A volume of sound, practical sence in that paragraph. And, moreover, every boy and girl can secure an education if they have the courage to try. About the most pitiful wail is that of the parents were poor and I didn't get no schoolin." The facts in ers. his case are he didn't try. He depended on others and the probability is that if his father had been wealthy and had given him all opportunities that money could command, he never would have risen above mediocre. You can't keep the courageous boy down any more than you turn the course of the Gulf stream. Some—a vast number of the greatest men this nation has ever produced, came from the lap of poverty. By unremitting toil they worked their way through college and the university, thereby showing the pluck of the American boy who says, "I can and I will," and had the courage and steadfast persistency to climb to the mark of his high calling. Blot out our public schools and colleges, and in the absence of all these, there are boys and girls in Texas who would get an education; a plucky few, whom the world and all adversity could not keep down. "A wise son maketh a glad father," and with the educational facilities of the present age and generation, available rich and poor alike, the prudent,

Blood Was Wrong

All women, who suffer from the aches and pains, due to female ailments, are urged to try Cardui, the reliable, scientific, tonic remedy, for women. Cardui acts promptly, yet gently, and without bad effects, on the womanly system, relieving pain, building up strength, regulating the system, and toning up the nerves. During the past half century, thousands of ladies have written to tell of the quick curative results they obtained, from the use of this well-known medicine.

CARDU Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Jane Callehan suffered from womanly trouble for nearly ten years. In a letter from Whiteville, N. C., she says: "I was not able to do my own housework. My stomach was weak, and my blood was wrong. I had backache, and was very weak. I tried several doctors, but they did me no good. I used Cardui for 3 or 4 months, and now I am in the best health I have ever been. I can never praise Cardui enough." It is the best tonic, for women.

Whether seriously sick, or simply weak, try Cardul.

Texas Educational Notes.

County Superintendent schools wm. Ellers, reports pupils of scholastic age in refusing to again become a can-Lavaca county.

The school tax rate for the ensuing twelve months will be 16 2-3 cents, or the same as that of last year.

Harris Co. leads the state in the amount invested in school buildings in the past two years, having spent $123,692.

Crystal City has erected a school building which is a credit to that little city. When completed and furnished the cost will be about $23,000.

The state Superintendent suggested that county institutes meet early this year. About forty will be in session the first week in September.

One feature of the Anderson Co. Institute which convenes Sept. 11-15, is an address by Dr. J. S. Silliman on: "How can health be secured in our public schoois?"

The second series of plans for Model Rural schoolhouses has been issued by the conference for education in Texas. The demand for these plans has been very gratifying. They are sent free to trustees and superintendents. Address Lee Clark, general agent, Austin Texas.

Senator Bailey Not a Candiate.

Gainesville Sept. 6.-In a speech at Gainesville last night to a large number of his friends and townsmen, Senator Bailey made the startling statement for re-election to the United States senate after his present term expired in 1913. Today on several different occasions confirmed the statement made by him last night.

He repeated the posession thereof, to the plaintiff's it was emphatic and irrevocable. It is reported that a few of his tiffs are described as follows; to-wit: close personal friends know the Being a portion of a forty-three (43) senator's reeasons in detail for didate, but these refuse to pass the news along down the line, the portion herein sued for is de-Close friends state that he will practice law in New York City lows: Beginning at the Northeast when his present term expires, March 3, 1913, and that he will become associated with one of the strongest and largest firms of the metropolis and that he has a guarantee of an income ten times that of United States sen-

His reputation as a constitu tional lawyer has previously drawn him flattering offers to identify himself with eastern legal firms. It is reported that his son, Weldon Bailey, will finish his law course in the University of Virginia and later identify himself with his father in the practice of law.

The news was not generally known in Gainesville until this morning when excited crowds gathered on the streets discussing the senator's statements and expressing great regret.

Senator Bailey's announcement last night that he will not become a candidate for the senate to succeed himself is the sole topic of conversation about the capitol today. Among the names that have been suggested as probable candiates are the The conference for education following: Colquitt, Jake Wolin Texas in order to carry out ters, Campbell, Thos. Hon. Sheb Williams, Democratic state chairman, said of the Bailey announcement, that it was not a great surprise to him. He said, "Bailey may retire from official life in Texas but will not retire from political life in Texas. I have known for some time that Bailey would not accept re-election to the senatorship burdened with either side of the prohibition question."
