Modern-Way Food Market Advises As To Frozen Foods

Pat Bunnell, hustling manager of the Modern-Way Food Market of San Angelo advises the people in this issue of The Enterprise as to the fact that certain fruits and vegetables will be frozen after Saturday, February 20.

This is considerate on the part of the Modern-Way—for, it gives those who happen not to be supplied with the fruits and vegetables an opportunity to get a supply of the things they must have. This is fair and right—for, those who do not have fruits and vegetables should get a reasonable supply. Nobody who is American in sentiment believes in hoarding, but ration means for each and all alike. Therefore, if you need fruits and vegetables such as are involved in the government's frozen order, when you go to San Angelo tomorrow to market, you should stop at the Modern-Way Food Market and get what you need. The Modern-Way, as you know, of course is on Main street, right on your way into the city. You will find a group of as courteous store employes as you ever contacted, if you go there, ready to aid you in every possible way.

Read the page-advertisement of the Modern-Way elsewhere in this issue and go for your grocery needs before it is too late.

OSA FOOD CONSERVATION COURSE

(By Miss Mary Steele—Homemaking Instructor in the Bronte Schools)

The class in Food Conservation meets in the Homemaking Department from 5 till 7 P. M., on Monday and Wednesday. Twelve members are enrolled and visitors are invited to attend whenever possible.

At our first meeting we learned what and how much we should eat each day. We are passing this information on to you so that you will know that every day you need:

Milk—1 pt. for adults.
Vegetables—three or more each day (canned and fresh) one green, leafy, or yellow
one other vegetable. One potato
Fruits—one citrus fruit or juice—or tomato juice.
one other fruit (canned or fresh)
Eggs—one each day per person or at least 3 or 4 a week.

Lean Meat, Poultry, or Fish—one or more servings daily.
Cereals and Bread—at least 2 servings of whole-grain products or enriched bread.
Fats—two or more tablespoons of butter or vitamin-enriched margarine. Count salt pork or bacon as fat.
Sweets—enough to make diet palatable but not enough to spoil the appetite for other foods.

Water—6 or more glasses.
Monday afternoon, Mrs. B. F. Kirk discussed methods of saving sugar and demonstrated the method of making a sugarless cake and icing. This delicious cake was served with coffee during the meeting. These are the recipes used:

Sugarless Cake
Best method for making cake with all corn syrup:

2 1-4 cups sifted flour.
2 1-2 teaspoons Powder.
1-4 teaspoon salt.
1-2 cup butter or other shortening.
2 teaspoons grated orange rind.
1 cup light corn syrup.
2 eggs, unbeaten.
1-2 cup milk.
1 1-2 teaspoons vanilla.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening with orange rind; add syrup very gradually, by tablespoons at first, beating very hard after each addition to keep mixture thick. Add 1-4 of flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each. Add remaining flour in thirds, alternately with milk in halves, beating very well after each addition. Add the vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (75 deg. F.) 30 minutes, or until done.

This cake may be baked in greased 9x9x2-inch pan at 350 degrees F. 45 minutes.)

Recipe for Jelly Frosting
1-2 cup bright colored jelly.
1 egg white.

Combine these and cook in top part of double boiler, beating constantly with egg beater until the frosting will stand in peaks. Additional sugar may be obtained in the Homemaking Department.

Point Rationing was discussed Wednesday afternoon. This is a subject which should be of vital interest to all homemakers as food rationing begins March 1st.

Methods of extending meat will be the theme of our class Monday, February 22nd. Mrs. Haywood Springer will discuss and demonstrate Meat-Saving Cookery.

Mrs. Chas. Keeney, Mrs. Drue Scoggins, Coke WAAC Leaders

The Enterprise received a communication from the U. S. Army Recruiting Office at Lubbock, first of the week, stating that Coke county did not have an enrollee in the WAACS. Then the communication stated that the West Texas District had been asked to furnish 584 WAACS. by March 31. It was then stated that Coke County's quota had been set at 3 and requested The Enterprise to do all we could to get the women enlisted.

Just after the receipt of the above communication, two uniformed men called at The Enterprise office. They were Lt. Raymond Dees and Cpl. Ray Noret. They are leading in the drive in this area of enlisting the women in the WAAC service.

The coming of these two uniformed officers to our office proved to be quite a happy call to the editor. It developed that Lt. Dees hails from our "old home town" in Arkansas. He knows our people there. Hence the Lt. and the editor forgot Hitler for the moment and we talked of "the faces and places of the yesteryears." He knows the old-time families there that we knew when we were a boy—hence, it really made the editor regret that they could not linger longer, for memories of the long past "dead years" were revived and we were stricken with nostalgia. And, by the way, another feature of the call of the Lt. was the fact that it was just fifty years to a day that the editor left "the old home state" and landed on Texas soil. Memories! Memories! And how the years have passed on the lightning's wing. The Lieutenant was a genial "cuss," even if he is from "Arkansaw," as was Cpl. Noret, who also proved to be "home-folks," as he was born at Lamesa.

But, we must turn from the above and to the duties of these two pleasant army officers. They at once set in motion, to have a meeting of the women of the town, in the afternoon at the school house. About thirty women gathered at the appointed hour. After Lt. Dees had gone into full discussion of the WAAC movement and the immediate need that the women enlist and take non-combative work so that the men may be released for combative duty, a call was made, and organization perfected by electing Mrs. Chas. Keeney chairman of the Bronte area. And the organization is already beginning to function. Any woman who is interested (and that should be every woman in Coke county) should see Mrs. Keeney at once.

At 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening in the courthouse at Robert

Former Bronte Teacher Becomes a Bronte Bride

Buck R. Coleman, one of Bronte's boys, claimed as his bride Miss Iva Belle Linn, Friday afternoon, February 12, 1943 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Pace, in a double ring ceremony. The bride and Mrs. Pace were college chums and have been close friends since college days. Rev. J. M. Sibley, pastor of the First Baptist church in Sweetwater, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Linn of Nolan. She has many friends in Bronte, having taught in the Bronte schools in 1940-1941 and 1941-1942, where she was popular with both faculty and student body, as well as in the social circles of Bronte. She was teaching in the Roscoe schools at the time of her marriage, and will continue to teach there through this term.

The bride wore a two-piece black taffeta spring suit with light blue accessories. Her wedding corsage was white gardenias. She is a graduate of the Divide high school and took her A. B. degree from the North Texas State Teachers College, at Denton.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Ruth Coleman. He was born, reared and educated in Bronte. For several years he has been with the Triple A in Coke county and is now field officer. "Buck," as he is called by all, has many friends who are congratulating him on his good fortune, and the friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Coleman join in wishing them bon voyage as they set sail together upon life's seas.

REGISTRATION DATES FOR WAR RATION BOOK NO. 2 SET, NEXT WEEK

Registration dates for war ration book No. 2 have been set for February 25, 26 and 27.

All registrations in Coke county will be at the Bronte and Robert Lee school buildings. Those registering must secure and fill out OPA Form No. R-1301 before appearing for registration. These forms are available at your local ration offices. War ration book No. 1 must be presented at the registration.

Lee Lt. Dees addressed the women of the Robert Lee area, where an organization was perfected similar to the one in Bronte, with Mrs. Drue Scoggins as chairman of that area.

Hence, let it be hoped that, though Coke county's quota is only 3 WAACs, the fine, patriotic women of the county may come much stronger and double and thruple—yea, quadruple the assigned quota.

Here's for you, WAACs of Coke County!

WHOOPIING COUGH IN TEXAS IS SHOWING A STEADY INCREASE

Austin, Texas, February 18—Inasmuch as the incidence of whooping cough in Texas has shown a steady increase during the past two months, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said today, that strenuous effort should be made to control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease.

"The only source from which whooping cough may be contracted is another case of whooping cough, and isolation of cases must be universally practiced to prevent its spread," Dr. Cox stated.

"The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," he declared. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious."

The first sign of this disease is

REVIVAL

Mrs. J. W. Tammen of San Angelo will be in charge. Come and bring your family and invite your friends.

Miss Jean Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Bell, has gone to Los Angeles, California where she will enter Burbank High school. Her brother, Allen, is in the service and Miss Bell will stay with her sister-in-law.

usually a dry cough, which persists night and day and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Cox stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children, until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Cox asserted "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so may seriously impair the child's health."

WAR-TIME FARM LEASE BY LANDLORDS TO TENANTS ARRANGED

To give landlords an opportunity to express their patriotism and to enable them to work with their tenants to increase the productivity of rented farms, a special war-time lease has been developed by the Farm Security Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Copies of the lease forms, which are free to landlords and tenants alike, are available at the Farm Security office at Robert Lee, according to Miss Vera R. Martin, rural rehabilitation supervisor. The brief, simple lease forms are designed to eliminate differences as to tenure, crops and their division, improvements, and what plans should be made for the future. Such cooperation will assure an all-out effort by landlords and tenants for victory.

The war lease covers the following points:

1. An adequate description of the farm to be occupied and the land to be used.
2. A suitable length of tenure which will remove the possibility of "moves" during the war.
3. A fair and equitable rate of rent and division of crops.
4. A list of the number of livestock to be kept, the arrangements and conditions necessary and proper for the care and management of the animals.
5. A definite acreage to be set aside for a home garden, pasture, and livestock feed.
6. Arrangements and condition under which farm improvements may be made.

The war lease can be used as a supplement to an existing lease, or as a lease where none exists.

Tenants who need financing to carry out the war production programs should make application to the nearest Farm Security Administration office. Loans are available for operating expenses, capital goods, group services, and the lease of land wherever these are needed to bring into full production the available land and the labor of the farm family.
