Corn mill nears completion

The first wheels will start turning in Dimmitt Wheat Growers' wet-milling plant within about 90 days.

THE construction is progressing on schedule toward the start-up of the mill sometime in September," said Jay Olnick of Dimmitt Management Co.

"The refinery will start up shortly after the first of the year," he added.

Fabrication of the milling plant's equipment and fixtures is virtually complete, Olnick said, and most of the work at the mill site now is in the erection of the plant.

EMPLOYMENT at the plant site has reached a peak of 132 workers, "and we anticipate that employment will stay at this level up until the start-up," Olnick said.

Workers are now fitting together a complex maze of stainless steel tanks, pipes, pumps, motors, dryers and electronic control equipment in the three-story millhouse of the multi-million-dollar plant.

When completed, the plant will process 10,000 to 12,000 bushels of corn per day and will be capable of turning out a wide range of corn products such as starches, sugars, oils and cattle feed.

THE PLANT is designed so that its milling capacity can be doubled in the future at a minimum cost.

The new plant here is unique in Texas, Olnick noted. Compared with a milling plant in Corpus Christi that is turning out corn products, Dimmitt's semi-automated plant is costing less than one-half to build and will require many fewer employees in its operation.

Lonnie Boothe's condition better

Lonnie Boothe, 8-year-old accident victim, was moved out of the intensive care unit of Lubbock's Methodist Hospital Tuesday and is now listed in serious condition.

"WE'RE carrying him as serious, but there should be a category between serious and critical, because he's still in very bad condition," a spokesman for the hospital said Wednesday.

Lonnie's mother, Mrs. Betty Boothe, is still listed in serious condition also.

Both received severe injuries of the head, arms and internal organs in a two-car accident at Flagg June 1 which took the lives of Mrs. Boothe's husband, Lon, and their daughter, Janie, 15.

64 golfers vie in pro-am event

A foursome that included two Dimmitt men fired a blazing 11-under-par net score of 61 to capture the team championship of the Castro County Country Club Pro-Am Tournament Monday.

ON THE winning team were Dick Tubb of Hereford, Mrs. Chuck Allen of Canyon, and Richard Walker and Bob Myers of Dimmitt.

Cal Garrett of Hereford fired a par 72 in the 18-hole event to win low-pro honors while John Ethridge of Lorenzo posted a 75 for the individual title in the amateur ranks.

The tournament drew a field of 4 men and women, including six professionals from area country clubs.

Winning second place in team competition with a net score of 6 was a team composed of Dwight and Woodrow Whitaker of Friona and Paul Webb and Warner Ward of Tulia.

Three teams finished with net 64's to tie for third place. They were:

Calvin Garrett and Pat Robbins of Hereford and Bobby Vilas and Harry Hauf of Dimmitt; Bruce Winn and Jack Sizemore of Canyon, and Glenn and Mick Mings of Friona; and John and Marge Austin of Amarillo, and Roy Ellis and Bill Williams of Dimmitt.

The new first vice-president of the organization is Wellington Mayor Don Coleman. Dr. D. E. Hackley, mayor of Spearman, was elected second vice-president.

THE DINNER was attended by 125 city officials and their wives from throughout the Panhandle.

Smith of the sponsoring Easter Lions Club during the charter night banquet last Thursday night in Dimmitt High School cafeteria. Sunnyside's is the 1,021st Lions Club in Texas, the 79th in District 21-1 and the fourth in Castro County. Approximately 100 Lions and their wives from Sunnyside, Dimmitt, Easter, Amarillo, Kress, Hereford, Tulia, McLean and Lazbuddie attended the banquet. ### Postal windows have new hours

The Dimmitt Post Office is going to a five-day week on its regular window service, except for a one-hour period of limited window deliveries on Saturday mornings.

POSTMASTER John H. Wood announced that starting Saturday, the post office windows will be open only from 10 to 11 on Saturday mornings, and that window service during this one-hour period will include only the delivery of parcel post, registered and certified mail, and general delivery.

"The change in schedule will affect only window services," Wood said. "No carrier routes will be affected. City delivery and Star Route service will continue to be given."

THE NEW schedule cuts out all financial transactions at the post office windows on Saturdays. Postal workers on duty Saturday mornings have been instructed not to accept parcel post for mailing, sell stamps, deliver COD or postage-due mail, write or cash money orders, register letters, set postage meters, accept third-class mailings or rent post office boxes. These services involving the transaction of money will be available during regular window hours Monday through Friday, Wood said.

Kidney transplant for DeVaney is cancelled in Dallas Monday

The scheduled kidney transplant for Elvon DeVaney of Dimmitt was called off Monday morning at Parkland Hospital in Dallas, just hours before he was to undergo surgery.

DeVANNEY'S mother, Mrs. C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma, who was donating the transplant kidney for her son, developed a kidney stone 3 1/2 hours before the scheduled surgery. Had the stone-plagued kidney been transplanted, it could have been fatal to DeVaney, physicians said after calling off the transplant. DeVaney is now scheduled to begin training on a home dialysis (artificial kidney) machine at Parkland on June 26 — his 36th birthday — and will use the machine indefinitely.

"MRS. DeVANNEY had been completely X-rayed Sunday and no kidney stones had shown up," DeVaney's wife, Sue, said. "At 3:30 in the morning she started having back pains but wouldn't tell anybody because she was afraid it would stop the transplant."

"But later that morning the pain became so bad that she had to have help. As a result of her pain they did one final X-ray and discovered the kidney stone, then called off the operation. There won't be a transplant for at least a year now, and maybe not then."

DeVaney, a victim of Bright's Disease, had his kidneys removed last month. He is now back in his Dallas apartment, preparing to start his training on the home dialysis machine.

THE TRAINING period on the machine is normally two months. The machine, training and supplies are expected to cost $15,000, then an outlay of $400 a month will be needed to operate the machine.

The Elvon DeVaney Emergency Fund which has been started at the First State Bank now stands at $798.24, all of which has been raised by student organizations and through voluntary donations. The figure does not include the net profit from the recent Miss Dimmitt Pageant, which the Jaycees have pledged to the fund. The final profit figure on the pageant has not yet been determined.

Contributions to the fund are being accepted at the First State Bank and the Colonial Inn Restaurant.

DeVANNEY told the News Wednesday morning that he was still optimistic after his transplant was cancelled Monday morning.

"I really wasn't disappointed when the transplant didn't go through, and I don't know why I wasn't," he said. "I never could believe it could ever really happen — it was just too good to be true."

He added, "I'm going to go to work on that machine and try to set a record for learning how to use it. I want to get back to (See DeVANNEY, Page 4)

Capt. Russell Slough

Wounded soldier due for transfer to US hospital

Capt. Russell E. Slough of Dimmitt, who was wounded in Vietnam May 23, is now in a US Army hospital in Japan and is scheduled to be transferred to the US in the near future.

"IN THE last telegram we received, his prognosis and attitude were described as 'fair' by his physicians," Capt. Slough's mother, Mrs. James Slough, said Wednesday.

He was taken to the hospital ship USS Sanctuary for treatment, and later was transferred to Da Nang, then to Japan. He is to be transferred soon from Japan to Travis Air Force Base, then to a US Army hospital in the States.

"WHILE HE was in Da Nang he dictated a letter to a Red Cross nurse and sent it to us," his mother said. "He told us in the letter, 'I'm going to be all right, but my back is injured.'"

She added, "We have also heard from a fraternity brother of Russell's in Vietnam who went aboard the hospital ship and talked to his physician. He told us that he understands there is some feeling coming back in both of Russell's legs and his right arm. But we have not been told that officially."

His new mailing address is Capt. Russell E. Slough 467-66-0896 Medical Holding Co., 249 General Hospital, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96267.

The Face of Dimmitt

AMBER WAVES OF GRAIN—The face of the Dimmitt area is taking on a bright golden hue as large fields of beautiful thick wheat ripen for the harvest. Wheat, one of the most basic of all grains, was once our main crop here. It was wheat that paid for many of our farms, that provided our area with its nickname of "The Golden Spread," that inspired a line in the national hymn, "America, the Beautiful." It is a good two-purpose crop, providing feed for our cattle in the winter before it provides bread for the nation in the summer. Wheat has been largely replaced now by a multiplicity of other crops in our irrigated, programmed agriculture—but nothing will ever replace it for sheer beauty. This photo was taken this week three miles east of the Flagg intersection.

Wheat harvest should get underway in earnest by the end of this week, and judging from past experiences that particular farm chore should be completed by the time Vice President Agnew makes his next speech, and chances are that will be very soon.

The way Joe Cowen is passing out cigars you would think it was the first time a man ever became a grandfather.

Crops have never looked better at this time of year. A fine wheat crop is in the process of being harvested and row crops, and all types of vegetables, are as pretty as you would care to see. This bids fair to be a bumper crop year.

Old Charles Guy, the uncouth editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, has done it again, ruffled my feathers, that is. In his column last Friday he made the following irritating remarks:

"Archer Fullingim, who has a little political weekly in Kountze and makes like it is the 1,000,000 circulation NY Daily News; Curtis Graves, of Houston, who'd like to be Texas' Julian Bond but just can't cut it, and a lawyer in the Valley name of Bob Sanchez, are urging their fellow liberals to vote in November for the GOP gubernatorial and senatorial candidates, Paul Eggers and George Bush, respectively. They want to 'get even' for Senator Ralph Yarborough's defeat.

"This gigantic drive must all but scare the pants off Gov. Preston Smith and Lloyd Bentsen, the Democratic nominees for the jobs. "Between them Kountze, Graves and Sanchez must control at least 17 votes."

There you have it, that's what Charles Guy wrote in his column Friday. In this case Guy is criticizing the men, mentioned in his column, for practicing what he preaches. He claims to be an independent and that he votes for the man and not the party. Why can't he give other people the same privilege without implying some ulterior motive?

There is little doubt in my mind that when Mr. Guy bellittes and down-grades the Kountze News, that he has in mind all small weeklies that don't agree with his views, on politics or other matters. Views that seep from the pores of the ivory tower that houses the Avalanche-Journal and the plush offices of a daily editor that would make light of the weekly press.

Certainly Mr. Guy has a perfect right to disagree with Mr. Fullingim's politics and by the same token he has the right to challenge the wisdom of the weekly editor's opinions in his own widely read column. He shows very bad taste, however, when he bellittes the Kountze News and detracts from its importance in the community it serves.

So far as Mr. Guy's reference to Curtis Graves and Bob Sanchez is concerned, one a Negro and the other a Mexican, you would naturally assume that he is using this method of baiting the two minority ethnic groups.

ACT I deadline date is extended

The deadline for enrolling in Dimmitt's Activities and Cultural Training (ACT I) program has been extended a week. Registrations will be accepted through Sunday.

AT THE original deadline date last Sunday, two of the five athletic and cultural courses still were in danger of being cancelled for lack of enough enrollees.

"The two courses that will definitely be cancelled if more aren't enrolled are tennis and art, because they both have out-of-town teachers," Mrs. Mary Bechtol, chairman of the program, said this week.

Sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi sorority, the ACT I program is designed to provide class instruction in five activities — tennis, conversational Spanish, art, modern dance and trampoline. Classes are scheduled daily July 6-17, with each class meeting for an hour each day except for the art course, which will have two hour sessions daily.

An ACT I enrollment form has been printed in the last three issues of the News. You also may enroll by phoning 647-2555 for tennis, 647-4494 for modern dance, 647-2464 for art, 647-2336 for Spanish, or 647-2598 for trampoline.

ENROLLMENT fees for the art course are $15 for students 5 through 7 years of age and $20 for students 8 and older. Fees for the other courses are $10 for tennis, $3 for trampoline, $4 for Spanish and $5 for modern dance. All supplies will be furnished for each course.

New Mexico resort full of Dimmitt folks over weekend

By MYRTLE SHEFFY

Sid and I and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Nelson went to Ruidoso last weekend. We had a nice house on the river on past Whispering Pines Cafe. We saw Steve and Gladys Glenn, who have the cabins and met their daughters, Kim and Dana. The Glenns were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary Friday night. Many relatives came in to help. We saw Mrs. N. B. Stokes and Sue there for the party.

And more Dimmitt people in Ruidoso were Nell Kitchens, Suzie George, Rachel Cleaver, Lena Crum and Christine Uoke. We saw them again in a Clovis cafe Sunday enroute home. Suzie George says she did fly up to Washington state to see son Donnie. Her daughter went along. She was afraid of flying. They also took a ship tour up to Canada, then on land. It was much fun.

Bible Thoughts

HATE

By RONNIE PARKER

The list of sins of the flesh given by Paul in Galatians 5 contains the sin of hate. God's way will not allow malicious feelings towards others. Hate is no small sin. In I John 3:15, he who hates his brother is called a murderer; for the sin lies in the inward disposition, of which firing the gun, or using the club is only the outward expression.

One has said; "The moment you start hating a man, you become his slave. He controls your thoughts, invades your dreams, absorbs your creativity and determines your appetite. He affects your indigestion, robs you of your peace of mind and good will, and takes away the pleasure of your work."

It is a strange truth that you can't get away from one you hate. He has a way of becoming an abiding presence in your heart. He ruins your religion, nullifies your prayers, invades your privacy, and hounds you wherever you go. He even affects your tone of voice when you speak to your boss, your friends, your wife or your children.

Hate steals too much . . . and besides, who wants to be a slave? What the world needs now is love, sweet love.

DESTINATION?

Postal employees do their best to interpret accurately the addresses written on our mail. However, some are so hastily written, and so poorly addressed that they may never reach their intended destination. A good many people go hastily through life, not realizing that they are headed in the wrong direction. The church points the way to salvation and desires that all should choose the way of our Lord and Saviour.

TAKE TIME FOR THE LORD ATTEND CHURCH

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Remember these points on 1970 crop programs

By CHARLEY HILL
County Executive Director

Here are important points to remember on the 1970 cotton, feed grain and diverted acreage programs:

1. Early certification means earlier payments.
2. Aug. 3 is the final date to certify final acreage.
3. ACREAGE reports must be accurate — no guessing.

Grain Sorghum CHAFF

By WES ANTHONY
The crazy farmer just will not quit.

THE other morning I went to town a little early to pick up something to take to the farm. But I was too early — the business had not opened. I got back in my pickup and waited for a truck of grain to pass. Right behind him passed a truckload of hay, and then came a load of cattle.

I started out to the farm and met a farmer pulling a fertilizer spreader. A little farther down the road was a man changing irrigation tubes. And farther on, a man was cultivating what cotton the hail had left. And still farther along, a fellow was replanting some crop. And still farther was a man driving through his cattle.

The farmer is really busy. Someone has said, "If you do not have time to do it right, when are you going to have time to do it over?"

Soil is still our basic tie

By LARRY O. STARNES
Citizens of Dimmitt and of the High Plains are probably more aware of the problems and hazards of agriculture than are most people in our nation. Yet there are still those who have not stopped to think of how dependent they are upon agriculture as well as agriculture depending on them. Almost all of the raw materials for food, clothing, and shelter are derived from the soil. Therefore Soil Conservation should be the concern of every individual regardless of his occupation or age.

WE MUST protect our soil from erosion and conserve our irrigation water supplies. Farmers must have support and encouragement from their urban neighbors in order to develop and carry out sound conservation programs.

Today with the rising cost of production and the increased cost of living, the men who produce our food supply need the support we can give them. I believe farmers are to be commended for the manner in which they have held food cost to a minimum by producing ample supplies as the need increases. This can only continue to a point and the highest level of production will depend entirely upon the fertility of our soils.

WE AT THE Soil Conservation office in Dimmitt invites you you as urban and rural citizens to join us in the task to save our soil and our nation. We welcome the opportunity to assist you with any conservation problem you might have, whether large and complex or small in scope, urban or rural.

REVENUE from cigarette taxes increased $4,598,990 to $15,516,491 from May, 1969, to May, 1970, State Treasurer Jesse James reports.

Youths save downed flags

Four Dimmitt youths who picked up blown-down flags Sunday and turned them over to the city police department will be rewarded with a free dinner at today's meeting of the Jaycees.

THE JAYCEES, who conduct a holiday flag service for the city's businesses, set out almost 100 American flags Sunday morning in observance of Flag Day, with plans to take the flags down at 6 p.m.

But several of the 4 1/2 by 6 ft. flags came down early — with their poles snapped by Sunday's stiff wind.

The four youths — Bo Myers, Max Hastings, Joe Lively and Andy Murphy — spotted the flags on the ground along North Broadway, near the airport, and promptly picked them up. They delivered the flags to Police Chief W. W. Jones, then notified the Jaycees to tell them where the flags could be found.

"I think everyone should know about this good deed," the police chief commented. "If these boys had broken a window in the school, everyone would know about it. I have the greatest respect for boys of this caliber."

Jaycee President Jim Ratcliff said, "We want to recognize these boys as responsible and dependable people. We've asked them to be our lunch guests at this week's meeting so we can thank them."

Speaker at today's Jaycee meeting will be Bill Sarpolis, an ex-Boys Rancher who was president of the Texas Future Farmers of America last year.

Financial Facts
By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

It is common knowledge that people used a system of barter or direct trade before money came into use. The obvious supposition is that money evolved directly from these barter transactions after people finally realized that a better system was needed for determining values and exchanging wealth.

This is not entirely correct since monetary systems were already in use while barter was going on. The earliest money really originated in religious and social customs. It was used for ransom, purchasing brides, ceremonial offerings and showing-off with various forms of ornamentation. Used originally to discharge religious, legal and ritualistic obligations, its value as a medium of commercial exchange eventually became apparent to the tradespeople who then began to adapt it to the uses of the marketplace.

Letters To The Editor:

Young minister asks: 'What alternatives do protestors offer?'

(Editor's Note: In our May 21 issue we published a thought-provoking article by Bob Bradford, University of Missouri senior, telling his reasons for protesting our government's Southeast Asian policy. At that time we also welcomed other views on the subject. Here is a thoughtful response by a young minister, Rev. Charles F. Harris, a 1965 graduate of Dimmitt High School who is now the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Turkey. Do you have an opinion on this vital issue? If so, let us hear it. With faith that the truth will ultimately prevail if all ideas are given equal exposure through our free press, we need to take this crucial national dialogue off the streets and put it on the printed page, where it belongs — and in so doing, perhaps we can take it out of the path of bullets.)

By CHARLES F. HARRIS

I am 23 years of age, a college graduate, married, and an American. While I watch the actions of my nation closely, I have never violently protested government actions abroad. I have never advocated revolution as the solution to America's problems. I have written my congressmen and President to encourage them when I agree and to discourage them when I oppose their policies. I am convinced that my country is the stronghold of world freedom. This is the first time I have written so openly what I feel.

MY country, the United States of America, has managed to secure for myself, and all her citizens, a measure of freedom unequalled anywhere in the world. Such liberty did not mystically appear in North America 200 years ago. You need only to look at the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution to realize that. Deliberate and responsible hands forged those documents because of "a long train of abuses" at the hands of "absolute despotism."

The revolution in 1776 was not endorsed by lightheaded, irresponsible freedom seekers. As testimony to their discretion about so grave a matter, they also wrote that "Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes." Let us remember these words when thoughts of revolution enter our minds.

Our Constitution was established to "secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity." Our government has accomplished this with amazing clarity and genuineness, and this is so because we Americans have been concerned not just for our own rights, but for the rights of all mankind. No political atmosphere is more healthy than a democracy. What socialist or communist government better encourages prosperity, love for mankind, or freedom of choice?

IS IT NOT foolish to cry out for revolution in a democratic nation such as ours? For us the ballot box has replaced the need for a gun, and the majority rules. With revolution the existing establishment might be destroyed, but what better establishment would replace our democratic republic? Only the fool tears down his brick home when he possesses materials and know-how enough to rebuild a lean-to.

Our nation is not perfect, but that is because humans are not perfect. She is the best we have or can conceive of having. Only the fool would discard her before finding something better. Until then I will continue to salute her flag. I am free to make that choice.

I can choose my own goals in America. I can also choose just how hard I will work as I try to reach those goals. I can work toward becoming a big-time executive or a small-time bum. I can choose to influence my government's policies by becoming a democratic precinct chairman, or by leading a sit-in at the local federal building. I can choose to serve the human race by wearing my country's uniform and fight world tyranny, or by trying to save my friends' lives as I encourage them to dodge the draft. I can make many choices, but the quality of my government depends upon how responsible we citizens are.

VIETNAM, and more recently Cambodia, have shown what sort of stuff we freedom-loving Americans are made of. The wool has been pulled over our eyes, our enemies are laughing at us, and all the while we are bickering over trivialities. We are again faced with a choice. Choices are, for us, exercising freedom in the light of our responsibilities. We are free to make the decision that will most benefit our goals.

Twenty-three short years have taught me that one thing is certain. Every freedom granted to man carries with it a corresponding responsibility.

When South Vietnam called for help in stopping aggression, we had a choice to make, and a corresponding responsibility to fulfill. Our choice was a simple one. Would we, as we stand on the side of freedom, decide that this conflict was not worth our support? We might also have decided that this Asian conflict was a real and present threat to freedom, and thus use our powerful influence to halt the enslavement of South Vietnam.

It appears we met our obligations, took the responsible approach, and offered aid to the fight for freedom. Our positive response kept alive the hope for freedom around the globe.

NOW, responsibility has suddenly turned sour, and America has become irresponsible. Our population has decided that "human suffering and enslavement by communism need evoke no response from the United States." This is the fruit of irresponsibility and apathy, and I am ashamed of it.

Our responsibility was, and always will be, to wield our powerful influence in such a way as to preserve world peace and protect those nations that are left in the free world. Such a policy is in our own interest.

The Soviet Union and the US have far surpassed all others in military capabilities. Whether we like it or not, our freedom has produced a fantastic responsibility — the preservation of the world balance of power. In the face of such an awesome task we have degenerated into irresponsible gluttons, feeding ravenously and apathetically upon our own freedom, while caring nothing about the freedom of others.

THE ACTIONS of dissidents in our nation reveal their true nature.

It must be irresponsibility which forces protesters to call policemen "pigs," and yet be offended when the President labels them "bums" because they ransack offices, hurl deadly rocks, burn buildings, and advocate violence and revolution.

It must be irresponsibility which leads to the random use of the names of American war casualties in a moratorium peace march, thus disgracing those dead who would have considered such action to be giving aid and comfort to the enemy who killed them.

IT MUST be irresponsibility which demands the immediate withdrawal of troops from Vietnam with no regard for the danger the South Vietnamese would face as Communists terrorized their villages.

It must be irresponsibility which produces lives revolving around "the hypnotic beat of amplified rock," lyrics about "acid and pot," draft-dodging and street riots, sex without discipline.

It must be irresponsibility which makes a small minority think that it can impose its will on the majority by blocking streets, sitting in public buildings, issuing ultimatums, and threatening violence. It must be irresponsibility which causes some to think that the President is a liar and an imperialist, bent upon bolstering the US economy, and all because he seeks an honorable settlement to the war.

CAN it be possible that we have buried our heads so deep in the sand that we cannot see the truth? The Cambodian decision by the White House prompted some in the opposition to say that the only reason American troops should actively engage an enemy would be when our national boundaries are threatened. Would they let Communism control the entire globe with the exception of our 50 states? I doubt that we are capable of producing an ABM system that could guard us from threats on six other continents. Will we never see the real enemies hiding in the shadows of the Vietnamese jungles? They are there, "one ready to take over all of Asia, and another ready to dominate Europe, swoop down on the Middle East, and get control of Africa as well as Latin America."

I am not ashamed of the cause of freedom, I am not ashamed to speak out in its behalf. History tells me about the terrible pains of Communist slavery. I am only ashamed that my country is now choosing to back down when she is right.

"Be sure you are right, then go ahead." So said a brilliant mind of the past. Are we not sure, or do we not care? Irresponsibility reaps its own reward.

The Summer Reading Program is going great! We have registered 198 children and have issued 1,042 books in 10 days. We have several children who have already read their quota of 12 books to receive a certificate in August at the party at the bank. We also have several who have read more than 12 books.

WE HAVE had several families coming in from Nazareth and Hart. Some of those from Nazareth were the Ackers, Hartmans, Warrens, Wilhelms, Womacks, Verkamps, Ehlys, Hoeltings and Durbins. Some of the families from Hart coming to the library last week were the Rileys, Snitkers, Reeds, Nelsons, Richburgs, Pohlmeiers, Millers, Hamptons and Carol Farris.

The Friends of the Library had a board meeting last week with six attending. It was the last meeting until next fall. Of course they will help with the party at the bank at the end of the Summer Reading Program.

I think I might as well start a mobil library since I have delivered and picked up several books to some families who were unable to come to the li-

Surplus of electrical power guaranteed for SWPS customers

"Don't hold back. Use all the electric power you want whenever and wherever you want in the 45,000 square mile area that we serve. There is no electric power shortage in this part of the country," Ray Tolk, president of the Southwestern Public Service Co. said this week.

THE STATEMENT by the electric company president was made as a result of frequent articles in national magazines and other media which leave the implication that the whole nation faces a power shortage not only this year but "in the decade ahead," as one publication put it.

"At the end of last year, when we announced our plans to invest $25 million in new plant and equipment this year, I said, 'There'll be no blackouts in our service area in 1970,'" Tolk continued. "That still goes, I'll add at this time that there won't be any in the future, either, as long as we have the right to plan our own future without outside interference. We have a responsibility to meet the electric service needs of this area and we have done the planning required to carry out that responsibility."

Southwestern Public Service Co. has generating capability reserves that are 18 percent greater than the peak load which has been predicted for 1970.

"THAT'S like saying you have $118 put aside to pay a $100 bill that you owe," Tolk pointed out. Adequate reserves are normally considered to be the generating capability that is equal to the largest single generating unit on your system. Southwestern's reserve capability for 1970 exceeds that margin of safety by nearly 100,000 kilowatts.

Thought for the week: "The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none! —H.G.B.

Southwestern is already looking down the line at its next 500,000 kilowatts of electric generating capability. At present, a 210,000 kilowatt unit, the first in a new facility southeast of Lubbock, is under construction and is scheduled to go into service in mid-1971. Projected units of 283,000 kilowatts of capability are in the planning stage for 1973 and beyond.

"WITH THE help of our area development department, and in cooperation with other local industrial development groups, I have started to write to presidents of some companies and to telephone others whose organizations are interested in expansion, to tell them of the availability of electric power and other resources in this area," Tolk said. "We have outstanding people, lots of space for expansion, a superb climate and energy reserves. Not many areas can say that these days, and all of us should work to benefit from these advantages."

764 in county getting benefits

Social security benefits paid to residents of Castro County totaled $53,000 a month as 1969 ended, Travis C. Briggs, social security district manager, reported this week.

A BENEFIT increase, signed into law by President Nixon Dec. 30, 1969, has since raised the monthly rate of payment by 15 percent for the 764 social security beneficiaries in Castro County, Briggs noted.

Of the social security beneficiaries living in Castro County, 427 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 218 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 88 are getting benefits as disabled workers or the dependents of disabled workers.

Kindness makes work worthwhile

By IRENE KEATING

People are wonderful! Everyone I am associated with is a pleasure to know. We have good times and bad, especially when 4-H'ers don't do as well as they and their parents had hoped, but this is part of life.

QUITE often people say things to me that assure me that I am in the right profession and that I am helping people. Last week there were three ladies who really made me feel worthwhile and I want you to know who they were — Roxie Louder, Edna Riley and Betty Renfro.

Just think what a more pleasant community we'd have if just once a week we let someone know that we appreciated them. (This should be sincere — if you don't mean it, don't say it.) I know we're all busy, but let's take more time to think of others.

I have read a book recently that is a collection of thoughts by Wilferd A. Peterson. The book is entitled "The Art of Living," and it gave me a lot to think about.

THE DIMMITT and Bethel 4-H Clubs toured Missouri Beef Packers last week and really enjoyed it. They saw the skinning process and the carcasses in the cooler and those being loaded onto trucks. They were disappointed not to see the actual killing, but the guide didn't show us, as our group was so large and young. The thing that interested me most was seeing the carcasses that had been graded prime, choice and good.

It was interesting to compare the amount of red meat, fat, and marbling in each grade. Every woman should be interested in this phase.

I want to thank Mary Lou Smithson, Bobbie Bruegel, Milton and Sandra Bagwell, and Charles Rickerd for taking the 31 4-H'ers on the tour. And all of us thank Charles for the ice cream afterwards.

TO WED FRIDAY — Marian Elaine Shaw and Michael Lyn Williams of Amarillo will exchange marriage vows Friday at 8 p.m. in the Foursquare Church of Amarillo. Miss Shaw is the daughter of the late Ernest D. Shaw and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hooper Shaw of Dimmitt.

Broilers, traditionally a bargain, lead value parade again this month

"Broiler" is the poultry industry term for a 1 1/4 to 3 1/2-pound young chicken, sold in markets as a broiler, fryer or frying chicken. A broiler is also part of a kitchen range.

BROILED chicken is "in" with weight watchers, reported Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. A three-ounce edible portion of a broiled chicken without additional fat has only 185 calories, or 115 without skin.

"The best broiled chicken has crisp, flavorful skin and moist, tender meat," Mrs. Clyatt said. "That means the chicken must be broiled quickly enough to cook the meat before it dries out, yet not so fast that the skin browns before the meat is done. Individual broilers vary greatly, and you must experiment a little to find your own best techniques."

Supplies of fryers are expected to be about 10 percent above last year for the next couple of months, thereby offering plenty of good cookouts and picnics at reasonable prices, Mrs. Clyatt said. Chicken is an excellent high-quality protein food, she added.

"IN ADDITION to its other merits, chicken is consistently easy on the pocketbook and is obtainable most anywhere," Mrs. Clyatt said. "The average retail price for each pound of chicken has been reduced from 54.8 cents in 1950 to a 1969 average figure of only 42.2 cents a pound."

Per capita chicken consumption was estimated at 38.9 pounds in 1969, compared with 37.2 pounds in 1968 and 27.5 pounds in 1957-59, Mrs. Clyatt noted.

"SUPPLIES of all popular kinds of meat are adequate and, although beef and pork prices are relatively high, attractive values can be found," she said. "Fore-quarter cuts of beef, stew meat and ground beef are good basic buys. Beef rib roasts are featured in some stores, and for best buys cuts and liver. Smoked hams, picnics, sausages and bacon are reasonable in price."

Fresh produce supplies are looking good, Mrs. Clyatt said. Texas-grown mustard greens and collards are good quality, and corn, carrots, cabbage, head lettuce, potatoes and dry onions are generally the most economical offerings, she said.

Debbie Ogan begins mission

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
Debbie Ogan called her parents Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan from Green Bay, informing them of her safe arrival there. They had taken her to the Amarillo Airport Saturday morning. She will be in that area as a member of a team of student summer Baptist missionaries. They plan vacation Bible schools, census taking and other types of church work.

MARSH PITTMAN and Bill Cole left Saturday morning on a tour to New York and places of interest between. They plan to be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer West and family and the Bill Waldrip family were fishing at Lake LBJ, near Johnson City, for several days recently. The Wests went on to Denton and visited relatives, then to Lake Texoma for fishing and returned by way of Sayre, Okla., where they visited his mother, Mrs. Bill Maddox, coming home the middle of last week.

Mrs. B. H. Baldwin and Viola Keene returned home last week after about a two-week visit with Mrs. Baldwin's children at Dallas, Denton and in other areas. Visiting relatives here, the DeLoziers and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin, and other relatives, are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldwin and Christie of San Antonio.

V.F.W. NEWS

By GERALD BROADSTREET
Greetings Comrades,
Well, I believe summer is finally upon us and as time goes by, our state convention nears. While the VFW activities at a local level seem to slow down considerably, momentum is gathering at the state level in anticipation of the state convention to be held in Amarillo, June 26, 27 and 28.

AT THIS writing, we don't have all the details of the program. However, they will appear in the June issue of the Texas VFW News.

Headquarters for the department convention will be the Holiday Inn West. Joseph L. Vicites, national junior vice-commander, will be the national organization's representative and will speak at the awards banquet Saturday night, June 27. Gov. Preston Smith will also be on the program.

At our last meeting June 1, we elected our delegates for the convention. They are Howard Cook, Ned Smith, H. K. "Red" Hill, Reese Kesler and Charles Wilkerson. Alternate delegates are Bud Griffin, Garnett Holland, Herman Acker, Jack Ebeling and Gerald Broadstreet.

EVEN IF you're not a delegate or an alternate and would like to attend the convention, contact any of the above men for details, and if you need transportation we'll try to work that out also.

If you haven't attended our "Game Nights" on Wednesdays you are missing out on a lot of fun, so all you members gather up a guest and come on out. Come early so you can visit a while with your friends before we start at 8:30, okay? See you then.

Headquarters for the department convention will be the Holiday Inn West. Joseph L. Vicites, national junior vice-commander, will be the national organization's representative and will speak at the awards banquet Saturday night, June 27. Gov. Preston Smith will also be on the program.

At our last meeting June 1, we elected our delegates for the convention. They are Howard Cook, Ned Smith, H. K. "Red" Hill, Reese Kesler and Charles Wilkerson. Alternate delegates are Bud Griffin, Garnett Holland, Herman Acker, Jack Ebeling and Gerald Broadstreet.

EVEN IF you're not a delegate or an alternate and would like to attend the convention, contact any of the above men for details, and if you need transportation we'll try to work that out also.

If you haven't attended our "Game Nights" on Wednesdays you are missing out on a lot of fun, so all you members gather up a guest and come on out. Come early so you can visit a while with your friends before we start at 8:30, okay? See you then.
