School Activities Begin Here

No Action On Norton School

Members of the Runnels County school board reached no decision in regard to the fate of Norton School at their meeting Tuesday afternoon. They heard from persons for and against dissolving the school district.

The trustees agreed to meet again at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday for more study.

The meeting was held after the board members were presented with a petition requesting that the Norton School District be annexed to Ballinger, Winters and Bronte, and with another petition which requested that the first petition be disregarded and the school district be kept intact.

BULLETIN

The Enterprise learned Wednesday afternoon from County Supt. W. E. (Buck) Elkins that Runnels County trustees met Wednesday morning and two motions were made, both of which failed to carry.

A motion to annex the Norton district to Winters ended in a tie vote, and another motion to annex Norton to Ballinger died for the want of a second.

Elkins said that no date was set for another meeting to consider the matter further.

Reserved Seats Going on Sale

Reserved seats for the Bronte Longhorn's 1968 football games will go on sale Tuesday, according to an announcement this week by Supt. C. B. Barbee. The choice seats are on sale for 25 cents more per game than the regular admission price. Tickets will be available in the superintendent's office.

A reserve seat season pass for the four home games will sell for $5.00, compared to $4.00 for general admission.

Six rows of 57 seats each will be in the reserved section, making a total of 342 of the seats available.

Barbee said persons who had reserved seats last year will have an opportunity to reserve the same seats this year, if they wish. Last year's ticket holders will have until Sept. 6 to claim their old seats, and after that date all of the unsold reserved section will go on sale on a first-come-first-served basis.

Clyde Lee remains in Clinic Hospital in San Angelo this week. He was admitted Monday of last week, and is reported to be improving satisfactorily.

THE BIG ONE—Loy Wrinkle proudly displays a 26 pound cat fish which he and E. L. Caulder recently caught at Oak Creek Lake. The big fish was a handful for Wrinkle to hold up in front of the camera.

Officials Invited To Planning Meet

A meeting of officials of various taxing agencies with James Ridge of San Angelo will be held at 2 p.m. in the courthouse at Robert Lee. Ridge is chairman of the Concho Valley Council of Governments, a planning organization to assist in outlining programs for all agencies of the county which have taxing power.

Officials of the county, both incorporated towns, both schools, West Coke County Hospital District, and the Kickapoo Water District are invited to be present.

County Judge W. W. Thetford said that he felt it would be well worthwhile for every taxing agency in the county to be represented at the meeting.

"All of us should be able to learn a lot about long range plans for the improvement of every phase of Coke County groups," the judge said.

Some activities connected with the forthcoming school term have already started and others are scheduled for next week. Classes will not start until Wednesday, Aug. 28.

Coach Cecil Toliver announced Wednesday morning that all boys who are coming out for football should report to the school at 9 a.m., Monday, Aug. 19. He said they should bring their shoes, shorts, T-shirts and socks. Anyone who does not have this equipment may purchase it through the school, the coach said.

Band Starts Monday

Bronte's new band director Louis Thornton wants all band members to report at the school at 8 a.m. Monday, Aug. 19. Practice sessions will start at that time and will continue through the week, though not necessarily at the 8 o'clock hour.

High School Principal James L. Golson has set Friday, Aug. 23, as the date for registration of high school students. He said a time schedule for the four classes would be released in time for publication in next week's Enterprise.

Teachers to Meet

All teachers will be in in-service training Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 26 and 27, just prior to the beginning of classes on Aug. 28. Students will have to go to classes only three days before they will be released to enjoy the Labor Day holiday on Sept. 2.

Coach Toliver said a couple of pre-season scrimmages are in prospect for football fans. One will be held here with Merkel on Sept. 6 at 7:30 p.m. The other will be with Winters Junior Varsity at a date to be announced.

The school faculty was still two teachers short as of Wednesday. Needed are high school English and science or math teachers.

Baptist Revival Now in Progress

A revival meeting is in progress this week at First Baptist Church in Bronte. Dr. Guy Newman, president of Howard Payne College in Brownwood, is doing the preaching. In charge of the singing is V. F. Forderhase of Dallas, secretary of the music department of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Services are held twice daily, at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. These times will be in effect through Saturday, and services are scheduled for the regular times Sunday, at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The Rev. Harry K. Morris, pastor of the church, said that good crowds have been attending, and invited everyone in the area to attend the remaining services.

Fluid Stabilizer Team Golf Winner

The team representing Fluid Stabilizer of Bronte won the third annual Oil Field Golf Tournament held here last Saturday. The team, made up of Roy Stout, J. W. Caudle, Clint Low and Ronnie Lee took the team championship trophy with a five under par 181.

The tournament was held at Singing Winds Golf Course. Ronnie Lee was tournament director.

Winning second place was Dry Manufacturing Co. of Winters, with D. B. Crockett, Buddy Gray, E. B. Underwood and Alvin Holbrook playing. They hit a 192.

American Supply, represented by Horace Grigg, Bud Thetford, Clifford Cook and Allen Davis, came in third with a 200 total.

Partnership competition honors went to J. T. Carter and J. C. Osborne with an 88. Low and Lee came in second with an 89, and Stout and Caudle made a 92 for third place.

Medalist honors went to Osborne who had a 90, while Stout, Lee and Holbrook all shot 100s to tie for second place.

HOUSING PROJECT MAKING PROGRESS

Workers on Bronte's housing project are making rapid progress on the new houses under construction. Outside work has been going well, as most of the structures have been bricked.

W. D. Ertel, clerk of the works on the project, reported Tuesday that 52 per cent of the work is completed. "It looks like a lot more than that, but the slow inside finishing work is yet to be done," he said.

Rodeo Last Saturday Called Big Success

Coke County Roping Club's Junior rodeo, held in the Bronte arena last Saturday night, was called a tremendous success by officers of the club.

They estimated that approximately 1,000 persons were present for the big show.

An unprecedented number of entries made the events last until 2:30 a.m., which gave spectators plenty of action for their money.

Joe McCutchen, president of the roping club, said he would like to congratulate every member of the club "for putting on such a good show." The cooperation and help of all the members "was wonderful", he said. McCutchen also expressed thanks to the large number of non-members who assisted and contributed to the success of the annual "We appreciated the help of everybody", he said, "and I especially want to thank all the youngsters who entered the contests and all the others who attended."

Secretary-treasurer James Allen said the rodeo was also a financial success. "We even made a little money," Allen stated, "in spite of the fact that we charged only 25c and 50c for admission and $1.00 for entrants."

County Agents News Column

By STERLING LINDSEY

Coke County received a second case of screwworms this past week. This case was found on Don Edmiaston's place, on the county line on the east side of the county. Our first case, reported about two weeks ago, was submitted by Frank Hearn and came from the western edge of the county.

Statewide, the picture is still pretty bleak. With fall approaching, unless there is a break in the cases being found, the situation may get worse before it gets better. The fall months have been bad screwworm months almost every year since the control program was initiated.

So far, no heavy concentrations of worm cases have been reported anywhere in the State. But, the daily and weekly counts are staying about the same, and too, the area in which cases are being reported, is pretty large. We hope everyone will be able to keep a close tab on their stock this fall.

Coke County reported no screwworm cases in 1966, one case in 1967, and has two cases so far in 1968.

A number of people have reported pecans falling off their trees lately, and a variety of reasons have been found.

The third generation of case bearers has been pretty bad on some trees. In some cases spraying would give some control. In others, the worm is far enough along in development that the benefits from spraying would be light.

In most cases the shells of the pecan nuts are beginning to harden. This makes penetration by the casebearer more difficult. He will feed in the hull for a few days before he becomes strong enough to eat on through. If he hits a nut with a hard shell he will finish his development feeding in the hull. At this time of the year, you will find the casebearer larvae in both places because the shells are hardening.

Some pecan trees shedding has been due to physiological reasons. This has been particularly true on the younger, immature trees. There are several reasons why this is happening and all of them point to a stress on the tree. The pecan, just like a cotton stalk, will start shedding its produce if the growth factors get too far out of kilter. This is nature's built-in protective device.

We had a wet spring and most trees put on a good to heavy load of nuts. Also, the trees made heavy foliage that was "sappy" or high in fluid content.

Then about the first of July the temperature climbed and the rains stopped. The humidity went down also. The soil and air moisture content dropped right when the trees demand for water to fill the growing nuts increased sharply. All of these factors together put a physiological stress on the trees, particularly the young trees with a medium to heavy crop of nuts and the trees that may have been needing some plant food. To lighten the load, the tree or trees shed its nuts or part of them. We see this happen on some trees every year. This year with the contrasting weather conditions we are seeing more shedding than usual.

Since the end of World War II, our population has grown by 55 million or 37 percent. Our gross national product went from $280 billion to more than $800 billion. More than 20 million people left the countryside for the city. One third of the total population left the city and settled in suburbia. Nearly three million farms disappeared in the technological revolution that swept — and is still sweeping — through agriculture. Now 70% of Americans live on just two percent of the land and only 57 million people — less than 30% of the land.

Junior College Offers Student Aid

Cooke County Junior College at Gainesville has initiated a service to inform students of their legal free tuition rights, student advisor Paul Thomas announced recently.

Under the Connally-Carrillo Act passed by the Texas Legislature in 1967, Thomas said, a graduate of a Texas-accredited high school can attend a Texas state supported college with tuition and fees paid by the state, if the student was in the top quarter of his class and if his family's total income does not exceed $4800.

"We estimate that only about one per cent of the general public knows about this and we want to inform them," Thomas said.

The junior college has set up an information office to explain the law to prospective enrollees of state colleges. Thomas said, "If you plan to attend any state college and think you are eligible for this program, then write or call Scholarship Advisor, Cooke County Junior College, Gainesville, Texas 76240, phone 817-HO. 5,3476."

Federal Land Bank Adopts Slogan

R. H. Emory, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of San Angelo, announced this week that the Federal Land Bank System has adopted as a permanent slogan, "Serving America's Farmers: Providers of Plenty." The local association is a part of a national network of twelve regional banks and 695 local associations. The system, which last year celebrated its 59th anniversary, is moving ahead into the second half-century of operations with renewed dedication of purpose to meet the essential long term need of the nation's farmers and ranchers, Emory said.

"Our System has coped with a variety of great demands made upon it during the past 50 years, all the while maintaining a dependable loan service to farmers and ranchers. As agriculture continues to increase its productive capacity through technology, it will be our purpose to continue to serve the changing credit needs of farmers and ranchers," Emory continued.

The Land Banks and associations comprise a system which is operated entirely on private funds and is owned by its 394,000 member-borrowers whose elected directors formulate its policies. The Board of Directors of the local association are as follows: J. H. Johnston, president; Water Valley; C. E. Arrott, vice-president; Bronte; A. J. Sefcik, Vancourt; Wm. C. Pfeuger, San Angelo and David Glass, Sterling City.

Indoor-Outdoor Carpet

The relatively new indoor-outdoor carpet already has a new twist—bulked yarn to give a plush, more luxurious carpet.

Indoor-outdoor carpeting, in past, has been a little on the stiff side. The bulked yarn has softened the surface, yet it wears like stiffer finishes.

The carpeting is easy to care for, highly stain resistant and resistant to mildew and rot. It has good acoustical properties, low static build-up and low moisture absorbency.

There are other new indoor-outdoor developments underfoot.

Patterned carpets are coming on the scene for more decorator versatility. These carpets, with special barriers to keep moisture such as spills from leaking through, especially are good for use over wood.

Two basic types of indoor-outdoor carpeting are woven or non-woven. The woven carpet is textured and in cut-pile, much like other carpeting. In the non-woven or felted construction, the carpet is somewhat like resilient floor covering. Generally, the felted types are cheaper. Aside from the price, there is no general advantage of one type over the other.

Another version of the non-wovens is carpet tile. The tiles are 12-inch squares with soft rubber backs for use indoors or out.

Sharp objects, such as cleats on shoes, can damage the non-wovens. If some repair work is needed, then you could replace a few tiles and not the entire carpet.

The manufacturers of indoor-outdoor claim it will hold up for a long time in or out of the weather; on boards, cement, brick or even bare ground. According to extremely rigorous tests conducted by independent testers, the manufacturers don't exaggerate.

In tests it was found to have good bursting strength (important if the carpet is laid over holes or pebbles outdoors). It was rot resistant and resistant to shrinkage. It provided good footing dry or wet.

Water did not affect the carpet in any way. Some did tend to hold water, as a towel does. You should think twice about laying one of these on an outdoor porch with a wood floor the dampness could accelerate the rotting of wood. On a cement floor a carpet might remain damp for a couple of days after a rain.

If the carpet will be exposed to moisture be sure to check the backing. If the backing is not a synthetic fiber, also, it could rot from moisture trapped underneath.

The stains that were left came off quite easily when washed with clear water or dilute detergent, even 25 hours after the spill. Lipstick turned out to be tougher than most staining agents, but a grease solvent, even when used lightly got rid of it quickly and should work well on most other greasy or oily stains.

Ordinary dirt washes off easily and can be hosed down outdoors. Or, it can be vacuumed like any other carpet.

The right care will keep indoor-outdoor carpet in its prime longer. This type of carpet is highly resistant to stains, but some foods, when allowed to set or to be ground into the carpet can cause trouble.

Take care with cigarette ashes. The synthetic fibers of the carpet aren't likely to catch fire, but the heat from the ashes could leave a melt mark.

Two additional advantages of the indoor-outdoor carpet are cost and ease of installation. It is the cheapest type of carpet available—starting at $5 a square yard.

Installation is easy since the carpet can be cut with a knife, razor blade or scissors. It is important to cut to size very carefully since the material can't be stretched. The felt types do not need binding, but the tufted types should be bound to prevent raveling.

Start the day right with breakfast. If you are a person on the run, make your breakfast in a glass. Blend 2 cups of milk, 2 eggs, 2 bananas, 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon lemon extract and a dash of salt. Serve cold. This makes 4 cups.

Eat lunch alone? Try a quick, nutritious one—cottage cheese with peaches and a slice of toast. It is low in calories and high in food value.

You never outgrow your need for milk. This applies to the senior citizen as well as the very young. Older people should consume one pint or more daily in beverage form in foods. Milk may be in custards, ice cream or cheese foods.

Last year, of each dollar the American spent for day-to-day living, he spent about one-fifth or 20 cents for food. If he compared the part he spent for food with his total income, he spent an average of 15 cents of each dollar of income (before taxes). He spent an average of 18 cents of each dollar of income (after taxes).

Deboning Chicken Breasts

Boneless chickens? Unfortunately for the cooks—but luckily for the chickens—they're just not made that way. However, chicken breasts are easy to debone. Just follow these steps:

For ease in boning a chicken breast, use a knife with a thin, sharp blade. The thinner and sharper the knife, the easier the boning.

Step 1: Place chicken breast, skin side down, on cutting board. With the knife, cut just through white gristle at neck end of keel bone—the dark bone at the center of the breast. Bend back and press flat to expose the keel bone. Then loosen the bone by running the tip of your index finger around both sides of the bone and remove it in either one or two pieces.

Step 2: Working with one side of the breast, insert the tip of the knife under the long rib bone, working the knife underneath the bone, cutting it free from the meat. Then cut the meat from the rib cage by cutting around the outer edge of the breast up to and through the shoulder joint, thus removing the entire rib cage. Turn the breast around and repeat the method on the other side.

Step 3: Now, working from the ends of the wishbone, scrape the meat away from each side of the bone, then cut out the wishbone. Slip the knife underneath the white tendons on either side of the breast to loosen and pull out. The skin can be removed if desired and used with the bones as stock for soup.

The Starving Children of Biafra

"I was in Biafra last week! You would have wept with me if you saw what I saw. Thousands, many of them children, are starving to death. Some of these children get only one good meal every three weeks. Many are diseased as a result of malnutrition. They eat flies and scrape the ground for worms in hope of finding something to eat."

This harsh, gruesome description of conditions in Biafra, the former Eastern region of Nigeria, was related by Rev. Anthony Byrne during a press conference in New York on July 18. Father Byrne is director of the emergency airlifts under the auspices of Caritas, the international Catholic welfare agency, to fly acutely needed food, medicines and other relief supplies to help alleviate the widespread starvation and death in Biafra.

Caritas, the World Council of Churches and the International Committee of the Red Cross have been organizing these mercy flights since February and much support for these flights comes from Church World Service and Catholic Relief Services, the American Protestant and Catholic overseas aid agencies, respectively.

Still, relief experts predict that, if immediate massive aid is not forthcoming, one million men, women and children will die of hunger in Biafra between now and the end of August! Six million may die in six months!

Hope holds out that negotiations will begin soon between the Federal government of Nigeria and the officials of Biafra to discuss a cease fire in this horrendous civil war and that the two sides will agree quickly on a land corridor to transport the needed relief supplies to the starving people in the war-affected areas.

But negotiations have an unfortunate history of dragging on and on—and meanwhile the innocent suffer, facing death or certain permanent mental and physical retardation among the children because of the malnutrition.

To help stem this widespread starvation, international relief organizations ARE mounting the massive sea and air lifts of food and medicines. Many individual Americans are also asking what can they do! We strongly recommend support of these international relief operations to our readers by sending a tax-deductible contribution through your local church, or directly to: Church World Service, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. 10027; or to: Catholic Relief Services —USCC, Empire State Bldg., New York, N. Y. 10001. — Before it is too late!
