County Fair Proves To Be Better Than Expected

The people of Texas have a right to know, and should know, the true facts about the political situation in their state, especially concerning the one political party that is chiefly responsible for the type of state government we will have for the ensuing two years. The democratic process upon which we rely to give us representative government has been subjected to stress and strain that has all but warped it out of any resemblance of majority rule.

Campaigns have been waged to encourage people to attend their precinct convention so that their ideas, wishes and desires might be relayed to their county conventions and ultimately on to their state convention, a process we call democracy in action. Thousands of honest Texas citizens attended their precinct conventions with no other idea than to discharge their duties as good citizens, they accepted election as delegates to their county and state convention in the same spirit.

Few, if any, of the delegates to the Texas Democratic Convention in Fort Worth on September 11 were so naive as to believe that there would not be the usual amount of maneuvering, bartering, and compromising that is necessary to conduct a party convention with its attendant differences of opinion and convictions. But, few indeed, were prepared to, or understand why, they were called upon to conduct the business of their party under armed guard, in fact in an atmosphere of a police state where civil liberties had diminished to a temporary status and which could be completely abolished at a word from an unseen power.

In addition to the Fort Worth City Police, who were at the convention in ample force to maintain law and order under the most trying circumstances, there was an undetermined number of armed guards (reportedly members of a Sheriff's Posse from a neighboring county) patrolling the convention hall and serving as guards at all entrances, approaches to the stadium, and at advantage points throughout the building and the grounds. In answer to my query as to what authority he was serving under, one young ranger-type looking fellow, dressed in western garb and wearing a pearl-handled pistol, said that he was a member of the Palo Pinto Sheriffs Posse and that he didn't know by what authority he was at the convention, that he was there just because somebody told him to be there. Whether you like it or not, or whether you believe it or not, that was the atmosphere that prevailed at the opening and throughout the State Democratic Convention at Fort Worth on September 11.

It is natural to ask the question "Why the excessive show of force at this particular convention, had Texas degenerated to the point where martial law was necessary to force them to conduct an orderly convention, why the necessity for armed guards to take up tickets at the entrance and to issue passes at the exit, why the necessity for armed sentries throughout the buildings and grounds. It certainly wasn't the custom at Democratic conventions in the past. Why?" The only answer that I received to these questions was that evidently the people that were in charge of the party machinery, and the state's political machine, were trying to create the impression that the loyal democrats (who were in legal majority at the convention) were the type of people that required extra policing to keep them in line, to keep them from turning a political convention into a riot. There was also the theory that the party rulers had no intention of relinquishing control of the party and that the show of force would strengthen their stand. Whatever the reason for the extra firearms it is a reflection on Texas and law-abiding Texans that will not be forgotten soon.

According to published reports the Daniel forces (which included the Shivers appointed executive committee, Senator Lyndon Johnson, Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn and other lesser lights and dignitaries in or connected with the Democratic party in varying degrees) carried the convention 1006 to 869. Fact of the matter is the legal credentials committee, composed of one member from each of the thirty-one State Senatorial Districts and five appointed by the Governor-elect, decided in favor of the loyal Democrats. The convention was stalemated for three hours after the credentials committee had completed voting and the members had returned to their various delegations. The three hours were consumed in coercing some five or six members of the committee into agreeing to change their vote on the seating of the El Paso county Democrats. When the mission was accomplished the committee was called back into session and the reversal of its original decision was made. All of this took place under very ample armed guard. From there on the business of the convention was routine with Col.

JUMBO'S FIRST PLACE BOOTH

The Castro County Fair last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday turned out better than everyone expected it would considering the late date that work actually commenced in earnest. That about summarizes the sentiments of fair workers who experienced a hectic several weeks of work prior to the fair and who were afraid for a while they hadn't started soon enough. The fair was a success and on display were some of the highest quality products yet shown. While no senior livestock was judged, it was the consensus of the agricultural exhibits, the junior livestock and poultry exhibits and women's and girl's divisions home exhibits were as good as any ever shown. The parade Saturday was, according to parade supervisor Edd C. McLeRoy, one of the best yet, quality-wise. "I was amazed at some of the fine floats we had," he said. In the junior poultry division, Wayne, Burl and Wanda Couch took most places. Wayne Couch had the grand champion of the show, a male New Hampshire Red and Glenn Ann and Mary Helen Maples walked away with the turkey ribbons. James Shepard won first in both doe and buck rabbit competition. In the White Leghorn division, Ruth, Mary Helen, and Glen Ann Maples showed the prize-winning birds. In the Junior Livestock Show, Sears Gilts, the Grand Champion Gilt was shown by Mike Goodwin, and Reserve Champion by Ronnie Hoelling. Grand Champion Barrow was owned by Donald Curry and Reserve Champion Barrow by Wilson DiCuffa. Don Howell won first in Southdown Lambs and first in other breeds and crosses as well as for a pen of three lambs. Joe Nelson won first for Southdown Bucks and Southdown Ewes.

In the Calves division, Bobby Bradley won Grand Champion and Jerry Cluck won Reserve Champion. Jim Cowsett won first in the Commercial Calves for Spring Show division. In the open show, Wayne Couch won first and Burl Couch second for Milking Short-horn Bulls. Wayne Couch was first with his entry in the Milking Short-horn Cow Division. The News is publishing about half the winners this week and the remainder will appear next week. Lack of space prohibited a general discussion of each entry so the winners and their divisions only will be carried.

Bobcats to Play Owls Friday

The Bobcats will be seeking their first victory of the season when they invade Owl Stadium at Hale Center Friday night for their third pre-conference game. The Owls this year will be defending their district championship for the second year in a row. Both the Bobcats and the Owls have been hard-hit by graduation. The Bobcats have four starters back and the Owls are using two of last year's regulars. One of these is all-state fullback Ferman McBeth, who has been kept bottled up by the opposition so far this year. Though the season is young, both teams have met one common foe in the salty Lockney Longhorns. The Longhorns, possibly on their way to the championship of the rough District 2-AA, overran the Owls by a 20-3 score in their season opener and took the Bobcats 27-6 Friday night. Both teams will be looking for their first victory of the season, and the game rates as a toss-up.

Probable starters for the Owls will be Ferman McBeth and David Cannon, halfbacks; Jimmy Carver, fullback; Jerry McMennamy, quarterback; Jerry McMinn and Melvin Hyder, ends; Winfrey Shipp and Jesse Reid, tackles; Eddie Smith and William Murphy, guards; and Don Sumral, center. Hale Center's starting line-up will average 163 pounds, as compared to Dimmitt's 165-pound average. Biggest Owl back is Mc-

Beth at 180; biggest linemen are left tackle Shipp at 200, right tackle Reid at 170, and left guard Murphy at 170. Dimmitt's heaviest back is Monty Boozer, 175; biggest Bobcat linemen are guard Howard Smithson at 210, tackle Jimmy Johnson at 185, and tackle Byron Ray Tate at 168. All other starters on both teams are between 145 and 160.

Fair Parade Winners Are Announced

One of Top Parades in Fair History Seen By Many Saturday

"The quality of floats in this year's fair parade were far above our expectations," Ed McLeRoy, vice-president of the Fair Association, said this week. Some 20 floats and commercial exhibits were entered in this year's fair, and competition for top honors was the keenest of any past parade, McLeRoy said. The 80-piece Dimmitt Bobcat Band led the parade down Broadway, Bedford, Second Street, and up Etter back to Broadway for a 30-minute demonstration of music and color. Two members of the Hart American Legion Post served as standard-bearers. Also preceding the floats were the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Department truck, traditional "caller" of the parade; and the Castro County Sheriff's Posse. Winning float in the commercial division was the King-Seely Furniture Company's pink, green, and white crepe float, which displayed Early American, traditional, and contemporary furniture under a crepe awning. Top float in the Service Club Division was by the Hart Zealot Club. Their float featured a pretty Castro County girl in a unique grain sorghum hoop skirt. Winner of the Educational Float Division was the junior class of Dimmitt High School. Members of the class wore make-up and costumes depicting people of other countries, with the theme, "Let's Be Tolerant" lettered on the float. The fair parade ratings:

Work to Begin Soon On New Legion Post Building

Dimmitt American Legion members are about ready to roll up their sleeves and begin work in earnest on their new building located one block east of Dimmitt Drive-Inn. The Martin Steel Building has been delivered and is ready to erect. The lot also has been surveyed. According to H. B. Thomas, chairman of the Legion building committee, it is hoped digging and pouring of the foundation can commence sometime next week. The Legion building fund has been used up and all pledges are being called in, he said. With this additional money and more that the organization hopes to collect, the building should be completed by Christmas.

Steel for the foundation and a portion of the necessary water pipe was donated by Mr. Fred Bruegel. As soon as enough more money comes in to buy the cement and gravel, then work will commence. About $6,000 has been spent for lots, transportation, and the steel building. It is believed at least another $3,000 will be needed. Erection of the steel building portion of the structure will be done by American Legion members. "It should go up in a hurry," Thomas said, "since it is a bolt-together building." Donated labor, which has already been arranged for, will complete the building. The new Legion Hall will consist of the large steel building portion with a side unit for kitchen and offices of concrete tile blocks. Legion spokesmen have said the building will be available for use as a community and youth center and not solely for Legion functions. Several thousand dollars were in the Legion Building fund when the group started asking for donations last spring. They pushed the fund to about $6,000 and decided to go ahead and buy the steel building just ahead of a ten per cent price increase. The building, in dismantled form, was sold to the Legion at near wholesaler's cost. Several hundred dollars were saved, however, by the Legion's decision to buy the building at the old price instead of waiting until enough money for the entire job had been collected. Thomas urged any Legion member who has not done so to donate to the building fund if he possibly can. Anyone desiring to contribute to the fund may do so by mailing or giving their contributions to H. B. Thomas at Thomas Jewelry, to Dr. James E. Wohlgenuth, or to any Legion member. "We're not building this structure just for ourselves," Thomas said, "but also for Dimmitt and Castro County. There are many times each year when groups within the county need a building of this sort for one reason or the other and we believe it would be a definite public service to make it available as a community center when the need arises."

2,255 Nationals Needed for Cotton

It is estimated by the Texas Employment Commission that it will take 5,900 cotton pickers working during the peak period to harvest Castro County's 50,000 bales-plus cotton crop this year. Of this total number of workers, about 2,255 Mexican Nationals are expected to be imported to help. Castro County has an estimated 3,925 static labor force for this type of work. These figures were presented to a Castro County Farm Labor Committee composed of Bascom Nelson, Charley Hill, and Gene Ivey at a meeting Monday by Mr. J. D. Jordan, manager of Texas Employment Commission office. County Judge Bob Estes also sat in on the meeting. The newly-formed committee will function under Public Law 78, obtaining facts relevant to the supply of domestic farm workers existing in Castro County and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican Nationals to harvest the cotton crop. Under Public Law 78, the Texas Employment Commission must supply this information to the Secretary of Labor who must limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a "ceiling." The committee consults with the local office manager to assist him in estimating the number of workers who will be needed, based on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop. Ceilings granted by the Secretary of Labor limiting the importation of Mexican Nationals into this area will be posted in Post Offices in Dimmitt and Hart, in the County Agent's office, and in the county court house. During this general period of harvest it is not expected there will be a shortage of more than fifty hands in the county for all crops so far as Mexican Nationals are concerned. Mr. Jordan pointed out several things in the meeting. Individual farmers or groups of farmers may contract with the U. S. Department of Labor for Mexican National field workers, but under no conditions may they hire Mexican labor in preference to local labor. The Nationals are brought in only to fulfill a labor shortage and must not hinder American citizens in obtaining work. Adequate housing facilities as regards space and sanitation must be provided for the workers along with the tools of his trade by the farmer. A minimum wage for cotton-picking has been set as a guarantee to National labor and this wage, or the prevailing wage, whichever is highest, must be paid. The farmer must also make arrangements for feeding Nationals in his employ. This can be either the National preparing his own meal through use of fuel and other necessities provided by the employer or he may purchase his meals from his employer on an at-cost basis (not to exceed $1.75 per day). Other information on the subject of Mexican National farm labor can be had by contacting a member of the county committee.

Retail Merchants To Meet Tuesday

Mr. R. L. McClure of Plainview will discuss the services and the needs of a credit bureau to a community and the services available to its members at a meeting of the Retail Merchants Inc. of Castro County Tuesday in the Court House. Bureau officials have urged every member to attend.

SHORT SNOOTS

Index of prices received by Texas farmers and ranchers has dipped two per cent, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. At the same time farmers' living expenses rose two per cent.

Public to See New School In Open House

An open house for the general public will be held at the new Dimmitt Elementary School Building between 8 and 10 p.m. Wednesday sponsored by the Castro County Chamber of Commerce. The open house will come at the conclusion of a banquet for everyone connected with the Dimmitt School System in the capacity of employee, school board member, or ex-school board member and their wives. The banquet in the new school cafeteria begins at 6 p.m. R. S. Vestal, school superintendent, said "We are hoping that the public avail themselves of this opportunity to see and to have the new building explained to them."

Mrs. Sybil Stringer Wins National Home Demonstration Agent Award

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 20 (Sp.)—Mrs. Sybil Stringer, Castro County home demonstration agent since 1953, is one of four Texans selected to receive the 1956 Distinguished Service Award of the National Home Demonstration Agent's Association. Presentation of the awards will climax activities of the Association's national meeting in Chicago October 28-31. Mrs. Stringer will attend the national meeting as a state delegate as well as special recognition candidate. The honorary awards are made annually to home demonstration agents who have rendered outstanding service to the people with whom they work for a period of 10 years or more. Sixty-eight agents from 38 states, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico will be honored this year. With almost 17 years of service as a county home demonstration agent to her credit, Mrs. Stringer has worked in four counties. She started as assistant home demonstration agent in Wheeler County in 1941. A year later she was made county home demonstration agent in Swisher County, where she was in charge of both the adult and girls 4-H Club program for six years. In 1947 she went to Hemphill County. She accepted her present assignment in 1953. Previous to joining the Extension Service, Mrs. Stringer taught in the primary grades at Palo Duro school in Canyon, and was homemaker teacher in Stratford. Mrs. Stringer is especially recognized for outstanding achievements and contributions to 4-H Club work through leadership development and program building. Developing both adult and 4-H programs with local leaders, Mrs. Stringer must stay alert to the needs, problems, and interests of the homemakers and families with whom she works. Outstanding programs in clothing, home improvement, foods and nutrition, health, recreation and family life have evolved from this process. Keeping up-to-date with new information and methods in her work, Mrs. Stringer has continuously taken part in special extension and refresher courses in (Continued on Page Six)

County Dairy Stock Wins Top Awards At Tri-State Fair

Only one champion Milking Short-horn Bull award was made Monday in Amarillo at the Tri-State Fair and it went to Mystery Revex Victor, a mature bull owned by Harry Rothwek of Roth Acres Farms at Bethel. The judge said that this animal selected grand champion saw two Milking Short-horn cows ribboned as senior and grand champion. Nazareth dominated the Brown Swiss judging at the fair. The Vincent Braddock herd produced all but one champion in the Brown Swiss section. Forty-four animals were entered in the show and all came from within six miles of Nazareth. Braddock won the grand and reserve champion bull and grand and reserve champion cow. Also owning animals placing in the show were Vernon Braddock, Charles Braddock, Jerry Braddock, Clay Anderson, Paul Venhaus, Marilyn Braddock, Gerald Braddock, and Herman Birkenfeld.

Hart Defeats Dimmitt JayCees in Donkey Game

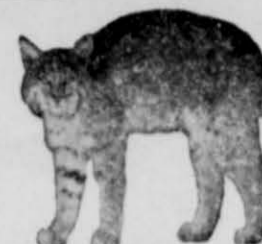

Hart American Legion galloped off Saturday night with a 3-0 win over Dimmitt Junior Chamber of Commerce in a top-thriller donkey softball game. For most of the players, it was their first donkey game. The affair began with aimless milling around of riders and donkeys with an occasional rider being thrown before the first inning was over. It took most of the game for the riders to figure out how to handle the donkeys and play the game at the same time. A large crowd attended the laugh-filled game. JayCee officials have indicated a donkey football game might be played this fall, but as yet no positive plans have been made.

Please Don't Hit My Child

1. Play on the playgrounds.
2. Walk on sidewalks.
3. Always stop at the curb — look both ways.
4. Walk — don't run, across the street.
5. Learn the safe way to ride a bike.
6. Always be careful.

Here are six rules every child should learn

EVERY parent joins in saying, "Please don't hit my child."

Children are known to take chances . . . much as we caution and warn them! In their eagerness to play or get home from school or go to the corner store . . . they often forget the precautions that have been pointed out to them.

Let us, in this community, learn to think for the kiddies. Certainly we must stress safety rules to them but let each of us be on the alert at all times for the unexpected — a child dashing between cars or running across the driveway as we leave for work. Give the kids the right of way, regardless. Let's obey every sign and warning — everyone — no exception — and let's teach the children safety.

Teach the Child and Yourself Safety!

A community of safe drivers is a wonderful place in which to live and raise our children

Andrews-Zetzsche Vows Told

In a double-ring ceremony performed in the home at Frio of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews, parents of the bride, Miss Frances Andrews and George D. Zetzsche, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Zetzsche of Bowie, were united in marriage. The wedding took place on Wednesday, September 12, at two o'clock with Rev. B. H. Baldwin, Hereford, pastor of the Frio Baptist Church officiating.

The couple stood before an improvised altar consisting of baskets of pink and white gladioli.

Attendants were Miss Veradelle Andrews, sister of the bride, maid of honor and Robert Zetzsche, of Wichita Falls, brother of the groom, was best man.

The maid of honor was attired in a brown faille with three quarter sleeves with a small matching velvet hat and other accessories matching. Her corsage of white carnations was tied in white satin ribbon.

The bride wore an ivory cream textured silk, street length dress, made of princess lines, with a full skirt, three quarter length sleeves, push up style and a wide V neckline. Her corsage was worn at the waist and was made of white rose buds and pink feathered carnations and tied with brown satin ribbon. She wore a small velvet hat matching the dress. Her shoes were in brown leather. Miss Andrews wore a pearl necklace and ear clips.

Miss Sammie McLellen of Hereford, pianist, played musical selections consisting of "Indian Love Call" preceding the ceremony, Lohengrin's Bridal March for the processional, and "Bless Be the Tie" during the service. "Bless this House" was played immediately afterward.

The bride's mother wore a beige textured silk dress with three quarter sleeves and with black suede accessories and pink gladioli corsage.

Mrs. Zetzsche, mother of the groom, wore a blue lace dress, with three quarter sleeves, beige accessories and a white gladioli corsage.

The reception was held in the dining room, immediately following the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake, iced in white and topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by the bride and groom, and served to the guests by Mrs. Clark Andrews, sister-in-law of the bride. Pink punch was served by Miss Mary Zetzsche, of Bowie, sister of the groom. The table was laid with an ivory lace cloth over pink with pink asters around the cake. The appointments were of crystal.

When the couple left for a honeymoon trip to points in Colorado, the bride was attired in a brown faille suit, with matching brown accessories, and the wedding corsage at the shoulder. Mrs. Zetzsche was a 1936 graduate of Hereford High School, and has lived all her life in the Frio Community, north of Dimmitt.

Mr. Zetzsche was a native of Bowie, having graduated there in the class of 1950, until he came to the Hereford area, soon after graduation. He served two years in the Army, eighteen months of the time being spent in Germany. He attended West Texas State College last school year, and is now engaged in farming in the Frio Community.

The couple will be at home after September 20, at 337 Ave. I, in Hereford.
