Miss Lowrance and Mr. Duckworth Marry Dec. 18

Wedding vows between Miss Nola Oleta Lowrance of Bronte and L. N. Duckworth, Jr., of San Angelo, were exchanged Dec. 18 in a double ring ceremony in San Angelo. The vows were read in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brickey, 20 S. Randolph. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Duckworth, Sr.

Marshall Davis, Church of Christ minister, read the vows before a background of white gladioli and tapers. Miss Norma Seals, organist, played "Because" and "You Belong To Me" and accompanied Miss Flo Matas as she sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a navy blue dinner gown with navy accessories and a white hat. Her bridal bouquet was of pink carnations with navy blue and pink streamers.

Miss Merle Kuykendall of San Angelo was maid of honor. She wore a pink lace gown with black accessories and a pearl choker. Her flowers were pink and yellow carnations.

A reception followed the wedding in the Brickey home. A blue and silver sleigh encircled with white candles decorated the room. Mrs. Brickey presided at the wedding cake and Miss Martha Brickey was at the register. Mrs. Clarence Lowe was at the coffee service.

Mrs. Duckworth is a graduate of Bronte high school and has been employed in the commercial department of the San Angelo Telephone Co.

Mr. Duckworth attended Lake View high school and served in the United States Army. He is now in the dairy business.

The couple are living at 218 E. Harris.

Barbara Harwell And J. I. Billings Marry Dec. 26

The ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harwell provided the setting for the Dec. 26 wedding of their daughter, Barbara Joyce to James Ike Billings of Del Rio. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Billings of Del Rio.

The Rev. Maynard Rogers, pastor of the Bronte Baptist church, read the double ring ceremony in front of the fireplace which was decorated with greenery and baskets of white gladioli. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Wedding music was furnished by Miss Eugenia Hurley of San Angelo.

For her wedding attire, the bride chose a white wool suit and accessories of navy blue. She carried a white Bible with an orchid and orchid streamers.

Miss Violeta Harwell was her sister's maid of honor and Jack Brown of Del Rio, a cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

A reception was held in the Harwell home soon after the wedding with Miss Eugenia Hurley serving the wedding cake. Mrs. Sep Hall of Colorado City served coffee, and Lou Emma Whitehead of Del Rio was in charge of the bride's book.

The bride is a graduate of Robert Lee High School and is now a junior student at Sul Ross College in Alpine.

The bridegroom graduated at Del Rio high school, where his parents are engaged in ranching. He is also a junior at Sul Ross College.

The couple left for honeymoon trip to New Orleans. Upon their return they will live in Alpine where they will resume their studies at Sul Ross.

TO MARRY—Miss Barbara Harwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harwell of Bronte, is to wed James Ike Billings, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Billings of Del Rio. Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage is made by the bride-elect's parents. Vows will be exchanged Dec. 26 in the Harwell home.

Mary Crownover Married to Roy Wilkins Dec. 26

The marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Crownover to Mr. Roy Davis Wilkins took place Friday, December 26, at 10 a. m. at the First Baptist Church in Ballinger. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Crownover of Ballinger and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wilkins, Sr. of Bronte.

The Rev. H. S. Smith, pastor of a Brownwood Baptist church, officiated with a double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a pink suit with navy blue shoes, bag and hat and pink gloves. Her corsage was an orchid.

Miss Nelda Faubion of Ballinger was maid of honor. She wore a gray suit with brown accessories and a pink corsage.

L. L. Wilkins, Jr., brother of the bridegroom served as best man. He is from Elgin AFB, Florida.

The couple took a short wedding trip to San Antonio but are now at home in Bronte where he is employed by the South Texas Lumber Company.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ray and Bill Don of Lorraine and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Goble of Hadacol, Texas.

Gob Franklin to Play Guitar in H. Heidt Show

William (Gob) Franklin of Bronte was one of the three contestants chosen to appear on the Horace Heidt show in San Angelo on the afternoon and night of January 7. Others selected were Miss Nancy LeMay, vocalist, and Steve Hancock, pianist and drummer. Both of the others are from San Angelo.

They were chosen by a representative of Heidt, Sandy Johnson, at San Angelo College Auditorium Tuesday of last week from a list of 23 who were auditioned.

Gob plays the steel guitar and played "Hawaiian Sunset" at the audition. He will play the same number on the Heidt show on Wednesday, January 7. He will perform at two shows, one at 6:15 and the other at 8:15 p. m.

The Heidt shows are directed at finding new talent, and the audience chooses the winner. In a letter to Gob this week, Mr. Johnson says, "Wishing you the best of luck. Give them a good show and a bright arrangement and the audience might like you very much."
