Bentsen, Smith carry here

Castro County voters helped send Lloyd Bentsen to the US Senate and return Preston Smith to the governor's mansion Tuesday in a surprisingly strong turnout for an off-year election.

ONLY TWO voting precincts in the county — Bethel and Easter — favored Republican George Bush over Democrat Bentsen in the US Senate race. All other county precincts gave Bentsen a majority as he carried the county by 1,297 to 705.

Virtually complete statewide returns from the Texas Election Bureau Wednesday morning showed Bentsen leading Bush by 1,103,023 to 963,610. Bush conceded defeat shortly after midnight, ending an expensive, hard-fought battle that saw defeated incumbent Ralph Yarborough watching from the sidelines.

Gov. Smith carried every box in the county except Bethel. Paul Eggers received a paper-thin 21-20 edge.

WHEN ALL the county's precinct returns were totaled at midnight, Gov. Smith had won a decisive 1,401 to 608 nod here. Across the state, he was assured another term as governor with 1,107,494 votes to Eggers' 963,601.

In the six other contested state races, every Castro County precinct favored the Democratic nominees as they swept to victory statewide. Victorious both here and across the state were Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Attorney General Crawford Martin, State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert, Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White, State Treasurer Jesse James, and Democratic nominee Pcb Armstrong, who will replace the embattled Jerry Sadler as commissioner of the General Land Office.

PROPOSED amendments to the Texas Constitution whipped up more emotion than many of the state office races, and Castro Countyans were in the thick of the fray as they bucked the state trend on four proposed amendments and went along with the tide on the other three.

On the most controversial amendment — No. 2, the "liquor by the drink" proposal — Castro County voters opposed it by a margin of almost three to one, casting 1,341 votes against public bars and 577 in favor.

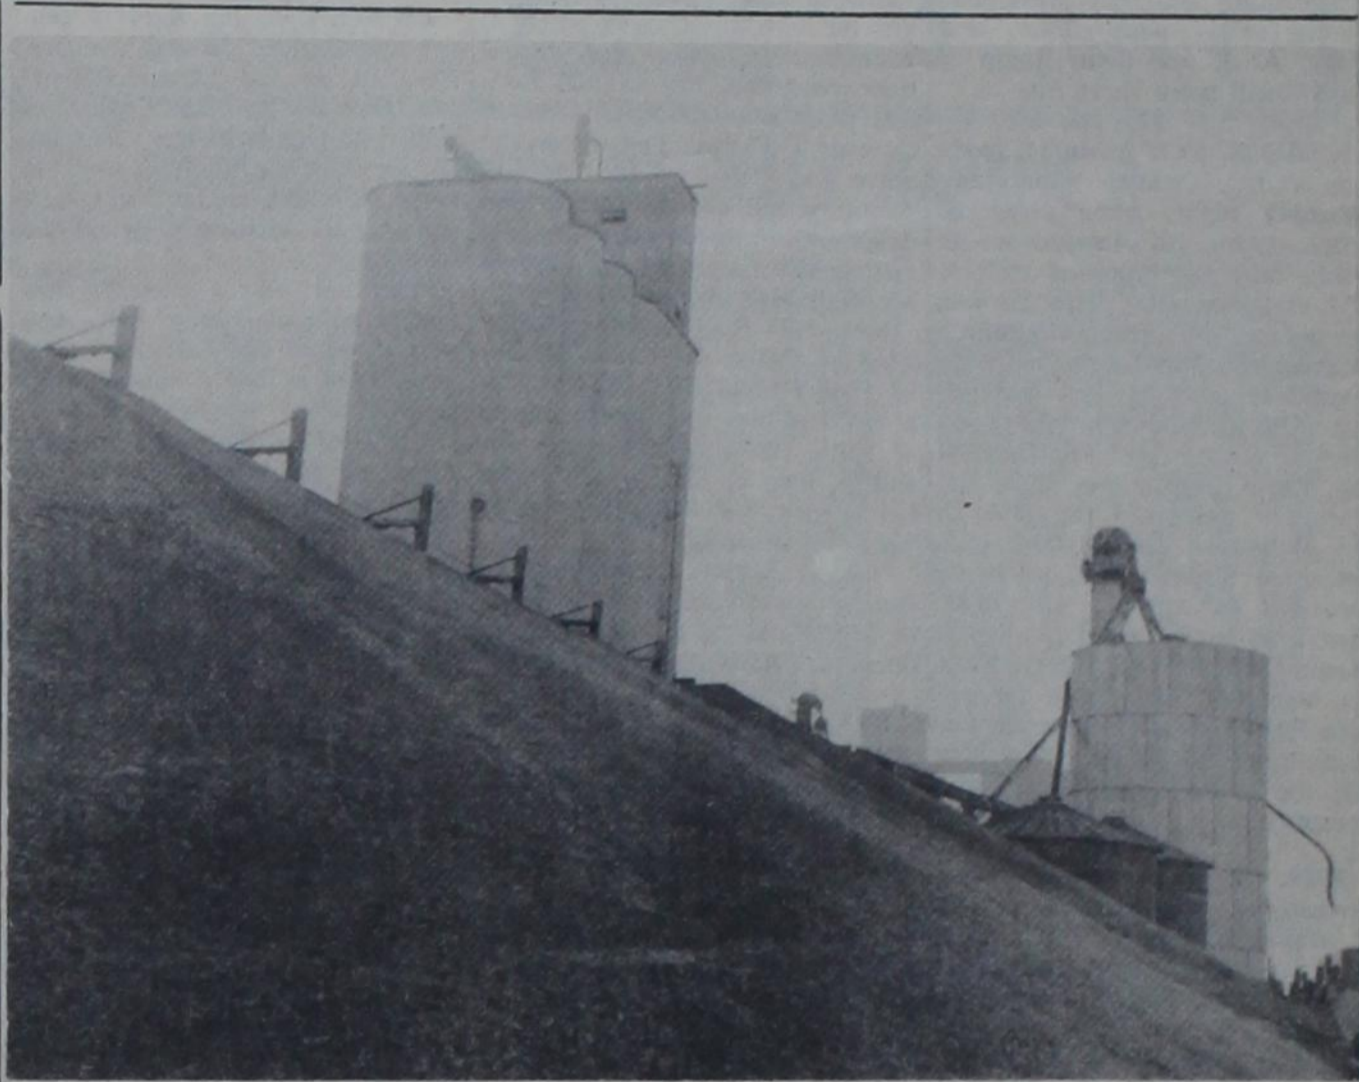

Virtually every county in North Texas also showed strong opposition to the liquor by the drink proposal. However, the amendment carried statewide, with Wednesday morning's TEB totals showing 652,903 in favor and 634,371 against.

SOUTH Nazareth was the only voting precinct in Castro County that bucked the county trend and went along with the statewide tide on the liquor amendment. In this precinct, No. 2 received a slight 28-35 approval.

However, Castro County residents who voted absentee favored the legalization of public bars by a 33-19 margin.

HERE'S A rundown of the county and state balloting on the seven proposed amendments:

OVERFLOW MILO AT CASTRO COUNTY GRAIN CO.
... A delightful dilemma at most county elevators now

Big milo crop is in

The milo harvest is over, and according to area elevator managers, it was a very good year.

THE county average this year was almost 6,200 pounds per acre. An early estimate on the total county yield was approximately 650 million pounds.

For the 107,000 acres planted this year, it was an excellent crop.

The county has produced more milo in past years, with larger acreages. But in 1950, for instance, 190,000 acres were planted in milo, and in 1960, almost 330,000 acres were milo-producing.

THE highest yield was reported in the Easter community, with an approximate 8,500 pound crop on a small acreage. The next highest yield was reported by a customer of Bruegel & Sons Elevators in Dimmitt, with a turnout of approximately 8,300 pounds per acre. Other area managers reported customer high yields at approximately 8,000 pounds.

The soybean harvest is also complete. Area managers seemed to agree that both quality and yield of the beans were up this year.

According to Glenn Hammond at Dimmitt Wheat Growers, the county corn harvest is also wrapped up. The average for corn this year was around 130 bushels per acre. The highest yield reported in corn was 187 bushels.

The main comment that all area managers had in common was that the quality of both grain and soybeans was excellent or above average this year.

Hart lady is killed in car-truck mishap

Mrs. A. L. Wilson, 64, of Hart, died Saturday following a car-truck accident one-half mile west of Hart.

MRS. WILSON died near Littlefield, enroute to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock, after receiving emergency treatment at Plains Memorial Hospital.

The mishap was the county's third fatal accident this year, and Mrs. Wilson was the fourth Castro County resident killed on local highways in 1970.

The accident occurred at 1:40 p.m. on State Highway 194.

HIGHWAY Patrolman Billy Scott, who investigated, said that Roger Davis, 23, of Dimmitt was driving east with a truckload of corn at approximately 35 mph, and that Mrs. Wilson was traveling the same direction behind him in a 1969 Oldsmobile sedan.

Mrs. Wilson's car collided with the left rear of the truck, totally demolishing her car but causing

MRS. A. L. WILSON
... Accident victim

Services were conducted Monday in the Sunnyside Baptist Church, with Rev. Mack Turner of Sunnyside, assisted by Rev. W. F. Ferguson of Lubbock and Rev. M. D. Durham of Lubbock, officiating.

Mrs. Wilson was born in Merkel Sept. 12, 1906, and married A. L. Wilson there on Sept. 20, 1924. She moved to Hart from Halfway 11 years ago, but she had been a Slaton resident for 23 years prior to living in Halfway. She was a member of the Sunnyside Baptist Church.

SURVIVORS include her husband; a son, Glenn of Hart; a daughter, Mrs. Harold Morrison of Edmonson; a brother, Jack Meeks of Post; three sisters, Mrs. Willie Mae Dye and Mrs. Charlie Brown of Post and Mrs. Claude V. Miller of Lubbock; and three granddaughters, La Gle-da, Gwendolyn Jean and Melinda Wilson of Hart.

Pallbearers were Paul Brooks, Wilburn Hayden, L. J. Rice, Jim Brooks, Weldon Bradley and Eldon Shive.

Honorary pallbearers were Roy Phelan, Harvey Davis, Noah Spencer, L. B. Brown, Jim Black, Leonard Welch, J. W. Welch, H. H. Buchanan and Laurence McLain.

Christmas mail deadlines listed

Postmaster John Wood reminded Dimmitt residents this week that recommended mailing dates for civilian domestic Christmas mails start the first of December.

LATEST dates by which Christmas mail should be deposited are as follows, but the postmaster urged customers to mail earlier wherever possible:

Parcels: Dec. 1 to distant states; Dec. 11 to local and nearby areas.

Greeting cards: Dec. 10 to distant states; Dec. 15 to local and nearby areas.

IN ADDITION, Wood noted these key dates applying to civilian international mail:

To Canada and Mexico — Surface parcels, Dec. 4; greeting cards, Dec. 9; air parcels, Dec. 16.

To South and Central America — Surface parcels, Nov. 13; greeting cards, Nov. 18; air parcels, Dec. 14.

These same dates apply for the various types of mail to Europe.

EARLIER, Wood announced these deadlines required on military mail going overseas: Nov. 6 for surface parcels, Nov. 20 for "SAM" (space available parcels), and Nov. 27 for "PAL" (parcel airtel service). Further details on these basic parcel services for the military, as well as dates applying for other mailings to servicemen, are also available at the post office.

only a blowout to the loaded truck. The impact scattered corn across the highway.

Mrs. Wilson's speed could not be estimated, according to the Highway Patrol, but her car skidded 90 feet before the impact. There was no oncoming traffic at the time of the accident, Scott said.

"SHE WAS driving a nice, big car and I think she just didn't realize how fast she was coming up on the truck," Scott said.

Final rites held for Paul Howell

Funeral services were held Saturday at the First Baptist Church for Paul Howell, 58, of 311 NW Fifth St.

MR. HOWELL died of an apparent heart attack at 7:15 a.m. last Thursday at his home.

Born in Stockton, Calif., in 1912, he had been a Dimmitt resident for 32 years. He was a retired farmer, and had worked as a service station attendant.

Mr. Howell is survived by his wife, Sally; a daughter, Mrs. Paula Vilas of Dimmitt; a brother, Henry of Dimmitt; a sister, Mrs. Cadna Dunn of Paris, and two granddaughters.

Active pallbearers were Chuck Lay, Chet Braafladt, Bob Mooney, Jake Moore, Raleigh Strother and Dan Bruton. Honorary pallbearers were Buck Crum, Reese Kesler, Chock Lay, Elmer Dixon, Bob Killough and A. V. Messenger. Burial was in Castro Memorial Gardens, under the direction of Dennis Funeral Home.

Driver in fatal crash faces charge

The Texas Highway Patrol has filed a charge of second-degree negligent homicide against Ray Archie Vigil in connection with a two-car wreck last week in which Mrs. Betty Jean Baillif was killed.

VIGIL, 20, was the driver of a 1962 Ford station wagon that collided with Mrs. Baillif's 1963 Ford sedan Oct. 27 at a dirt-road intersection in the Frio community.

The charge of second-degree negligent homicide is legally considered a "grave misdemeanor" and carries a sentence of up to one year's imprisonment and a fine of up to $1,000. Vigil's case will be tried in Castro County Court.

Vigil was still in Deaf Smith County Hospital at last report, recovering from injuries he received in the wreck. Upon his release from the hospital, he is to be arraigned before Justice of the Peace Bill Roland in Hereford.

Transformer at mill burns

A 12,000-volt transformer at the Dimmitt Wheat Growers corn milling plant burned Tuesday afternoon, engulfing the plant area in black oil-smoke and cutting off power to the main millhouse.

HOWEVER, Ralph Glover, Dimmitt manager for Southwestern Public Service Co., said a standby transformer was due for delivery Wednesday so the millhouse testing operations can continue until the burned transformer can be repaired or replaced.

The transformer, owned by FWPS, was located next to a large Dimmitt Wheat Growers switch box outside the southwest corner of the millhouse. Both the transformer and the switch box were badly damaged.

Exact cause of the fire is still undetermined, Glover said. A representative of the Westinghouse Corp. has been called in to pinpoint the cause.

THE 12,000-volt step-down unit was one of six large transformers at the milling plant. It had been in operation about 10 days, converting a 12,000-volt intake to a 480-volt operating current, Glover said.

Black smoke billowed from the burning transformer for several minutes as hundreds of gallons of oil inside the unit burned. Firemen quickly controlled the blaze and kept the steaming unit under a constant spray of water for almost an hour.

4-H banquet to be Saturday

The annual Castro County 4-H Awards Banquet will be held Saturday at 7 p.m. in the South Elementary School cafeteria.

MEMBERS of all the county's 4-H Clubs will host a covered dish dinner.

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake is expected to be present.

Highlight of the banquet will be the announcement of this year's Gold Star 4-H Boy and Girl by County Judge Raymond Wilson, who also will present individual awards to the county's merit winners.

DJHS girls first with Yule candy

The Dimmitt Junior High School homemaking girls taught by Mrs. Jackie McLercy were the first to contribute candy to the Candy Project. The girls made 40 pounds of candy for the servicemen.

"WE ONLY need 500 more pounds of candy now," Mrs. Reta Welch, chairman of the project, said.

"We've had about $40 donated for postage already," she reported. "and we'll need a total of $200 to $225 for mailing expenses."

Candy should be delivered by Nov. 13 to the Farm Bureau office in Dimmitt. It should be packed in one-pound coffee cans and each piece should be individually wrapped. Each candy maker should include a slip of paper with her name in each can, and seal the candy by double taping the tops on the cans.

Rec association picks directors

At its annual membership meeting Monday night, the Castro County Recreation Association elected two new directors and re-elected one.

Re-elected to the board was James Bradford. New board members are Jim Cleavinger and Ralph Glover.

Grand Jury to convene Monday

A new Castro County Grand Jury will convene at 9:30 a.m. Monday for the November session. Members of the new Grand Jury will serve through the last quarter of 1970, considering evidence in felony cases that could lead to District Court trials.

Also, a new petit jury is scheduled to convene at 1:30 p.m. Monday to study evidence in misdemeanor cases.

Carnival termed success

Saturday night's Dimmitt Halloween Carnival was described by its chairman as "a rousing success" despite the choking dust stirred up in the county show barns by an unexpectedly large crowd.

THE NEW community carnival was sponsored by the Dimmitt Lions Club, with 20 other organizations running game and food booths.

"The crowd exceeded our expectations, although the carnival didn't make much money," co-chairman Jody Minnick reported to the Lions Club Tuesday.

He said the 24 booths at the carnival grossed approximately $950, but could have done much better in a larger arena.

AN ANALYSIS of the carnival activity, Minnick said, showed that some booths attracted as many as 100 persons per hour.

"But the main crowd lasted only 2½ hours, the booths were too small, the dust was too thick for a lot of people, the barns were crowded, and many people left because they simply couldn't get to the booths," Minnick said.

But he added, "We certainly realized the potential of the carnival — we were really pleased by the town's response. And our law enforcement officers said there was virtually no vandalism in town on Halloween night."

"MANY have asked us to make the carnival an annual affair, and several organizations have already called to reserve space for next year," Minnick said.

One of the most popular aspects of the carnival, he said, was the costume contest, which drew 113 young entrants from preschool age through the sixth grade.

The Lions Club's share of proceeds will go to help pay off the note on Dimmitt's junior baseball parks.

WITCHES, PIRATES, clowns and skeletons were plentiful Saturday night at the Dimmitt Halloween Carnival, and these two scary characters were judged to be the best-costumed among all the pre-schoolers attending. The prize-winning witch is Tricia Touchstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Touchstone. The grinning pirate is Michael Anthony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Anthony. In all, 113 youngsters entered the costume contest in six age groups.

HALLOWEEN DESTRUCTION—When firemen and sheriff's officers answered a fire call to a vacant house in Flagg Sunday morning, they learned that another unoccupied house a mile away had already burned down during the night. Photo at left shows smoldering ruins of a house on land farmed by Jimmy Buckley. Billowing white smoke from the other house a mile south (right photo) alerted farm operator J. H. Myatt, who turned in the alarm at 8 a.m. Sheriff Jack Cartwright feels both houses were set afire by an arsonist at about 1:30 a.m., and that 20 to 30 bales of hay stored in the Buckley house fed the destructive flames, while the empty Myatt house smoldered through the night. The sheriff's office is looking for an arsonist—perhaps a pyromaniac—who may have been responsible for earlier fires also. "There have been several other vacant houses burned in the county in the past few months," Cartwright said. "It must be somebody who enjoys seeing fire." These two houses, both of which are on the Jesse Herring Johnson estate, were described as abandoned but still serviceable.

Cotton harvest gets underway

By MRS. JACK RISTER

Cotton trailers and strippers have been really moving this week. The farmers are afraid of bad weather on the cotton crop this year. Let's wish them a good harvest. They also are beginning to move the beets to the Holly Plant in Hereford.

MRS. BUD McELROY visited her mother, Mrs. L. H. Hooper, in Morton last Wednesday morning. On her way home she visited with Mrs. J. D. McElroy of Levelland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wales went to Tres Ritos, N.M., so they could close their cabin for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wales attended a bright party Monday night at the Dale Winders home in Flagg.

Mrs. Norman Clavinger was a Sunday dinner guest of the Charles Wales family.

MR. AND MRS. Vern Lust visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bagwell in Dimmitt Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lust visited the Lloyd Lust family of Littlefield last Sunday.

Mrs. Leona Stiles visited with the Earl Lusts Thursday afternoon.

GAIL BRUEGEL AND Reta Welch attended a workshop in the home of Lucille Drerup Monday.

Dimmitt's junior high and B teams played at Friona last week. Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. James Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bagwell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wales, Goldie Stanton and Charlene Howell.

Mrs. C. C. Graef and Mrs. James Welch were in Chicago a few days this week.

CHARLES RICKERD and some friends from Friona were in New Mexico bird hunting.

Junior Miller has spent a few days with the Charles Rickers. Junior has been hauling beets for Dennis Williams. Donna Mae Miller (wife of Junior) is showing rapid improvement after her auto accident. Her daughters, Linda, Tina and Stacy, are back in school.

Wayne Flynt of Tulia and Bob Flynt of Farmington, N.M., visited Friday night with the Charles Rickers, and also visited their brother Jack Flynt of Dimmitt.

MRS. A. T. Morgan was in Lubbock shopping with Mrs. Wesley Barnes of Lazbuddie and Mrs. Jimmy Johnson of Muleshoe last Thursday.

Mrs. A. T. Morgan attended the annual Llanos Altos Associational meeting at First Baptist Church in Muleshoe last Friday.

Ricky and Randy Morgan attended a pizza supper at the First Baptist Church in Dimmitt last Thursday night.

MRS. A. T. Morgan, Mrs. Jimmy Ivy of Lazbuddie and Mrs. Ronnie Smith of Earth spent the weekend in Fort Worth and Dallas. They went to take Mrs. Tompkins, back to her home in Dallas, and Mrs. Morgan visited in Fort Worth with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Harris.

Floyd Taylor of Whiteface visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud McElroy Sunday. Mrs. McElroy and Floyd were neighbors years ago.

Several families attended the Dimmitt-Lockney football game Friday night and after the game the First Baptist Church hosted a youth party. Those attending from Bethel were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gilreath, Vickie Yokum and Sue Howell.

JIMMY HOWELL AND Jack Templer went to Oklahoma over the weekend to pick up a horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Templer and family have moved here from Lazbuddie. They live in Birdie Neill's house, and Jack works at the Dimmitt Feed Yard.

Sue Howell and Vickie Yokum visited with Mrs. Kenneth Powell in Muleshoe Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Ward of San Antonio were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Howell.

Kennen Howell attended a birthday party for Doug Nelson Tuesday afternoon.

★ QUITE A few families attended the Halloween carnival Saturday night in Dimmitt. Some of them won some nice prizes. Frances Vassaur will re-open the cafe at Tam Anne this week.

Grain Sorghum CHAFF

By WES ANTHONY
Wasn't the Halloween party at the fair barns a dandy? If you missed it you surely should not have. There were literally hundreds of the cutest, happiest, smiling, friendliest young kids that you ever saw.
IT SURELY makes you proud of the young folks in our community.
There was only one thing wrong — it surely was crowded — we sure do need a place to hold such activities.

Manning named to 'Who's Who'

Sam Manning, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ed Manning of Muleshoe, is one of 13 College of the Ozarks (Ark.) seniors named to the 1970-71 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

surgery. Mrs. Ivey didn't go back down, but called each day to check with her at the hospital.

Vicki Sageiser of the El Paso Gas Plant was admitted to the Plainview hospital Friday evening with encephalitis.

ALL of the young people of the church had a Halloween party Wednesday night. The Mission Friends had their party Tuesday afternoon during their regular meeting time. The others spent most of their time decorating for Wednesday night.

The Crusaders had a slumber party at the church Friday night with the leaders, Mrs. Phillip Jones and Mrs. Douglas Loudder. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parson spent the weekend in Abilene with his father in the hospital there.

Mrs. Winona Waggoner received word Friday afternoon that a cousin was one of the students killed in the auto accident Thursday night in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lilley of Big Spring visited with Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Lilley and little Gay Saturday.

THE community was shocked and saddened at the death of Mrs. A. I. Wilson of Hart about 1:40 Friday when she ran her car into the back of a loaded corn truck. The truck was driven by Roger Davis of Dimmitt. The accident was out of Hart on Highway 194. Mrs. Wilson had taken dinner to the field to her husband and son, Glenn. She was given emergency treatment at Dimmitt and transferred to Lubbock. She passed away before they got to Littlefield. Funeral services were held at Sunnyside Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Erzell Keeler of Hale Center visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Ezell Sadler and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sadler and girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Gale Sadler and girls.

Forty-eight attended Sunday School with 16 in Training Union Sunday. A TANE speaker from Plainview spoke during the morning worship hour.

The W. E. Loudder family received word Sunday night about 10:00 that his sister-in-law at Leuders, Mrs. Vacca Loudder passed away about noon Sunday.

On the Go MR. AND MRS. Earl Brock visited relatives in Altus, Okla., recently.

Sunnyside forms Girls in Action

A charter meeting of the new Girls in Action organization was conducted recently at the Sunnyside Baptist Church.

FOURTEEN girls signed the two charter documents, and the WMU director, Mrs. E. R. Sadler, administered the signing of the charter.

After the ceremony, refreshments were served to the girls, their mothers and other guests.

The director, Mrs. Gale Sadler, and the three leaders, Mrs. Cliff Brown, Mrs. Barbara Epperson and Mrs. Bill Morgan, had charge of the meeting.

Girls taking part were Susan Sadler, Dancene Wilson, Marquetta James, Belinda Hampton, Sue Bradley, Tammy and Rhonda Ross, Carolyn McGowan, Lyn Howell, Corrae and Vicki Sageser, Dina Jo Hampton, Deanna Holmans, and Karen Howell.

Success Is Home-Grown

Most successful farmers and ranchers find their opportunities in the same place they were born and raised - or perhaps a mile or two down the road. Success is a crop we like to cultivate at the Land Bank Association - and it's best if it's home-grown.

Girl wins HSU title

Juanelle Conard, a 1968 graduate of Dimmitt High School, is one of the junior class favorites named recently at Hardin-Simmons University.

MISS CONARD, an elementary education major, was selected with Nat Haas, an accounting major of Seattle, Wash., as a 1970-71 class favorite.

Coronation of a University Queen and princesses and presentation of the class favorites is set for Nov. 4 in an all-school assembly in Abilene, at Behrens Chapel.

Mrs Brockman wins Tops title

Agnes Brockman was named "Queen of the Week" when the Dimmitt SOS Tops Club met last week. Nineteen members were present, and recorded a total loss of 12 3/4 pounds.

THE PROGRAM, presented by Juanita Fuller and Wynema Adams, was a demonstration of a machine that helps with weight loss.

The Tops Club meets regularly at the First United Methodist Church in the fellowship hall on Monday nights. Weigh-in time is 6:30 p.m., and meetings begin at 7.

Mrs. Moore celebrates 84th

Mrs. Charity Moore celebrated her 84th birthday Oct. 25. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren were on hand for the occasion.

THE celebration also marked her son's and daughter's birthdays. J. B. Moore and Mrs. Omega Johnson, both of Dimmitt, were honored at the Sunday dinner. Forty-six of the family were present, and only five were unable to attend.

Miss Huckert is OSU enrollee

Patsy Huckert of Summerfield is enrolled as a Food, Nutrition and Institution Administration student this fall at Oklahoma State University.

OSU's total on-campus enrollment is a record 18,447 and represents an increase of 955 from one year ago.

KRISTAN KIRKPATRICK
... Former Dimmitt resident

Assistant dean at TCU only 24

Texas Christian University has joined the national trend toward youthful administrators with the hiring of 24-year-old Kristan Kirkpatrick as assistant dean of women.

SHE IS the daughter of the Sam Kirkpatricks of Fort Smith, Ark., and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kirkpatrick of Dimmitt.

Miss Kirkpatrick, who lived in Dimmitt as a young girl, completed her master's degree requirements at the University of Oklahoma last summer and joined the TCU staff Aug. 17. Her first assignment was Rush Week. A member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, she now has seen both sides of this hectic time.

The slender, attractive brunette doesn't come from a family of teachers, although her aunt, Mrs. Jane Kirkpatrick Koonce, was dean of women at Stanford University. Miss Kirkpatrick chose this profession because of her interest in students, the opportunity to see them become excited over a project and to provide them with the opportunities for new challenges.

WHEN she accepted the assistant deanship at TCU, Miss Kirkpatrick had her choice of similar posts at six American universities.

Since she was born in Tulsa and spent most of her life in Fort Smith, she wanted to stay in the Southwest. She said the TCU post "is just what I wanted," although she admits that the closest she had been to Fort Worth before was Six Flags Over Texas.

GI addresses still needed

By IRENE KEATING
I hope all of you, who have a person in the military, have turned the name in to Mrs. Hance. We'd like very much for each boy from our county to get a box of candy.

LAST WEEK I attended a beef arana workshop in Amarillo. We learned some interesting things about beef and the future prospects. I'll go into the details another time as I think you'd like to know more about it.

YOU MAY have breathed a sigh of relief and think your yard work is over for another year but it really isn't. However, there is very little work now compared to the busy summer.

Here is this month's garden calendar prepared by Everett Janne, our extension landscape horticulturist.

1. Make a note of those trees and shrubs you admired this fall for their brilliant foliage or colorful fruit. As you plan additions or replacements in your landscape, keep these in mind.
2. Make soil enriching compost from those leaves and lawn rakes rather than adding to the air pollution by burning. Make sure you add water as you build the compost pile. Those dry leaves will not decompose without moisture.

3. Although it isn't too late to prepare beds for spring flowering bulbs, last month would have been better.

4. Complete all spring bulb plantings except for tulips. These should be chilling in a refrigerator at 40 to 45 degrees F. for 45 to 60 days before planting.

5. If you haven't brought in those tender plants, better get them under cover before the first frost.

6. SELECT and order fruit and pecan trees for winter planting.
7. Set out pansy plants in a rich, well-drained soil in a sunny location. Try some of the solid colored pansies in masses as well as the giant mixed colors.

8. Don't be in a rush to transplant or set out base rooted ornamentals. Plants should be completely dormant and devoid of foliage before moving.

9. In areas where rainfall has been scarce be sure to water both broad and narrow leafed evergreen trees and shrubs. Much of the so-called winter injury noted on evergreens is due to lack of moisture.

10. Overhaul or repair power tools before storing for the winter. They will then be ready for use when needed in the spring.

11. Clean up, sharpen and oil hand tools for winter storage. Sand rough spots on wooden handles and apply a light coat of linseed oil to prevent drying and splintering.

12. FORCE spring flowering bulbs for indoor beauty.

13. Select those new or special rose varieties you admired and order for December or January delivery. Prepare beds now so they will settle before planting time.

14. After frost kills the dahlia foliage, dig and store the roots.

15. As you rework and prepare those beds for spring planting of annuals and perennials, dispose of the debris and trash immediately to reduce danger of insect and disease problems next summer.

16. To maintain quality, gather pecans daily as they drop.

17. Stock your bird feeders to encourage birds to remain in the winter landscape.

Book Clubbers set Silver Tea for Wednesday

The annual Silver Tea for the Castro County Library will be held by the Dimmitt Book Club Wednesday afternoon.

MRS. J. W. WALKER of Plainview will review the best-selling novel, "The French Lieutenant's Woman" by John Knowles. This book has been among the top 10 best sellers in the US this year.

The review, which is open to the public, will begin at 4 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church. Program chairman is Mrs. Harold Stephens.

Nazareth PTA sees three skits

The Nazareth PTA met Monday night in the school cafeteria. Entertainment was provided by the Nazareth High School FHA.

THREE skits were presented. The first, entitled "Don't Panic, Read the Label" dealt with consumer education on clothing labels.

The second skit was "Preparedness: The Key to Opportunity" and the last was "Happiness is Understanding."

In the third part of the program, the girls, dressed as Charlie Brown characters, gave bits of philosophy on what makes a happy family. Understanding was the key.

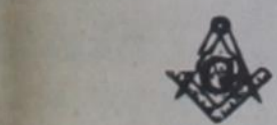

Hart lady's brother dies

Funeral services were held last Thursday in New Mexico for Lawrence M. Stewart, 64, brother of Mrs. Sue Dinwiddie of Hart.

LAST RITES were in the First United Methodist Church of Melrose, with Rev. Burton Dennis, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Melrose Cemetery directed by Steed-Todd Funeral Home of Clovis.

Mr. Stewart died Oct. 19 in an Amarillo hospital. A native of Big Spring, he moved to Melrose from Canyon in 1940. He operated a farm 22 miles north of Melrose.

Also surviving are his wife Drew; and a brother, Earl, of Clovis.

Parties attract spooks

By Mrs. Florance Albracht
The Halloween parties for all the youngsters turned out to be very enjoyable for all who attended. A children's party at the school cafeteria drew 180 preschool and school children through the third grade.

Six age groups received prizes for "ugliest," "cutest" and "most original" costumes. Winners were:

Ugliest — Joe Birkenfeld, 3 and under; Mark and Billy Huseman, 4 year olds; Tammie Heck and Vera Rameakers, 5 year olds; Dale Hoelting and Lori Gerber, second grade; and Michael Acker and David Huseman, third grade.

Cutest — Marla Hartman, 3 and under; Liz Albracht, 4 year olds; Mary Jean Huseman and Allison Durbin, 5 year olds; Patty Schacher and Danelle Schmucker, first grade; Laura Kleman, second grade; Leland Hoelting and Debbie Schacher, third grade.

Most Original — Brian Rameakers, 3 and under; Lloyd Gerber, 4 year olds; Damien Wilhelm and Rodney Schulte, 5 year olds; Beverly Schacher, first grade; Lester Schulte and Pat Hartman, second grade; and Doretta Rameakers and Jimmy Kern, third grade.

HOLY Family Parish celebrated the Feast Day of All Saints' Day Sunday. The service included the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 4 o'clock, a procession to the cemetery by the parishioners, with all praying the rosary for their loved ones buried there, and the blessing of the graves by Father Stanley. On All Souls' Day Monday, three masses were offered during the day.

In the higher grades Halloween party held in the church basement those winning first were Ladonna Brockman and Debbie Schilling, dressed as witches and Sheryl Schulte and Dorothy Gugemos dressed as pilgrims. The prettiest went to Rose Braddock dressed as a Spanish senorita. The ugliest went to Wayne Ehly.

The Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus had their regular quarterly meeting Thursday night for members and wives. Mr. Maurice Britten of Groom, the newly appointed Master of the District, attended the meeting and social.

Thirteen members of the Order of Martha met in the home of Mrs. Pauline Litsch on Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 27. After the business meeting and plans for the quilting, which will be in the church basement, were finished, the group played card games and enjoyed lunch with the hostess.

Anna Beth Hoelting spent the weekend at home. She is a student at Texas Tech.

MR. AND Mrs. Ralph Albracht, Raef and Stacy went to UMBARGER Sunday to visit the Vince Rameakers and to see their new home.

Mrs. Florence Meeks and Mrs. Cecelia Ancen went to Hereford Monday afternoon where Florence entered the Deaf Smith County Hospital for a checkup and probably more surgery.

Sisters Genesee, Frederic and Maurine spent the past weekend here with relatives and friends. During the recent snowstorm in Amarillo, Sister Frederic had the misfortune of falling and breaking her left arm. She is working at St. Joseph's in Amarillo.

August Huseman is a patient in the Golden Spread Nursing Home in Dimmitt suffering with a broken leg. He is improving and would welcome company.

Three Study Club groups have been started in the Parish. Each group will meet once a month on Sunday evening to study the changes that have come about since Vatican II. Father Stanley will lead the groups and they promise to be very interesting.

LEONARD Wilhelm has received word from his wife Rosemary, who is at present with her daughter and family, the Larry Ringwalds in Germany, that the new grandson and mother are both doing fine. The baby has been named Shawn Edward, he being the first great grandchild of Edward Wilhelm's. If you will take notice, Leonard will be seen showing pictures of the baby he has just received.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hicks of Jenkins, Mo. spent a few days with their daughter Mrs. Robert Huseman and family.

Leonard Enfers of Oklahoma City was here visiting the Lora, Ernie and Arnold Brockmans while purchasing cattle for a packing plant in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Florance Albracht helped the Vincent Rameakers in Umbarger get settled in their new home a couple of days last week.

THE CHRISTIAN Mothers held their regular monthly meeting, Monday evening in the community hall. Fifty members enjoyed the program of arranging flowers, shown by Mrs. Dennis of the Floral Shop in Dimmitt. Since the members do the decorating of the church altars, this will be very helpful to all members who were present.

At the regular meeting the delegates to the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women Convention held in Pampa, Oct. 27-28, Mrs. Ethel Schmucker and Mrs. Mae Hochstein gave very interesting reports on the convention which had the theme "Life, a Celebration."

The coming Thanksgiving dinner to be held Sunday, Nov. 22, was discussed. All will be asked to help. Everyone is invited to come eat dinner with the Christian Mothers that day.

Telephone co-op receives grant

Congressman Bob Price has announced the approval of a $380,000 REA loan for the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative, Inc. of Hereford.

THE cooperative serves Deaf Smith, Bailey, Castro and Parnier Counties.

Purposes of the loan are to (1) finance facilities to serve 176 new subscribers, (2) construct a dial central office building in the new Summerfield Exchange and install direct distance dialing facilities in this exchange, (3) construct 11 miles of new line, (4) install mobile radio telephone facilities to serve 20 of the new subscribers in the Hub Exchange, (5) provide service without toll charge between the Summerfield and Frio Exchanges and between the Summerfield Exchange and the Hereford area, and (6) complete the system authorized under prior REA loans.

'Songs of Faith' added by KDHN

Radio Station KDHN of Dimmitt, recent winner of four awards at the Texas Association of Broadcasters convention in Houston, has announced the addition of "Songs of Faith," a religious-hymn radio program designed especially for the Sunday morning listener.

THIS "Songs of Faith" religious-hymn program is syndicated by United Radio Productions and is being used successfully by radio stations in Lubbock, Morton, Muleshoe, Floydada and Dalhart.

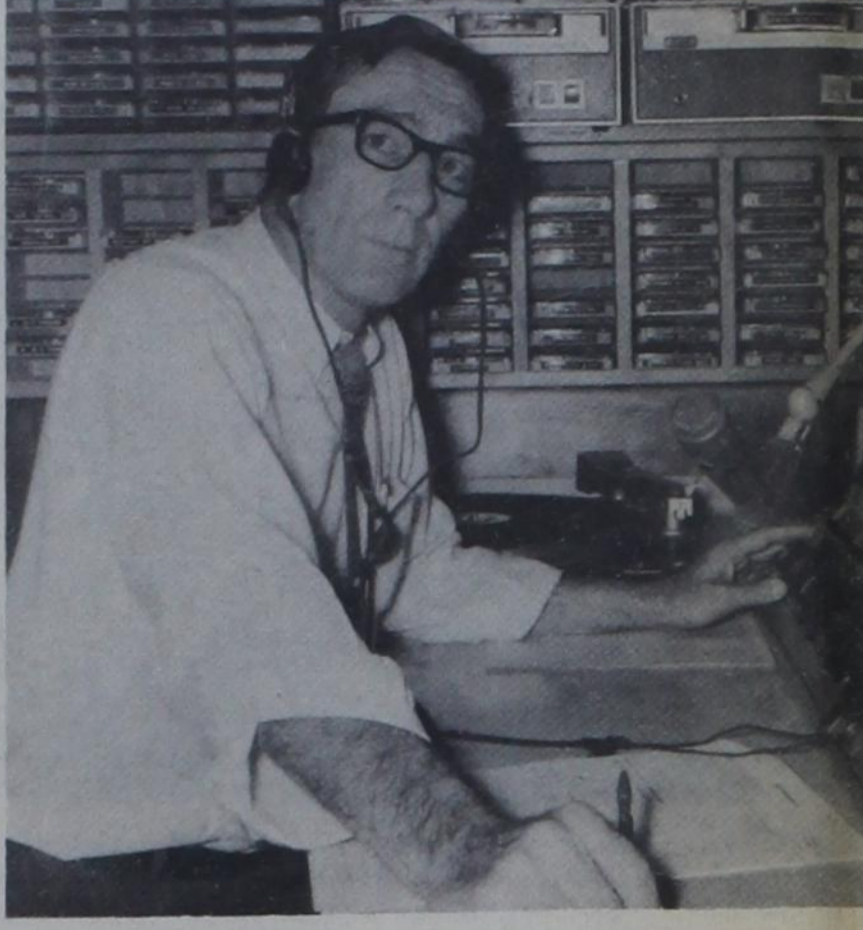

Jak Rust, new manager of Radio Station KDHN, said, "We have been searching for a better way to serve the religious community and 'Songs of Faith' will add dignity and prestige to our programming."

$4,879 reached in bond sales

September sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in Castro County totaled $4,879, according to Judge Raymond Wilson, chairman of the Castro County Savings Bonds Committee.

A TOTAL of $29,588 has been purchased in the county since Jan. 1. This figure represents 49 percent of the 1970 goal of $60,000.

Texans purchased $15,033,393 in Savings Bonds during the month, compared with $14,480,583 for the same period a year ago—an increase of 3.8 percent. Sales for the nine-month period were $136,303,218 for 76 percent of the yearly goal of $179.9 million.

JAK RUST ... Takes over controls at KDHN

Rust named manager of KDHN as Lewis returns to aviation

Jak Rust, program director of KDHN for the past seven months, has been promoted to manager of the station, according to Steve Taylor, vice-president of High Plains Broadcasting Co.

WELDON Lewis, who has been manager of the station since April 1, has been named as consultant to the station.

Rust brings several years of radio experience to his new position. He has worked in stations in Dallas, Amarillo and Borger, plus several stations on the East Coast. In Borger, he was news and program director of the station that was owned by Lewis at that time. His wife, Brenda, has been office manager of the local station since August.

In speaking of his new position and the station, Rust said, "Since coming to Dimmitt and to KDHN, service to the community has been the trend we have tried to set. Although we have made six-year efforts in that direction, we realize that these efforts cannot be maintained without the cooperation of the people who make up the community. As manager, I shall endeavor to continue this policy, and also solicit suggestions as to how Radio Station KDHN can become a more integral part of you and your community. It will be a challenge, but more than that, it will be most pleasurable."

LEWIS is returning to corporate flying with a company based in Borger that has contracts with four major oil companies. It is a position he held for two years prior to coming to Dimmitt.

Lewis said, "The people of Dimmitt have been wonderful to us. This is a decision that has been hard to make because of the many friends we have here. Many of the goals of the station have been reached now, a new image has been created, and I know of no one better to carry on this image than Jak Rust, as he has been a major factor in its creation."

"I feel the people of this community are aware that a good radio station is a real asset," Lewis added. "Without the support of the local citizens through your continued comments, interviews, news tips and patronization of our sponsors, we become nothing more than a long-playing record. We will be in Dimmitt several times each month, and look forward to visiting with each of you and in hearing your comments about KDHN."

IN THE past fiscal year, commercial exports of US farm products reached a new record, contributing $5.7 billion to the plus side of international trade balance. In total, exports of farm products amounted to $6.6 billion and accounted for the production of almost 60 million acres of cropland.

GSPA efforts result in big milo success story

American milo has shown a dramatic market increase in recent years, due mainly to the boot-strap efforts of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

THE RED grain's desirable qualities have been there all along, but much of the world simply didn't know about them. GSPA's advertising, research and market development programs have made all the difference in mushrooming the demand in beef-hungry markets.

In its overseas efforts, the GSPA has received valuable help from the American Feed Grains Council.

A RECENT article in the Texas Farmer-Stockman magazine told the success story:

When the Grain Sorghum Producers Association was organized in 1955, prices of the feed grain to growers had plunged 50 cents per cwt. and other problems were on the horizon.

KING OF THE FEED GRAINS ... Japan, Europe, India now big buyers.

Production, reflecting the price break, showed a big drop in 1956 when US output totaled 205 million bushels. But with the widespread planting of new grain sorghum hybrids, producers in 1957 raised production to 567 million bushels, trying to offset low prices with more volume and higher per-acre yields.

THE 1957 crop filled grain elevators to overflowing and a big surplus piled up in government storage. Per-acre yields climbed from 22 bushels in 1956 to 23.8 bushels in 1957. The US crop hit 581 million bushels in 1958.

Production now has soared to 750 million bushels a year. Grain sorghum ranks as one of the nation's fastest growing crops. Yields have mushroomed to a 58 bushel national average.

The High Plains, which produces 20 to 25 percent of the US crop and 55 to 60 percent of the Texas output, has a number of counties with average irrigated yields of well over 100 bushels an acre.

IN THE late 1950s, the grower's total income from the crop ranged around $1.50 to $1.60 per cwt. By 1966, the market price was up to a national average of $1.86, and the grower also received a price support payment of 53 cents per cwt. on production from half his base acres.

Last year the market average was $1.93, and this was also bolstered by a 53-cent payment of 50 percent of the base.

The Grain Sorghum Producers Association has figured prominently in the dramatic developments. The association brought trade teams from all over the world to the High Plains to show off the feeding advantages of grain sorghum, or milo. It assisted in organizing cattle feeding tours to the Corn Belt and Far West which have been widely credited with having helped to generate an explosive growth in the High Plains livestock industry.

"MARKET development has been one of our foremost objectives," points out an unassuming Elbert Harp, executive director of the Lubbock-based GSPA.

How the GSPA has achieved that goal is one of agriculture's great success stories. The association signed its first market development contracts with the US Department of Agriculture's Foreign Agricultural Service in the fall of 1957. Then GSPA began pushing exports in earnest in 1958.

One of the first trade teams to visit the High Plains came from Japan. At that time the Japanese had never seen grain sorghum. But they were enthused about the grain after they saw how it was being used by Plains livestock feeders. Before that team left the Plains, the first orders in history were being placed for grain sorghum to be shipped to Japan. Today, Japan is the No. 1 export market for American milo.

MILO exports rose to the point that at one time—when grain sorghum also was being shipped in heavy volume to Europe and India—the equivalent of the output from one of every three acres was moving abroad.

The tremendous growth of the Plains livestock industry has resulted in more milo being consumed within the heart of the production area. But milo growers still depend upon the Japanese market to buy the yield from one of every seven acres.

To strengthen the total grain sorghum research and promotion effort, the GSPA last fall sponsored a checkoff referendum in a 29-county High Plains area. Growers approved a uniform assessment of 5 cents per ton by a margin of 74.1 percent. Refunds are available to those who do not wish to contribute.

THE CHECKOFF program is governed by the Texas High Plains Grain Sorghum Producers Board, headed by K. B. Parish of Springlake. Melvin Barton of Dimmitt is vice-chairman and Larry Witten of Olton is secretary-treasurer. A. W. Anthony Jr. is a member of the board and Elbert Harp serves as executive director. The two groups share the same offices.

With a combined annual budget of $200,000, GSPA and the board hope to add even more luster to the fortunes of grain sorghum.

DEAF SMITH CO. REC

Powerful Lopes to host Bobcats

By JIM MILLER
It'll be old home week when Coach Brown Smith takes his Dimmitt Bobcats to Abernathy for the Friday night district tilt in Antelope Stadium.

CURTIS Davenport, former Antelope coach and now an Abernathy school administrator, was Smith's coach while the Bobcat mentor was playing a lot of college ball at Howard Payne.

Just to prove it's a small world, Davenport's son, Dave, will direct the Antelope formation.

Friday night's game will be the Bobcats' final out-of-town.

DIMMITT will need all of the scoring that the Houston Veer T can generate, 'cause the Antelopes aren't exactly any high school patsies. The Antelopes, 5-2 for the season so far and losers only to Petersburg and Olton, have plenty of big ol' mean boys.

Head Coach Luke Nickerson and his staff greeted 14 returning lettermen and 12 offensive and defensive starters from last year's edition which compiled a 5-5 slate. And the Antelopes' experience has been apparent this year as they have proven themselves one of the stronger teams in the area.

Coach Nickerson's plans for the campaign include the use of the triple option with lots of running plays being hurled at the opponents. Nickerson generally employs the split 6 and the 4-5 front on defense. And we all know, folks, that it's whats up front that counts.

The Bobcats, 5-3 for the season so far and sporting a three-game win streak, will go into the contest with several things cleared up.

First, Coach Smith has found the big, strong heavy-duty runner that everyone needs. The gentleman's name is Nati Anes, and he played a whale of a game against Lockney Friday night. When Anes makes the first cut in the second day the defensive folks had better buckle up because Big Nati doesn't run around folks, just right over them.

And Anes isn't all. Matt Daniel has been a pleasant surprise. He can fit into the offense at a running back slot or he can be used to spike up the defensive secondary. Daniel just loves to grab errant passes and then show the hometowners some moves that any halfback would be proud to possess.

A big factor in Friday night's game against the strong Antelopes is likely to be punter David Nino. Any coach would gladly trade a high school history class for a kicker of the Nino variety. Nino draws the ochs and abbs of the local fans when he really gets into one, which is just about every time he puts his educated foot into the ball.

Henry Rivera, Dan Frierson, Mark Wohlgenuth, Jay Statter and a big-play man by the name of Rich Davila: all have been only too glad to answer the call to arms. And they'll need to put forth their best effort yet if they hope o hubble he poter! Antelones Friday night.

Game time is 7:30 in Abernathy.

Dimmitt gunners down 12 cranes in Muleshoe hunt

A trio of Dimmitt hunters bagged nine cranes Saturday and three more Sunday to rank among the most successful hunting parties during the first weekend of the Muleshoe Jaycees' Eighth Annual Crane Hunt.

THEY WERE David Keith, G. L. DuBose and Derton Lingle, industrial arts teachers. They bagged their limit of three sandhill cranes each during the first half-hour of opening day Saturday, and were among the few successful hunters Sunday.

Muleshoe's Jaycees reported that late hunters scared most of the cranes away from the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge Saturday evening. As a result, Sunday morning's flight was very light.

Less than one crane per hunter flew off the refuge's lake Sunday, but Dimmitt's trio of hunters still managed to bag one apiece.

LINGLE, DuBose and Keith doctored their cranes' breasts to the Muleshoe Jaycees for a grand supper to be held soon, and gave the carcasses to Texas Tech for a parasite study.

The three successful hunters were featured on the "Western Sportsman" program Sunday on KVII-TV, Amarillo, and also on a program over WBAP-TV, Fort Worth.

The crane hunt will continue through Sunday. The fee is $5 per day or $7.50 for the weekend. Headquarters is the Dimer Bell Restaurant, 1700 W. American Blvd., Muleshoe. The Jaycees provide transportation to and from the hunting area — on leased land near the refuge — and open up the hunters' headquarters 12 hours before sunrise each day.

The hunter who kills the largest bird will receive a Browning 12-gauge automatic shotgun.

Springlake tops Longhorns, 48-0

By DAVID BAES
Tony Barton scored three touchdowns on runs and caught a pass for another to lead the Springlake-Earth Wolverines to a 48-0 shellacking of the Hart Longhorns in Hart last Friday.

HART received the ball to open the game, but after only two plays, the Longhorns committed the first of numerous fumbles during the course of the night and Springlake recovered deep in Hart territory.

But Springlake couldn't seem to keep a good grip on the ball, either, and fumbled on the Hart 2-yard line.

Backed up against the wall, the Horns began having trouble — Then it happened — Dirk Rambo was tackled in the end zone by Mike West and the Wolverines led, 2-0.

BUT THEN to make matters worse, Tony Barton received Hart's kickoff after the safety and scampered 70 yards for a touchdown. Tony Barton also kicked the point after to give the Wolverines a 9-0 lead.

Again a Hart fumble that gave Springlake the ball, and the visitors capitalized on it again as the first quarter was nearing its end. Barton powerhoused through the Hart line at the 30-yard marker, and made it all the way to the goal. The kick was stymied by a bad snap from center and the Wolverines held a 15-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was a big one for the Wolverines as they scored 20 big points. The first score came when Barton ran seven yards. Barton kicked the point also. The next score came when Quarterback Mike Cleavinger scampered 31 yards around end. The kick was blocked after this score. The final score came when Cleavinger broke loose on another run, this time for 16 yards. Barton kicked the point making the score at half 35-0.

THE THIRD quarter was all defense as each team staved on its own side of the field throughout the quarter.

But at the start of the fourth, Springlake caught fire with a long drive to the Hart 8-yard line, and from there Cleavinger threw a touchdown pass to Barton. The kick was no good, leaving the score at 42-0.

The Horns were still unable to move the ball at all, and had to give it back to the Wolverines. But this time Springlake found itself up against a tough defense and lost the ball on a fumble after a jarring tackle.

Hestand's toe, Anes' running yield 14-12 victory for Cats

By JIM MILLER
Dimmitt's scrambling Bobcats relied on the extra-point kicking of Hoyt Hestand and the heavy-duty running of Nati Anes to squeeze out a District 3-AAA victory, 14-12 over the visiting Lockney Longhorns here Friday.

THE CATS, falling behind 12-0 before coming to life late in the second quarter, managed to get on the scoreboard with 3:29 left in the first half.

Dan Frierson, streaking to his left, tallied his 11th touchdown of the campaign. Hestand added the point following Frierson's three-yard scoring scamper. The Dimmitt scoring effort came after Anes broke loose for a 78-yard gainer up the middle of the Lockney defense.

The Horns, featuring a fine scrambling quarterback in Tony Ford and two hard-hitting backs in Pat Bennett and Charlie Mathis, had it all their way in the opening stanza.

THEIR first score came soon after Ford hit Danny Cunyus on a roll-out pass. Cunyus rambled to the Dimmitt 20 on the completion. Bennett then plunged to the Cats' 8. On the next play, Ford hit his super-slick end, Randy Duckworth, in the end zone for the first TD of the contest. Duckworth, however, missed the conversion kick, making it 6-0.

Charlie McLean, Dimmitt's stoutest defensive back, returned the Horns' kick to the hometowners' 40-yard stripe. A mixup in the Dimmitt backfield, however, resulted in the ball going over to the Longhorns.

Bennett, a fine junior fullback, ran the draw to the Bobcats' 15-yard line. Ford then tossed to end Willie McGee, who made a sparkling catch to give the visitors their second tally of the night. Lockney's point-after attempt was wild again, giving the Longhorns a 12-0 margin with 11:21 left in the second frame.

IT WAS then Anes' turn to put on some offensive fireworks as he ripped off several nice gains before his 78-yard excursion, which put the Cats in scoring range.

The opening half ended with the visiting Horns cut in front, 12-7.

Although Mathis and Bennett gave Lockney's boosters some thrilling runs in the third quarter, it was Anes who got there "firstest with the mostest" for Dimmitt. Anes notched runs of five, seven, 15 and 30 yards while getting the Bobcats' sputtering offensive machine going again.

WITH 4:43 remaining in the quarter, Matthew Daniel picked off a Ford aerial and returned it to the Longhorn 10. Mark Wohlgenuth added the Dimmitt tally on a quarterback sneak over the middle. Hestand converted, making it 14-12 in favor of the Cats.

Wohlgenuth's touchdown ended the scoring for the evening for both ball clubs.

The Horns, however, gave the hometowners a tremendous scare throughout the fourth frame, with Ford getting hotter as the game progressed. Duckworth gathered in a Ford aerial and rolled for 45 yards to the Dimmitt 15.

HENRY RIVERA made one of the biggest plays of the season on the next play as he stacked up a Longhorn ball carrier for a short loss. Hestand then turned in a defensive gem for the Cats as he dropped Ford for a big loss and enabled the Cats to take over on their own 20.

Although the Cats' offensive efforts bogged down again, David Nino boomed a punt to the Horns' 30. Nino set another kicking opportunity before the evening ended and responded by whacking it to the Horns' 2 before it rolled out.

Heres for the Bobcats are Dan Frierson, Henry Rivera, Dave Nino, Hoyt Hestand and hard running Nati Anes gave the fans plenty to nudge each other about. Matt Daniel pulled an alley-oop catch to awaken the slumbering Cats.

New rolling along on a three game win streak, the Cats travel to Abernathy next week for another District 3-AAA contest.

I-A Club plans turkey shoot

Dimmitt High School's Industrial Arts Club will sponsor the season's first turkey shoot Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

THE SHOOT will begin at 1 p.m. each day at the Dimmitt Gun Club trap range on Western Drive, near DHS.

Five shooters will make up a match, with each shooter firing a five-shot string from parallel stations. Long range stations will be used for breaking ties. Entry fee is $2 per person per match.

The top shooter in each match will have his choice of a turkey, ham, game vest, pickup gun rack or tool box.

Although Mathis and Bennett gave Lockney's boosters some thrilling runs in the third quarter, it was Anes who got there "firstest with the mostest" for Dimmitt. Anes notched runs of five, seven, 15 and 30 yards while getting the Bobcats' sputtering offensive machine going again.

WITH 4:43 remaining in the quarter, Matthew Daniel picked off a Ford aerial and returned it to the Longhorn 10. Mark Wohlgenuth added the Dimmitt tally on a quarterback sneak over the middle. Hestand converted, making it 14-12 in favor of the Cats.

Nazareth loses to Turks, 20-12

By "THE SWIFT"
The Nazareth Swifts, in their second district game, dropped a heartbreaker to the Turkey Turks here Friday night.

THE SWIFTS, seemingly still bewildered after the defeat suffered last week, could not get a drive moving until late in the third quarter. This proved to be too late as the Turks took the game, 20-12.

Turkey took the opening kickoff and sliced through the Swifts' line with ease. Three first downs later, the Swift defense regained its balance and seemingly halted a Turkey drive. However, on fourth down and long yardage, Turkey used an end-around pass play and caught the Swifts off guard. The Turk gamble paid off with six points. The two-point conversion was good, and Turkey held an early 8-0 lead.

A run by David Olivera on the following kickoff put the Swifts in good field position. Nazareth moved for several first downs and penetrated Turkey's 20 as the first quarter ran out.

ON THE next series of downs, Olivera crossed the goal line on a sweep around right end. But the run was called back on a clipping penalty, and the score remained 8-0.

Nazareth again could not roll and had to give the ball to the Turks. Turkey still had an easy time with the Swift defense as it marched down the field and again scored on a fourth-down play. Nazareth's stepped the two-point conversion attempt and the first half ended 14-0.

Gordon Wilhelm took the kickoff to open the second half and ran for 18 yards. However, this drive was halted and the Swifts were forced to punt. On the next Turkey possession the Swift defense seemed to tighten up and Kenny Brockman intercepted a Turkey pass. Still unable to move the ball, the Swifts gave it up to Turkey, setting up the third Turk touchdown. The two extra attempts was halted and Turkey was in front, 20-0.

NAZARETH'S offense came alive as if by magic as junior Neil Dobmeier gained 40 yards on three carries and set up a seven-yard carry David Olivera to the 10-yard line. Quarterback Keith Gerber pushed the ball over for six points. The conversion attempt failed.

In the fourth quarter the stingy Nazareth defense gave the ball to the Turks only on one possession. On two long passes to Randy Schilling and Ben Huseman, Nazareth moved the length of the field and again scored on a quarterback sneak by Gerber. The conversion attempt again failed, and the final score stood 20-12.

Outstanding on offense were Neil Dobmeier, who carried the ball five times for 80 yards, and Keith Gerber, who sneaked across the two touchdowns scores.

ON defense, outstanding players were Sammy Birkenfeld with seven tackles and four assists, Raymond Huseman with seven tackles and three assists, and Ben Huseman with seven tackles and one assist.

Picadors, Fish to meet tonight in Shrine Bowl

The Texas Tech Picadors return to action tonight (Thursday) as they host the Texas A&M Fish in the fourth annual Khiva Shrine Bowl.

THE GAME will pit the undefeated Picadors against a winless Fish team. Tech has beaten New Mexico Military 55-7, Arkansas 24-6, and Oklahoma 18-10. The Fish have lost to TCU 31-7, Baylor 12-7, and Rice 31-8.

The game will be the eighth between the two fresh teams, with the Picadors down in the series, 4-3. In last year's game, Texas A&M's Vance Kerbow flashed for 200 yards rushing to lead the Fish to a 35-0 blanking of the Picadors. Tech's last win came in 1967 when they pulled out a 21-20 heartstopper.

Tonight's contest will see two of the finest former schoolboy quarterbacks in Texas facing each other for the second time. Tech's Jimmy Carmichael and A&M's Tim Trimmer hooked up against each other in the Texas High School Coaches Association All-Star game this summer, with Trimmer and the South coming out on top, 35-19.

THE KICKOFF is scheduled for 7:30 with Shriner's pre-game activities to begin at 7. Admission for adults is $2.50 and for students $1. All proceeds above cost will go to the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospitals and Burns Institutions.

Has your youngster learned gun safety rules? Have you?

"Hunting season every year brings needless tragedy to Texas, and in almost every incident carelessness is the culprit," the President of the Texas Safety Association said today.

GEORGE... William Perry, a Dallas attorney who heads the statewide safety group, urged Texas hunters to learn and use the basic rules of weapons handling and hunting safety.

"Last year 24 persons died as a result of hunting accidents in this state," said Perry. The TSA leader pointed to hunting accident records which showed there were 92 separate accidents involving 142 persons.

"The tragedy is that these accidents just do not have to occur. Sixty-nine of the people involved in the hunting accidents last year were under 21 years of age. Forty of those involved were 16 years old or younger," Perry noted.

HE SAID that this was clear-cut evidence that many people are hunting before they have been given proper instruction in safe hunting practices.

"Parents need to make sure their youngsters understand the rules of safe hunting and make sure the youngsters obey them," Perry urged.

There are twelve basic rules for safe gun handling, according to the Texas Safety Association.

- TREAT every gun as if it were loaded, never take anyone's word that a gun is empty.

- Always point the gun muzzle in a safe direction, never aim at anything you don't intend to shoot.
- Be sure of your target, never shoot at unidentified noises, wait until the whole animal or bird is visible.
- KNOW the correct way to carry your gun, under your arm, on your shoulder, cradled in your arms, and in both hands.
- Keep the safety on or the chamber unloaded until ready to fire and keep your finger out of the trigger guard.
- Check bore frequently—through the breech end—to be sure it is clear of foreign objects.
- Agree beforehand on the area each hunter will cover.
- BE SURE the action is open when handing a gun to another person, or stopping to eat, talk, or rest.
- Transport unloaded guns in cases for their protection and keep them out of sight to prevent theft.
- When hunting in a group no hunter should carry a gun so that it even points at another person.
- Unload gun before crossing fences and pass the gun under fire.
- Correct unsafe gun handling whenever you see it by explaining and demonstrating the right way to handle a firearm.

A son, Mark, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Mondragon of Dimmitt Oct. 27. He weighed in at 9 pounds, 1 ounce.

It's a girl for Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Olvera of Dimmitt. She was named Dominga, and was born Oct. 29. She weighed 7 pounds, 8 ounces.

OUT OF TOWN
Mr. and Mrs. Pete Stewart of Dimmitt are the parents of a son born at 2:12 a.m. Sunday morning in Deaf Smith County Hospital. He weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces, and has been named Brian Wade.

Letter to the Editor County should let public know

Dear Editor,

I am interested to know about our county's financial condition. But I would not know about it unless it is made public through the news media.

Yours truly,
Rev. R. Chen

REAGAN BROWN, Extension sociologist, reports that 252 Texas communities are now enrolled in the state-wide Community Improvement Program and that many of them already are busy with plans and activities which they hope to complete before judging time next spring.

'Mr., Miss FTA' winners named

"Mr. and Miss FTA" were named recently following a speech contest among members of the Dimmitt High School Future Teachers of America chapter.

DEBRA REED, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reed, was named "Miss FTA," and "Mr. FTA" is Lonnie Markley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Markley. Both are seniors.

In sub-district competition in Amarillo last Wednesday night, Markley placed as one of three Panhandle area boys to advance to district competition in Canyon.

Legion to hold Dutch breakfast

The Greer H. Estes Post of the American Legion will post colors Wednesday morning at the Castro County Courthouse. The ceremony will begin at sunrise, 7:10 a.m., and will be under the direction of Ralph Smith.

FOLLOWING the posting of the colors, the annual Legionnaire Dutch Breakfast will be held at the Colonial Inn Restaurant. Special guests at the breakfast will be Gold Star parents or their family representatives.

Wilson to head spelling bee; book available

Judge R. E. Wilson has been named 1971 Spelling Bee director for Castro County.

THE Castro County Bee will be held by April 1, 1971, and the winner will go to Amarillo April 24, 1971, for the annual elimination contest where a new regional champion will be named.

The boy or girl named in Amarillo will win an all-expense trip to Washington, D.C., June 7-11, to represent the Golden Spread in the national competition.

In 1970, Lori Huseman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Huseman of Nazareth, was the county champion.

The 1971 Golden Spread Bee will be co-sponsored by West Texas State University and the Amarillo Globe-News. L. J. (Jack) Edmondson, director of public services at the university, will be coordinator for the regional event.

THERE will also be a secondary contest — the only one of its kind within the National Spelling Bee program — open to youngsters from the sixth and lower grades. These juniors will be guests of the Amarillo Globe-News at the Regional Bee or April 24, but will not spell unless they represent the senior division, also.

Beverly Heck of Nazareth was the junior champion for 1970. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heck Jr.

The new "1971 Words of the Champions" (containing 500 new words) may be ordered from Jim W. Walker, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, Box 2091, Amarillo, 79105. Price is 20 cents each.

Yule plan for Girlstown calls for givers, hosts

When you make out your Christmas list, don't forget the girls at Girlstown USA.

CASTRO COUNTIANS last year were among the most generous benefactors of the girls' home near Whiteface. And Mrs. Tom Hall, chairman of the county's 1970 Christmas project for Girlstown, said she hopes residents here will be as generous again this year.

The Christmas project for Girlstown is now underway, and gifts for the girls may be taken to the Castro County Sheriff's Office or to Mrs. Hall at the office of the Bert Andrews Trailer Park on South Broadway.

"Any and every type of gift will be appreciated," Mrs. Hall said, "and I'll pick up the gifts if you can't get them to me."

ESPECIALLY needed as Christmas gifts for the 70 girls at Girlstown are cosmetics, stationery and all kinds and sizes of clothing.

The first part of the project — an "undies barrel" — already has a good start, Mrs. Hall reported.

"Last year the girls got all kinds of gifts for Christmas, but they didn't get a single set of underwear," she said, "so this year we're going to fill up a barrel with underwear for them."

MRS. HALL and a friend made the "undies barrel" — a paper barrel two feet high and 1 1/2 feet in diameter, which is decorated with white paper, a ribbon banner and a pair of pantaloons, with a sign that says, "To Girlstown From Santa."

"It's already one-third full," Mrs. Hall said.

Gifts aren't the only part of the Girlstown Christmas project. Another object is to find families who would like to have one or two of the girls spend the Christmas holidays with them.

"ALL THE girls will spend Christmas in private homes in the area," Mrs. Hall said. "Anyone who would like to have one of the girls spend Christmas with them should contact Marshall Cooper, the Girlstown director. Last year was the first time all the girls had a place to go on Christmas, and it was so successful that you'll probably need to make your request early this year."

The girls will be dismissed from school for the holidays on Dec. 23 and will fan out to homes in the area after having their "family Christmas party" that evening.

Mrs. Hall said that despite local residents' proven willingness to be of service to the girls, some still have "a big misconception" about what Girlstown is, and is not.

"GIRLSTOWN is not a correctional institution, and it's not an orphan's home," she explained. "It's a home for girls who are from broken homes or who were victims of bad home environments."

"Girlstown does not receive any tax money," she added. "It is supported entirely by private contributions from interested people and organizations. Girls get to Girlstown by a number of ways — on the recommendation of counselors, courts or public officials, and sometimes at the request of the girls themselves."

Girlstown is located nine miles south of Whiteface on FM 1780. The home now has 70 girls ranging in age from pre-schoolers to college students. Also, there are 14 girls at Girlstown's Borger Extension, who range in age from pre-schoolers up to 14.

MRS. HALL reported that there has been a lot of progress at Girlstown during the past year — mainly, a donated building to be used as a recreation center for the girls.

"A new recreation building has been assured by the donation of a building in Odessa," Mrs. Hall said, "but they still need the money to move the building to Girlstown and to convert it to a recreation building. The girls don't have a building for recreation now."

"This is something a lot of people have been working toward for a long time," Mrs. Hall said. "There's an organization buying the building for the girls, but the details can't be made public yet."

ALSO, Girlstown now "looks like a little city," Mrs. Hall said, "thanks to the donation of 80 outdoor gaslights by the Caprock Federation of Women's Clubs. This organization paid for 80 trees to be planted at Girlstown two years ago."

Castro County residents donated more than 300 gifts to the girls last year to make their Christmas a bright one. Mrs. Hall said she expects that Castro County will live up to its reputation again this year.

Anes captures 'Bobcat' title

Nati Anes, 164-lb. junior running back, drew his first starting assignment for the Dimmitt Bobcats Friday night — and set a five-year record for individual yardage gained.

HIS game-winning performance against the Lockney Longhorns earned Anes the "Bobcat of the Week" title this week. He was honored at Monday night's meeting of the Dimmitt Athletic Booster Club and a Tuesday's meeting of the Dimmitt Lions.

Anes raced 167 yards against the Longhorns, setting up both Dimmitt touchdowns, "and he would have gained 223 yards if two of his runs had not been called back by penalties," Backfield Coach Roy Blair told the Lions Tuesday.

"We wondered how long it had been since one boy had gained that many yards for Dimmitt in a single game, so we checked in our record books," Blair said. "We found that Nati's performance Friday night was the best individual running gain in five years by a Bobcat."

ANES stepped in for Dimmitt's regular fullback, Jay Stanton, who was sidelined by a turned ankle Friday night. Until the Lockney game, Anes had served as Stanton's backup man.

"We feel we're real blessed with good running backs," Blair said. "We have four who are real good, and it hasn't made much difference which one was in. And the best part about it is that all four of them are juniors."

First Christian Amazon mission to be described

Minister J. Fred Bayless of Albuquerque, N.M., will be a special missionary speaker at both the 10:50 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday services at the First Christian Church.

HE WILL tell of the work of his son, David, in the "Christ for the Amazon" mission in Brazil, one of the five projects receiving regular support by the Dimmitt congregation.

At the evening service, Bayless will show slides of the mission and its work, conducted by David and his wife, who are in their second tour with the mission.

The public is invited to both services. An offering will be received for the mission. This will be the fourth mission speaker at First Christian during 1970. The church will have four more during 1971.

THE ELDER Bayless was president of the West Texas-New Mexico Evangelizing Association in 1970 when the organization sponsored Minister Smith in establishing the Dimmitt congregation. David's mission was the first to receive a mission offering from the Dimmitt church in 1960 before it became fully self-supporting the following year. Bayless has been the anniversary speaker here and conducted a revival several years ago, also.

Minister Smith also announced that he is continuing the 10-minute weekly Saturday broadcasts over KDFN at about 9:45 to 9:50 a.m. on "Understanding the Word of God," and will answer any questions about the Bible sent in or phoned in to him. He will answer questions about other churches or their views as such over the radio.

Numbers 1-145 up for draft

The November draft call for Texas is 450, and local boards will fill the call with men with random sequence numbers 1 through 145, insofar as possible.

Col. Charles M. Duncan, acting state Selective Service director, said this week. He stated, however, that this does not mean that registrants with numbers higher than 145 may not be needed for future calls.

COL. DUNCAN stressed that under the new Executive Order signed by the President Sept. 26, 1970, all men in I-A, I-A-O or I-O on Dec. 31, 1970, with numbers lower than the high number reached this calendar year by their own local boards will be assigned to the Extended Priority Selection Group to be called during the first quarter of 1971. Those with a higher number than the high number reached will be assigned to the Second Priority Group in 1971.

The Texas November draft quota of 450 is the state's share of a national quota for 8,000 men, all for the army.

The state quota for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in November is 1,310. Men sent for these examinations will be limited to those with random sequence numbers 1 through 195 from the drawing in December 1969 and numbers 1 through 100 from the July 1970 drawing for those born in 1951.

All volunteers at the draft board must be inducted ahead of the non-volunteers selected and ordered to report for induction by random sequence number.

Local board quotas for induction and pre-induction examination in November were scheduled to be mailed to the state's 159 boards October 9.

The view from your library

By MARY EDNA HENDRIX

We had nine present, four girls and five boys, for the Children's Story Hour Friday, Mrs. Marilyn Hardison read about "Curious George," a monkey who had too much curiosity.

WE MAY have a surprise this Friday, so why don't you plan to attend the Story Hour if you are between the ages of 4 and 6? Remember, the time is 1 p.m. at the Castro County Library in the basement of the courthouse.

We received a few more books last week. Most of them are for junior age but a few are for adult reading.

The junior books are "Suart Little" and "Charlotte's Web" by E. B. White, "Bedford Forrest — Boy on Horseback" by Aileen W. Parks, "The Fun and Game Book" by Barbara Bate and "Big Book of Cowboys" by Sydney Fleicher.

The books for adults are "First On the Moon — A Voyage with Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins and Edwin E. Aldrin, Jr." by Arthur C. Clarke, "Roll Up the Wallpaper, We're Moving" by William C. Anderson, and "George Washington's Expense Account" by Marvin Kitman.

MRS. E. R. LITTLE, a member of the Library Board, and I went to the Texas Library Association's District I meeting in Dumas Saturday. The topic was on "Becoming Concerned, Informed, and Involved." John Minter, assistant professor of library science at Texas Woman's University at Denton, was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Little attended the section meeting for trustees with Shirley Leo presiding, and I went to the public library division meeting with Elizabeth Crabbe from Amarillo presiding. The guest speaker for this meeting was Marie Shultz from Austin discussing the Texas Library Systems Act.

I would like to thank Shirley Sternens and Gayle Ratcliff for working in the library for me while I was attending this meeting.

We had a good group for the Children's Story Hour last Friday.

MARILYN HARDISON read "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown" by Charles M. Schulz and a ghost story "Georgie" by Robert Bright, to 19 boys and girls. Mrs. Pickens and Mrs. Lane were here to help serve the lovely Halloween cup cakes which Marilyn had made.

Last weekend I took my parents to Denton to a golden wedding anniversary honoring my dad's cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crockett. While we were there that close to Dallas we went to see my daughters and their families, the David Vaughns and the Bill Lanfords.

MY GRANDSON invited me to go with him to the open house of his school, the Spring Valley Elementary School. I met his teacher, Miss Gilmore, as we visited Kevin's room: to see the papers and art work that he had on display.

The Parent Teachers Association was sponsoring a "Book Fair" Monday afternoon each student had a chance to look at all the books for sale and make a list of the ones they would like to buy. The Monday night the children could buy these books. There were six long tables covered with books and the teachers or parents were there to help them in their selections and to take their money. The PTA received a percentage from all the proceeds. It sounds like a good way to make money as well as create an interest in books for the children.

Thought for the week: What may appear to be a cry of rebellion may be youth's desire to serve. —E.S.

Scout workers' training starts

Training courses for all adults who work with Cub Scout packs and Boy Scout troops in the Haynes District of the South Plains Boy Scout Council will begin today (Thursday) at the First Presbyterian Church, 21st and Utica in Plainview. The sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Subjects to be presented tonight are "The Den Meeting" and "Pack Management" for men and women in Cub Scouting, and "Advancement and Troop Financing" for the men in Boy Scouting.

Instructors will be Edgar McDougough, Franky Mills, Jack Ballenger, David Willson, Wayne Willis, Monte McLroy, Jerry Stevens and Warren Green.

The course will continue with additional Thursday night sessions in November.

Legion to host zone meeting

There will be a Zone 2 meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary tonight (Thursday) at 7 in the American Legion hall in Dimmitt. Happy, Hart, Nazareth, Tula and Friona Legionnaires and wives will be guests.

Freshman team could use your support, also

When the varsity team plays on Friday night, we fill up the bleachers and cheer them on. When it's third down and seven we encourage them to gain great chunks of yardage.

 THEY HAVE cheerleaders to urge them on. We have a Pep Club to help cheer them on when the score is Home 15 and Visitor 21, with three minutes left in the game. When they win, we congratulate them. When they lose, we encourage them to do better next Friday night.

When the varsity plays, many of the townspeople come to watch them play, but it's a different story when Thursday rolls around. People come to us—the freshman football players—in the hall and razz us about whether we are going to lose by 30 or 60 points.

Some of the students are betting against our ballclub. No one asks us how much we are going to win by. And yet, they expect us to play our best without any support.

The people who come to watch us play make jokes about our previous scores and the way we are playing, instead of cheering us to victory. So, how about supporting your freshman team next Thursday? Cheer us to victory, Freshman Bobcats.

Counselor's Corner

A new policy will be in effect this week. Those wishing to see Mr. Ringo will have to make an appointment with him in the office before school starts. You will be given a slip of paper with the time on it, permitting you to get out of class at only that time.

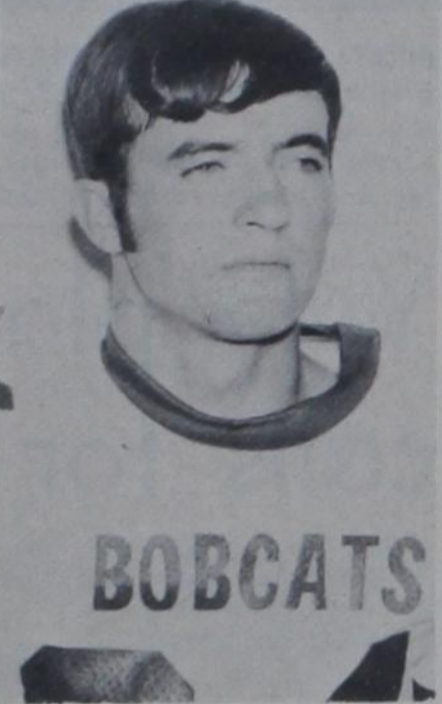

Junior achievement tests will be given Monday and Tuesday. Test results for freshmen have been returned. Mr. Ringo will go over test results with students as a group, and will make appointments with parents to discuss test results at a later date.

Closing dates for applying for the college entrance test for seniors are: ACT test, Nov. 9, (to be taken Dec. 12); SAT test, Nov. 18 for the December 5th test. There will be a $3 late fee after Nov. 4.

Check the counselor's bulletin board daily for important information.

Hope everybody studied for the six week's tests.

RICE and turkeys head the USDA's plentiful foods list for November. In addition potatoes, onions, fresh apples, canned apple sauce, apple juice, fresh cranberries, cranberry sauce, fruit cocktail, walnuts, dry split peas, pork, and broiler-fryers are included. Holiday season food shoppers should have no trouble finding the turkey and trimmings needed for Thanksgiving.

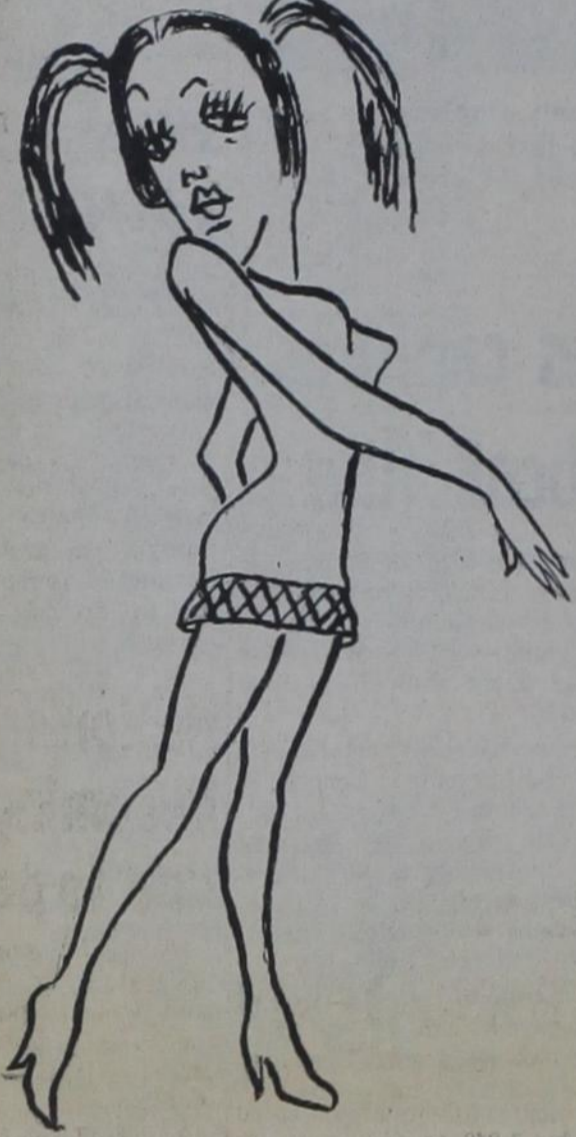

Stanton Player of the week Jay Stanton

Jay Stanton, junior halfback, is this week's Fourth Hour Player of the Week.

JAY SAYS that his best game was against Muleshoe, in which he ran back a punt 65 yards. This was his longest run of the season.

"Our ball club is coming along real well," he said. "Olton and Abernathy will be tough, but now we're rolling."

Jay has attended Dimmitt schools all his life. He plans to go to a junior college for two years, then go to a major college. He says he plans a major in agriculture.

Car insurance companies ask 11.7 percent hike

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Auto insurance company spokesmen have called for an "absolute minimum" 11.7 percent profit allowance after taxes.

Industry representatives told the State Board of Insurance at a two-day hearing that they must have that margin to stay afloat and serve car owners.

At the same time, they told the board it should consider all courses of insurance company coverings in arriving at rates. The meeting was to hear testimony as to whether company investment income should be included in the auto premium rate base.

A further hearing in November will determine what actual rate recommendations will be. Apparently, no rate change will go into effect before next January.

Industry recommendations — including consideration of all income and fixed allowance for a fair rate of return — would add up to 6.5 percent increase in the auto premium rate for most motorists, experts estimated.

Under industry recommendations, future rate inadequacies would be the "sole responsibility of the (state) regulators if they fail to recognize a proper rate of return," spokesmen said.

Expert witnesses told the board that state-regulated utilities, which have far less risk of loss than casualty insurance companies, are permitted higher profits.

Others said that casualty insurance companies are among those that have the lowest rates of return of any major industry.

Unimpressed, Texas AFL-CIO President H. S. (Hank) Brown promised the biggest fight "since the Battle of the Alamo" if the board agrees to another rate increase.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Court of Criminal Appeals has held that a Houston judge was not disqualified from presiding at the trial of a man whom he prosecuted (as a district attorney) 10 years earlier on another charge.

State Supreme Court set arguments for Dec. 2 over whether a Dallas firm's contracts giving dealers exclusive territories for breath sweeteners is a violation of anti-trust laws.

Also set for Dec. 2 were arguments over losses covered by "vandalism and malicious mischief" provisions in insurance policies.

Still another Dec. 2 argument

Man is injured, two cars damaged in Sunday mishap

A Dimmitt man was injured and two cars were heavily damaged in an accident near the North Gin at 1:15 Sunday morning.

DYRLE MAPLES, investigating highway patrolman, said a 1960 Pontiac driven by Byron Hutto was attempting to make a left turn from the northbound lane of US 385 when a 1963 Pontiac driven by Manuel Minjarez Jr. attempted to pass. The collision sent Minjarez to Plains Memorial Hospital with severe head lacerations.

The '63 Pontiac was totally demolished, and Hutto's car received approximately $200 damage, Maples said. Minjarez was cited for failing to control speed and driving without a license.

Hutto and two passengers in his car were uninjured.

is scheduled in an Austin case involving whether death of a motorist was solely due to an auto accident or whether chronic illnesses contributed. The son of the deceased man would collect $20,000 in insurance if the accident was ruled to be the sole cause of his death.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

A county may pay overtime subject to budget and maximum salary laws and may pay for accumulated vacation time in line with contracts, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

—Public junior college districts are classified as political subdivisions of the state for the purpose of elective coverage of employees under unemployment insurance.

—State employees under the classification system may be reclassified downward without change in duty assignment, without mandatory pay rate reduction not to exceed "step 7" of lower pay group.

—Central Education Agency has authority to contract with private firms to set up and operate experimental diagnostic programs for language-handicapped children.

—Harris County Commissioners Court has the mandatory ministerial duty to approve and pay budgetary expenses allotted for the county purchasing agent and fixed by board of judges.

—Wife of the Waller County road administrator may be employed in the county road and bridge department.

FOND LIMIT RAISE URGED

An interim study committee has called on the 62nd Legislature to expedite submission of a constitutional amendment to remove the four-percent interest ceiling on Water Development Bonds.

Texas Water Resources Study Committee, in a special report, emphasized that the Water Development Board has authorization to sell $100 million in bonds to make loans to local governments for water improvements, but the interest limit makes the bonds unmarketable.

Inability to sell at prevailing high interest rates is blocking construction of dams, reservoirs and treatment facilities in all parts of the state, said the committee.

Members pledged to offer later recommendations for providing financial assistance to cities and towns to help them get adequate facilities and attract federal matching funds.

COLLEGE ENROLLMENT SOARS

There are 427,472 students in Texas public and private junior and senior institutions of higher education this fall. It's a new high!

Percentage of enrollment growth was 8.34 percent over 1969 when enrollment reached 398,102. Texas growth rate is well above the national average of 4.5 percent. Figures are preliminary.

Public junior college enrollment jump was phenomenal — 16.26 percent — totaling 112,219. Public senior college and university headcount increased 5.68 percent to 240,597. Private senior colleges and universities also gained — 4.61 percent — to 67,810. Only the private junior colleges showed a drop. They were off 24.87 percent, to 8,846.

BOUNDARY SOUGHT

Attorney General Martin and former Gov. Price Daniel will tour the Sabine-Neches area this week looking over territory involved in a Texas-Louisiana boundary dispute.

Louisiana claims the western shore of the Sabine River and Lake as part of the Louisiana Purchase. Texas claims jurisdiction to the middle of the river and lake. Outcome of the lawsuit is seen as a major significance to the Sabine-Neches area. The official party will cruise the Sabine from Orange to Sabine-Neches Waterway at Port Arthur.

PASS EASEMENT ACCEPTED

Parks and Wildlife Commission voted 2-1 to accept a 400-foot easement for the $3 million Corpus Christi water exchange (fish pass across Mustang Island).

Commission also accepted from Mrs. Sam E. Wilson Jr. of Corpus Christi the gift of 130 1/2 acres of land on the island to provide fishermen access to the pass from the north.

Replacement: Favored in Castro County by 1,040 to 650, carrying all 16 voting boxes. Statewide, the 822,300 to 334,900.

No. 2, Liquor by the Drink: Opposed by Castro County voters, with 1,341 against and 577 for, and only Precinct 5 and absentee balloting favoring the amendment. However, the proposition carried statewide, 652,903 to 634,371.

No. 3, Change of Land Assessment System: Went down to defeat both in the county and statewide. County totals showed 1,167 against and 638 for. Statewide, it was 673,134 against and 530,398 for. However, two of the county's precincts favored the defeated amendment, Flag by 29-24 and Easter by 28-24.

No. 4, to make the State Building Commission appointive: Was defeated both in Castro County and statewide, with the county opposing it by 945 to 649 and the state by 553,298 to 514,069. Only the county's absentee voters favored the amendment, 22-13, with all precincts voting against it Tuesday.

No. 5, Road Bonds: Castro County voters were against it, but it carried statewide. In the county, the vote was 902 against and 794 for. Across the state, voters favored it, 563,841 to 512,083. The vote was fairly close in all county precincts, with Hart, Summerfield, Nazareth and absentee voters favoring the proposal.

No. 6, Increase in Homestead Exemption: A popular proposal both in Castro County and across the state. Castro voters favored the amendment 911 to 793, and it carried statewide by 704,951 to 446,194. However, the voters in seven of Castro County's 16 precincts opposed the amendment by small margins. They were Southeast Dimmitt, Northeast Dimmitt, South Nazareth, Jumbo-Big Square, Summerfield, Nazareth and Easter.

No. 7, Consolidating Certain State Offices: Opposed in Castro County by a 2-1 margin, but carried statewide by a scant 3,000 votes. Every precinct in the county favored, across the state the amendment was carrying in Wednesday's virtually complete total vote 1,048 against and 560 for. However, across the state he totals by the thin margin of 548,107 to 345,541.

CASTRO County registered a 60 percent turnout in Tuesday's election, with 2,057 of the county's 3,400 registered voters going to the polls. This was considered a surprisingly large turnout for an "off-year" election, but it didn't approach the record in the 1968 presidential year, when 2,862 Castro Countians rang up a whopping 74.4 percent voter turnout.

The Castro County Commissioners Court will canvass the election Monday, and next week's issue of the News will carry the precinct by precinct totals in all races and issues.

Two FTA youths win at district

Two Castro County students won honors at the district meeting of Future Teachers of America Tuesday in Canyon.

LONNIE MARKLEY, Dimmitt senior, was named "Mr. FTA" of the district and Jean Foster of Hart was elected district historian.

Markley won the title after competing against two other area speech winners. He will represent the district at the annual state convention in February, where he will compete with 19 other district champs for a $1,000 scholarship. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Markley.

Miss Foster is the first district officer to be elected from Hart High School's year-old FTA chapter. She is a sophomore and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Foster.

Spanish classes to start tonight

Free public classes in conversational Spanish will start tonight (Thursday) in the Castro County Courthouse.

TEACHING the course will be Rev. Edd Sanchez, pastor of the Joe Bailes Baptist Mission, who formerly taught a similar course in Monahans. Rev. Sanchez is conducting the course as a public service.

The program was organized Monday night, when a group of interested people decided to hold two classes each Tuesday and Thursday night — an early class from 7 to 8 p.m. and a late class from 8 to 9 p.m.

An enrollee's only expense, Rev. Sanchez explained, will be the purchase of two textbooks and a Spanish-English translation dictionary. He urged all people interested in learning to speak Spanish to attend one of tonight's classes.

Nation's symbol becoming extinct due to pesticide

Since the snowy pate of the bald eagle is easily identifiable with the symbolism of nobility, the United States would be hard put to find a better national emblem.

NEVERTHELESS, the US might be wise to start seeking another emblem. The eagle, symbol of our nation, could be on the brink of extinction.

Where once there were thousands along the Texas coast, only five or six pairs remain, according to the National Audubon Society. In the US only 12,000 to 15,000 eagles remain, and 10,000 of these are in Alaska.

Though guns and bulldozers have certainly taken their toll of both the eagle and its habitat, other more insidious creations of man are threatening to make the eagle less durable than the nation it represents.

Chlorinated hydrocarbon pesticides such as DDT, dieldrin and endrin are reported to seriously threaten the future of the bald eagle.

THIS IS because bald eagles, are positioned at the end of a food chain, which guarantees a dosage of poison with practically every meal. For some birds of prey, such as the golden eagle which feeds mostly on mammals, the end should not come as quickly as it may for others which feed mostly on birds and fish as does the bald eagle. Pesticides apparently are magnified more in birds and fish than in mammals.

In some cases bald eagles have been killed outright when DDT and dieldrin accumulated in their brains. But the bald eagle could find his way to oblivion in a much less dramatic way than the quivering death of direct pesticide poisoning. He just won't reproduce.

DDT and dieldrin affect calcium metabolism, which in turn affects eggshell thickness. The shells are so thin that parent birds frequently break them while nesting, and then eat them.

SINCE biologists say chances for saving the bald eagle may already be beyond our powers, a study of its natural history may be a moot point very shortly.

But while he is still around, we can appreciate the eagle as one of our most interesting wild-life species.

The eagle takes much of his food on the wing. In normal flight he labors like a winged elephant, but when the need arises the big bird becomes surprisingly agile. He is able to pursue an osprey, turn over on his back and pluck a fish from the osprey's talons.

Youth offers fire prevention tips for homes

By STEPHEN ACKER

Now that Fire Prevention Week is over, have you made your home safe?

TWO hazards to look for are improper use of gasoline and improper storage of paints. One gallon of gasoline, when mixed with the proper amount of air, has the destructive power of 83 pounds of dynamite.

Extension cords and bad sockets are also hazards to look for. When extension cords run under rugs or over nails, the insulation becomes worn and can start a fire. A cracked socket or light fixture can short out and cause a fire. The most common causes of fires are overloaded electrical circuits and accumulated trash.

Overloaded circuits cause heat and blow the fuses. You are out of fuses, so you put a penny behind the fuse for a carry-over. Or the penny it says, "In God We Trust" — and you'd better if you use this practice.

WHEN THE trash can is kept too close to the stove, sparks or matches not put out properly, may cause the trash to ignite. The flames from the stove might start the trash on fire.

Remember, when you do discover a fire, immediately notify the fire department or other available help. Fight the fire yourself, if the blaze is small enough, but not until you have sounded a general fire alarm.

If a fire breaks out in your home, get everyone out and keep them out.

TRY TO shut the air from the fire. A blaze needs oxygen to burn, and if you keep the oxygen supply away, it has less chance to grow.

Remember when you are fighting a fire, you are fighting a burning object not the flames. Direct water or fire extinguisher to the source of the fire.

Be sure each member of your family knows what to do in case of a fire.

Youths urge water plan after statewide study

Texas is running out of water, and it's up to Texans to fully investigate facts concerning the Texas Water Plan. That's the conclusion reached by a group of East Texas youth after an intensive six-month investigation of the state's water plight and the water plan.

THE FINDINGS of the Smith County youth are covered in "A 2020 Vision," a detailed report just released. The study was financed by Readers Digest, the D. K. Caldwell Foundation and the Texas Power and Light Co.

Starting as a committee of the Smith County 4-H Club, the 12-member committee was later designated "The Governor's Youth Committee on the Texas Water Plan." Its investigations carried the youth throughout the state for first-hand inspections and for consultations with leading officials and authorities.

Setting the stage for the report, the introduction quotes a Life magazine article that pointed out that "Texas simply does not have enough water in the right places to support its fast-growing population, industry and agriculture." Life published the statement 17 years ago.

"THROUGHOUT our studies of Texas and the current Water Plan, it was emphasized that in order to meet these water demands, full development and conservation of all Texas water reservoirs is essential," the report said.

During the study, members of the youth committee spent two days touring the High Plains as guests of Water, Inc., the educational organization dedicated to finding solutions to state water problems. The report cites the High Plains as one of the most productive sections of the state, but notes that West Texas is facing a future water shortage which could be averted with implementation of the water plan calling for importation of water from the east.

Among benefits to East Texas from the plan, the report lists the building of reservoirs to store water which otherwise would be lost, maintaining control over East Texas floods and the creation of new and more inviting recreational spots to attract tourists.

The report predicts that surplus water will be available from the Mississippi River and that Texas voters will have an opportunity to vote again in 1973 on a plan for financing the state's cost-share of the project. A similar proposal for financing implementation of the plan was defeated by a narrow margin at the polls last year.

The study was made by Larry Osborne, chairman, Donna Barron, Paula Cobb, Ronald Newland, David Payne, Penny Rodgers, Jennifer Wilson and Danny Wyatt, all of Tyler. Wilson Hall, also of Tyler, was adult advisor to the committee. The youth worked under the supervision of Smith County Associate Agricultural Agent Edward F. Fugger and Assistant Home Demonstration Agent Kathy Borchers.

Cottonseed care affects quality

The quality of cottonseed for planting purposes could become a problem. Therefore, points out Fred C. Elliott, Extension cotton specialist, careful attention should be given to harvesting, ginning, and seed handling in order to insure quality seed for next year's planting.

HE LISTS five primary areas where damage to seed can occur. They are pre-harvest damage; mechanical damage during harvest; damage during trailer or bulk storage at high moisture levels; mechanical damage during ginning and damage from acid delinting.

Follow the moisture guidelines, suggests Elliott, during harvesting and ginning for this is most important and is the one practice where growers can help.

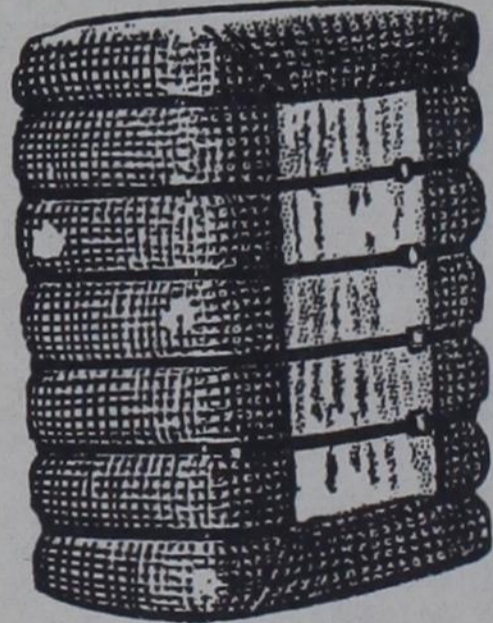

When cotton opens during wet weather, there is some danger of free fatty acid developing in the seed. This can be detected by cutting the seed and observing whether the meat in the seed has a brown color. Under such conditions, seed should be very carefully handled, says the specialist.

HERE ARE other suggestions from Elliott which should help obtain better quality planting seed. Delay harvesting in the morning until relative humidity at boll height in the field is 60 percent or less. Wait until the bark on the main stalk and stems are dry following frost or desiccation. Too early stripping will result in barked grades. Store seed at the lowest possible moisture content, below 12 percent. Also store seed under conditions that will allow cooling or air circulation through them.

And this word of warning: If cotton is harvested early in the morning under high moisture conditions, and the trailer is left on the gin lot during the rush of harvest, injury to the seed can result. Even overnight storage on a trailer with moisture content of the cotton higher than 12 percent can cause heating and seed damage, he says.

And finally, he makes these suggestions: Eat an early lunch and start the stripper around 11 a.m. and save planting seed from afternoon harvested cotton, and ask the county agent for publications dealing with seed problems.

Trick-or-treaters earn praise

By MYRT LOMAN
There is always illness in Hart, and some of our residents have commented on how nice the children were on Halloween night when they found a note on the door not to ring the doorbell since there was sickness.

Those who did not read the signs in time offered their apologies when someone answered the door. And when all the treats had been given to the trick or treaters, they would say thank you, even though they received nothing.

Hart still has good children and respectful ones, and we are grateful to those who are considerate of others.

WE STILL have not had very much moisture in Hart, as the city only received .63 of an inch in September and 1.03 in October.

Since we have such cool weather now, a cup of hot chocolate is very refreshing and good for the hungry kiddies when they come from school or just before going to bed.

GIRLS IN Action met last Wednesday in fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church with their leaders, Mrs. Lowell Richburg and Roxann Irons.

Special music was played by D'Ann Richburg as the meeting opened. Patricia Smith, president, conducted the meeting.

Group singing was led by Laurie Franks, accompanied by Janna Mapp.

Three new members, Teresa Kittrell, Lana Tucker and Kendra Bishop, were welcomed. Fourteen girls attended.

THE ZEALOT Club met in the community room of Farmers State Bank with Mrs. Jerry Kittrell and Mrs. C. T. Cunningham hosting the meeting.

Mrs. W. T. Sanders presented a program on "Proper Application of Makeup," with Mrs. Kittrell as the model.

Halloween motif, with sandwiches, spiced tea and coffee served. Elinas Martinez won the teddy bear at the recent Zealot Club rummage sale.

Proceeds from the rummage sale will be used for a scholarship for a 1971 Hart senior and treats for a Christmas party in the elementary grades.

MEMBERS of the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church in Bovina will honor their pastor, Rev. F. L. Sledge, and his wife with special anniversary services at the church this Sunday and the following Sunday in observance of their five years of work with the church.

Rev. C. T. Cunningham of the First Baptist Church of Hart will be guest speaker at a 3 p.m. service Sunday, with other pastors and members from churches in Progress, Farwell, Clovis and Earth participating.

W. C. CRICK was admitted Saturday night to Pleins Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt.

Mrs. L. W. Bennett was in critical condition at noon Monday in Plains Memorial Hospital. She has been in ill health for several years.

SPONSORS were Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. George Bennett, who served cookies and punch at the church after the one-hour canvass.

THE COORDINATED vocational-Academic Education class of girls is preparing a cook book of unusual value and contents.

TONIGHT (Thursday) Hart's eighth grade will play Happy in Hart at 5 p.m. Hart's 'B' team will play An'on, beginning at 6:30.

HERE IS the Hart school lunch menu, for next week: Monday - White beans, Vienna chunks and sauerkraut, onion slice, cornbread, cherry cobbler, milk and butter.

WATCH NEXT WEEK FOR "OBJECTS WHICH HAVE SERVED AS MONEY"

Business is picking up! What are your banking needs? Whatever they are, we at FARMER'S STATE BANK in Hart will be happy to serve you.
