took the first flight championship with a 125.

Other Bronte golfers in the first flight were Keith McCutchen and Larry Abbott who had a 125; A. E. Bell and Ronnie Lee, 130.

Bronte golfers in the second flight were Jerry McCutchen and Marlon McCutchen, 131; Conda Richards and Royce Lee, 138; Steve Williams and Corky Collins, 141.

In the third flight Dave Smith and Monico Flores had 144 and Jim Morrow and Scottie Belew had 155.

Members of the 1970 senior class will be honored with a baccalaureate service Sunday night and commencement Tuesday night. Both programs will be held in the school auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m.

Speaker for the baccalaureate service will be the Rev. Kenneth Whitten, pastor of Central Baptist Church in Bronte.

Dr. O. L. Dorsey of Texas A&M University and former science teacher in Bronte High School, will deliver the commencement address. He will be introduced by Supt. C. B. Barbee.

Also on the program will be the valedictory and salutatory addresses. Valedictorian of the class is Miss Linda Carlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carlton, who has a four-year average of 95.343. Salutatorian is Miss Mary Champion who has an average of 94.900. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Champion. High boy in the class is Randy Barbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barbee, who has an average of 94.281.

SPECIAL PROGRAM SET AT METHODIST CHURCH

A special program will be held at 8 p.m., May 27 at First Methodist Church in Bronte.

Speaker will be Harvey Kuflik, a young man who has traveled for the Teen Challenge Center in New York. With Kuflik will be his wife, Jane, who travels with him and is a musician.

Kuflik is a convert of Dave Wilkerson, author of "The Cross and the Switchblade," a book that tells about his ministry with dope addicts, gang members and young people who had no hope, except in God.

Everyone is invited, and young people especially have an invitation, since the ministry of the speaker deals with youth.

MURR RITES HELD

Funeral services were held Sunday for Felix E. Murr, 48, of Junction. Mr. Murr died at 4:45 a.m. Saturday in Kimble County Hospital of an apparent heart attack.

A lifelong resident of Kimble County, Mr. Murr was the father-in-law of Charles McGuire of Ardmore, Okla., and formerly of Bronte.

Survivors include his wife, one son, Bobby; one daughter, Mrs. McGuire; his mother, one brother and two sisters.

Kiker, Percifull Get Top Band Awards

A tie for the John Phillip Sousa award, which is given annually to the outstanding senior band member, resulted in duplicate awards being given to Dee Ann Percifull and Kathy Kiker. The awards were made at the annual spring concert May 12.

The concert was well received by a large audience, and the band members put on a brilliant performance, those present said. Band Director Louis Thornton said he thought their performance "was fantastic."

Numbers on the program given by the Longhorn Band were selected as a "Tribute to the U. S. A." and included the National Anthem, Connee March, Poor Wayfaring Stranger, Telstar, Toy Symphony, Exodus, Bronte School Song, Battle Hymn of the Republic and The Strategic Air Command March.

The Junior Band also performed, playing Holiday, Hoedown, Boy Meets Girl, Shadowland Waltz and America.

The Tonette Band played six numbers: There's Music in the Air, The Little Dustman, Sun of My Soul, The Angelus, Oom-Pah and America.

The Rhythm Band did Rhythm Band March, Winter Fun, My Little Clock and Little Polka.

Other awards presented were:

Outstanding members of the Tonette Band: Shelene Tidwell and Bobby Taylor.

Outstanding members of the Junior Band: Tanya Tschendorf and Shelley Cumbie.

A special award was presented to Drum Major Melissa Lee for her outstanding service to the band.

Awards were presented this year's officers for their service, including Dee Ann Percifull, president; Kenneth Stroebel, vice president; and Susan Cumbie, secretary-treasurer.

Certificates of Merit were awarded those who participated in the UIL Solo and Ensemble Contest, including Dee Ann Percifull, Sandra Stroebel and Larry Hooper, Division I for their clarinet trio; Sandra Stroebel, Division II, clarinet solo; Barbara Versyp, Division I, cornet solo; Dixie Versyp, Division I, trombone solo; Kathy Kiker, Division II, alto saxophone solo; Andy Eubanks and Mark Murtishaw, Division II, cornet ensemble; Clois Versyp, Division II, trombone solo.

New Officers

Newly elected officers of the band for 1970-71 are Dixie Versyp, president; Sandra Stroebel, vice president; Susan Cumbie, secretary-treasurer. Grade representatives to the band council include: 12th grade, Phyllis Morris; 11th, Dana Lee; 10th, Michelle Golson; 9th, Norma Thompson; 8th, Sharon Cooper; 7th, Janie Raughton.

Melissa Lee will serve again next year as drum major and twirlers will be Sallie Richards, Diane Arrott and Dawn Cumbie.

BURGLAR ALARM CAUSES EXCITEMENT WEDNESDAY

There was some excitement in town for a few minutes Wednesday morning. A burglar alarm at First National Bank was tripped and the word went out that the bank was being robbed.

However, it was soon discovered there were no robbers and everybody went on about their business.

Highway Patrolman Bobby Hart was one of the first to arrive at the bank and others were on the spot in a matter of minutes.

8th Grade Promotional Program Monday Night

Eighteen eighth graders will be promoted into high school Monday night. The program will be held in the school auditorium and will begin at 8 p.m.

Speaker of the evening will be the Rev. Fred Brown, pastor of First United Methodist Church in Bronte. He will be introduced by R. T. Caperton, secretary of the board of trustees.

Special recognition will be given to Diane Arrott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Arrott, who is first honor student in the class with an average of 94.00. Also to be recognized will be Tony Mackey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dolan Mackey, who is second honor student with an average of 89.53.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman 17th District

Washington — There among the tulips and azaleas was the evidence of the anti-war demonstration held here in Washington a few days ago—paper, beer cans, cigarette butts and other unmentionable debris. This is a beautiful time in Washington. Tulips are at their height and it is one of the best years for azaleas. Lillacs perfume the air all around them but they had a pretty hard time competing with other odors around them.

Amid the tumult, it seemed the beauty of things was lost. Dogwood trees in full bloom may have provided a bit of shade for the demonstrators but probably not very many blossoms were appreciated. White and pink blossoms of the dogwood hanging in the air like the fall of gentle snow was meaningless on that occasion.

Remember the President's inaugural address in January of last year in which he suggested the "lowering of voices" as a means of cooling frictions? These words were directed primarily at racial difficulties. The harangues used by the demonstrators were everything except quiet and lowered. At times the audio of television had to be cut off because of vile obscenities. A few showed their demand for freedom by stripping naked.

Shortly before extending the South Vietnamese lines into Cambodia, the build-up of voices all over the country was centered around the unwholesomeness of our environment. An immediate build-up on the environmental issue was an outlet and a vehicle for attack against "the establishment." With increased activity in the war effort, pollution was, in a matter of a week or ten days, relegated to the back burner. Looking at the lawns and tulips following the thousands who congregated on the Washington Ellipse and Monument grounds was proof that the matter of abusing our surroundings by all types of litter was not an important consideration. Apparently it somehow denies that nature is able to carry on its beauty for the benefit of mankind. Just possibly some of the rest of us forget this while we are so preoccupied with taxes, riots, protests and elections. Maybe we forget the slow turning of the seasons, the swinging of the planets and an appreciation of what it all means.

Out of these demonstrations comes the plan to recess our universities and colleges two weeks before the November election enabling students to go into the campaigns. Those of us visited by some students during the past week are reminded that unless we support an immediate and complete withdrawal from all Southeast Asia, they will go into our areas to campaign against us. The papers say some politicians have been jolted.

Incidentally, a student from a congressman's district who arranged for an interview usually brought 15 or 20 others with him. It was surprising that we had several who represented themselves to be from the 17th District whose accent was hardly "Texican."

The anti-war and anti-everything else groups are reportedly banded together in efforts to support candidates for Congress who agree with them and to defeat those who do not. In some of their talk it is a little difficult to really understand what they advocate. Some of the extremists apparently have no positive advocacy of anything. Rather it is a tearing down with really nothing positive to take its place. This, of course, is anarchy.

It is unjust to be categorical and say that every university student joining in demonstrations and in political efforts are anarchists and have no worthwhile motives. Some are sincere and dedicated. Their demonstrations, however, are used by the radicals, many of whom are not students at all, to further their own aims. Numbers and publicity are important to them.

By the time the November elections occur, leaves will be turning and it is again a beautiful part of the year. Now it is all happening among the tulips, azaleas and under the dogwood trees. Whatever happens life goes on—sad and funny, bitter and sweet, the hunter hunted—it being supposed that each doing what he thinks is right and the rest of us doing the best we can.

Interest in pecans increases about this time of the year. This year is no exception.

Several people have asked when they should spray their pecan trees to control the pecan nut casebearer, the insect that feeds on the pecan nutlets. Based on the casebearer emergence in the lower part of the state plus what we have found in local checks, the optimum spraying time is seven to 10 days away. The casebearer larvae are already in the nuts in South Texas. Our peak infestation period hits one to two weeks after the down state reports are received. The weather we have can change the peak period from one to several days. A few cool nights delays the maturity of the moth and also elongates the egg hatching period.

We have found a few pupa in the twigs. These emerge as the adult moth, mature a few days then begin laying eggs. The eggs usually hatch in five to six days. Summing up the local situation, the hatch period appears to be seven to 10 days away.

Comparing this year to last year, we have found fewer twigs infested with casebearer. We hope this means a lighter infestation.

Spraying twice will usually insure better control of the casebearer. Two applications, five days apart, starting with the first hatch is a good practice when the egg lay indicates a heavy infestation is eminent.

We found a few walnut caterpillar larvae feeding on pecan leaves. Again, present indications point to a lighter infestation than we experienced last year. Despite the outlook, the only way to stay ahead of the casebearer and walnut caterpillar is to make daily checks in your pecan trees. Check the small nutlet for a single, pale white egg about the size of a small dot. These are casebearer eggs. Spraying should begin when you find one or more hatched and feeding on the side of and near the base of the nutlet. A small pile of frass will be visible when the casebearer begins feeding on the nutlets.

Check the foliage for frayed or stripped areas when checking for the walnut caterpillar. They hatch in mass and stay in a cluster to feed. If you find them one to three days after they hatch, usually you can remove them by breaking off one small twig. I have found all on one leaf. After they are a few days old, the cluster may be large enough to occupy an entire branch.

Rosette shows up at this time of the year on pecan trees. Be sure to add zinc sulfate to your casebearer or walnut caterpillar spray. A zinc deficient tree does not grow properly and will eventually die back to the tips of the limbs. One spraying per year is usually sufficient, but two applications will speed up the growth of your trees. Make the applications about a month apart.

We have a few new leaflets that may be of interest to producers and home gardeners as well. Most of them deal with pecans and roses. Collecting and storing pecan propagation wood, patch budding pecans, inlay grafting pecans and pecan diseases and insects. Also, air layering for difficult to root plants; Roses: how to plant, roses: variety and selection, and roses: summer care.

Enzyme Detergents and Skin Irritation

Do enzyme detergents cause skin allergies? Testing points out that enzyme laundry products are equal in safety and mildness to the detergents which have been in use for more than 20 years.

The amount of enzyme that can remain in clothing after it has been washed, rinsed and dried is exceedingly low. As a matter of fact, the most sensitive analytical procedures cannot detect any enzyme residue in such clothing.

To further check for possible skin effects, fifty men were asked to wear washed, but unrinsed, T-shirts while working in hot, humid areas such as a kitchen or laundry. The men wore enzyme washed T-shirts for five days and then switched to non-enzyme washed T-shirts for a second five-day period.

Four of the men reported itching or exhibited a slight skin redness when they wore shirts washed with non-enzyme products. The same men were not affected by shirts washed in enzymes.

The reverse was true in five cases. Two men reported similar symptoms with both products. Thirty-nine showed no symptoms.

The results indicated that tight-fitting, unrinsed garments under hot humid conditions may be mildly irritating to a few people but that enzyme products are no more irritating than non-enzyme products.

Feel That Urge to Paint Up?

Sometimes you just can't stand it any longer—you simply have to do a few paint jobs around the house. And try to paint one piece of furniture, and see if you can stop at that! You can't, of course.

It's fun to paint and you get such rewards from your efforts. The paints available today are so easy to apply, and so quick to dry, that they make painting more sport than work. But it doesn't pay to rush into any paint job.

First, wash whatever it is you are going to paint. You may notice the light film of grime on the surface of a chair or a chest. It's not just dust, but grime that may have become imbedded over the months or years. This can make your paint job uneven and the results disappointing.

If you intend to do a really-thorough-going job, sand the surface before applying new paint. But if you're not particular, at least start with a clean surface. Go over the piece with soap or detergent suds, rinse it with a damp sponge or cloth, and let it dry thoroughly before you pick up a paint brush. There's no sense in putting new paint over a dirty surface.

The Bronte Enterprise

And don't make the mistake of sticking the paint brush into a can of something or other after the job is finished—and leaving the brush there till next season! A good brush deserves good care. When latex paints are used brushes may be washed in warm suds and rinsed thoroughly. For other types, use a commercial solvent designed for the purpose. Be sure to get all the paint out of the bristles you possibly can. But don't stop there. Wash the brush in warm suds. Rinse it thoroughly, and hang it up to dry.

Tie a piece of string onto the handle. Let the bristles dry naturally, at room temperature or outdoors. When the brush is dry, wrap it in foil, or put it in a plastic bag. You'll be glad you took this extra trouble. A good paint brush can last for years.

A new hairdo has reviving magic and several hospitals have taken advantage of the magic by making good grooming facilities available to patients.

Facilities range from a regular salon in the hospital to a rolling beauty bar which can be wheeled into a patient's room.

If a member of your family is confined to bed for a long time, invent your own beauty bar. Convert a serving cart or child's toy wagon to carry makeup, manicure equipment, shampoo and curlers.

Another idea is to give a gift certificate to a hospitalized friend if professional services are available in the hospital.

Early Certification Means Early Pay For Coke Farmers

Coke County farmers who are taking part in the feed grain, wheat and cotton programs are being reminded that early compliance and early certification will mean early payments this year.

Frank Percifull, chairman of the Coke County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee, said that while farmers should certify compliance as soon as possible, they also must understand that acreage certifications are not to be made until they know they are in compliance with all program regulations.

When a participant in a 1970 farm program certifies compliance, he certifies accurately to acreages in the program crops and to diverted acreage. He also certifies that he has complied with conserving base provision, with regulations that apply if he has an interest in more than one farm, that the diverted acres on his farm are devoted to an approved conserving use, and that all other program requirements have been met.

As soon as a program participant certifies, the County ASCS office begins processing papers for his full payment for 1970 program participation. Payments to producers will begin soon after July 1 and are expected to be completed by the end of August—the earliest date ever set for completion of program payments.

After a farm has been certified to be in compliance with farm programs, it may be checked at any time to determine if any errors were made in certification. If errors are found, the producer will be determined to have not fully complied and may lose some or all of his farm program payments.

Percifull said the County ASCS office has received instructions to keep up to date on farm control checks. A substantial number of farms in the county will be selected at random for these checks. Also, every farm in which an ASC official has an interest will be checked. "Generally, the percentage of errors found is quite small and usually the result of carelessness or misunderstanding. We hope this year to find fewer certification mistakes than ever before," the ASCS committee chairman said.

SOROSIS STUDY CLUB INSTALLS OFFICERS

New officers for the Sorosis Study Club were installed last Thursday night when the group met in the home of Mrs. E. F. Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Chew visited over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Chew, of Stephenville.

Fletcher Pinckard, Miss Ruby Pinckard, Mrs. Fannie Mae Wilson and Mrs. Savannah Thompson spent Sunday in Midland where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hipp and children, Mrs. Pearl Raney and Temple Raney.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wilkins and Miss Joy Lynn Wilkins went to Lubbock last weekend where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkins and family. They reported the tornado damage to the South Plains city defies any description they could give it.

Graduating Seniors Have Earned Many Honors

First Grade

In the year 1959 we, the Seniors of 1970, began our career as students. We started out with a large class of 35 students. We were too much for one teacher to handle so we were divided into two classes. Our teachers were Miss Parker and Mrs. Campbell. Our first grade class consisted of:

Second Grade

In the second grade "Miss Vera" let us prove how cool we really were by letting us get our own little group together. It was known as the "Rhythm Band." We were a big hit everywhere we played. Our PTA plays proved our acting ability and that we were a bunch of "hams." Randy Barbee joined our class that year. One day Garland Richards got tied to his chair; now he knew what school was going to be like for the next 10 years.

Third Grade

Our third grade teacher was Miss Pendleton. She told us that we were to eat at least one-half of everything on our plates at lunch. We were quick learners, and by the end of the first week we had acquired the skill of hiding food in milk cartons, napkins, pockets and anything else we could find.

Fourth Grade

After three straight years of school we knew everything, but came back for another year just to see if Mrs. Lasswell could teach us anything new. We made beautiful music in the Tonette Band under the direction of Mr. Bingham. Our class began to grow with the addition of Mary Champion and Donna Sowell and our vocabulary began to grow with the addition of Jake Golson and Joe Howard.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

In the fifth grade we had a choice of either taking band or music class. While the "Band Kids" were preparing for the high school band, the kids in the music class were developing their singing and dancing ability.

We spent our fifth and sixth grade years playing baseball or hiding in the creek. Somehow Mrs. Henry, our sixth grade teacher, knew exactly what our plans were each day. We practiced hitting foul balls so we would have an excuse to go in the creek. Tipton Masters added much to our class that year. Vicki Deans moved in, but stayed only a year.

Seventh Grade

In the seventh grade we got a small sample of what the next six years were going to be like. We were able to participate in different sports as football, basketball, track and volleyball. We also made the big step to the high school band. Sandy, Jesse and Mary Jane Henry joined our class. New adventures with Mr. Windhaus were a common thing that year.

Eighth Grade

Our eighth grade year, we were nothing less than "Great" (and we knew it). We had a good Junior High Football Team and basketball ability was seen in both boys' and girls' teams. Gary, Mike Stephens and Tony Barrett joined our class and Donna Sowell returned. We ended our elementary and junior high years of school with the traditional Eighth Grade Promotional Program. Then we were ready for the big step into Bronte High School. We also had another addition to our class. He was a quiet, shy person who didn't have much to say; his name was Willie Zuniga.

Ninth Grade

Our first year in high school was known as our "period of adjustment." It has taken the past 3½ years for us to get adjusted and now Mr. Golson tells us we have to leave. We made it through that year without much difficulty and very little mental strain.

We were victims of circumstances that years. Whenever anything bad happened the Freshmen always got the blame for it, and it seems that curse has followed us all of our high school years!

The girls really learned a lot in their first H. E. class. Sandy Lee learned how to knock an iron off the ironing board without even touching it. She had plenty of practice, and she was a real knockout in her hair net, too. Favorites this year were Sandy Lee and Nicky Arrott. Mr. Low, our sponsor, helped us build a float for the Homecoming parade.

Tenth Grade

Our Sophomore year we tried to figure out how we could get away with things and make it look like some other class did it. We're still working on that trick. The boys spent much of their Sophomore year with Mr. Golson in his office, visiting of course. Karla Walters and Dee Ann Percifull came that year.

Class Favorites were Cynthia Robinson and James Vaughn. Sophomore cheerleader was Cynthia and twirler was Norma Pruitt.

Eleventh Grade

As Juniors it was really hard for us to believe that our high school career was already half over. We had tough luck with our Junior play but finally got to put it on after all the cast got well. The play was "Creeping Shadows." We had an "Old Fashion" Christmas party, where some of the girls wore their maxi dresses. Brendi Glascock, Judi Ogilvy joined our class, along with Vicki Deans and Keith McCutchen.

Junior Favorites were Donna Sowell and David Scott. Cynthia and Norma were our two cheerleaders. Linda Carlton was the Basketball Sweetheart, Dee Ann was Band Sweetheart and Norma Pruitt was FFA District Sweetheart.

Twelfth Grade

In spite of what most people thought and the fact that Pat Levensailor joined the class, we finally made it to our last year in high school. Our Senior year was nicknamed, "This is our last time, bunch," by Dee Ann, the emotional member of our class. This year has passed by fast for some of us and slow for others. Having four Senior cheerleaders, Cynt, Dee Ann, Kathy and Norma, seemed to help add spirit to our class.

Vicki and Keith were elected class favorites. Linda Carito was named Miss Bronte. Keith and Dee Ann were given the titles of Mr. and Miss BHS. Linda and Keith were named Basketball Sweetheart and Beau At Homecoming. Cynt was crowned Homecoming Queen, Dee Ann was crowned Football Sweetheart, and Donna Sowell was crowned Band Sweetheart.

As we approach the end of our Senior year, we would like to express our appreciation to the faculty members. We would all so like to leave a word of advice to the under-grads: "Make the best of your years in high school, because it really goes by faster than you think. Try your best to do something good for Bronte High; it will pay off in the end." And a special "thanks" goes to the Juniors for the 1970 Junior-Senior Banquet.

ANGELO SERVICES HELD FOR JACK B. TAYLOR

Funeral services were held Monday in Emmanuel Episcopal Church in San Angelo for Jack B. Taylor, 52.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Jeanne Luby Chafey Taylor; two sons, two daughters, a sister, two brothers and a grandchild.

Mr. Taylor was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Edward Cumbie of Bronte.

SENIORS HONORED AT TEA IN HOME OF MRS. THOMAS

A tea was held May 13 for eighth graders and seniors in the home of Mrs. George Thomas. The annual affair honored those going into high school from 4 to 5 p.m. and 1970 seniors from 5 to six.

The serving table was centered with a large owl surrounded by an arrangement of sweet peas. Color scheme used for the eighth graders was hot pink and white. In the house party were Mrs. Wayne Arrott and Mrs. Edward Cumbie.

Miniature diplomas were presented as favors. Eighth graders' baby pictures were on display.

A color scheme of blue and white was used for refreshments and decorations for the seniors. Favors were miniature owl graduates.

In the house party were Mrs. Russell Carlton, Mrs. Noah Pruitt Jr. and Mrs. Luther McCutchen.

Frosted punch, white cake squares, toasted nuts, mints and fortune cookies were served to about 66 persons in both groups.

Bulletin boards prepared by mothers of the seniors displayed highlights in their school careers.

Teachers attending the tea included Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barbee, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Gelson, Mrs. Jerry Lawhon, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Raughton, Mrs. J. T. Henry, Mrs. Zula Sweeten, Mrs. Susan Perry, Miss Linda Jones, Louis Thornton, Cecil Toliver and Gerald Sandusky. Many things were revealed when fortune cookies were read.

Class Prophecy Reveals Interesting Future

This is agent 006 reporting to M.A.R.S. I was sent on a special earth mission to investigate strange happenings occurring in Bronte, Texas. I find there is nothing to be alarmed about. It is merely a 1990 reunion of "The Senior Class of 1970." The strange blinking light is a neon sign reading "Bronte Playpen Club." The strange creature in a funny looking suit with furry tail and long ears is Patty Rawlings. She is the bunny acting as hostess for the evening.

For your benefit, our intelligence agent here on earth, Mr. James Golson, has established himself as a member of the reception committee. You will receive his report via a small microphone hidden in a carnation on his lapel. I am now switching you over to Mr. Golson's comments.

Here comes Mr. Golf himself, Keith McCutchen. We would like to take this opportunity to wish him luck on his forthcoming tournament with Jack Nicholas. Accompanying him is his beautiful faithful caddy, Vicki Dears.

Why, there's Nicky Arrott and Willie Zuniga. Nicky is now a professional business man instead of the cowboy we used to know. He owns and manages the Dallas Cowboys. Willie is leaving the medical world of dentistry to take Meadowlark's place in the Harlem Globetrotters.

There's Gary Don Allen — but where's Kathy? She must be changing diapers of her quadruplets. Gary and Kathy live in California where Kathy is a nurse under Dr. Ben Casey.

Here comes Judi Ogilvy. Some of us hear her everyday over KRUN, Ballinger. Yes, our dear classmate is a disc jockey; that is when she is not helping her husband on their chicken farm.

Who could this be riding a camel? Oh why, of course. It's Jesse English. I hear he now lives in Arabia and owns a harem of girls.

Otto Sonnenberg has made it back to Bronte from San Francisco. He still has his guitar, only he plays a different tune nowadays. With all that long hair, beard, the beads and clothes, he really grooves with the new establishment.

Well, who do we have here talking to Otto. None other than Randy Barbee. I can see he's arrived in his 1952 pickup wearing his overalls and pink sneakers, telling Otto how he came to own the largest pig farm in Bronte.

Karla Walters has now graduated from Hardin-Simmons University and Angelo State University. After all these years she finally decided to follow in her dad's footsteps and has opened her own service station. She really gets a lot of business.

To my left I see Dee Ann Percifull and Janet Thomas reminiscing the old days in Texas. Dee Ann has moved back to Colorado where she works on her father's ranch. We can tell she's homesick for Texas because she's always carrying around irrigation pipes. Janet is showing Dee Ann her new lime green Cadillac and telling her of her prosperous life as a playgirl in Las Vegas where she owns two gambling casinos.

I see Mary Champion is doing a little interviewing among her old classmates. Mary is editor of True Story Magazine. She spends a lot of her spare time checking out the authenticity of the stories.

Wait! Is this some animal swinging madly from the chandelier and turning cartwheels on the tables. Should have known it would be Gary Reilly. He is now traveling with the Greatest Show on Earth. He looks real nice in his chartreuse and pink leotards.

Cynthia Robinson has been engaged quite a number of times but she is still not married. She has become a stewardess for Pan American Airlines. Rumors have it that she spends quite a lot of time on the moonlit beaches of Hawaii giving private hula lessons to all new pilots.

Sandy Lee seems to be the center of attention of all the single girls. She is busy telling them of her new scientific experiment on "The Thinking of the Male Species" which is described in detail in her new book, "How to Get Your Man."

Look who has arrived! It's the world famous dress designer, Brendi Glascock, who specializes in maxi clothes. Doesn't she look lovely tonight.

I see Linda Carlton! She has recently received her master's degree in math and is working on her second one. She is engaged to be married but I don't know the name of the lucky fellow.

Well, I see Norma Pruitt is here with us after all. She was afraid she might not make it due to a conflict she did not care to discuss. Norma is a nun and presently teaching at St. Francis' Catholic School in Europe. In the near future she hopes to earn the title "Mother Superior."

There goes the screen's greatest hit, Mike Stephens. He has just flown in from Hollywood where he has been making his third motion picture. He really spends a lot of time fighting off the starlets.

Donna Scwell and David Scott are married now and have six boys. It looks as if Donna has changed her hair color again. The boys seem to have David's good looks and Donna's brilliance.

Here comes Garland and Caryl Lynn Richards with five children — four boys and one girl. They live at the ranch where Garland has built them a new home. He has just finished installing central heating and refrigerated air in their new corral.

Jake has really changed from his high school days. He is a Methodist preacher at Fort Worth, and has a charming wife and three lovely children.

Well, I haven't seen Pat Levensailor yet. Oh, there she is — someone was standing in front of her. She has really gone far with her country-western hits. Let's get her autograph.

James Vaughn supplied the refreshments for this evening. He is now the Schlitz distributor for the Bronte area. From the way he looks today, he consumes more of his product than he distributes.

Joining us now are Professor and Mrs. Hambright with their seven well-disciplined children. The professor stays very busy these days with his lecture at Bronte State University.

I see Mrs. Sweeten is still pushing her husband. He has been in a wheelchair for quite some time now after breaking his leg and arm in an accident. Mrs. Sweeten has transferred from the English Department to the first grade because she thinks they have a better excuse for being dumb.

Agent 006 to M. A. R. S.
This concludes my report

We Are Proud Of Your Achievements

You're an outstanding group of young people and we are proud of the many accomplishments which have been credited to you while you were attending Bronte High School. You have brought home many honors to our school and town, a result of your excellence of performance in many fields. These last 12 years have been good for you; you have accumulated a vast store of knowledge, much of which you will never forget. Perhaps, even more important, you have learned to live with other persons and be a part of the group. If you are going to college or take your place in the world of business and industry, you will find that the last 12 years of preparation have been well worth the time and effort.

Possibilities Are Now Unlimited

Sometimes you may not think the world you are entering looks good. And, it's true that there are many changes which need to be made—injustices to be righted—mistakes to be corrected. When you stand back and look at all these things, surely you must see the unlimited challenge and opportunity you are facing. There can be no limit to the accomplishments ahead of you—if you but have the qualifications and the heart to try. Millions of human beings are crying out for your young ideas, strength and courage. Don't be afraid to speak up and tell the world what you think.

1970 Class Will

We, the members of the 1970 graduating class, being of sound mind (more or less) do hereby will, bequeath and devise that the wonderful qualities we have shall be distributed among our less endowed fellows in the lower classes of Bronte High School as indicated below. We are aware of our many good qualities, some hereditary and some acquired through our environment, but we want that none of them shall go for naught, and therefore, do suggest and even command that they be used for the benefit of all mankind. Hark, do not take this lightly, but rather be fully aware of the tremendous responsibility which goes with each of these bequests.

DEE ANN PERCIFULL wills her Aggie spirit to MELISSA LEE.

LINDA CARLTON wills her ability to do a cartwheel to PHYLLIS MORRIS.

SANDY LEE wills her ability to play the clarinet to CINDY LAMBERTH.

KATHY KIKER wills her ability to attract horses and cows while parking to JOLENE VAUGHN.

PATTY RAWLINGS wills her constant chatter to LOUISE KEEL.

JAMES VAUGHN wills his ability to find dry parking areas, and we don't mean in town, to DANNY COOPER.

NICKY ARROTT wills his speed to DAVID BELL.

RANDY BARBEE wills his suaveness to STEVE CLARK.

BRENDI GLASCOCK wills her brains to CATHY BRYAN.

PAT LEVENSAILOR wills her height to SALLY RICHARDS.

MARY CHAMPION wills her ability to make sure the boys' dressing room is empty to PAU-

LA LANDERS.

NORMA PRUITT wills her constant flirting with boys to NANCY RAWLINGS.

MIKE STEPHENS wills his golfing ability to MONICO FLORES.

VICKY DEANS wills her sneakiness to catch someone to TAM GRIGG.

JUDY OGILVY wills her chicken farm to LAQUETA TIMMONS.

OTTO SONNENBERG wills his guitar and country and western music to KENNETH STROEBEL.

KEITH McCUTCHEN wills his ability to catch a blonde to DONNIE THOMPSON.

DAVID SCOTT wills his good looks and brilliance to ROGER GRAVES.

WILLIE ZUNIGA wills his natural, smooth deep suntan to DANNY PARKER.

DONNA SOWELL wills her coordination to PHYLLIS MORRIS.

JAKE GOLSON wills one plug of "Day's Work" to DANA SOWELL. It can be found in Room 1, fourth row over, and the third desk back in the brown paper sack marked "colored chalk."

JANET THOMAS wills her ability to do science experiments to KENNETH STROEBEL.

GARY REILLY wills his physique and short hair to Joe BASKUEZ.

JESSE ENGLISH wills his ability to handle girls to LARRY McKOWN.

KARLA WALTERS wills her short skirts and great posture to NANCY RAWLINGS.

And, as a class, we would like to will to the Juniors the confidence and trust which the school faculty has in the Senior Class of 1970.

BROOKSHIRE BROWSINGS

By Mrs. Herbert Holland

The community received a good rain Thursday. Here at our place we had 1.9 inches. It was a good slow rain with no hail nor wind.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bomar Horton Sunday was Miss Martha Dvoracek of San Angelo. She is a cousin of the Hortons. The Hortons spent the weekend in West with her mother, Mrs. John Dvoracek.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Smith Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fowler of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Saunders and Mike of Sterling City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Holland attended a barbecue supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy York in San Angelo Saturday night.

Mrs. Tommie Weatherby was dismissed from a San Angelo hospital last Monday. She had been hospitalized nearly three weeks for medical treatment.

Who's New

Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Esquivel Jr. are parents of a baby boy. Born Tuesday, May 12 at 9:30 a.m. in Shannon Hospital in San Angelo, he weighed six pounds, 12 ounces. His name is Robert.

The Esquivels live on the Bill Fowler place and work for Vernie Smith on the farm.

The Esquivels spent Mother's Day weekend in Del Rio with his parents.

Honored with Barbecue

Mr. and Mrs. Less Carlton Sr. were honored Saturday evening with a barbecue supper on the river. Hosts were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sandlin and their grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Sandlin, all of Abilene. Mrs. Carlton said the delicious supper was ready when they returned from town.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dewayne Scarborough and children Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Buford James and children of Tenyson.

Jolly 8 Club

Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Springer of Paint Rock entertained the Jolly 8 Club. Games of 42 and 88 were played. Refreshments of sandwiches, dips, chips, roasted pecans, candy, jelly rolls and drinks were served to Messrs. and Mmes. Floyd Curry, Fred Wright, Vernie Smith, Herbert Holland and Tony Springer. The group will meet May 29 with the Vernie Smiths.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Holland were Mr. and Mrs. Cap Holland and Tony Holland of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holland. The Hollands moved into their new home last week and Tony Holland moved home from a dorm on the ASU campus.

Spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hambricht were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Hambricht and boys of Dallas.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Barbara Lee, Billy Ren and Sandy during the weekend were Mrs. Lee's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Thompson and children of Arlington.

Miss Sallye Harris, a teacher in the Floydada Schools, spent Mother's Day weekend with her mother, Mrs. Edna Harris of Maverick. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Donham of Lubbock also were weekend guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harsch of Amarillo spent the Mother's Day weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Balkum, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Harsch of Miles. The Balkums are driving a new pickup.

The James Lees were in San Angelo last weekend helping their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Coates and David, move into a new trailer house which they have recently purchased.

Judi Ogilvy was admitted to Clinic Hospital Monday for treatment for injuries she sustained Sunday while swimming on the Concho River. She dived into a piece of concrete or rock, breaking her nose and bruising her face.

Thanks To Everyone

We Appreciated Your Concern

It was a false alarm Wednesday morning when our burglar alarm was accidentally tripped. However, we were highly pleased with the immediate response from everyone who knew about it. Highway Patrolman Bobby Hart was at the bank in a matter of minutes, and other responses left no doubt that we would have help in a hurry if the bank were actually robbed. We thank everyone who helped.
