valuable at this time in winning the war.

RETURNS WITH HIS BRIDE

Early last week Rev. Lester Haines, pastor of the Bronte Methodist church "took his leave of absence" from his congregation and betook himself to Arkansas where he took unto himself a bride. The young lady was Miss Louise Peace. Rev. and Mrs. Haines reached Bronte Wednesday.

Mrs. Haines was a member of the Youth Caravan of the Methodist church which was here and rendered a week's program in the Methodist church some weeks ago. Therefore, she is no stranger in Bronte, but during her stay at that time she made many friends all of whom, with all our people join in a welcome to both Rev. and Mrs. Haines as they enter life together and take up together the work of Rev. Haines as a minister and pastor.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker of Silver, in a San Angelo hospital, Monday morning, August 31, 1942 a bouncing baby boy. The young man has been christened "John Douglas" and is a grandson of Mrs. E. O. Allen. It is believed that "Daddy" Walker thinks that if they will only let "son" go across, there will be a sudden ending of the duration—for, "son" will bring home with him Hitler's moustache as a souvenir. Congratulations to all concerned.

Allen Baldwin Dies at McCamey; Body Interred at Bronte

Following religious services at the Methodist church in McCamey, where he died at midnight Sunday, and a brief service at the graveside in Bronte, Wednesday afternoon the body of Allen Baldwin was interred in Fairview cemetery. The services at McCamey were held by the pastor of the church of which deceased was a member. At the graveside service the pastor was assisted by Rev. K. P. Barton, pastor of the First Methodist church in San Angelo and Rev. Lester Haines, pastor of the Bronte Methodist church.

Deceased was stricken early Sunday morning with a heart attack from which he never rallied.

Those who survive are the companion, his aged mother, four children, four brothers and sisters. The children are Mrs. Geo. Thomas, Bronte; Mrs. Alfred Bennett, Utah; J. A. and Stevens Baldwin, McCamey. The brothers and sisters are Mrs. Marvin Stevens, Fort Chadbourne; Mrs. Louis Burgen, San Angelo; Hugh Baldwin, Longview and Evan Baldwin, Hot Springs, New Mexico. All the children and brothers and sisters were present for the funeral.

The Enterprise regrets that we have not been able to procure the data with reference to the biography of deceased. He and the writer had known each other from boyhood. In fact, his parents and the parents of the writer were friends in the old state before deceased and he were born. One of the earliest recollections we have is that of his father leaving the old state and coming with his family to Texas. The family, as we remember, settled first in Erath county coming later to this part of West Texas, settling at Fort Chadbourne, where he made his home until his death some years ago. Deceased grew to manhood here, and married and he and companion reared their children. Several years ago he and wife moved to McCamey where they have since resided. Allen Baldwin, as all who knew him throughout this part of West Texas, was a good man—faithful and true to life's obligations, a good citizen and a Christian gentleman, reared under the ideals of the old South by his parents who were always for honor and integrity. The name of the Baldwin family has always been inseparably linked with the finer and better things of life both in private and public role.

Hence deceased has left to posterity, to the church and to the world at large a heritage more priceless than gold.

The Enterprise extends deepest sympathy to those of the family circle in this hour of sorrow.

Methodist Ladies Buy War Bond with "Birthday" Fund

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in the home of the president, Friday afternoon, August 28, for the usual "Birthday Social," which was in the form of a silver tea.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. O. H. Willoughby were Mrs. Clyde Buford, Mrs. C. E. Arrott and Mrs. Walter Phillips, who were cap-

Ballinger to Observe Labor Day; Military Parade and Patriotic Program

In the nearly sixty years of its existence as a town, Ballinger, for its size, has had some wonderful celebrations and truly historic days. But, the stage is set for what, perhaps, will be the biggest day in every particular, in the history of the town. Reference is made to the Labor Day and Patriotic Celebration, set next Monday, September 7. It is Ballinger's first Labor Day celebration.

This national holiday will be used by Ballinger to stage a gigantic military parade, and will include other program features, a military speaker, addressing the people with reference to stamp and bond buying as an aid in helping the nation defeat the Axis.

The program will begin at noon, Monday. The stores will close from one o'clock until the program is concluded with the mammoth parade at 4 o'clock. The parade will be followed by a program on the court house lawn.

Units from Camp Barkeley at Abilene, including a complete company of infantry, a battery of artillery, a military band, field kitchens, and such equipment as heavy field pieces, anti-aircraft guns, new machine guns and all kinds of range finders and technical equipment will be on display.

The soldiers will arrive at ten o'clock in the morning, and will pitch camp on the south side of the court house lawn. The public is invited to visit the kitchen.

tains of a group of twelve women each.

Misses Ann Chambers and Katherine Rawlings presided at the lace covered tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of angel lilies in a crystal bowl on a reflector. Assisting in the dining room were Misses Maxine Buford and Mary Ruth McQueen.

Mrs. Willoughby was in charge of the program. A collection of Readings and Bible Stories were given by Mrs. George Thomas. "Birthday Greetings," an original poem was read by Mrs. Mattie Bell Keyes.

The proceeds of the offering went to buy a $25 war bond, which was the objective of the Society for the year.

Present for the occasion other than those mentioned above were:

Mesdames F. S. Higginbotham, A. L. Carlile, Dollie Wylie, Milton Wylie, W. F. Chambers, E. A. Bell, T. C. Price, C. C. Glenn, E. C. Rawlings, M. A. Butler, O. R. McQueen, H. O. Whitt, Robert Knierim, Fred McDonald, A. N. Rawlings, S. A. Kiker, B. E. Modgling, T. H. Rogge, W. H. Maxwell, Jr., Pete Gentry, Wish Millikin, J. W. Anderson, Bob McCleskey, San Marcos, Will Price, Brooks Browning, Jess Percifull, B. F. Bridges, Mamie Epperson.

Bronte School will Open Sept. 14; Two Faculty Vacancies

Superintendent B. F. Kirk of the Bronte schools and his board of trustees are a busy group these days, as the time for the opening of the 1942-1943 session of the school draws near. Considerable of their worry however is due to teachers resigning and in finding others to fill the vacancies.

There are now two vacancies, with another vacancy pending. J. T. Henry, vocational agriculture teacher here for several years has his resignation pending. Mr. Henry has joined the Navy and if he passes the examination, as The Enterprise understands it, his resignation becomes effective.

Miss Dora Rayburn of San Angelo has been elected and has accepted, to teach history in High school. Miss Rayburn taught for seven years in the Wichita Falls schools.

Regardless of conditions Supt. Kirk says that the Bronte schools will open as heretofore announced, on Monday morning, September 14.

Doc Polk Buys Interest in the Frozen Food Co.

One of the most important business establishments in San Angelo to ranch and farm folk and all others who grow their own meats, is the Frozen Food Co., at Ave. D and Orient street.

Frozen Food Co. opened its doors to the public and asked for business patronage only about a year ago. It has had a wonderful growth. It has just completed the second enlargement of its pork curing facilities. They now have a $20,000 plant and have the curing and storage features of the plant so constructed that they can continue to build yet other additional curing units as their business expands and there is demand for enlarged curing and storage facilities.

Another added feature of the business of Frozen Food Co. that will give them opportunity for an enlarged and even much better service than they have heretofore been able to render is the fact that M. G. (Doc) Polk has bought an interest in the business with V. Harris and Fred Ball. Mr. Polk will have charge of retail meat sales. Mr. Polk is one of the best informed and trained men on meats and meat sales in all West Texas. He has been active in the meat retailing business for fifteen years—and for two years he was with Swift & Co., in their wholesale.

J. H. SMITH

THE BRONTE BLACKSMITH

W. H. Smith Buys the J. N. Tannehill Blacksmith Shop

J. H. Smith and family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Smith and son, J. P., have arrived in Bronte, to make their home.

Mr. Smith has bought the J. N. Tannehill blacksmith shop and has assumed charge of same. Mr. Smith comes recommended not only as a thoroughly trained and capable blacksmith, but also as a fine gentleman and forward-looking citizen.

Speaking of his buying the blacksmith shop and the coming of himself and family to Bronte, to make their home, Mr. Smith said that he is delighted with Bronte—its clean appearance, its beauty and the fine spirit of the people. "We are coming to make our home here and therefore we want to be counted in on everything that is for the good of Bronte and the Bronte country." Mr. Smith and family have been residing at Christoval for several years. (The Enterprise bids welcome to Mr. Smith and family and we wish for them many prosperous and happy years in Bronte. They have apartments with Mrs. Wylie.

Read the announcement of Mr. Smith elsewhere in this issue of The Enterprise as to his blacksmith shop.

of the teacher-shortage situation. As the new school term draws near, superintendents in practically every system are still frantically searching for someone to fill vacancies created by enlistments and through high-paying—yet temporary—war jobs.

Since the educational front is vital in the winning of the peace after the war, educational leaders are urging former teachers to get back into the profession.

Young ladies just out of high school may do their part by enrolling in teachers colleges. They can prepare themselves for a number of teaching positions by attending college for exactly ten and one half months.

Coke County Sent Requests for Teachers to STSTC

San Marcos, September 2—Coke County sent in requests to Southwest Texas State Teachers College for 7 teachers in 1940-1941. The shortage of teachers was such that only 1 was available for these vacancies.

From throughout Texas during this period, 2,021 calls were received; 552 teachers were placed. In 1940, calls exceeded placements by two to one; in 1941, calls exceeded placements by four to one.

These figures for 1940-1941 indicate the growing acuteness

Our 1942 Gin Announcement

Our gin plant has been gone over thoroughly—not only cleaned and adjusted, but every part of our entire plant has been replaced with new parts where new parts were needed.

-Our Same Policy-

We will, of course, maintain our same policy of quick and efficient service, with the most courteous treatment always, to each and all alike. Our cotton production of course cannot yet be determined—but because of war conditions we should, and must, all work together to make our production count for the most. Therefore we want to get the very best results possible for each patron, on every bale we gin.

Thank You, Friends

As the season opens, we feel we want to say, "Thank You" again to all our loyal patrons through the many years we have done your ginning, and in this feeling of appreciation every man of our force joins and also pledges the best effort possible on each bale we gin.

tend an inspection at one o'clock in the afternoon. Following inspection the company of infantrymen will be seen in drill maneuvers and that feature will be followed by a band concert by an infantry band.

At four o'clock the parade will move through the streets to the court house lawn. In this parade will be all the soldiers, equipment and trucks from Camp Barkeley, men and cadets from Bruce Field at Ballinger, Co. E of the Texas Defense Guards, Boy Scouts, a company of Red Cross workers and nurses, and other features. Overhead planes will be seen in formation.

Truly, this is to be the biggest day everwise in the history of Ballinger—and the entire citizenship of the town invites one and all to take a day off and attend the big Labor Day celebration.

Quite a number of the more progressive business firms of Ballinger have joined in a page invitation in this issue of The Enterprise to the people of all this section to attend.

sale meat department. Therefore he knows the meat business from a to z. Polk and his two associates, V. Harris and Fred Ball are pleasing and accommodating gentlemen and, therefore, it can be depended on that anyone having business dealings with Frozen Food Co. will receive such courteous treatment, he will be pleased that he has formed business relations with the Co. as to his meat needs.

Custom curing and storage of meats will be found by ranchmen and farmers, and others who grow their meats, to be the safest, most desirable and most economical way to handle meats that one desires to cure for home consumption. Frozen Food Co. has every facility of the most modern type, and their place is as sanitary as the kitchen of the most exacting housewife. One can carry fresh pork there and have it cured and put on storage. Then one can go at one's will and carry meat home as it is needed and the meat will be A-1 in every particular. How different to the haphazard way of the average ranchman or farm owner who seeks to cure and save his own meat.

Messrs. Fred Ball, V. Harris and Doc Polk, here's to you! The Enterprise extends congratulations to the people of the San Angelo trade territory on the wonderful advantages they now have available in the matter of curing and keeping their meats. Frozen Food Co. deserves a large and increasing patronage, and it will be so, soon as the people fully understand as to the advantages this modern curing plant affords.

The Enterprise suggests to each and all who are interested in curing meats, that when you are in San Angelo, you visit Frozen Food Co. If you have not done so already, it will be wonderfully interesting and you will go away convinced that the thing to do, is to have Frozen Food Co. cure and keep your meats for you. Then, too, you will enjoy your visit—for, the trio of gentlemen in charge have a way of making those who visit them to "feel at home."

Neiley Taylor and family have returned to their home at Sweetwater, after a few days visit with Mr. Taylor's mother, Mrs. U. F. Taylor.

Miss Jean Pruitt and Lavelle Brunett are Married

Lavelle Brunett and Miss Norma Jean Pruitt were married in San Angelo, Tuesday, August 25, 1942, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The happy pair departed at once for Tucson, Arizona, where they will make their home.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dollie Pruitt. She was reared here and educated in the Bronte schools and has many friends who will wish her much happiness.

Mr. Brunett is the son of Mrs. Doc Woodall of San Angelo. He graduated in the Bronte schools last year. He went to Arizona and took a merchandise course in the Safeway school, finished, got a job with the stores and came at once for his bride.

Editor's note: We regret that we did not get the information about this happy event in time for last week's issue—but it does not keep us from joining with the many friends of these two happy young people in wishing them great happiness in life.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Springer returned Sunday from a vacation trip that took them to Austin and Rockdale. They returned earlier than they intended on account of the death of M. P. Coleman. They report a most delightful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Brunson now occupy the Clytus Smith residence.

Mrs. Howard Brock of Barnhart is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mackey.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this way of expressing our deep gratitude to our dear friends in Bronte and other places for their many kindnesses to us, in the illness and death of our dear husband, father and grandfather, M. P. Coleman. We know you are the best people on earth and friends as kind and sympathetic as can be. We shall always cherish your aid during his illness and your many kindly words and ministrations when he had passed. The memories of your beautiful friendship make our burden lighter for us now. We shall always cherish you, and may God bless you, each and all.
