Three Elections Set for April

WINNINGEST TEAM — The Bronte Junior High basketball team has set a new school record for the longest winning streak in the school's history. The boys have won 25 games without a loss. Sitting, from

Boys Junior High Team Sets New Victory Record

The Bronte junior high basketball team, most of whose members are graduating into high school this year, have come up with a new record on straight games won, outstripping any of the many powerhouse teams which have gone through Bronte

School in past years.

The lads have won 25 games in a row.

Most of the boys have been playing together since they were in the sixth grade, and each of them seems to have an uncanny knowledge of what to expect from his teammates.

This year's record gives them 17 wins and no losses; last year when they were seventh graders, they had a little tough luck and had only 14 wins to 4 losses; and when they were in the sixth grade they had 8 wins against no losses. This tallies out to give them a three year record of 39 victories with 4 defeats.

Coach James M. Raughton had a few comments to make about some of the boys on the team. He brought out that Dave Chapman has had 20 free throws this season and has made 19 of them. The coach said he had to comment on the defensive playing of Louis Martinez who has been a big factor in holding down scoring by opponents. Raughton said he would have to give "most improved player" honors to Randy Scott and Wayne Alexander. The coach didn't say anything about it, but it seems to this writer that he must also be more than a little bit proud of his own son who led the team's scoring this year with 244 points, an average of 14.3 per game.

Tournament Winners

The team started winning tournaments when they were in the sixth grade and took the Pee Wee tourney at Wingate. When they were seventh graders, they won third in their own tournament and then went on to win consolation at Robert Lee, first at Highland and first at Miles. But this year has been the big

Three elections of interest to citizens of Bronte and the surrounding area are scheduled for April 3. Two of them have been called and it is expected the third will be set up early next week.

Bronte School's board of trustees called an election for April 3 to name three members to that board. Trustees whose terms expire this year are Wayne Arrott, Dale Thompson and James Arnold Tidwell. Even though Tidwell has served as trustee only a short time, having been appointed to fill the unexpired term of J. E. Rawlings, the law states his term expires at the time of the next regular trustee election.

Candidates for trustee must file at least 30 days before the election with the county judge. A name may be placed on the ballot by the candidate himself or by a petition signed by five qualified voters. Both filing forms are available in the superintendent's office.

At its last meeting Bronte city council called a city election for April 3. Terms of Jerry Parker and Bill Thomas expire. Hold-over members are Mayor Martin Lee and Councilmen Tommy Lee, Elroy Butler and Jim Badgett, before the election with the city Candidates should file 30 days secretary.

East Coke County Hospital District directors expect to call an election at a meeting next Tuesday night. This election, also, will be held April 3. Terms of E. F. Glenn and Matthew Caperton expire this year. Candidates for these offices should file 30 days before the election.

Bud Maxwell Remodels Building

W. H. (Bud) Maxwell Jr. has had workmen busy for several days getting his new office ready for occupancy.

Maxwell, consignee for Continental Oil Corp., will move his office from the old station building at the corner of Main and East Railroad Streets to a location in the main business block of Bronte. The office will be in the building formerly occupied by Bronte city hall.

Maxwell has put a new tile front on the building and is making other improvements prior to his move.

The old Conoco station building will be torn down to make way for more units in Bronte's housing project.

Pee Wees Enter Wingate Tourney

Bronte Elementary School's Pee Wee basketball teams will participate in a tournament this weekend at Wingate.

The fifth and sixth grade teams have their first games Thursday afternoon, with the girls meeting Blackwell at 5 p.m. and the boys playing Blackwell at 6 p.m.

Coaches James M. Raughton and Mrs. Zula Sweeten said everyone in the area is invited to attend the tournament. Second games for the local teams will be Saturday morning.

SWEETHEART AND BEAU—Mike Arrott, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeDrew Arrott, was chosen by members of the Bronte FFA as their Beau for this school year. Andra Cooper received a similar honor when members of the FFA Chapter named her Chapter Sweetheart.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cooper. Andra is secretary-treasurer of the Junior Class, a member of the Spanish Club and plays basketball. Mike is vice president of the FFA, parliamentarian of the Student Council and plays football and basketball.

Sims Food Store To Move Next Week

Sims Food Store will be in a different location after this week. Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sims Jr. and their employees will begin at the end of store hours Saturday to move the business across the street into the building where C. R. Smith & Co. was located.

Sims is offering everything in his store at a 10 per cent discount Friday and Saturday. Every item in the store will be sold at the discount price, except cigarettes, coffee and sugar, he said.

The owners have a two-fold purpose for offering the discount: they want to sell as much of their stock as possible so they won't have to move it, and they want everybody to stock up on food items so their customers will not run short during the time they are closed to make the move.

The store will be closed Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday for the moving operation. Sims said he might be able to open some time next Thursday, but he rather thought it would be Friday morning. He said he would have several thousand dollars worth of new merchandise on the shelves when the store reopens.

A grocery in Sims' new location will be no new thing for the building. The Pruitt family operated a grocery business in the building for many years, and prior to that, the late Tom Price had a grocery store there for many years.

Sims said the new location will give them quite a bit more space for display of their merchandise. They have redecorated the building, put in new wiring, lowered the ceiling, added some new fixtures and made other improvements the past few months since they bought the building.

Austin — Legislators have cleared major emergency finance hurdles and are moving to other fronts to hold down the size of the tax bill.

A $34.9 million appropriation bill to avert reduction in aid to needy families with dependent children passed both houses and went to Comptroller Robert S. Calvert for certification.

Before he would accept the bill, Calvert advised passage of another which would re-align priorities in the state's massive omnibus tax clearance fund. In effect, this would permit turning over to welfare some $35 million that normally would go to the teacher retirement fund between April and August.

Teachers association and retirement fund leaders had no formal objection to the latter, although it would cost the retirement fund an estimated $100,000 to $600,000 in short-term interest. However, the fund will be repaid in full when the ultimate new tax bill goes into effect on Sept. 1.

While these measures were moving methodically through the House and Senate, the House passed a bill to establish a $185 million bond plan to finance construction on eight new college campuses. Bonds would be repaid from tuitions, and would cost taxpayers little. Final approval of the plan in the Senate would relieve the tax bill of a heavy load in order to build new institutions already authorized by the 1969 Legislature.

Still another potentially important money bill won quick Senate approval. It would require all cities and counties, population 10,000 and above, to report to the state all welfare spending for the medically needy. If federal officials will agree, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes proposes subsequent legislation to require all these local funds be routed through the state treasury, where hopefully they would attract an extra $100 million in two-to-one matching federal aid.

"PEOPLE'S LOBBY" FORMS — A new liberal group—including representatives of labor, ethnic and environmental interests—has organized an "issues oriented" people's lobby.

About 300 attended the organizational meeting. Former U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough and former U. S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark were the main speakers.

Congressman Bob Eckhardt of Houston was named temporary chairman and State Sens. Barbara Jordan of Houston and Joe Bernal of San Antonio, temporary vice chairmen. Twelve steering committee members were chosen to work with them.

By a divided vote, the group decided to steer clear of candidate endorsement (although there was plenty of speculation at the meeting that Yarborough may run for governor in 1972) and concentrate on specific legislative goals.

COURTS SPEAK — Houston's Kirkwood Civic Club, which insures enforcement of deed restrictions and sponsors lawn beautification contests, is not exempt from the state franchise tax, says the State Supreme Court.

A letter terming a woman an "undesirable" renter (filed with an apartment association) was a privileged communication and not libelous, High Court ruled in another Harris County case.

Third Court of Civil Appeals held that Humble Oil and Refining Co. is entitled to get back $92,000 in taxes paid the state, plus interest, on oil and gas leases at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station.

Third Court agreed that Merton Independent School District had the right to annex Barnhart ISD.

OPEN MEETINGS AMENDMENT PROPOSED — A bill to require notice before and posting of minutes afterward concerning closed door meetings of public agencies was heard by the House State Affairs Committee.

Closed meetings now can be held legally to discuss personnel, real estate or security matters.

Bill by Rep. Dave Allred of Wichita Falls would not ban these meetings, but would require notice in advance that they are to be held. Within three days, under the bill, minutes sketching the action which took place in the closed meeting would have to be made public. Bill went to subcommittee for study.

Meanwhile, Sen. Mike McKool of Dallas introduced a bill (SB 314) to require publishers, broadcasters and billboard concerns to charge their "lowest" rate for political advertising. Bill proposes $100 fine and recovery action for "excess charge."

FIRST BILL SIGNED — First bill of the legislative session — reopening voter registration through February — was signed into law by Governor Smith.

Voters who register this month cannot take part in elections before April 1. Those who registered before the close of the old deadline, in January, can vote by March 1.

Short Snorts

Legislature has resolutions calling on U. S. Secretary of Agriculture to allow Texas more time to comply with federal meat inspection standards before taking over the inspection program.

Governor Smith offered the services of the Texas medical disaster team to earthquake hit California.

Senate approved constitutional amendments to require annual sessions of the legislature, repeal of the annual voter registration requirement and to allow 18 year olds to vote in all elections.

A fish kill (with rotenone) is scheduled at Lyndon B. Johnson Reservoir near Marble Falls, on March 27-28, to rid the lake of rough fish. Hundreds of fishermen are expected to be there with nets.

Public hearings on master plans for the initial development of five new state parks will be held here Feb. 24 and 26.

(10) The commission is further authorized to recommend to each Legislature changes which will update, improve, and effect economy in the legislative process."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the 18th day of May, 1971, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment to create a State Ethics Commission empowered to set rules of ethics for members of the Legislature, State officers and legislative officers, to investigate violations thereof, and to recommend compensation for members of the Legislature and the Lieutenant Governor and recommend improvements and economy in the legislative process."

The final game was a thriller, but the local lads pulled it off with a 40-37 score. Kelly was high pointer with 12, Raughton had 9, Barbee and Alexander 5 each, Coulter 4, and Mark Lee 1.

Sherrie Coalson, Debbie Sowell and Doug Kelly were selected on the all-tournament teams.

incorporating pertinent industrial location information on Robert Lee into the nation's most sophisticated computerized site location data bank.

Local persons receiving citations were Noah L. Pruitt Jr., Mrs. Helen Kirkland, Marvin Bryant, C. B. Barbee, Bill Luckett, H. O. Whitt and Mayor Martin Lee.

Out of town contributors recognized were Clifford Daniel of Lone Star Gas Co. and J. B. Goss of General Telephone Co.

Called "Insta-Site," the computer program has already received two distinguished awards itself from the Southern Industrial Development Council, a professional society covering 16 Southern states.

Participation of local leaders in gathering information for "Insta-Site" means that information on Bronte industrial assets will be instantly available to all industrial firms considering new plant sites in Texas.

Sheffield presented Mrs. Kirkland, who served as the commission's local coordinator for the project, a massive 88 page printout containing 1444 items of information on the Bronte area. Local award recipients collected data for 393 items of information on the printout and the balance was collected for the community by the commission staff.

The local group will review the information and make necessary changes, and then a Community Analysis Report will be available which shows how Bronte compares with other cities of similar size as a place to locate an industry.

Vaccination for Rubella Planned

A mass immunization of children, ages 1-10, against German measles (rubella) is scheduled at Bronte School next Tuesday, Feb. 23. All school children through 10 years of age, as well as all pre-school children in the community are eligible to receive the vaccine.

The service is free and there will be no charge of any kind, said Supt. C. B. Barbee.

In order to receive the vaccine, a child has to present a form signed by a parent or guardian, giving permission for the service to be administered. Parents of pre-school children may sign the form when they bring their children to the school. The forms were sent to homes of all school children Wednesday.

The vaccination is painless as the medicine will be administered by an air propelled needle which does the job with little or no pain.

Barbee urged that all families take advantage of the free service.

Health authorities have determined that rubella is probably the chief cause of birth defects in children. The disease is relatively simple for the person who contracts it, but the problem lies in the damage done to an unborn child when a pregnant mother has the disease.

The immunization program will be administered in cooperation with Bronte Hospital.

180 Teachers Here For Workshop

Supt. C. B. Barbee said the teachers had a very successful day and learned a great deal from the programs presented.

Mrs. Clark Glenn spent the weekend visiting her daughter, Mrs. David Kuykendall and family in Fort Worth, and her son, Vic Glenn at Irving.

RL Man Wounded In Mon. Shooting

Ynes Lara, 19, of Robert Lee is hospitalized in San Angelo as a result of a shooting incident which occurred about 1 a.m. Monday. Sheriff Melvin Childress said an investigation of the incident by his office has been completed, but no arrests have been made.

The sheriff said he plans to present the matter to a 51st District Court grand jury as soon as it can be convened, probably in mid-March.

Childress said he, Deputy Sheriff Grady Coulter and Highway Patrolman Arthur Sikes were called to the home of Mrs. Jean Salmon about two miles north of Robert Lee at approximately 1 a.m. Monday.

The sheriff said they found Lara lying wounded in the front yard of the Salmon home. Apparently he had been shot at close range, about 15 feet, with a .45 caliber pistol.

Mrs. Salmon, a widow, lives with her daughter, Ginger, 15. The two had gone to bed before the incident occurred. Mrs. Salmon told Sheriff Childress that the shooting occurred after she heard a noise outside the bedroom window of her home and then heard someone in a hallway entrance to the house.

Investigating officers called a Newby ambulance before they left town. The ambulance took the wounded man to West Coke County Hospital where he received first aid, and then transferred him to Shannon Hospital in San Angelo.

Brown Lumber Co. Yard Destroyed In Disastrous Fire Last Thursday

One of the worst and most spectacular fires in the history of Robert Lee occurred late last Thursday afternoon when the lumber shed of Brown Lumber & Supply was ignited from a grass fire on the vacant part of the block west of the yard. The lumber yard was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Brown.

A total of 89,000 gallons of water was poured onto the flames in a successful effort to contain the fire. This was in addition to water carried in the trucks of fire departments who answered the call to help.

The fire was discovered shortly after 5 p.m. and the 100x200 foot structure rapidly was engulfed in flames. The building was about 75 to 80 feet in height and created a spectacular sight as the flames rushed over it.

A 25 to 30 mile per hour wind was blowing at the time of the blaze and it was a battle for the firemen to keep the fire from spreading. The strength of the wind was attested to by the fact that cinders blew about two blocks to the back side of the courthouse square and set fire to dead grass there.

In spite of this one instance of the fire's blowing, firemen and other observers were surprised that more cinders didn't blow around and catch more nearby areas afire. The area behind the business buildings on the west side of the downtown business district caught fire for a time but firemen were able to extinguish the flames before they got to any of the stores.

Firefighters from Sterling City, Bronte and the San Angelo Emergency Corps joined Robert Lee firemen in fighting the blaze. All 25 members of the Robert Lee Fire Department were in town and on hand to fight the fire.

After the fire was brought under control, a bulldozer belonging to J. D. Harmon was pressed into service to make fire guards and to move the burning materials so water could be poured onto them. A close watch was kept all night, however, with Elwood Hambricht, Fire Marshal Buzz Sawyer and Brown doing the duties until 4 a.m. when they were replaced for the remainder of the night by J. C. Wallace Jr.

Brown was hesitant to make an estimate of the amount of the damage, but said it would run into thousands of dollars. He had received a new shipment of lumber the first of the week and all of it was lost, along with what was already on hand. Brown said he had some insurance on the building and its contents, but not nearly enough to cover the loss.

Everybody who witnessed the incident had loud praise for the Robert Lee Fire Department, as well as for all the neighbors from Sterling City, San Angelo and Bronte who rushed to the aid of the local firefighters.

Washington — In football the only sure way to break up a forward pass is to block the passer. Iran, one of the heaviest producers of opium, has applied this tactic to dope peddlers with what they say is maximum effects.

Poppy farmers in Iran are under Government supervision. The acreage devoted to poppy raising is allotted and all production is sold to the Iranian Government at a fixed price. As would be expected there is also a large amount grown outside that allowed. It is sold illegally at a higher price than that sold under regulation. The same situation exists in Turkey, where there is even larger poppy production.

Poppies sold on the black market are crudely processed in clandestine plants in Iran and Turkey. The rough product is then taken to France where, again, it is illegally refined into heroin and other drugs for illicit sale, a large amount of which finds its market in the United States.

Our country's representatives have been in consultation with Turkey and Iran in efforts to curb the illicit traffic of drugs to this country. A subsidy to farmers of both countries to reduce acreage has been considered, with the U. S. contributing.

In the meantime, we are discussing with France her responsibilities of taking action against dope refineries. It seems some headway has been made but certainly more needs to be done.

Iran itself has a narcotics problem and has recently invoked the death penalty against peddlers convicted of a second offense. Iranian officials say that since a number of peddlers have faced a firing squad, their drug problem has come under control.

The drug problem in this country is common knowledge. Even one addict is a problem to someone—himself and to the family.

Multiplied by two million or more—and no one knows for sure—it becomes a crisis. To make the matter more sad and alarming is the fact that addiction has spread to grammar school children. This is known to be happening here in Washington and is declared to be the case in a number of our large cities.

Murder in the first degree, since the beginning of time, has been the most serious offense under any kind of legal order. In this century the murder of the soul of a child might well be considered a more dastardly crime than the killing of the physical body of a man.

The dope addict not only becomes the victim of the drug seller but a menace to all society. A victim in the awful grip of addiction is under compulsion to satisfy his habit which may run to a cost of $100 or more a day. As a result a huge percentage of the crimes of violence are committed to obtain money to buy drugs. Our nation's capital is an appalling example.

Vast sums of money are being spent for the care and treatment of narcotic victims. The numbers continue to grow—the results in treatment appear doubtful.

This is not a dissertation on the moral question of the death penalty—a subject of many dimensions. It is, however, an issue currently debated in many state legislatures. Also debated is the distinction for punishment between the possession of narcotics by the user and the possession by the dope pusher. There is obviously a great difference if it can be identified.

The observation of President Thomas Jefferson might be appropriate when he noted that "the choice of two evils is often a necessity of political life." The most severe penalty on the dope peddler, as between the conversion of school children to drugs, is the lesser of evils. It is not a matter of the care of the criminal but rising to the defense of children.

For thousands of years, man has defined crimes against property and against his physical person. It remained for the scientific 20th century to produce crimes against the soul.
