

Exes to meet Saturday; will honor state champs

Hundreds of Dimmitt High School ex-students are expected to gather in DHS gymnasium Saturday afternoon to reunite with former classmates and pay tribute to three state championship basketball teams of 20 and 40 years ago.

THE REUNION will be from 2 to 5 p.m., and is open to the general public.

The program will begin at 2:45 and will be followed by election of new officers of the Ex-Students' Association. Between 3:30 and 4, the meeting will move into the high school auditorium for the showing of state basketball tournament game films. Exes will then return to the gymnasium for more informal visiting.

Each local lady attending is asked to bring two dozen cookies. Coffee and punch will be provided.

HONORED guests at the reunion will be the boys' and girls' state championship basketball squads of 1952 and the girls' state championship team of 1932.

John Blaine, who coached the 1952 teams to undefeated seasons and back-to-back state titles, will highlight the program as he reviews the two teams' historic climb to double championships.

Also invited to attend and take part in the program are Henry Loter, who coached the Bobbies to three state title games and two state championships in 1930, '31 and '32, and Aubrey Lester, who was Blaine's assistant coach in 1952.

SUPT. CHARLIE WHITE will give the exes a report on the school system's growth in recent years, its current academic program and future plans.

Coaches and members of the three state championship anniversary squads will be seated during the program at head tables centered by their state trophies. Coaches and team captains will single out the former players, who will introduce their families and view their historic championship year in retrospect.

Don Nelson, Ex-Students' president, will serve as emcee. Committee chairmen for the reunion are Mrs. Alvin Frazier, decorations; Mrs. Ted Sheffy, registration; Mrs. Jimmy Cluck, beverages; and Bill Stephenson, secretary-treasurer, dues.

Schools to fight back

'Follow Through' gets ax

The US Office of Education notified Dimmitt School Supt. Charlie White Tuesday that it plans to drop its funding of the "Follow Through" pilot program for the first three grades here at the end of this school year.

THE PROGRAM, now in its third year in Dimmitt Public Schools, helps train 615 pupils in the first, second and third grades under a budget of $207,000 annually, with a payroll of $152,878. The program is funded by federal money.

Affected by the cut are 44 teachers' aides, parent workers, video operators, material coordinators, testers and the program supervisor.

White said the program's cancellation here was unexpected, and indicated he would fight to get it restored.

HE CHARGED that the cut was "politically motivated," and is asking help from the public in urging lawmakers to restore the program.

"We knew that funds were being cut for the program nationwide... but we were confident our program here would not be cut," White said. "We were prepared to make some cuts in the budget, but we weren't expecting our whole program to be dropped."

Dimmitt's is one of only five "Follow Through" pilot programs in Texas, and one of 128 in the US. White said he knows of only one other school in the nation that was dropped from the program this week.

WHEN HE received notice of the cut Tuesday, White contacted Dr. Wesley Becker of the Engleman-Becker Corp. at the University of Oregon, which sponsors and supervises the pilot program here.

"Dr. Becker said the cut was pure politics," White said. "He was as surprised as I was at the cut, and said it had to be politically motivated because our program was a good one. In fact, he said the Dimmitt program is one of the better ones in the country being conducted under their supervision."

The only reason he could see for the Office of Education dropping the funds here would be that we have a lower percentage of poor kids in our program compared with other schools. (See "FOLLOW", Page 15)

Construction sites looted; man arrested

A Dimmitt man was charged Monday with theft over $50 in connection with two construction site robberies Sunday night, according to the sheriff's office.

HE IS BEING held pending psychiatric examination, officers said.

All of the construction equipment taken in the robbery was recovered Tuesday by officers.

According to Police Chief W. W. Jones, $2,500 to $3,000 worth of construction equipment was taken from two construction sites contracted by Don McNeese of Hereford.

THEY TOOK a cement mixer, cement block saw, wheelbarrows, scaffold jacks and reinforcement bars from Driver's Mobil and another cement mixer and scaffold jacks from a house construction project on Howe Street," Jones said.

A 16-foot open stock trailer was taken from C. B.'s Auto Repair and was used to haul the stolen equipment, Jones said.

"All of the construction equipment and supplies were recovered," Jones said.

grounds throughout the city as their final class activity before school turned out for Easter vacation. For the youngsters, it was good practice for the Jaycees' annual Public Easter Egg Hunt, which will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the city park.

Primary voters now total 3,471

With the voter registration deadline approaching for the May 6 primaries, Kent Birdwell announced that 3,471 Castro County residents had registered to vote.

TO BE eligible to vote in the May 6 primaries, residents must be registered by next Thursday. However, you can still register after that date for other elections during the year.

Under new Texas election laws, a person can register to vote up to 30 days before an election in which they wish to participate.

Carl King, Castro County Democratic chairman, said, "The latest voter registration compilations from the Secretary of State's office show that fewer people, statewide, have registered to vote in this election year than in 1970. This is especially true in many working class neighborhoods, where registration is running far behind its level of two years ago."

IN 1970, out of 6,543,000 qualified voters, 4,149,250, or 63.4 percent, registered to vote. By contrast, this year—1972—out of an estimated 7,681,000 qualified voters, only 3,770,000 have registered for a 48 percent average. King reported.

"This is far below the approximately two-thirds of the qualified voters who usually register to vote in Texas," King said. "To maintain that average this year, we must register another one million voters."

Lady is write-in candidate for JP

Mrs. J. W. (Jo Nita) Smith announced this week she will be a write-in candidate for justice of the peace of Precinct 3 in the May 6 Democratic primary.

THE POST has been vacant since the recent death of Justice of the Peace T. E. Harrison.

Mrs. Smith, who has been Dimmitt resident four years, is employed by the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

EASTER DAY OF TRIUMPH "He is not here: for he is risen, as he said." Thus, on the third day our Lord rose and conquered death, fulfilling his promise. There are many other promises of wonderful things that our Lord has made to us. These are given to us in the Holy Bible. Enter his house this week, on the day set aside for celebrating his triumph, and hear the full story of this great victory. Make this a new beginning in your life too. The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will get him free to live as a child of God. Easter Seal response is good; 1972 fund drive will end Sunday

Castro County's Easter Seal Representative reported this week that the 1972 Easter Seal Appeal of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults is going well. Mrs. Sue DeVaney serves as Easter Seal Appeal Treasurer for Castro County.

THE 1972 Easter Seal Appeal will finance the Easter Seal Society's rehabilitation program for crippled children and adults in Texas. Last year the Society helped over 22,000 disabled persons through its program of assistance in finding and making effective use of services for the disabled and their families.

The Easter Seal Society helps provide 19 treatment facilities in Texas where children and adults are treated, regardless of ability to pay. These centers offer physical therapy, medical diagnosis, speech and hearing programs and related services to help the disabled build happier and more useful lives.

As Easter Seal Representative, Mrs. DeVaney is the person to contact for services from the Easter Seal Society. She can be contacted at the First State Bank of Dimmitt.

WHEN contacted for services, Mrs. DeVaney will request the Easter Seal Society to investigate the needs of the disabled person and will ask that the society advise the handicapped person of the best resources available to help him.

Mrs. DeVaney added that contributions to the Easter Seal Appeal should be sent to her as soon as possible, as the 1972 Appeal ends Easter Sunday.

NEWS

By GERALD BROADSTREET
Greetings Comrades,

I guess you've heard by now what a wonderful dance we had last Saturday night. The band we had was in very good form and the crowd just danced up a storm. Needless to say, we all had a good time and already I'm looking forward to the next dance.

WELL Comrades, the month of March is almost gone and that means our regular monthly meeting is just around the corner. Next Monday night, April 3, we'll call the meeting to order at 8:30. Please mark it on your calendar and make a big effort to be there. We need your help, your presence is a big morale booster to the officers you have elected to represent you. One of the main items on the agenda will be the finalizing of the plans we made earlier this year and awaiting warm weather.

While I'm talking about meetings I'd like to mention that election time for our officers is drawing near. Keep in mind we will elect officers at the regular meeting in May.

During the month of May we will have the District 13 Convention at Plainview. At this convention we will elect our district officers for the next year. Plainview at this time has not announced a date for the convention but when they do I'll let you know as soon as possible.

YOU'LL RECALL last week I mentioned that a fellow veteran and family were in financial distress due to illness. Well I'm very pleased to announce that in two weeks we had collected donations for a total of $146.82. The family was most grateful and extends a heartfelt thank you to all those that helped.

Comrades, would you believe we have gained six new members this week? Well we have and that puts our membership at 176 now. Being 20 members over our quota is quite an accomplishment. Just goes to show you what a little extra effort can do. I am real proud of our post and what we are accomplishing.

Don't forget "Game Night" on Wednesday. We start at 8:30 so bring the family and have an evening of fun. See you there.

NEVER underestimate your ability; others will do it for you.

Navy recruiter announces hours

The Navy recruiter will be in Dimmitt each Tuesday from 1 to 2:30 p.m. in the Post Office.

Anyone interested should contact him at that time.

WATCH OUT FOR TERMITES

Termite season will be here soon and homeowners should make a close check of their premises to determine if a control program is necessary. Secure professional help from a pest control operator instead of relying on the "do-it-yourself" method, advises Dr. Philip Hamman, Extension entomologist. Contact at least three pest control operators and get a bid from each showing a diagram of the infested areas, a statement of exactly what will be done, and the cost of the treatment.

As of March 14, 27 screw-worm cases have been confirmed in Texas since January 1. Seven cases popped up March 13-14. Unless livestock owners take certain precautions, 1972 could be a rough year, say Screwworm Eradication Program officials. All animal wounds should be treated as soon as possible and all worm samples should be sent to Screwworm Eradication Laboratory at Mission. Containers for mailing are available at county Extension offices.

Confused on investment credit dates?

The effective date for investment credit, which was restored by the Revenue Act of 1971, has been troublesome to some taxpayers and tax practitioners.

DR. JAMES I. MALLETT, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, reviews the pertinent information regarding effective dates for qualified investment credit property.

Property ordered and acquired before April 1, 1971 is NOT allowed; property ordered prior to April 1 and acquired prior to Aug. 16, 1971 is NOT allowed; property ordered prior to April 1 and received after Aug. 15, 1971 IS allowed; and property ordered or acquired after March 31, 1971 IS allowed.

Foreign goods follow the same rules except those ordered or acquired between Aug. 15 and Dec. 19. Investment credit on foreign goods is not allowed for that due to the temporary 10 percent import surcharge which was in effect.

Property which was constructed, reconstructed or erected follows similar rules, says Mallett. If such work began prior to April 1, only costs associated with construction after Aug. 15 are allowed. If construction began after March 31, the property qualifies for investment credit.

A NEW SERVICE STATION was going up rapidly at Bedford and Second—until burglars stole most of the construction equipment Sunday night. This was the construction scene before the burglary as pumice-block walls went up for a new Driver's Mobil Service. The new station is being built behind (north of) the present one to allow more drive-in space for service islands and customer parking. The present station building will be torn down when the new one is completed. Floy Driver, owner, reported that burglars took approximately $2,000 worth of construction equipment from the site Sunday night, including a large cement mixer and brick-saw machine.

Electric co-op getting new look

The general offices of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative on East US 60 and Whittier in Hereford are in the process of receiving a "new look."

ACTIVITY in and around the office building has progressed at an almost hectic pace—as the employees of the firm can tell you. One might go to his desk with four walls around him and suddenly find at day's end he is being refreshed with outside air as a wall in his office has completely disappeared.

One employee exclaimed as he appeared early one morning for his starter cup of coffee "Heck, things are changing so fast around here I can't even find the coffee pot."

According to James Hull, general manager, the board of directors accepted the low bid of Wiley Hicks Jr. of Amarillo for $90,000. Separate bid lettings went to Brown Sheet Metal of Hereford for heating and air conditioning, and to Owen Electric of Hereford for wiring.

The facility, in addition to a complete face-lifting inside, is receiving an additional 2,284 square feet, most of which is incorporated into a community room. The new meeting room will be used to handle the many requests for meeting room space the cooperative has from organizations throughout its service area, which includes Castro, Deaf Smith and Parmer Counties.

The construction is the first major change of the building since it was erected 22 years ago. An explosion partly demolished a portion of the building in September 1958, but relatively little change was made when restoring the structure.

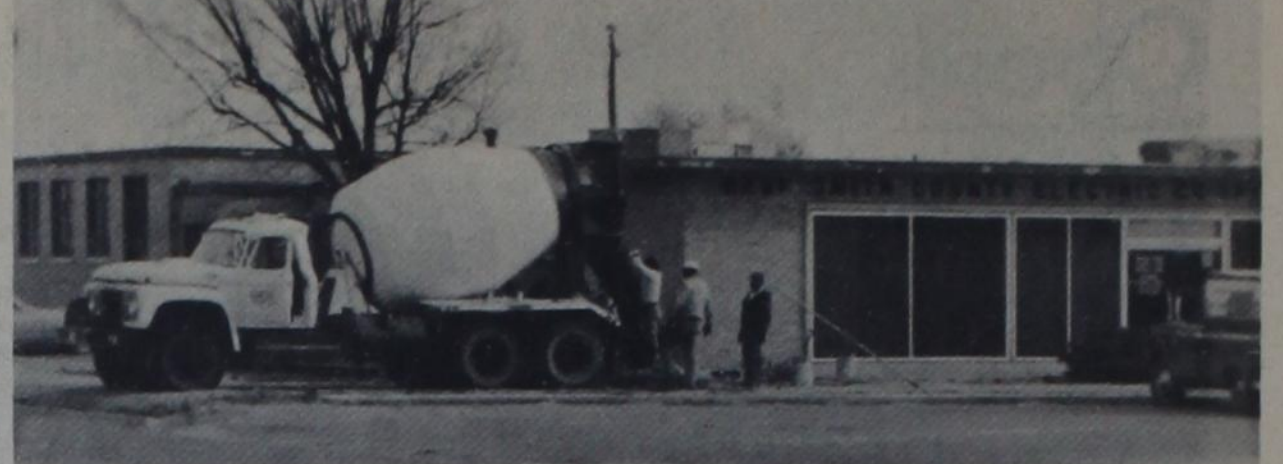

Hull, in announcing the "new look" construction, explained that the one major factor influencing this decision was the tremendous growth of the cooperative in the last seven years.

"We simply did not have enough office space to adequately accommodate the personnel we now have employed," Hull explained.

The cooperative started in 1937 with six employees and now has 41. The number of employees has doubled since 1965.

"The construction should be completed by May 1," Hull said. "We think when it is finished our member-owners will be proud of it, as well as the community."

A STATE Welfare Department employee cannot continue to work and draw his state salary while campaigning for city council, according to a new attorney general's opinion.

Kiwanians donate to boxing club; hear youth choir

The Kiwanis Club board of directors voted Monday morning to donate $100 to the Dimmitt Boxing Club to help the organization get on its feet financially.

NEAL LOMENICK was appointed the Kiwanis Club's representative to the Dimmitt Boxing Club board. President Wayne Lindley said a second Kiwanian will be named later. Adult leaders of the boxing club have requested two representatives from each civic club to help plan and coordinate activities.

At their noon meeting Monday, the Kiwanians were treated to a rousing musical program by the "Rambling Messengers," Hart youth choir directed by Robert A. Hawkins.

Accompanied by a piano, drums, cymbals, tambourine and castanets, the youth choir performed "Up With People," "The World Is Your Hometown," "Which Way, America?" "He's Everything to Me," "A New Tomorrow," "What If We Were All That Way?" "What He's Done for Me," "God Is Real," "I Know God Cares for Me," and a finale, "Pass It On," which the youths sang while strolling through the meeting room and shaking hands with those at the tables. Program chairman was Ted Robb.

A SPECIAL guest at Monday's meeting was John Skaggs of Plainview, district lieutenant governor of Kiwanis International.

A LIBERAL group threatens that a rump or challenge Texas delegation will go to the national convention unless new Democratic rules are altered.

DHS art student wins at Plainview

Debbie Hansen of Dimmitt won the Curry Company award for first place in junior division oil painting in the Plainview Student Art Show last week.

MISS HANSEN, a Dimmitt High School student, entered several oil paintings in the show. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Hansen and a student of Mrs. Sue Broderston, DHS art instructor.

Dimmitt youth wins top award in Science Fair

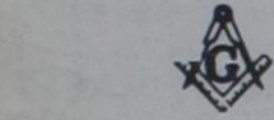

Larry Robb of Dimmitt won first place in the Earth and Space Science junior boys' division at the 15th Annual Texas Panhandle Science Fair last weekend in Amarillo.

A TOTAL of 318 projects were entered in the fair, held in the Commercial Exhibits Building on the Tri-State Fairgrounds. C. C. Dugger, fair director for the Texas Panhandle Science Council, Inc., said the exhibits represented nearly 100 Panhandle schools.

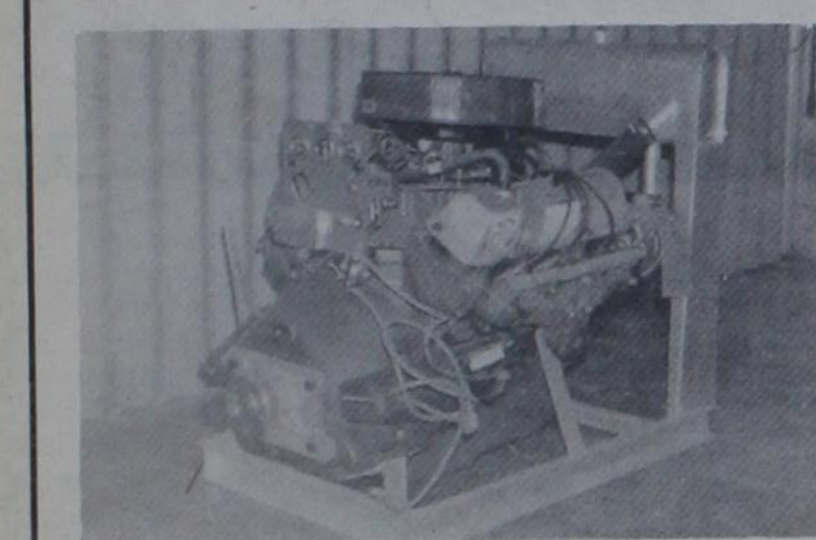

Robb's entry was entitled "Helium Balloon Logging." The principle involves moving timber across land by helium balloon instead of the current practices of trucking and floating. Scientists in several different areas are experimenting with this concept currently.

Robb received a blue ribbon and pin representing all fields of sciences at the awards dinner Friday night.

MR. AND MRS. ALFRED ERNEST SAMMANN
... She's the former Laura Jean West of Hobbs

Student newlyweds at home in Lubbock

Double ring vows were pledged in a late afternoon ceremony March 16, at St. Matthew Lutheran Church in Hobbs, N.M., by Miss Laura Jean West and Alfred Ernest Sammann. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James R. Serviss.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. West Jr. of Hobbs, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sammann of Dimmitt.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white flocked eyelet floor length gown, with smoked fitted bodice and cuffs, accented by a built-up neckline and a ruffled flounce trimming the hemline. The bridal headpiece was a fitted white cap beribboned with pale pink accents and tiny spring flowers. The bride wore a pale pink double orchid corsage.

Serving as witnesses to the couple were JoAnn Hestand and Lajan McConal, both of Hobbs. AFTER THE wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Bouquets of spring flowers and ivy were the decorations throughout the home. The bride's table was covered with an imported handmade cloth from Portugal, accented with pink spring flowers and ivy. White candles flanked the tiered wedding cake. The couple toasted each other from crystal stemmed glasses trimmed with Lily of the Valley. Pink champagne, wedding cake, nuts and mints were served. Silver and crystal appointments completed the table setting.

Following the wedding reception, Mr. and Mrs. Sammann, the bridegroom's parents, entertained the wedding party at dinner.

The bride will be a 1972 graduate of Hobbs High School. She is a member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

A 1969 graduate of Dimmitt High School, the bridegroom is in his third year at Texas Tech, majoring in entomology. He is presently employed at Texas Tech.

The couple are now at home at 3002 Fourth St., Apt. 142, Lubbock.

REMOVING THATCH

Late winter or early spring after danger of a freeze is past is the best time to remove thatch from your lawn, advises Al Novosad, Extension agronomist. Thatch is a tightly intermingled layer of living and dead stems, leaves and roots of grasses which develops between the layer of green vegetation and the soil surface.

It's time to plant annual flowers; furniture refinishing workshop set

By IRENE KEATING

Here it is already the end of the month. The weather has been so pretty and the signs of spring are everywhere. I've already mowed my yard several times but I enjoy outdoor work.

THIS IS the time to decide on what annuals you want to plant and get the beds ready. These plants along with perennials and bulbs are very effective especially when planted in masses and using few kinds and colors. Consider a bed for flowers to be used for cut flowers. It always adds so much to a house to have pretty flowers in it.

Mrs. Hance has been keeping pretty fresh flowers on her desk and it certainly does cheer up the reception room. (Come by and see the pretty new desk Mrs. Hance has—it makes our offices look great!)

Back to the flower beds now. It takes lots of flowers to make an impact on the landscape. Colors should be concentrated where they will make the best show. It is unrealistic for us to expect "continuous bloom" in our flower beds.

ANNUALS are so nice because they come up from seed, flower and die in one season. We can either raise all our own from seed or buy some of them already started. Cost of course is more for those that are purchased already started. Annuals range from three inches high to several feet in height and you should consider this when planning the flower bed or border. Personally I like a pretty wide flower bed or border, but the size and location of flower beds is an individual decision.

If any of you want any information on flowers, bulbs, shrubs, etc. be sure to come by the office or call me at 647-3455. We have many good bulletins that deal with care of plants as well as the treatment of diseases and insects.

Hanging baskets are pretty and you might plan now to have one or more in your yard this summer. They are very colorful accents we should utilize more often.

WE WILL be starting a furniture refinishing workshop Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. at the Bethel Community Building. Anyone is welcome to attend, but due to space we will limit enrollment. Mrs. Trent (Lana) Downing has agreed to help with this workshop. She is an excellent furniture restorer and refinisher and has done much of it in the past. I hope you have a nice Easter weekend.

Socially Yours

Saccharin is now listed 'hazardous'

According to recent legislation, the use of the artificial sweetener, saccharin, will be limited under a new regulation of the Food and Drug Administration.

"THIS regulation took effect Feb. 1," said foods and nutrition specialist Sally Springer. "Saccharin was then removed from the list of food additives that are generally recognized as safe."

The specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service said that the use of saccharin has been limited to the following: 12 milligrams per fluid ounce of beverage in fruit drinks and other beverages, no more than 20 milligrams of saccharin per substitution for one teaspoon of suzart (when used as a sugar substitute) and 30 milligrams per serving in processed foods.

In addition to these, the Food and Drug Administration regulations require that labels of foods containing saccharin state what amounts of saccharin the product contains.

"This labeling will become effective for food sold after July 1," Miss Springer said.

All auxiliary members and hospital staff are required to buy their own tickets this year.

AN ENVELOPE addressed to the center has been included in all tax packages for the convenience of Texas taxpayers. GI Bill training to expire in '74 for vets discharged 6-17 years ago

Millions of veterans could lose part or all of their GI educational benefits if they don't act promptly, the Veterans Administration warned this week.

JACK COKER, director, explained that those whose benefits are in danger were discharged between Jan. 31, 1955, and June 1, 1966. For these veterans, eligibility for VA educational assistance payments for GI Bill schooling expires May 31, 1974, whether they are enrolled at that time or not.

The expiration date is fixed by a 1966 law which, for the first time, extended eligibility for education benefits to Post Korean veterans with service after Jan. 31, 1955. Each veteran has eight years in which to use his benefits. Normally, the eight years are computed from the date of his release from military service. But because the benefits were not available until June 1, 1966, when the law became effective, the eight years start from the date the benefits became available for those discharged before that date.

Certain types of training, authorized for the first time on Aug. 31, 1967, are not affected by the 1974 expiration date. Included are flight training, apprentice and on-the-job training, and farm cooperative training. These forms of training are available under the eight-year policy, until Aug. 31, 1975, or eight years after discharge, whichever is later.

V.A. RECORDS show that when the 1966 law became effective June 1, it made over four million veterans eligible for benefits and of this number, about 3,000,000 have not used their benefits or have used only part of them.

About 300,000 of this group are in training at the present time. Total enrollment under the GI Bill in January of this year was over one million bringing to three million the number of beneficiaries who have received training under the current GI Bill.

Veterans earn one and one-half months of educational benefits for each month of military service, up to a maximum of 36 months. Those who serve 18 months or more are entitled to the full 36 months.

V.A. CURRENTLY pays veterans with no dependents, attending school fulltime, $175 a month. Those with one dependent receive $205; with two dependents, $230; and those with more than two dependents, $13 for each dependent over two.

To qualify for educational assistance, Post Korean veterans and servicemen currently on active duty must have served at least 181 days, any part of it after Jan. 31, 1955.

Veterans separated for service-connected disabilities also are eligible for payments, regardless of length of service.

VA urged veterans interested in educational benefits—especially those whose benefits expire in May 1974—to contact any of its offices, veterans county service officers, or local representatives of veterans service organizations.

AIDES HELP FARMERS

Successful small farm operators working as "program aides" are helping low-income farmers in 10 Texas counties to develop more efficient farming operations. Begun in 1969, the Texas Intensified Farm Planning Program (TIFFPP) has brought about a 20 percent increase in the gross farm revenue of some 224 low-income farmers in these counties. Major gains have been in livestock and truck crop production and in participation in government agricultural assistance programs.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

AS HEARD BY HEARD

A Perpetual Fall Guy

Perhaps the most thankless job in the entire world is that of the United States Secretary of Agriculture. Nothing he can do can possibly turn out right.

The current secretary Earl Butz is now having his problems. The price of meat is going up, creating unhappiness among the nation's home makers who thought the cost of living was being controlled.

Of course, as is usual with Washington officials, Butz blames the news media for giving coverage to the fact that meat prices are going up. Apparently, this is news that should not be news.

But now he also points out that in 1970 the farmer received 39 cents from each dollar the consumer spent for food, and this dropped to 38 cents in 1971. The cost of food, he says, with great validity, is because the costs of distribution have gone up.

Obviously the farmer is not reaping a bonanza from the situation. But all who are engaged in the hauling of food stuffs, the rail and truck workers, heavily unionized, get more and more for their services.

For some strange reason, no attempt is apparently being made to hold down these costs of transportation. The nation's independent business people, voting through the National Federation of Independent Business, have long supported leg-

Isolation which would stop control of transportation from a handful of labor leaders.

Now, according to published reports, the solution to the problem being developed in Washington is to increase the import quotas on foreign meat which incidentally is not subject to the same rigid and expensive inspection procedures to which domestically produced meat must comply.

In other words, to appease the nation's upset housewives, more cheap competition will be developed for the nation's farmers, while the real price increasing culprits will be untouched.

This is weird economics, but perhaps good politics.

The mathematics of 40 million irate housewives, plus almost 2 million teamster union members undoubtedly far outweigh the number of producing farmers.

Thus, no matter what a Secretary of Agriculture believes, or would like to do, he eventually runs smack into the U.S. version of the Iron Curtain.

That is the sheer mathematics of the situation, namely, there are more haulers of food, and more eaters of food, than there are producers of food. This creates what might be termed the November syndrome which always makes a fall guy out of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Seed dealers caught in the middle because of environmental rules

With the recent emphasis on environmental quality, many seed dealers are caught in the middle because of the need to treat planting seed for control for soil insects.

THE SEED companies often sell seed in several states and find that each state has different requirements and restrictions, says Dr. Bill Clymer, area entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"For this reason, many companies no longer use chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides for seed treatment," he adds, "instead, some have substituted short residual compounds such as methoxychlor and malathion."

But the problem is that these alternate chemicals are not as effective against soil insects such as wireworms. Grain sorghum is a good example of a crop that needs maximum protection against soil insects; although commercially treated seed may not be available.

CLYMER URGES producers to check the seed tag to find out what seed treatment has been made. If the seed has not been treated, the producer has several alternatives. He may treat the seed before planting or use a planter box treatment.

"If either of these methods is used, care should be taken to assure even treatment of all seed," Clymer emphasizes.

Aldrin, chlordane, dieldrin, heptachlor and lindane are legal in Texas at a rate of two ounces per bushel of grain sorghum seed to be planted. But the entomologist adds that these chemicals are currently under review by the Environmental Protection Agency.

IF THEY have history of white grub problems, producers may want to use a row band, in-furrow or preplant broadcast soil treatment. These same methods can also take care of wireworms and other soil pests.

"Whatever treatment is used, the producer should read and very carefully follow label instructions," Clymer warns, "although the two ounces may seem like a very small amount, this is the maximum legal rate."

He adds that by following label instructions, the producer will insure that the treatments are within legal tolerances. This will lessen the danger of damage to seed germination or potential insecticidal accidents.

PIONEER SEEDS

Sign of Good Breeding

Bred-in yield potential is the reason 1972 looks like another record year for Pioneer brand hybrid corn. Last year, High Plains farmers planted nearly twice as much Pioneer hybrid seed corn as the year before. The most popular varieties for grain were 3369A and 3306, both of which have been consistently good hybrids for this area. Yields this past year of 150 bushels per acre and more were common with 3369A and 3306 on good irrigated land. For corn silage, Pioneer brand 9178 is still one of the best for high yield. Pioneer brand 3147, however, is growing in popularity. It yields along with 9178 and has a higher grain to stover ration. If you're planting corn this year, see your Pioneer dealer right away for the seed you need.

ARLIE PETTY, Dimmitt, averaged 194.74 bushels of corn per acre with Pioneer brand 3369A hybrid corn. Eleven inches of rainfall, combined with one pre-plant and 7 irrigations during the growing season brought out the best in Pioneer brand 3369A. As Mr. Petty says, "This corn seemed to stand better and have a better yield than any other corn hybrid I planted last year. I was real satisfied

They flew in a six passenger plane, converted to accommodate her hospital bed and arrived about 3 p.m. Mrs. Ogan almost immediately began therapy. They reported a most encouraging interview with the doctors and were much more optimistic than they had been for some time. Their daughters, Mrs. Jackie Andrews and Mrs. Marsh Pitman and Mr. Pitman drove through in cars, picking up an aunt of Mrs. Ogan's, Mrs. Tom Hatchett, at Stephenville, to go on with them. Several of the Ogan relatives live in the Houston-Galveston area. The latest report, Sunday morning, indicated continued encouraging improvement.

Sunday is Easter, and I would like to share a poem with you copied from the book, "Easter Chimes," by Wilhelmina Harper.

AT EASTER TIME
By Laura Elizabeth Richards
The little flowers came through the ground,
At Easter time, at Easter time;
They raised their heads and looked around,
At happy Easter time,
And every pretty bud did say,
"Good people, bless this holy day,
For Christ is risen, the angels say
At happy Easter time!"
The pure white lily raised its cup
At Easter time, at Easter time;
The crocus to the sky looked up
At happy Easter time.
"We'll hear the song of Heaven!" they say,
"Its glory shines on us today.
Oh! may it shine on us always
At holy Easter time!"
"Twas long and long and long ago,
That Easter time, that Easter time;
But still the pure white lilies blow
At happy Easter time.
And still each little flower doth say,
"Good Christians, bless this holy day,
For Christ is risen, the angels say
At blessed Easter time!"
I hope you have a Happy Easter!

I ATTENDED a workshop at the Amarillo Public Library Friday. Mrs. Claire Kuehn conducted the workshop on "Reference Services." Mrs. Kuehn is the archivist-curator at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum at West Texas State University in Canyon.

Mrs. Emil Wegs assisted Mrs. Lynn King with the Children's Story Hour while I was in Amarillo Friday. Mrs. King told the story, "Horton Hatches the Egg" by Dr. Seuss, to 12 boys and girls. We have several books by Dr. Seuss since the Friends of the Library gave us some money to purchase these books.

INTERESTING people in the library last week: Max Zamorano brought a new set of Childcraft Encyclopedias and donated them to the library. This is a good set and such a nice gesture. Thanks, Max, we certainly do appreciate these books.

Also, Mrs. Dolores Ivy donated several good books. Mrs. Snitker Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Forrester, Mrs. Book, Mrs. Slagle and others have donated paperback books to the library.

THE MISSION will be conducted April 7-9. A team of a hundred or more church lay members from throughout the Panhandle-Plains area will be here to lead the mission.

Visiting team members are scheduled to arrive from 4 to 5 p.m. April 7 and will stay in local members' homes over the weekend. After they are shown to their guest homes, they will return to the church for a church-wide covered dish supper to be followed by the first general session and small group meetings.

STATE Capital NEWS

By BILL BOYKIN

AUSTIN—Texans have just a few days more—until April 5—to register to vote in the May 6 primary elections.

MAJOR state candidates, including Gov. Preston Smith viewed with alarm registration totals so far. They noted that less than 3.8 million had registered as of last weekend, although there are nearly 7.7 million qualified voters in the state.

Present registrations are trailing the corresponding period in 1968 by 294,000 and the 1970 figure by more than 370,000.

In 1968, observed gubernatorial candidate Frances Farenthold, 64 percent of qualified voters were registered before the primaries. This year, only 48 percent of the potentially-eligible are registered. Former U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough pointed out that 63.4 percent of those qualified registered in 1970, and the 1972 dropoff is reflected in many "working class" neighborhoods.

NEARLY one million more should register by April 5 if previous patterns are followed, Smith said.

Under the state's new voter registration system, which candidates Farenthold and Yarborough lauded as one of the nation's best, citizens have until 30 days before any election to register and become eligible to vote.

The US Supreme Court threw some confusion over the registration system with a ruling that 12 months' state and six months' local residency requirements for voter eligibility (like those of Texas) are unconstitutional.

THE HIGH COURT said 30 days' residency is sufficient for any state. Secretary of State Bob Bullock took the case under study. Special legislative attention may be necessary.

T.P.A. POLLS

NORTH AND EAST TEXAS Editors and publishers were polled at the annual meeting of the North and East Texas Press Association in Palestine last week.

First question—"Who will carry your county in the primary?" In the Democratic governor's race, the newsmen voted: Barnes 25, Briscoe, 20; Smith, 8 and Farenthold, 3. Republican gubernatorial candidates rated were: Fay, 12; Grover and Reagan, 9 each.

In the lieutenant governor's race it was: Hall, 27, Connally, 14 and Hobby, 12.

The editors selected Sanders 28 to 15 over Yarborough in the US Senate primary.

Asked whom they would vote for personally, the tally read: Briscoe, 19, Barnes 14; Smith, 8 and Farenthold, 5.

They selected Hall, 26, over Hobby, 10 and Connally, 7. In the US Senate primary they voted for Sanders 18 to 7 over Yarborough. In the 1972 General Election poll they voted for Tower 21 to 5 over Sanders.

SPEAKER'S BATTLE LOOMS

House Speaker Gus Mutscher, appealing a bribery consent conviction in Sharpstown stock scandals, announced he will step aside as speaker.

The long-expected move set the stage for a head-on battle for the key presiding officer's post when Governor Smith calls a special legislative session.

Reps. Rayford Price of Palestine and L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi both claim majority support to take over the gavel during the special session. Hale has agreed to serve only as interim speaker and pledges he will not seek the job in the 1973 regular session. Price is considered the leading candidate for speaker in 1973, but he wants to take over at the first opportunity to enhance his long-term chance.

Most other speakership hopefuls line up behind the Hale interim bid. Rep. R. B. McAlister of Lubbock, radio-television executive, announced he also will seek the speaker's position in 1973.

INSURANCE RATES AGAIN

Insurance Board Chairman Larry Teaver lambasted two Board colleagues for proposing a $27 million homeowners increase which he termed "unnecessary, unjustifiable and an insult to the intelligence of the people of Texas."

Board members Ned Price and Durwood Manford denied any new rates have been finally adopted and said they likely won't be before June 1.

Teaver, who advocates a $14 million decrease in fire and other building coverage, called another meeting for March 29 to review Board actions and to recommend an "economic trend factor" be kept out of rates pending a study of the price freeze and inflation.

DEMOS LEAVE OFF D.S.T.

Democrats ignored a legislative resolution directing a May 6 statewide (non-binding) vote on daylight saving time. Republicans put the issue on their ballots. Authors of the resolution, Reps. Hilary Doran of Del Rio and John Poerner of Honddo, blasted Democratic Chairman Roy Orr of DeSoto, who accepted responsibility for the omission. They also petitioned the State Democratic Executive Committee to reconsider and overrule Orr.

COURTS SPEAK

The State Supreme Court April 26 will hear a lawsuit concerning invasion of privacy and whether a telephone company owes customers protection from a wiretap by an employee.

Court of Criminal Appeals granted a new trial for a Smith County man convicted of raping his sister-in-law.

The State Supreme Court declined to issue orders under which an Austin investor sought to require a deposition from a San Angelo Savings and Loan Association president which may touch on stock scandals.

A $55,500 claim by a Houston couple against the city as a result of their son's drowning in a garbage dump was refused by the Supreme Court.

HOSPITAL BUDGET COMPILED

Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation will seek $141.8 from the legislature for its 1973 fiscal year operations.

Major requests will include a new children's psychiatric unit at Austin, alcoholism and drug abuse programs at Big Spring, maximum security buildings at Rusk and a critically needed 100-bed treatment facility for drug abuse patients at San Antonio.

Other major allocations are sought for the Rio Grande State Center for MH-MR construction of an El Paso State Center for Human Development, community-based MH-MR services funds to meet Medicare-Medicaid certification requirements, a new drug dependent youth program at Vernon Center and new intensive treatment centers in Houston and Dallas.

HOUSING SUB-STANDARD

Nearly 350,000 Texas households need replacement or major repair, a statewide study informed the governor.

The survey showed the highest percentage of poor quality housing in rural areas, some in urban centers and moderate sized cities and the lowest percentage in suburban areas. Mexican-Americans and blacks live in most of the low quality residences. Only 4.5 percent of white households live in inferior quarters, the survey showed.

Army recruiting not that way now

The classic recruiting poster of World War II showed Uncle Sam pointing directly forward and saying "I want you!"

NOW, NOT only is the poster obsolete (except as a collector's item), but so is the statement. Most people are surprised to learn that the U.S. Army doesn't want and won't accept "just anybody."

With the Army committed to an all-volunteer force by July of 1973, you might think doors of recruiting offices would be wide open, ready for any warm body that happened by, but just the opposite is true—entrance standards actually have been substantially increased.

"When we do reach an all-volunteer status, we want to make sure we have a representative Army, encompassing men from all levels of society," said Major Grant Woodbury, head of Army recruiting throughout West Texas, New Mexico, and parts of Arizona, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma.

"TO DO this we must make the Army an attractive choice for young men and women, a place where they have good educational and vocational opportunities and a salary compatible with civilian jobs," he said.

"We've made great strides in these directions, but most people aren't aware of the changes that have occurred, both in opportunities and personal freedoms.

"And we not only have to get these facts across to the young people," Maj Woodbury said, "but also to their parents, since their views of Army life usually are tremendously out of date.

"FOR EXAMPLE, many parents think the Army still pays soldiers anywhere from $21 to $75 a month. With the new pay raise that just went into effect, newly enlisted soldiers now receive $288.00 a month—plus room, board and numerous other benefits," Maj Woodbury said.

Here are the sign-up statistics

By BOB PRICE
Congressman, District 18
The US Department of Agriculture announced recently the results of the Feb. 3 through March 10 sign-up period for the cotton, wheat and feed grain programs for 1972.

Some 267,351 farms were signed up in the upland cotton program. The signed farms have 9,275,793 acres in cotton allotments, or 84 percent of the total to participate in the 1972 program. This compares with 295,625 farms enrolled and having 92 percent of the total national allotment during the comparable sign-up period last year.

SET-ASIDE acreage on enrolled farms for 1972 totals 1,854,149 acres.

In Texas alone, 79,763 farms signed up with a total of 817,355 acres. Of 4,721,031 acres eligible to participate in the 1972 cotton program in Texas, 4,088,146 acres were signed up. Farms enrolled in the 1972 wheat program have 18,281,642 acres in allotments, almost 100,000 acres more than last year. The allotment figure represents 93 percent of the eligible national domestic allotment total of 19,549,592 acres. This is 95,382 acres more than the 18,186,260 allotment acreage on signed farms at the comparable period during the 1971 sign-up.

ENROLLED farms number 991,346 compared to 1,036,117 signed up at this date in last year's program.

Wheat acreage set-aside on enrolled farms shown on this report totals 20,154,379 acres.

This includes the required 83 percent set-aside of 15,171,907 acres and 4,982,542 acres of voluntary additional set-aside.

Texas accounts for 45,861 of the farms signed up with 1,369,776 of the 1,477,524 eligible acres included in the sign-up. Additional set-aside of 321,551 acres brings the Texas total to 1,658,356 acres for the 1972 program.

A NEW record number of farms have signed up to participate in the 1972 feed grain program, and they have a new record base acreage included.

The number of farms enrolled totals 1,764,551 as compared to the previous record final report of 1,759,315 signed up for 1971. The record feed grain base represented on signed farms totals 107.4 million acres, 14 percent larger than the previous record of 94 million acres set in 1969.

With this base acreage on participating farms, feed grain crop production potential in 1972 should remain within bounds and a reduction in carry-over may be achieved, according to USDA officials. All voluntary additional set-aside acreage offered by producers under two options will be accepted, USDA announced.

THE SET-ASIDE acreage offered for the 1972 program totals 37 million acres, the largest ever except for the record 39.5 million acres of diversion signed up for the 1970 program.

Of the total feed grain base of 107,352,304 acres on enrolled farms this year, 21,129,301 acres represent grain sorghum base, which compares with the 1971 record total of 21,342,356 acres.

'HEY, LOOK — THESE EASTER EGGS BOUNCE!' ... While some pause at trampoline, others sit to business

Records of '52 teams have never been topped

Ever since the first goal and net were raised on a pole here, the Dimmitt basketball fan has been allowed the luxury of dreaming big dreams—and seeing many of them come true.

BUT NOT even in his most far-out fantasy could the Dimmitt fan have ever envisioned a season like 1952.

Who ever heard of a school producing two undefeated cage teams in the same year? Or winning two state championships in two weekends? It had never happened before in Texas, or probably in the nation.

But it happened that year.

MEMBERS of those two squads who never met their equals on the court will be honored guests at the Dimmitt High School Ex-Students' Reunion Saturday in DHS gym. It was 20 years ago this month that they dribbled and shot their way to a basketball record that has never been repeated.

The Bobcats that year weren't a high-scoring team—they averaged about 60 points per game, and their high for the year was 87—but they would eat their opposition alive on defense. One team had to settle for 14 points against them, another scored only 13, another 23, etc. Their closest bout during the regular season was 36-31 over Levelland in the fourth game of the year. Their biggest runaway was an 82-18 drubbing of Sunray.

Starters were Wesley Smith and Glenn Brown at guards, Marvin Axe and Douglas Dennis at forwards and Bill Gregory at post forward.

THEIR No. 6 man was Weldon Warren, speedy little guard. When Warren came in, fans would say, it was Coach John Blaine's signal to run-and-shoot. There wasn't a corner on the court that Brown or Warren couldn't dart into or out of untouched.

The team mowed down 28 opponents during the regular season, then defeated the Wayland College Junior Varsity in a practice game before the regional tournament.

It was in the regional tourney that they got one of their biggest scares. A team from Clyde refused to believe the Bobcats' awesome press clippings, and threw something like a flying-wedge defense against them. It was a foul-ridden set in the regional semifinals, but the Bobcats escaped with a 49-48 victory. Then they overran Denver City, 32-47, for the regional crown.

IN AUSTIN the Bobcats polished off Sweeney 65-44 and Plano 62-40 to become the Texas Class A champions. But their season still wasn't over.

That was the year UIL officials thought it would be a spiffy idea to pit state champions against each other for what they called "Divisional" championships. The Class A champion was to be matched against the Class AA winner, and the 3-A titlist against the 4-A winner.

The Class AA champion was Bowie, complete with a tall imposing lad named Temple Tucker, who was to go on to greatness on the college court.

FOR THE first time, the Bobcats found themselves labeled as the underdogs. Fans packed UT's Gregory Gym to watch the rafter for the showdown—and most of them yelled for the smaller Dimmitt squad who fans felt, shouldn't have to be fed to that powerful Bowie team.

But the Bobcats gave every fan more than his money's worth as they used every trick in their bag to defeat Bowie, 59-54, in the most electrifying game of the state tournament.

That first "divisional championship" concept—which forced two of the four state champions to end their season with a defeat—was never repeated by the UIL.

THREE OF Dimmitt's players—Brown, Gregory and Axe—were named to the all-state tournament team. Smith was placed on the all-regional quintet.

But the main charisma of that Bobcat team wasn't who won how many honors or who scored the most. It was teamwork. Blaine insisted on it, and his Bobcats of 1952 gave it in full measure.

It is said that a college offered basketball scholarships to the entire starting lineup—it didn't want just one of them, or four without the fifth. The college coach who made the offer, the story goes, had seen the Bobcats play and felt that they accomplished more with teamwork than most teams could with talent alone.

FOR THE BOBBIES, the state championship of 1952 was the third in a row. But that year's team did it with a flair that kept them undefeated against all comers.

Their offense, patterned by Blaine around all-time all-state forward Lometa Odom, was awesome.

"I'm not sure myself how I would defend them," Blaine once commented. "I guess the first thing I'd try would be to keep a hand in their face and block their vision . . ."

DESPERATE opponents tried everything. Most of them would double-team Miss Odom under the basket. But they would then learn the hard way that this strategy wasn't good economics. Out front were sophomore Mary Nelson and senior Shirley Markley, who were deadly with the one-handed push shot, and the remaining guard couldn't stop them.

BACKING up Miss Nelson and Miss Markley were freshman Darlene Cates and senior Yvonne Bearden, both skilled shooters and ball handlers who could keep the Dimmitt scoreboard clicking upward with adding-machine consistency.

By not double-guarding Miss Odom under the basket, the opposing team would give up 40 or more points. She seldom missed, but when she did she would usually come up with the rebound.

But trying to fence Miss Odom in would be disastrous for the opponent, too, for that would turn the outside forwards loose to swish the nets with their oush shots. If one was ever "off," the other would be hitting, and any of the top four were capable of 20 or more points from outside in any given game.

FROM THE stands, the picture was almost always the same: Miss Odom would be standing in the middle of a crowd at the key, with the outside forwards whipping the ball back and forth as they sideskipped into shooting range. The poor point guard would be running back and forth trying to cover both outside forwards. But the rhythm ritual of the back-and-forth passing would eventually leave one of the outside forwards clear and she would set for a shot. The guard in front of Miss Odom would sometimes try to come out to stop the shot. Then would come the feed as the outside forward lofted the ball high to Miss Odom, who was there to grab it in mid-air. There seemed to be no way to keep the Bobbies from scoring almost every time they had the ball.

The forwards didn't have to run up high scores, for on the opposite end of the court the guards always kept the opponents under control. Dimmitt's guards—Mitzi Wilson at the post, Decimae Dennis and Katy Coke outside—used a "switch off" one-to-one defense that continually amazed and frustrated opposing coaches. There seemed to be no way to get through the screen they set up, and what they lacked in height they made up for in speed and dexterity.

FOR MISS WILSON, it was her first year as post guard. She already had earned state laurels as an outside guard, but switched her senior year to succeed the great all-stater, Maurine Smithson, under the basket. An opposing post forward might score a few points in the first quarter as Miss Wilson studied her shots, but from that time on the bucket might as well have had a lid on it.

Out front, Miss Coke gave the impression of a cat about to leap at a bird as she intently studied her opposing forward. Miss Dennis presented an opposite picture—she hop-scotched around as though she had springs in both shoes. Seldom did an outside forward get a round either of them.

Using this classic style of play, the Bobbies mowed down 31 opponents during the regular season, then defeated Reese Air Force Base twice before going into the state tournament at Waco.

IT WAS TO be the Bobbies' third straight state championship—and its last—in the Texas Girls' Basketball League also known as the McCamey League for its founder. The next year Dimmitt was to enter the new Interscholastic League girls' basketball system, where the Bobbies were to win still another state championship in 1954 under Coach Leo Fields.

For the amazing record he compiled that year—two undefeated basketball teams and only one loss in football—Blaine became the first Class A coach ever to be named Texas High School Coach of the Year.

Three years ago Blaine was inducted into the Texas Coaches' Hall of Honor in Houston, and last year he was named to the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame.

Miss Odom, who later became an all-American with the Wayland Flying Queens, was named to the National Women's Sports Hall of Fame several years ago, and in 1970 she became the first woman ever inducted into the Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame.

So you can see that the 1952 basketball year in Dimmitt is still reaping rewards for those who helped make it possible. For any sports fan, it wasn't so long ago . . .

of schools," White continued. "Our program is rated high on effectiveness and adequacy." WHITE URGED parents and school patrons here to write telegram or phone Congressmen George Mahon and Bob Price and Senators John Tower and Lloyd M. Bentsen in Washington.

"If this were a program that we really didn't believe in, we wouldn't mind so much losing it," White said, "but the administration and teachers here are sold on the program. We think we're beginning to see real results, and we believe the test results of the students will bear this out."

White termed "Follow Through" as "the greatest program I've ever been associated with in the education field."

WHITE WAS notified of the fund out here by Diane I. Mathis, deputy commissioner for school systems of the Office of Education, Dept. of Health, Education & Welfare.

In his letter, Mattheis said the cut stemmed from a $9 million reduction in funding for the "Follow Through" program nationwide "and the resulting impossibility of refunding all projects."

White still hopes the agency's decision can be reversed. "IF ANYONE is sold on the 'Follow Through' program and has any contact with any of our representatives in Washington, I urge them to call or write those representatives to urge continuance of the program here," White said.

Baptist Church pastorate filled

Rev. John Street of Phillips accepted the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt Sunday.

REV. STREET and his family will move to Dimmitt April 10 and 11. He will conduct his first service here Wednesday evening, April 12.

He was raised in Littlefield and attended Wayland Baptist College and Hardin-Simmons University. Rev. Street graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth.

Rev. Street and his wife, Dorothy, have three daughters—Rebecca Lynn, 15, Linda Kay, 13, and Sharla Ann, 9.

Before accepting the pastorate of the First Baptist Church of Phillips in 1966, Rev. Street pastored churches in southeast Oklahoma, Arizona and the First Baptist Church of Monday.

Easter egg hunt on tap Saturday

The Jaycees will stage their annual Easter Egg Hunt Saturday afternoon in Dimmitt's city park. THE HUNT will begin promptly at 2 p.m. and is open to all county boys and girls under 12 years of age. The park will be roped off into three areas for different age groups, and Jaycees will scatter thousands of cello-wrapped candy eggs through the grass and bushes. Children will line up on the Third Street side of the park for a racing start when the hunt begins. Each age-group area will have a big prize egg, and the children who find them will receive free prizes from the Dimmitt TG&Y Store.

Last rites held for Mary Jones, former resident

Services for Mrs. Mary B. Jones of Hale Center, a former long-time Dimmitt resident, were held Wednesday in the First Baptist Church in Hale Center. Mrs. Jones is the mother of Billy N. and Bobby Jones, both of Dimmitt.

MRS. JONES died Monday in Lubbock's West Texas Hospital following a lengthy illness.

A Hale Center native, Mrs. Jones was married to Earnest Jones on Oct. 17, 1917 in Plain view. They lived near Dimmitt from 1917 to 1959, when they returned to Hale Center. Mr. Jones died in 1961.

Rev. Carroll Green, pastor, officiated at the service. Burial was in the Hale Center Cemetery under the direction of Freeman Funeral Home.

SURVIVORS include two sons, Billy N. and Bobby, both of Dimmitt; a sister, Mrs. Flo Norfleet of Hale Center; and four grandchildren. Mrs. Jones' nephews served as pallbearers.

Country-western shows are booked

Two country and western music shows are scheduled in Dimmitt next month.

JEAN SHEPARD, country-western singing star out of Nashville, will appear in DHS auditorium Friday night, April 21, under the sponsorship of the Dimmitt Young Farmers and KDHN Radio.

Accompanying Miss Shepard will be the Second Fiddles, five-piece western band. The evening will feature two 45-minute shows with a 15-minute intermission. Tickets will be $3.50 each at the door, but will be sold in advance at $3 each, the Young Farmers said.

ON SATURDAY night, April 29, the Dimmitt Lions Club will sponsor a return engagement of the Roy, N.M., Lions Club's traveling western music variety show.

The Lions Club voted Tuesday to sponsor the show, which played to an enthusiastic audience here last year. Ticket prices will be announced later, Boss Lion Chet Braafladt said.

Portales lady dies here Tuesday

Services were held Wednesday afternoon in Wheeler Starlight Chapel in Portales for Mrs. Joann Cooper, 81, of Portales. She was the mother of Mrs. Sylvia Moore and Mrs. Maxine Brock of Dimmitt.

MRS. COOPER died Tuesday in Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt after a brief illness. She had been a resident of New Mexico since 1933 and had lived in Portales since 1949.

Harold McCollum of Dimmitt officiated at the service assisted by A. A. McInroe of Hereford. Burial was in Portales Cemetery, under direction of Wheeler Mortuary.

Volleyball tourney slated

Fabulous Bobbies of '32 rewrote the record book

The 1932 Dimmitt Bobbies, under Coach Henry Loter, set a new record in the Southern Association of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) when they won the state basketball championship.

BY TROUNCING the Celeste Blue Devils 42-34 in the Celeste gymnasium in the final game of the 1932 AAU tournament, the Bobbies became the first team to win the state championship two succeeding years.

Members of that team will be honored at the DHS Ex-Students' Association Reunion Saturday, along with the state championship teams of 1952. The Texas AAU championship tournament opened March 17, 1932, in Celeste with 21 teams competing for the state title.

Dimmitt was scheduled to play Farmersville in the first round. But Farmersville forfeited and the Bobbies advanced to second-round play.

THE BOBBIES won their way into the finals by conquering Pike, 53-10; Dublin, 37-27; and Howard, 59-21.

In winning the state championship again in '32, the Bobbies broke several state records. Not only were they the only team to repeat as champions after the Texas AAU was organized, but also were the first team to place two forwards on the all-state team two years in succession, and the only team to ever win the championship by such a wide margin.

Both Ona Fay Smith and Frankie Senters were named to the all-state team as forwards in both '31 and '32. Elaine Dyer, Bobbie guard, was also named to the all-state team.

ONA FAY scored 26 points on 12 field goals and two free throws in the title game. Frankie rounded out the scoring with 16 points in the same game.

In the four years preceding the 1932 season, the Bobbies played approximately 100 games and lost only five. One of the losses was a tie on the Bobbies' home court. The Bobbies never lost a game on their home territory during the winning spree.

At the end of the first quarter in the state championship game, the Bobbies led, 10-7. But Celeste overcame the deficit and forged out in front by two points shortly after the second period opened. They soon lost their lead and trailed, 20-13, at the half. Old newspaper clippings show no account of second half play.

A SILVER loving cup was awarded to the Bobbies for first place.

One telegram the Bobbies received just prior to the final game requested them to "telephone 99 collect each quarter during the championship game."

The Castro County News added another item of interest concerning the tournament.

"A GREENVILLE businessman inquired of Rit Marshall of Celeste just how Dimmitt managed to put out so many fast teams. Marshall explained that a Dimmitt man, one 'Goose' Ramey, had a testing ground, completely enclosed with net wire. In the fall of the year several hundred half-grown jackrabbits were rounded up and driven in this large pen. Candidates for the basketball team are then taken to the Ramey farm and put in the pen with the rabbits. Those who catch the most rabbits within an hour's time make the team."

"Editor's note: Team members for the past two years have an average of 46 rabbits each. Confidentially, Mr. Marshall, this is only a preliminary test."

Members of the winning team were Frankie Senters, Ona Fay Smith, Irene Waggoner, Ruth Waggoner, Elaine Dyer, Ruth Wright, Tina Mae Wright, Ozeta Hawkins, Lala Wright, Pauline Hembree, Grace Winkle and Lilla Mae Smith.

Democratic Executive Committee endorses anti-busing measure

The Castro County Democratic Executive Committee Saturday endorsed an anti-busing referendum that will be on the primary election ballot May 6.

THE REFERENDUM will call for a federal constitutional amendment to prohibit the forced busing of students to achieve racial balance in public schools.

Both the Democratic and Republican executive committees in Texas decided two weeks ago to let the busing referendum on the ballot to encourage voter turnout and demonstrate Texas sentiments to federal authorities. The local committee both approved and endorsed the referendum, according to Carl King, county Democratic chairman.

The explosive issue of forced busing became a major factor in the recent Florida primaries and the busing referendum in Texas may have played a part in Alabama Gov. George Wallace's decision to openly seek Democratic presidential delegate votes in Texas. Wallace recently opened state campaign headquarters in Austin.

THE REFERENDUM will read: For-Against — "No public school student shall because of his race, creed or color be assigned to or required to attend a particular school. This referendum applies to the required busing of public school students and provides for equal quality education for all public school students."

The county committee meeting Saturday was on wording—that to vote against forced busing, a person must vote "for" a negative, or "no one shall" proposal.

"THIS MIGHT be confusing to some people, although it's one of the more clearly worded ones I've seen on this subject," King said. "Because of the wording, a vote 'for' the proposition is a vote against the mandatory busing of public school students."

Local Democrats set conventions

In a called meeting Saturday afternoon, the County Democratic Executive Committee fixed the order of candidates' names on the May 6 ballot and set the dates for the 1972 precinct and county conventions.

THE ORDER of candidates' names in contested races were set by a drawing.

All precinct conventions will be held at 2 p.m. May 6 at the various precinct voting sites. At these meetings, those attending will elect voting delegates to the county Demo convention.

The county convention will be Saturday, May 13—a week after the primary election. At that time five delegates will be elected to the state convention to be held June 13 in San Antonio.
