

'Judgment Day' is coming Tuesday

Tuesday is judgment day, as voters throughout Castro County and the nation trek to the polls to determine leadership positions for the next two to six years.

Headlining the ticket is the presidential race between Ronald Reagan and Walter Mondale. Independent Lyndon LaRouche is also on the ballot.

While that race may shape America's policy for the next four years, voters in the county and the rest of the 19th Congressional district will be choosing from new faces to replace Kent Hance, and voters throughout the state will be balloting to replace retiring 24-year senate veteran John Tower.

Don Richards and Larry Combest are vying for the seat Hance vacated in order to run for US Senate. Hance was narrowly edged by Lloyd Doggett in a June runoff. Richards is a former Hance aide, while Combest is a seven-year veteran of Tower's office staff. The two are featured in a story on page 1-B of this issue of the News.

When Tower announced his retirement almost two years ago, it set off one of the most heated Senate races since the Lyndon Johnson-Coke Stevenson battle of 1950. In fact, Doggett did not have a much larger margin of victory over Hance in the 1984 runoff than Johnson enjoyed over Stevenson 34 years ago.

Doggett, an Austin state senator for 10 years, and Gramm, a six-year veteran of the House of Representatives, have run a heated race for Tower's seat.

There are only three other contested races on the ballot, including the Supreme Court Chief Justice race between John Hill and John Bates; Sam Houston Clinton and Virgil E. Mulanax for place one on the Court of Criminal Appeals; and John Thomas Henderson and Mack Wallace for Railroad Commissioner.

There are also eight proposed amendments to the state constitution on the ballot. Those amendments, as well as district and statewide races, are included in the League of Women Voters "Voting Guide," included in this issue of the News.

There are no locally contested races on the ballot, as they were decided in the May primary election. Curtis Snitker is the lone candidate for the county commissioner Precinct 1 spot to replace Edd Bennett, while Jeff Robertson runs unopposed for the Precinct 3 place after defeating incumbent Jimmie Howell last spring.

A sample ballot appears on page 2-B sponsored by the First State Bank of Dimmitt.

Where to Vote

Here are the polling places for Tuesday's general election:

Precinct 1 - County Courtroom, 1st floor, Courthouse;
 Precinct 2 - Community Room, Basement, Courthouse;
 Precinct 3 - District Courtroom, 2nd floor, Courthouse;
 Precinct 4 - Probation Office, 2nd floor, Courthouse;
 Precinct 5 - H & S Farm Supply, south of Nazareth;
 Precinct 6 - Farmers State Bank, Hart;
 Precinct 7 - Bethel Community Building;
 Precinct 8 - Hunter residence, Jumbo community;
 Precinct 9 - Summerfield Elevator;
 Precinct 10 - First Baptist Church, Sunnyside;
 Precinct 11 - Flagg Grain;
 Precinct 12 - Nazareth Community Center;
 Precinct 13 - Arney Community Room;
 Precinct 14 - Frio Baptist Church;
 Precinct 15 - Easter Community Building;
 Precinct 16 - Sunnyside Community Building.

Absentee balloting will end tomorrow at 5 p.m. at the county clerk's office, on the first floor of the courthouse. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

CHANGING OF THE GUARD?—That's what Don Richards is hoping for, and that's why he was in Dimmitt Tuesday, along with outgoing Representative Kent Hance, stumping for votes. Richards is running against Larry Combest for Hance's House seat.

Hospital takes lead with AHD pact

Getting a jump on other Texas public hospitals, and Texas lawmakers, the Castro County Hospital District has agreed to pay the Amarillo Hospital District for care provided to indigent neonatal patients by Northwest Texas Hospital.

According to the Task Force on Indigent Care, it is the first, and only, agreement of its kind in the state. Announcing the agreement at an Amarillo news conference last Friday, CCHD board president James Welch said, "AHD is having a problem maintaining their expensive neonatal health unit. Our interest is in helping them keep the unit for the area. If the neonatal unit cannot be maintained in Amarillo, the nearest hospitals with such facilities are in Albuquerque, Dallas, and Oklahoma City."

"This is a fair situation for us," Welch explained. "That is an extremely expensive (neonatal) unit to maintain, and it costs a lot for the care provided. We will be paying $10,000 to the AHD, and receive $100,000 worth of care in return. Once the first $100,000 is used up by us, we would pay another $10,000 for another $100,000 worth of care. The $10,000 is like a premium for insurance." CCHD will be limited to a liability of 10% of its claims when charged by AHD for use of the neonatal unit at NWTX, no matter what the actual expense is.

School reform program slated Monday at DHS

County residents will get another chance to investigate the state's new education reform program at a public forum Monday night at 7:30 at the Dimmitt High school auditorium.

The forum is sponsored by the Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth school districts, and will be moderated by Hart school board president Harold Bob Bennett.

Dr. Paul Dunn, a Levelland dentist and sole West Texas member of the newly-reorganized State Board of Education; State Representative Pete Laney of Hale Center; and State Senator Bill Sarpalius of Canyon will answer questions, problems, and criticisms from county teachers and school officials. Parents and patrons will also have an opportunity to ask questions of the three state officials.

Hart school superintendent Ted Averitt, who spearheaded the effort, said, "There have been several 'informational' meetings on the school reform package, but we wanted to give everyone interested a chance to ask state officials about all the changes in our educational system. We know that a lot of folks, not just those involved in the schools, have questions and criticisms, and we want to give everyone an opportunity to find out what the school reform package is all about."

Why I will vote REPUBLICAN

By DEANNE CLARK
 County Democratic Party Chairman

I will vote Republican this year because I LOVE FREEDOM. Voting for Republicans better insures freedom for all by:

1. Protecting the US militarily;
2. Protecting the rights of states to govern themselves;
3. Protecting the rights of individuals, particularly through preservation of the Right to Work and the Right to Bear Arms;
4. I believe conservative Republicans will continue to work hard to hold down government spending, reduce the deficit, and help all ages and classes of people by holding down inflation.

Farmers hire Clayton to lead energy fight

Former speaker of the Texas House, Bill Clayton of Springlake, will be going to bat for West Texas agribusiness when the next state legislature convenes, lobbying for price regulation and quality control of rural natural gas.

The Texas Agricultural Energy Users Association was formed by Texas Corn Growers Association President Carl King, Bill Cleavinger of Wildorado and President of the West Texas-New Mexico Sugar Beet Growers Association, and Ray Joe Riley, a member of both organizations.

"We didn't come in here to try to take over the High Plains Gas Users Association, or the North Plains GUA," King explained. "We formed this organization to represent all agribusiness-farmers, ginners, elevator people, anyone in rural areas that we believe are getting ripped-off by the energy folks."

"The Natural Gas Energy Act of 1974 was a partial deregulation of the industry," King said, "and it was a license to rip-off non-urban natural gas users. They (Cabot Corporation, who recently purchased most of Westar's lines in the area) can raise or lower their prices just by saying they are going to raise or lower them. We have no leverage, and they have to answer to no one. We want to see these gas companies come under the authority of the Public Utilities Commission, or someone in Austin, to provide some sort of control.

BILL CLAYTON
 ... New farm lobbyist

King, Cleavinger, and Riley met with Clayton three weeks ago in Springlake and explain (Continued on Page 14)

Why I will vote DEMOCRAT

By OSCAR WYLIE
 County Democratic Party Chairman

I will vote the Democratic side of the ticket on Nov. 6, because I believe the people of this country will be better off when the Democratic president is in office. Mondale understands the problems that we have in agriculture and told several Castro County farmers that the farm problems would be a top priority if he is elected. President Reagan has never even admitted there is trouble, so how is he going to solve the problems if he doesn't know there are any. He stated on television that he thought farm income was about 50% higher than it was four years ago. In 1983 real net farm income was about half the level it was in 1979 and that was lower than at any time since the Great Depression, only now we don't say depression. They say recession and that the recession is over. Are you really better off than you were four years ago?

The last four presidents have embargoed farm products. Mr. Nixon was first and Mr. Ford was second. This was OK because the embargo was only on farm products. But when Mr. Carter put on an embargo, it went farther — stopping travel and even stopping the U.S. Olympic team. This brought out the news media. All newspapers and television and radio had big stories and used it time and time again to blast the President. Four years ago, then presidential-candidate Reagan, said if he was elected he would never embargo farm products, but President Reagan put an embargo on farm products and called it economic sanctions.

Reagan is a president for the rich. He has cut many benefits from Social Security and also 25% of education. He has cut SBA loans when 98% of the businesses in this country are in this bracket. All of these cuts after his new tax break benefitted only the rich, like his vice-president.

He promised to balance the budget and it is now $300 billion in the red. All he needs is four more years, and everything is going to be rosy. Prosperity is just around the corner. Mr. Reagan is a showman. He is doing the best job of acting he has ever done, but he will not answer the questions on the issues that face this nation. Let's send him back to Hollywood. Vote on Tuesday, Nov. 6 and vote Democratic.

Gladys Leeth flew to Houston recently to visit her daughter, Sandra and husband, Buddy and son Greg Michaels. They all went to Waco for the parents weekend at Baylor University, where their son Mark is a sophomore. They had a wonderful time. There was a special program on Friday night with good entertainment and the emcee was a ventriloquist (he has been on TV). The speech and music majors were part of the program. On Saturday they served barbecue and all the trimmings and ice cream sandwiches for dessert.

Jan Burleson, Joyce Adrian, Audrey Shottenkirk and Rae Casey went to Albuquerque, N.M. recently to the "Hot Air Balloon Fest." They were guests of Marty Catoe, who had a fun weekend planned for them.

There were 135,000 people to see the 450 balloons ascend. It was a beautiful sight.

They went up on the train to the top of Sandia Peak to eat at the "High Finance," where the food and atmosphere were great, went shopping in Old town Albuquerque, where there are many unique shops and restaurants. One of the most interesting being the Christmas Store, where they had many decorated trees depicting different countries.

Before returning they went on the other side of Sandia Peak to see the pretty foliage which was starting to turn to the beautiful fall colors.

Bobby and Wanda Murdock were in Lubbock last week and visited with Royce Moore. He said to give all the Dimmitt people his regards. (Royce has driven one of the Charter Buses for the Dimmitt Bobcat Band for a number of years). He said his daughter, Monica, will graduate from Tech in December, then is getting married Dec. 28.

Winfred Fuller has been a patient in the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo recently, but has now been moved to the Heritage Convalescent Center, at 1009 Clyde Street, Room 10B, Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackwood have just returned from a fishing trip to Corpus, where they caught a lot of fish. They met their nephew and family from Houston while there.

Since returning from the trip they have had another nephew and family visiting them from Santa Barbara, Calif.

Maxine Myers and Ruth Cochran took advantage of the beautiful sunshine on Saturday and went to Amarillo to do some early Christmas shopping.

Let's everyone support the Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and attend their holiday luncheon and bazaar at the Castro County Exposition Building on Friday, Nov. 2.

Helen Richardson, Elizabeth Huckabay, Madge Robb, Cleo Forson, and Faun Welker had lunch at the Caison House in Hereford on Sunday and then attended the Community Concert of Rostal & Schaffer — Duo Pianist.

Other relatives were Linda Hance of Denver and daughter Tracey of Dallas, and Paige Compton of Lubbock, Kent and Carol Hance and children, Ron and Susan of Falls Church, Va., Boyd Hodges of Tulsa and Rick and Sheralyn Bowersock and small son Kent Andrew of Wichita Falls — all attended the wedding of Keri Hodges and Michael Ferguson.

Mary Lou Frazier and her sister and brother-in-law Nell and Armond Hole from Lamesa have just returned from a very nice trip where they visited a sister, Earlene Bowser in Las Vegas, Nev. and on to Los Angeles, Calif. to visit another sister Emma Beth Brinker.

Congratulations to Bryan and Sherry Irons on their new addition to their family. Sherry gave birth to an 8 lb., 4 oz. baby girl on Saturday Oct. 20, and they named her Ashley Michelle. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Al Irons, and Mr. and Mrs. James Horton, both of Hart.

Elmer and Mauzee Youts visited their daughter and son-in-law Pat and A. P. Sligh in Monahans and also their granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. Robby Robinson and Joshua and Julie Greathouse in Midland.

Out of town guests attending were Jack and Chollis George, Nance, Jim and Courtney English, all from Tucumcari, N.M., Cletha's sister Ella Mae and O. V. Barker from Bells, Karen Sue and Buffie Thorton from Plainview. Attending from Dimmitt were C.A. and Oleada Hance, Martha Isaacs, Jim and Floyce George, Danny Shelly, Tisha, Brandi and Ramey Rice, Gerald, Patty, Carla, Camille and Curt Summers, Dub, Pauline and Danny George. Also a great host of friends came by in the afternoon for cake and coffee and to wish Cletha a happy birthday. Cletha and her family want to say thanks to all for making this a special day for her.

Recently, W.J. and Sara Hill went to London and other parts of jolly old England with a group of veterinarians from across the "colonies." While in London, they stayed at the lovely Churchill Hotel which is very near to the great shopping streets of London. A few of the places in London W. J. and Sara visited were the Tower of London, where London actually began, St. Paul's Cathedral, and Westminster Abby where the kings and queens are crowned. St. Paul's Cathedral is immense and very beautiful. It took 40 years between 1673 and 1713 to build the church. Those were the days before power tools and cranes! It would be an impossibility to build it today, Sara says. The second miracle is that St. Paul's survived all the bombings during WWII.

One day the Hills rode "The Tube" to Wimbledon to see Centre Court. The grass tennis courts are so pretty. Then they went on to Chelsea Street to see the punk rockers in their "get ups." Now they are a sight to make your eyes sore — hair shaved except through the middle of their heads. They dye their hair various colors such as pink and/or green and back comb it to make it stick up a foot high! They wear strange makeup and pierce their ears and nose numerous times and extend chains between their ears and nose!

The Hills took several side trips outside of London. One day they went to see Shakespeare's hometown — Stratford upon the Avon (pronounced Avon) and on to Blenheim Palace — a very large stately home with acres of landscaped grounds. It even has its own ornate chapel. Winston Churchill was inadvertently born at Blenheim. His mother was eight months pregnant and attending a party there. He came whether he was invited or not.

W.J. and Sara certainly recommend the trip to any of you. The trip was a lesson in history, architecture and fish eating.

While in London, W. J. called Connie Nelson-Daniel and visited with her. Connie was thrilled to get to talk to someone from home. She said she was homesick for Mexican food, her folks, and Castro County in general.

Connie and her husband Larry are Methodist Ministers serving a year in West Yorkshire, England.

On Sunday Oct. 21 the reunion of the Moore family was held at the IOOF lodge in Dimmitt to celebrate the birthday of J.B. Moore and Omega Johnson.

Attending the annual celebration from Dimmitt were J.B. and Thelma Moore, C.J. and Omega Johnson, Art and Christell Wilcox, and Donald Moke.

Out of town participants were Orval and Sammie Hughlett of Bartlesville, Okla., Carol Dennis and family of Lawton, Okla., and Larry and Gale Moore and family of Altus, Okla. Roy and Christeen Taack of Hart, Jackie and Colleen Byrd and family of Crane, Douglas Moke and family of Amarillo, Carl and Beverly Russell of Lubbock, Imogene McKinney of Houston, and Zane and Viola Payne of Odessa.

Some of the young people visiting back home in Dimmitt this past weekend were: Cara Higgs, Brad Holcomb, Jeff Watts, Debbie and Connie Dennis, Shawn Jackson, Roxanne Gabel, Juanita and Sergio Velasquez.

We extend our best wishes and prayers to our friends who are in out-of-town hospitals: Mrs. Dickie (Sandra) Wright, High Plains Baptist Hospital; Luther (Joe) Pybus, (father of Doug Pybus); Bill Pybus, Bivins Rehabilitation Center (Doug's uncle); Mrs. Roxie Bell, Mother Frances Hospital in Tyler, mother of Mrs. Joe (Joyce) Higgs; Mrs. E. D. (Robbie) Morgan, Methodist Hospital, Lubbock, mother of Mrs. James (Glenda) Sims;

Mrs. Betty Cartwright, Methodist Hospital, Lubbock; Mrs. Minnie Salmon, St. Anthony's in Amarillo mother of Mrs. Arthur (Melvina) Oakley; and Mrs. Trudy Dennis, West Gate (King's Manor) in Hereford.

We shall miss our Dimmitt residents who have recently moved out of town: Mrs. Brenda Andrews, 1233 I Bldg. 3, Meadow Creek Circle North, Irving, Texas 75038; Mr. and Mrs. Bob (Sue) Caddell, Melony and Michelle, Box 1337 #5 Idlewood, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Be sure and take a look at the County Courthouse landscaping project. We all appreciate Judge Polly Simpson and our county commissioners for keeping their part of the town square so attractive. There is a new ramp on the west entrance, and new shrubbery on either side of the north walkway.

Some of the newest residents of the South Hills Manor are Mrs. David (Ann) Hays' parents from Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl (Rosa Mae) Lance.

Sunday lunch guests of the Milton Bagwells were Dr. and Mrs. Fred (Margaret) Teague of Plainview. Dr. Teague was the pulpit guest of the FBC Sunday and serves as academic dean at Wayland Baptist University.

C. A. and Oleta Hance, and their daughters, Martha Isaacs of Dimmitt and Sondra Honea of Dumas, have returned from their trip to the Bonham area to visit relatives. In Bells, they helped celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of C.A.'s sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Barker. They also visited with Brenda Andrews.

The RESPECTED WORD

The bible is a book translated into every known language. It is the word that men have died for, in order that it may be available to all men. It is the textbook for God's people.

The bible, itself, is not worshipped, but is respected, for it is the story of God and his relationship to man. It is man's guide for worship and daily living.

Attend church regularly, study, and seek God's will in your life.

"I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

'PRETTY ALL YEAR 'ROUND' is how the home of John and Sue Merritt at 700 Maple is described by the Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce Beauty Spot Committee. Sculptured shrubs, shade trees and evergreens add to the landscaping all year, while white mums border the house in fall, and various flowering plants decorate the front flower bed. Each spring, bulbs planted in the fall add to the beauty of the well-kept yard. Nominations for the semi-monthly honor of Residential Beauty Spot will resume in the spring.

Police Calls

Local law enforcement officials covered three accidents, two thefts by juveniles, a case of criminal mischief, and several incidents involving intoxication.

Saturday at 10 p.m., a 1976 Buick four-door driven by Matias Romero, 55, of Dimmitt, sideswiped a 1982 Chevrolet four-door driven by Ramon Lopez, 16, of Dimmitt. Lopez was facing east on East Bedford, attempting to make a left turn onto NE 7th. Romero's vehicle, westbound on Bedford, swerved into the turning lane and struck Lopez's vehicle, and continued down the road for 40 feet before finally stopping.

Romero was cited for not having liability insurance and for failure to drive in a single lane. His vehicle had fairly heavy damage, and he complained of possible injury. Oscar Balderas, 14, a passenger in Lopez's car, was uninjured.

Last Thursday morning, a 1974 Buick two-door driven by Rene Gil, 34, of Dimmitt, turned in front of a 1981 Olds four-door driven by Elizabeth Sams, 35, of Dimmitt. Gil was attempting a left turn at the signal at the intersection of Broadway and Bedford when his car was struck by Sams'. Gil was cited for failure to yield right of way and also for not having liability insurance.

Cinnamon Cox, 15, of Dimmitt was cited for driving without a license and failure to yield right of way. On Oct. 23, she backed her 1978 GMC Blazer, which had been parked in the 100 block of SE 2nd, into the side of a 1980 Ford Ranger driven by Angie Catano, 16, of Dimmitt. Catano had been driving north on SE 2nd. No injuries were reported, but both vehicles sustained damages.

Two cases of theft involving juveniles were reported Oct. 22 at Dimmitt Middle School. In one incident, a 13-year-old was apprehended with a stolen corset, valued at $750, in his possession. The other case involved two juveniles, 12 and 15, in the theft of a Bike brand black leather glove with the fingers cut off, which had been taken from the field house. The property was recovered in both cases, and the youths turned over to juvenile authorities.

Kerry Kleman of Nazareth reported an incident of criminal mischief Monday at his Sweet Shop in Dimmitt. A window, valued at $50, was broken.

Two men were cited for DWI, misdemeanor. Another was charged with misdemeanor DWI and driving with license suspended, and another got DWI charges, along with driving without a license.

A 36-year-old Dimmitt man was arrested Saturday for public intoxication and resisting arrest. After being stopped Friday for DWI, not having a driver's license, and no liability insurance, a 50-year-old man from Halfway was also discovered to have an outstanding fine against him in the county.

A 38-year-old man from Hart is in jail under $10,000 bond after arraignment for delivery of a controlled substance.

A Dimmitt man, 24, was jailed on criminal mischief charges when he forfeited bond.

Nino, defense kick Friona, 3-0

By JOHN BROOKS

Before last Friday's game between his Chieftains and the Dimmitt Bobcats, Friona coach Tommy Moss said, "We had sunshine all day in Friona. We didn't hit any clouds until about 10 miles west of Dimmitt. Then, it started this light drizzle. I sure do wish it would clear up."

Bobby Nino, and the Dimmitt defense, combined to open up a deluge on the Chieftains, as the Bobcats used a big-play defense and a 27-yard Nino field goal to down Friona, 3-0.

The win assures the Bobcats of a break-even season, with their record now at 5-3; however, the Bobcats are now 2-2 in District 2-3A play, and hold their playoff destiny in their hands. The loss, Friona's second, virtually eliminated the Chieftains from the playoffs.

Friona had many chances to avert the shutout and to win the game, but two kicking-game snafus and several Bobcat defensive stands kept the Chieftains off the scoreboard.

One of the biggest Bobcat stands of the night came on their first defensive series, after Todd Durham sailed an against-the-wind punt to the Dimmitt 39. Alfredo Mata, who was seeing his first action at tailback since a shoulder injury four games ago, carried the Chieftains to a first down at the Dimmitt two. On three tries, though, the Chieftains never penetrated past the line of scrimmage, and, on fourth down, a bad snap from center foiled Friona's first field goal effort.

Linebacker Eddie Jordan, one of a dozen Dimmitt defensive stars, intercepted Ricky Barnett's first pass of the game on the Chieftains next possession to set up Nino's field goal.

Jordan, who put in a yeoman, two-way effort before leaving the game late in the third quarter near the point of exhaustion, picked off the pass in the middle zone at the Dimmitt 35 and plodded to the Friona 29.

Tailback Mike Love, making his debut since suffering a deep thigh bruise in the Bobcats 10-6 win in Tulia three weeks ago, rushed for 17 yards on his first attempt of the night, then gained to the nine on the next

Dimmitt JV falls, 16-0

Friona tripled Dimmitt's JV in offensive production en route to a 16-0 win last Thursday in Friona.

The game was scoreless until late in the third quarter, when Friona culminated a long drive with a one-yard plunge.

The Chieftains iced the game with a 13-yard scoring run with 1:17 left to play.

north end of Bobcat Stadium for the winning points.

Friona started its next threat at the Chieftain 45, and moved to the Bobcat 11 in 10 plays. A 10-yard holding penalty forced Friona back to the Dimmitt 22 before Barnett hit fullback Brent Gatlin at the 14. Friona's second field goal try went awry when a high snap to holder Chris Brown was fumbled. Mark Shackelford recovered for Dimmitt at his own 26.

Dimmitt failed to convert on its only two other good offensive opportunities in the game, both in the late second quarter. After a short Chieftain punt to the Friona 28, quarterback Woody Glass ran the option up the right sideline for 15 yards, and fullback Mark Smothermon added two yards. When Love was stopped for just one yard on two plays, and Glass couldn't hit wingback Joe Alvarez in the flat; the Cats gave up the ball on downs.

The other opportunity came with a minute to go in the first half. Glass picked up 12 yards on the option, then hit Alvarez in the right flat for five yards. A pass interference call gave Dimmitt a first down at the Friona 31, but the Bobcats were beset by a holding call on the next play. Love picked up five yards, before another five-yard toss to Alvarez to the Friona 32 with :04 left before halftime. A 50-yard Nino field goal effort was a yard short at the buzzer.

In the second half, Dimmitt gained just 26 net yards; in fact, the best offensive play of the last two quarters for the Bobcats may have been the only punt Durham nailed all night.

The sophomore kicked six other times for a 20.5-yard-average, but booted a 69-yarder late in the third quarter. Only Doug Nelson had a chance to down the ball for the Bobcats, but the ball nestled squarely on the goalline just out of Nelson's reach for a touchback.

Friona drove the ball smartly down the field, only to have Dimmitt drive the ball down play. After a timeout to avoid a delay of game call, Mark Coker, spelling Love, lost a yard. On fourth down, Nino's kick cleared the track at the its throat as the Chieftains neared the end zone. Mixing off-tackle runs by Mata, and his understudy, Brad Moyer, and outside dashes by John Aguirre, the Tribe moved from its own 20 to the Dimmitt 31. On first down, Moyer was stopped cold; on second down, Barnett threw an incomplete pass; Aguirre was stopped after a two-yard pick-up when Smothermon pursued the width of the field to stop the wingback; on fourth down, Smothermon and Durham knocked away a Barnett pass.

The Chieftains mounted a last-ditch drive from their own 32 with :58 left to play. Three passes to tight end Mark Coronado, for 15, 11, and 14 yards, and two Aguirre runs set up the Chieftains at the Dimmitt 16 with :14 left. Faced with no timeouts, Barnett was forced to throw to the end zone, and Glass intercepted for a touchback with :09 on the clock. On the next play, Glass fell with the ball, to the bottom of an eight-man Dimmitt dogpile to keep the Bobcats playoff hopes alive.

DHS freshmen end scoreless streak

Dimmitt's freshmen broke their non-scoring string, but fell to Friona, 47-6, in Friona Thursday.

Ricky Majors scored on a two-yard run late in the third quarter to end the streak, but Friona had already racked up 38 points.

JOE ALVAREZ almost intercepts a pass intended for Friona's John Aguirre (20) at the Dimmitt 6-yard line early in the first quarter of Friday night's Bobcat-Chieftain game here. At this point, the Bobcat defense was setting the tone of the game; moments later the Cats held off the Chieftains four plays inside the 2-yard line. Dimmitt went on to win the defensive battle, 3-0.

Naz shuts out Laz, 26-0

By BARBIE STEFFENS
It wasn't pretty, but the Nazareth Swifts took their eighth straight win of the season, 26-0 over the Lazbuddie Longhorns Friday at Nazareth.

The Swifts are now 3-0 in District 2-A north zone play. The Swifts can clinch a playoff berth with a win over Kress this Friday.

Nazareth never punted against the Longhorns, but four turnovers kept Lazbuddie in the game. The Swifts attempted just four passes, and two of those were picked off. All 324 yards the Swifts gained in the game came on the ground.

The football was the hardest thing to control in the early going, with six turnovers in the first quarter and first half of the second quarter. Ricky Backus culminated the Swifts first drive with a six-yard run at 4:40 of the second quarter. Chris Gerber's PAT made it 7-0.

A light drizzle that plagued the first half disappeared in the second half, and Nazareth's ground game, and ball control, returned to normal. Although beset by penalties, the Swifts drove the ball on the opening possession of the third quarter, with Gerber dashing in from 34 yards out. Gerber tacked on the PAT to make it 14-0.

After holding the Longhorns, Nazareth broke it open on a 39-yard option run by Backus. Gerber's PAT failed, leaving the Swifts up, 20-0.

Gerber scored his second touchdown of the night on the next Nazareth drive, going in from the 43 to make it 26-0.

Lazbuddie almost averted the shutout with a drive in the last minutes of the game. The Longhorns drove to the Nazareth 15 before fumbling to the Swifts.

'Horns knock out Wolverines, 18-6

Hart put to rest the hopes of the Springlake-Earth Wolverines to venture into the playoffs with an 18-6 victory Friday at Earth.

Hart is now 1-2 in District 3-AA play, and does not hold its playoff destiny in its hands. A win by Hale Center this week or next would eliminate the Longhorns.

The Longhorns were set back by penalties throughout the first half. The flags ended a promising Hart drive, and aided the lone Wolverine scoring march of the night.

With 9:12 left in the first half, S-E started at its own 32, and drove 68 yards in 10 plays. Danny Randolph hit running back Delwin Britton on a 13-yard scoring toss after the Wolverines had used up over seven minutes. The PAT run for two failed, giving S-E a 6-0 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Longhorns stopped the Wolverines cold, giving up just 15 yards while getting their own offense untracked. Hart took over at the S-E 40 and scored just four plays later. Brett Ritter found Arturo Guzman down the right sideline for a 26-yard touchdown toss. The PAT failed, leaving the score knotted at six with :22 left in the third period.

The two teams kept each other pinned down until the last three minutes of the game. With his Longhorns pinned down at their own 10, facing third-and-10, coach Mark CELEBRATION!—That's what Hart quarterback Kerry Newsome, tailback Johnny Washington, and lineman Manuel Ramirez are doing after the Longhorns won their first district game since 1980, 18-6 at Springlake-Earth Friday night. Washington carried the ball just twice in the game, but both carries came in the last three minutes of the game, and both went for touchdowns.

Stroebel sent tailback Johnny Washington wide on a sweep. Several good blocks and 90 yards later, the Longhorns were up, 12-6.

To keep any post-season hopes alive, S-E was forced to make things happen. Things did happen, but they were all bad. A run for no gain and three sacks gave the Longhorns the ball at their own 19. With 1:09 left, Washington again swept right end to make things final, 18-6.

The win was the first in district play for the Longhorns since 1980, and assures the Longhorns of a .500 season for the first time since the 1976 playoff campaign.

Cotton Prices and the '85 Farm Bill

Going into the '84 crop there was a realistic hope for good prices. At the time of sign-up it didn't look like there'd be much of a deficiency payment. The demand was there, surplus was low, and carry over stocks were at a level we could live with. So a lot of producers went outside the program.

This year cotton yields are good, not great, but better than the 330 averages we've been getting lately. But the price is not there. Consumer demand is off; mill demand is off. Cotton farmers are facing no demand this year and loan price; surplus next year and loan price. The base loan rate is 55.2 cents for the South Plains and we're lucky if our cotton will average 50 cents. Farmers can't put their cotton in a government loan and make a living at it.

Part of the reason for the low demand and low price is the high value of the dollar overseas. Also China has come into the market with 20 to 25 million bales taking over some of the markets we developed. We need additional export credits or restrictions so that when we develop a market it has to stay with us for a certain period of time.

I believe another reason is the $50,000 payment limitation. With a 400 pound yield and an estimated deficiency payment of 19.8 cents in 1985, it only takes 631.3 acres to reach the payment limitation. That's not good enough to encourage participation by a lot of family farms. We need to raise the limitations so more farms can participate and program controls will be more effective and fair for ever, one.

Also, the present method of figuring the deficiency payment is not fair to us. Market prices for California producers, who historically do not participate in the program as much as we do, drive the market price up and decrease deficiency payments for us. They benefit from receiving a higher price for their product and from our lower market price which increases the deficiency payment they would get otherwise. This is just not fair. We need to seriously consider setting market price on a regional basis so that our payment is based on a fair consideration of our market situation.

We need to do all we can get all the cotton belt producers going in the same direction and participating fairly in program.

This year we made a good crop and look what happened. What's going to happen next year if we don't make a crop?

We can't afford to be pushed aside when the '85 Farm Bill is written. The administration has got to be made aware of the value of our production and participation in farm programs. We contribute more than our share and we deserve to have something directed towards us. Something that will help raise our prices to a profitable level. An effective farm bill must ensure that the price is going to be there. To do that we need more controls on production. It's better to raise 100 acres at a profit than 125 acres at a loss. And a loan is not the answer.

Next year's farm programs must address the price problems of the South Plains. Our future depends on it. I ask your support for Congress to see that this is done, to listen to your problems and suggestions and then to fight for your future when the next farm bill is written.

I farmed in West Texas for most of my life. I know our future depends not only on the weather but on the farm programs made in Washington. I know how hard it is for the family farmer to make a living today.

No one has all the answers, and I don't believe I can change things overnight; but, if elected, I will make the government aware of our critical problem of low prices. I will stand up for the interests of the South Plains when the farm bill is written. And I will meet with the Secretary and his staff before any farm program is written or announced and do everything I possibly can to see that it is fair and effective for West Texas.

I will represent you in Washington. I ask for your support on November 6th.

Hungry teams on tap

Playoff chances are on the line for all three Castro County football teams against three underdogs.

Dimmitt faces the winless Whirlwinds in Floydada with the Bobcats playoff hopes resting in their hands; Hart, still in the District 3-AA hunt, hosts Bovina; and Nazareth, undefeated on the year, faces the second place Kangaroos at Kress.

DIMMITT AT FLOYDADA

This game has had a bearing on football fortunes for several years. It has helped determine how seasons would go, district championships, and, in 1976, a bi-district championship.

Floydada has dominated the series, but most of those wins came during the reign of coach L. G. Wilson. Wilson is now at Tulia, and coach Joe Paty is in during something Floydada hasn't faced before: a winless season.

The Whirlwinds have an 0-8 record, and have scored just 38 points while giving up 210. But, Coach Clifford Smith says the Whirlwinds are doing some things offensively that could break a game open at any time.

"Their biggest weapon is wide receiver Derrick Jenkins," Smith said. "They like to throw the ball a lot, and he is their big receiver. We'll see them run out of the shotgun a lot. They'll run out of the wishbone, and flex backs out of the wishbone and throw the ball. Of course, when they run the ball out of the wishbone, they're dangerous. Halfback Mike Saens is the most dangerous running back they have, but they won't run the ball more than 50 percent of the time. They've been averaging closer to 60 percent throwing, and that's going to put a lot of pressure on us."

"We'll be bigger than they are," said Smith. "On offense, they go about 170 lbs. a man, and on defense, they average 190. They have their two biggest men right in the middle of the defensive line, but the people we'll have to be concerned with are end Clay Coverance, and Saens at linebacker. Saens has played both ways since he was a freshman. He'll have over 40 games of experience each way Friday night, and it shows. He's good."

BOVINA AT HART

Hart, like Dimmitt, will be facing a winless opponent Friday night.

Bovina hasn't won all year, and, in its last two games, has been blown out. The Mustangs lost two weeks ago to Abernathy, 77-0. Last week, Olton won, 75-6. Hart coach Mark Stroebel is worried by two things.

"We've got to get fired up. When you are facing someone who hasn't won a game all year, and has been blown out of a few games, it's a little hard to get enthused. But, we're still in the race, and that should be incentive enough. We need some help this week to stay in the hunt, but we've got to win," said Stroebel.

"It's hard to prepare for them, because they do so many different things on offense," Stroebel added. "They do something different every week, different formations, moving people around. Not only that, they are HUNGRY. They want a win, and they're not going to give up. They haven't given up all year, at any point in any game."

NAZARETH AT KRESS

The two biggest games of the year are facing the Nazareth

Swifts. Next week, the Farwell Steers play at Nazareth. Friday night, the Swifts go to Kress to take on a dangerous Kangaroo club.

Kress is just a game back of the Swifts in the District 2-A North zone race at 2-1. A loss to the Kangaroos could conceivably knock the 8-0 Swifts out of the playoffs.

"They'll come at us with straight power on offense and defense," said Swifts coach Rex Minshew. "On offense, they'll run the straight-T. Sammy Shannon is their biggest threat on offense. He'll line up at right halfback, then flip-flop over to the left side. They'll flip-flop their best linemen with him, and run from tackle to tackle."

Defensively, the 'Roos will show several different fronts, and will showcase their linebackers.

Kress is the only opponent Castro County teams will play this week that has won a game. The Kangaroos are 4-4 on the season.

October Feature Teacher is Miller

Feature Teacher for October, named by the Dimmitt Classroom Teachers Association, is Charles L. (Les) Miller, third grade teacher at Richardson Elementary.

Miller is in his fourth year of teaching at Dimmitt. He obtained his bachelor's in education from Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, N.M. in 1981, and has completed 26 hours toward a master's in elementary education with an emphasis in administration, also at ENMU.

Born in Las Vegas, N.M., Miller moved to Roswell in 1975, and married his wife, Carla, there in December of 1980.

His hobbies include working on and restoring cars, and riding motorcycles.

A special math project for his class members has them collecting the flip tops for aluminum cans. The tabs are strung together and suspended from the ceiling of the classroom in an attempt to illustrate how many 10,000 is.

"We already have eight or nine thousand, and more donations of tabs will be welcome," Miller said. "Just call 647-4131 or bring them by the school."

"The kids are really enjoying the project and are encouraging their friends and families to help supply tabs," Miller said. "Maybe this way the kids can about dimmitt and castro county by b.m.n.

As readers of the Castro County News know, I have been retired for the past four months, having sold the paper to my son, Don, effective July 1. As I am not a member of the News staff any longer, my views don't necessarily reflect the policy of the paper.

I feel, however, that since my column through the years has reflected my views as a democrat, the party that I believe, through its general policies, is best for the country, I shouldn't remain silent concerning the upcoming election. Time and space won't permit a lengthy column. This is being written Wednesday morning just before press time. However, a point or two especially deserves consideration.

We are told that the national debt has now reached the one trillion six hundred billion mark, and that half of that debt has been incurred during the last five years. Four of those years have been under a republican administration that had promised a balanced budget.

Agriculture is the most important segment of our national economy, but the republican administration fails to recognize its importance. Farmers are in the greatest financial bind since the Great Depression. Republicans are want to run against the policies of the past 50 years, prior to the last election. The most of those years were under democratic administrations, and it was during those years that agriculture had its greatest prosperity and the greatest productive agricultural machine in history was developed. The Democratic Party stands for human rights, when the standing is difficult, for clean air and water, in fact a healthy environment. Peace, sure. Explore all avenues that could possibly lead to a just and enduring peace.

Despite what the republicans, in this campaign, would have you believe, they don't have a monopoly on morality, Christianity, patriotism, motherhood or pumpkin pie.

Of all years and elections that all democrats should stand up and vote and be counted, this is the year.

The straight democratic ticket this year merits the support of every democrat. This is not time for that wornout statement, "I am a democrat, but..." The fact of the matter is, you are a democrat, or you are not a democrat. All of the reasons are weighed in favor of you voting democratic in this all-important election.

A Proud Democrat,
B. M. Nelson

Avie Lewis named Mary Jo Brown's second grade class winner in the Super Music Class Contest at Richardson Elementary.

They were the first music class to achieve 30 days of excellent behavior and participation in music, according to Lewis. Charts are kept for each class, with checkmarks given for outstanding behavior and work. Bonus checks can be earned on special days like testing days.

For their reward, the class is planning their own celebration Friday during music. They will be choosing the activities for class, and will receive a note from Lewis.

"This class has worked hard to learn self-discipline, good manners, and lots of music. They deserve a special hug or pat on the back," Lewis said.

VOTE DEMOCRATIC FROM THE COURTHOUSE TO THE WHITE HOUSE.

"Cross over," the Republicans are urging. "Nobody votes a straight ticket anymore."

Bull.

They want your vote now, but where will they be when we need a realistic, meaningful Farm Bill? Where will they be when we need relief from the gouging that's taking place in health care, utility rates, service rates, defense contracting?

"The Democrat Party isn't the same anymore — it has left you," the Republicans are saying.

Put THAT one under a magnifying glass. The Democratic Party is still — as it has always been — the Party of the People. It's the party that has room for all shades of individual opinion and philosophy. It is — as it has been throughout this century — the party with the vision of a greater America, of a compassionate government dedicated to self-sufficiency, freedom and individual worth; the party with a conscience.

Would you trade that for a party whose very platform and policies are now in the control of single-issue extremist groups? Look at the Republican platform, and at who wrote it, and ask those folks how much freedom they want YOU to have. Ask them to explain their philosophy to you when crippling surpluses and the lack of a farm program keep your crop prices down, or when your Social Security income will no longer pay the bills, or when people can no longer afford your services or your merchandise, or when your local taxes jump again to offset federal program cuts, or when you see billions of dollars being designated for "Star Wars" weapons.

Think about it. Then vote Nov. 6 for the nominees of the Democratic Party. They were nominated by a majority of the nation's voters in the primaries. When we speak, THEY will listen.

ed what they were wanting to do.

"Bill, being an agri-businessman, knows what we are going through, not just with gas, but electricity and other energy, too," King said. "Clayton agreed to take the job, lobbying for us in Austin, with the stipulation that he gets the full backing of the entire agricultural community. He wants no split factions, and wants everyone's full endorsement of his endeavors to get something done to give us some leverage."

King explained that TAEUA wants a full investigation on two fronts-prices, and the quality of natural gas.

"The minimum BTU on this gas is 10.5 BTU per MCF. I don't know what the BTU level is on the gas we're getting, but I know we're getting too much sulfur and air in this gas. The wells are deeper, but we're using more gas than we should. On wells that are the same depth they've always been, we're using more gas than before," King said. "The gas companies don't have to tell anyone what the BTU level is. They have an unregulated monopoly."

"We've talked with many folks in Austin," King said. "We've talked with people at the Texas Department of Agriculture, and in the governor's office, and the time is right for us to do something to get this back under control. The political climate is right for the first time in many years, and the time is right for farmers. Many sections of land have gone back to dryland farming, and a lot of wells have been pulled because of the cost of energy. 70% of our dollars go into energy and interest payments. We need to do something to get those energy dollars reduced. We're not out to kill anyone. Just like they need us, we need the gas."

of the counties to cooperate, it certainly would ease the load for Northwest Texas Hospital," Welch said.

In the last three fiscal years, AHD has seen its out-of-county bad debt almost double, going from $1.9 million in FY 1982 to $3.4 million in FY 1984.

CCHD must obtain permission of the medical staff and administrator on duty at NWTH; pay for transporting the patient to and from Amarillo; ensure the patient is properly stabilized before transfer, or is accompanied by appropriate medical personnel; and agree to move the patient back to Plains Memorial Hospital after sufficient recovery to be treated there.

The agreement also prohibits transferring patients whose insurance benefits, including Medicare and Medicaid, have been exhausted.

The proposal also calls for PMH to accept responsibility for billed charges for patients who are approved indigents under Hill-Burton financial guidelines.

Under the Hill-Burton act, passed in the mid-50's, hospitals receiving federal funds for building must provide uncompensated service, or charity care, equalling at least 10% of federal assistance received annually, or 3% of operating costs minus Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements. A single person must earn less than $4,989 annually, with increments of approximately $1,700 for each additional family member.

Welch told the News, "This is the only agreement we are considering with the AHD at this time. They have not approached us with anything else. We felt that we needed to support this badly-needed unit, and to help hold down costs to everyone in the district."

Richards, Combest set to vie for Hance's House seat

Democrat Don Richards, and republican Larry Combest, are squaring off Tuesday in the 19th Congressional district race.

The two are vying for the seat being vacated by Kent Hance. Hance, who had filled the seat since 1978, failed in his bid for the democratic nomination for U.S. Senate.

The News has included the self-described qualifications of each candidate, along with position statements on several key issues, including budget deficits, nuclear weapons freeze, and agriculture.

RICHARDS

DON R. RICHARDS
Richards, a former Hance aide, is a West Texas native. He is a journalist, and is a graduate of Texas Tech University, and Texas Tech Law School. He is associated with the Lubbock law firm of McWhorter, Cobb, and Johnson.

Richards served in Washington with Hance through the passage of the last farm bill, and worked with Hance on the tax and budget cuts of 1981, as well as other legislation. Richards says, "I have a thorough understanding of the legislative and political process, and I am experienced in federal bureaucracy and solving citizens' problems with federal red tape."

Concerning budget deficits, Richards feels "defense contracting is the largest single area of present taxpayer dollar abuse. Overlapping of spending among the four military branches could be eliminated with centralized purchasing of weapons and supplies."

"Entitlements are one of the fastest growing budget items and should be constantly reviewed," Richards continued. "Basic human services should be maintained, with adequate safeguards to eliminate fraud."

Richards feels he has a good understanding of U.S. and Soviet military capabilities.

"While in Washington, the FBI cleared me for Top Secret security briefings," Richards explained. "I strongly support a bilateral, mutually verifiable freeze, and reduction of nuclear arms agreement between the U.S. and the Soviet Union. In addition to an emphasis on nuclear arms reduction talks with the Soviets, we should include Third World countries, where the greatest threat of nuclear proliferation exists."

Richards feels West Texas farmers must be "protected" in the 1985 Farm Bill, which should be one of the first items on the congressional agenda in January.

"Farmers must have higher support prices and adequate refinancing programs to stay in business or the effects in West Texas will be disastrous on not only farmers, but on all merchants, banks, ag-related businesses and everyone else dependent on a healthy farm economy."

LARRY COMBEST

Combest, a former agricultural aide to retiring U.S. Senator John Tower, is also a Texas native. Combest spent his first 27 years farming, and worked for the ASCS. Since 1978, Combest has been an electronics wholesale distributor in Lubbock. Combest also taught school for one year.

"Because of my background, I know the problems businesspeople face, and I understand the problems facing agriculture, education, and oil and gas. I also feel that I can hit the ground running in Washington," Combest said.

In order to reduce budget deficits, Combest says, "I feel there needs to be a review of all programs, not just from the point of cutting, but rather bringing into line the problems of today. I feel there can be no budget items exempt from review." Combest also supports line-item veto power for the president.

On the nuclear weapons issue, Combest feels the US must strive for a negotiated peace. "For us to ever expect the USSR to negotiate, they must feel it is in their best interest. If we are in a position of being weaker, they would have no reason for a treaty. In order to insure compliance, we must have some means of inspection," Combest said.

Concerning agriculture, Combest feels "the best possible economic condition for farmers, and the rest of the nation, is for farmers to produce at full production at a profit. In order to do this, we must export at least half of our production, and we must establish long-term year-in and year-out markets that we supply on a regular basis. We must put the world on notice that this country is not going to be crowded out of the market by countries who subsidize their exports. It is time to closely examine the export subsidy program for US farm exports. However, we must not abandon the farmer while we are moving in this direction. The farm programs of the past several years cannot be put on the shelf until such time arrives where we can adequately assure farm profit. All of the support programs of the past have actually been subsidies to the consumer, as we have the best, and least expensive, food and fiber in the world."

Hance...waiting and watching

For the first time in 10 years, Kent Hance is not going to be serving Castro County, and a wide area of West Texas, in public office.

He doesn't cherish the idea. "I was talking with Senator Lloyd Bentsen the other day. He saw me, and he didn't say anything at first," Hance said. "He just shook my hand, and shook his head. Then, he made me feel a little worse. He told me there would have been a spot for me on the Senate Ag Committee. Plans were already being made."

The bitter disappointment is easily discerned on Kent Hance's face — the disappointment of seeing a dream so close to reality shattered by 1,000 votes, as Lloyd Doggett roared from behind to take the democratic nomination for US Senate in a June runoff.

"After a race like that, I need to take it easy for a little while," Hance said. "Not just that, but I've been making a lot of appearances for a lot of candidates. I learned the other day that I am the most requested person in the state to make personal appearances with and for candidates. I am 2-1 ahead of Mark White and Lloyd Bentsen. That makes me feel good."

A lot of those folks have been telling Hance what he needs to do for his political future, but that's a decision Hance has not yet made.

"I'm going to take some time to decide what I want to do in the future. I've received several offers to work in Lubbock and Dallas law firms. I'm leaning toward working with a Dallas law firm, and commuting from Lubbock four days a week. I won't decide just exactly what race I will enter for another six months, and it may be next summer before I make a firm commitment," said Hance.

"Jim Mattox is in an extremely vulnerable position, and I know a lot of folks already have me running for his Attorney General seat," Hance said. "I don't know how these indictments against Mattox in Travis County are going to come out, but even if he's innocent, they're going to have an effect. People just don't forget those things."

"No one knows for sure what Bill Hobby is going to do. A bunch of people are saying Bill Hobby is going to retire, but Hobby's not saying, and the lieutenant governor's race is something else I will consider," said Hance.

Just then, the husband of a local teacher came up and asked Hance to run for governor.

"Mark White has made a lot of teachers mad," the husband said. "There's no doubt that we needed a lot of the things that H. Ross Perot and his committee have told us to do. I just think he's done it the wrong way."

"A lot of people have come up and told me the same thing," Hance said. "Not just around here, but I'm talking Victoria to El Paso — statewide, people have expressed displeasure with Mark White. We don't know what he's going to do. He may not run again. That's a wait-and-see deal, but that could be another race to consider."

Then, there's another US Senate race in 1988.

"Lloyd Bentsen has mentioned nothing about retiring, or running for another office, or running for another term. It would sure be nice to have another chance to run for the Senate, and have another chance to serve in Washington," Hance said.

Hance began his 10 years in public service with a bit of an upset, when he unseated 16-year incumbent "Doc" Blanchard in the 31st District State Senate race. Hance served in Austin from 1975-78, then succeeded long-time US Representative George Mahon in 1979.

"One thing I learned from George Mahon, probably the most important thing I learned, was how to disagree without being disagreeable," Hance pointed out. "It is no secret to anyone that I have disagreed at times with many members of my own party, (House Majority Leader) Jim Wright, (Speaker of the House) Tip O'Neill, and two presidents. But I've never cussed anyone. I want to represent the people of my home district, and to do that, you have to be able to get along with anyone and everyone."

"If I had to point out my two biggest highlights of all my time in Congress, I would have to start with the 1981 tax cut bills. We were able to get the exemption raised on the inheritance of farm land. That helped out a lot of folks, especially younger ones wanting to remain in farming. The taxes are still there, but they're not so high as to wipe people out," Hance said.

"Number two would be getting the disaster program reinstated for the 19th District in 1982. This was the only district in the nation to get the disaster program reinstated, and that was something else that was desperately needed," said Hance.

"Those were major pieces of legislation, but there's something that makes me prouder," Hance glowed. A lot of folks have come to me with problems that seemed minor compared to things like farm bills and tax cuts. Those were major problems for those people, though, and I'm just glad I was able to help."

Retiring senator urges vote

On November 6, Americans will make an extremely important decision. They will decide who will be President of the United States for the next four years. This is a monumental responsibility. Many peoples around the world are denied the privilege of choosing their own leaders.

However, over the past 20 years, it has become evident that relatively few people actually exercise their precious right to vote. In fact, Americans vote less often than citizens in any other democracy. Too many people say they feel alienated from the political process and so choose not to vote. They also believe their vote will make no difference. Surveys have shown that non-voters are simply not interested in the candidates and issues.

I believe Americans should be concerned with the political process, and I also believe that everyone's vote is important. For example, a recent Texas primary was decided by about 500 votes — less than two votes per county. It is important that Americans realize the power of the vote and exercise it. Voting has never been easier.

Much has been done in recent years to encourage voter registration and voting.

Legislation has removed most of the barriers that historically prevented people from voting. The Voting Rights Act of 1965 abolished literacy tests as a prerequisite for voting and removed all barriers preventing blacks and other minorities from registering and voting. The 24th Amendment, ratified in 1964, eliminated the poll tax as a qualification for voting, and the 1970 Voting Rights Act Amendment specified that local resident requirements to register and vote should not exceed 30 days. The 26th Amendment gave the right to vote to persons 18 to 21 years of age beginning with the 1972 Presidential election. However, this did not result in an overall increase in voter participation.

The key to increasing voter participation is registration, since most people who are registered usually follow through and vote. Voter registration drives have been underway across the country since the first of the year. A wide variety of organizations, as well as national celebrities, have been involved in this effort. It will be interesting to see if voter participation does indeed increase, and what effect the increased voter turnout will have on the election.

It is especially important that voters not ignore their local races amidst the bustle of the presidential campaign. Decisions made by local officials can have as much an impact on residents of a community as any national issue

For example, it is city and county officials who determine local tax rates, city ordinances, what streets will be paved, when garbage will be collected, what city services will be provided, and so forth.

I urge you to study national and local issues and listen to the candidates. You should vote for the person best representing your views. Do not take the responsibility of voting lightly. Your vote can make a difference.

Lions help Hart fire fund

A new fire station for Hart is one-third of the way home with a $15,000 donation from the Hart Lions Club.

The gift raised the fund total to $21,730. The goal for the station project is $60,000.

Hart city commissioners heard a proposal Monday night to purchase a building from Houston Hamby at 600 Avenue F. A Hart city council spokesman said, "The council believes it would be in everyone's best interest to buy an existing building, and this may be the one we'll get. We won't make any decision until our Nov. 19 meeting," the spokesman said.

The building was located through the Castro County Economic Development Commission.

Fire station chairman, Rev. Jack Lee, assigned various businesses and organizations to be contacted by volunteers for donations to the fire station fund. The city council spokesman said, "We would appreciate any help from any interested individual, business, or organization, whether or not they have a personal interest in better protecting Hart."

Elderly cautioned about medications

Older people take a lot of pills. Although only 11% of the US population is over 65, this group takes about 25% of all prescription drugs — and not always to good effect.

Used carefully and appropriately, drugs can improve the quality of life for the elderly, but they can also cause problems, says Dr. Judith Warren, a gerontologist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economics program.

Some elderly people take incorrect medications, too much medication or a combination of drugs that are not compatible, she says. Then, if they suffer fatigue, confusion or depression, the symptoms may be written off as evidence of simply growing old. The problem may be compounded if the elderly patient's symptoms are inappropriately treated with a tranquilizer or antidepressant.

Drugs are a special problem for the elderly because certain body organs become more responsive to drugs as we age, notes Warren. In addition, as older people take more and more drugs, the likelihood of interactions and side effects increases, along with the chances of making a mistake in dosage.

Warren suggests that family members, concerned friends or healthcare professionals consider the following steps to help protect the elderly from adverse drug effects:

- Encourage a regular review of all medications taken by the patient. Put everything from the medicine cabinet into a bag and take it into the doctor's office. Keeping drugs that were prescribed years ago can be dangerous practice. Over-the-counter sleeping aids, diet pills or laxatives can also interact badly with the prescribed drugs, and prescriptions from more than one physician may have an adverse effect on each other.

- Ask about uppers and downers. Ask the doctor whether mind-altering drugs are really needed and whether they should be taken regularly or just occasionally for a particular episode of insomnia or anxiety, for example. These drugs are too often prescribed for the elderly in an attempt to relieve the effects of life problems such as isolation and loneliness. Getting out of the house, making social contacts and other activities should be considered in place of drugs.

PRPC spotlights Dimmitt mayor

Dimmitt mayor Wayne Collins is featured in the latest issue of "Panhandle Panorama," the monthly newsletter of the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Collins, who replaced R. L. Fleming as mayor in May, also replaced Fleming on the PRPC board of directors, and represents planning and service area three.

- Manage pill-taking. Enter the list of drugs on a calendar and check off each dose as it is taken. Or use a set of small envelopes marked with the time of day. Sometimes a visiting nurse or family member will need to allocate pills dose-by-dose to the envelopes to make sure that the patient is taking the appropriate amount. However, the presence of young children in the household may require a different pill management method for safety's sake.
- Keep a drug schedule as straight-forward as possible. Work with the physician to eliminate drugs that are not strictly necessary and choose those that can be taken once or twice a day instead of more frequently. Selecting pills that look different from one another — as long as this does not affect the quality of treatment — can help the patient keep track.

- Be alert for any new symptoms, especially nonspecific complaints such as fatigue, weight loss or confusion, that could be the adverse effect of a drug rather than a disease or simple aging.

Social Security ...in Castro County

"To take early retirement or not take early retirement, that is the question!" This is what William Shakespeare would probably be saying if he were alive today and entering his early sixties.

People nearing retirement age are concerned about whether to take Social Security early or wait until age 65. Unfortunately it is a question Social Security cannot answer for you. The decision is one each individual must make for himself or herself. However, we can tell you what effect early retirement will have on your benefits.

First of all, benefits are payable as early as age 62 but at a reduced rate. The reduction is 5/9 of 1% for each month that a check is received before age 65. The full 36 month reduction is 20%. It should be noted that a person must be age 62 a full month before he or she can be entitled to benefits. Therefore, most people who take benefits at the earliest point will have a 35-month reduction.

Perhaps in its simplest form the question is whether to receive "less sooner" or "more later." One way of comparison is to figure how long it will take the higher benefit to recover that amount which could have been received before age 65. It usually takes 12-15 years for the age 65 amount to "catch up" with the early benefit. For example, a $400.00 benefit at age 65 would be $320.00 per month with the full age 62 reduction. The total benefit between age 62 and age 65 would be $11,520.00. It would take 144 months (12 years) for the additional $80.00 payable at age 65 to equal the total benefit that could be paid before age 65. In other words, if the person chose to take benefits at age 65, it would take until age 77 to "break even."

When benefits are taken before age 65, the reduction is permanent. However in figuring the reduction, only months are considered for which full benefit is received. If part or all of a check is not payable for a particular month due to earnings, credit is given and the benefit is increased accordingly after the person reaches age 65.

The question of when to start Social Security checks is a personal matter and each individual has many things to consider. That's why there is no fail-safe formula. If you are age 60 or older, it might be a good idea to call us. We can tell you the amount your benefit will be at age 65, how early retirement will affect your particular benefit, and can provide other important details. Then you can decide which is the best time for you to begin receiving Social Security.

If you have any questions you may contact us at 1401-B W 5th Street, Plainview, or call us at 293-9623.

State lists quail hunting dates in management areas

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Dept. has announced dates and locations for hunting quail on wildlife management areas across the state.

There will be no restriction on numbers of hunters, but hunting will be allowed only on selected days within the hunting seasons. A $5 per day fee will be charged on some of the areas, and all hunters are required to register before hunting. Bag limit is 12 per day in all areas.

Officials stress that the hunts are part of ongoing wildlife management programs and not necessarily indicative of high quail populations.

Here are the areas in this part of the state, along with special requirements in each area:

MATADOR W.M.A. — Located 11 miles north of Paducah on FM 3256 in Cottle County, containing 28,183 acres; Nov. 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, 18, 24 and 25; Dec. 1, 2, 8, 9, 15 and 16; Jan. 5, 6, 12, 13, 19, 20, 26 and 27; Feb. 2 and 3. Hunters are required to check out when hunt is ended, as well as registering and paying $5 fee before hunting.

GENE HOWE W.M.A. — Located six miles east of Canadian on FM 2266, Hemphill County, on the south fork of the Canadian River, containing 5,821 acres; Nov. 3-16 and Dec. 3-28. No fee will be charged, but hunters are asked to register at entrances to the area. There will be no manned check station.

Also, mourning dove hunts in the Matador and Gene Howe WMAs are still underway until Oct. 31, with no fees and no check stations. Dove hunters are required only to register at entrance.

New marketing tool

Ag options: Will they put farmers in black?

A marketing method banned by the government for almost 50 years could help farmers provide "insurance" on crop prices.

Several commodity exchanges are set to begin trading in agricultural options this week, renewing an operation that was outlawed in 1936 by Congress because of scores of improprieties before and during the Great Depression.

In 1982, Congress held hearings to take a new look at the potential usefulness of commodity options, and the Futures Trading Act of 1982 authorized the Commodity Futures Trading Commission to carefully study ag option trading, and, if it saw fit, to approve options trading under a pilot program.

Under the program, each futures exchange will be permitted to trade options on two agricultural commodities. Soybeans at the Chicago Board of Trade; Cotton at the New York Commodities Exchange; Cattle at the Chicago Mercantile Exchange; and hard red winter wheat at the Kansas City Board of Trade, will begin trading soon. Early next year, the CBT will begin corn options; hogs will trade at the CME, and soybeans will go on the board at the MidAmerican Exchange.

Chicago Board of Trade president Thomas Donovan says the "put" and "call" trading has frightened many prospective marketers, but Donovan says, "The options are similar to other options, like an option to buy land or a house. You put up $1,000 for an option to buy a house at a certain price. If you buy the house, it has reached the price you want, so you come out ahead. If it doesn't reach the price, you are out only the deposit, and have probably re-invested that money.

"Or, you could look at it like an insurance premium," Donovan explained. "If you have a loss during the coverage period, you 'win.' If you don't, you 'lose' your premium."

Two key factors should make options an attractive marketing tool for producers who have a commodity to sell: they limit risk; they do not limit the profit potential.

If ag options had been available late this summer, producers could have been short in November soybeans at $7.50 per bushel, or December cotton at 78 cents per pound, or December hogs at $58 per hundredweight. Those prices were available in May and June, but, at that time, how many producers were ready to sell and assume the risk that those were the highs? If ag options had been available, they could have taken that risk for a known price without giving up a right for profits from higher prices that many economists were forecasting last spring.

Farmers in the 1980's are familiar with many of the risks involved in other marketing alternatives, including cash markets, with the risk of prices moving against them; and forward contracts that provide an excellent way to lock in a favorable price, but actually a binding legal contract that gives the buyer an edge over the producer, preventing the producer from benefitting from higher prices, and forcing the farmer to buy on the open market if he does not produce a large enough crop to meet the contract.

Like forward contracts, futures also lock in a price, but, unlike forward contracts, they rarely involve physical delivery of the commodity. Either the buyer or seller can offset his futures position at any time, and that makes the futures alternative much more flexible than other marketing methods.

Futures have several disadvantages, of course, just like any other marketing plan. One that neither farmers nor bankers like is the fact that, if the market continues to move higher after a futures contract is sold to hedge production, the producer may be required to put up huge amounts of margin money. That margin money is balanced in the end by higher cash prices, but it can be unnerving — and costly, if you're having to borrow the money for the margin checks. Futures also do not eliminate the risk of basis changes as forward contracts do.

In both the forward contract and futures marketing alternatives, the producer not only has the right to sell at a specific price, he has the obligation to do so; however, buying a 'put' option gives the producer the right to sell at a specific price, but does not obligate him to do so.

No one knows for sure what it will cost to buy an option. Buyers and sellers will meet on the trading floor and begin a process of competitive bidding. Premiums for options will be

Check IRS number on investments

"While there are many ways to legally minimize the tax one owes — a home mortgage is an example of a legal tax shelter — only the imagination limits the number of illegitimate schemes that can be tried," he said. "IRS is meeting this challenge head-on. We have a very active audit program. With the average additional assessment for a return claiming an abusive shelter running at $21,336, we feel we're making some impact."

"The buyer beware" are good watchwords where tax shelters are concerned.

Cagle advised, "Our best advice to taxpayers who wish to invest is to evaluate any proposal on its overall profile. If the tax consequences did not exist, would this still be a worthy investment? If you cannot answer yes to this question, say no to the sale."

If you are asked to invest, ask to see the investment's IRS registration number. The new tax act passed in July requires that almost all investments be registered with the IRS. The registration number of the investment must then be filed with the tax return claiming any deductions or credits for the

But an investment that has an IRS registration number does not have the IRS "stamp of approval."

"The whole purpose of the registration process is to give IRS a new tool in deciding which tax shelters to audit," said Glenn Cagle, IRS Director, Dallas District. "This provides a system for linking the promotion, the promoter, and the investors."

Cagle explained that the new provisions is Congress' answer to the growing number of abusive tax shelters.

IRS office may resolve problems

Experiencing an uncomfortable feeling akin to indigestion regarding an unresolved tax problem? If you have already tried the normal IRS remedies to solve your problem, the tax agency suggests you try its Problem Resolution Program (PRP) office.

The most common problems brought to the PRP office are complaints about missing refunds, mixed up social security numbers, incorrect billings by IRS, and situations caused by taxpayer error, the IRS says. They cautioned, however, that the Problem Resolution should not be used as a substitute for normal procedures.

Although most taxpayers will never need the services of PRP, the IRS says that taxpayers with a persistent tax problem will find PRP willing and able to help. Taxpayers can contact PRP through the toll-free number, 1-800-424-1040.

Happy anniversary!

Why We Support

COMBEST FOR CONGRESS

Larry Combest is the Most Experienced Candidate.

We must keep the tradition of electing Congressmen whose agricultural experience is based on deeds, not words. We need a Congressman we won't have to train.

Larry Combest knows agriculture from the ground up and is the only candidate who has run a farm, and made the day to day decisions that face our family farmers.

Larry Combest is a fourth generation West Texan, who was raised on a farm. As area president of the F.F.A., he received the Lone Star Degree and the National Sante Fe Award for leadership, scholarship and character. He has worked as a farmer, as County Director for the A.S.C.S. and as legislative assistant for agriculture for Sen. Tower.

"I've admired and respected Larry since he served as a valued and trusted member of my staff. I have tremendous respect for his integrity, dedication and convictions. He can always be counted on to get the job done. I'm proud to support him for Congress."

Senator John Tower

Larry Combest Will Vote With Us.

- FOR A 1985 Farm Bill that is Fair and Effective for West Texas.
- FOR Voluntary Prayer in School
- FOR the Balanced Budget Amendment
- FOR the Immediate Repeal of the Windfall Profits Tax
- AGAINST Increased Personal Taxes

Combest Will Oppose Liberal Democratic Leadership.

"I know Larry Combest personally and have the greatest respect for his experience, ability and integrity. President Reagan will need help in the House to finish the job of rebuilding our economy and national defense. It is essential that we elect conservative Representatives who do not owe their allegiance to Tip O'Neill and the liberal democrats. We need Larry Combest in the United States Congress."

Vice President George Bush

"I met Larry Combest in Washington and we talked about the problems facing West Texas and how to promote growth, jobs and a brighter economic future.

Four years ago we set a new direction for America and we've made great progress towards full economic recovery. If we are to reach our final goal of sustained growth for all areas of America, we need leaders like Larry Combest in Congress.

His courage, wisdom and record of leadership in his community will make him a great Congressman for West Texas and America. I look forward to working with Larry next year in Congress."

President Ronald Reagan

VOTE COMBEST FOR CONGRESS.

Get vaccines soon for better flu protection

Time is running out for those people who want to be protected during the upcoming flu season, a Baylor College of Medicine influenza expert said.

Those people who are older than 65, have chronic heart or lung problems, or just don't want to get ill this flu season, should get a vaccination by the end of October, said Paul Glezen, M.D., a researcher in Baylor's National Influenza Research Center.

Another group who should receive vaccinations are health care personnel, such as physicians and nurses, Glezen said.

"Recent studies suggest that if they get the flu, they may spread it to their patients," he said.

The 1984-85 flu season is expected to be mild to moderate Glezen said, "but we are specifically concerned about the A/Phillippines flu virus. During the summer of 1983, that virus produced a lot of disease in the Southern Hemisphere."

Other viruses expected are the A/Chile, which also first appeared in the summer of 1983, and B/USSR, which first appeared in the winter of 1983-84.

The current vaccine, which provides protection against all three of these viruses, should be available from most physicians or municipal health departments, Glezen said.

Vaccinations against the flu are still the best way to survive the season. Once a person becomes ill with influenza, the flu medications available for treatment may speed recovery, but only from influenza A infections.

Flu researchers now recommend that vaccinations be taken every year. "Viruses change each year," Glezen said. "And immunity tends to wane."

Flue caused many illnesses last year across the country and especially in Texas, Glezen said, particularly among persons 6-20 years old.

"Officials at Texas A&M University and Baylor University said last year was the worst epidemic they'd seen in many years," Glezen said.

The Texas Dept. of Health reported that last year's flu season was more severe than those in 1981-82 or 1982-83. More than 100,000 Texans were recorded as having the flu last year — 80,000 more cases than those reported in the previous two years.

This year could also mean discomfort for people of almost all ages.

A/Phillippines is related to A/Hong Kong, which first appeared in 1968, and persons of all ages will be susceptible. Influenza B viruses change less frequently, so school-age children will be most susceptible to B/USSR. A/Chile is related to a group of viruses that were active up until 1953, so those people under 32 years of age will be more susceptible.

Dr. Franklin donates land

A section of land in Castro County has been bequeathed to the Texas Tech University College of Home Economics by the late Dr. Ruth Ann Franklin, a native of Nazareth, who died in 1983.

Dr. Elizabeth G. Haley, dean of the College of Home Economics, said the land will be leased for production, with the earnings from the lease used to establish an endowment. Later, the land will be sold with the proceeds used to establish a professorship in food and nutrition, conforming with Dr. Franklin's wishes.

Dr. Franklin had taught school on the elementary, high school and college levels during her career. At the time of her death, she was an associate professor of foods and nutrition at Texas Christian University.

She obtained her bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees all at Texas Tech University and had served as a consultant to the Texas Tech College of Home Economics.
