"It Goes Right To The Spot"

When pain or irritation exists on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment will give prompt relief. "It goes right to the spot," said an old man who was rubbing it in, to cure his rheumatism. C. R. Smith, Proprietor, Smith House, Tenaha, Texas, writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for several years, and have found it to be a fine remedy, for all aches and pains, and I recommend it for pains in the throat and chest. 25c, have you paid your subscription this year? Perhaps you owe for last year, or several years, or may be for job work or advertising. Now, you understand, we don't need the money, we have millions—to get; but it is really an imposition on our money around when we are, so strong and healthy and abundantly able to bear the burden ourselves. For this reason we ask every body who has any of our money in his possession to leave it at the office, or send it by mail, freight, express

BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXIONS.

Are spoiled by using any kind of preparation that fills the pores of the skin. The best way to secure a clear complexion, free from sallowiness, pimples, blotches, etc., is to keep the liver in good order. An occasional dose of Herdine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c

New York Times.

Some of our young people went screaming Tuesday night.

Boys.
Told of three men who were preambing with their respective best as, a short way out of town.
They had stopped to admire some of nature's adornments by the wayside, and were comfortably seated, when an old man, apparently a Jew, walked wearily toward the three couples. One of the young men suggested, for the amusement of the girls, that they have some sport out of the approaching Jew. The other young men readily agreed, so the following program was quickly arranged.

When the Jew approached sufficiently near, the first was to greet him with, "How are you, Father Abraham?" and the second youth, irrespective of the old man's answer, was to say, "How are you Father Isaac?" the third in like manner. "How are you, Father Jacob." The girls were immensely tickled at the prospective fun, so according to program, when the old man was about up to the crowd, the first young man said, while the girls tittered with suppressed merritment, "How are you Father Abraham? The old Jew raised his eyes, that twinkled merrily, but made no response.
The second young man came in with his volley, "How are you Father Isaac?" The old man cut his eyes at young man No. 2, but still said nothing. Young man No. 3 then shot in his little say of "How are you Father Jacob?" The girls laughed in a quiet way. The boys each looked at his girl as if for a smile of approbation at his Herculean efforts at wit and winked knowingly at each other. The old gentleman quietly placed his small bundle on the ground and removing his hat from his head, quietly replied:

"Young gentleman, you are slightly mistaken. I am neither Father Abraham, Father Isaac, nor am I Father Jacob, but I will tell you who I am,—I am Saul, the son of Cis, in search for my father's asses, and behold! I have found them." Besuming his burden and replacing his hat on his head, he good naturedly remarked, "Good day gentlemen," and went quietly on his way. The young men looked oddly at each other while the

Do You Want to Yawn?
Feel cold shiverings, aches, in the bones, lack of energy, headache and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by vilent headache, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work sure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kan., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Her-bine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever headache, biliousness, and for a blood-purifying tonic, there is nothing as good." 50c at
