AD-LIB-BEN

Coke County voters needs to be doing some serious thinking about a decision they will make in a little more than two weeks. The matter to be decided is whether or not they are willing to foot the bill to protect and preserve their investment of more than a half million dollars in paved streets and roads.

Paving projects in this county were started in 1954 and others were voted in 1955 and 1959, making the first part some 17 years old and the newest about 13 years old.

We believe that the tremendous amount of paving in Coke County has served our citizens well and is something we are all proud of and enjoy using. Paved streets in Robert Lee and Bronte not only have added to the convenience of citizens from over the entire county, but have added a great deal to the appearance of the two towns.

Commissioners have done a good job of keeping up the paving and it's impossible to know how much money they have spent out of current operating funds in their efforts to keep holes patched and keep the streets and roads in good shape for everyone to use.

Now the time has come when all the streets and roads need a good sealcoat job. A project of this magnitude is impossible to finance with current operating funds, and it is necessary to vote the proposed bond issue if we are going to continue to have good streets and roads in Coke County. The alternative is continued deterioration and rough streets full of holes.

It's true, there will have to be a small increase in taxes to finance this project, but it's one that needs to be done and, like all good things, somebody has to pay the bill.

Coke County citizens would do well to think positively on this matter.

The Open House will be hosted by their children, Bobby Joe Vaughn and Jack Vaughn, and their families. All of their friends are invited to attend and the Vaughns have asked that no gifts be brought.

Included in the house party will be Mrs. Heidi Brunson, Mrs. L. D. (Ethel) Hay of Roswell, N. M., and Misses Jolene and Vickie Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were married here on Feb. 8, 1922. They have spent their entire married life here. Mr. Vaughn is a native of Bronte and Mrs. Vaughn was born in Erath County. A son, James Vaughn, was lost during World War II.

They have six grandchildren: Jolene, Bruce and James Lynn, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Vaughn, and Vickie, Kathie and Jackie, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vaughn.

Politics Warm on W. Side

A three way race developed in Coke County Monday as the deadline for filing for the May Democratic Primary passed. Fred McCabe Jr., a rancher, announced as a candidate for commissioner in Precinct 3. Two other candidates for that post are Jett Hood and Elmo Bell. They are seeking to replace Floyd Harmon, who is not seeking reelection.

Four candidates are in the race for commissioner of Precinct 1. They are Albert N. (Bob) Fields, Wilson Bryan, Roy Casey and Larry Jameson.

Unopposed county candidates are Sheriff Melvin Childress; Tax Assessor-Collector O. B. Jacobs; County Attorney Roy Ford; and Constables Ollie Roe of Precinct 1 and Sam Sissom of Precinct 2.

Statewide, there are 10 Democrats and seven Republicans seeking the governor's office. Three strongest candidates include incumbent Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and businessman Dolph Briscoe. The first woman to run for governor since the days of the late Gov. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, Rep. Frances Farenthold, announced this week.

Five Democrats are entered in the Primary to oppose Sen. John Tower, including former Sen. Ralph Yarborough and Dallas lawyer Barefoot Sanders.

Nine Democrats are running for lieutenant governor. Most prominently known are State Senator Joe Christie of El Paso, Wayne Connally of Floresville and Ralph Hall of Rockwall.

Austin — New guidelines for conduct of the state's first publicly financed primary elections reached local election officials this week.

Secretary of State Bob Bullock, as chief Texas election officer, drafted the rules in line with a federal court amendment to the decision outlawing filing fees as proposed in a 1971 law.

Bullock interpreted the latest order as authorizing the state to foot the bill for primary election costs. He said an earlier opinion permitted use of nominal filing fees to regulate length of the ballot but not as a revenue raising device placing a wealth requirement on candidacy.

The chief election officer ordered this mandatory filing fee schedule for both Democratic and Republican candidates (or an alternative nominating petition signed by qualified voters):

Statewide offices, $400; U. S. representative, $300; state senator, $150; state representative, $100; chief justice or associate justice, court of civil appeals, $100; member state board of education, $50; district judge or judge of any court having district office status, $100; district attorney or criminal district attorney, $100; all county offices except county surveyor or inspector of hides and animals, $100; inspector of hides and animals, $50; county commissioner, $50; justice of the peace or constable for counties above 200,000 population, $50; justice of the peace or constable for counties under 200,000, $25; all party offices, no fee.

Fees must be paid in full by Feb. 28. In lieu of filing fees, candidates may elect to file petitions by a March 6 deadline. For statewide offices, 2,500 signatures are necessary. For other offices, signatures urging candidacy must be equal in number to at least two per cent of the entire vote cast for a party's gubernatorial candidate in the last general election for the territory served—or at least 25 and no more than 300 signers.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has stated he will ask an attorney general's opinion on legality of Bullock's proposal to finance May and June primaries with funds transferred from another state appropriation. Gov. Preston Smith applauded the plan and said he will direct the necessary transfer.

ALLOWABLE GOES UP — The February oil allowable has been pushed up another 4.1 per cent in answer to demands for more production.

Texas Railroad Commission set the allowable at 75.8 per cent the following week after announcing it would be 71.7 per cent.

Chairman Byron Tunnell said several Texas refineries insisted they could not get enough crude oil to meet demands for February if the allowable were set at the 71.7 per cent factor.

The allowable has been raised for three straight months, and the new adjusted February mark is the highest since a 77.2 per cent factor last May.

Tunnell said requests amount to a firm demand for an additional 76,000 barrels of crude oil a day for the month. The new allowable will permit an extra 75,717 barrels a day.

Texas crude stocks Jan. 21 came to 90,994,000 barrels, down 18.3 million from the same time in 1971.

COLORADO BASIN PLAN ORDERED — A water quality cleanup plan for the Colorado River Basin must be completed by local, state and federal authorities by July 1973 to meet a federal requirement for loans.

Cities of Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, San Angelo, Brownwood and Austin may be affected by the decision for years to come. A U. S. House resolution directed federal engineers to review reports on the Colorado and tributaries and compile the study of 54 county basin including 890 river miles.

Efforts will be made to define areas generating most pollutants and to propose basinwide approaches to correcting problems.

COURTS SPEAK — Policemen relying on first time informers for information should have to identify them sufficiently to prove reliability before search warrants are issued, the Court of Criminal Appeals held.

Texas Supreme Court admitted that fine print technicalities in an ant injustice, but concluded that changes should be made by the Insurance Board or legislature rather than judges.

A faulty search warrant based on hearsay resulted in reversal by the Court of Criminal Appeals of a four year sentence of a former University of Texas professor on marijuana possession charges.

Short Snorts

A state appeal from a federal court decision that illiterate voters must get aid at the polls was withdrawn at the governor's demand.

New state highway maps are now available, and Highway Department tourist bureaus reported a 16 per cent increase in travel services for 1971.

County Democratic Chairmen will hold an organization meeting here Saturday (Feb. 12).

Democrats are feuding over adoption of required new party rules for conventions and conduct of business.

An application has been filed to charter a new American (State) Bank at Odessa.

Teachers finally got their three months' retroactive pay raises cleared.

The personal income index rose eight per cent in Texas last year.

An Old Fashion RECIPE

(Editor's Note: We have possession of a most interesting old book, containing recipes, household hints, home remedies, etc., published almost 100 years ago, in 1874. We plan to reprint it in book form, but in the meantime, we want to share some of its contents with our readers. These recipes, etc., were before the days of refrigeration and modern ranges, and cooking as we know it today—oleo, foil, waxed paper and many items homemakers of today take for granted just hadn't been invented yet. It should be remembered that at that time, all foods were health foods—there were no additives, nor take-aways. Food was just as nature let it grow. We hope you will enjoy the ones we have time and space to print. Since we Coke Countians are known as rabbit twisters, we will begin with a recipe for rabbits.)

Fricasseeed Rabbits

The best way of cooking rabbits is to fricassee them. Cut them up, or disjoint them. Put them in a stewpan; season them with Cayenne pepper, salt and some chopped parsley. Pour in a pint of warm water (or veal broth, if you have it) and stew it over a slow fire till the rabbits are quite tender; adding (when they are about half done) some bits of butter rolled in flour. Just before you take it from the fire enrich the gravy with a gill or more of thick cream with some nutmeg grated into it. Stir the gravy well, but take care not to let it boil after the cream is in, lest it curdle. Put the pieces of rabbit on a hot dish, and pour the gravy over them.

To Cure Toothache

The worst toothache, or neuralgia coming from the teeth, may be speedily and delightfully ended by the application of a bit of clean cotton, saturated in a solution of ammonia, to the defective tooth. Sometimes the late sufferer is prompted to momentary laughter by the application, but the pain will disappear.

Rule for Eating

Never sit down to table with an anxious or disturbed mind; better a hundred times intermit the meal, for there will then be that much more food in the world for hungrier stomachs than yours; and besides eating under such circumstances can only, and will always, prolong and aggravate the condition of things.

GARY DON ALLEN ON TECH DEAN'S LIST

Gary Don Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allen of Bronte, has been named to the Dean's List at Texas Tech University in Lubbock. The announcement was made by John R. Bradford, dean of the college of engineering. Allen had a 3.0 on the 4.0 scale.

Allen is president of the student chapter of the American Institute of Industrial Engineers, and served last fall as vice president of the group. Officers have instigated a major organizational change to affect a more operational character to the chapter.

He has also served as Industrial Engineering representative to the Engineering Student Council, a group promoting more and better communication between students of the entire college of engineering. Allen is faculty representative of the A.I.I.E. to the Industrial Engineering Department.

A senior student, Allen has received an invitation as a prospective pledge to Alpha Pi Mu fraternity, an honorary, nationally affiliated, Industrial Engineering fraternity.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Ben:

How long can we stand the rising cost of medical care? Medicaid and Medicare are dictating to the hospitals and nursing homes to the extent that it is ridiculous. At the present rate that they are moving, a nurse will have to take a prescription to a registered pharmacist before an aspirin can be dispensed.

I think we should bombard our representatives with mail. Just about everything the government fools with gets the pungent odor of decaying garbage.

Loy Wrinkle.

Chief Master Sergeant James R. Clark of Travis AFB, Calif., was here the weekend of Jan. 29 to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Willie B. Millikin. He and a friend, Sgt. Jim Tyler, caught an Air Force plane to Carswell AFB in Fort Worth, then came on to Bronte. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Jack Gentry and Mike of Tyler also spent the weekend in the Clark home and the R. J. Millikin family of Abilene visited the group on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wahrmond have returned from an extended visit to the Gulf coast. They left Jan. 6 and visited in Galveston in the home of their granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Johnson. They made the acquaintance of their new great-granddaughter, Sharon Courtney Johnson. They also visited in Orange and other points in the area.

New Tax Exemptions

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Freeman of Fort Worth are parents of a new son, Mitchell Rea, born Tuesday, Feb. 8, at 7:15 p.m. in Harris Hospital there. He weighed eight pounds, six ounces.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sissom and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Freeman, all of Bronte.

Mrs. Sissom went to Fort Worth Monday to visit in the Freeman home for several days.

AFRICAN STUDENT TO SPEAK TO METHODISTS FEB. 20

Everyone is invited to attend.

What you don't see is what you get.

We all know the old paycheck disappearing act: now you see it—now you don't. Somehow, all the money gets spent before you get a chance to stash away some savings. But there is a way to beat this—with U.S. Savings Bonds.

When you join the Payroll Savings Plan, the money you want to save is set aside from your paycheck and put into U.S. Savings Bonds, before you can get your hands on it. That way, the money's out of sight—and out of mind—until you need it.

And now there's a bonus interest rate on all U.S. Savings Bonds—for E Bonds, 5½% when held to maturity of 5 years, 10 months (4% the first year). That extra ½%, payable as a bonus at maturity, applies to all Bonds issued since June 1, 1970 ... with a comparable improvement for all older Bonds. That means your savings will grow faster than ever before.

Join the Payroll Savings Plan. The money deducted from your paycheck is what you don't see—but what you're getting is a healthy nest egg of Savings Bonds—and that's a lot.

Bonds are safe. If lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace them. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Tax may be deferred until redemption. And always remember, Bonds are a proud way to save.

Take stock in America. Now Bonds pay a bonus at maturity.

Coke Voters Must Register to Vote

1972 is a big election year with offices ranging from the lowest elected official to the President of the United States to be voted upon.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman
17th District

Washington — What has been labelled by some as the "monster of the 20th century," the computer, and its possible effects on the privacy of our citizens has been and still is a concern of many here in the Congress.

This so-called "monster of the 20th century" has touched most of us directly or indirectly in recent years. It is being used in medical research to an extent which astounds most of us. Research on one of our most dreaded diseases, cancer, is being conducted by the computer in both private and government funded institutions throughout the United States, including the National Institutes of Health. The results of this type of computer activity could make it possible to identify the causes of cancer and hopefully its eventual cure. The computer has also made it possible for hospitals throughout the country to better serve the needs of heart attack victims by making it possible to monitor heart rhythms.

The banking industry, large commercial establishments, the credit card industry and the like have made it possible for many to come "eye to eye" with the computer in our daily lives. Many of these confrontations are frustrating; the most common complaint being that it is just impossible to communicate with a computer when attempting to rectify a computer mistake. Yes, even computers make mistakes, even though it has been fairly well established that its mistakes are, in most cases, caused by humans—the programmers.

Let us look at some of the more sinister activities a computer is also capable of performing, both in public and private applications. It is now being used to predict behavior of our citizens—how they will think, act and even vote. The privacy invading capacity of the computer has long been a concern of Sen. Sam Ervin of North Carolina, one of our foremost authorities on constitutional principles. He is particularly concerned with what happens to all the computerized information gathered and being gathered by government agencies and for what purposes it is being used.

The computer and its applications are predicted to be America's largest industry by 1980 and even the computer industry itself is beginning to look to the government to provide an intelligent framework for its anticipated growth. It is felt guidelines must be established to cope with such things as a "Universal Birth Identification Card," similar to the credit card, which would feed into a national data bank every human transaction from birth to death. Everything from taking a bus ride or buying a newspaper, under some plans for a cashless-checkless society, would be a part of the utilization of such a card. The card would be a necessary consideration of every act and would provide for the recording of every human act.

There are thousands of similar techniques now being encouraged and while we must recognize and support the immense benefits to be gained from the wonders of modern science and advance behavior research made possible by the computer, there is also an obligation to see that we do not restrict the freedom of Americans.

Laundering Special Care Fabrics

How can today's homemaker combat chapped hands in winter? She can learn to use her washer properly.

Many automatic washers offer a choice of agitation and spin speeds that allow the user to wash many items once laundered only by hand.

Medium speed agitation protects loosely woven fabrics, most acetates and well made garments of delicate construction. Normal speed agitation works best for slightly sturdier garments.

Slow agitation best handles anything that requires gentle care due to fiber, fabric or construction. Typical examples would include a wool blanket, a lace table cloth, fragile lingerie and some machine washable knits.

The option of slow agitation speed offers an excellent alternative to hand laundering. Anything requiring gentle care holds up better if agitated and spun at a slow speed.

If your washer has cycles marked for various kinds of fabrics and loads, learn how to use them.

Special cycles provide the proper water temperature, agitation and spin speeds for the loads indicated. A recently developed cycle effectively cleans permanent press fabrics. Another cycle also recently invented handles machine washable knit fabrics.

If your washer does not launder special care fabrics satisfactorily, when you launder the items by hand, be sure to use water temperatures that are comfortable to your hands. It's best, however, to wear plastic gloves to prevent chapping.

Be certain that soaps or detergents thoroughly dissolve before putting the garments into the water. Carefully squeeze the suds through the fabrics.

Rinsing hand laundered garments at least two times is recommended. When rinsed, the water should be squeezed out of the garments or pressed out of them by wringing the items in a bath towel.

Many hand washables will drip-dry almost wrinkle free. If you drip-dry, avoid squeezing or wringing the articles during the washing and rinsing steps.

No one method works for every washable garment. Save the labels or hang tags on every garment that requires special care, and follow the instructions carefully.

Food Briefs

The American homemaker will no longer have to apologize for serving her family frozen convenience dinners.

The Food and Drug Administration reports that nutritional guidelines for frozen dinners will appear soon.

A frozen dinner must furnish 4.6 grams of protein for every 100 calories to meet these nutritional guidelines. The guidelines will also contain other recommended levels for vitamin A, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, iron and in some cases, calcium.

Today's frozen dinners usually provide a broad range of nutrients at reasonably acceptable levels. The increased protein and the use of iodized salt would considerably improve an already nutritionally acceptable product.

Work continues on nutritional guidelines for meat imitations, breakfast cereals, snack foods and prepared entrees. These guidelines will affect the nutrition labeling, ingredient and fat labeling for these products.

If you're looking for "something different," USDA scientists recently developed a pinto bean powder. The powder can be used to make refried beans and to season frozen Mexican pizzas.

Milk and other food products may be enriched with iron by the addition of a new powder which combines iron with the proteins in cottage cheese whey. If approved, it may provide preferred means of enriching dairy products, bread and other foods with iron.

Man made edible containers remain a concept of long standing interest to the food technologist and packaging engineer. Candies, raw poultry and meat products, breaded items, and sausage items all seem to offer possibilities for using edible containers in the future.

W. E. (Pete) Snelson Enters Race for Reelection As Senator from Dist. 25

Senator W. E. (Pete) Snelson of Midland announced Feb. 3 that he is a candidate for re-election to the Texas Senate from the 25th District, which includes 35 counties in West and Southwest Texas.

Senator Snelson is currently serving as President Pro Tempore of the Texas Senate and as such is second in line of succession to the office of Governor. He served as the acting Governor of Texas on two occasions last year when the Governor and Lieutenant Governor were absent from the state.

"I am seeking to return to this office on the basis of my record of service to the people of the area and state," said Senator Snelson.

"Representing the largest senatorial district in the nation and its diversity of interests is a challenging and rewarding experience, and I am grateful for the confidence which the people have expressed in my past service," said Senator Snelson.

Counties which are still in the 25th District are Brewster, Crane, Crockett, Edwards, Irion, Jeff Davis, Kinney, Loving, Midland, Pecos, Presidio, Reagan, Reeves, Schleicher, Sutton, Terrell, Tom Green, Upton, Uvalde and Val Verde.

Counties added to the district by the reapportionment act of Oct. 15, 1971, are: Bandera, Coke, Comal, Culberson, Gillespie, Glasscock, Kendall, Kerr, Kimble, Llano, Mason, Real, Sterling, Ward and Winkler.

"The 63rd Legislature will face many momentous decisions in such areas as financing public schools, welfare reform, changes in the area of the state's courts, revamping of legislative procedures and the enactment of a meaningful code of ethics," said Senator Snelson. "I believe my experience can help in obtaining the best solutions possible."

As a member of the 62nd Legislature Senator Snelson serves as chairman of the Oil & Gas Committee, vice chairman of Education and chairman of the permanent sub-committee on public education and vice chairman of the local and consent calendar committee. He also served on the committees on administration; agriculture and livestock; claims; constitutional amendments; environmental matters; finance, which handles senate appropriations; legislative, congressional and judicial districts; nominations; state affairs; transportation and water and conservation.

In addition, he is a member of the five-man Senate General Investigating Committee. During the regular session, the committee conducted a thorough investigation in the shortcomings of state banking and insurance laws that came to light as a result of the failure of the Sharpstown State Bank. The work of this committee resulted in the drafting of nine bills, eight of which were passed by the Legislature.

Born into a pioneer West Texas farm and ranch family in Ward County, Senator Snelson is active in the business affairs of the area as the owner of an advertising agency. He is married to the former Susan Sutton and they live at 2406 Shell Street in Midland with their children, Gene, 11; Sandra, 9; Steven, 7; and Shane, 3.

Snelson received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Texas at El Paso and a Master's degree from Northwestern University. He is a purple heart veteran of World War II.

ONE INDICTED MONDAY

A Coke County grand jury met Monday and returned an indictment of David Franklin King of Wichita Falls, charged with DWI subsequent offense. Highway Patrolman Bobby Hart investigated an incident leading to his arrest. In a session of 51st District Court held Monday, Don A. Hill was granted a divorce from Noel G. Hill.

Jury cases are scheduled to be heard beginning Feb. 21.
