Hi folks, well the rains came. It was really wonderful and beneficial to everyone. We did hear a few folks say they wish it would stop raining or that they had received too much already. Oh well, I don't suppose everyone can be pleased at the same time. This week we would like to discuss a few safety measures to observe around your home to prevent fires. On the average there are 1100 American homes struck by fire each day, and in these homes taking approximately 30 lives. These safety measures can be observed by following the simple ABC's of good house-keeping. The ABC's simply are Always Be Careful. In following the Always Be Careful rule here are a few things you folks can keep in mind. If frying meat catches on fire, cover the pan with a tight metal lid until the fire is smothered. Do not use candles near curtains or draperies. Avoid placing paper or flammable materials on a stove or pilot lights. Since many plastic materials are extremely combustible avoid using them near fires. Take special care that children do not play near open flames with plastic or flammable toys. Dispose of combustible wastes promptly. Scrapings of shellac or varnish from furniture or floors should be wrapped and put in an outside containers. Never throw them in a fire. Use a flameproof ironing board cover and avoid letting the iron lay flat on the ironing board when not in motion. Avoid storing oil mops or flammable materials in a heater closet. Take special care of all electrical appliances and always check cords for worn or frayed spots on them. Avoid using gasoline for cleaning clothes, floors, woodwork, or anything in the home. Folks one gallon of gasoline mixed with the proper proportion of air, has the destructive power of 83 lbs. of dynamite. Static electricity or the smallest spark can ignite the fumes of gasoline. We are happy to have Winston out of the hospital and back with us again. He is wearing a cast on his arm but is reported to be doing O. K.

Mr. Waldrop met with the 4-H Club last week and spoke to them on farm fire prevention. They plan to have more of these meetings and we are happy to help them in any way we can. The fire dept. was honored with visitors last Thursday morning. Mrs. Bellinghausen brought her kindergarten class to the station to visit with us and acquaint the children with the fire equipment. We want to thank this young lady for teaching these youngsters the importance of fire prevention, fire protection and giving us the chance to get acquainted with them. Thanks again and come back to visit with us anytime, we enjoyed it very much. The fire dept. made no calls since the last writing.

Mrs. Stevenson is a graduate student in the Indiana University School of Music.

Rogers Protests Skip-Row Planting Rule; To Lead Debate On Water Bill

Congressman Walter Rogers will issue a strong protest Monday over the threatened ruinous effects of a proposed Agriculture Department rule limiting the ability of American farmers to plant cotton in skip-row patterns.

Congressman Rogers will file strong letters of protest with Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman and the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. In addition, the Congressman will make a formal request of Congressman Harold Cooley, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, that the committee hold a public hearing to permit cotton growers to appear and protest.

In a statement prepared for delivery Monday on the floor of the House of Representatives, Congressman Rogers declared, "The rule not only would result in reduced net income to cotton farmers but would bring the end to proven, sound conservation practices followed by a generation of Texas Panhandle and South Plains cotton farmers, as well as growers in many other areas of the nation."

"In addition, the new rule would disrupt current farming practices followed by grain sorghum producers in our Panhandle-Plains region, would serve to offset Government efforts to keep grain stocks in check, and would destroy the faith our farmers have in the wisdom of current farm policy objectives," Congressman Rogers said.

The Congressman declared that if the Department should follow through with its skip-row proposal and place the rule in effect, "Congress must act to correct the situation."

The change proposed by the Department of Agriculture, to be effective with the 1966 crop, would restrict the present ability of farmers to alternate strips of cotton rows with strips of idle land or land planted to another crop. Under the proposed new rules, a part of the no-cotton land would be considered cotton acreage for allotment purposes.

Meanwhile, Congressman Rogers prepared for Tuesday's debate in the House of Representatives on the provisions of the Federal Water Project Recreation Act, a bill originally shaped in the Subcommittee on Irrigation and Reclamation, of which the Congressman is chairman. Congressman Rogers will be floor leader during debate on the bill, which establishes policies regarding future Federal participation in recreation facilities development.

On Thursday and Friday, Congressman Rogers will preside as the subcommittee begins hearings on President Johnson's proposal to step up the pace of water desalinization research and development.

Among witnesses will be Interior Secretary Stewart Udall; Dr. Donald F. Hornig, the President's science advisor; and Atomic Energy Commission member James T. Ramey. The subcommittee will review progress made in efforts to remove salt from sea water and brackish water and study proposals for the course of the program in the next five years.

What DHS Has Meant To Me

As my high school career comes to an end, I look back and observe fond memories and occasional work. Although high school seems to be a boring procedure, it is a blessing in disguise. High School provides knowledge and forces lazy people to function their grey matter. High school gives people the opportunity to put forth an effort and gain regards for outstanding achievements.

I feel that participation in such activities as football, track, band and various clubs such as the Lyre Club, F.T.A., Latin Club, and Drama Club have all been of essential benefit. These activities have provided the opportunity for leadership, work and achievement.

Association with the students is also a blessing. With this association one gains the ability to get along with other people. This, of course, is of essential value to everyone.

The primary function of school, however, is the acquisition of knowledge. This can and often is, a monotonous process. To gain knowledge, one must study, do research, and "Cram like mad." There are exams which must be taken, themes which must be written, and always a few pages of this or that to read. This is not the glamour element of school, it is the element which causes some to hate school. Often, however, it is the case with outstanding scholars in quest of knowledge, this is indeed the glamour factor.

For us, the graduating seniors of 1965, there are many memories, good and bad, which high school has given to us. These we will possess as long as we may live. For these memories for our many friends, and for what- ever knowledge we may have accumulated, we will forever be indebted to Dimmitt High School.

Dimmitt Exes Doing Well In Colleges This Year

This week the Bobcat Tales Staff would like to conclude it's article on the American school system.

Since last week's paper was published, the Bobcat Tales Staff has received word that Keitha Davis, a 1965 graduate of the Tech Pre-med School, has received an appointment to the Texas University School of Medicine, the school of her choice. Junior Coffey, a 1965 graduate of the University of Washington, made all American Second Team his junior year, and he was United Press All American his senior year. Junior plans to play professional football and was drafted by the Houston Oilers and the Greenbay Packers. He signed a contract to play with the Greenbay Packers.

Jim Ratcliff, attending San Angelo College, has been elected president of the student body; is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honor society; president of Phi Beta Lambda; a member of the San Angelo College Student Council; treasurer of the sophomore class; and is playing basketball with the Rams.

Several of Dimmitt High School's graduates are on the Dean's List at each of their respective schools; they include: Pat Riels - Wayland Baptist College; Wilda Powell - West Texas State; Gary Morrison - Texas Tech; Carolyn Holcomb - University of Arkansas; and Orlis Spencer - University of Texas.

Michael Calvert, a sophomore at Abilene Christian College, has been on the Dean's list several times. La Dawn Kemp, a freshman at Baylor University is also doing excellent work. La Dawn, as well as Lou Ann Hayes, a freshmen at Texas Women's University, plans to be a teacher.

The Bobcat Tales Staff, as well as the faculty, is extremely proud of these students. We feel that the citizens of Dimmitt and Castro County should be grateful for a school system that produces such outstanding students. Of course, there are, as in all schools, some poor achievers. This is usually due to inadequate preparation, a "don't care" attitude, or simple laziness. However, as a whole, most Dimmitt students do not fall into this category.

Again we say that we are proud of our fine exes and the students attending school at this time.

FHA Girls Present Style Show May 11

Tuesday night, May 11, the FHA girls presented a style show in the high school cafeteria. Special guests for the show and a salad supper were the mothers of the girls. Greta Nelson narrated the program which began with Janis Davis showing a pin-striped (ball-point pens) dress. Next came Janis Fuller in the season's newest fabric - whipped cream (shaving cream). Paraly N Render modeled a beautiful box coat (box). Shari Willis was next in a "Spring suit." Allie Webb looked beautiful in a slip-over sweater (slip over a sweater). Eva Giles modeled the sack dress toe sack). Kay Bradley, Miss Grace of 1965, wore her new seersucker dress. (dress with suckers). Kathy Leinen looked very lovely in her new tea dress (covered with tea bags).

The next part of the program was a review of fashion history from 1900. Lynda Hrabal wore a turn-of-the-century dress of black and yellow print. Donna Summers represented the Gibson girl in her black and white dress. Jane Cleavinger showed the Charleston era in her white satin, fringed "flapper girl" outfit. Carol Johnson modeled an elegant 1942 date-time dress. Her shoe were particularly interesting. Ann Scarborough showed a suit of the 1950's. Janis Moore wore a "ballerina length evening dress of the mid 60's.

To conclude the style show, Sue Hendrix, Pat Moran, Linda Schreck, Janis Baldrige, Linda McColum, Patty Cateo, Linda Kuntz, and La Trelle Hoyer showed their own creations for '65.

Delicious salads made by the girls were enjoyed by those present. Gifts of a pin and ear rings were presented to Mrs. Hotel and Mrs. Snider, sponsors, in appreciation for a job well done.

Francoise Sturbelle Speaks To The Student Body

Francoise Sturbelle, our exchange student from Belgium, came before the student body, Friday at the assembly, and told us about her own country. She told the students, first about her family. She has two sisters, one of them is nineteen, and the other one is thirteen. Her father, who visited us earlier this year, is a director of a car factory in Belgium. Francoise's mother is a housewife.

She told us of some of her first memories here in Dimmitt. Her first memory was of her arrival in Dimmitt, and meeting her new family, the Cleavingers. She also told us of her first "drag" down main street.

Steve Hutton, president of the Student Council, presented Francoise with a check for forty dollars to help her on her return trip home. Everyone enjoyed the assembly and hearing Francoise. We will all miss Francoise very much. Good Luck, Francoise, in every thing that you do.

Also in the assembly, saying goodbye, was Mr. Cason Smith, who is retiring this year. Bob Bradford presented him with a check for twenty-five dollars on behalf of the National Honor Society.

The Arts And Related Fields Discussed In DHS

Success in any of the fine arts demands an inborn love of beauty and a necessity of expressing it. The artist does not merely imitate nature; he creates a work out of his inspiration, one that will inspire others with similar emotions. Training in painting, sculpture, or the graphic arts may be obtained at the many excellent art schools attached to our colleges and art museums, or through study under experienced artists and private teachers. However, the artist's education never ends as he will be always, developing new techniques, maturing his artistic vision, and maturing his modes of expression.

The commercial artist has an essential role in advertising, newspaper and magazine work, and in merchandise packaging. He must know how to persuade the public to buy a product, either by a striking advertisement or by an attractive package. In newspaper or magazine work, he must be able to get over an idea quickly and vividly in his cartoon or illustration. In all these fields, the commercial artist must be alert to the varied currents of modern life and the popular temper.

People with initial artistic capabilities find increasing opportunities in the field of interior decoration, since in recent years not only homes but the interiors of offices, public buildings, and industrial structures are recognized as calling for careful planning as to design, color harmony, and appropriate decoration. The decorator furthermore aids in selecting the furnishings and fixtures. Training in art, architecture, and the principles of design is desirable in addition to specialized courses in interior decoration.

The study of music usually begins at home at an early age. Those who find themselves primarily interested in musical composition may take courses in musical theory and history at the school of music at one of the colleges or universities. Those who desire advanced training in vocal or instrumental work will want to continue their studies with a private teacher or at one of the music conservatories.

As in all the arts, innate ability, talent, and enthusiasm are among the qualifications suggesting a career in the theater or motion pictures. A good education, plus additional training in speech and voice, is necessary. Participation in school and college dramatics is a good way to gauge your interest and will provide preliminary training.

Many years of training are required for a professional career in dancing. If an individual shows any talent for dancing he should consult a reputable teacher as to which field of dancing, tap or acrobatic dancing, ballroom dancing, ballet, interpretive dancing, tap, or acrobatic dancing. Opportunities for dancers exist in the theater, in motion pictures, and in night clubs and supper clubs.

Any of these vocations would be excellent but each one requires much study and training and extensive work, but it will pay off in the long run.

Quickies

Mrs. Shirley Youts Schacher was honored with a kitchen shower May 10, 1965, in the home of La Trelle Hoyer. Shirley received many useful and lovely gifts.

Has anyone noticed Kay Doss's left hand, third finger? Yes, she too is anticipating Holy Matrimony. Congratulations, Kay!

Richard Connell has been seen around campus driving a '65 two-door, hardtop Ford, red with black top. How about taking me for a ride sometime Richard? Good times came early for the '65 graduate.

How frantic the Journalism Class is, they received word that the annuals were lost in the mail shipment, and there will be a two-week delay before they come in. Tommy Nichols agreed to go to Dallas in his lumber truck and get them. Tommy, please don't get lost. We would love to have our new annuals, AND IN A HURRY.

Put more grain across the scales with PIONEER sorghum

Pioneer grain sorghum give you big yields plus smooth combining—a combination that adds up to more grain across the scales next fall. Uniform head height, strong standability and good head exertion mean your combine takes in less plant material. You hold harvesting losses to a minimum. Hundreds of High Plains farmers have the scale tickets to prove Pioneer brand sorghum's superiority. They planted and compared, on both dryland and irrigated ground. And they found the superiority of Pioneer sorghum's short, stiff stalks and high, harvestable yields. So take a tip from the many farmers who have already planted Pioneer sorghum. Remember, you're on safe ground with Pioneer brand grain sorghum.

Annuals Arrive

"I'm so excited!" "Me too, I can't wait to see them!"

These were only a few of the many remarks heard Sunday, May 17, at the Cleavingers'. What in the world were seventeen seniors and the M. E. Cleavingers' cooking up at seven-thirty on a Sunday night, you ask? Yes, I bet it didn't take too much thought before you realized the seventeen seniors were all in the Journalism class, and I bet it took even less time for you to realize that the cause for all of the excitement was THE ARRIVAL OF THE '65 BOBCAT ANNUAL.

Friday, in class, the staff had looked hurriedly over the new production, but it wasn't until Sunday night that they gave it a thorough examination. It was laid aside long enough to eat Mr. Cleavinger's barbecued hamburgers with their trimmings, and to eat the homemade peach ice cream. Mrs. Cleavinger had spent so much time on it. And I noticed that Miss Littlepage's chocolate cake disappeared in a hurry also.

The Journalism class enjoyed the unveiling of the annual. We enjoyed working on it together, and seeing our rough draft turn into something wonderful. We hope that you, the students of Dimmitt High School, will enjoy this annual in the years to come, as much as we enjoyed working on it.

Personality of the Week

This week's personality is the well known, energetic Evelyn Taylor. Evelyn is a freshman in good ole DHS. Faye Evelyn Taylor was born on June 5, 1950 in Dimmitt. The proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Taylor.

Our energetic freshman says her favorite food is by far Mexican food. Evelyn was especially thrilled during the movie "Beach Blanket Bingo." She had a hard time choosing her favorite actor and actress. Evelyn never could make up her mind, but she finally settled on Tony Curtis, Rex Harrison, Sandra Dee and Natalie Wood. Our personality likes most any song that she hears, but sings sung by the Beach Boys get special attention. Evelyn is also very athletic, she likes basketball, horseback riding, and water skiing. Even though she likes all three, she decided that water skiing was the best.

Evelyn plans to attend college or go to Beauty School. We are sure that a person as friendly and as desiring as Evelyn will be a success in anything she attempts to do.

The troop was accompanied to and from the campsite by Dale Carmichael, Scoutmaster Vick had the misfortune of sustaining a badly burned hand while cooking steaks for the evening meal Saturday. He received treatment at the Canyon Hospital for second degree grease burns to his right hand. They requested the News to convey their thanks to everyone who contributed bottles to their fund drive.

LIQUOR STORE BILL KILLED — Earlier closing hours for liquor stores, proposed in a bill which passed the House, are out for this session. Bill was killed by a two-vote margin in a Senate committee.

Provisions of the bill would have stopped liquor sales at 8 p.m. instead of 10 p.m., except to registered hotel guests.

Liquor store owners, who were supposed to have originated the bill, split on the issue and presented conflicting testimony before the Senate Committee on Jurisprudence.

DIVORCE SLOWDOWN — A bill that would extend the waiting period from 60 to 180 days before a divorce is granted, where children under 18 years of age are involved, has been approved by the House and the Senate Jurisprudence Committee.

Bill is sponsored by Rep. Paul B. Haring of Goliad and Sen. William N. Patman of Ganado.

Sponsors feel that the bill would provide a check on hasty, ill-conceived divorces and remarriages, thereby giving added protection to children involved. Also it would be effective in reducing juvenile delinquency and crime rate.

Bill has strong support of many prominent jurists and clergymen.

YOUTH CORPS JOB A JOB — Program to provide part-time jobs for needy students under the federal Economic Opportunity Act is growing fast and reaching into many areas of Texas.

Governor Connally reports that office details for handling the project require a staff larger than the crew that handles all the duties of the Governor's office.

Connally has approved nearly a dozen Neighborhood Youth Corps programs, involving Federal grants for projects in Rio Grande City; Los Fresnos; Harris County; Beaumont; Dallas County; Galveston County; Laredo; Olton; Lockhart and San Marcos.

Grants are authorized by the U. S. Department of Labor in Washington, but are subject to final approval by the Governor.

Terrell Blodgett, director of the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity, has announced appointment of two consultants to help communities organize local action programs.

They are Bertrand Adams of Austin and Robert Watts of Lufkin.

CRIMINAL CODE BILL DOCKETED House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee has approved a 145-page bill overhauling the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. It is set for debate late next week.

Affecting nearly all citizens, the far-reaching measure is the number one legislative objective of the State Bar of Texas.

Revision was passed by the 58th Legislature, but was vetoed by the Governor because of errors in the bill.

AG OPINIONS — Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr has ruled that:

A party to a civil lawsuit, summoned to court as a witness — but who doesn't appear — may be cited for contempt even though he was not paid a witness fee or travel expenses.

Bill to provide $7,500,000 in state funds for constructing and operating a Texas exhibits building at San Antonio's 1968 HemisFair is constitutional. Bill won unanimous approval of Senate Finance Committee, after appropriations conferees refused to put HemisFair funds in state's general budget.

Laws requiring a corporation be incorporated under Texas laws in order to get a liquor license or permit are constitutional.

FIRST LADIES MEET — Former First Ladies of Texas were guests of Texas' present First Lady at the Mansion.

Attending the tea given by Mrs. John Connally were Mrs. Dan Moody, Mrs. Allan Shivers, Mrs. Price Daniel and Mrs. Joshua Morriss (former Mrs. Beauford Jester).

SHORT SNORTS — Governor Connally has signed a bill authorizing issuance of "prestige" license plates for an extra $1.00, which may bring in $5,000,000 a year additional revenue for tourist and industrial promotion and recreation. . . After Dallas and Fort Worth lawmakers and city officials reached a compromise on the measure, Legislators approved and sent to the governor a proposed constitutional amendment authorizing counties to join in regional airport authorities. . . Bill to abolish death penalty for crime received House committee approval after a heated hearing. . . House passed proposed constitutional amendment to make old age assistance available to non-citizens who have lived in the U. S. at least 25 years. . . A bill by Rep. Dick Cory to take advantage of federal help for development of commercial fisheries cleared both houses, while another to regulate the taking and processing of shell fish was out of committee and on the House calendar. . . Attorney William S. Lott of Georgetown was sworn-in by Attorney General Carr as a new member of the School Land Board. . . Senate approved and sent to the governor a House bill which permits pickup

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texan:

Last year, we on the Senate Subcommittee on Frauds and Misrepresentations Affecting the Elderly, looked into the shocking situation of promoters, quacks, and dishonest salesmen who present to the elderly, various shams in the disguise of sorely needed goods and service.

We found that there are four different types of services where fraud and misrepresentation is common. These are health foods and mail order medicines, mail-order sales of land, health insurance plans, and pre-purchase of burial plans. Unfortunately, this area is confusing because in each of these areas there are responsible and honest businessmen offering responsible and honest goods and services.

Today, Americans spend more than $1 Billion a year for worthless health aids and quack medical cures — much of this is spent by the elderly. I would advise that you consult with your own physician or public health agency before buying such claimed cures or devices — this could save a great deal of expense and in some cases, heartbreak.

Many elderly citizens also purchase land for homesites in faraway states, lands have been sold to the elderly which were under six feet of water and other lands have been sold to the elderly which were in the middle of a desert with no water. To avoid this deception, our Subcommittee has recommended requiring these mail land order land sales to be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

To avoid having the elderly become the victims of fraudulent health insurance, our Subcommittee recommended making it illegal to sell such insurance in violation of the statutes of a State where the sale or advertisement is made. It is hopeful that trucks to go as fast as passenger cars on Texas highways. . . Governor Connally renamed P. M. Davis and J. S. Bourn, both of Winters, and appointed Melvin Patterson and Tom Caudle, both of Ballinger to the Runnels County Water Authority. Texas business activity soared to a new high in March, 19.2 per cent above March, 1964 and 5.6 per cent above February, reports UT's Bureau of Business Research.

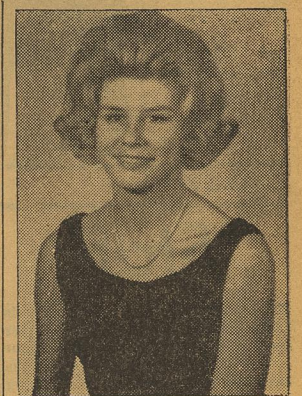

the "Medicare" bill will help relieve the temptation which a few unscrupulous so called insurance sales men hold over the elderly.

By care and caution, it is hoped that prospective buyers can avoid being trapped by the promoters of fraudulent burial services in advance of death. Many of these contracts promise much more than is actually provided, and the fraud may never be realized after the death of the buyer. Such frauds hurt the honest burial associations as much as the elderly.

I would emphasize that the best protection that the elderly have is by being cautious and informed. However, in complex areas such as these, I think the Federal government should help protect their citizens against those who prey on the elderly.

SYLVIA SUE SIMMONS

Simmons-Lancaster Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Simmons of Needmore, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sylvia Sue, to Roger Dale Lancaster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lancaster of Hart. The wedding is planned for May 29.

Parents of rambunctious children soon may be paying more attention to the activities of their offspring.

A bill passed by both Houses of the Legislature makes parents liable up to $5,000 for damages done by their children. Measure now is in the hands of Gov. John Connally for his signature.

It applies to 10 to 18 year olds who damage public or privately owned property.

end of the current Legislative session nears, Legislators are rapidly approaching decision time on legislative and congressional redistricting, teacher pay raises and new taxes.

House passed a congressional redistricting plan which almost everybody is taking for granted will be drastically changed in the Senate and will have to be worked out in a conference committee. Meanwhile, the Senate cleared the way for adoption of a senatorial districting plan keeping control in rural areas.

One of the biggest crowds of the legislative session appeared Wednesday for House and Senate committee hearings on heatedly-contested bills by Texas State Teachers Association and Governor Connally to raise teacher pay.

Connally wants a 10-year graduated pay plan; TSTA insists on its plan for $405 annual raises to all teachers.

Final approval of the record $3,600,000,000 general budget bill for state government operation is expected in both houses by week's end. House Revenue and Tax Committee is looking carefully at all the serious revenue proposals in its deck.

Governor Connally has estimated there may be need for a new tax bill as high as $100,000,000 if school teacher pay raises are approved by the Legislature.

Where to get the money is the big question.

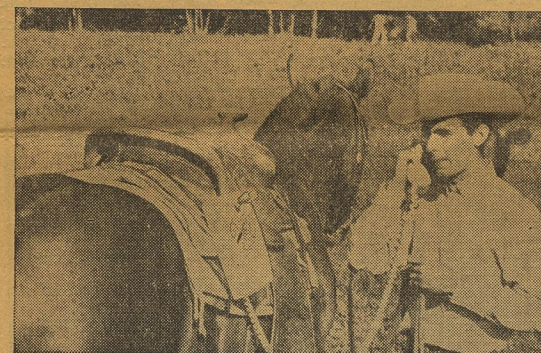

One thing for sure — he's opposed to a hike in the sales tax rate or extension of the present two per cent levy to groceries or medicines.

Among the possibilities, however, are: restoration of the 50 cent corporation franchise surtax (back to $2.75 per $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profit) and once more boosting the seven per cent gas production tax. He already has recommended a cigarette tax increase.

KEY WATER BILLS PASSED — Session's top water bills, recommended by the Governor and water experts, have completed the legislative circuit and are ready to be signed into law.

Bills would authorize Texas Water Development Board to issue another $10,000,000 in bonds or state purchase of storage in reservoirs and for local water projects; reorganize Texas Water Commission as water rights agency; and transfer statewide planning duties from the Commission to Texas Water Development Board.

A proposed constitutional amendment is pending to authorize issue of still another $200,000,000 in water de-

After sorghum has emerged, spray Atrazine to control weeds and grasses.

The idea is to spray Atrazine 80W herbicide right after sorghum has emerged, but before weeds are 1 1/2 inches high. This one application, moved to the weed root zone by rainfall, will control most annual broad-leaf weeds and grasses in sorghum for the entire season.

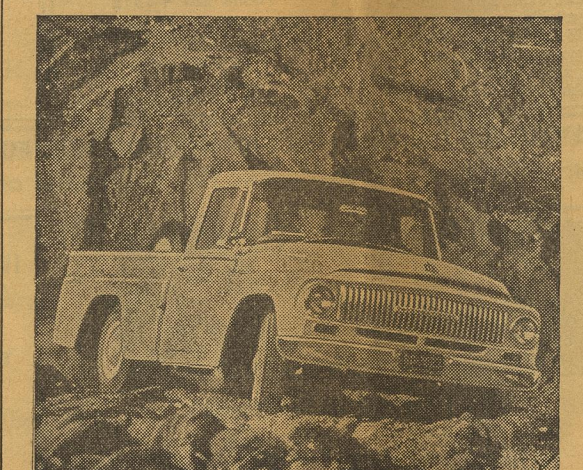

Control of weeds and grasses in sorghum with Atrazine can greatly reduce the need for cultivating. And so your crop goes through the entire season without weed competition for moisture and soil nutrients.

The results of weed control in sorghum are higher yields and lower production costs. And you can now graze or feed forage to livestock from treated sorghum fields 60 days after Atrazine application.

Contact your local supplier now for Atrazine 80W herbicide. Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, Division of Geigy Chemical Corporation, Saw Mill River Road, Ardsley, New York.

Prior to the beginning of the program, two new members were welcomed to the club; David Curd and Harlan Springer. Entertainment for the evening was provided by the Dimmitt Jaycee-Ettes in the form of a mock style show depicting how the lady of the house should dress for high society. Following the meeting, refreshments were served. Postal Carriers To Distribute Livestock Survey Cards

Postmaster Ernest Davis reminds rural patrons of the Dimmitt, Texas Post Office to be on the lookout for June Livestock Survey cards. Next week, mail carriers will leave survey cards in a sample of boxes along their routes. "USDA bases livestock and poultry estimates on replies to this survey," Mr. Davis explains. "It is important for everyone who gets a card to fill it out and return it to the carrier. This way, USDA gets a representative sample of the area's livestock and poultry holdings. Carriers assisting with the survey are: Max Gofforth, Star Route 1; Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, Star Route 2; R. L. Hance, Star Route 4; Max Gofforth, Star Route 5. Survey cards will be forwarded to Statistician, in Austin. After adding and analyzing these cards, USDA statisticians are able to estimate the State's milk production, calf and pig crops, lamb and wool crops, and the number of hens and pullets. Information from this survey will guide livestock and poultry producers in making important business decisions," Mr. Davis concludes.

Nativala Ames pitched the full six innings for the Braves in getting the win while Kenny Doss also went the distance for the losing Cardinals. Doss gave the Yankees an 11-5 lead in the top of the sixth when he belted a three run homer. Mark Wohlgemuth scored four runs in his four trips to the plate to lead the scoring for the night. With the score tied up at 11-11 in the last frame, little Charles McLean drove a grounder down the third base line to score Charles Lane ahead of him with the winning run.

Walter Rogers' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION
The Constitution, article II, section 1, clause 5, reads as follows: "In Case of the Removal of the President from Office, or at his death, Resignation, or inability to discharge the Powers and Duties of the said Office, the same shall devolve on the Vice President, and the Congress may by Law provide for the Case of Removal, Death, Resignation, or Inability, both of the President and Vice President, declaring what Officer shall then act as President, and such Officer shall act accordingly, until the Disability be removed, or a President shall be elected." This is the language of the Constitution as it was adopted by the Constitutional Convention. It will be noted that the proviso provides no replacement procedure when a vacancy occurs in the office of the Vice President. For many years there has been a continuing debate with regard to the line of succession to the Presidency as to whether or not provision should be made for a Vice President when the elected Vice President becomes President, and on the touchy issue of the meaning of the term "disability", and who is to make the determination. The Congress has undertaken to settle this debate. The Senate has passed a Resolution calling for a Constitutional amendment, and the House passed another one. The vote in the Senate was 72 to nothing. The vote in the House was 368 to 29. I cast my vote with the 29. Needless to say, I was queried endlessly as to my reasons. Here they are:

In the first instance, I have great hesitancy in tampering with the Constitution I have said many times and I repeat that this document, although struck by the hand of man, was undoubtedly the work of God. Unless there is clear justification beyond any reasonable doubt for tampering with this document, it should not be amended. In the present case, the Congress of the United States is playing with political dynamite. The proof of the bedrock stability of the provisions as they now stand is unchallenged. On only two occasions in the history of the United States has there been a serious need for the answer to the question of disability. The first of these cases arose in 1881 when President Garfield fell victim of an assassin's bullet and lingered for some 80 days. The other was when President Woodrow Wilson suffered a severe stroke in 1919. On both of these occasions there was much talk and serious questions of action. However, in both cases no action was taken although it could have been. And it might be well to point out that the Country survived and grew stronger. During the Eisenhower Administrations, an informal agreement was made between the President and the Vice President concerning the duties of Acting President. This, in my opinion, is a rather dangerous proceeding. A President of the United States is elected by the people, as is a Vice President. Neither has the right or the power to traffic in the duties or responsibilities of those offices. In all three cases above mentioned an extreme emergency situation had been created, the Congress of the United States could have acted quickly and decisively without endangering the basic concepts of government "of the people, by the people, and for the people."

The present Presidential line of succession is, in my opinion, completely sound. The President and the Vice President are both elected by the people of the entire Country. The next man in line of succession is the Speaker of the House of Representatives who is elected by the people of a Congressional District and in turn elected to the Speakership by the other Members who have been elected in their respective Districts by all of the people of this Country, on a population basis, for 2 years and intended to be Members of the House of Representatives, the body of the Congress closest to the people. The next man in line of succession is the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, who is elected by all of the people of one of the States and in turn elected by other Senators who have been likewise elected by each State. The line of succession then moves into the area of those previously appointed by the President in this Country change this and amend the Constitution as proposed in the Resolution adopted by the House of Representatives, we could very well be opening the door for the creation of a 20th Century Rasputin for constant schemes and plans for power grabs not in keeping with the best interests of our form of government. I hope the legislatures of this great United States will not ratify this amendment. Recent Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Davis, and daughter Suzie, and Mr. Carl L. King, Dimmitt; Mr. S. L. Garrison, Hereford.

Financing A College Education Is Major Concern To Families

The problem of financing the college education of one or more children is a concern of a large number of families this year. How will these funds be raised to finance the college careers? Perhaps it will help to know how many other families manage, says Mrs. Wanda Meyer, Texas A&M University Extension home management specialist. Research studies reveal that: 1. Families and relatives are responsible for two-fifths of the student's income. 2. Another fifth comes from long-term savings - probably contributed largely by parents and grandparents. 3. Students themselves finance over a quarter of their income during the school year and summer. 4. Scholarships account for about one-twentieth of the students' income and were received by about 21 percent of the students. While the average family income increased 291 percent between 1939 and 1958, the cost of living increased 108 percent during this same period - and college costs increased 129 percent.

Beyond a shadow of a doubt, the slim, double-ended craft we call the canoe is the most widely used boat in the world. In an era of ease, it depends mostly on muscle to make it go. But the canoe is selling more briskly to day than ever. The reason why is basic and age-old. It's that the canoe is the world's best boat.

For all the progress in the world, the canoe's properties work as actively today in its favor as they ever did.

Its shape is among the most seaworthy ever conceived. With load low, stability is adequate. Fine, up-swept ends lift it to seas, whether met in breaking white-water rapids or in open lakes. These same ends hold one side off the ground so that the canoe can shelter its occupants ashore when camp is made at night.

The canoe can be sailed. The Indians cut brush and held it aloft on downwind legs. So can you. In all forms, the canoe floats when capsized and can be boarded, righted and bailed in this state.

With paddles lashed as a yoke, an aluminum 17-footer can be carried not a few steps but for miles by one man. Today a canoe is more like-

A TEA HONORING Mrs. Bertha Roop was held in the First State Bank community room Saturday afternoon. Attending the tea were Darlene Dowd, Sue Lust, Ben Golding, Pete Garza, Lint Merritt and Mrs. Bertha Roop. These were former pupils of Mrs. Roop during the school year 1959-1960. Mrs. Roop has resigned as a teacher in the Dimmitt schools, and with her husband, J. E. Roop, will move to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they will make their home.

PUPILS FROM ARTS AND CRAFTS CLASSES of Mrs. Porter and Mrs. Welker display some of their projects, which include personal clothing as well as infant and doll clothing. Included in their projects which have been made from new and used material are house shoes, pot holders, skirts and other items of clothing. Much of this work was accomplished on a sewing machine under the guidance and instruction of Mrs. Porter, second from the right. The development of manual skills, including the use of the sewing machine, has been stressed in these classes this year with satisfying results. These particular students have responded well to this type of training which took about an hour and a half of each of their school days. It is planned to expand the program in future class schedules.

Soil Stewardship Week Is Set For May 23-30

Soil Stewardship Week for 1965 will be observed during the week of May 23 through May 30 according to the announcement made by the National Association for Soil Conservation Districts. This will be the eleventh such annual observance since the program was inaugurated in 1955. This year's theme is "Challenges of Growth" and focuses attention on Our Growing Pressure, and Stewardship - the Duty of All. The theme of this year's observance is trying to bring to the attention of everyone the following thoughts:

(OUR GROWING ECONOMY)
With increasing momentum, America is moving along uncharted avenues of growth. Our expanding population is at the heart of this growth. Numbering more than 190 million today, it will reach 360 million by the end of the century. The population explosion is creating an unprecedented economic upsurge, exemplified in the new highways, factories, airports and residential areas springing up across the country.

(RESOURCES UNDER PRESSURE)
This headlong growth is unleashing new and difficult problems. Foremost among these are tremendous pressures on the nation's natural resources - our land, water, forests, wildlife, and open space. For example:

By the year 1990, we will need 600 billion gallons of water a day. We now use 350 billion gallons daily.

By the year 2000, our food requirements will DOUBLE. But our most fertile farm lands are being diverted to other purposes - at a rate of a million acres a year.

Production of wood from forest resources of the U. S. will have to be DOUBLED by the year 20.

By the end of the century, the demand for recreation will at least TRIPLE.

(STEWARDSHIP THE DUTY OF ALL)

To meet these demands, Americans must practice stewardship. We must conserve, use and develop our God-given natural resources more wisely and imaginatively in the years ahead. "Growth is a call to leadership and a test in your faith in God," declares the 1965 Soil Stewardship booklet. "It demands your involvement, for true growth is rooted in people. It exalts freedom, undermines fear, and generates hope. Growth is the evidence of change, which is inevitable. . . . "No actual program has been planned locally," according to Wade Mills, chairman of the Running Water Soil Conservation District. "However, all local ministers have been provided with copies of the 1965 Soil Stewardship Booklet and we are hopeful that they will realize the importance of stressing Stewardship to their congregations on one of the two Sundays during this observance."

All In One Short Year At DHS

I am the state superintendent of schools. Or the Governor. Or your Congressman. It really doesn't matter about my occupation. Or my name either, for that matter. Sometimes I have reason to visit some of the area high schools. Last year I paid a call to a small plains town in Castro County. I believe the name was Dimmitt. Yes, that's it, Dimmitt. They had just built a new million dollar high school — one of the most beautiful and modern schools for a small town in the state of Texas. The students seemed to be very proud of their new school. The halls were not littered, the grounds were spotless, and the classrooms very orderly. On the whole, the scene was very impressive.

I returned to the same school recently for my annual inspection. Things had really changed. Those spotless halls had bubble-gum pasted on the walls, puddles of water, resulting from water-fountain fights, covered the floors. Papers protruded from half closed lockers and candy wrappers littered the halls. The landscape was not too pretty, either. Sidewalks were smeared with paint, some shrubbery had been demolished, and trash had been purposely deposited on the lawns. It amazes me how quickly the picture changes. That fine school won't last ten years under that kind of treatment. What a change, and all in one short year.

Senior Class Presents Play At Cotton Center

Thursday night some of the members of the senior play cast went to Cotton Center to see Cotton Center High School present the play "The Perfect Idiot." This was the same play that the Dimmitt senior class put on in March. Although the name of the play was the same, Cotton Center changed a few of the parts from what we had them. Because of the shortage of boys, they had to replace boys parts in the play with girls. Another change that was noted in the play by the Dimmitt group was that instead of having a Negro

What DHS Has Meant To Me

The most wonderful four years of my life have been the ones I spent in Dimmitt High School. There are innumerable memories that are to be cherished and unforgotten as I continue my life. There is no school with a more wonderful group of students and faculty members. There is a personal, close relationship between so many, and the atmosphere is always one of friendliness and cheerfulness. For someone to feel out of place in Dimmitt High School is an unusual occurrence. Things are not always peaches and cream, but that cannot be expected. There is a time for serious matters; it is not supposed to be all play. There are themes to write, and lessons to study, and we often have to burn the night candle because we've gotten behind, but there comes a day when it is all worth it, and that day will soon be here for the 1965 graduates.

Lyre Club Meets

The new officers are: President — Ginger Kemp; Vice-President — Penny Hays; Secretary-Treasurer — Irene Thornton, and Reporter — Victor Hughs. The meeting was then adjourned.

maid, they had an Irish maid. The play was very well presented and it gave the Dimmitt group an idea of how their play might have looked if they had been watching it from the audience.

...ATTEND CHURCH

IT'S BEEN A LONG YEAR

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Just a little longer... and homework, and exams will be over and then VACATION TIME. It is so good to have something to look forward to... swimming, fishing, ball, all of those wonderful activities.

Yes, it is good to have something to look forward to. I look forward each week to an opportunity to worship with others in the House of the Lord. I look forward to the hymns of praise, to the time of Bible study, and to the message brought by God's servant. Why don't you join me this week at church and participate in these joyful moments.

Senator Andy Rogers Gives Views On Teachers Pay Raise Bills

Due to the importance of and the wide public impact posed by pending public school legislation, I feel an obligation to present my own position toward the two so-called "Teachers Pay Raise" bills.

First of all, may I say that education today is our first line of defense. The brains we educate today will determine whether or not we are a free nation tomorrow. Our kind of government cannot long survive in the world of today with a second rate educational system. We will be first in this field, or we will be conquered. Our very physical survival depends on our attaining and maintaining the best educational system in the world.

The main object of our educational system is the end product - a high degree of learning and character among the graduates of our schools. In our country, since the beginning, the whole concept of public education has been that every child should have, as nearly as possible, an equal opportunity for instruction and learning.

The exact cost of buildings, equipment, and teachers is not of primary concern, except as they produce these desired results.

Economy? YES, but not at the expense of the best educated minds we can produce to meet the challenges of our imperiled globe. I am willing to pay the price. We need more teachers. We need better teachers. In our free society, higher salaries are necessary to produce either.

The so-called "Governor's Teachers Pay Raise Plan" is deficient by the above mentioned standards in two respects: First, it makes the rich school districts richer, and the poor ones poorer. This is accomplished by giving more state tax money to the rich districts that already are able and are paying higher salaries, while the poorer districts will receive much less state tax money under this plan. Also, it throws more school cost burden on the local districts. Many of our school districts outside our big cities are already taxing themselves to their limit. These points of the "Governor's Plan" would mean that the already existing educational gap between our poorer and richer areas would widen and further violate the integrity of the equal educational opportunity requirement of public education.

Second, this plan simply does not reward those who would be teachers enough to attract more or better teachers.

Much propaganda has been spread that the State of Texas is paying 80 percent of public school costs, and the local districts only 20 percent. This is pure baloney. When buildings, contributions, text books, etc., are all tallied up, it is quite clear that the total cost of public school education in Texas is shared almost equally, 50-50, by the local districts and the State.

The other school improvement plan is sponsored by the Texas State Teachers Association.

While this proposal is not perfect, it is much more realistic in its approach to the basic problems facing public education in Texas, and the best offered to date. It does not further violate the equal opportunity for education requirement. Also, it offers a more realistic approach to the problem of raising teachers salaries and thereby attracting more, young and better teachers. Texas at present ranks thirty-second in the pay scale for teachers. Even the Texas State Teachers Association plan would not put Texas anywhere near the top in teachers salaries.

The whole story on this important decision facing your legislature can best be summed up by referring to a story in one of the Houston, Texas, newspapers. To quote one of their State Representatives:

"Little attention has been given to the fact that the Governor's plan would force rural districts to raise more school money locally and pay more of the bill for education than they have done."

There are rural districts which depend on the state for a great deal of their education dollars. It's time that rural land worth far more than its tax assessments reflect started paying their fair share of the bill. The Governor's bill would force this."

If this doesn't send a chill down the back of every citizen in our agricultural district, I don't know what it would take.

By principle, by obligation, conviction and responsibility to the people of our district, I must oppose the Governor's Plan - and support that of the TSTA.
