Labor survey picks up 300; deadline near

Castro County's labor survey picked up 300 new registrants this week — thanks mainly to a successful campaign at Nazareth — but the survey is still lagging with the deadline only a week away.

APPROXIMATELY 1,400 county residents have now signed up in the labor survey, giving their names, occupations, educational level and past work experience.

This is less than one-fourth of the estimated number of men, women and youths over 16 who are eligible to register.

Members of the Texas Employment Commission's Smaller Communities Survey Team, who are conducting the free survey here, said statistics compiled through the personal sign-ups will give an overall picture of the county's work force and the services and talents available here. This information will be valuable to any industry or business thinking about locating here, they added.

FATHER Stanley Crocchiola, pastor of the Holy Family Church of Nazareth, was credited with spearheading a drive that resulted in 250 sign-ups during the week. He personally publicized the importance of the registration program and its possible influence on gaining new industry for the county.

Both the Chamber of Commerce and members of the labor survey team complimented Nazareth's citizens "for outstanding county and civic service and cooperation." (See LABOR SURVEY, Page 14)

Wheat coming in fast

WHAT CAN A BOY LEARN FROM A SCENE LIKE THIS? Coach Homer Nesbitt, Umpire George Howell demonstrate

A good wheat harvest is expected to be completed within the next four days.

AFTER BEING delayed a week by heavy rains, combine crews are taking advantage of blue-sky weather and are rapidly turning the county's golden wheat fields into stubble fields.

Biggest yield reported so far is a whopping 70.33 bushels per acre by Deryl Clevenger of Hart, reported by Bob Bowden of Hart Grain Co.

Flagg Grain Co. reported that it may have some averages of 80 bushels on small plots in that area. Bill Waldrop said that 64 bushels is the highest average of grain received so far at Community Grain at Easter. Mrs. Garner Ball at Sunnyside Grain Co., said that Hershel Wilson averaged 65 bushels on a 4 1/2-acre patch.

COUNTY-WIDE averages are running between 30 and 50 bushels.

J. R. Brown at Bruegel & Sons Elevator said the yield this season is approximately the same as past years, but because of smaller acreage put into wheat this year, and due to some hail damage, the total amount of wheat harvested will not be as high as in the past.

Bill Waldrop at Community Grain in Easter also commented on the small acreage of wheat this year, but he added that the wheat in this area has better protein and is a better grade of wheat than is being harvested in East Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

MOST OF THE elevator operators agreed that harvest is approximately 75 percent complete.

Hart coach, 41, dies Saturday

An apparent heart attack cut short the life of Hart Coach Donald Dwayne Seymour, 41, late Saturday afternoon.

HE WAS pronounced dead on arrival at Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt, where he was taken after the seizure.

Mr. Seymour moved to Hart from Plainview with his family last year to become head football coach and athletic director of Hart High School. He also taught algebra and geometry in HHS, and his wife, Willie Mae, was a teacher in the elementary school.

Coach Seymour had resigned his head coach's job last month to accept a coaching position at South Garland High School, near Dallas, and was staying on this summer to conduct the Hart Public Schools' summer youth recreation program.

DURING his coaching career, he had taken two football teams to the state finals, and his Stinnett team of 1956 won the state championship. His lifetime record as a head football coach was 76 wins, 40 losses and 2 ties.

Mr. Seymour held both bachelor's and master's degrees from West Texas State University. Last rites were conducted Monday at 3 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Phillips. Rev. Wesley Daniels of Spearman officiated, assisted by Rev. Fred Brown of Hart.

Burial was in the Westlawn Memorial Park of Borger, under the direction of Simpson Funeral Home. SURVIVORS include his wife, Willie Mae; two daughters, Donna and Bonnie; a son, Brad; two brothers, Darrell of Borger and Billy of Anna; a sister, Mrs. Janine Fagan of Phillips; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Seymour of Phillips.

Small crowds, rude fans hinder baseball program

The purpose of Little League baseball, as stated in the charter granted by Congress in 1964, is "to help and assist boys in developing qualities of citizenship, sportsmanship and manhood."

"THIS discipline isn't only for coaches, managers and league officials — it is supposed to include mothers and daddies, too."

"Using the discipline of the native American game of baseball," the charter continues, Little League baseball is designed "to teach spirit, competition, will to win, physical fitness through individual sacrifice, the value of teamplay and wholesome well-being through healthful and social association with other youngsters under proper leadership."

This is what the junior baseball coaches, umpires, managers and sponsors are trying to accomplish this summer. With the cooperation of parents and fans, they can do it.

The 1969 baseball season seems to have been a good one here, except for two things — attendance and sportsmanship.

NOT ONLY Little League, but Minor League, Pony League, Colt League and American Legion League lack the fan turnout that makes any sport more worthwhile. Coaches, managers, volunteer workers, and the boys themselves, put in many hours of hard work and practice every week. It is discouraging to them if only a few people care enough about them to spend some time one or two nights a week to see what they have accomplished.

In a town where the stadium is packed for football and the gym is full for most basketball games, it is puzzling why no more people take an interest in the "American sport."

GEORGE HOWELL, an umpire who has called Little League baseball in several towns over the last eight years, calls attention to the sportsmanship problem.

"The coaches and managers must, by Little League rules, abstain from the use of tobacco and vulgar language on the playing field," he said. "Although I haven't noticed it as much in Dimmitt as in some other towns, some fans seem to forget the reasons behind the baseball program."

"Our boys are supposed to be learning sportsmanship and the rules of the game," the experienced ump said. "Fans who curse at the coaches, boys or umpires are doing more damage than good. Things said on the field and in the homes can often tear down the hours of work that coaches and managers put in each week to teach the boys more than just how to win a baseball game."

"AS I SAID, Dimmitt is not as bad as many places I've seen, but there is room for improvement in some attitudes," he said.

Dimmitt's 15 junior baseball teams owe their existence to their coaches, managers, volunteer workers, their sponsors, the mothers who have kept the concession stand this season, and the businesses and civic organizations that helped build the wonderful facilities that our teams are using.

With more fans at the games, and fewer complaints and, catcalls, junior baseball here would be living up to its purpose, and apply to you and your bike? LAW OFFICERS here warn motorbike drivers — and their parents — that they either don't know the laws or aren't heeding them.

"We've heard reports of drag racing with motorbikes near the Country Club, and we've spotted several bikes carrying passengers who don't have the necessary protective headgear," one law officer said.

"If they get out on the road, they have to be registered just like a car, since motorbikes are motor vehicles," the officer explained. "To be registered, a motorbike has to have a safety inspection sticker, the driver has to have a motorcycle license and a helmet, and any passenger also has to have a helmet."

SINCE PARENTS are responsible for their youngsters having motorbikes, he added, parents are considered lawbreakers if they permit their children to violate any of the laws pertaining to motorbikes.

12-year-old scores an ace

A 12-year-old golfer scored the season's first hole-in-one Friday at the Castro County Country Club.

JOHNNY WEBB, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Webb, made the ace while playing the second hole, which is 170 yards long. Kemp Copeland of Midland was golfing with Johnny when he accomplished the unusual feat. Jerry and Karen Baldrige, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baldrige, also witnessed the amazing shot.

Johnny's hole-in-one will be mounted with the date and his name inscribed, and he will be entered in a sweepstakes drawing for prizes given by the Golf Digest Magazine in February, 1970.

Motorbikers draw warning

If you're one of the growing number of motorbike owners here, do you know the traffic laws that apply to you and your bike?

LAW OFFICERS here warn motorbike drivers — and their parents — that they either don't know the laws or aren't heeding them.

Angry owner puts 'pits' off-limits

The "pits" area near Dimmitt Municipal Airport — a favorite testing site for dune buggies and motorbikes — was declared off-limits this week by the owner following vandalism in the area Sunday night.

GENE ELLIS, who owns the 20-acre site in which the "pits" are located, reported Monday that someone had let all his hogs out of their pens near the "pits" Sunday night, and that three of the animals were killed by cars on nearby US 385 before morning.

"The area is now officially closed," Ellis said. "I've put up signs this week stating that trespassers will be prosecuted, and anyone found in the pits area will be considered a trespasser."

THE "PITS," located behind Ellis' former Dimmitt Seed & DeLinting Co. offices on US 385 north, were formed when a large area was scooped out to provide earth fill for the new runway at Dimmitt Municipal Airport. With its dunes and climbs, the "pits" area has been a favorite spot for dune buggy and motorbike enthusiasts to test their vehicles.

Our junior baseball program requires adult teamwork, too

To have a successful youth baseball program, it takes more than the boys getting together to practice every night.

MANY ADULTS put in countless hours of work during every baseball season.

Some of the people who work the hardest for baseball here are the members of the Dimmitt Baseball Commission. The commission sets up schedules, helps take care of playing grounds and generally oversees the baseball program.

Donald Wright is president of the organization, and other officers include Barry Love, vice-president; Jack Patton, secretary; and Bill Scott, treasurer. Representing the Pony League on the commission is Stanley Schaefer. Don Carpenter is the Minor League representative, and Donald Wright is Little League representative. Represented by Bill Scott, and the Colt League representative is Harold Miller. The Lions Club and the Jaycees also have representatives on the commission. They are Barry Love of the Lions, and Dr. David Bechtel of the Jaycees.

EACH LEAGUE also has its own organization, and many working people give their time to work with the leagues, teams and individuals.

Jimmie Chapman, one of 40 sectional directors for Boys' Baseball, Inc., has also spent much time with Dimmitt's baseball program, as well as with those of its area cities. Boys' Baseball, Inc., is made up of the Bronco, Colt and Pony Leagues, and is an international organization. Purposes of the organization are to set up annual tournaments and settle disputes. Chapman has jurisdiction over Kansas, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Texas.

OTHER volunteers who have made the baseball program what it is today are the coaches, the team managers, individuals who umpire the games, those who work to keep the fields in good playing condition, and the ladies who give their evenings to running the concession stands, and parts of their days to cleaning and repairing the boys' uniforms.

HOWDY, GISELA!—With a beaming smile, pretty Gisela Maranhao of Brazil steps off the American Field Service bus Tuesday afternoon to spend two action-packed days in Dimmitt. Gisela, one of 41 AFS exchange students aboard the cross-country bus, attended school in Phoenix this year.

She is staying with Dr. and Mrs. Bill Murphy and family. The 41 students and their two chaperones will leave Dimmitt Friday morning to continue their trek to Washington, D. C., and New York City before returning to their native lands.

For 41 AFS students

City rolls out carpet

Forty-one American Field Service students from 26 countries arrived in Dimmitt Tuesday afternoon to spend two days and three nights.

THE STUDENTS were greeted by their host families and members of the bus stop-over committee. As they got off the cross-country bus, their Dimmitt hosts began reading name tags, proclaiming, "You're mine!" and helping gather luggage together for their students.

After the guests had a few moments to become acquainted with their families and to relax, Dimmitt teens and AFS students gathered at the Country Club to swim, eat supper, play ping-pong and dance.

A soccer game was scheduled for Wednesday morning, and tours of various businesses, industries, and agricultural concerns were planned for Wednesday afternoon. Swimming and dancing at the Country Club was scheduled again Wednesday evening.

TOURS AND horseback riding now. These tours allow them to see more of the nation than they would have been able to see from the communities where they spent the school year.

The American Field Service is a non-profit organization which arranges international exchange scholarships for high school students. Foreign students study in the United States, and many US students spend a year or summer abroad, living with host families and attending schools just as the AFS students do while in America. Purpose of the AFS program is to allow peoples of all nationalities to understand each other's ideas, ideals and customs.

MORE THAN 75 busloads of AFS students are touring the country

Farm laborer is extradited

In a rare type of district court action Monday, District Judge John T. Boyd ordered a Dimmitt farm laborer extradited to North Dakota to stand trial for embezzlement.

ORVILLE J. DRAKE, alias Tommy Deering, was ordered to be taken back to Reeder, N.D., to face trial following executive petitions by Texas Gov. Preston Smith and North Dakota Gov. William L. Guy.

It was the first extradition hearing ever conducted by Judge Boyd, and was only the third such hearing for Sheriff Jack Cartwright, who has been in office 14 years.

DRAKE, who was arrested west of Dimmitt in April by sheriff's officers, is charged with embezzling $494.48 from The Shop, Inc., in Reeder about April 25, 1968.

The sheriff of Adams County, N.D., is scheduled to arrive today (Thursday) to take Drake back to stand trial.

FRED BRUEGEL JR. Now a senator in Junior Chamber International

Bruegel receives top Jaycee honor

Fred Bruegel Jr., of Dimmitt became a member last Thursday of an elite world-wide corps — the senate of Junior Chamber International.

THE TITLE of JCI senator — a lifetime appointment — is the highest honor that can be bestowed on a Jaycee.

Bruegel's application was initiated by his fellow Jaycees here and was endorsed by the presidents of the Texas Jaycees and United States Jaycees and the secretary-general of Junior Chamber International.

As a JCI senator, Bruegel is considered an honorary Jaycee the rest of his life, with the privilege of sitting in on any local, state, national or international meeting of Jaycees anywhere in the world. The JCI Senate is made up of Jaycees and former Jaycees who have given distinguished service to the young men's civic organization.

BRUEGEL HAS been a member of the Dimmitt Jaycees 11 years, having joined in 1958, after his separation from active duty in the Army. The Dimmitt chapter was in its second year when Bruegel joined.

During his 11 years in the Jaycees, Bruegel served as a local director, vice-president and president, and also served a year as state director for this area.

Don Nelson, chapter president, presented Bruegel with his senator's lapel emblem, membership identification card and certificate of membership in the JCI Senate.

"THERE ARE fewer JCI senators throughout the world than there are people in Castro County," Nelson explained. Bruegel holds registration number 9930 on the JCI Senate rolls.

Bruegel is the second Dimmitt Jaycee ever named to the JCI Senate. The first was Pete Wright, former local president and state vice-president, who now lives in Port Lavaca.

Announcement of Bruegel's admission to the JCI Senate came at his "rooster" ceremony at the Jaycees' weekly luncheon meeting at the Colonial Inn.

THE "rooster" ceremony symbolized that Bruegel had reached the age of 35 — the maximum age (See BRUEGEL, Page 14)

A VERY pretty wedding was the service Saturday evening for Keitha Davis and James Thomas Secht at the Methodist Church. The reception later in fellowship hall was well attended. There were two tables of refreshments. One served white cake and pink punch and the other table served coffee and chocolate cake. The flower arrangement featured the MD's insignia using mums amidst many white gladioli. It looks like a snake.

The most beautiful music was made on organ and piano by Mrs. Keith Howard and Mrs. Roy Lowc, who with her husband Roy and three girls came in from near Chattanooga, Tenn., and school friends of Keitha's helped serve and greet the guests, Kay Estes, Mary Behrends Botkin of Houston, Mrs. Scott of Albuquerque, besides Suzie and Janis. I met such a nice person Dr. Anitha Mitchell, who was bridesmaid. Anitha received her degree in medicine when Keitha did. COMPANIONS WITH GOD

By Ronnie Parker

The one thing that keeps any person from being a companion with God is sin. But God has promised forgiveness. The psalmist said, "Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered" (Ps. 32:1). It brings joy to the sinners heart when he understands that God has blessed him with forgiveness. No soul can ever find peace and happiness without that forgiveness. We can count ourselves blessed to live under the divine promise: "I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more" (Heb. 8:12). God's forgiveness is conditional! The lost sinner must hear, believe and obey the gospel (Mark 16:15-16; Acts 3:19; Acts 2:38). Cleansing from sin is by the blood of Christ (Rev. 1:5) and such cleansing freely comes to all believers. With sins thus forgiven, we can walk with God. Some writer has said, When God is our companion, As we walk the road of life, There is help for every problem And grace for care and strife! And we'll find that we've been happy All along the path we've trod, When in faith we've made the journey Hand-in-hand along with God!

REACHING NEW Heights

Man has explored most of the earth, and has now set out to conquer space.

While achieving these marvelous works, let us not forget our creator.

"When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet..."

Square Dance Tips

By BILL HARMAN
A little over four squares of Dimmitt Promenaders square danced Tuesday night to the fine calling of Sid Perkins.

HOST couples for the evening were Jimmy and Sue Slough and Quin and Wilene Oakley. Door prize was won by Idella Crum.

Eleven Promenaders traveled to Lockney Friday night and visited the Tips and Toes Club. We reclaimed our president's shirt, by having over a square present.

According to "Sets in Order" the official publication for square dancers, the following would be good for all square dancers to read.

"In order for any group to grow, prosper and be successful, it must have certain ingredients. The most important ingredient for a square dance club is its members. Notice we said members, not badge wearers, for there is a vast difference between the two. Members are the heart and soul of the group, while badges may be purchased for a very nominal fee."

Club members square up with the visiting dancers, badge wearers ignore the guests. Club members help the new students, badge wearers, if they show up at all, usually dance only the club tip and spend the rest of the night visiting among themselves. Club members realize that the most important dances to attend are their own club dances. Badge wearers usually go where and when their fancy pleases, and often try to persuade others to accompany them, displaying a complete lack of loyalty to the home club. Club members stay until the dance is over to make sure the guests have someone with whom to dance the last tip. Badge wearers skip out early and guests take the hindmost.

Square 'em up! Square dancing is fun. Visitors are always welcome every Tuesday night at the American Legion Building in good old Dimmitt, Texas.

Wheat harvest is approximately two-thirds complete in the Hart area now. Elevator managers report yields of 35 to 52 bushels per acre, with moisture content averaging 9.78 on Monday.

I WANT TO thank each of you for giving me your news for the papers. I must take a much-needed rest and Mrs. Jim (Elsie) Black, phone 938-2328, will be substituting for me for a while.

Be as nice to her as you have to me for all these years that I have been your reporter and correspondent.

Your news cannot be printed if you do not tell the correspondent, and when asked for news, please don't say "No one cares what I do." Oh, yes — you like to know what the neighbors are doing, so don't try to kid yourself, for they like to know about you.

Again, thanks.

Youngster's job may be tax boon

A child's summer job may be a tax boon to many parents, says Linda Jacobsen, Extension home management specialist.

Both parent and working child can get $600 exemptions. Even though the child earns more than $600, the parent is entitled to an exemption because he supports the child. Law permits the youth to have his own personal exemption even though the parent claims him as a dependent.

Children, however, adds the Texas A&M University specialist, must be full-time students or under 19. This is the only situation in which two different taxpayers get the $600 personal deduction for the same person.

Up in the air

...with Nancy

By NANCY JACKSON
This week I had three flying lessons up in the air and two ground school lessons. The first flying lesson was just a practice on landing, and if anyone had seen us they would think I needed a few more landing practices. Not all of the landings were that bad, but one or two were. After about 25 minutes the clouds got too low to do anything, so we quit.

THE NEXT day, we started something new, "Dutch Rolls." This is a coordination drill where you pick a certain point on the horizon and then rock the airplane back and forth trying to keep the point in the same place. I found it kind of hard and I still can't do them very well. We also practiced take-offs and landings.

The third lesson was a very busy one. We went back over S turns, rectangular patterns, approach and departure stalls (even in shallow banks) and take-offs and landings. I think I am getting a little bit better on the landings. They aren't quite so bumpy or hard.

In ground school, we finished the Federal Aviation Regulations (FAR) on Tuesday night. Thursday night we started talking about the weather. We studied about the basic nature of the atmosphere, the atmospheric pressure, the wind, the symbols used at the weather stations to forecast the weather.

Next week we will talk more about weather and clouds. Thursday we also talked about the Airman's Information Manual and its parts.

Minister attends conference on Protestant church unity

Youth delegates from seven states and five Protestant denominations attended a conference recently at Central State College at Edmond, Okla.

They represented churches that are participating in COCU, the Consultation on Church Union, a plan to unite some of the major US Protestant churches.

ATTENDING from Dimmitt was Rev. C. Mitchell Kennedy, representing the United Presbyterian Church.

"Cool It and Care" was the conference theme. Delegates discussed problems of our society and individuals, and designed a pattern for ecumenical (united) youth ministry.

The conference, under the direction of Robert Steffer of Oklahoma City, featured Paul Schreivogel, author, lecturer and educator from Chicago; Fred Miller of Austin, who led the conference in consideration of the role of the church today; and the Rev. Don Newby of the Tulsa Council of Churches, formerly with the youth office of the World Council of Churches.

"THE MASSIVE social and personal problems of the day are forcing churches to find ways to work in a united way," said Dr.

Ray Woods of Philadelphia, national representative of COCU. "Young people are the major hope of this accomplishment. This conference is designed to help the youth delegates, in turn, to help their respective denominations, to this end."

Church bodies officially represented were the Christian Church, the United Presbyterian Church in the USA, the Presbyterian Church in the US, the Episcopal Church, of the United Church of Christ.

State computers to play 'dating game' for cities

The Texas Industrial Commission is offering every community across the state the modern technology of computers in seeking new industry. "THIS NEW program will give Texas communities a rifle rather than a shotgun approach in attracting industry," Chester Wine of Corpus Christi, chairman of the Industrial Commission, said in announcing the recently approved plan using existing computers owned by the state. The Industrial Commission offered use of the four-phase program to chambers of commerce across the state recently in asking chamber managers to assist as computer program evaluators. "By serving as evaluators, local leaders will have the opportunity to get a comprehensive look at the program being developed before its introduction later this year," Wine said. FOUR BASIC programs are to be offered in the industry-attracting plan. It will give communities an instant site location service for national companies seeking to locate branch plants in Texas; printouts for existing Texas companies of the export potential for their products; matching of location resources with location requirements for each of the more than 400 specific types of industry; and studies for communities to compare their facilities with other cities of similar size. The site location service will provide manufacturers with the opportunity to specify up to 700 requirements for characteristics the company considers suitable for location of a new plant. Given these requirements, the computer would scan the bank of information on every town in Texas, pulling out the specifications requested. Texas manufacturers can check their expert potential through a printout of overseas countries in which their particular product is in demand, and information on the value in that particular market with names and addresses of contacts in the markets. COMMUNITIES can take advantage of the candidate industry phase of the program, checking to determine which types of industry they would most likely attract, and names and addresses of national concerns in these areas. Cities wishing to serve as computer program evaluators should contact the Texas Industrial Commission, Sam Houston State Office Building, Capitol Station, Austin, 78711. Jones-Rawlings Agency Carolyn Jones, General Insurance Rawlings Hotel, 647-3194

Commemoratives in the form of magnificent coins highlight many milestones in a few of the 20th Century memorials. The McKinley Memorial gold dollar coin was authorized in February, 1916. The obverse showed McKinley's profile, facing left. The reverse showed the Memorial Building. This was the coin that commemorated the centenary of the birth of Ulysses S. Grant; a silver half dollar authorized in February, 1922. It depicted a bust of the 18th President of the United States. The reverse showed the log cabin where he was born. In commemoration of the State of California's admission into the Union, a silver half dollar was authorized in February, 1925. A gold-panning prospector and a

Machine pays 40 in half an hour

A Burroughs E-6000 computer is now making out the payroll for Dimmitt Wheat Growers' 40 employees — and is taking only a half hour a week to do it. THE COMPUTER'S payroll duties include making out the paychecks, posting to date and journalizing. These three operations for each employee are accomplished in an average of 15 seconds each. The payroll is just one of the jobs on tap for the new computer in the Dimmitt Wheat Growers offices. The computer system is also being used for cost accounting on the cooperative's corn milling plant, now under construction, and in the future all elevator accounts will be programmed on the computer.

Holly to expand plant facilities

Steps being taken by Holly Sugar Corp. to improve the profitability and efficiency of its sugar business, along with its diversification plans, were given to stockholders attending the corporation's 64th annual meeting Friday in the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, Colo. AMONG THE steps listed by President John B. Bunker in his remarks were the increase in factory beet slicing capacities by installing new and larger equipment; research to develop superior, disease-resistant beets, and enlarging bulk and liquid sugar storage facilities to improve the company's marketing efficiency. "When all the presently planned improvements are completed by March, 1971, and at a cost of nearly $22 million, we will have achieved a capability to process more beets in a shorter period of time — by about 15 percent," Bunker said. "This is the equivalent of building a new plant, but at about one-half the cost which a new one would require. I think more importantly, we will then have a chain of strategically located production facilities as modern and as profitable as any in the world," Bunker explained. BUNKER ALSO said that the sugarbeet industry's growth is about twice that of population growth. He predicted beet acreage restrictions will be necessary on the 1970 crop because beet sugar inventories will become excessive. Touching on Holly's diversification plans, he told about acquiring three food companies from Schenley Industries and the creation of Holly World Foods, Inc. as a wholly-owned subsidiary to operate these companies. Holly World Foods is now the fourth largest company in the gourmet food industry, Bunker pointed out. Following Bunker's report, stockholders re-elected the present board of directors, reappointed Haskins & Sells as auditors for the current fiscal year, voted to amend the certificate of incorporation to increase from two thirds to four-fifths as the stockholder vote required in connection with certain mergers and transactions, and approved a proposal by Lewis D. and John J. Gilbert of New York City for an improved post-meeting report.

Summer's bounty is now abundant

Fresh fruits and vegetables highlight the food market. Look for cantaloupe, plentiful and low in price, and honeydew and watermelons which are moderately priced.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist, adds that bananas are featured in many stores to save on the food bill. Oranges, grapefruit, apples and avocados are moderately priced.

EARLY SEASON peaches, plums, apricots, cherries and blueberries are available at relatively high price levels, the specialist says.

At the meat counters, beef prices remain high, especially for steaks and other quick-cooking cuts. To economize, look for beef chuck, round and other cuts in less demand.

Pork prices are up with hams, bacon, picnics and Boston butt roasts among the most reasonable in price.

FRYERS AND TURKEYS remain a number one bargain in most meat departments although the supply is down. Grade A large size eggs offer the most quality and economy for egg money.

Head lettuce quality has improved. Red potatoes, squash, tomatoes, purple hull peas, black-eyed peas, snap beans, green onions, radishes, carrots and dry yellow onions are good choices price-wise, she adds.

COTTON was dubbed "qutun" by the Arabs.

Miss Hoyler

Fall rites scheduled

MISS HOYLER is a 1965 graduate of Dimmitt High School and has attended Wayland Baptist College and West Texas State University. She is presently employed by Elcor Chemical Corp., and is to be transferred by her company to Superior Circuits in Dallas July 1.

Fullwood graduated from W. W. Samuell High School in Dallas, and attended Texas A&M University before serving 3½ years in the United States Air Force. He is now employed by Western Electric in Dallas.

The couple is planning a fall wedding.

Melon is yummy scooped, frozen

Freeze watermelon, cantaloupe and honeydew cubes or balls for year round desserts, salads or appetizers.

IT IS easy and quick. Just be sure the melons to freeze are firm-fleshed, well colored and ripe, said Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Medical students are wed; they'll live in California

Double-ring vows united Miss Keitha Kay Davis and James Thomas Scott in marriage Saturday evening in the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mrs. John G. Davis of Dimmitt, and the groom, a Los Angeles resident, is the son of Mrs. Marie Scott of Albuquerque.

The Rev. Jim Pickens officiated at the formal ceremony.

Given in marriage by Mayor George Bradford, the bride wore a full-length gown of taffeta-backed chiffon overlaid with ivory silk organza, embroidered with Italian lace and pearls. The gown featured a scalloped neckline and an Empire waistline. The sleeves were of translucent lace and pearls over silk organza, and the long fitted cuffs emphasized the sleeves' bouffant style. A flaring, floor-length train extended from the sides of the skirt and was attached to the Empire waist with a large organza bow in the back. An arched headpiece of gathered ivory lace rosebuds secured a full-length veil of silk illusion.

The bride carried champagne gladioli and white roses.

MATRON of honor was Mrs. Roy Ellis of Dimmitt, sister of the bride. Janis Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Dr. Anita Mitchell of Dallas, the bride's medical school roommate, served as bridesmaid. They wore formal gowns of candy pink cotton pique with off-shoulder bouffant sleeves of pink organza. The necklines and Empire waists were accented by pink embroidered flowers. The gowns featured trains of the dress fabric, attached to the skirt sides and the backs of the waists.

The attendants also wore full-length veils of pink tulle sprinkled with bouquets of embroidered flowers. Their flowers were nosegays of pink rosebuds.

The groom's brother, Don Scott of Albuquerque, served as best man. Jerry Fitz and Richard Darr of Albuquerque served as groomsmen. Roy Ellis of Dimmitt, brother-in-law of the bride, and Dr. David Bechtol lit the candles. Candelights and groomsmen also served as ushers.

LARKIN SHAW of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer, and Laurie Lowe of Sody, Tenn., godchild of the bride, and Paula Bechtol of Dimmitt were flower girls. They sprinkled pink rose petals from pink ribbon-covered baskets along the aisle.

The wedding scene was decorated with three candelabra, two spiral and one arched, holding approximately 50 candles. A Bible and large wedding candle were on the communion table, and the candle was lit by the couple during the ceremony. Satin bows adorned the pews, and baskets of white gladioli flanked the communion rail.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Keith Howard, organist, and

MRS. JAMES THOMAS SCOTT
... The former Keitha Kay Davis

Mrs. Roy E. Lowe, pianist. The organ and piano recital preceding the ceremony included "Panis Angelicus," "Ave Maria" and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring."

A RECEPTION was held in Lamar Fellowship Hall following the wedding. White cake and punch were served at the bride's table, and chocolate cake and coffee were at the groom's table. Decorations for the reception included a medical staff of Aesculapaus in flowers and wood.

For traveling, the bride chose a navy blue sailor skimmer with a large sailor collar, trimmed in white, with white accessories. The newlyweds returned to Los Angeles, where they will be at home at 4576½ Sunset Blvd.

THE BRIDE, valedictorian of the 1961 class of Dimmitt High School, received her BA degree in chemistry at Texas Tech in 1965 and while at Tech she participated in the Honors Program curriculum, was a member and officer of Alpha Epsilon Delta, honorary pre-medical society, and a member of Chi Pmega social sorority.

She graduated from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston June 11 with her MD degree. She was a member of Mu Delta honorary service fraternity while at Galveston.

The bride will begin her internship in pediatrics July 1 at Children's Hospital of Los Angeles.

SCOTT is a 1956 graduate of Lovington High School. He attended Eastern New Mexico University for a year, and then served four years in the Air Force. He studied at the University of Heidelberg, Germany for four years and received a Kandidat Medizin degree in 1965. After returning to the United States in 1966, he began medical studies at the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque.

He is now completing his third year at the University of California at Los Angeles School of Medicine. He will receive his MD degree at UCLC next June.

SINCE THE FIRST crude plow uprooted the first square foot of sod, and since man's axe first bit into virgin forest, erosion of the soil has been a problem. It is as old as history. Down through the ages it has influenced the lives of men and the destinies of nations and civilizations. In the United States today, no problem is more urgent. — Dr. Hugh I Bennett.

Compile a list of wallet cards

What would happen if you lost your wallet? Could someone go on a shopping spree at your expense?

This is one hazard of the new credit world, points out Mrs. Doris Myers, Extension home management specialist at Texas A&M.

RECORD NAMES and addresses of credit card companies so you can phone and write to them to stop use of the cards. List, too, licenses and other items kept in your wallet.

Keep the list in a safe place for emergencies, advises Mrs. Myers.

IF YOU'RE LUCKY enough to have an empty corner for sewing supplies, here's how you can make more use of the space. Drape lengths of fabric over extension rods, braced against either wall. Fabrics in colorful cotton prints can be used to curtain off corner shelves.

Newman-Glidewell vows are recited

Miss Cheryl Len Newman of Hart and Billy Lloyd Glidewell of Dimmitt were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Hart Saturday.

THE BRIDE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Newman of Hart, and Glidewell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Glidewell of Dimmitt.

Rev. C. T. Cunningham officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a semi-fitted formal gown of peau de soie. The dress featured a yoke of re-embroidered lace, and long bell sleeves. A cathedral-length train was pleated to the gown at the yoke. The dress was designed and made by the bride's mother.

For "something borrowed," she wore a strand of pearls belonging to her aunt, Mrs. Don Newman, and her "something blue" was the traditional garter, a gift from Mrs. R. H. Ready of Lubbock, an aunt. Her bouquet was made up of white roses, feathered carnations, pearls, ivy, and streamers tied in love knots.

MANDY ROGERS of Hart was the maid of honor, and Mary Lou Farnum of Pecos, Kay Bradley and Poppy Byrnes, both of Dimmitt, served as bridesmaids. They wore full-length dresses of pink dotted Swiss, styled in the colonial fashion and trimmed with white ruffles. Each carried a ball of hot pink ribbon, feathered carnations and ivy, secured to ribbon-covered handles.

David Bunch of Dimmitt was best man, and Steve Sharp, Bob Crick and Terry Newman, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Max Ray Newman, Jim Swindle and Jim Kendrick, seated the guests.

Tracy and Derek Rich of Hart lit the candles. Susan Williams of Andrews, niece of the groom, was the flower girl, and Brad Hill of Hart was ring bearer.

Baskets of pale pink gladioli decorated the church. The spiral candelabras were entwined with greenery and held hot pink candles. Beverly Newman of Dimmitt registered wedding guests.

THE RECEPTION was held in fellowship hall following the wedding. The table was covered with a white cloth, trimmed with hot pink bows, hot pink candles in a gold candelabrum, the bride's and attendants' bouquets, a silver punch bowl, crystal and gold appointments, and a three-tiered wedding cake made up the table arrangement.

For traveling, the bride chose a blue and green two-piece suit, white accessories and a white rose corsage.

THE BRIDE is a Hart High school graduate a member of Chi Omega sorority and secretary

DIMMITT WHEAT GROWERS, INC.

New A&M Caprock short wheat to be available for '70 crop

Caprock, the second semi-dwarf or "shorty" wheat developed by breeders, will be available to Texas growers after the 1969 harvest. TAMU's Sturdy wheat, the first short stature, was released to growers in 1966. Dr. I. M. Atkins, small grains section leader at A&M, said more than 200,000 acres of Sturdy are already being grown in Texas and Oklahoma.

CAPROCK and Sturdy, along with many other high yielding, high quality varieties, were developed in the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station wheat research program, Atkins said. Among these are Tascosa, Caddo, Crockett, Quannah and Milam, giving growers adapted varieties for all sections of the state. Tascosa alone is now grown on more than one million Texas acres.

Caprock and Sturdy are sister strains developed by TAMU Plant Breeders Atkins, Dr. K. B. Porter, K. A. Lahr and Dr. O. G. Merkle in cooperation with the US Department of Agriculture. The varieties were produced from a cross made by Atkins in 1951. Subsequent breeding and selection were done at Denton, Chilli-cothe and Bushland.

"Development of a new wheat variety often takes 12 to 15 years to test and release," Atkins pointed out.

HE SAID Caprock is best adapted to irrigated areas of the Texas High Plains, where it has out-yielded Sturdy by about 10 bushels per acre and weighed a half-pound higher in test weight. Both do equally well in the Rolling Plains, but Sturdy yields better in Central Texas.

Plant characters are nearly identical in Caprock and Sturdy. Both have short, strong straw which will stand under heavy grain loads. Many of the head spikelets have three or four grains per spikelet or "mesh."

Plants of the varieties average about 6 to 10 inches shorter than tall wheat types previously grown. IN LARGE scale plantings last year, two fields of Sturdy made 78 bushels per acre, Atkins said. Eight fields, totalling 604 acres, produced more than 60 bushels per acre, and one 300-acre field, 69 bushels an acre.

"When we fully learn how to use these new wheats, we may be able to produce 100 bushels per acre under some conditions," the agronomist said.

Studies by Pat A. Rich at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research Station at Denton show that shorty wheat like Sturdy and Caprock use fertilizer more efficiently than do tall wheats. Plant food elements are used to produce grain instead of straw.

Conservation

That old bandit, mesquite, beginning to show up here

By DAVID SPRINGER
District Conservationist

Bandits are beginning to appear on Castro County's rangeland.

THESE bandits are considered to be extremely dangerous and are known to cover every land resource area in the state of Texas.

This bandit is brush.

How does this effect Castro County? Many people would say that it doesn't, but I believe if they will take a closer look they will agree that they are mistaken.

At present, yucca, cacti and sand sage brush are becoming serious invaders on much of our 70,000 acres of rangeland. The damage they do is tremendous. Brush species are very large users of our available water.

AN EXAMPLE is the mesquite, which requires 1,800 pounds of water to produce one pound of dry matter, where on the other hand our desirable range grasses use much less water. Blue grama requires 369 pounds of water to produce one pound of dry matter, and Buffalograss requires only 296 pounds of water to produce one pound of dry matter. As you can readily see, five to six pounds of desirable range forage can be produced with the same water required to produce one pound of brush.

Six months ago, if someone had asked me if there was a mesquite tree in Castro County, I would have said no. However, today I can show you several mesquites in the county.

How did they get here? This is a good question, but I will offer one possible answer.

IN THE past decade livestock operations on rangeland were primarily cow-calf operations, but today the switch has been made to steer operations. These steer operations are stocked each year by bringing in cattle from other areas of the state.

Suppose a set of cattle are brought in from a mesquite area below the Caprock. It has been found that a steer can eat a mesquite bean and it will take from 30 to 140 hours for the bean to be expelled, with most beans being excreted in 42 to 60 hours, and with an average of 69 percent of the excreted beans being viable mesquite seed. Thus it is very easy for us to get mesquite into this county.

What will a dozen Mesquites hurt? A dozen probably wouldn't hurt much. But they certainly leave the gate down for a large infestation of mesquite.

NOW IS the time to try to eradicate this menace, because if they get much more of a foothold we will be thinking in terms of control rather than eradication. This has happened to our neighbors to the south, north, east and west. Let's prevent it from happening here by taking care of our brush problems before it really gets started.

Another interesting highlight about brush and Texas' brush problem is that 88.5 million acres — or 82 percent of the state's grassland — is infested with brush. This coincides with 73 percent of the High Plains grassland which is brush infested. Also, Texas brush uses about 146 million acre feet of water, which is about 40 percent of all water used in Texas. Texans are fighting brush at the rate of about two million acres per year, but the brush is slowly gaining, even with the brush control measures being used.

A snake is less dangerous than tub, if you don't panic

Fear of snakes will keep many would-be campers at home this summer, even though statistics show that in the US more people are killed or seriously injured in their bathtubs than by snakebites, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

IN THE past 10 years in Texas, there have been just 31 deaths attributed to poisonous snakes. Snakebite deaths were most frequent among the young or old.

An unreasoning fear or ignorance may cause more harm than an actual snakebite. If you regard the snake as a vicious and cunning creature with a deep-seated hatred of man, you are mistaken. The snake actually is timid. It will react to man as it would to any big and threatening creature, but it prefers to slide unobtrusively away.

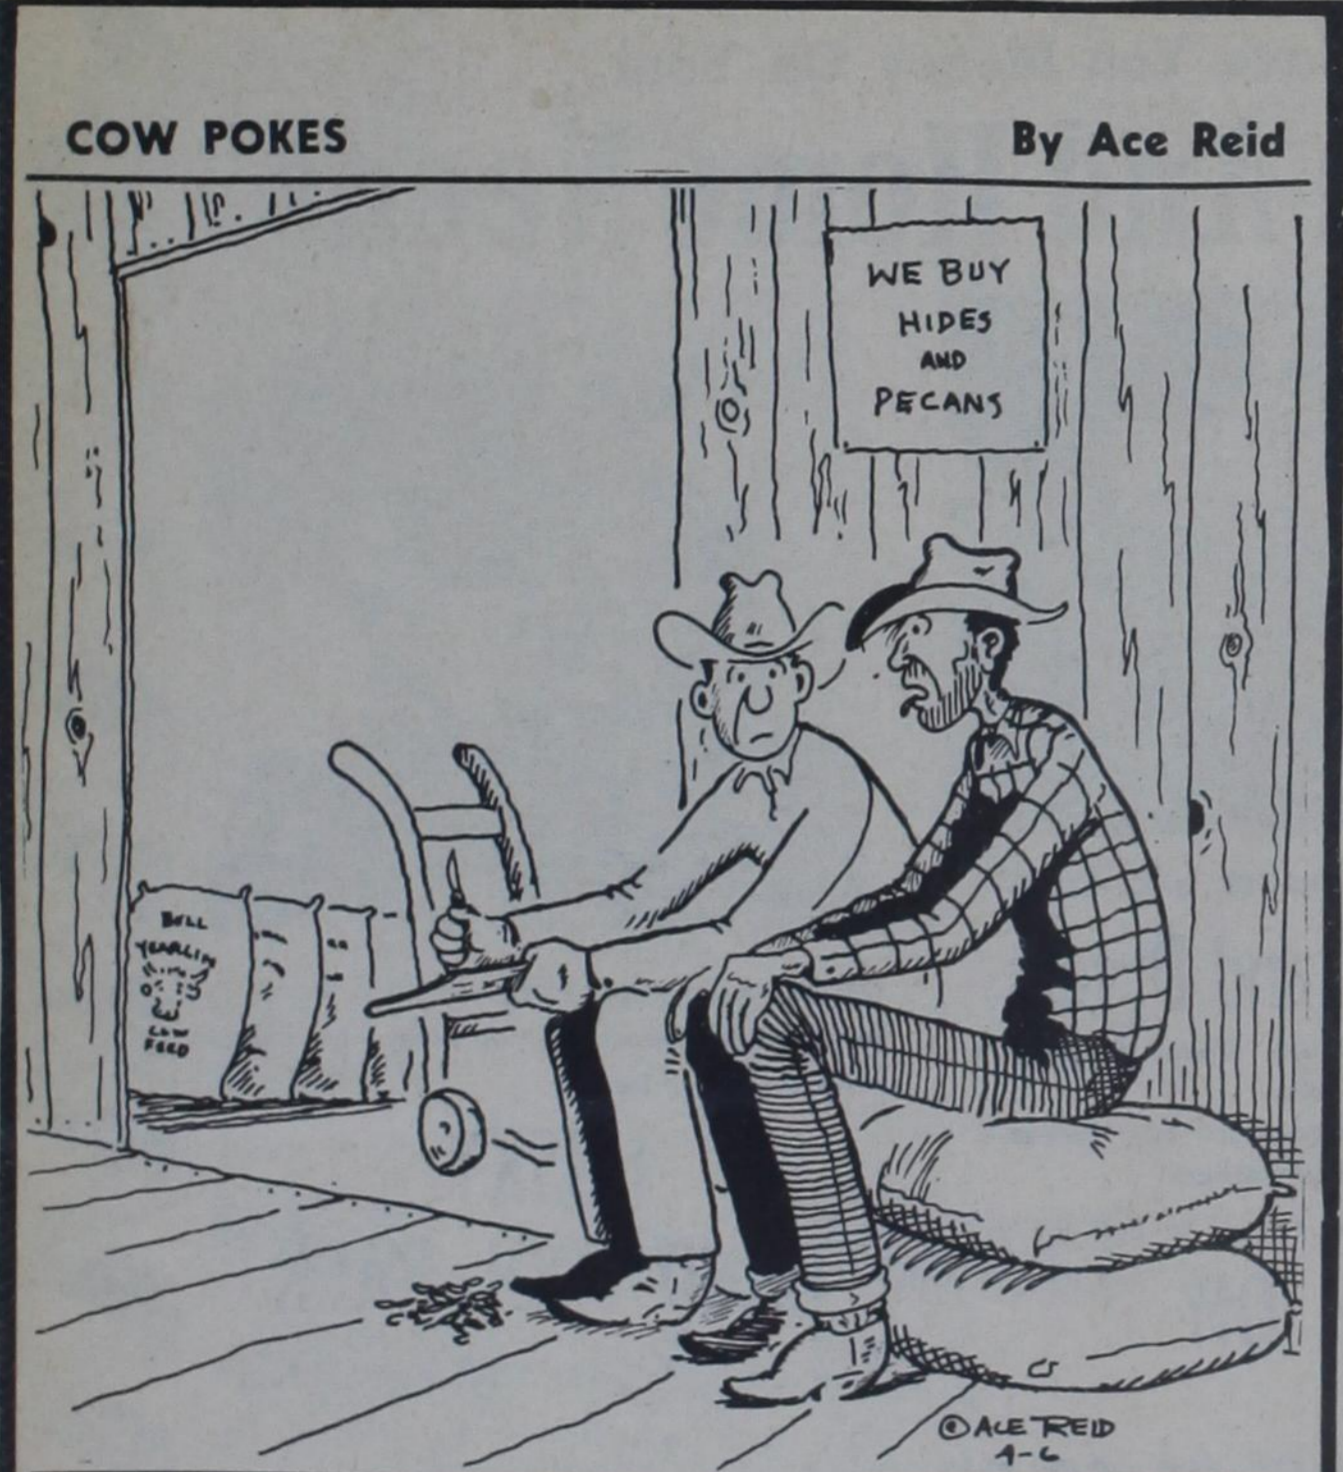

Poisonous snakes of the US include the rattlesnake, copperhead, cottonmouth moccasin and coral snake. One of the most prevalent in Texas is the rattlesnake.

SHOULD you encounter a rattler, the safest thing to do, usually, is to remain perfectly still or edge gingerly away. Don't run. You only excite the snake, making it more apt to strike in self-defense. On the other hand, don't assume that it will shake its rattles as a signal of attack or that it only strikes when coiled. A rattling tail indicates nervousness rather than a sign of aggression. And, a rattler may strike in any direction from any position.

In applying first aid for snakebite, make the victim lie down as soon as possible and apply a constricting bandage above the bite. The pulse in blood vessels below the bandage should not disappear, nor should the bandage produce a throbbing sensation. Loosen the bandage for a few seconds every 15 minutes. If possible, apply ice packs to the bite and get the victim to a physician or hospital.

If a lengthy interval seems likely until antivenin can be given, make cuts cautiously through the skin into and just above the presumed venom deposit site, avoiding tendons, and apply suction.

"Yep, I'm fightin' inflation, I'm a drawin' depression wages."

Pakistanis visit county Tuesday

Six farmers from Pakistan learned Tuesday how their fellow farm operators in Castro County get such tremendous yields through the use of irrigation, chemicals, mechanization and conservation.

THE PAKISTANIS were the guests of Leo Witkowski, and were here under the Farm Leader Exchange program conducted by Farmers and World Affairs, Inc.

At Witkowski's farms in Easter, the visitors from Pakistan saw wheat harvest and maize planting in progress and looked over thick, clean fields of corn and grass. They also saw Witkowski's cattle operation and studied the farm machinery he uses.

Witkowski explained his conservation practices, and County Agent Charles Hottel told how the Extension Service takes soil samples to determine the best type and rate of fertilizer for various crops.

THE PAKISTAN farmers were Anisuzzaman Khan of Kushtia, East Pakistan; Magbool Ahmed Khan of Rawalpindi, West Pakistan; Mohammed Mahtabuddin in Khan of Dacca 3, East Pakistan; Mohammed Bahasuddin Miah of Mymensingh, East Pakistan; Sardar Khalid Omar of Lahore, West Pakistan; and Rais Ali Nawas Unar of Nawabshah, West Pakistan.

They were accompanied by Ruby Yeutter, exchange team guide and interpreter for Farmers and World Affairs, Inc.

M. M. IN KHAN served as the spokesman for the Pakistanis, explaining that East Pakistan gets lots of rain — and floods sometimes — whereas West Pakistan is "a bit dry."

This difference in rainfall has a great effect on both the populations and crops of the "two Pakistans."

Khan explained that East Pakistan has a land area of 55,126 square miles and a population of about 61 million (85 percent farmers), whereas the drier West Pakistan is much larger with 310,403 square miles, but has only 51,400,000 people.

"ON MY FARM in East Pakistan, I grow rice, jute, potatoes and seasonal fruits," he said. "In West Pakistan they grow wheat, fruits of various types, rice, sug-

Kansas coed enters race

SHE IS the daughter of Mrs. Sara P. Hill of Hutchinson, and is sponsored by Frontier Hybrids, Inc. She is a student at Wichita State University.

The pageant finals are to be held in Dimmitt High School Auditorium Aug. 9. This will be the 10th year of the beauty and talent contest, which was established to help promote the grain sorghum industry.

Anton to host Pony tourney

At a well-attended meeting in Dimmitt Tuesday night, Pony League representatives from all participating cities in the area voted to hold this year's area all-star tournament in Anton July 21-26.

THE TOURNEY will be sponsored by the Anton Lions Club and hosted by the Tumbleweed Pony League, composed of Anton, Wolfforth, Hurlwood and Shallowater.

Winner of the tournament will advance to the sectional playoffs at Tulsa, Okla., the following week. Berger's all-stars will meet Hereford in the lead-off game at 6:30 p.m. July 21. In the nightcap at 8:30, Castro County's all-stars will go against Anton.

LOSERS in the first round will have a chance to survive in the double-elimination tourney, with the first game in the hard-luck bracket at 6:30 July 22, just before the battle between the two first-round winners. The area champion could be decided in the sixth game at 8:30 July 25, but a seventh game will be played at 8:30 July 26 if necessary.

Jimmie Chapman of Dimmitt, Pony League sectional director, will be the tournament director. Warren Cate of Anton, president of the Tumbleweed Pony League, will be the tourney's hosting officer.

Club eases rule on who may play

Any county resident who is not a member of the Castro County Country Club may now play the club's golf course by paying daily green fees, if he is a guest of a member and in the member's company while on the course.

THE DECISION is an amendment of the Country Club's by-laws, and was made at the last meeting of the club's board of directors.

The original by-laws stated that only out-of-county green fee players could play the Country Club course.

The new rule went into effect Friday. Green fees for guests will be $2 on weekdays and $3 on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.

Jaycees launch flag project

Dimmitt's Jaycees will begin taking orders today for a flag service to dress up the business district on holidays.

WADE MAYNARD, chairman of the flag project, said the Jaycees will lease the new "American Patriot" flags, set them out on a table, take them up on 10 holidays during the year, and store them between holidays, all for $15. per year. The flags also will be flown on special occasions, he said.

Each business flag is 4 x 6 ft., larger than any now being flown by Dimmitt businesses, Maynard said. They will be flown from 12-ft. hickory staffs. Their first appearance will be on the day of the Roundup Parade, Aug. 14.

Maynard said the Jaycees will also sell 3 x 5-ft. residential flags later this summer.

"WE WANT to make Dimmitt the best-looking city in the Panhandle on holidays," Maynard said.

THE TOURNEY will be sponsored by the Anton Lions Club and hosted by the Tumbleweed Pony League, composed of Anton, Wolfforth, Hurlwood and Shallowater.

Winner of the tournament will advance to the sectional playoffs at Tulsa, Okla., the following week. Berger's all-stars will meet Hereford in the lead-off game at 6:30 p.m. July 21. In the nightcap at 8:30, Castro County's all-stars will go against Anton.

LOSERS in the first round will have a chance to survive in the double-elimination tourney, with the first game in the hard-luck bracket at 6:30 July 22, just before the battle between the two first-round winners. The area champion could be decided in the sixth game at 8:30 July 25, but a seventh game will be played at 8:30 July 26 if necessary.

Jimmie Chapman of Dimmitt, Pony League sectional director, will be the tournament director. Warren Cate of Anton, president of the Tumbleweed Pony League, will be the tourney's hosting officer.

More about: Bruegel

During the humorous "rooster" ceremony, Elvon DeVaney, vice-president, presented Bruegel with an "exhausted rooster" lapel emblem and a live cock pheasant as a symbol of his new status. The pheasant took the place of the customary rooster that the retired Jaycee usually has to take home with him.

Recalling his career in the Dimmitt Jaycees, Bruegel said the most memorable project he worked on was the building of the original Dimmitt Jaycee Airport, which now is Dimmitt Municipal Airport.

"OUR AIRPORT is a dream come true," he said, "and I'll always be proud of having had a part in it."

He said his most memorable year in the Jaycees was his term as president.

Pete Wright the state vice-president then, and I got to do a lot of traveling with him all over the state," Bruegel recalled. "I got to meet a lot of Jaycees from other places and learn what they were doing for their towns, and I think I made some lifetime friends that year."

Witnessing the "rooster" ceremony and the JCI senatorship presentation last Thursday were several other "exhausted roosters" — former Dimmitt Jaycee members — who had worked with Bruegel during his 11 years in the Jaycees here.

tion" and for "an outstanding group effort to express their support of a brighter future in an industrialized community."

In addition to conducting the volunteer registration of all business establishments and employees in Dimmitt, the labor survey team has set up registration facilities for residents and farm workers in surrounding communities.

The surveyors commended Weldon Bradley of Sunnyside and employees of his store for cooperating in the project by helping register Sunnyside area residents.

DEADLINE for registering is next Thursday, Jimmy Ross, president of the Chamber of Commerce, urged all residents over 16 who haven't registered to do so during the coming week.

The labor survey office is at 103 E. Bedford St. Registration requires five to 10 minutes.

Information gained through individual registrations will be added to data on the county's natural resources, taxes, utilities, etc., and compiled into a thick report book to be used for goal-setting and industrial development.
