Vicki Gartman, 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gartman of Sanco, took a big part of the swine honors. She had the grand and reserve champion Hampshires and then took the overall market hog champion

WINNERS NAMED IN WHITE'S DRAWING

Water District Election Planned

An election will be held Tuesday, Jan. 12, at Bronte city hall to elect three directors for the Coke County Kickapoo Water Control and Improvement District. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. with Noah Pruitt serving as presiding judge.

Terms of Preston Davis, Royce Fancher and Carroll Robbins expire this month and they are all seeking reelection. No other candidates filed for a place on the ballot. Holdover directors are D. K. Glenn and Norman R. Kiker.

Directors of the Kickapoo Water District are charged with looking after the flood control structures which were built a few years ago on the Kickapoo Creeks north and west of Bronte. The dams were constructed after two devastating floods did millions of dollars damage to farm and ranch land, roads and property in the City of Bronte.

(Editor's note: We received a letter several days ago from Mrs. Jim Beyerlein of Indianapolis, Ind., after we published an appeal to our readers to write letters to the Hanoi government of North Vietnam. Mrs. Beyerlein is the former Aletha Murtishaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Murtishaw of Bronte. We are printing part of her letter below.)

Hooray for the enclosed article! For those of us who have been working in this area for so many years, the public interest (finally aroused) has really been heart-lifting.

Tidwell Appointed New School Board Member

James Arnold Tidwell was named a trustee of Bronte Independent School District at the last meeting of the school board. He was appointed to fill the vacancy created when Joe Rawlings resigned.

Tidwell is a life long resident of Bronte and is operator of the Enco Service Station on Highway 277. In addition, he is an employee of McCulloch Oil Co. at its Bronte gas plant. He is married to the former Brenda Corley and they have two children who are students in Bronte School.

In other business, the board:

- * Made an additional study of school property valuations.

COLD WEATHER AROUND AREA ALL THIS WEEK

The Bronte area has experienced the worst cold spell in several years this week. The mercury dropped to 8 degrees early Tuesday morning, was hovering near 20 degrees Wednesday morning and stood at 17 degrees Thursday morning.

Predicted snow failed to materialize. However, Thursday saw clouds in the sky, but no moisture had fallen by press time in the afternoon.

Sweetwater Pair Are Charged with Burglaries at Lake

Two Sweetwater men have been charged with two counts of burglary in connection with incidents which have occurred in the last few weeks in the Oak Creek Lake community in northeastern Coke County.

Charged were Robert Franklin Wade, 26, and Norman Curtis Mounce, 27, both of Sweetwater. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Roy P. Ross of precinct 1 and bonds for each were set at $1250. The matter will come before the next session of the grand jury.

A pickup load of loot was recovered when Coke and Nolan County officers obtained a search warrant and went to a house in Sweetwater.

Deputy Sheriff Grady Coulter said this week that there have been 14 burglaries in the Oak Creek area in the past few weeks and five in the Lake Sweetwater area in Nolan County.

Officers who investigated the case and made the arrests included Sheriff Melvin Childress, Deputy Sheriff Coulter, Sheriff Joe Slater and two deputies of Nolan County, Sweetwater Chief of Police Gerald Byrd and two of his men, Lake Patrolman Aaron Wells and Texas Ranger Gene Graves.

Holiday visitors in the Ernest Seay home were Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Evett from Bayard, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Seay of Comanche and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Seay and Jane of San Angelo.

The date is drawing near all the time for the basketball battle of the year which is set for Jan. 18, when Bronte's two Lions Clubs will tangle for the inter-city Lions Championship.

Some rather unkind things have been said about the playing abilities of both clubs by members of the opposing club. Coach Leonard Fletcher of the Evening Club is carrying on a rather flamboyant publicity attack for his men and seems to have no doubt they can win the ball game.

He was a little despondent for a short time early in the week when he learned his referee, Horace Grigg, was ill and probably wouldn't be able to help call the game. However, he bounced back into good spirits when he talked Noah Pruitt Jr. into taking the job. The other referee will be George Newby of the Noon Club.

Coach J. T. Henry of the Noon Club is taking a quieter "wait and see" attitude toward the game and seems to feel rather smug about the outcome. In an attempted interview this week, he just grinned when asked to divulge his game strategy.

Coach Fletcher handed The Enterprise a list of probable starters for the Evening Club: Joe * Reviewed an alternate method of determining local fund assignment.

* Reviewed a written report on proceeds derived from football games.

* Appointed a textbook selection committee.

* Agreed to study certain student policies with an eye toward revising them.

Letters Requested for Prisoners

this, please stress the fact that these letters really do help. So many people find it hard to believe a simple letter could help in any way. Others have good intentions but busy days and other important things crowd out the few minutes it would take to write the letter.

There have been American POW's in Southeast Asia for over six years. For the past 8 or 9 months letters have been flying everywhere from a suddenly indignant public. Seventy-five per cent of the mail received by families from these POW's has come in these past months.

If you think the people in Bronte would be interested in helping a lot, let me know. I would be happy to send complete lists of names and addresses of leading papers worldwide, and the same of leaders of nations, churches, etc., world wide. Many churches and other organizations have taken it upon themselves to print up letters to pass out to their members. These require only a signature and mailing.

Please do let me know if there is interest and I will be more than happy to do what I can. Hawk and Dove agree on this one problem at least.

Thanks again,
Aletha

Austin — As expected, Texans will be paying higher auto insurance rates next year. But rates will not be as high as first proposed.

State Board of Insurance has announced an average statewide 13.6 per cent increase for all classes of vehicles and coverages. Actually, that's about a 14 per cent overall increase for private passenger cars.

In establishing the rate, the Board, for the first time in its history, took into consideration insurance company income from investments and all other sources. But it backed off from the "net worth concept" which would have produced still higher rates. Staff members of the state regulatory agency last November recommended an average hike of 23.4 per cent. Industry actually asked for 27.7 per cent, and reportedly is disappointed at the end result, since it got only about half of what it wanted.

Board members staunchly defended their findings as adequate, however, and said rates will allow after-tax profit of 5.1 per cent on total assets, or 7.2 per cent before taxes.

Rate of return from policy underwriting reflected in 5.1 per cent profit is only 1.3 per cent after taxes. Profit allocation from interest, dividends and rents is 2.8 per cent after taxes and from realized and unrealized capital gains of 1.9 per cent.

On a sample area basis, policies for average drivers of new, medium priced cars would increase (all averages combined) by the following amounts:

Northeastern zone $25, Southeastern $23, El Paso $29, East Texas oil field area $15, West Texas oil field area $30, Webb County $19, Coastal $24, Rio Grande Valley $20, Galveston County $26, Potter and Randall Counties $24, Denton County $25, Wichita County $21, Dallas County $27 and Harris County $22.

LAWMAKER PAY HIKE PUSHED—A sub-committee of House Speaker Gus Mutscher's blue ribbon "Committee of 100" termed legislator pay "unrealistically low" and said the $4,800 limit should be stricken from the State Constitution.

Sub-panel, headed by Newspaper Publisher S. B. Whittenberg of Amarillo, recommended that a six-member commission be named by the governor to fix legislative pay and expense account boundaries.

VOTE FOR 18 YEAR OLDS—County tax assessors-collectors have been notified that voter registration certificates should be issued to applicants 18 years and above and those who will be 18 by March 1, 1972.

Secretary of State Martin Dies Jr., chief state election officer, has sent out instructions for implementing the U. S. Supreme Court order giving 18 year olds the right to vote in federal elections.

Certificates issued to those under 21 will be labeled for "federal elections only until 21 years of age." Same document will contain birthdate so it can be used for state and local elections after applicant turns 21.

OPINIONS — Commissioner courts are authorized to approve expenditure for dues in non-profit association of counties, says Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin.

In other opinions, Martin ruled that:

* City-county hospital boards can't borrow money for operation except by revenue bonds.

* Higher Education Coordinating Board may alter role and scope of the Texas Tech University Medical School in Lubbock and order initiation of a degree program in veterinary medicine in the school.

* School trustees can deliberate on hiring a teacher in closed session—but not if the teacher demands a public hearing.

* Property taxes, which become exempt between Jan. 1 and Oct. 1 by virtue of the land's being acquired by government agencies, must be prorated to the date of conveyance or date of the order of possession as provided by law.

* County or district attorneys may seek grand jury or commissioner court action against sheriffs releasing prisoners who have not served their time.

AUTO REGISTRATION PERIOD SET—Auto registration period, Feb. 1-April 1, for the second time will utilize the new computerized procedure devised by the Texas Highway Department.

Seven million vehicle owners have begun receiving the three-part renewal application form.

Form and required fee after Feb. 1 should be taken to county tax office, or orders can be placed through mail (by adding $1 for handling costs and postage). At least 30 days before registration deadline should be allowed for delivery of plates ordered by mail.

Presentation of last year's registration receipt or certificate of title is no longer necessary with renewal application form.

BUILDING CONTRACT LET—State Building Commission approved contract for a new seven story state office building to be located five blocks north of the capitol.

Stokes Construction Co. of San Marcos submitted the low bid of $7,076,596.

Alternative bids were also accepted for five possible additional floors, with the contractor to hold the enlargement offer open until Sept. 1.

Ground breaking will be scheduled about Jan. 15. Completion time is estimated at 780 days for the initial stories.

Gov. Bruce King

New Mexico's Governor Bruce King Is Son of Natives of Coke County

New Mexico's new governor, who took office Jan. 1, is a member of the well known King family, pioneers of the Edith community in western Coke County.

The new governor, Bruce King, 46, well known New Mexico rancher and business man, is a grandson of the late Sam and Anna (Benson) King, who were married at Edith in the home of Bruce's great grandparents, the William C. Bensons, who were pioneer homesteaders of that community. The Kings reared their large family at Edith, and several members of the family still reside in this county. D. O. (Dave) King, an uncle of the new governor still lives on the old family home place and has been prominent in West Coke County affairs.

Bruce King, who visited at Edith and Robert Lee many times as a boy, attending a number of the annual King family reunions, won the race for the New Mexico governorship by more than 14,000 votes, the largest majority of any candidate since 1964.

A democrat who is known all over the state, King captured 25 out of the state's 32 counties in defeating a prominent Albuquerque Republican attorney, Pete Domenici.

The tall, friendly rancher who is known to all New Mexicans simply as "Bruce," lives in Stanley, N. M., only a mile from the house in which he was born on the family homestead in 1924.

His father, William S. King, moved from Coke County to Stanley in the early 1920's, shortly after wedding an area girl, Molly Schooler. Homesteading 160 acres, they reared three sons—Sam, Bruce and Don—and a daughter, Leota, now Mrs. Jack Vinion of Libby, Mont.

All three sons actively helped their father run the homestead, particularly during the depression when William King worked for the New Mexico Highway Department. Through sound management and hard work, the homestead had grown to about 20,000 acres in the late 1940's.

Following the senior King's death in 1949, Sam, Bruce and Don continued to expand the operation until today it consists of three ranches in six counties and is one of the largest cattle operations in New Mexico.

In 1947, Bruce King married the former Alice Martin of Moriarty, N. M., a farm community about 10 miles from Stanley. They have two sons, Bill, 19, who recently married the former Paula Stephens of Moriarty, and Gary, 15, a junior at Moriarty High School.

Bruce King first entered politics in 1954, when he was elected to the first two consecutive two year terms on the Santa Fe County Commission. He was chairman of the Commission during his second term.

In 1958 he was elected to the New Mexico House of Representatives for the first of five two year terms. For six years, from 1963-68, he served as Speaker of the House, a record term for that office in the history of New Mexico.

In 1969 King was elected president of the New Mexico Constitutional Convention. He is believed to be only the second man in U. S. history to serve as both Speaker of the House of a state legislature and president of a state constitutional convention.

King made his first run for governor in 1968, when he was second in a six man field in the Democratic Primary. In May of 1970 he defeated two strong contenders in the Primary to become the Democratic nominee.

When the new governor took office Jan. 1, he and Mrs. King moved 45 miles from their Stanley ranch home to the Governor's Mansion in the state capital of Santa Fe, but King will still take an active interest in the operation of the ranching enterprises. His son, Bill, will assume much of his father's role in ranch management.

Bruce served in the U. S. Army Field Artillery in the South Pacific in World War II. He and his wife are active members of the Stanley Union Church, where he serves as a member of the board of directors.

The Kings were honored Jan. 1 with a series of inaugural activities, including the Governor's Inaugural Ball.

Besides his Uncle Dave, the governor still has numerous relatives living in the Robert Lee area, including two aunts, Mrs. Lillie Gaines and Mrs. Vela Plumlee, and several cousins.

The Answer to Carpet Paths
The answer to carpet paths worn by continuous traffic is here—carpet tiles.

The tiles, not permanently attached to the floor, rearrange to create an original floor covering design.

Since most carpet tiles can be applied directly on all types of floors, they also can be switched from room to room. When one moves, he can take up the carpet and move it with him.

Carpet tiles come in various sizes, colors and textures. They are available in differing fibers—a combination of animal fibers, artificial and synthetic fibers; polypropylene which is like some indoor-outdoor carpet; and other synthetic fibers.

For unusual decorative wall treatment, apply carpet tiles to a wall. To attach these to the wall, double-stick carpet tape can be used very easily. All types of patterns can be created with the tiles.

Steaming Bowl of Beans
How good a steaming bowl of beans tastes on a cold windy day.

You'll find, too, that beans provide a most economical high protein dish.

If you buy USDA Choice hand-picked dry beans, you are sure to get the best in quality. This is the top grade issued, and to be worthy of it, most classes of beans must be 98.5 per cent free of defects.

However, USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service has other grades to help you shop wisely—and these also meet rigid standards. U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 2 and U. S. No. 3 beans, in most classes, are 98, 96 and 94 per cent free from defects, respectively. All the grades are high in protein content.

For a dish to serve around the calendar—whatever the season and the weather—this Pinto Bean Pot really heads the list.

First Step:
1 pound (2 rounded cups) pinto beans
6 cups water
¼ teaspoon soda
2 tablespoons vegetable oil or drippings

Wash beans and add water. To soak, either let stand overnight in measured amount of water with soda, or in morning, put beans and the water in large heavy pot or Dutch oven, place over high heat and bring water to boiling point rapidly. Boil two minutes. Remove from heat. Add soda (to shorten cooking time when water is even moderately "hard"). Cover and let stand one hour. This is the equivalent of having beans soak overnight.

To cook, place beans and water in which they were soaked over high heat. Add 2 tablespoons savoury drippings or vegetable salad oil to keep down foam. Bring to boiling point. Reduce heat to simmer. Cover and cook gently until beans are completely cooked, but not mushy—about two hours.

Second step:
2 to 4 tablespoons drippings or ½ cup bacon or salt pork bits, cooked
1 cup coarsely chopped onion
1 clove garlic mashed with 1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon coarse grind black pepper
½ teaspoon crushed oregano
½ teaspoon ground cumin
3 teaspoons chili powder
1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce

Cook onion in drippings or along with bacon or salt pork bits. Add remaining ingredients and ½ cup liquid from the beans. Cook five minutes. Oregano and cumin may be omitted. You may wish to add more chili powder then. Add this mixture to beans. Cover and allow to simmer for two hours to blend flavors. Or turn into casserole and bake covered, in a 325 degree oven for two hours or more. Adjust salt, if necessary, before serving.

To serve, garnish top of Pinto Bean Pot with thin sliced onion and green pepper rings, shreds of nippy Cheddar or Provolone cheese. It's good with barbecued, baked or rotisseried spareribs, prepared with a simple marinade, coleslaw, garlic buttered hard rolls, with coffee and a fruit-cheese tray for dessert.
