about dimmitt and castro county

by b. m. n.

The possibilities of Castro County agriculture and stock farming was well exemplified at the recent Castro County Fair. Probably never before in the history of the county has there been such an array of fine livestock and farm produce on exhibit at a public exposition. The samples of fine vegetables and crop products are ample evidence that the county can produce all types of cash crops necessary to developing one of the finest diversified farming areas in the entire country.

County Agent Ed McLeroy, County Home Demonstration Agent Robin Vann, all department superintendents and all exhibitors diligently worked toward producing the fair which has been declared by many as the best in the region or in the history of the local organization. The community owe these people a vote of thanks and gratitude for their untiring efforts in producing the occasion that calls to attention the great possibilities of our area in a manner that is not possible any other way.

Other departments of the fair were also admirably handled, especially the fair parade. Staging of a parade of the type witnessed in Dimmitt Saturday afternoon requires hours and hours of work by the parade committee and the people who enter floats. The floats this year were the most beautiful ever to participate in a local parade and as a result, no doubt, will lead to greater effort on the part of more people to make the parade even bigger and better next year.

One department, over which local committees had no control, was the weather which did everything but cooperate in the staging of the fair. Old man weather disregarded all of our desires for a good fair and blowed and blowed on Friday and Saturday the two big fair days. Committees were appointed to arrange for everything except decent weather, that detail was overlooked this year, we have been assured however that a weather committee will be appointed in ample time next year to make arrangements for ideal weather during fair days.

The lack of rides and other carnival concessions at the fair was a disappointment to the kids of the community (as well as some of us adults) and that was another condition over which local people had no control. The Fair Association contracted with a carnival company several months ago for their appearance at the fair and when fair week rolled around and no carnival appeared it was too late to make other arrangements.

Despite the absence of the usual amusement facilities, and fair weather, the fair was a huge success.

Somebody is going to get a nice prize for winning the first bale of cotton in Dimmitt this year. One nice thing about having the first bale, the mortgage doesn't cover the prize money.

Me and the children's mother attended the first meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association Tuesday night. It was a very formal program. The parents on the program tried to act like they had had, at least, some education, and the teachers of course tried to leave the impression that they were qualified to teach. Me, I didn't do anything, at least I didn't think I did, but my wife said I rattled my uppers and lowers all during the meeting. I have, in the past, attended a few P.T.A. meetings but never before felt free to vote. Not so Tuesday night. I voted on every proposition because I had to pay my membership dues before the program started. Sometimes I wonder if it isn't better to express an opinion by keeping your mouth shut and voting, than to always be sounding off and never voting.

It was a wonderful meeting of parents and teachers. Got to wondering whether an education was an asset or liability, teachers have to take care of the kids nine months while the parents are only bothered with them for three months of the year, guess it all depends on the way you look at it. Joe Cowen is the new president. Mr. J. E. White is the vice-

The board has under its jurisdiction the four county district composed of Randall, Deaf Smith, Parmer and Castro counties. The appointment of Blagg fills the vacancy on the board created by the resignation of Franklin Latimer, a member of the original board.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Height have returned from a trip to Washington and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Thompson were called to Big Spring on Thursday by the death of his grandmother. They accompanied the body to San Angelo for interment, returning home on Sunday.

We wish to make the following correction from last week's report: Miss Lillian Hamm is not in College but is employed in the Hale Center Bank. Dean Phillips is attending W.T.S.C. at Canyon and not Dear Sanders.

Theron Hawkins, Leland Hacker and Miss Joy Stelter of Houston, who has been a house guest of the Hawkins' returned on Tuesday to Waco to resume their college work at Baylor University.

Although the temperature only dropped to 40 degrees Sunday and Monday mornings, John Rice and Mr. Menshew both report light frost at their farms. Hart had only a trace of moisture Saturday night.

If you have scattered bunches of Johnson grass in your fields right now is a good time to kill it by sprinkling with atrazine or by spraying with solutions. Consult your County Agent or your spray man. You only have to drive down the highway toward Plainview to see what this grass can do to our fine fields if neglected. Maybe you do not plan to farm your place long enough to be hurt but surely someone will follow you and you should feel the responsibility of leaving a good heritage.

Palbearers were Otis, Joe and Charles Hastings, J. E. Harman, Leon Booth, and J. B. Farris, all nephews.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hershey visited their nephew, Don Stafford in an Amarillo hospital Saturday night. They also visited their daughters, Miss Thelma Hershey and Mrs. D. C. Sorgenfrei and Mr. Sorgenfrei.

Last Rites Held For Mr. J. C. Hastings

Funeral services for James Gano Hastings, 52, of Dimmitt were conducted at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Dimmitt Methodist Church. Rev. E. Lee Stanford, pastor, officiated.

Hastings, a resident of Dimmitt the past fifty years, was found dead in bed at his home about 5:30 Monday afternoon. Castro County Sheriff Houston Fowlkes said one end of a rubber hose attached to an open gas jet was under bed covers with which Hastings head was covered.

Neighbors found the man in bed fully clothed. Officers were summoned. Sheriff Fowlkes estimated Hastings had been dead about an hour when his body was found.

Hastings was born Dec. 5, 1898, in Wise County and moved with his parents two years later to Dimmitt. He was a veteran of World War I and until about ten years ago was employed as assistant cashier in a Hereford bank.

He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors are three brothers, Joe Hastings, Dimmitt; J. J. Hastings, Wheeler; and Charles Hastings, Dumas; four sisters, Mrs. Ernest Harman, Lubbock; Mrs. Jack Wright, Hereford; Mrs. Purvie Daniels, Dimmitt and Mrs. Ulysses Davis, Dimmitt.

Interment was in the Dimmitt cemetery. The Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford had charge of arrangements.

Palbearers were Otis, Joe and Charles Hastings, J. E. Harman, Leon Booth, and J. B. Farris, all nephews.

DIMMITT MAN STARS FOR McMURRY'S INDIANS

Abilene, Sept. 17.—Carl Jowell, Dimmitt junior, was one of the outstanding performers here Saturday night as McMurry College's Indians clipped New Mexico Western University's Mustangs 18-6.

Jowell, who quarterbacked for the Indians, completed 7 of 10 passes for 83 total yards and also scored when he "sneaked" over from the one-yard line mid-way in the final quarter.

The Dimmitt hand-off specialist is also due to start against the Midwestern University Indians here this Saturday, Sept. 22.

Swain Burkett Resigns As Castro County Attorney

According to an announcement this week by County Judge Robert Estes the resignation of Swain Burkett as County Attorney has been accepted by the Commissioners Court, and Russel Moran has been appointed as his successor in the office.

Mr. Burkett stated that he had tendered his resignation to the Court several weeks ago to be effective September 15. He has served as County Attorney of Castro County continuously for the past fourteen years. Burkett declared that the decision to resign as county attorney was made in order that he might devote all of his time to private law practice.

Mr. Moran, who accepted and qualified for the office of County Attorney, was sworn in September 17. Moran has been a Dimmitt resident and has practiced law here for the past year. He moved with his family from Mineral Wells where he had served as County Attorney of Palo Pinto County for the past several years.

Boys entering barrows are as follows: Dennis Acker, Jack Acker, Joe Pohlmeier, Dennis Hoelting, Richard Hoelting, Dennis Huseman, and Alphonse Huseman, all of Nazareth. Truman Swopes of Hart, Donald Renfro, Don Mobby and Bob Anthony of Dimmitt.

Boys planning to show Club Calves at Dallas are Bob Anthony of Dimmitt, Truman Swopes of Hart and Dennis Acker of Nazareth.

Lamb entries were by Joe Percy Hart and John Bridges of Hart.

All of these animals look good at the present and there should be some winners from Castro County when the judging is over on October 18.

Castro County will also be represented at the Amarillo Fair as it gets under way September 24.

Boys showing barrows will include Jack Acker, Tom Acker, Tommy Brockman and Alvin Kleman all of Nazareth, and Don Mobby of Dimmitt.

Donald Renfro will be shooting for another first with his pen of three Chester White barrows that were judged first place at the recent County Fair.

County Agent Ed McLeroy will be in Amarillo Sunday September 23, setting up a County Agricultural exhibit and anyone having fresh fruit and vegetables that they would like to have shown are urged to bring them by the office by Saturday afternoon.

Jesse Edgar Stanford left this week for Dallas where he enrolled as a sophomore in S. M. U.

Health Talks

Calories seem much easier to understand when they are explained by any means other than what they are, units of heat. So suppose you consider calories as pennies, ten calories to a penny, and take up the subject of a 1500-calorie diet as it would look in dollars and cents.

You can budget this $1.50 diet just like you do your business or household finances.

Every day you are given $1.50 to spend on food and just to make it a little easier you are given an extra ten per cent, 15 cents, in case you absolutely can't stretch that allowance to cover your needs; that 15 cents will be disregarded in the original reckoning, however, but you have that to fall back on occasionally.

Before you start figuring how you're going to spend your salary or household allowance, you always have to take out first the money for such necessities as rent, utilities and groceries. You have to do the same thing with your diet budget. Since you must observe the rules of good nutrition, even on a diet, you first take out of your $1.50, the allotments for milk and milk products, bread, and food fats. Milk will cost you 33 cents of your budget money, bread will run 20 cents, and fats will be 17 cents. So before you start figuring you've already spent 70 cents. But you've taken care of three of the seven basic items.

The other 80 cents, divided among the other four of the seven basic foods, will have to be distributed for best purposes as 18 cents for fruits, 10 cents for potatoes, and 5 cents for vegetables, leaving 47 cents for meats. Meats run awfully high in a calorie budget, even as they do in a money budget, so that really isn't as much meat as it seems; it includes eggs, too.

Then you start figuring a little closer on each item to see what you can get for your money.

Bread is pretty easy to figure out. You get three slices a day which should be eaten one at each meal. That takes for granted that you are eating three meals a day because if you don't this type diet won't work, anyway; it is based upon no skipping of breakfast. To provide the bulk and proper nutrition of the diet, the bread quota is usually broken down into two thin slices of enriched white bread and one thin slice of whole wheat.

Bread and butter on a reducing diet may seem foreign to anything you've ever heard of before but their inclusion is considered necessary to maintain good health even while taking off a few pounds at a time.

Butter or margarine fortified with vitamin A is allowed on the diet, encouraged on the diet, in fact, for five teaspoonsful. Two teaspoons of French dressing may be substituted for one teaspoon of butter and one teaspoon of mayonnaise or salad dressing is also considered the equal of one teaspoon of butter.

Then on the subject of milk, you are allotted one pint of fresh whole milk a day. That includes milk you may use in coffee or in cooking, milk for all purposes.

There are also substitutes for milk which may be included in the diet regularly or occasionally in place of the pint of whole fresh milk. Since milk is supposed to be 33 "cents" of your calorie budget, you could take your pick of the other items, up to 33 cents, in place of a pint of milk.

The values of other milk products are about as follows:

Two tablespoons cream for coffee, 11 cents; two and a half tablespoons cottage cheese, 5 cents; one inch cube Cheddar type cheese, plain or grated, 8 cents; cultured buttermilk or skim milk, each 9 cents for a half-pint; small glass of fresh whole milk, (4 ounces), 8 cents; or the big baby of the milk family, plain ice cream, 21 cents.

You can see from such a table as that, if you don't drink milk normally then there are many different ways you can substitute for it and still get the amount of milk products which is considered essential to good health. For instance, you could use cream in your two cups of coffee and eat a half cup (measuring cup) of ice cream and use up your calorie cents that are allotted to milk products; two tablespoons of cream are 11 cents and a half cup of ice cream is 21 cents.

So there is plenty of variety and plenty of good food available on a sensible diet. When diets guarantee to eke the pounds off faster than your doctor considers safe, they exclude these foods which are considered, medically, vital to good health. A good diet which will reduce the weight sensibly over a period of time is not really so drastic a change as it is simply a new awareness of the amounts of foods which you eat.

Since the ax was one of the very first tools used by man, it has held a prominent place in mankind's customs. The ancient veneration for it has a faint modern counterpart in the care and respect shown an ax by the man who must use it frequently. He doesn't like to see anyone else use his axes, so the best thing is to buy your own and not borrow one for a camping trip. If you wonder what ax you should buy, here are suggestions from veteran outdoorsman Bill Wolf.

An ax should fit the job at hand. In a very broad sense, this means it should be as large as the user can conveniently handle. The person who has a fixed cabin or camp, or has to do much timbering would be foolish to use a small hand ax. The person who has to carry an ax into the woods on his body would be just as foolish to take a big heavy-headed, long-handled woodsman's ax with him. However, he shouldn't carry the smallest, lightest thing he can find, either.

We'll start with the big babies and work down. Let us say you have a cabin requiring much firewood. You will want an ax with a head weighing from three to five pounds, a handle measuring not less than 32 inches with 36 inches preferred. The choice of single bit or double bit, straight or curved handle is up to you. If limited to just one ax, I'd say get a single-bitted one with a curved handle, because it can be used for cutting, splitting and pounding. Get a straight handle on the double bit.

If the ax is to be carried on a packsack camping trip, its weight and length of handle are of great importance. Handle lengths will range from 24 to 28 inches, weight of the head from 2 to 2½ pounds. The choice is pretty much a personal one and the buyer should ask himself: Does it feel right? Does it swing right? Can it be carried in or on my pack without the handle protruding to catch on brush?

The so-called belt axes, hand axes or camping axes are miniatures of the fore-going. They have a distinct place in the outdoor scene, but the camper who expects to do much chopping should not depend on one of them alone. They are useful for chopping kindling and for sharpening and pounding stakes, but they will tire the person who uses them for heavier duty, since they are strictly one-handed affairs.

THE LAW AND YOU

By Robert (Bob) Kirk

DO YOU KNOW what laws the Legislature passed at its last session regarding punch boards?

In keeping with its general anti-grime policy, the last session of the legislature passed an act defining punch boards and establishing penalties for the possession and use of the same. Punch boards were described as any board, card or device which consists of covered holes, each filled with a rolled or folded slip containing a concealed number, name, a symbol of any kind whatsoever; and which, when punched out or removed, indicates whether the player receives, as a result of the application of an element of chance, nothing or a prize of money or other thing; also included in the description was "any board, card or device by whatsoever name or description known, which permits the player to select in any manner a number or numbers, name or names, symbol or symbols, of any kind whatsoever, and which, when so selected indicates whether the player receives, as a result of the application of an element of chance, prize or money or other thing of value."

This statute makes it unlawful to manufacture, own, store, keep, exhibit, sell, rent, lease, let on shares, lend or give away, transport or possess a punch board as above defined. Thus any one having such a punch board in his possession would be guilty of the offense denounced by this statute and would be subject to the penalty established by the legislature.

The punishment established by the legislature for violation of the law regarding punch boards is a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars nor more than One Thousand Dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year or by both such fine and imprisonment.

...as MODERN women KNOW!

Efficient because it is clean, accurate, automatic, labor-saving.

The accuracy of heat application which assures you that the correct amount of measured heat will be delivered to each range unit takes the guesswork out of cooking — adds efficiency.

The automatic time controls on your electric range eliminate pot-watching and cooking failures, make it possible for your meals to be prepared while you are miles away — adds efficiency.

The cleanliness of electric cooking means less frequent general housekeeping, eliminates entirely pot and pan scrubbing — adds efficiency.

The coolness of electric cooking means added pep, more pleasant cooking conditions — adds efficiency.

Yes, electric cooking is completely efficient — as modern women know.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Congressman Walter Rogers

Well, we got back to Washington after a most enjoyable trip to the district. The shortness of the time would not permit me to visit all of the places that I wanted to, but an early adjournment of Congress would make it possible for me to be back and visit the places that I failed to get to on this last trip. We came back to Washington by the northern route, that is, Highway 66 to St. Louis and Highway 40 through Indianapolis and Columbus into Pennsylvania and then down to Washington. We got to ride on the Pennsylvania Toll Turnpike for about 90 miles. It cost us 85 cents, and was well worth it. There are no side roads coming into the Turnpike and you can set your speed on this four-lane divided highway and sail right along. You can't get on the Turnpike except at the toll gates, which are spaced about 25 or 30 miles apart. This turnpike is supposed to be paying its own way and may be the answer to the highway situation in many of the states. We finally made it into Washington about 3:00 a. m. Wednesday and were pretty worn out from the trip. The Senate has caught up with a lot of work during the recess of the House and we are again back at work on the important legislative matters that must be finished if Congress is to adjourn any time this fall. The raise in the military appropriations by the Senate is receiving much discussion here, as many of the members realize that Five Billion dollars is a whale of a lot of money. There is also much discussion about the Senate version of the tax bill. Many of the members feel that the Senate version will tend to put too much of the burden on the lower and middle income groups and will not operate like the House bill, which fairly distributes the burden across the board. The nature of the tax raise in the House is temporary in principle, while the Senate version appears to have a certain degree of permanency. The need for additional taxes at the present time can only be justified by military requirements for defense purposes and should be on a temporary basis. The American taxpayer is entitled to a substantial reduction in taxes as soon as the nucleus of the defense program is well underway. If the additional taxes are placed on a permanent basis, it will be very difficult to effect the substantial reduction that I feel should be forthcoming within the next two or three years.

I have received inquiries concerning the new income tax regulations on the sale of one's home. Under the present law if you sell your residence, you are selling a capital asset and fifty percent of the profit is includable in gross income provided you have owned the home for more than six months. If you have owned it for less than six months, the entire profit is includable in gross income. Under the new version, the Revenue Act of 1951, as passed by the House, a person may sell his home and repurchase another home within a period beginning one year prior to the date of such sale and ending one year after such date and use the proceeds from his old home to purchase the new home, he will not be required to pay any income tax on the sale price of his old home. However, if he purchases a new home at a less price than that for which he sold his old home, he of course will be required to account for the difference between the purchase price of his new home and the selling price of his old home.

OPA SPECIALIST TO VISIT DIMMITT SEPT. 26

A Price Specialist from the Office of Price Stabilization will be here next Wednesday afternoon, September 26 to remind business men whose firms are covered by Ceiling Price Regulation 7 of a new amendment which requires a supplementary filing with the district office not later than September 29.

That amendment to the regulation which covers sellers of wearing apparel, furniture, variety store merchandise, sporting goods, jewelry and hardware, now requires the filing of a pricing chart which includes toys, games, Christmas decorations, laces, yarns and ribbons. Price Specialist W. C. Reynolds, who will visit Dimmitt next week to help merchants of this immediate area, will be able to answer questions concerning all types of businesses who seek information regarding compliance with regulations.

While here, he will maintain offices in the Chamber of Commerce. The clinic is under the co-sponsorship of the District Office of Price Stabilization and local Chamber of Commerce.

Beginning A New School Year . . .

As we, the seniors of '51-52, start this year of school it is hard for us to realize that this is our last year in these halls. It is easy to remember how, when we were younger, we looked up to the upper classmen and idealized them. Now we are in the shoes of those whom we respected and smaller youth are looking to us with an eye of respect. It is up to us to see that those who follow us are not let down. Although we may not be aware, we are the leaders of this year, and with that leadership goes a responsibility that should not be overlooked. The upperclassman of a school is the final product of that school and he represents its knowledge and its ideals. This year is, to the class of '51, the final opportunity to absorb the best of all the good things embodied by Dimmitt High School.

Let's leave a tradition of work well done when we go out into the world to prove the worth of our high school training. Let us make this the best of our school years.

Helpful Freshmen . . .

The freshmen were so glad for school to start that for the past two weeks they have been especially kind to upper classmen. Many times they have approached a sophomore, junior, or senior and voluntarily shined their shoes. If you have taken careful notice you will see they have also learned to be more courteous. For example if they saw you standing in a crowded place they would gladly offer you their seat. The freshmen are most cooperative in keeping the traditions of Dimmitt High. Truly they are honored to be a part of this great institution. The sophomores show their advancement not only in education but their strength, braveness, and ability to order these lower classmen to do a few of their minor wishes. If you will notice you will find there is a great deal of jealousy between the sophomores and freshmen. The only reason for this jealousy is that the freshman have assumed the sophomores old jobs of hospitality.

We are more than glad to welcome the freshmen into high school, and as the years advance, we hope the freshmen learn to serve not only us, but the world into which they will later enter.

Who's Who

To start the year off in Who's Who, we will introduce Donald Wright. He was born in Dimmitt, January 26, 1934. He has gone to school at Dimmitt for 12 years.

Some of Donald's likes and dislikes are:

Food: fried chicken
 Actress: Virginia Mayo
 Actor: John Wayne
 Subject: American Speech
 Pet Peeve: Daily telephone listeners on a party line.

Donald is 6 feet tall, weighs 153 pounds, has blonde hair and blue eyes. His activities are:

President of Senior Class, FFA member, two year letterman in football, member of the state championship mile relay team.

Seniors Receive Class Rings

It was a group of happy seniors the third period Monday when they received their senior rings. The rings are gold with either blue spinelle or ruby sets. The letters DHS are in the center of the set on a gold pedestal. The initials are on either side of the set and the year 1952 is written on the sides of the rings.

The Dimmitt Bobcats opened the 1951 football season with a 19-0 victory over the Silverton Owls at Silverton on the night of September 7, 1951. Early in the third quarter, Glenn Brown went 55 yards for Dimmitt's second touchdown. A Warren to Smith pass was good for the conversion. Glenn Brown Scores 36 Points

The Dimmitt Bobcats made their first home appearance of the season last Friday night at Bobcat Field and made a fine impression on the fans with a 67-6 victory over the Sundown Roughnecks. The Roughnecks got the jump on the first play of the game when Don Greer raced 80 yards for a Sundown score. The conversion by Waygood was blocked. It took just 5 plays before Glenn Brown tied it up with a 2-foot plunge. The conversion was wide. Weldon Warren put Dimmitt ahead when he went 25 yards for the touchdown. Wright again missed the conversion. Glenn Brown drove 15 yards for the third touchdown. Wright made the conversion to put the Bobcats in the lead 19-6. Glenn Brown again went 15 yards for the last touchdown of the first quarter. Wright's conversion made the score 26-6.

Early in the second quarter, Glenn Brown broke loose with a 60-yard touchdown run. Wright made the conversion. Weldon Warren went 30 yards to end the scoring for the first half. Wright missed the conversion. The first half ended with the score 39 to 6. The only touchdown in the third quarter came when Jack Hodges rammed over from the six yard line. Wright made the conversion. The fourth quarter opened with Glenn Brown intercepting a pass and racing 20 yards for the touchdown. The conversion was made by Wright. The next score was a climax of a passing drive with the pay off going from Dennis to Brown on a play that covered 25 yards. The conversion by Wright was good. John Gilbreath closed the scoring with a 2 yard end sweep and Wright converted to make the score 67-6.

The Bobcats led in first downs 18-8. Glenn Brown, Don Ziegler, and Marvin Axe were the shining stars in the Dimmitt lineup with Bill Waygood and Don Greer carrying a big load for Sundown.

The Bobcats move to Hale Center next week for their third game of the season.

Pfc. Dub D. Parks Now Stationed At Reese Air Base

REESE AIR FORCE BASE, Tex., Sept. 8—Pfc. Dub D. Parks, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Fuller, Dimmitt, who has enlisted in the Air Force for future training as an aviation cadet, is now assigned to the Maintenance and Supply Group at Reese Air Force Base, Texas. While awaiting a class vacancy, Private First Class Parks will study maintenance of the aircraft he later will learn to fly.

ANYPLACE PHONE 261
Dennis Funeral Home

Reese is the home of one branch of the USAF Advanced Multi-Engine Pilot School where aviation cadets take the final 26 weeks of their training. Here they are instructed in tactical flying in the famous TB-25 Mitchell Bomber and attend classes in navigation, military leadership and administration. Upon graduation, they receive the silver wings of an Air Force Pilot and are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve. Since four classes are on the base at one time, graduations are held every six weeks.

Private Parks attended Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where he majored in animal husbandry, and Peacock Military Academy, San Antonio; he is a graduate of Dimmitt High School. He was active in football, basketball, baseball, track and speech and was in the dramatics club, the Aggie club and the rodeo team in school. He was assigned to Reese following completion of basic training at Sheppard AFB, Tex.

Health Officer Scorns Rumors Of Vampire Bats

AUSTIN—Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, today took mild exception to recent reports that South Texas faces an invasion from rabid vampire bats.

The health official referred to a widely circulated newspaper story quoting a Mexican government rabies specialist, Dr. Aurelio Malaga-Alba, that pig-faced vampire bats carrying the dread disease had been discovered 100 miles southwest of Presidio County in the Big Bend country.

"I think it's a remote, fantastic interpretation," Dr. Cox said. "This whole problem was discussed at the U.S.-Mexico Border Public Health Conference in Chihuahua two years ago.

He said he was sure Dr. Malaga-Alba is "entirely competent," and that the State Health Department would take every advantage of his warning.

"But the story didn't mention several pertinent facts about the situation. Vampire bats require a tropical environment. The story didn't mention that. And it didn't mention that vampire bats are relatively rare even in tropical countries."

The newspaper story, originating in the Austin American, was "interesting," the long-time health officer said. But he believes it might make all bats vampire bats "in the eyes of the public."

"And for the most part, bats are beneficial. Only the vampire is a blood sucker. The rest feed on harmful insects, including mosquitoes," Dr. Cox warned.

San Antonio has an ordinance which makes it unlawful to kill bats of familiar species. The State Bureau of Laboratories said they had never found bats positive for rabies.

Dr. Cox's statement: "The invasion of Texas by this vampire bat is a remote, fantastic interpretation (of Dr. Malaga-Alba's report). This bat is known to inhabit only certain southern geographical locations. Vampire bat history was discussed last year at the U.S.-Mexico Border Public Health Association in Chihuahua. Its limited migrations are to be expected.

"Isolated rabies infections caused by the bat have been reported from time to time in animals and man; however, there is no reason to expect bats to visit over the Rio Grande."

New York was the third largest city in the colonies, the third city to have a printing press, and the third to support a newspaper.

Army Increases Reserve Program

AUSTIN—Two new Organized Reserve programs to increase the company grade officer strength of the Army were initiated by the Department of the Army this week, according to information received by Col. C. M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, from Fourth Army Headquarters today.

Qualified Regular Army warrant officers and enlisted personnel in the active military service, who hold Reserve commissions in company grades—lieutenants and captains—will be selected for active military service in their present Reserve grade.

The other plan authorizes direct appointment, from civil life, of company grade officers to the Organized Reserve Corps and concurrent call into active military service.

The Regular Army warrant officers and enlisted men, whether volunteers or ordered involuntarily, must pass physical examinations and will not exceed the ages set up for company grade officers in the infantry, armored, artillery or engineers, as follows: second lieutenants, 30, first lieutenants, 35, and captains, 41. Male officers, in other branches, may be 38, 41 and 45, respectively. The latter ages also apply to WACs.

In the case of direct appointments, a board of officers will consider the applicants' qualifications, for commissions in the ORC and concurrent orders to active duty.

All warrant officers and enlisted personnel (from sergeant to master sergeant) who are currently serving and who have completed six months of honorable and creditable service in such grades, may apply for ORC commissions in Infantry, Artillery and Armor. Appointments in the ORC and concurrent orders to active military service, will be governed by quotas. The initial quotas for the five-state Fourth Army area provide for 100 infantry, 150 artillery and 30 armor or a total of 280 officers. The Texas quota has not been announced.

The second program also provides for direct appointments of technical or professional personnel, without previous military experience. Grade will be determined according to educational background and the number of years' experience in the technical or professional skill.

Qualified professional and technical experts or specialists in numerous categories are urged to take advantage of opportunity for a direct commission. Among the professional and technical types needed are: automotive engineering, bacteriology, civil engineering, fire, police and security, various engineering fields, highway and transportation specialists, and postal specialists.

Those interested in further information may contact local ORC Instructor Offices, Chiefs of Military Districts or Civilian Components Division, Headquarters Fourth Army.

David Behrends, Jack Dyer, Forrest Ricketts, Don Nelson, Dale Maxwell, Fred Bruegel, Carl Bruegel and Lewis Martir left this week for Lubbock where they enrolled in Texas Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Copeland and little daughter, Jana, of Houston are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Webb this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cowser and children visited Mr. and Mrs.

James M. Collins at Plainview Sunday. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knutson at Idalou.

president and will probably have to do all of the work. Mrs. Ray Balch is the secretary, and Mrs. Jim Hays is treasurer. They were all installed at the meeting Tuesday night and immediately presented a number of resolutions which were adopted.

One resolution adopted at the P. T. A. meeting is of vital importance to the general welfare of the school. Since the adoption of the Gilmer-Aiken School Law it seems that the state school fund apportionment to individual stead of, as in former years, on the actual scholastic attendance instead of as in former years on the enumerated scholastics of the district. It was very forcefully pointed out by Supt. Vestal and P.T.A. officials that every time a student is absent from school, the student is not only penalizing his own education but is causing the school to lose money. An epidemic of absenteeism can pose a serious threat to the financial structure of the school system, which could conceivably result in the loss of one or more members of the faculty, while on the other hand maximum attendance, as pointed out at the meeting, would qualify the Dimmitt schools for two additional teachers. Apparently the proposition can only be solved by the parents making it imperative that all students be in their places all day and every day possible.

Due to the stress and strain of the past few weeks, partly because two printer members of the News family left for college, the work has accumulated to the point where we are omitting two pages, of our regular 12 page paper, this week. Consequently a number of news pictures and items are being omitted until next weeks issue of the News. Additional fair pictures and the entire list of winners in the fair will be published next week.
