GRAND PRIZE PIGLET—Three-year-old Dennis Underwood and his one-week-old Berkshire, Webster, turn on the charm as judges approaching during the annual Harvest Days pet show Friday afternoon. Underwood's bright smile and baby Berk captured the judges' hearts and Webster earned first-place honors among pigs and also received a grand prize award.

Free trade pact worries ag leaders

Agricultural leaders are tired of being "kept in the dark" about the provisions of a proposed trade agreement between the United States, Canada and Mexico, and they worry that the plan could be detrimental to all of agriculture.

The North American Free Trade Agreement was announced recently and it is designed to create the world's largest and richest trading bloc.

But Carl King of Dimmitt, president of the Texas Corn Growers Association, said "it doesn't sound good at all."

In a recent letter to Sens. Lloyd Bentsen and Phil Gramm and to Congressmen Bill Sarpalius, Charles Stenholm, Larry Combest and Kika de la Garza, King said "no one has told us anything and we are in the dark. . . . We need to know just what is in store for agriculture."

"We feel that the big corporations are going to go to Mexico and get cheap labor and send products into the US at a much cheaper rate which is going to hurt agriculture and the US as a whole. This would probably employ more Mexican workers, but it could also cause a lot of unemployment in America," King said.

Con. Sarpalius (D-Texas) told Dimmitt residents during a breakfast meeting Monday that he "hasn't even seen it (North American Free Trade Agreement) yet." He added that what he has heard about the pact has him "leaning very strongly against it."

"I think down the road it could impact agriculture, especially sugar and crops like that that are produced. The concept of it sounds good, but we should be looking out for the American people, not just the people in Canada and Mexico.

We're hurting, too, in this county," Sarpalius said.

Main provisions

According to information compiled and released by the Associated Press, some of the provisions of the North American Free Trade Agreement include:

◆ The North American Free Trade Agreement that would link the US, Mexico and Canada would bring together 360 million consumers in a $6 trillion market, forming the world's richest and largest trading bloc.

◆ Negotiators began their talks 14 months ago, covering some 20,000 regulations included in the government.

◆ The agreement must be ratified by the three nations' legislative bodies before it can take effect. Congress was not expected to begin consideration of the pact before next spring.

◆ Most tariffs, duties and other trade barriers would be eliminated over five to 10 years, with tariffs on the most sensitive goods remaining in place for up to 15 years.

◆ On the day the treaty takes effect, tentatively predicted for Jan. 1, 1994, half of all US exports to Mexico will become duty-free.

◆ The three nations compromised on automobiles, one of the most controversial topics in the talks. Cars and trucks would have to have 62.5% North American content and labor to qualify for duty-free status. That's lower than the 70% sought by US automakers, but far above the 50% wanted by Mexico and Canada.

◆ The agreement would grant total market access in agriculture, except for Canada's protection for poultry, dairy and sugar industries.

◆ Mexico has agreed to open up parts of its petroleum industry to foreign investment.

◆ The pact would eliminate quotas on textiles and apparel and create free trade in services.

Corn & sugar

King said he worries about what the agreement will do to local markets for corn and sugar beets.

"These negotiations could ruin the sugar market. And we are shipping some corn into Mexico now. One of our major concerns is the length of the phase-in period for corn, which could take many years," King said.

"We cannot support any agreement that would hinder our ability to export corn into Mexico. Nor can we support any agreement that allows foreign countries to use Mexico as a back door to our markets. We know that if this thing takes place Cuba could send sugar to Mexico, then Mexico could send it into the US."

Harold Bob Bennett of Hart, Texas Corn Growers Association executive assistant, said the agreement will be devastating to farmers.

"We're very, very concerned about the corn and sugar markets. We could get beat up in both of them (if agreement is approved)," Bennett said. "This is just a way for other countries to funnel goods into American markets."

"The things we've been pushing for are strong rules of origin. That means foreign countries can't use the agreement to dump their products into our country."

"And American producers will be operating under higher environmental standards than other countries. We're at a big disadvantage there," Bennett said.

Sarpalius said how the agreement will affect labor will have a big impact on whether it is approved by congress. He told about a recent visit he made to Bowie, where Hagar had closed down its plant in that town, putting 250 people out of work. Hagar then turned around and opened a plant in Mexico, "where they could pay people 37 cents an hour making Hagar slacks."

"To me, if those plants are not built to meet the same environmental standards as our plants do, it is not fair — we should be talking about fair trade and not free trade," Sarpalius said.

According to the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association, Mexico's access to US sugar markets will be tripled. After six years, the agreement allows Mexico to significantly greater access to US markets, which would reduce, or partially eliminate import quotas for 39 other foreign countries with US import quota agreements.

The program is described by officials of the American Sugarbeet Growers Association and others in the sugar industry as a "one-sided give-away" in which "our farmers and factory workers get nothing."

Bill Cleavinger, president of the Texas Sugar Beet Growers, said "the agreement will encourage Mexico to import more sugar from Cuba, as well as other dumped sugar. Then Mexico likely will ship their sugar to the US, cutting into markets for American producers."

Texas growers and others are urged to write letters to President George Bush, and to their congressmen and senators, expressing their discontent with current proposals of the pact, according to the American Sugarbeet Growers Association.

Sarpalius urges cuts in foreign spending

By CINDY ALBRACHT

Congressman Bill Sarpalius vowed Tuesday to work toward cutting foreign spending and government regulations and protecting American jobs and agriculture.

The Democratic Congressman stopped in Dimmitt to meet with supporters and make a bid for his re-election in November.

Sarpalius, who will face former Republican Congressman Beau Boulter, said that re-election would put him two slots away from an agriculture subcommittee chairmanship.

"On the ag committee, I now have seven members in front of me that are not coming back," Sarpalius said. "A position like that in your third term is very unusual."

Sarpalius charged that Boulter, during his last year in Congress, missed 85% of his votes.

"He worked 17 days and drew 100% of his pay," Sarpalius said.

"While I'm campaigning for re-election, I have a 99.5% voting record. I have about a 97% voting

I've been trying to catch the Republican Convention. Honest.

But Monday night, either lightning or a small twister, or both, knocked out the cable reception in Dimmitt, so I missed Ronald Reagan's and Pat Buchanan's speeches.

(Democratic National Committeeman Harold Bob Bennett of Hart is taking credit for the TV knock-out. Says he arranged it through the Eastern liberal media.)

And Tuesday night I got called out on business and missed Phil Gramm's keynote. By the time I got home, Newt Gingrich was coming up to the podium. I don't apologize to anybody for not wanting to hear that guy.

I've kept up with CNN's gavel-to-gavel coverage when I could, and have caught the networks' and talk shows' wrap-ups.

And about all I've heard so far is Democrat-bashing.

Do the Republicans have a real cause of their own this go-round, other than trying to trash the opposition?

Aren't they at least going to try to explain the trickle-down theory to us one more time?

Or specify exactly how they would like to restrict the free press, or regulate women's individual moral choices?

The buck will stop tonight when President Bush makes his acceptance speech. I hope you, and a majority of Americans, will tune in. He deserves an audience. And we deserve some positive insight and some answers.

Hospital hires remodeling firm

The hospital board hired ADC of Lubbock last Wednesday night to carry out the interior renovation of Plains Memorial Hospital.

The small design/build firm was hired on an hourly rate basis to first come up with a cost estimate on the entire project, "and then we'll go from there," Administrator Joe Stevens said.

Nineteen patient rooms, the front lobby and the obstetrical wing hallway all must be renovated as the result of a Medicare inspection in July, to bring Plains Memorial into full compliance with current requirements of the American Disabilities Act, Medicare regulations and other governmental provisions.

The patient rooms will be totally renovated, Stevens said, including wall coverings, lighting, furniture and flooring. In the lobby, new public restrooms that will accommodate the handicapped must be added.

The room renovations will be paid from "disproportionate share" funds allocated to the hospital by Medicare to offset costs of serving heavier-than-average load of indigent patients.

The board also asked ADC to estimate the cost of building a parking garage for a new ambulance that's on order.

ADC was one of five firms from Amarillo, Hereford and Lubbock that sought the renovation bid through presentations to the hospital board last Wednesday night.

ADC spokesman Mark Anderson told the board that his firm's initial name stands for Architectural Design and Contracting.

"Since we also contract, we will know going in what the project will cost," Anderson said. "When we do the design and contracting, the costs will be lower for both the design and contracting sides."

He said a "turnkey" job "would save you almost the total (architect's) fee right there," and that his firm would use local subcontractors as much as possible, which would help on future touch-up and repair.

"We can give you a firm cost estimate, and we have the ability to design to a budget that you establish," he said.

The hospital board also adopted a public relations manual that specifies hospital spokespersons and the patient information they can divulge to news media and the public.

Beet harvest is expected to start soon

The first beet diggers are expected to roll into area fields during the week of Sept. 14, according to Dennis Printz, agricultural manager at Imperial Holly in Hereford.

The 1992 crop continues to progress as growers strive to generate the highest tonnage and the highest quality they can.

The crop is still pegged at 40,000 acres and yields and quality are projected to be good, said Printz.

"As you know it's important to make sure your harvesting equipment is in top shape and ready for the campaign. We'll be announcing our initial harvest schedule soon and growers will receive further information at their regional meetings," Printz said.

Once again the Castro County Harvest Days have come and gone. The theme this year was Let's Be Kids Again! I was unable to attend every event, but I enjoyed the few things I had time for. Since we were having "Open House" at the Museum, my time was limited.

Cindy Sides Eberling, daughter of George and Carolyn Sides, conducted an informative session on "Eat to be Well and Happy." She read the "23 Pounds" and other titles including "Teach Your Kids to Eat Right;" "The American Heart Association Diet, An Eating Plan for Healthy Americans;" "Fast Food Feasting;" (food to avoid—deep fried foods, soft drinks and shakes and commercial pastries; foods to choose—broiled or baked foods, fresh salads and vegetables, low-fat milk or fruit juice and whole grain bread.) "Junk Food Junkie?—How to Kick the Habit;" and "Eating for Less Stress" (Limit caffeine and alcohol, eat Vitamin C rich-foods, eat protein and complex carbohydrates).

A Fashion Show, "Crisp Fashions for Fall," was held Friday afternoon with Wanda Murdock, Doris Lust, Jimmie Schulte and Ann Morris modeling for the Village Shop. Jackie Odom and son, Shelly Smith and girls, and Sherri Kenworthy and girls modeled for Tots and Teens.

The Early Settlers Reunion with much food and visiting was held at the Senior Citizens Center.

Many animals were displayed at the "Pet Show," but Dennis Underwood stole the show with his pet pig. Dennis is the son of Danny and Debbie Underwood.

The parade on Saturday morning was colorful with all the pretty floats, and noisy with the sirens, band and horns.

The Top of Texas Cloggers and the Square Dancers were fun to watch!

The barbecue supper catered by Dyers on Saturday evening was delicious and a good crowd attended.

I visited with some former Dimmitt residents who were at the Fair — Patricia Elliott from Tyler; Tammy and little son of Hereford, daughter of Johnny and Janet Stanford; Don Hardy, who was visiting his mother Bea Hardy and brother Sammy; Trent Armstrong and little daughter were with his parents, Sammy and Ann Armstrong; Mrs. Hamilton from Lubbock was here visiting with her daughter and family, Suzzie and James Hubble, Amy and Zane.

Beau Boulter and his wife, Rosemary, were visting with everyone at the barbecue. Beau is the Republican candidate for the US Congress.

We also visited with Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Duke (he is the new English teacher for Dimmitt High School).

Billie Gunn and Claudien Langford spent a week in Oklahoma fishing. The sun was hot and so was the fishing—ask them about it!

Esther Van Doran celebrated her birthday in the Troy Langford home on August 12. Guests were Gayle Ward, Amy Langford, Robert Langford and Shelia Murry of Dimmitt. Also attending were Dorothy Ott and Elvie Cambell of Hereford, Don and Betty Mulnix from Fletcher, Okla., and Murl and Barbara Baughman of Sterling, Okla.

Madge Robb and Don and Sandra Robb of Idalou attended the Heckart family reunion at Tucker Falls near Ardmore, Okla. There were 68 attending from Texas, Oklahoma, Arizona and Kansas. Many enjoyed a swimming pool while some sat behind the Falls and enjoyed the mist and cool weather. The older group told stories about memories of the Heckart family. Some of the younger girls composed songs and raps about the history of the Heckart family.

Out of town visitors at the Museum last week were Patti Hushes from Colorado Springs, Colo., who came with the Doss family—Charles, Keenan, Kristin and Renee; Tony Priuett of Slaton, who was with the Texas Tech University Press; Allyson Smith from Amarillo, who was with Wanda Murdock; Joy Nolan from Fulton, Mi.; Jordan Bellinghausen from Ovilla, who was visiting with her grandparents, William and Rosetta Bellinghausen; Michael Fant from Garland, who was visiting his grandparents, Bryce and Darlene Dowell; Jimmy R. Davis from Hart; Ted and Sandra Jourden from Levelland, who came with Janna and Kendra Baccus; Jo Winders Brinkerhoff from Denver, Colo.; Cleacy Winders Layman from Lubbock; Catherine Fuller McFarland from Amarillo; Dud Winders from Earth; Leon Winders from Clayton, N.M.; Jerome Brockman from Nazareth; and Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Duke (the new English teacher). Other out of town visitors were Norris and Ruby Fuller (Ferguson) from Placenta, Calif., who came with Teeny Bowden; Omie Mick from Lazbuddie, who came with Grace Anderson; and Shirley Heaten from Amarillo, who came with Lon and Mary Woodburn. We had 40 register during "Open House" at the Museum.

Neva Hickey was hostess for the Thursday Bridge Club that met at the Senior Citizens Center for lunch and a day of bridge. Ferne Dickey won high score and Helen Braafladt won second high score. Others playing were Dugan Butler, Cleo Forson, Dude McLauren, Alma Kenmore, Johnnie Vannoy, Ina Rae Cates, Elizabeth Huckabay, Susie Reeves, Emily Clingsmith, Louise Mears, Virginia Crider and Bernice Hill.

Rachael's Fine Fabrics of Lubbock will present their annual Fall Fashion Show today (Thursday) at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. at the Lubbock Plaza Hotel. There will be door prizes and tickets are $5. The proceeds will benefit St. Mary's Parkinson Disease Research Center in Lubbock in honor of Martha Jo Hyman of Dimmitt.

I received a letter from the Richard Youngs in Spokane, Washington, so I will share some of the highlights in next weeks column.

The Methodists had their final farewell to the O'Kelly's Sunday night with the Family Fish Fry. A big crowd came out to send the O'Kellys away with love offerings included. The O'Kellys departed Tuesday and the Johnny Robertsons will arrive.

Mitzie Brockman, Margaret Parsons, Kay Kellar and Deanne Clark trekked off to Ruidoso for a tennis trip last week. They played marathon tennis thanks to Mitzie (who followed the trip by another trip to Midland to play in "B" singles) and enjoyed a country, family - clean musical program at Miner's Castle in Ruidoso. They recommend the variety show to anyone going to Ruidoso.

Maymie Birdwell greeted a full house of friends and family Sunday in celebration of her 89th birthday. Tommy and Darlene Stanton opened their home and family members served punch and cake to the guests. Maymie even made it out to the O'Kellys farewell that night.

Jack Flynt attended a family wedding in Colorado this past weekend. Doris Lindsey visited the Doug Lapins, formerly of Dimmitt, and her cousins in Colorado last week. Susan and Garland Coleman celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary in Dallas over the weekend. Janet Hand met her aunt, Vickie Armstrong, from El Paso in Ruidoso for a day of visiting and the horse races last week. Gary Wise drove Shirley and Frank Wise to Abilene to a Wise family reunion last week.

Butch and Bessie Strickland have returned from her family reunion at her brother's home on Lake Bridgeport. There was a lot of fun, swimming, boating, skiing, reminiscing and eating. On Saturday night they had a big fish fry for everyone.

Saturday morning, the brothers, sisters and in-laws all went out on the pontoon boat for a tour and breakfast on the lake.

Those attending were Butch, Bessie, Lonnie and Jeremy Strickland, Jackie, Beth, Justin and Josh Roberts all of Dimmitt; Joe and Betty Thornton of Bridgeport; Buddy and Krista Thornton and Justin of Fort Worth; Dennis, Kathy, Patrick, David and Holly Sherrill of Springtown; Bobby, Kathy, Adam and Sara Thornton of Boyd; Adron Bobo, Charles, Debbie and Katie McDougall of Springtown; Imogene and Judy Smith of Lubbock; Elmer and Jeraldeen Simmons of Abernathy; Dean, Kay and Jason Crowell of Pasadena; Pat Sayles of Houston; Dave, Cindy, Terrence, Chelsea and Chase Schuckard of Lubbock; Lee Ann Williams of Springtown; Mike Davis of Houston; Dot Norman of Rhome; Steve and Diana and Ashley Smith of Lubbock; Shandra Strickland and Jason Funderbark of Amarillo; Connie Thornton and Chuck Burns of Aledo; and Jennifer Smith and friend of Wichita Falls.

"EAT TO BE WELL AND HAPPY" was the topic of a program given Friday by Cinde Sides Ebeling (left). During the hour-long program, Ebeling talked about and compared nutritional value of several different foods. A large crowd enjoyed the demonstration, which was held on the stage in the Expo Building. The program was held in conjunction with the Harvest Days celebration.

Several community residents attended the Harvest Days activities in Dimmitt Friday and Saturday.

Jo Eddy Riley won a purple ribbon for the best photo in the photography division. She won five first-place blue ribbons. All of her photos were of outdoor scenes or animals.

Mary Cluck was busy selling hand-painted and decorated sweat shirts from a booth at the arts and crafts show. She did well.

Ray Joe Riley won second place in the parade with his 1926 Model T. It was a very large parade.

Kevin and Rita Bural did real well on the awnings and trampoline. Teeny Bowden helped Rita.

Ginger Hazle's great-grandfather died in Enid, Okla., on Aug. 12, but they did not hear the news until it was too late to attend funeral services. He was her mother's father. Her mother and father were vacationing in Colorado and learned about it in time to attend the services.

Resa Carson started work at the Olton Feed Lot this week on a permanent basis.

Rev. John Hazle's mother and step-father spent the day and night Friday with him and Ginger.

Ray Joe Riley took his brother, Kim, back to Marbridge last week. Ray Joe returned home Wednesday.

Rev. Norris and his wife, Ruby Maud (Tooter), who is from the community, arrived Thursday afternoon to attend Ruby's 50-year class reunion, which was held Friday and Saturday in Dimmitt. They spent Thursday and Friday nights with Teeny Bowden, who used to live across the road from Ruby. Ruby was a graduate of the Dimmitt High School Class of 1942 and she got to see some of the class members at noon.

Kevin Riley and Jennie Furr won consolation at a tennis tournament at Springlake this weekend. Melinda Riley and Doug Campbell of Olton won the event. Randy and Joyce Bills also participated in the tournament. The Bills family recently moved to Sunnyside from Earth.

Melinda Riley is still teaching third graders at Springlake-Earth this year.

Rita Bural visited with Teeny Bowden Sunday.

David Sadler is having problems with his leg, from which they took all five by-passes.

Kevin Riley has been having bad headaches. He was hospitalized one night, but didn't have to stay. He had to close down his exhibit at the fair early because he felt another headache coming on. But he was able to return for the barbecue supper that night.

Kacli Jo Urbanczyk spent three days last week with her aunt, Jo Eddy Riley and the rest of the family.

Jo Eddy Riley also won second place with a quilt.

Duck race winners announced

Jackie Powers was the big winner at the "Great Kiwanis Duck Race," one of many events held at the annual Harvest Days celebration last weekend.

Powers was awarded $50 and a Kiwanis pheasant cap when his duck came in first in the final run.

A Kiwanis pheasant cap and a free movie rental were awarded to second place finisher, Mike Baca and third place finisher, Kodie Bagley.

Free movie rentals were awarded to winners in each heat including Britny Varner, Kelby Myrick, Logan Carpenter of Nebraska, Sandy Parsons, Chavo Lumbreira, Jimmy Davis, Kelly Boyd, Andy Benson, Ruth Cochran, Canaan Bellinghausen, Dr. James Sims, Tommy Cleavinger, Benji Camarillo, Vince Salinas and Nelle DiCuffa.

Rev. Vernon O'Kelly

After 10 years as pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt, Rev. Vernon O'Kelly is moving this week to Abilene, where he will be the district superintendent over 55 churches in the Abilene District of the UMC.

Dimmitt will miss him. He has been a compassionate minister, a tireless civic worker and a friend to many Castro Countians of all backgrounds and circumstances.

His main job, of course, has been ministering to his church family here. In doing this, he has spent countless hours assisting and consoling bereaved families, counseling young couples planning marriage, helping people with their personal problems, and visiting the sick at home and the elderly in nursing homes. He also has driven tens of thousands of miles to visit local residents in area hospitals.

During his decade here, Rev. O'Kelly delivered approximately 1,600 sermons and devotionals from his own pulpit and at Canterbury Villa, not counting the many comforting tributes he offered at funerals.

Those outside his church have known him more because of his community involvement.

In the Dimmitt Lions Club, he has headed the Eyeglass Committee, which approves needy children here for eye exams and glasses partially funded by the Lions Club. He also has been a dependable worker in the Harvest Days Parade, Pancake Supper, Beef Appreciation Day, Broom Sale and other Lions Club projects.

Through the Ministerial Alliance, he has worked with those in need and has been a "sparkplug" in the annual drive to provide toys and food for needy families at Christmastime.

He has worked closely with Alcoholics Anonymous, Al-Anon, drug education projects and AIDS education in the schools and community. He has been called upon often by local law enforcement personnel for counseling and other assistance.

He was named Texas' Rural Minister of the Year by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in 1988, and was given his community's highest award, Citizen of the Year, in 1989.

Rev. O'Kelly, we're glad you've been a part of Dimmitt!

Class of '42 holds reunion

The Dimmitt High School Class of 1942 held its 50-year reunion this weekend.

There were 38 youths who received diplomas in May 1942, and at that time, the group was the biggest class to every graduate from Dimmitt.

Nine of the class members are deceased, and 22 were able to attend the reunion, traveling from Washington, California and Ohio.

On Friday night the group enjoyed an evening of visiting in the home of Alvin and Frances Frazier. They enjoyed a "fiesta" meal followed by cake and ice cream.

Don Nelson "dug out" from his files the 50-year-old paper which had been published during the week of the class's graduation and there were several articles about the senior class. One was "Madame La Zanja," which featured a look into the future to see where the seniors would be in 20 years. This was read by Mary Jean Webb of Copeland. She also read what each senior "has been pictured as." It was noted that Southern Methodist University offered a scholarship of $72.50 for the highest-ranking boy and girl. McMurry College at Abilene offered a $260 scholarship to the top-ranking boy and girl.

Many pictures were taken and old friendships were renewed during the reunion.

On Saturday, class members gathered at the Senior Citizens Center in Dimmitt to watch the parade, visit the old high school and eat lunch.

Pohlmeier awarded TILF scholarship

Kalina Marie Pohlmeier of Nazareth will receive a one year $500 TILF Diamond Anniversary scholarship by the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation.

This year the TILF awarded 24 new TILF Diamond Anniversary grants and seven honorary grants to students who have participated in the UIL State Academic Meet Contests and who have compiled an outstanding record of academic and extracurricular achievement.

A 1992 graduate of Nazareth High School, Pohlmeier won second place in the 1992 UIL State Meet Editorial Writing contest.

She plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in mathematics.

Portwood and Black wed in candlelight ceremony

A formal, candlelight ceremony at Lee Street Baptist Church in Dimmitt on Aug. 8 united Rochelle Rene Portwood and Gaylon Brent Black in marriage.

Don Webster officiated at the double-ring nuptial service.

The bride is the daughter of Tommy and Paula Portwood of Dimmitt. She is the granddaughter of Lillian Portwood and P.L. and Pauline Hoyler, all of Dimmitt. Parents of the groom are Gaylon and Libby Black of Muleshoe. He is the grandson of Naomi and Ralph Black of Muleshoe.

The church sanctuary was decorated with one 15-branch arched brass candelabra flanked by two 15-branch spiral brass candelabras, each holding white tapers. Silk calla lilies, prunus, ginger blossoms, slipper orchids and collinia palm greenery was entwined through the candelabras. Also gracing the front of the church were palm trees, two three-branch candelabras holding votive candles and decorated with floral arrangements resembling those entwined in the other candelabras, and the unity candle. The brass pew markers were accented with a floral arrangement following the same theme. Ivory tulle bows marked the entrance to the church.

All floral arrangements were designed by the groom's mother.

Pianist Brian Stewart played the Wedding March, and accompanied soloists Terri Louder and Don Nelson, who sang Everything I Do, I Do For You and The Wedding Song, respectively.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of candlelight chiffon over taffeta. It was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a deep vee-cut back. The princess bodice was adorned with Alencon lace and was encrusted with seed pearls. The long chiffon sleeves were accented with Alencon lace and pearls and they tapered to points over her wrists. The full skirt flowed into a cathedral-length train and both were edged in Alencon lace accented with seed pearls. The train was accented with Alencon lace appliques and seed pearls.

She wore a headpiece of silk flowers accented with cascading pearls and lily of the valley. The sheer, ripple-edged veil of bridal illusion formed a soft pouf at the headpiece.

She carried a cascading bouquet of silk calla lilies, cymbidium orchids, ivory crystal spray, cascading pearls and lily of the valley accented with needlepoint ivy, tulle and ribbon streamers.

"Something old" was her wedding dress, which was a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Theriot of Pearland. "Something new" was her veil, which was made by the bride's mother and father. She "borrowed" her Grandmother Hoyler's high school senior ring and she wore a traditional "blue" garter, which held two pennies which had been minted in the years of the bride's and groom's birth.

Matron of honor was Tammy Heller of Lubbock, friend of the bride. Bridesmaids included Amber Griffith of Hereford and Candy Leteurtre of Lubbock, friends of the bride.

They wore lavender satin gowns designed with a portrait collar. The fitted bodice was accented by a self-fabric rose in the front. The tea-length gowns were created with a dropped waistline.

They carried arm bouquets of silk calla lilies, morning glories, prunus, ivory crystal spray accented with needlepoint ivy and ribbon streamers.

Best man was Monty Black of Lazbuddie, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Darrell Lewis and Daimon Hail, both of Lubbock, friends of the groom.

The groom was outfitted in a ivory tuxedo with tails, accented with an ivory bow tie and cummer-bun while the groomsmen wore black tuxedos with tails, accented with black bow ties and cummer-buns.

Flower girl was Amber Harris of Pearland, cousin of the bride. She wore a dress matching the bridesmaids' gowns. She carried a brass basket filled with scrolls, which she passed out to guests as she walked down the aisle. She wore a corsage of ivory tulle, ribbon and silk roses.

MRS. GAYLON BRENT BLACK
... nee Rochelle Portwood

Ring bearer was Brady Black of Muleshoe, cousin of the groom. He carried an ivory satin and lace pillow made by the bride's aunt, Debbie Harris of Pearland.

Brent Portwood and Bryan Portwood, both of Dimmitt, twin brothers of the bride, lighted candles and seated guests.

Guests were registered by Tonya Portwood of Lamesa, cousin of the bride.

The registry table was covered with an ivory lace cloth and held the bride's wedding book, an ivory plume pen, the couple's engagement picture and an arrangement of lavender roses.

Tammy Portwood and Kim Portwood, both of Childress, cousins of the bride, handed out wedding programs and bird seed bags, respectively.

Following the wedding, the couple was honored with a reception in the church's fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with an ivory cloth with a floor-length skirt and lace overlay. Serving as a backdrop for the table was a brown lattice screen accented with drapes of ivory tulle and lavender bows.

The bride's and bridesmaids' bouquet served as the table centerpiece along with the bride's wedding picture and crystal candelabras.

It also held the bride's three-tiered ivory wedding cake decorated with lavender roses. The top piece was a "cowboy" groom with his bride, surrounded by a lasso love knot, accented with ivory lace and tulle. Pineapple sherbet punch was served from a crystal punch bowl. Also served from the bride's table were nuts and lavender rose mints. Presiding over the bride's table were Kristina and Deidrea Harris, of Pearland, cousins of the bride.

The groom's table was covered with an ivory cloth with a floor-length skirt and it held a black boot western arrangement and the groom's cake, which was shaped like a horseshoe.

Coffee, mints and nuts were served by Chanda and Keisha Kemp of Muleshoe, cousins of the groom.

After the reception, the couple left for their wedding trip to San Antonio and plan to make their new home in Lubbock.

For their traveling attire, the couple wore western shirts, jeans and boots.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Dimmitt High School. She attended West Texas State University and is presently employed as a convenience copier specialist in the Engineering Services Dept. at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

The groom is a 1987 graduate of Muleshoe High School. He is an English major at Texas Tech University and he is currently employed at KMUL Radio in Muleshoe.

The groom's parents hosted a barbecued dinner for the wedding party and guests after the wedding rehearsal Friday night.

Rankin, Justice exchange vows in formal, double-ring ceremony

Jennifer Lea Justice and Walter Snyder Rankin Jr. were united August 8 in a formal, double-ring ceremony at the First United Methodist Church in Paris.

The Rev. Bryan Fellers, youth pastor of First Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Gaither Day, pastor of First Methodist, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. J. Kenn Justice of Paris and the late Mr. Justice. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Joe Murrell of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Justice of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Rankin of Midland and is the grandson of Paul Torluemke of Austin and Walter Rankin of Coahoma.

Wedding music was presented by organist, Arvin Starrett, and vocalist, Tracey Brown.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her grandfather, Virgil Justice, and given in marriage by her mother. She wore a gown of silk shantung designed with a portrait neckline and short sleeves worn off the shoulders. The moulded, dropped bodice was entirely veiled with silk Venice lace, intricately jewelled with pearls and iridescent sequins. The long, full skirt extended to a chapel-length train. The bride's veiling of imported French illusion, sprinkled with pearls and sequins, fell from a wreath of matching lace and silk blossoms and flowed beyond her train.

Juli Justice of Paris, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Christal Aycock, Mrs. Johnny Grusing, Lacey Lavender and Lynn Sherrill, all of Lubbock, and Mrs. Brady Nichols of Abilene.

Jordan Strom was flower girl.

Walter Rankin, father of the groom was best man. Groomsmen were Hank Hudson, Hunter Langford and Kevin Witt, all of Lubbock, Chris Kenney of Fort Worth and George Matte of Midland.

MRS. WALTER SNYDER RANKIN JR.
... nee Jennifer Lea Justice

Lee Rankin of Boulder, Colo., Ted Ferguson of Georgetown, Jim Bob Hicks of Abilene, Mike Hubbard, Novert Morales and Rodney Roderick, all of Dallas and Mark Scott of Lubbock served as ushers.

A reception was held at Paris Golf and Country Club following the wedding.

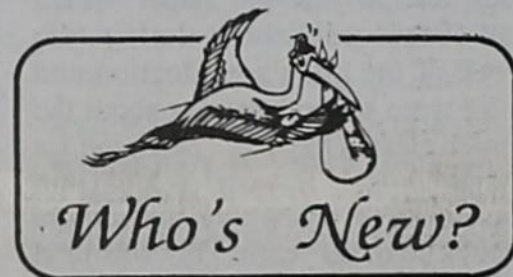

After a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple will make their home in Lubbock.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Paris High School and is an elementary education major at Texas Tech University where she is on the Dean's list, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority and is a Raider Recruiter.

The groom is a 1986 graduate of Midland Lee High School and a 1990 graduate of Texas Tech where he was a member of the Red Raider football team and Phi Delta Theta Fraternity. He is attending graduate school at Texas Tech.

The parents of the groom were hosts for a dinner at Paris Golf and Country Club following the wedding rehearsal.

Small, Andrews wed July 31 in Amarillo

Toni D'Ann Small and Stanton Alan Andrews were united July 31 in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the Wedding Chapel in Amarillo with Rick Mathis officiating the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Randall and Laura Small of Dimmitt, and the groom is the son of Stan and Vicki Andrews of Miami.

The chapel was decorated with a brass archway with emerald green and white satin roses. The altar was lighted with a 16-candle brass candelabra with white satin roses and emerald green ribbons and bows. In the middle of the candelabra was a three-candle unity candle with a white rose and emerald green floral arrangement.

Taped music was played during the ceremony. Selections included Love theme from St. Elmo's Fire (instrumental), Till I Loved You, and The Wedding March.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with a sweetheart neckline of chantilly lace, accented with seedling pearls. The long sleeves were puffed with seedling pearls and sequins to the wrist. A big satin bow accented the back at the waistline. The full satin skirt was scalloped at the hemline with Venise lace, and pearls and sequins decorated the front. The long train was accented with tiny satin bows all the way down.

The bride carried a bouquet of white satin roses highlighted with white satin ribbon streamers. She wore her mother's strand of pearls for "something borrowed," a veil given to her by her grandmother and worn by her two older sisters in their weddings for "something old," her wedding dress for "something new," and a blue garter for "something blue." For good luck, she had a penny in each shoe, one minted in the year of her birth and one in the groom's year of birth.

Maid of honor was Susan Venhaus. She wore a velvet and satin emerald green tea-length dress, with puffed sleeves and a satin bow in the back at the waistline. She carried a bouquet of tiny white roses accented with emerald green and white satin ribbon streamers.

Joel Venhaus served as best man. Jeremy Lunsford, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer, and Candice Cowan, cousin of the groom, was a flower girl.

Randy Lunsford, Joel Venhaus

MR. AND MRS. STANTON ANDREWS ... She's the former Toni D'Ann Small and Troy Navarrette seated guests. At the reception, the table was set with a white lace table cloth. A white three-tiered wedding cake, with lighted fountain and white roses, was topped with a traditional ceramic bride and groom.

The bride and groom drank champagne punch from crystal toasting glasses.

Cake was served by Mary Jane Lumbra, and punch was served by Irma Solor and Charlie Nino. The wedding trip included a limousine ride around Amarillo that took them to the Bridal Suite at the Fifth Seasons Inn East.

The couple now resides in Amarillo.

The bride is currently employed at Western National Life Insurance. The groom is employed at the Clements Unit as a correctional officer.

French teen visits mother's AFS family

When Francois Cantinaud of France left his homeland to visit the United States, his mother asked him to "take pictures of Dimmitt, the school there and the Moran family."

That's because his mother, Michelle (Bertomeau) Cantinaud, was an American Field Service Exchange student in Dimmitt during the 1963-64 school year and she lived with Myrtle Lois Moran and the late Russel Moran.

15-year-old Francois and his cousin, 15-year-old Virginie Fournier, were in Dimmitt last week visiting with Mrs. Moran and other Dimmitt residents. The two attended the Harvest Days celebration and visited the school, but they said they had the most fun while riding horses at a local farm.

Jean Graham Kemp, formerly of Dimmitt, had visited France recently with her granddaughter, six-year-old Kate Thompson. Mrs. Kemp had visited and stayed with Michelle and Claude Cantinaud and their family, and when she returned home, she brought Francois and Virginie along.

The two French teenagers have been staying in Fort Worth with Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Thompson and family, Mrs. Kemp's son-in-law and daughter.

Francois and Virginie live near Toulouse in France. She lives in the city and he lives in the country.

Francois said his mother told him a little about the time she spent in Dimmitt, and she wanted him to see where she had stayed and gone to school.

"She used to work in an art gallery in Paris," Francois said of Michelle. "She was their foreign correspondent because she was able to speak several languages. She stopped working several years ago."

Francois has two sisters, Valerie, who is 22; and Karine, who visited here last year.

Francois' impressions of Dimmitt were good, and he remarked on one difference of the town compared with his home country.

"Here, you have residences and shops in different locations. In France, house and shop are together," he said.

The language posed problems for the French teenagers, and Francois said the first week he was in the US was the most difficult because Americans "speak very quickly" and it is hard for him to follow.

Mrs. Moran said Francois reminds her a lot of his mother in some ways — actions more than looks.

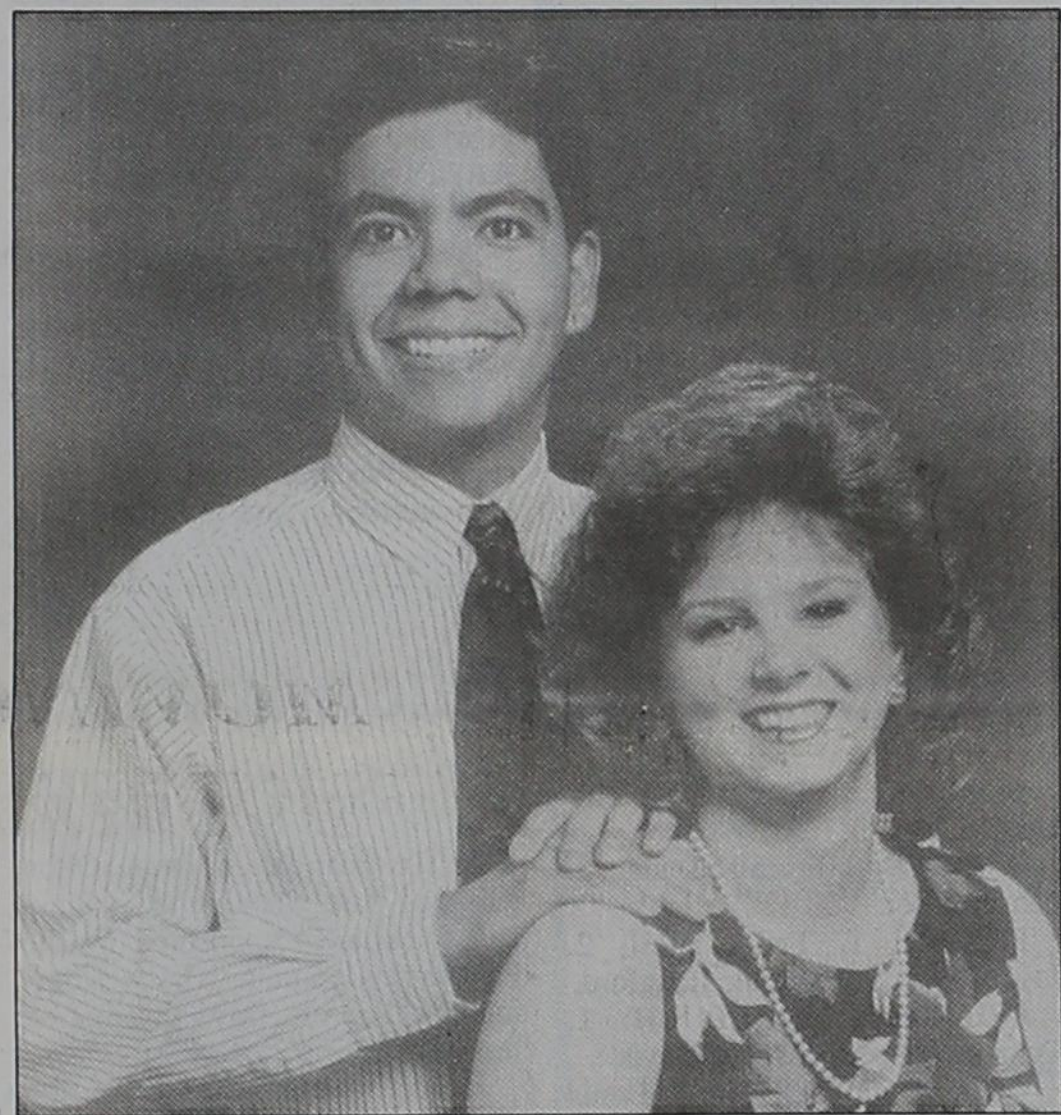

"He's interested in everything, just like she (Michelle) was. He speaks very good English for not having lived in our country," Mrs. Moran said.

Francois has thought about being an AFS student like his mother was.

And where would he want to live

if he chose to become an AFS student?

"Perhaps Dimmitt, but I don't know," he said.

Oscar Medelline and Amanda Jo Dishman

Wedding planned

Mrs. Jerry L. Dishman of McKinney announces the approaching marriage of her daughter, Amanda Jo, to Oscar Medelline, son of Lydia Fierro of Dimmitt.

The couple plan to wed September 5 at Trinity Presbyterian Church in McKinney with Bill Burton, cousin of the bride, officiating.

The bride-elect is a graduate of McKinney High School and is currently attending Southwestern Oklahoma State University School of Pharmacy. She plans to graduate in December of this year.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and received his bachelor of science degree in pharmacy from Southwestern Oklahoma State University in May of this year. He is currently employed by Eckerd Drug in Lubbock.

Teams are ready for scrimmages

County coaches hope to iron out problems and find out who's the best player at different positions this week as the first scrimmages of the 1992-93 football season will be held.

Hart will play host to New Deal in a scrimmage tonight (Thursday). On Friday, Dimmitt and Nazareth will hold opening scrimmages. The Bobcats will travel to Abernathy while the Swifts will host Claude.

Each team has a second scrimmage scheduled next week, with Dimmitt hosting Shallowater, Hart taking on Tahoka at Hale Center and Nazareth traveling to Lorenzo.

The first games of the 1992-93 season will be played on Sept. 4 with Dimmitt at Lubbock Cooper, Hart at Anton and Nazareth hosting Lubbock Christian. Each game will begin at 8 p.m.

Bobcats

The Bobcats will hold their first scrimmage at Abernathy Friday night, with the freshmen beginning at 5 p.m., followed by the junior varsity or second string at 6:30 p.m. and the varsity at 7 or 7:30 p.m.

"We want to look at all the kids this week," said Dimmitt Coach Bill Rogers. "This isn't going to be a won-loss situation. We want to be able to play and look at everyone. We'll work on basic fundamental plays, techniques and execution. We'll run a numbered series of plays in each group (freshmen, junior varsity and varsity).

The Bobcats opened two-a-day workouts on Aug. 10, and Rogers has been pleased with the team's progress so far.

"We're going to be small and young, but aggressive. So far, everything looks good," Rogers said.

Longhorns

Hart's scrimmage with New Deal tonight (Thursday) will begin at 6 p.m. at Longhorn Stadium.

Coach Alan Cherry is pleased with how his team has progressed through two-a-day workouts, but adds that it still has a long way to go.

Fourty Hart athletes reported for two-a-day workouts and Cherry said that's good for a school of Hart's size.

The Longhorns were young last year and they competed in Class AA. Two things have changed this season — they have a lot of experienced players with 17 returning lettermen including nine offensive and eight defensive starters; and they will compete in Class A.

In tonight's scrimmage, Cherry said he plans to work on "basic stuff." "We won't follow a game plan and down and distance won't have any affect on the plays we'll run. We're just trying to get better at all aspects of the game. Right now we've got three guys who are vying for the quarterback spot, and we hope to look at each of them. Also, our younger kids are going to have to come up and be ready to fill some backup positions.

Swifts

Nazareth will scrimmage Claude Friday night at Swift Stadium beginning at 6 p.m.

"We want to get our basic defense down," said Nazareth Coach Rick Price. "Offensively we want to try and establish a strong, solid running game so we can get more play action going and open up our passing game."

Price said 28 athletes reported for two-a-day workouts Aug. 10, and that the workouts went "pretty well."

"I was worried about our defense last week, but the kids looked good on Monday. Offensively we look pretty good. We picked right back up with offense, even though we changed up a lot."

The Swifts will travel to Lorenzo on Aug. 28 for their second scrimmage and that matchup has tentatively been slated for 6 p.m.

Nazareth will host Lubbock Christian High School in its season opener on Sept. 4.

What's Cooking?

Special prizes awarded during Harvest Days '92

Brian Houston of Lubbock was the winner of a $500 prize in the cow patty bingo during this year's Harvest Days celebration.

Several "special awards" and drawings were presented and/or held during the celebration and the winners follow.

Karen Reynolds, also of Lubbock, won the quilt given away by the Friendship Quilters Guild.

The Extension office awarded two cookbooks which were presented to Rachel Spencer and Bea Hardy, both of Dimmitt.

"Ball Jar" winners will receive coupons from the Ball Corporation for their top fair entries and they include Beth Teaschner, Eitel Fry, Ruby Woods, Diona Adams, Adrienne Hart, Monte Adams, Jessica Kern, Nicole Clark and Carolyn Watts.

Edith Graef's guess on the number of antique buttons in a jar was the closest to the actual amount and she received the jar and buttons as well as a steak dinner for two at K-Bob's in Dimmitt.

Danny Ramos guess for spaghetti in a jar was the winner and he received $10 cash along with coupons from Kittrell Electronics, Video Magic, Dairy Queen and Caribbean Ice.

The winning guess for the number of pieces of bubble gum in a jar was provided by Laura Bradford, who won the jar and its contents along with coupons from the above-mentioned businesses.

Lust's quilt is 'Best of Show'

Doris Lust's "combination technique" quilt was judged best in its division and "Best of Show" at this year's quilt show, which was held this weekend during Harvest Days.

Joyce Davis' quilt was named the "People's Choice" winner and Twila West's entry won the "Judge's Award."

A total of 67 quilts or quilt tops were entered in the show, and that figure is 12 higher than last year.

Here are complete results from the quilt show:

ANTIQUe: 1. Ocie Bolton, 2. Karen Alair, 3. Tara Wales.

CHILDREN: 2. Jo Eddy Riley.

COMBINATION TECHNIQUE: 1. Doris Lust, 3. Kathy Ethridge.

EMBROIDERY AND OTHER NEEDLEWORK: 1. Claudine

Langford.

HAND APPLIQUE: 1. Lucille Drerup, 3. Lint Merritt.

MACHINE APPLIQUE: 2. Annie McCurry, 3. Ruby Wood.

PAINTED: 2. Edith Huseman, 3. Pam Josselet.

PIECED: 1. Twila West, 2. Joyce Davis, 3. Claudine Langford.

PRE-PRINTED CLOTH: 1. Tommie Nisbett, 2. Joyce Davis.

QUILTS BY YOUTH: 1. Denia Durbin, 2. Taryn Hays.

QUILT TOPS: 1. Cenci Hardee, 2. Karen Alair, 3. Twila West.

SMALL QUILTS/WALL-HANGINGS: 1. Annie McCurry, 2. Cenci Hardee, 3. Twila West.

SPECIALIZED METHOD: 3. Doris Lust.

TIED: 2. Edith Huseman, 3. Janna Baccus.

Olton team wins tourney

A six-man team from Olton garnered first place at the volleyball tournament sponsored by the Panhandle Community Service during the Harvest Days celebration last weekend.

Jackets were awarded to the first place team members who were Connie Guerrero, Joe Guerrero, Louis Guerrero, Alice Longoria, Roger Gamez and Stella Orosco.

Finishing second and receiving t-shirts was the Dimmitt team of Betty Vasquez, John Vasquez, Nadine Guana, Manuel Velasquez, Joe Rivera, Mary Lou Lumbrera, Susie Flores and Simon Bellegas.

THE WARMTH OF THE EARTH

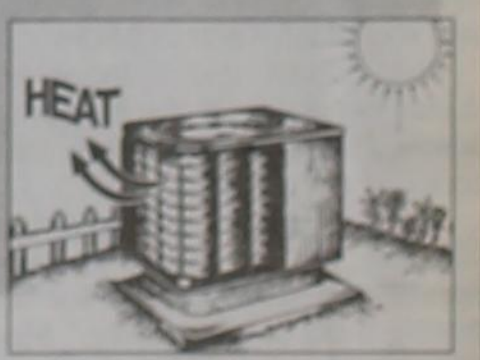

The heat pump captures it to heat and cool your home naturally.

The Dual Fuel Heat Pump uses existing heat to keep your home comfortable...naturally. Because it doesn't have to create heat, it's very efficient. For each unit of energy it uses, the Dual Fuel Heat Pump creates two or three units of heat.

Dual Fuel Heat Pump owners say it costs them less to operate than other systems. And, because it's electric, the Dual Fuel Heat Pump is cleaner.

There is heat in the air on the coldest days. The heat pump captures it to warm your home.

In summer, it becomes a high efficiency air conditioner. During hot weather, the heat pump captures the heat inside the home and takes it outside.

DHS Class of '82 reunites Saturday

Fifty of the 92 members of Dimmitt High School's Class of 1982 gathered here for their 10th-year reunion Saturday.

Class members rode on a float in the Harvest Days Parade Saturday morning, golfed from 11 to 2 and visited at the Country Club from 2 to 4. Among those visiting was Brenda McClellan of Stratford, who was their junior high English teacher.

The DHS exes topped off the day with dinner and dancing at the Country Club. Dyer's Barbecue catered the dinner and Z93 provided the dance music.

Reunion award winners were: "Who Are You?" — Kevin Spinhirne.

"Same Ole You"—Jerri Ka Clark Hadley.

"Fertile Myrtle"—Rhonda Ross Reeve.

"Fertility Fred"—Jay Reeve.

"Handsomest Hunk" — Tim Wales.

"Hottest Babe" — Laurie Sides Hill.

"Bachelor for a Decade"—Kent Kirby.

"Old Maid"—Pam Nelson.

"A Touch of Gray" — Todd Hatla.

"Chrome Dome"—Phil King.

The Traveling Trophy went to Kyle Lytal of Neonah, Wis. Other class members attended the reunion from:

Amarillo—Estella Arce Salinas, Ross and Shayla Coker Armstrong, DeNise Dobbs Merritt, Gabriel Montiel, Hortencia Quinonez.

Austin — Wendy Bruegel Launius.

Bronte — Cindy Mixson Smothermon.

Canyon—Jerri Ka Clark Hadley.

Hereford—Jay and Rhonda Ross Reeve, Tammy Stanford Summersgill.

Hewitt—Larry Espinosa.

Houston—Julia Mann Powers.

Irving — Lori Rickenbrode, Shane Smithson.

Jefferson City, Mo. — Sonya Andrews Cranford.

Knobnoster, Mo. — Danny Wassom.

Lake Jackson—Ronnie Autry.

Locust Grove, Okla. — Ronda Pevehouse Cooksey.

Lubbock—Pam Nelson.

Meade, Kan. — Kyle Weatherford.

Miami, Fla.—Brad Murdock.

Pampa—Sheril Baldrige Hucks.

Plainview—Tony Enriquez.

Plano — Beth Benton Embry, Kevin Spinhirne.

Richardson—Kristi Sheffy.

Seminole—Margaret Hernandez Alvarado.

Seguin—Phil King.

Virginia Beach, Va. — Laurie Sides Hill.

Wichita Falls—Teresa Brown.

DIAL 9-1-1, AND HELP IS ON THE WAY!

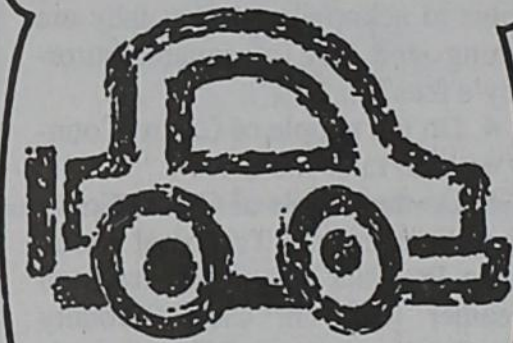

SAFETY IS ELEMENTARY!

Back-to-school time is the perfect time to give all school-age children an important lesson in safety.

PLAY IT SAFE!

Take a moment to review those safety basics with your child.

1. Make sure your child knows NEVER to accept a ride from someone he or she does not know well.

2. Show your child how to use the telephone to summon help.

3. Teach your child to recite his or her full name, street address and telephone number. For pre-schoolers, fastening this information inside a jacket is a good idea.

6. Instruct your child to inform you when he or she goes somewhere after school.

4. Tell your child where you can be reached in case of emergency.

7. Review your child's home/school route together choosing the most populated path. Avoid isolated areas, when possible.

5. Remind your child to always look both ways before crossing the street.

Your child's safety starts with you!

ASCS News

By SCOTTY M. ABBOTT
County Executive Director

The Castro County Committee has established another Conservation Program Approval period for cost-sharing the reorganizing of irrigation systems.

We have plenty of funds available and if we do not use them, they will have to be turned back. Anyone interested in reorganizing irrigation systems and would like cost-share assistance, need to make a request by Sept. 2.

Producers must not replant, plow, graze or otherwise destroy a crop that has failed without first measuring the crop, reporting the acreage to this office and filing an application for disaster credit.

Castro County has not been approved for haying or grazing of ACR or CU for Pay acres for 1992. This means that acreage reported as ACR or CU for Pay is not eligible to be hayed or grazed between June 1 and Oct. 31. Haying or grazing of these acreages will result in loss of program benefits.

It is the producer's responsibility to control weeds on ACR, CU for Pay and CRP acres. Failure to take the necessary measures to control weeds on these acreages could result in loss of program benefits.

Crop loan rates for Castro County for 1992 are $2.20 per bushel for wheat, $1.65 per bushel for barley, 91 cents per bushel for oats, $1.45 per bushel for rye, $1.97 per bushel for corn, $3.15 per hundredweight for grain sorghum and .523 cents per pound for cotton.

Due to a declining wheat market price, many producers have shown an interest in the 1992 wheat loan program.

To place your wheat in the loan you must do the following:

1. Obtain a warehouse receipt from the storing warehouse. If you request a protein premium, the warehouse receipt showing the protein content must be accompanied with an official FGIS inspection certificate or a submitted FGIS inspection certificate.
2. Proof of storage provided for nine months in advance.
3. Bring warehouse receipts and any lien waivers to this office.

Beginning with the 1992 crop year, warehouse receipts that show cotton was received by the producer may be accepted for purposes of obtaining a loan or a loan deficiency payment. Warehouse receipts that show cotton was received by the warehouse from anyone other than the producer, including bearer and blank entries, can only be accepted for purpose of obtaining a loan or loan deficiency payment if the producer provides a gin tag listing prepared by the ginner and it shows the cotton represented by the presented receipts was ginned for the producer or for the account of the producer.

Gin tag listings showing gin weights may be used in lieu of warehouse receipts when requesting a loan deficiency payment. Class cards still are required and will be stamped.

We are in the process of completing requests for measurement service for spring seeded crops.

We will complete requests where the intended use is for ensilage first. If you are ready to cut corn for ensilage and have not received your notification of measured acreages, you need to contact the ASCS office and we will process your request so you can make any necessary adjustments before harvest. You also must report these acreages prior to harvest.

We are in the process of mailing out notices of determined acreages for those farms selected for spot check for small grains. Check your notice closely to ensure that your farm has remained in compliance with the program. If you are not in compliance, you must make a written request to the County Committee for a determination before the farm can become eligible for 1992 program benefits.

Most of the employees of the local ASCS office will attend the Texas State ASCS Conference in Lubbock on Aug. 24 through 26. The office will be open, but will be staffed sparingly. Please plan your visits around these dates.

Murphy joins staff at UT

Andy Murphy of Austin, son of Dr. Bill D. Murphy of Dimmitt, has joined the University of Texas at Austin as the head recording engineer for the Performing Arts Center and Music School.

Murphy developed curriculum for and has been teaching audio-engineering courses at Austin Community College for the last four years. He will also develop a curriculum and teach audio engineering at UT, in addition to his recording duties.

Murphy attended Dimmitt Junior High and Dimmitt High School before moving to Abilene his senior year and graduating from Abilene High School in 1971. He attended Abilene Christian University, the University of Texas, Berkeley College of Music and Eastman School of Music.

As the owner of Panda Productions, an Austin-based music production company, Murphy has been serving a wide variety of clientele in national and international markets for the past 15 years.

Entries in sorghum contest due 30 days before harvest

Producers who plan to enter the 1992 Grain Sorghum and Yield Management Contest should do so now.

Entries in the contest must be postmarked at least 30 days before harvest of the contest field, according to Gary Bright of Melrose, N.M., chairman of the National Grain Sorghum Producers' contest committee.

Bright said most entries are received during August, September and October.

"Most producers like to see how the crop is progressing before they make a commitment to enter the contest," he said. "But we want to remind them of the 30-day deadline so they don't wait too long before sending in their entry forms."

Producers may enter the irrigated or non-irrigated division of the contest. Contestants must harvest, under supervision, at least five acres of the contest field. Harvest report forms must be postmarked by Dec. 1.

Winners are named at the county, state and national levels for each division. The national and state winners will be recognized at an awards banquet held during the 1993 National Grain Sorghum Producers convention, which will be held in St. Louis, Mo. Feb. 14-15.

Rules and entry forms are available from the National Grain Sorghum Producers office, P.O. Box 530, Abernathy, 79311, or by calling 1-298-2543.

Smith questions county's actions

Dear Editor:

I am looking for people that would like for Castro County to use the road and bridge fund for building roads, not put in the bank to draw interest or for buying maintainers they do not need. Also to see that the Commissioners' Court abides by the law; in many places this is not being done.

1. Dividing money up judiciously and equitably between the precincts.

2. Building roads for the people—that is, all weather roads.

On Wednesday while I was attending the budget workshop, I was told that I had $57,000 in the budget that would be left over. Since I had visited the Hart city meeting on Tuesday night about doing work on First Street, I told them I had money left in my budget and would let this be used for repairs on this street before seal coating, even though I think First Street should be reworked like the city did Avenue A. I think this should have been done by the county, as it is a through street, and especially the part outside the city limits.

I advised the auditor that I wanted to use this extra money that was budgeted. Jeff Robertson spoke up and said I would have this money left over! Since he is not the commissioner in Precinct 1, I left the workshop.

I asked Judge Simpson to have a workshop budget hearing on Precinct 1 budget for the public since I cannot satisfy the Commissioners Court.

Our county has another very serious problem. The commissioners court has not presented a redistricting plan that has been accepted by the Justice Dept. I have made two trips to Austin and the Texas Attorney General's office has drawn two plans that I believe would be accepted by the US Justice Dept. But they are not being considered by the commissioners' court.

The US Justice Dept. tells Castro County in a letter addressed to Bob Bass, our redistricting lawyer, that the election of March 10, 1992, is not legally enforceable. I put on the agenda for Aug. 10, 1992, that this election be declared null and void. I want the people to get involved in stopping this waste of taxpayers' money.

TRLA requested in 1991 that Castro County have two minority precincts. I think that if this had been done, we would not have two lawsuits against us that we are in now and our March 10, 1992 election would be legal. I plan to have on the agenda that we accept two minority precincts of 70% minorities and declare the March 10 election null and void on the election of county commissioners to get the lawsuit stopped.

1. Do the people of Castro County want the commissioners' court to abide by the law of our state and national government?

2. Do the people of Castro County want the commissioners' court to sue the US Justice Dept?

3. Do the people of Castro County want to defend the two lawsuits against us and increase the attorney's fees on these two suits? Or do they want the commissioners' court to acknowledge that they are wrong and pay reasonable attorney's fees?

4. Do the people of Castro County want to raise the taxes?

5. Do the people of Castro County want to use the Technical Assistance Program so we can have all weather roads in Castro County like they do in most of Texas.

Call Harold Smith at 938-2225 with your answers.

Insects of Interest

by KERRY SIDERS
CEA-Pest Management
Current Crop Conditions

A good soaking 2-inch rain is needed. A few acres of corn ensilage has been chopped and is going at around 20 ton. Corn pests continue to vary from field to field. Some corn is out of the woods as it has reached 100% dent and greater than 50% down line. Cotton aphids and cotton bollworm activity is increasing. Sorghum midge continues to be light and greenbug colonies are increasing.

Bollworms—Treat or Not?

Economic infestations of bollworms have not yet been found in the scouting program fields; however, moth activity is increasing as is egg laying. Many who have surviving cotton have asked "can we justify spending money on it?"

How is the bollworm threshold determined? A single bollworm will destroy 1-2 bolls. This year instead of 8,000 - 10,000 small worms per acre, I would recommend a more conservative threshold of 12,000 small worms per acre. The percent bollworm achieved by the insecticide application is also important. As an example, with 80% control, an insecticide application against 12,000 bollworms per acre could save (12,000 times 80% Bollworm control times 1.5 bolls eaten/worm) equals 14,400 bolls.

If we assume 400 bolls equal one pound of lint and if cotton is worth $.45 lb, then 14,400 bolls per acre divided by 400 equals 36 pounds of lint saved or $16.20. If an insecticide cost $10/ac the net return would be $6.20 per acre. This is the logic behind the bollworm threshold. There are many unknowns and assumptions in this calculation. Use your own numbers to see when it pays to spray for bollworms. Remember, crop protection chemicals do not increase yields they limit loss. Following thresholds and treating when necessary can make the difference of paying the stripping cost or not.

To calculate bollworms per acre first figure plant population. Count the number of plants in 13'1" row feet for 40" rows and 17'5" row feet for 30" rows from random locations for a good average, then multiply by 1,000. Examine 24 to 36 plants across the field for eggs and larvae, and tally these up. Then using a formula, estimate the number per acre.

The formula is: the number of eggs or worms per acre equals the number of eggs or worms counted divided by the number of plants times the number of plants per acre.

Cotton Aphids

The same questions being asked about bollworms apply to cotton aphids. The threshold for cotton aphids this season is on average 50 aphids/leaf. Now if you have to treat for bollworms and you have aphids present it makes sense to include an aphicide.

The highest average I have seen so far this year in scouting program fields is 35 aphids/leaf. Winged adults are common, indicating that migration is occurring. Dr. Jim Lesser provided controlled test results that indicated that Bidrin, Bidrin combinations or Lannate provided greater than 90 percent control at the five-day post treatment evaluation.

Soybean Situation

Southern corn rootworm beetles have been seen regularly throughout soybean fields; however, their foliage feeding rarely becomes serious enough to warrant treatment.

Soybeans have a good pod set. No podworms (corn earworms) have been noted in any of the scouting program fields and there are no reports of any problems as of yet. Monitor beans for worms feeding on pods by shaking plants in three row feet and counting pest which are dislodged. With soybeans at approximately $4.70/bu, treatment cost at around $8-10/acre and one bu yield reduction to 1.5 larvae/row foot than treatment break even would be when an average of 2.5 to 3 worms/row foot are present.

Corn Situation

The start of corn harvest is about two to three weeks ahead. Mites continue to plague some fields. Southwestern corn borer (SWCB) activity continues to be moderate in later planted corn. The SWCB pheromone trap counts this week indicate that the peak moth flight occurred around August 10 and activity is decreasing. Continue to scout later planted corn for problems which could occur over the next couple of weeks.

Final Corn Irrigation

Discontinuing irrigation before the grain maturity line has progressed sufficiently down can significantly limit corn yield. Adequate moisture is essential to maintain potential grain weight until kernels mature. The grain maturity line and soil moisture blocks can aid in making an accurate decision. Generally, irrigation can be discontinued when a field reaches 50% down line and has full profile of water.

Sorghum Pests

Sorghum midge have been detected in low numbers. See last weeks issue on scouting and control of midge. Greenbugs are increasing at this time; however, no fields have been seen which justify treatment according to threshold.

When the plant is in the emergence stage to six inches tall, you should treat for greenbugs when visible damage (plants beginning to yellow) with greenbug on plant. When the plant is larger and in the boot stage, treatment should occur when greenbug colonies cause red spotting or yellowing of leaves and before any entire leaves are killed. When the plant is in the booting to heading stage, you should treat at the death of one functional leaf. When the sorghum is in the heading to hard-dough stage, treatment should occur when the greenbug numbers are sufficient to cause death of two normal-sized leaves.

The results from the initial Greenbug Resistance Survey are in. Nineteen samples from 10 area counties were submitted to Kansas State University. None of the sample fields had been treated with an insecticide. Seventy-nine percent of 15 of the fields contained 100% susceptible greenbugs. Three fields had greenbugs which were 55%, 75% and 100% resistant. We can anticipate poor control on approximately 15% of our fields from the first application.

As with last year those greenbugs left in the field after the first application are more than likely organophosphate insecticide resistant. Therefore, we basically get one shot at these guys.

Sorghum should also be checked for headworms, which includes both fall armyworm and corn earworm. Scout for headworms by bending over individual heads and beating them into a bucket. Headworms dislodge from the head and can easily be counted in the bucket. Insecticide treatment is usually justified in grain sorghum when headworms average two per head (panicle). A few sorghum fields have been seen with both Banks grass mites and two spotted spider mites.

Irrigation and Pesticide Safety Tour

Guerrero, Laney to be here Aug. 27

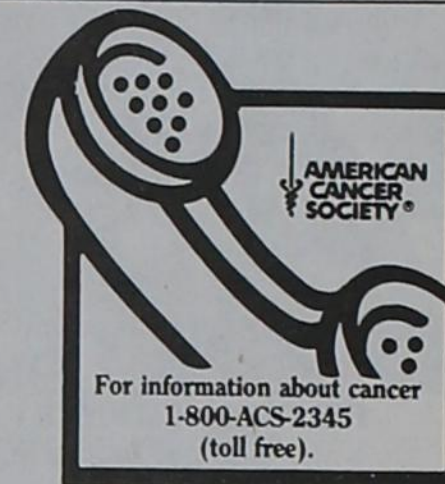

Railroad Commissioner Lena Guerrero and State Rep. Pete Laney will be in Dimmitt next Thursday, Aug. 27 for an informal meeting at the city hall.

The meeting will begin at 1:20 p.m. and everyone is invited to attend.

Guerrero was appointed to the railroad commission to fill an unexpired term, and she is seeking her "first elected term," according to Carole Dyer, county Democratic chairman. Guerrero is a former Castro County resident, having lived here for a short time during her youth.

Laney is seeking the Speaker of the House seat, Dyer said.

PCS float named 'Best of Parade'

Panhandle Community Services created a float featuring Disney characters, football players, stuffed animals, balloons, clowns and more children's favorites and their entry earned "Best of Parade" honors at the Castro County Harvest Days Parade Saturday morning in Dimmitt.

The organization also claimed first-place honors among club and organization floats, and its "Best of Show" award earned the group $75.

Second-place "Best of Show" honors went to the Castro County Fair Association, for their work on a float featuring several children's activities, toys and more. They earned $50 for their entry.

First State Bank of Dimmitt earned $25 for its third-place "Best of Show" entry, which included a jack-in-the-box, an ice cream cone, a girl jumping rope, crayons, kids and more.

This year's parade marshal was B.M. Nelson, who rode in a convertible owned by J.R. Brown.

In the clubs and organization contest, PCS captured first place while the First Assembly of God placed second with its float and Plains Memorial Hospital finished third.

A large number of bicycles were entered in this year's parade and the top entry was 10-year-old Jessica Salinas, who dressed as a clown while riding a bicycle covered with crepe-paper and flowers. Second-place among the cyclists went to three-year-old Raquel Guzman, who rode a tricycle with an umbrella. Third-place honors went to Christy Morgan, 6-1/2, and her little sister, April, 5. They dressed as clowns with colored clown hair.

Awards in the miscellaneous and unique category were presented to Wright and Sons, who finished first with their combination 1931 McCormick tractor and combine; Teddy Fangman and his daughter, who entered a tricycle which was judged second-best; and Edgar Dennis with his mule team, which was selected as the third-favorite "unique" entry.

Other parade categories were traditionals, which featured a color guard, the Dimmitt High School Band, Dimmitt Bobcat football team, Dimmitt High School cheerleaders and dignitaries; three-wheelers and small vehicles; tractors and equipment; and others.

'Let's Be Kids Again!'

Nazareth

By Uirgie Gerber, 945-2669

Opening day ceremonies were held Monday morning on the front lawn of the Nazareth school with Future Homemakers of America President Vicky Lange emceeing the program and Jaime Hatla welcoming our teachers.

Father Neal Dee gave the opening prayer, stressing help for the young students who will be introduced to new skills and to the older students in developing skills.

Melinda Birkenfeld introduced our foreign exchange student, Christelle Pary of Kain, Belgium, who will be living with the Alvin Kleman family this year.

Supt. N. Dean Johnson extended a personal back-to-school welcome to everyone. He is very proud of the renovations made to the exterior and interior of our school during the summer, and he asked each student to take special care and pride in it. He then introduced Glen Waldo Jr., our elementary school principal; and our new high school principal, Don Wood.

Mr. Waldo introduced the teachers and their respective classes. Special recognition was given to the very excited kindergarten class and new students attending for the first time.

Kim Dobmeier and Lynette Kleman, representing the Future Farmers of America, raised the school flag while the National Anthem was sung. The second-grade students led the Pledge of Allegiance.

High School Principal Don Wood spoke to the students asking them to concentrate on the word "CARE," meaning Commitment, Attitude, Respect and Enthusiasm."

Our high school teachers are Rita Sue Huckert, David Bownds, Brenda Schulte, Roger Myers, Omega Leavitt, Ritchie Tarbet, Rick Price, Mark Makeever, Cynthia Tarbet, Buster Brown, Kathy Slayton, June Parker and Joel Waldo.

Elementary teachers are Pennie Rich, Sandra Nelson, Jo Beth Mays, Sheryl Dameron, Stacy Gerber, Tammy Robb, Judith Hauf, Jamie Gardner, Connie Irlbeck and Beverly Schulte.

Our support staff includes Denise Gerber, nurse; Imogene Harris, speech therapist; Molly Cone, counsellor; and Ann Corn, librarian.

The auxiliary personnel include Barbara Schulte, Patsy Huseman, Judy Acker, May Hochstein, Trudy Myers, Norita Hoelting, Dolores Heiman, Mary Ehly, Billie Schacher, Luis and Elivira Pena, Ray Rodriguez, Karen Schulte, Raelene Hoelting, Susie Jones and Millie Birkenfeld.

The Knights of Columbus sponsored a community breakfast Sunday morning with proceeds going to the new Catholic Student Center at West Texas State University. A good crowd enjoyed the meal.

The Labor Day parish picnic will be held on Sunday, Sept. 6, beginning with a mass which will be offered in Holy Family Church at 7 a.m. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. and a hay ride will follow until 1 p.m. The barbecued beef dinner will be served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Bingo will be played until 4 p.m. and the auction will begin at 2 p.m. Hamburgers will be served from 4 to 7 p.m. and the firemen's benefit begins at 4 p.m. The Nazareth Rough Riders will sponsor a dance that evening at 9.

Congratulations to Alvin and Matilda Anderle on their 45th wedding anniversary. They celebrated with a family dinner at their home with Chuck and Monica Musick and family, Greg and Dr. Margaret Anderly and children, all of Amarillo; and Andrew and Phillie Garza and children and Steven Anderle, all of Nazareth, attending.

Andrea Leigh Ann, infant daughter of Jerry and Tricia Rose of Amarillo, was baptized Sunday morning during mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Amarillo with Father Bill Brashears officiating. Jimmy and Bobbie Schmucker are godparents. Attending the baptism were Andrea's brother, Eric Rose; her grandparents, Ed and Ruth Rose of Amarillo and Virgie Gerber of Nazareth; Tiffany and Jaime Schmucker; Sandee, Jake and Whitney Hoelting; Charley and Bev Hill; Donna and Bryan Charanza; Keith Gerber; and Kevin and Melinda Gerber of Plainview.

Congratulations to Joel and Mary Beth Gerber on the birth of a daughter, Alexandria Ann, on Aug. 13 at Swisher Memorial Hospital in Tulia. She has one brother, Nickolaus, and three sisters, Stephanie, Lindsey and Erica. Grandparents are Leonard and Alvina Gerber and Edd and Leola Ramaekers, all of Nazareth.

Donna and Bryan Charanza of Amarillo have moved to Nazareth to make their home. Bryan is a sophomore in Nazareth High School. Donna will continue her work at the VA Hospital in Amarillo.

Congratulations to Paul and Joan Durbin who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at the home of Paul and Edith Huseman. Also attending in the afternoon were Cecil and Norita Hoelting, Vincent and Toby Gerber, Leo and Marion Durbin, and Martha Jo Hyman of Dimmitt. Joan and Paul's children presented them with a family history quilt. Everyone enjoyed playing volleyball, watching home videos and eating homemade ice cream.

Gilbert Schulte's family celebrated his 60th birthday this weekend at their home at Lake Colorado City. They enjoyed boating, fishing, skiing and swimming. Those attending were Dwayne and Jolene Schulte and family, Dan and Karen Gerber and family, Doyle and Rosie Kleman and family and Joe and Elaine Barnes and family.

The Nazareth High School Class of 1992 will be entering several different colleges this fall. Mac Annen, Garrett Dobmeier and T.J. Garza; Lynn Nelson and Travis Schulte will attend Texas Tech University; Kalina Pohlmeier will go to Texas A&M University; Lisa Ball is working for Blunck's Studio and will enter West Texas State University in January; Bridget Birkenfeld will go to Amarillo College; Christy Birkenfeld will go to South Plains College in Levelland; Wayne Birkenfeld is attending Lincoln Technical Institute in Dallas; Tracey Davis is employed at Owens Motor Machine in Tulia; Tracy Drerup will attend Blinn College at College Station; Hugh Durbin is working with his father; Jeffrey Hacker will attend the Phoenix Institute of Technology; Peggy Huseman will go to Western Texas Junior College in Snyder; Jodi Johnson will attend Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, N.M.; Trey Johnson will attend West Texas State University; Ricky Leavitt is working for C&R Cattle Co.; Jason Wethingington is working for his father and Marion Lorber has returned to her home in Germany.

When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his youngest son had done to him, he said, "Cursed be Canaan; a slave of slaves shall he be to his brothers." He also said, "Blessed by the Lord my God be Shem; and let Canaan be his slave. God enlarge Japheth, and let him dwell in the tents of Shem; and let Canaan be his slave." After the flood Noah lived three hundred and fifty years. All the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

Monte Hasie:

'State spending is out of control'

Monte Hasie urged local teachers, administrators and members of the Dimmitt Rotary Club to send a message to the state legislature to decrease spending at the state level—not in education, but other areas.

Hasie, a state board of education representative from District 15, spoke in Dimmitt last Thursday during the Rotary Club's regular noon meeting.

"In the last 20 years, we've seen the total state budget increase from $7.9 billion to $62 billion," Hasie said. "Spending at the state level is out of control."

He said the public needs to be aware of what's happening in regards to school funding, and added that the legislature is "hesitant to do what needs to be done" to solve the current problems.

"School superintendents can be influential. Let them (legislators) know how we'll be affected. I don't think they understand how we in small, rural areas are being affected."

"You have no reason to be critical of local schools. The state is shoving the cost of operating schools off on local taxpayers. In the last legislative session they passed some 200 bills, but didn't give us any money to pay for them. Schools have to implement these laws without any additional government money, so they have to raise taxes," Hasie said.

Hasie said school funding at the state level was "good" in 1983 before HB 72 and added that "if we went back to the way funding was before HB 72, it would help solve problems. If you do away with the Price Differential Index, it'll be fair."

DIMMITT SUPT. BOB BARRETT (left) talks with Monte Hasie, District 15 representative to the state board of education, after a Rotary Club meeting last Thursday. Hasie was the guest speaker at the meeting, and he discussed school funding and other problems being addressed by the board.

The Price Differential Index was created after HB 72 and Hasie terms it as "Protect Dallas Interests," because it tends to "take money from the poor to give to the rich."

"They say it costs more to educate a student in large cities like Dallas, Austin, San Antonio or Houston than it does in rural areas. They want to give larger urban schools more money," Hasie said.

The legislature created the County Education District, which takes several smaller schools and puts them with one big, rich school district for tax purposes. The tax money raised then is split between the schools.

But questions still are being raised about the constitutionality of this. So the legislature is searching for another way to solve the funding crisis and one thing that has been proposed is to implement a state income tax.

But Hasie said this is not the answer, "it's a stopgap measure."

Emergency loan program to be discussed at hearing

Panhandle and South Plains farmers will have a chance to voice their opinions on the Farmers Home Administration's (FmHA) Emergency Loan Program before a congressional public hearing on Monday in Floydada.

The hearing is being arranged by Con. Bill Sarpalius (D-Amarillo) and will be held by the House Subcommittee on Conservation, Credit and Rural Development. It will begin at 2 p.m. in the district courtroom of the Floyd County Courthouse, and it is open to the public.

Those who wish to testify at the hearing should have contacted Sarpalius' Washington office at 1-202-225-3706 by Wednesday. Written testimony of any length may be submitted by Friday to the Amarillo office at 817 S. Polk, Amarillo 79101 or it may be brought to the hearing.

"The purpose of this hearing is to listen to farmers and producers of the 13th District (which includes Castro County)," Sarpalius said. "It is a chance for farmers to discuss their experiences with the Emergency Loan Program and to help congress understand the difficulties farmers are facing."

"Apparently, the federal emergency loan program is not reaching the producers that need assistance getting through weather-related disasters. So I convinced Chairman Glenn English (D-Oklahoma) to bring Washington to Floydada and learn first-hand the problems confronting our farmers," Sarpalius said.

English is chairman of the Conservation, Credit and Rural Development Subcommittee which over-record for all four years," Sarpalius said. "It has been my goal as a member of Congress to do everything I can in one small way to try to change the direction our country is going."

Comparing himself with Boulter, Sarpalius said that they have similar opinions in some areas, but are very different in others, especially agriculture.

"I've studied agriculture all my life. I hold bachelor's and master's degrees, I was an ag teacher, I was past state FFA president — agriculture has always been my love."

Sarpalius said he is "very anxious to debate him on agricultural issues." Boulter is an attorney.

pointed out that the country's problems include 10 million unemployed people, 25 million on food stamps, 40 million without health care and a "tremendous debt."

"Today the average American can take his paycheck in January through April and it's gone in taxes. When my son, who is 19, reaches my age, he can take his paycheck from January through October and it will all go to taxes. But the sad thing is that every bit of it will go to pay for the interest on the national debt."

He said that he voted against giving aid to Russia, claiming that the US has focused too much on trying to help other countries overseas.

"We teach them how to become more productive, have more success and higher yields at producing their wheat and corn, when we all know that down the road they will end up being our competitors," Sarpalius said. "Today they are one of our markets, and we should do everything we can to hold onto those markets for as long as we can."

Questioned about the North American Free Trade Agreement, Sarpalius said he will not see it until September, but is leaning strongly against it.

"The issue to me is not free trade, it should be fair trade."

Sarpalius said that the farm banks, as well as the oil and gas industries are hurting because of too many restrictions.

"Government has gotten too far involved in regulations and telling you what to do and what not to do," Sarpalius said. "As long as I've been in public office we've been talking about doing what we can to reduce (agency) regulations, and we have had some success. But the real answer to that is the President. Congress does not run agencies."

WARNING! WARNING!

BE ON THE LOOK OUT...

School's back in session and in the excitement of the new school year, many school-age children, especially the young ones, may forget to look both ways when crossing the street or exiting the school bus.

That leaves it up to you as a driver, to be extra careful around schoolyards, neighborhood play areas, and departing school buses.

So remember . . . when you see yellow, be sure to see red—as in red alert. Let's all slow down and give our children the chance they deserve.

Police Calls

Ronnie Calderon told police on August 11 that someone had broken the right front window out of his 1973 Chevrolet.

On August 12, a 20-year-old Dimmitt woman was arrested on charges of theft when she reportedly concealed four pairs of socks in her purse and attempted to leave Perry's. The buzzer sounded as she tried to exit, and she was held by a clerk until police arrived.

Blanca Silva told authorities that she had been assaulted in the 300 block of Southwest Third on August 12.

Pancho Sepeda, part of maintenance personnel at Richardson Elementary, told authorities on August 12 that a sprinkler on the Dimmitt High School practice field had been vandalized.

On August 12, David West told police that someone had slashed a tire and stole a hubcap off his 1980 Chevette.

John Jackson reported that someone had broken out a window on his 1975 Ford pickup on August 12.

Connie Merrit told authorities that someone had shot out a window of her home on August 14.

Frances Pigg told authorities on August 15 that someone had stolen her bicycle from her backyard.

Wade Maynard told police that two vehicles were damaged and burglarized on the lot of Autos Unlimited on August 17. An AM/FM digital cassette stereo was stolen, while an instrument console, instrument panel and a steering column/ignition switch was vandalized.

Two Dimmitt women, 20 and 17, were picked up on charges of disorderly conduct on August 12 in the 300 block of Southwest Third.

Two vehicles received light damage August 15 when Noe Castro's 1977 Silverado pickup struck a 1989 Ford pickup driven by Brian Conyers. Both vehicles were east-bound on the Roadside Park Road when Castro's pickup struck Conyers's pickup from behind. Conyers was ticketed for no proof of liability insurance, and Castro was charged with failure to control speed.

Arthur Oakley was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way at a stop sign on August 15 when his 1984 Buick Lesabre was struck by a 1984 Chevrolet van driven by Bill Sanders. Oakley was traveling north on Northwest Third, and Sanders was traveling east on Hasell Street when Oakley failed to yield the right of way and was struck in the left back quarter. Both vehicles were driven away.

An 18-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested for possession of a prohibited substance in a facility on August 15.

On August 16, a 25-year-old Dimmitt man was booked on charges of public intoxication. Another Dimmitt man, 23, was arrested at the same time for driving while intoxicated.

On August 17, a 18-year-old Hart man was booked for sexual assault.

A 19-year-old Hart man was arrested on August 17 for fraud in connection with immigration documents.

On August 17, a 23-year-old Tulia woman was booked for forgery.

was late for a campaign appearance here last week.

And I mean late.
His appearance at City Hall was set for 10 a.m.

The appointed time came and went.

County Democratic Chairman Carole Dyer headed for the phone—and got the answering machine at his Amarillo office.

The crowd spent more time munching and sipping, then started thinning out.

More phone calls, but still no Judge Overstreet.

Finally he called in, saying he'd be here shortly.

He arrived at 11:45. By then only a few of the faithful were left to hear him.

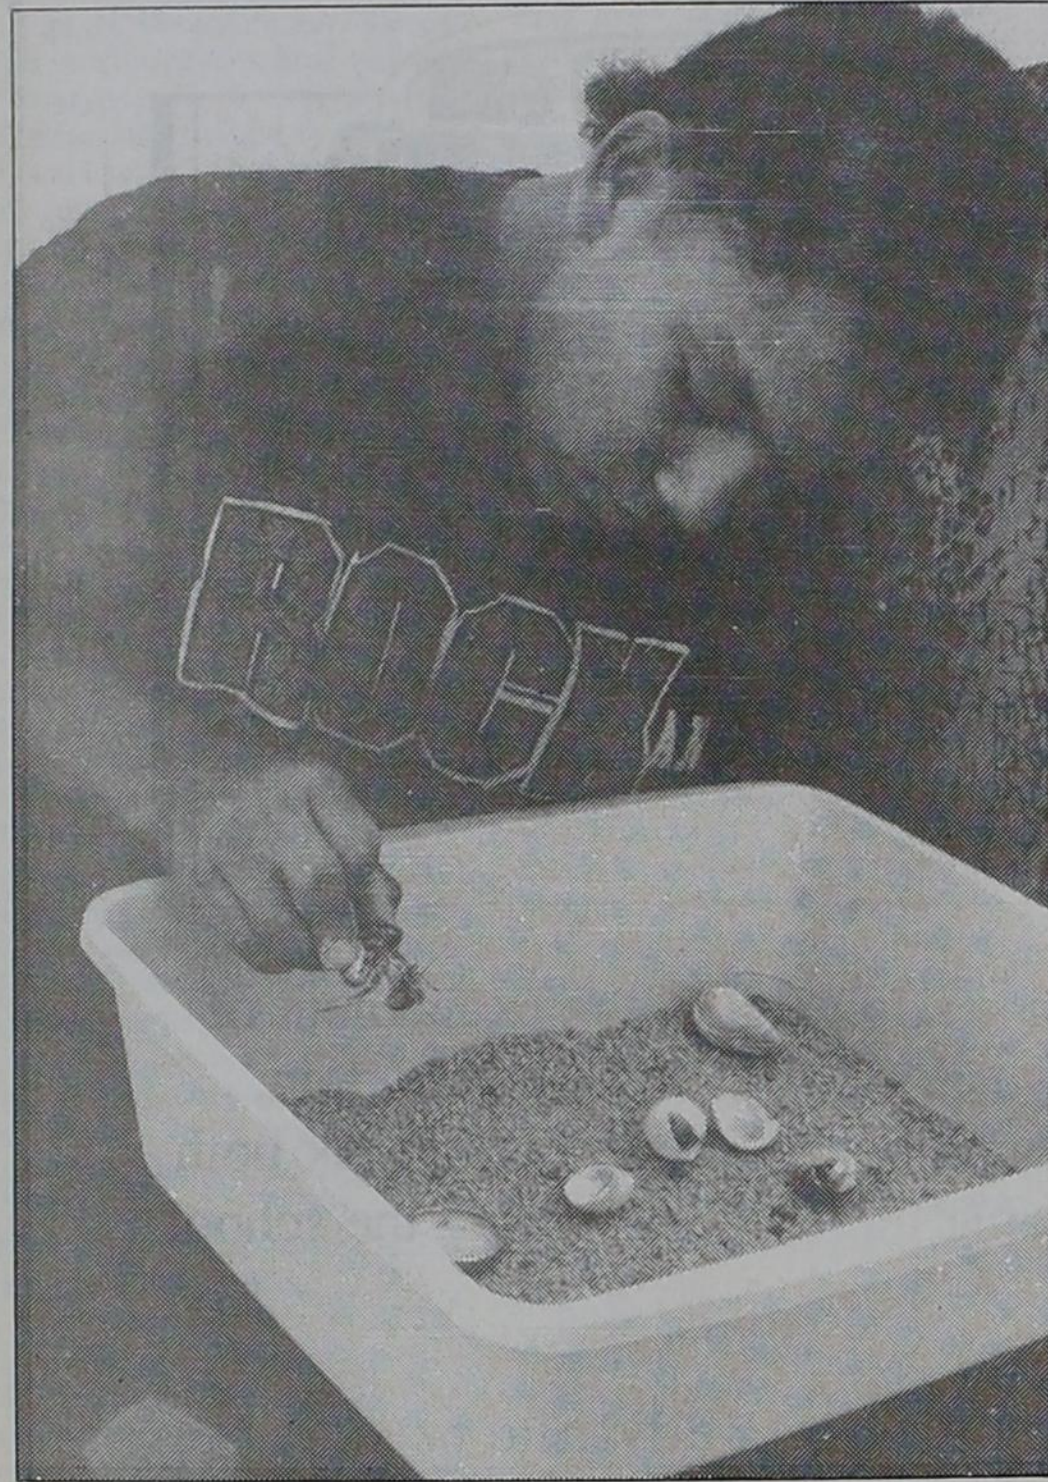

He apologized for being late, saying only that "something came up that I had to take care of," then went right into his prepared talk. It didn't come out until later why he had been detained.

He had been to California to accept a national award, and had returned to Amarillo late the previous night—only to discover that his home had been burglarized.

So he had been tied up with police, trying to list all the missing items, signing forms and waiting around until they completed their investigation.

It reminded me of the adage of Henry Ford II: "Don't complain, don't explain."

IS IT A SNAIL, OR A SEASHELL? No, it's a hermit crab, and it won grand prize honors at the Harvest Days pet show Friday afternoon. The "pet" crab is owned by Mark Lumbrera.
