UNCLE HUIE from HOG CREEK says

DEAR MISTER EDITOR,

The preacher come by our session Saturday, said things has been really jumping at his church this week. Seems one of the wimmen caught a couple of young'uns from his congregation dancing this new-fangled Twist and the good Parson allowed as how the lid has blowed off.

He told the fellers a delegation come to him Friday morning and asked him to preach a sermon Sunday morning again the Twist. He said he turned 'em down, told 'em he thought this new fad was already gitting enough advertising without him giving it some more. The Parson said he had took note that ever time a minister preached agin a certain movie, the feller that runs the picture show has to put in extra seats and sell standing room. He pointed out to the delegation, he said, that one of the fine things about his church was the fact that about half the congregation was always backsliding and then gitting back as good as new. He promised 'em he would talk to them two young'uns that was backsliding with the Twist.

He said he'd been watching this new dance step on television and, sin or no sin, it was giving the young'uns more exercise in 10 minutes than they'd git plowing all day. He allowed as how he wouldn't be surprised if it wasn't a trick by the New Frontier to git youth enrolled in President Kennedy's physical fitness program. According to the Parson, the New Frontier is going to have more trouble breaking this trail than Dan'l Boone did his.

My neighbor reported he had saw a piece in the papers where some of the big city schools was putting elevators in buildings more'n one story high on account of the kids saying they wasn't climbing no more stairs. The Parson said this fit in exact with his theory that the Twist was put off on the kids as a dance so's they'd git some exercise.

Another feller said he figgered the U. S. Department of Health might come up a little later with another trick, like the "Jumping Down The Road Dance." He said if they called it the "Walking To School Dance" the young'uns wouldn't touch it with a 10-foot pole. But the Parson allowed as how, no matter what they called it, his congregation would probable be agin it, and if enough parents was agin it, the young'uns would do it. It was a great pity, he allowed, that the delegation couldn't cooperate with the New Frontier no better.

In a nutshell, said the Parson, them was his views on the Twist. He said he had to leave a little early on account of him having a appointment with his doctor, reported he was having a little trouble with his back lately.

Yours truly,
Uncle Huie
