Ex-students and local relatives of ex-students are asked to help in notifying Bronte exes who live away from here.

dent. The Texas president, Larry Tate of Longview, is expected to be present.

Work toward organizing the new Jaycee chapter in Bronte started early in October and officers were elected at a meeting Oct. 15. Wayne Dunnam is president; Bill Thomas, first vice president; Jim Pitts, second vice president; Don Glenn, secretary-treasurer. Martin Lee is inter-club director, and other directors are Dolan Mackey, John Boyles and Buddy Reed. Haskell Jaycees have sponsored the local chapter and members from that club plan to be here en masse for Saturday night's banquet.

Charles Brown is in charge of ticket sales for the banquet, and the public is "cordially invited to attend," he said. Anyone who wishes to purchase a ticket may obtain them from any Jaycee or by calling Brown at 473-3491.

Officers of the Jaycee Chapter pointed out that the charter banquet is a very special occasion and a rare opportunity for all residents of this area. Dunnam said, "We hope to have a large turnout from Bronte and this area along with the delegations from out of town."

Shorthorns Ready For Final Game With Robert Lee

The Bronte Shorthorns, after their 30-0 victory over Trent Monday night, are ready to take on the Robert Lee Dogies next Monday night in Robert Lee.

The Dogies have a strong team, but it was not strong enough to outdo the Shorthorns in the first game between the two teams. The Shorthorns came out on top 36-28. It is the only game which the Dogies have lost.

Everybody is invited to go to Robert Lee Monday night and witness this last game of the season for the undefeated, untied Shorthorns. Game time is 7 p.m.

GAME WITH TRENT

By Doak Snead

In the game here Monday night the Shorthorns kept up their winning ways by downing the Junior High team from Trent 30-0.

Quarterback David Glenn opened the scoring with a 19 yard end run. Doug McCutchen added the conversion on a dive. McCutchen made the next two touchdowns on runs of seven and 80 yards. Charles Masterson added the conversion. Glenn threw to Jerry Parker for a 15 yard touchdown play for the last counter of the evening, and the extra points were good by McCutchen.

A good defensive game was played by Don Hageman who was high man in the tackles department with 12. Masterson was next with three. According to Coach Cecil Tolliver, the entire team played a good game and he said he was proud of the Shorthorns.

Handiwork Exhibit and Baked Goods Contest Saturday in Robert Lee

Handiwork including arts, crafts, all sorts of needlework, gifts, and holiday decorations, will be on display Saturday in downtown Robert Lee. The exhibit will be in the Roe Building, north of the Post Office and will be open to the public from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Antiques, quilts, clothing, and various kinds of needlework will be shown, as well as historical items. Any person desiring to display articles is invited to do so. All items must be in the Roe Building by 9:45 on Saturday.

The Adult Baked Goods Contest is open to the public. Anyone desiring is urged to enter yeast breads, breads, cake, pie, and holiday goodies. The baked items must be in the building by 8 a.m. on Saturday. Ribbons will be awarded winners in each division. Mrs. Royce Fancher, homemaking teacher, Bronte High School, will be chairman of the judging.

Mrs. R. W. Smith and Mrs. Floyd Crunk are in charge of the baked goods.

4-H Club girls are participating in the exhibits by showing various crafts, gifts and clothing they have made. The Junior Baked Goods Division includes cookies, pies, cakes, yeast breads, breads. Ribbons will be award winners. Mmes. Truman Parker and Pat Rives are in charge of the 4-H division.

Mrs. Glenn Waldrop is chairman of the committee that has planned and made arrangements for the event. The exhibit is sponsored by the Coke County Home Demonstration Council. Other ladies serving on committees are Mmes. W. H. Robertson, E. L. Champion, Curtis Walker, Taylor Emerson, C. E. Arrott, O. R. McQueen, Kenneth Lackey, T. C. Berry, R. L. Page, J. C. Boatright, and Mrs. A. J. Roe Jr., HD agent.

Refreshments will be served throughout the day by HD members with Mmes. Tom Rives, Linzy McDorman and Finis Harmon in charge.

Everyone is urged to participate in the exhibit by showing articles and visiting during the day Saturday, according to Mrs. Roe.

Longhorns Play Trent Friday

The Longhorns go to Trent Friday night for another District 8-B contest. The game will begin at 8 p.m. and will have little or no significance so far as the district championship is concerned. Robert Lee has won over the Gorillas and Loraine has downed the Longhorns. These two conference leaders will meet headon Friday night in Robert Lee to decide who will be champion of District 8-B.

Theoretically, Loraine is leader of the conference as the Bulldogs have won three district games, while the Steers have played only two and won both.

Bronte is in third place with one win and one loss. The Gorillas have a no wins and two losses record. In the other game this week-

Amendment and Tax Elections Saturday

Two important elections will be held in Coke County Saturday. Local residents will join with the rest of the state in voting on four amendments to the Texas constitution and a special election here will determine whether or not an ad valorem tax will continue to be collected in this county.

Possibly the most important of the amendments proposed would eliminate the requirement of poll tax payment in order to vote. If the amendment carries it will eliminate a voting requirement which has been in effect for 61 years.

Farm Bureau Meet Held at Bronte

The quarterly supper meeting of directors of Coke County Farm Bureau was held Tuesday night in the Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church in Bronte. In addition to directors and their wives, guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jacoby, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Henry, Rev. and Mrs. Austin Masterson, Rev. Dempsey Salter and Ronnie Sims.

It was announced at the meeting that Coke County Farm Bureau membership had grown to a total of 237 which is over 60 per cent of the approximately 400 farm families in the county.

The features of the Cooley Cotton Bill, HR 6196 were discussed by Fred McCabe Jr., policy execution chairman. This bill proposes a 10 per cent higher support price on the first 15 bales of cotton produced by each grower. It was pointed out that this would materially increase the cost of the cotton program and push its total cost up to an estimated $765,000,000. This proposal goes against the philosophy of the Farm Bureau and the group is in favor of the secretary of agriculture using authority granted him in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1958 to bring about necessary adjustments to make U. S. cotton more competitive.

J. T. Henry, Bronte vocational agriculture teacher, brought a talk on the value of agricultural training for young people, and introduced Ronnie Sims as one of his top students.

It was announced that the Farm Bureau is offering a program to put hay buyers in contact with sellers, in an effort to increase the quality of hay which may be needed this winter.

Committees were appointed by President Ben A. Boykin to serve during the ensuing year. Boykin extended an invitation to all farm and ranch families in the county to join Farm Bureau, as membership gives them a voice in American agriculture.

Proposition No. 2 on the ballot would eliminate residence requirements and allow more expenditure from state funds for needy aged, blind, children and disabled persons.

The third proposal would allow retirement funds to be set up in political subdivision within Jefferson County.

Proposition No. 4 would allow the issuance of $150,000,000 additional bonds for the Veterans' Land Fund, increase the interest rate and extend the life of the program.

Ad Valorem Tax Vote

The vote on the ad valorem tax in Coke County would allow the county to continue to collect a 30 cent tax on each $100 valuation of taxable property. The present authorization to collect the tax here expires this year. It was authorized for 20 years in 1944 when a Legislative Act created the Upper Colorado River Authority and has been used to finance UCRA activities. An excess collected has been turned over to the county for farm to market roads and flood control.

The commissioners' court called the election to see if voters in the county want to continue to pay in this money for use to build and maintain roads and for flood control.

Attention of Enterprise readers is invited to a letter to the editor elsewhere in this paper which opposes the tax, and to a statement from the commissioners' court which is for it. Voters can gain some insight into the proposal by reading these two articles.

A resume explaining the four amendments is also printed in this paper on pages two and three.

Voting places on the east side of Coke County will be set up at Bronte, Olga, Juniper and Tennyson.

COKE TEACHERS MEET AT SILVER

Coke County Teachers Association met Tuesday night, Oct. 29, at 7 o'clock at the school in Silver. A meal was served in the cafeteria. Fall flowers and the Halloween motif was used in the decor of the room.

A business session followed in the school library with J. T. Henry of Bronte serving as chairman pro-tem.

Three Coke County Young people, Ida Lee Parker of Bronte, Benny Boyukin and Sandra Thomas of Robert Lee gave report of the Citizenship symposium they attended at Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville last summer. It was sponsored by the Farm Bureau.

Teachers from Bronte, Robert Lee and Silver attended the meeting. The next meeting will be in Robert Lee next March.

SCOTCH THREESOME SUNDAY

A scotch threesome will begin Sunday at 1:30 at the local golf course. Persons planning to play should leave their names at John Boyles barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parks of San Angelo visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDonald and John Doughty Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sayner of Snyder also visited recently in the McDonald home. Mrs. Sayner and Mrs. McDonald are sisters.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

Editor's Note: It is not the purpose of these analyses to indicate how anyone should vote but to present facts which will be helpful in determining whether these amendments are desirable and for the best interests of our people as a whole.

Proposition 1 on the Ballot
"FOR the amendment of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to repeal the provision making payment of the poll tax a requirement for voting and so as to authorize the Legislature to provide for the registration of all voters."

"AGAINST... (worded as above following FOR.)"

This proposed amendment, if approved by the voters, would repeal the provision of our Constitution which requires payment of a poll tax in order to vote.

A sound and fair system of registering voters in advance of an election — how such a system can be assured and maintained — is the basic issue involved.

The poll tax, when originally adopted in Texas in 1845, had nothing to do with voting. It was not made a prerequisite to voting until 1902 when this requirement was adopted as a means of securing general registration of voters.

The proposed amendment does not repeal the payment of a poll tax. Our constitution gives the Legislature authority to levy a poll tax and provides that a poll tax of $1 on every inhabitant of the state between twenty-one and sixty years shall be set apart annually for the benefit of the public free school.

As a practical matter collection of the poll tax would become difficult and doubtful. The money for schools which the poll tax now provides, about $2,000,000 per year, would probably have to be made up from some other revenue source.

This proposal should not be confused with a proposed amendment to the federal constitution which has been submitted to a vote of the states. If the federal amendment is adopted, it will prohibit requirement by the states of the payment of a poll tax or other tax in order to vote for federal offices.

The amendment provides that the Legislature may enact a registration law in anticipation of its adoption, and the Legislature passed Senate Bill 132 which will apply to all elections in Texas if the amendment is adopted. It provides for general registration of voters before February 1 of each year, with a registration fee of 2c. It would, of course, be subject to revision or repeal at a future session.

A special provision of Senate Bill 132 would apply if the federal poll tax amendment is adopted before our Texas Constitution is amended. This provides the manner in which people could vote for U. S. Senators, U. S. Representatives, the President and the Vice President, or electors for President, without payment of the poll tax.

Payment of the poll tax as a requirement for voting has become entangled in racial issues, and for that reason there are those who argue that it would be best if this amendment were adopted. They feel the requirement of a poll tax receipt in order to vote has received so much bad publicity throughout the nation, that it would be better to set up a new system of registration for voters without reference to the poll tax.

It is argued just as earnestly by others that repeal of the registration requirement, based on payment of a poll tax, would leave the subject open to the abuses that brought cries of fraud and corruption in years gone by. They emphasize that we are dealing with the very foundation of all our law, which is the Constitution, and that this amendment would take out of the Constitution any registration of voters. While the Legislature would be authorized to set up such a system, it would not be required to do so.

Opponents fear some future Legislature might weaken requirements for registration, or the method of registering, or allow registration so near to election dates as to invite the very problems the reform elements sought to end in 1902. They remind us that it took a long struggle to get a state-wide system of voter registration in Texas, and it was not achieved until it was written into the constitution in mandatory form.

Proposition 2 on the Ballot
"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for assistance payments to the (1) needy aged, (2) needy individuals who are permanently and totally disabled, (3) needy blind and (4) needy children; authorizing the Legislature to set up residence requirements for eligibility; authorizing the Legislature to make appropriations out of state funds for payment of assistance grants on behalf of such recipients; providing for acceptance of funds from the Government of the United States for the purposes of paying such assistance grants; providing that the amounts expended out of state funds on behalf of individual recipients shall not exceed the amounts that are matchable out of federal funds; and providing further, that the total amounts expended per year out of state funds for such assistance payments shall never exceed Sixty Million Dollars ($60,000,000)."

This proposal would bring together under one program four public welfare programs: old age assistance, aid to the blind, aid to dependent children and aid to individuals who are permanently and totally disabled.

The major results of the proposed amendment are (1) to eliminate any constitutional requirements of residence in the state in order to be eligible for State assistance, leaving to the Legislature the decision as to what residence requirement should be; (2) to eliminate dollar restrictions on the amount of assistance which may be given to individuals, and on the total amount which may be expended for any one program and (3) to set an overall limit of $60,000,000 per year on State funds which may be expended for all four programs.

The Constitution now provides that needy citizens of Texas, in order to qualify for old age assistance, aid to the blind or aid to disabled persons, must have resided in the state five out of the last nine years including continuous residence for the one year immediately preceding application. Needy children who are citizens of Texas must have continuously resided in the state for one year preceding application. If the child is less than one year old, its mother must have continuously resided in the State for one year preceding application.

The proposed amendment would rescind these requirements and provide that the Legislature shall prescribe the residence requirements for eligibility.

Under our Constitution the maximum amount which can be paid from State funds to needy aged persons is $25 per month and the maximum which can be paid to disabled persons is $20 a month. This amendment would strike out both these limitations but retain provisions that the maximum amount paid out of State funds to any individual recipient, and the total amount spent from State funds on any program may not exceed the amount which is matchable out of federal funds.

The proposed limit of $60,000,000 on State funds for these four programs would be an increase of $5,500,000 over the present authorization. Last year our Constitution was amended to increase State aid for the needy by $5,000,000, and to increase aid to permanently disabled persons by $1,000,000. For the biennium beginning September 1, 1963 the Legislature did not appropriate any of the additional money authorized last year, except that it increased the amount for disabled persons by $83,000 for the first year and $190,000 for the second year.

Over-all the rolls are not growing, and additional funds are not needed for that purpose. Four years ago the number of recipients ents of old age assistance had already begun to decrease slowly. Additional money is not necessary to make payments to recipients in line with average payments made in other states. In February of 1963 direct payments to recipients of old age assistance in Texas averaged $58.15. This was 95.8 per cent of the national average. Payments to recipients of aid to the blind in that same month came to $68.16, which was 95.6 per cent of the national average payment. Payments to recipients of aid to permanently and totally disabled averaged $57.74, which was 100.1 per cent of the national average. The only program on which the average payment was low was aid to dependent children. The figures of 95 per cent and slightly over 100 per cent compare with the fact that per capita personal income in Texas is 86 per cent of the national average.

None of the figures in the above paragraph include payments for medical care. They are the figures actually paid directly to recipients for the program under which they received aid. The program of direct or vendor's payments for medical care did not get started in Texas until January 1962. The Legislature has appropriated money to make medical care available only to those drawing old age assistance.

The additional money might be used for increasing maximum payments, which would be possible after the dollar limitation on the maximum was removed. As of June 1 of this year 16.7 per cent of those drawing old age assistance in Texas were receiving the maximum grant of $83 per month. 39.1 per cent of those drawing aid to permanently and totally disabled were receiving the maximum grant of $69. Not all of these would have needs great enough to justify any higher grant, but it is obvious some of those people who are now drawing the maximum may be failing to receive all the assistance they need to take care of their minimum requirements.

Those now drawing the maximum amount are helped the most by our present program of medical care payments. This program is given in direct payments or vendors' payments to doctors, hospitals, nursing homes and suppliers, and is in addition to the direct grants which are made to recipients of old age assistance. Although this program at the present time is limited to old age assistance, it reaches about three fourths of all those directly involved in these public welfare programs. There is no constitutional limit on the amount of money which can be expended for medical care.

The residence requirements and dollar limitations were written into our Constitution in recognition of the pressures on the Legislature and on executive agencies in the administration of public welfare programs. There are pressures of all sorts, some from those who are selfish and some from others whose interests are entirely benevolent. There is an extreme group which believes such restrictions, whether of money, residence or citizenship, interfere with what they conceive to be the federal government's duty through its social welfare program to see that everyone, regardless of his own efforts, shall be taken care of.

In accepting or rejecting this amendment to the Texas Constitution, the voters will be saying whether they approve elimination of these basic residence standards for eligibility (citizenship requirements would be retained) and elimination of controls over expenditures for individual programs which they have heretofore considered desirable.

The idea of allowing the Legislature to reduce or eliminate residence requirements disturbs some citizens who say that people from other states may be allowed to move into Texas and claim aid which should be available only to people who have roots in this state. It is not believed the present Legislature would approve any substantial lowering of standards. The citizens who are most disturbed by this proposal insist, however, that there is no purpose in making such a change in our Constitution unless it is contemplated that some future Legislature may want to reduce or repeal them.

Proposition 3 on the Ballot

"FOR the addition of subsection (c) to Section 62 of Article XVI of the Constitution, to authorize all political subdivisions within Jefferson County, Texas, to establish after approval of its voters, a Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund covering all appointive officers and employees of said political subdivisions."

"AGAINST (with wording as above following 'For')."

This proposal would add a new subsection to our Constitution providing for Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Funds.

It would apply only to those political subdivisions within Jefferson County (Beaumont, county seat) but it has implications that could affect the remainder of the State.

The proposed amendment would provide that recipients from any such fund would not be eligible for any other pension retirement fund or direct aid from the State of Texas, unless the amount contributed to the Retirement Fund by the political subdivision was released to the State as a condition to receiving other pension aid.

While this amendment would apply only to political subdivisions of Jefferson County, it is important to taxpayers of the whole state. If it is adopted, it will probably be the forerunner of similar proposals for other counties.

Proposition 4 on the Ballot

"FOR the Amendment to Section 49-b of Article III of the Constitution of Texas to increase the Veterans' Land Fund by $150,000,000.00; said Fund to be used for the purpose of purchasing land in Texas to be sold to Texas veterans who served in the Armed Services of the United States between September 16, 1940, and March 31, 1955; such funds to be expended in accordance with instructions and requirements that may be provided by law."

"AGAINST (with wording as above following 'FOR')."

This proposed amendment would extend the veterans' land program and add $150,000,000 to the Veterans' Land Fund.

The three major changes made by this amendment would be (1) to allow the sale of $150,000,000 more in bonds, (2) to increase the interest rate, and (3) to extend the life of the Veterans' Land Fund to an indeterminate date.

The first provision for the Veterans' Land Fund, adopted in 1946, authorized the sale of $25,000,000 in bonds. In 1951 another $75,000,000, and in 1953 an additional $100,000,000 were approved. All of these bonds have been sold and the proposed amendment would authorize the additional bonds for continuation of the program and would allow the Board to prescribe the interest rate, but the true effective rate could not exceed 4½ per cent.

The Constitution now requires that after December 1, 1959, all money received by the Veterans' Land Board from sale of lands and interest on deferred payments under the first $100,000,000 of bonds must be set aside for their retirement. After there is enough to pay principal and interest, any additional money received as a result of this group of bonds must be deposited, not later than the maturity date of the last maturing bonds, to the credit of the State's General Revenue Fund. Similarly, money must be set aside for retirement for the second $100,000,000 after Dec. 1, 1965, and additional receipts paid into the General Revenue Fund.

The proposed amendment would authorize purchase of lands with money from bonds previously authorized until Dec. 1, 1965. Hereafter, when any series of bonds is sold, out of the $150,000,000 in new bonds proposed, the amendment would authorize purchase of lands for an eight year period after the date of sale of that particular series.

It is not clear, though, how soon any additional money collected by the Board, after enough is set aside to take care of the principal and interest on bonds, must be deposited to the credit of the State's General Revenue Fund. The language is rather involved and at times appears to be contradictory. Also confusing are the various references to times when bonds must be retired.

The Veterans' Land Fund, as originally adopted, contemplated a temporary program for assisting veterans to acquire land. The lack of a definite cut-off date in this new proposal marks a turn toward a more continuous program.

Leach Funeral Held Friday

Funeral services for John William Leach, 93, were held Friday at 4 p.m. at Blackwell Methodist church with minister Max Hughes and Rev. Bill Hayner officiating.

Roby Lions Down Longhorns In Non-District Game

The Bronte Longhorns looked pretty good in the first half of last Friday night's ball game with the Roby Lions, but were completely subdued in the second half of play. The half ended with the Longhorns ahead 8-0, but the rejuvenated Lions came back after the mid-game rest to make 22 points and to hold the Longhorns to one touchdown.

Bronte's lone counter came late in the second quarter when Royce Lee on a keeper carried the ball over from the 1 foot line. The nice setup for the TD came after Jimmy Wells intercepted a Lion pass on his own 45 and ran back to the Roby 26, before being pulled down. A couple of passes from Lee to Wells took the ball down to the 14 for a 1st down. In the next series of downs the Longhorns threw a couple of incomplete passes, Wells carried for a nice gain, but fumbled. Luckily, on that play, the Lions were penalized 5 yards for off-sides, and on 4th down, the local lads lacked 5 yards. Lee dropped back and tossed the ball to End Ron Johns who had his back to the goal line and was stopped with about a foot to go. Lee dived through the middle and made the distance needed. The extra points were made by Wells on a run around his right end.

Roby didn't scratch the first half, but the Lions started a march up field after Jim Morrow's kick started the second half. After driving to 1 yard line on good gains by Donnie Daniel, Barry Hughey and Larry Field, Hughey went over the double stripe for the counter. A pass try for extra points failed.

No further scoring occurred during the third period.

It was during the fourth quarter that things got out of hand. Bronte started the period with a 1st down, but was unable to make 10 yards in the 3 tries, so Lee punted to his 44. On the first play from scrimmage, Daniels took the ball and went all the way for a TD without being touched by his pursuers. Hughey made

Pete Percifull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Percifull of La Veta, Colorado, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Percifull of Bronte, ended his football career as halfback at La Veta high school recently in a blaze of glory. He scored five touchdowns to lead his team, the Redskins, to a 58-0 victory over the Rye Thunderbolts. The senior halfback also scored four extra points and made 225 yards on 22 carries in the game.

The Redskins had a season record of six wins and two losses and took second place in their division of the Southern Peaks football league. Percifull, former student of Bronte elementary school, had an outstanding season record.

the run over left end for the conversion and the Lions went ahead 14-8.

Shortly after the Lions kicked off, Cordell intercepted a Longhorn pass and ran it back to the Bronte 25 before Johns brought him down from behind. The Lions lost the ball back to Bronte after four tries and four downs later Reyes punted to the Roby 44. Daniels, Hughey and Fields gained good yardage on most plays and carried the ball down to the Longhorn 6. From the 6, Hughey tossed a pass to Waddell for the final touchdown of the game, with Hughey making the extra points. Score was 22-8.

The remainder of the quarter saw the Longhorns fumble the kickoff and the ball recovered by Beauchamp of Roby. The Lions ran their four downs and the Longhorns took over. On the 1st play of the new series, Beauchamp intercepted a pass for Roby, and the final gun sounded. Bronte 8, Roby 22.

Kids Raise $20.98 for CROP on Halloween

Children from two Sunday School classes of First Methodist Church spent Halloween evening "tricking and treating" for CROP, (Christian Rural Overseas Program.) Children in the group were Kim Arrott, Michelle Golsen, Melissa Lee, Debbie Luckett, Jonathon Masterson, Nancy Rawlings, Sallie Richards, Joey Simpson and Vicki Shurley. As a result of their work and the good response of the community, the youngsters were able to send a cashier's check to Texas CROP in Austin for $20.98.

CROP is a national organization, begun in 1947, to provide assistance — high protein foods, emergency supplies, agricultural tools, seeds — not otherwise available to the overseas programs of the churches. Halloween contributions go to help meet the nutritional requirements of under-nourished people in many lands.

Gifts to CROP in 1962 made possible distribution of 109,125,000 pounds of government donated commodities given to Church World Service for its overseas programs. CROP will again share in this ministry, for example, 25c will give 10 children bread and milk every day for a month. $1.00 will provide over 300 pounds of food under this phase of the program. Apart from the surplus program, $2.00 will provide a hoe for the Congo to help turn jungles into productive gardens, and $4.00 will provide rice to feed one child a meal a day for a year in the Church World Service Child Feeding Program in Hong Kong.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Well, we have another tax election to vote on Nov. 9 — Saturday. It consists of 30 cents per $100 valuation on taxable property in Coke County. This is a permanent tax, unlike a bond issue that is paid off in a certain number of years.

The election notice calls for this to be used for farm to market roads and flood control. In this precinct we have had about ¼ mile of farm to market road in the last 12 years, and it doesn't seem likely that there is any prospect in the near future for any additional farm to market roads.

As for flood control, for this part of the county, the final dam for controlling floods is under construction at the present time and construction of these (6 dams) has been paid for 100% by the Federal Government.

From general opinion this extra tax that has been voted out by the entire State of Texas a few years ago is not needed for normal county operations.

We have a chance to drop this tax if we will just go to the polls Nov. 9 and vote against it.

A Taxpayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown and family visited in Quannah last weekend.

Commissioners Say Ad Valorem Needed in County

At a meeting of the Coke County Commissioners' Court Monday, November 4th, the Commissioners unanimously expressed their opinions in favor of retaining the present thirty cent Ad Valorem tax in the form of a County Ad Valorem Tax which will be voted on by the citizens of Coke County next Saturday.

Reasons cited for their thinking were based on the following advantages:

First, the services presently being provided, in the form of good roads throughout the county, can be continued only if funds are available for such operation. If more Farm-to-Market roads are to be constructed, purchasing and fencing rights-of-way will be necessary. These services will, by necessity, be curtailed if funds are not available.

Another advantage in voting this county Ad Valorem Tax is that homesteads are exempt, which is not the case with other precinct and county taxes. Voting this tax will not change present tax rates, but will be retaining the Ad Valorem tax voted by Coke County in 1944, and which citizens have been paying since that date.

If the citizens of Coke County vote down this opportunity, and still demand the services presently being provided by their commissioners, the other alternative to provide these funds will be an increase in property valuations, or the voting of bonds, which the court feels are less advantageous to a majority of the tax payers.
