School Faculty Complete for New Year

AD-LIB-BEN

Well, we finally got off the ground this week on our Historical and Progress edition of the Enterprise which will be issued Sept. 3, just prior to the Labor Day Celebration at Bronte County Park.

We had realized before this would be a gigantic task, but we really didn't know just how big until we got into it. The further we go, the more things we see that need to be included. Of course we have no hope of being able to recapture all of the important happenings of Bronte and Coke County during the past 75 years, but we are going to spend every spare moment on it until the day the final page is printed.

We have high hopes of having an advertisement and brief history of every business firm in Bronte in this paper, but have a long way to go in making all our contacts in the limited time. All the time we spend making calls on advertisers is time away from digging out stories and preparing them the way they should be. However, without the ads, there can be no paper.

Any of you business men who would like to lend a helping hand can be of great assistance if you will come by the office or call us on the phone to discuss your ad.

If you do want an ad in this issue, you'd might as well come on in and say so. If you don't you're going to have to tell us you don't, for we are going to ask you for one.

So far, the advertising support has been wonderful, and we expect to be seeing those of you who have not been contacted within the next few days. Thanks.

Too, we have had good response to our plea for old pictures and historical background information. If you haven't checked your old picture albums and scrapbooks, won't you please do this soon?

Youth Night Aug. 6 During Baptist Revival Meeting

Thursday night (tonight) has been designated as Youth Night during the Wayne Bristow Evangelistic Crusade being conducted this week at First Baptist church, according to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cumbie, chairman of the Crusade Youth committee.

Evangelist Wayne Bristow will deliver a message of interest to young people and their parents the 7:30 p.m. service. The service will be followed by a special time of fellowship in the fellowship hall of the church for youth 13-24 years of age and single. This fellowship period will be directed by the evangelistic team, Bristow and Ed Spencer.

Speaking at a Youth night service during a recent crusade, Mr. Bristow declared, "We must go all out to enlist youth for Christ. An army of young people marching under the banner of this cross would mean revival, in the churches, a new sense of responsibility in government, new determination in the classroom and a real reason for living for every person in the world today. The daring, imagination, and energy which belongs to youth will either be harnessed for Christ, or it will be used by godless ideologies to destroy civilization as we know it."

Pruitts Return From 17-Day Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Pruitt Jr. and Norma have returned home after spending a 17-day vacation touring the eastern part of the United States, including 18 states and the District of Columbia and Canada.

The Pruitts visited Lookout Mountain in Chattanooga, Tenn., crossed the Great Smoky and Blue Ridge Mountain ranges, and visited the renowned Shenendoah Valley. They spent several days in Washington D. C. visiting points of interest in that city. They reported that they especially enjoyed visiting with Congressman O. C. Fisher and a private tour of the White House.

After leaving Washington, they toured New Jersey and New York. In New York City they toured the World's Fair, where they visited with Deanie Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen of Bronte, who is working at the Protestant Pavilion at the fair. They also visited other points of interest in New York and Mrs. Pruitt said they were especially impressed with the United Nations Building.

Niagara Falls was their next stop and after visiting the falls and spending some time in Canada, they began traveling back toward Texas, through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Oklahoma. Mrs. Pruitt said that one of the most enjoyable aspects of their vacation were the visits with friends who live in that part of the United States.

Mrs. Hazel Caulder and Wayne visited last week in LaMarque, with her son, Doyle Caulder, and family. They toured the Gulf coast and visited the San Jacinto battleground.

Cost of extra copies will be 20 cents.

LL All Stars Lose To Snyder, 7-6

The Colorado River Little League All-Star team lost out in the competition at Snyder last Thursday night by a close score of 7-6. Errors were cause of the loss, it was reported.

By defeating the local lads, Snyder advanced to play with Abilene and beat them, 12-1. This win advanced them to a contest with San Angelo which was played Tuesday night. Angelo defeated the Snyder boys, 15-1.

Home run hitters for the Colorado River boys are Joe David Key and James Fields of Robert Lee, and Joe Basquez of Bronte.

Jim Bob Arott was the losing pitcher. He was unable to hold out for the entire contest and was replaced on the mound by Doug Burns of Robert Lee.

Little League coaches and managers were proud of their boys in spite of the loss, and praised them for advancing as far as the Snyder game. The tilt last Thursday closed out the Little League baseball season for 1964.

CITIZEN OF THE CENTURY

Mrs. J. A. Stephenson received a copy of the Atoka (Oklahoma) County Times. A story in it told of a plaque being presented to Ira Stevenson, as the "Citizen of the Century" there. He is a brother of the late J. A. Stephenson, long time Bronte citizen and former mayor.

The award was made at a two-day reunion of Caney, Okla., residents. Mr. Stephenson, now in his eighties, was once a County Commissioner, former State Representative and a merchant at Caney for over half a century.

Mrs. Royce Fancher is in Houston this week where she is attending a state meeting of home economics teachers.

His letter reads, in part, as follows:

"Well here we are sitting in the middle of Viet Cong territory but except for an occasional sniper they don't fool with us. We have a compound that covers about a city block with a large Nationalist Army camp across the street. Things are so quiet that we don't even carry weapons except on missions.

"We are set up in some old French barracks, about which you can only say, they are in one piece and made of concrete.

"The people here are real friendly, the only trouble is you don't know if they are the enemy or not."

Larry Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson was flown from Ft. Polk, La., where he has been stationed with the army, to a base near Fairbanks, Alaska Monday. Bill Newell, formerly of Silver, was also restationed with Larry.

Whew! I've been hustling like mad---haven't quit a minute, really, since the temperatures started climbing---to keep your home cool as a mountain breeze during these blistering hot days and nights. This is an extra chore in addition to my regular job of operating your other Flameless Electric appliances around the clock, of course, so...don't be surprised if my wages for the past month are a little bit more.

WE ARE CHANGING THE NAME OF THE

Clift Funeral Home

TO

and will do our best to see that the people of Coke County get the same fine and considerate service which they have been accustomed to under the management of your and my very good friends, Mr. & Mrs. W. B. Clift.

There are eight specific purposes and values of the Funeral that every person should come to know and understand:

A funeral faces the reality of death—does not avoid it;

A funeral provides a setting wherein the religious needs of the bereaved may be satisfied;

A funeral provides faith to sustain spirit;

A funeral helps free one from guilt or self-condemnation;

A funeral helps one to express feelings;

A funeral directs one beyond the death of a loved one to the responsibilities of life;

A funeral, in a personal way, helps one to face a crisis with dignity and courage;

A funeral, above all, provides an environment where loving friends and relatives can give the help needed to face the future with strength and courage.

Your funeral director, through his training and experience, is well aware that his most significant function and the fundamental purpose of the funeral is to serve the living.

The traditional American funeral is basically a religious service, supported by the practices and customs of the community and the personal desires of the bereaved.

The funeral director is responsible for all other aspects of the funeral and, together with the clergyman, provides a united service for those who suffer the loss of a loved one.

Among all men and in all time, custom has devised a meeting place between the living and the dead. This is more than a show of sympathy for the bereaved family. It is more than a parting from someone well regarded. It is a way of saying that the sorrows of one are the sorrows of all. Today this meeting place is usually the funeral home—where none are formally invited, but all are welcome to come.

TO EACH HIS OWN

Everyone can select the kind of funeral he wants for his or her loved one. Your funeral director, as always, stands ready to serve you in the manner in which you wish to be served, in accordance with your own religious beliefs and personal desires.

It's Worth $12,000

You Can Buy It for $8,000

The Foy L. Moore residence has 1,500 feet of floor space. Any contractor figures it costs $7.50 per foot to build a new house, so there you have a value of more than $10,000. In addition there is an 8 x 24 foot addition on the south and a small utility room on the west for washer and deep freeze. They're worth $1,300 more. Then there's the carport with 14 ft. wide concrete, cover and one side enclosed with room for a workshop. Then we haven't figured the chain link fence around the back yard, concrete sidewalks, brick trim along the front of the house and a nice brick flower bed in front of the picture window. We haven't mentioned the excellent bermuda turf, the dozens of fruit and shade trees, shrubs and flowers and an excellent garden plot on the back end. It has a superb location on a nice corner with 100 ft. front and 140 ft. depth and paving on both sides. If that isn't a wonderful value for $8,000, then you go and ask somebody who really knows building costs and property values.

We've told you about this wonderful home for six months and are out of breath. If you want to take another look just contact C. E. Bruton at his White's Auto Store. If you want to talk deal and sign a contract, maybe get some help in financing and move in right away see the broker
