Rules for Safe Living Given

The 10th National Farm Safety Week is being observed July 19-25, 1953. National Farm Safety Week is to emphasize the importance of safety-consciousness among farmers and their families.

Mental alertness, know-how and common sense attitude toward farm safety are more essential to safety in agriculture than a long list of rules and regulations. For the sake of being specific, however, ten commandments for farm safety are listed below:

1. Keep machines in good repair. Make sure your equipment is in safe working condition. Keep all guards and safety devices in place.

2. Operate tractors safely: Start tractors smoothly and turn corners slowly. Avoid ditches, banks and soft grounds.

3. Know and obey all traffic laws: Be a safe, careful driver and drive a safe car.

4. Be firefrighted: Don't smoke around the barn. Don't start fires with kerosene. Be careful with matches.

5. Speak to animals when approaching them: Animals may "bolt" if startled, so calmly assure them of your presence when approaching.

6. Be a good housekeeper: Keep things systematic in your home and on your farm. Have a place for everything and keep everything in its place.

7. Watch your step to prevent falls: Keep ladders in good repair. Make sure barn floors have no treacherous holes. Watch your step.

8. Follow safety instructions: Following printed instructions can save your life. Read and heed them whether they are "No Smoking" signs in the barn, or labels on machinery.

9. Know and obey water safety rules: Don't swim alone. Know the depth of the water before diving in. Sit still in small boats.

10. Apply first aid promptly: Keep first aid kits in the home, in the barn, and on the tractor. Seconds count when infection may set in.

County Agent Travis B. Hicks has urged 4-H Club members of Coke County to get some red paint and go around the farm, putting a spot of red on every danger spot. He said he would like to have a report from each 4-H member on how many danger spots were marked.

SCS Supervisors Seek Further Drouth Aid

Supervisors of Coke County Soil Conservation District are trying to get the government soil conservation payments program changed to further benefit farmers and ranchers in the drouth stricken areas. At their regular monthly meeting on July 14 they decided to take some action.

The board is sending letters to the President, senators, representatives and agricultural leaders of the state and nation. The letters urge that the government pay seventy per cent of the costs of installing conservation practices next year, instead of only fifty per cent as has been proposed by Agriculture Department people in Washington.

Seventy per cent of the cost of approved practices is being paid by the government's Agriculture Conservation Program this year. The local board opposes reducing the payment rate to fifty per cent, because they think that most farmers and ranchers in the drouth area will be unable to pay the other half of the cost next year. If this proves true, most of Coke County's allocation of money will go unused and less work will be done on the land.

The Agriculture Conservation Program provides the money which is paid to farmers to help in building terraces and tanks, in eradicating brush, in seeding grass, and other similar practices.

The board of county men is recommending that the 1954 ACP include a provision whereby farmers and ranchers can be paid some money for resting a pasture next year. The supervisors are recommending that the rate of payment for land which is not stocked be about seventy per cent of the average lease price.

Supervisor Clarence Webb has commented, "Even with rain, most of our pastures will need lots of rest if they are to recover from the drouth. Government payments would encourage more deferment and the conservation benefits would be great."

The supervisors hope they can get enough support to have these measures included in the 1954 program for all of the area which the President has proclaimed a drouth disaster area.

They are asking for no increase in the amount of money to be spent, only for a change in the way of spending it. Congress has already made the appropriations for next year's ACP.

W. E. Burns, W. C. Shamblin, Robert Walker, Clarence Webb and Bryan Yarbrough are the supervisors of the Coke County Soil Conservation District.

Other members of the squad from West Texas are Theora Calverley of Garden City, Jay Jean Butler of San Angelo, Blackshear, Charlene Atkinson of Eldorado and Dueda McQueen, Ladene Havlik and Robbie Thomas of Lakeview.

Ten of 12 champions crowned at last year's meet in Waterbury, Conn. will be on hand to defend their laurels. Crack female track and field performers have been pouring into San Antonio all week for this event to be held at Alamo Heights Stadium.

Jo Dell will be a Bronte senior next year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Walton. Mary Ann, the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Gray of Robert Lee, will be a junior at Bronte this fall.

SPECIAL RATES ARE IN EFFECT UNTIL JULY 31

Special yearly rates on The Bronte Enterprise continue in effect through the rest of this week and next, until July 31. Many subscribers are taking advantage of the one-fourth saving to send subscriptions to relatives and out-of-town friends, who particularly enjoy receiving the home town news.

Subscribers in Coke and adjoining counties may get a year's subscription to The Enterprise for $1.50 while subscribers elsewhere may have a year's subscription for $2.00. This offer will not be repeated again this year and everyone is invited to take advantage of the saving—and to send a gift subscription to out of town friends.

METHODISTS PLAN REVIVAL MEETING AT BROOKSHIRE

A Revival Meeting at the Congregational Church, in the Brookshire community, is to begin Saturday night, July 25, and will continue through August 6. There will be two services daily at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Evangelist for the meeting will be Dr. W. A. Godsey, of Laurel, Miss., a Hebrew who was born in Jerusalem.

Rev. O. D. Cox, pastor of the church, said that Dr. Godsey is an interesting speaker. "He attended his own funeral, which you may not understand, but we want you to come and hear him speak in his own words," Rev. Cox said.

He continued, "This is an opportunity that we may never again have, so we invite you to come and be with us."

It is planned for Dr. Godsey to preach at the Miles High school auditorium Wednesday night, July 29. Therefore, there will be no services that night at the Brookshire church.

Work Begins on School Addition

Construction was to have begun earlier this week on the athletic house to be added on to the local school. The 46 by 20 foot addition will be tied on to the gymnasium.

W. C. Rutherford, San Angelo contractor, was awarded the contract at a school board meeting Monday. Rutherford was the lowest of five bidders, with a bid of $8,832.

The Athletic House will include showers, dressing rooms, rest rooms and storage space. Architecture of the addition will harmonize with the present structure.

Annual summer roundup for pre-school children will be held next Thursday, July 20, at the Harris Clinic. Parents are requested to bring their children during the regular office hours, 9 to 12 in the morning and 2:30 to 5 in the afternoon.

The roundup, sponsored by the PTA, is held each summer for children who will start to school in the first grade in the next school term. Parents of all children starting to school this fall are urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Children will be given complete physical check-ups, including vaccinations, shots, or booster shots, if needed. X-Rays will also be given if indicated by the examination.

There will be no charges for those children examined. Dr. J. R. Harris donates his services and the Bronte Parent-Teachers organization furnishes the materials needed.

Mrs. John R. Harris is health chairman for the local PTA and is in charge of the roundup program.

C. R. Smith & Co. Now in Completely Remodeled Home

A new hardwood floor was put down all over the building, the ceiling was lowered, new doors installed, new slimline lighting installed, new shelving and display tables built, and the building was repainted throughout.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are inviting everyone to come by and see their new building this weekend and to take advantage of the specials they are offering.

YOUR SENATOR REPORTS

By Lyndon B. Johnson

$118,000,000: The Secretary of Agriculture has the authority to spend up to $118,000,000—available now—to stabilize the cattle market. This was pointed out in a speech I made Monday. Eighteen years ago Congress set up a fund for encouraging domestic consumption and export of agricultural commodities. Thirty per cent of our custom receipts go into this fund every year.

The fund has $118,000,000 now available to buy up cattle and help stabilize the market. The Secretary of Agriculture has only to act.

WATER: Shortly after I first came to the Senate, I asked the Department of Agriculture to make a study of Texas water problems. The report of the study, now made public, offers the basis for a far-reaching program of water conservation and use.

Texas uses about 7.7 million acre feet of water per year. But, the report points out, this represents only about 15 per cent of the average annual discharge of streams bordering or originating in the State. Texas uses two and one-half times as much water as in 1940.

As I have said time and again, water is more important to us than oil. The future of our State depends on how we conserve our water. We will need it long after our oil is gone.

FARM PRICES, INCOME: Mid-June index of prices received by Texas farmers for their products dropped 5.7 per cent from the previous month, according to the Department of Agriculture.

Texas farmers received $120,000,000 less income the first five months of this year than during the first five months of 1952, reports the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. That's a drop of 18 per cent.

PLAYBACK: From a speech by Lyndon Johnson, delivered in Texas in October, 1952:

"My father was a farmer... He never got into the big money, but most of the time he made a pretty good living. There were three times that Dad went broke. The first time was when Theodore Roosevelt was President. The second time was when Warren Harding was President. The third time was when Herbert Hoover was President. That was when we finally had to give up the farm.

"Maybe it was just a coincidence that farmers went broke only under Republican Administrations. But that's stretching coincidence pretty thin."

EISENHOWER PARK: We passed and sent to the White House the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Army to turn over to Texas at fair market value land to be known as Eisenhower State Park. The 160 acres of land which the Federal Government would convey to the State by quitclaim deed, lies within the Denison Dam and Reservoir Project.

NEWS BRIEFS: Additional loans to two Texas colleges have been announced by the Housing and Home Finance Agency: $402,000 more to the University of Texas for construction of a cafeteria and $386,000 to Hardin-Simmons to build a dormitory for women students.

CARD OF THANKS

To each and everyone who contributed in any way to lighten our grief in our time of distress, including lovely flowers, so thoughtfully sent, we sincerely thank you.

15 of these big icing machines are in operation at ice-servicing points along the Santa Fe.

Ever see so much fuss just to chill an orange?

It's the best way there is today to refrigerate a "reefer"—but Santa Fe is developing an even newer and better way to do the job

In 60 seconds flat, the giant ice-crushing machines Santa Fe recently installed can fill the bunkers of a refrigerator car with five tons of ice! They are the newest and fastest machines for icing cars yet devised. And Santa Fe "reefers" are the most efficient type of refrigerator cars now on the rails. These refrigerator cars and icing machines have carried the technique of ice refrigeration to the ultimate of present day knowledge.

WHAT ABOUT TOMORROW?

We can't be sure, BUT—Santa Fe is now experimenting with a newer way to refrigerate cars automatically for hauling foods which may require temperatures as low as 25° below zero. 30 new experimental refrigerator cars designed by Santa Fe, built in its own shops and each with a capacity of 128,000 pounds of frozen foods, are now being utilized in the movement of frozen foods. Each of these new cars has its own thermostatically-controlled diesel-driven compressor-type refrigerator unit. It carries 400 gallons of fuel (almost the exact amount Lindbergh used to fly the Atlantic). It can maintain sub-zero temperatures all the way from California to New York.

BENEFITS FELT ALL ALONG THE LINE

All along the line, people and communities feel the benefits of this building new wherever it actually occurs on the Santa Fe—and day-after-day, something new is done to make "America's New Railroad" a little better.

The millions of dollars this newness costs Santa Fe doesn't cost you a single penny in the taxes you pay,

Sheep and lambs were fully steady. Fat lambs topped at $22 to $23.50, and feeders drew $12 to $16.50, and were quotable to $17 or better in loads and of suitable quality and weights. Hogs moved at strong to 50 cents higher prices and again topped at $27, the year's best levels, and equalling the best price in five years here. Sows were steady at $23 down. Pigs sold at $22 down.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings sold at $18 to $22.50, and are quotable to $23.50 and above. Common to medium sorts Fort Worth—Strong point of the market Monday at Fort Worth was the demand for calves. Both stocker and feeder buyers and the packer buyers were competing strongly for the supply and the result was a strong to $1 higher market. Both replacement and fat calves topped at $20 to $21 on Monday and were considered quotable over that in load lots of the proper kinds.

Cows were uneven, selling on steady to easier basis, with prices about in line with last week's close. Bulls were off $1 per hundred.

Very small numbers of fat steers and yearlings arrived, and grain-feds were very scarce. Some broadening inquiry is noted for suitable feeders and indications are that sizable numbers of these fleshy grassers and supplementally fed steers and yearlings will wind up in feedlots.

Fat cows drew $10.50 to $14, while canners and cutters drew $6.50 to $10.50. Bulls sold for $8 to $14.

Good and choice fat calves sold from $17 to $21, and common and medium butcher calves drew $12 to $16. Cull sorts sold from $8 to $12.

Good and choice stocker calves sold from $16 to $21 and plain to medium sorts sold at $12 to $16. Good and choice stocker steer yearlings sold from $15 to $18.50, and heifer calves drew $19 down, and heifer yearlings sold from $16.50 down. Stocker cows cashed at $10 to $16. Older replacement steers cashed at $12 to $17.50.

Good and choice fat lambs sold $20 to $23.50, while cull, and medium offerings sold for $8 to $18. Stockers and feeders drew $10 to $16.50. Fat yearlings sold at $12 to $15, and feeder yearlings sold at $10 to $12. Slaughter ewes $3.50 to $5.50, stocker ewes $6.00 to $9.00. Old wethers $6.00 to $9.00, yearling ewes $13.00 down. Two year olds, $100 down.

The First Grade Teacher

By Josephine Lemmons Primary Teacher, Shelby County, Indiana

When I am introduced as a teacher, I am usually asked what I teach. When I say "first grade" I generally hear a very flat "Oh." I have never been certain whether it is an expression of pity, sympathy, disgust, or perhaps disinterest. Always I wish I had time to explain to them like this:

Yes, I teach the first grade. Where else would a handsome and very young man put his arms round me and ask, "Do you know that I love you?"

Where else could I tie so many hair ribbons and belts and daily see a style show of pretty dresses and shirts?

Where else could I wear the same dress day after day and be told each time that it is pretty?

Where else could I walk up and down aisles and have warm little hands touch me?

Where else could I have the privilege of wiggling loose teeth and receive a promise that I may pull them when they are loose enough?

Where else could I eat a soiled piece of candy from a grimy little hand and not become ill? (I have to eat it because he watches to see that I do.)

Where else would the future look as bright as it does amid an energetic group to whom nothing is impossible?

Where else could I guide the first letter formations of a chubby little hand that may some day write a book or an important document?

Where else could I forget my own aches and pains because of so many cut fingers, scratched knives, bumped heads and broken hearts that need care?

Where else could I forget taxes and even the "state of the nation" because Stevie isn't grasping reading as he should and other methods must be tried?

Where else would my mind have to stay so young as with a group whose attention span is so short that I must always keep a "bag of tricks" up my sleeve?

Where else could I feel so close to my Maker as I do each year when, because of something I have done, little children learn to read?

Yes, I do teach first grade, Mr. and Mrs. America. And I love it!

Correct Procedure Important in Social Security Reports

Employers can stretch their social security tax dollar and save book work by being fully aware of the procedure of correctly reporting the wages of their employees under the Social Security Act, according to an official of the Social Security Administration. He pointed out that the quarterly returns covering employee's wages during the April-June quarter are due by the end of July.

Most employers in this area insure against delinquent or incorrect reporting by following an orderly procedure in which they take an employee's name and number directly from the account-number card at the time of hiring, record such information in a permanent section of their bookkeeping system, and establish a quarterly date for completion of the reports well in advance of the due date.

There are two common errors which make necessary additional contacts with employers, employees, or self-employed persons. The first, and most common, is the submitting of return bearing incorrect information in the form of a wrong number or name. Such factors changing of a name by marriage and failure to change the name on the social security records, the transposition of digits by the employer when taking a new employee's social security account number at the time of hiring, are examples of this type of error.

He underscored the point that only by cooperation between the employers, employees, and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, of which social security is a part, can the tax dollar be conserved and valuable time saved in the administration of the law.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful for the gifts, cards, and flowers during my illness. Also thanks to Dr. Harris and the nurses for their kindness.

Mrs. Oscar Renshaw

Mrs. Edwin McGuire and Adron are spending a few days with relatives in Waco.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Hufstutler are here for a visit with friends and relatives. He is on furlough from the army and has been stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. He is to report to Fort Lewis, Washington, on August 3 and expects to be sent overseas.

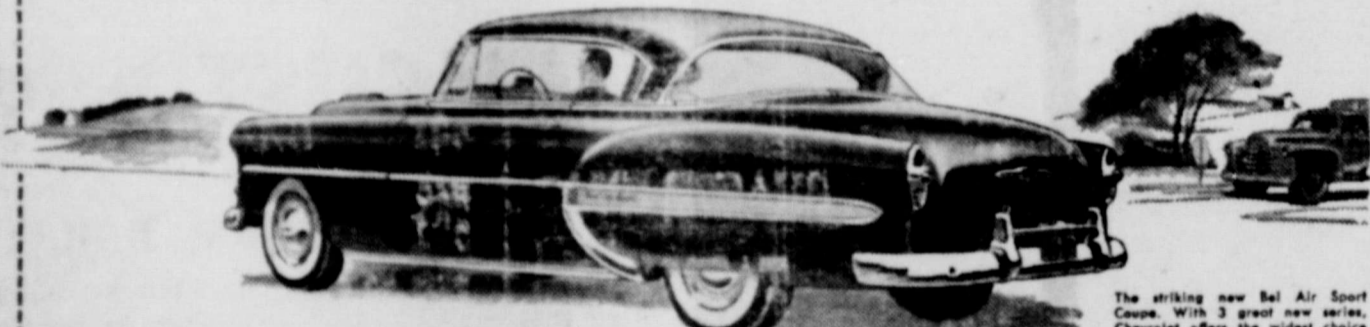

Mrs. F. S. Higginbotham recently returned to her home here after visiting her mother, Mrs. J. P. Hutchinson, in Afton, Okla. She was accompanied home by her brother, Bill Hutchinson, of Odessa.

Out of the depths I cry to Thee, O Lord; O Lord, hear my voice! (Psalm 129, 1.)

Deep within himself, each of us will carry a hidden grief that no friend can comfort and no physician can heal. Let us remember, though, that our Heavenly Father, through Christ the Redeemer, will hear our prayers, will forgive us again and yet again, and heal with the peace that passeth all understanding.
