County Workers' Comp premiums take a jump

Workers' Compensation coverage premiums for Castro County will be higher for 1991 than they were in 1990, due to a higher claims experience rate, County Auditor Shirley Brockman told the County Commissioners at their Monday meeting.

The annual premium for 1990 was $44,841, while in 1991 that amount will rise to $65,528. Brockman told the commissioners that the larger premium is mainly due to Workers' Comp claims in Precinct 1.

Pct. 1 employees Chris Rodgers, Manuel Ramirez and Charles Lee all received Workers' Comp benefits during 1990. Lee is still working for the county, but Rodgers and Ramirez are no longer employees. Ramirez resigned his position because of uncertainty over when he would be able to resume work or whether he would be able to perform his duties on the road crew. Rodgers has been off of county employment for over a year and a half.

County Treasurer Oleta Raper pointed out that Ramirez was already on Workers' Comp when Commissioner Harold Smith took over the precinct at the time of his election.

Workers' Comp premiums per precinct for the first quarter of 1991 were $2,524.06 for Pct. 1; $1,310.56 for Pct. 2; $982.92 for Pct. 3; and $1,638.19 for Pct. 4.

Additional premium amounts cover the elected officials, courthouse employees and the Sheriff's Dept.

The commissioners postponed discussing Workers' Comp payments to Sheriff's Dept. employee Vicki Bailey, since she had requested an open meeting on the matter with her attorney present. The matter will be taken up at the Jan. 28 meeting of the commissioners.

In other business, the commissioners voted on a method of selection.

A FAMILY OF SNOW PEOPLE blossomed on Oak Street Thursday. Helping put the finishing touches on the frozen sculptures are (from left) Kami Sanders, working on "Bam Bam;" Lori Schulte, working on "Bertha;" and Kaci Schulte, working on "Barney." Kami, 4, is the daughter of

Bill and Suzan Sanders. Lori, 8, and Kaci, 10, are the daughters of Lester and Beth Schulte. The wet, six-inch snow that fell last Wednesday afternoon yielded .83-inch of much-needed moisture, to the delight of farmers in the area. Photo by Linda Maxwell

Corn growers to meet Tuesday

The impact the 1990 Farm Bill will have on area farmers will be discussed at the 18th annual meeting of the Texas Corn Growers Association and Texas Corn Producers Board Tuesday in Dimmitt.

US Rep. Bill Sarpalius, a member of the House Agriculture Committee, will be the keynote speaker at the annual meeting scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Castro County Expo Building in Dimmitt. A free, homecooked lunch will be prepared by members of Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) and will be served to those attending.

In the afternoon, four drawings of $25 each will be awarded to members of the Texas Corn Growers.

"If you grow corn in Texas or have an interest in corn production, this meeting should certainly be at the top of your priority list," said Carl King of Dimmitt, president of the Texas Corn Growers Association and executive director of the Texas Corn Producers Board.

"This meeting will be one of the most important in our history," said King. "It's content will certainly be worth you missing a day in the field."

Sarpalius, who was recently re-elected to his second term in Congress, voted against the final version of the 1990 farm bill due to its inequities to High Plains agriculture. He is expected to address a wide variety of subjects pertinent to area farmers.

The TCGA and American Corn Growers Association Washington legislative report will be given by John Ford, ACGA legislative affairs director. Ford, a former deputy secretary of agriculture, has been a major spokesman for a supply management agriculture policy, which many still feel is the answer to America's depressed farm dilemma. Ford, formerly of Hereford, is knowledgeable of regional, state, national and international agricultural policy and will speak on the 1990 farm bill.

David Senter, another former Texan who now works in Washington, also will discuss the national farm scene. Senter is executive director of the American Agriculture Movement, which recently cooperated with many other farm groups to conduct a Rural Strategy Summit in Kansas City, Kan. The summit will continue in Washington in March. He will discuss this important event, and how the new farm bill needs to be repaired.

Mark Ritchie, who is a "foremost authority on GATT", the General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs, will speak on that subject.

King will give his annual report on TCGA activities.

Other confirmed speakers will include Weldon Davis, TCPB chairman. He will address the many activities of the board during the past year. The board was expanded to 15 members after Texas corn farmers voted to expand the half-cent per bushel checkoff statewide.

The future of ethanol in Texas will be discussed by Lois Wales, a TCPB member and past president of Texas WIFE.

Pat Bagley, current Texas WIFE president, will report on that group's many activities during the past year, including their close cooperation with TCGA and TCPB.

TCPB works with many ag researchers to develop better methods of producing and marketing corn. Among those who has been a major asset to corn growers over the years is Dr. Pat Morrison, area entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Lubbock. He will discuss new miticide treatments and other insect problems.

Dr. Bob Glodt, a consulting entomologist from Plainview, will examine further studies into using plant banding to control mites with Comite.

Dr. Theis advocates school sex education

"If an athlete gets his girlfriend pregnant, then he should be suspended from all extracurricular activities for a year. The girl's going to have to lay out for a year, so why shouldn't he?" Dr. Tim Theis asked an audience of parents, teachers, ministers and community leaders Monday night.

This is in Dimmitt presenting a program titled "You Can Run, But You Can't Hide," kicking off with his speech Monday night. The program emphasizes the need for communication in the efforts to control teen pregnancy and marriage, substance abuse and cheating.

This is scheduled to talk with students in grades 7-12 in two-hour sessions throughout this week, concluding with a general session Friday afternoon. He told parents that he would talk in straightforward terms to the youths about the same subjects he spoke about with the parents, including sex, sexually transmissible diseases, alcohol abuse, cheating in school, and lack of communication.

He concluded with a 20-question "quiz," comprised of questions he is most often asked by seventh graders, and noted that most parents are unable to answer even half of the questions correctly. He reported that at a convention of health educators 95% of them could not answer 65% of the questions correctly.

Theis said parents set their children up for failure by perpetuating myths about love, sex and marriage.

Telling kids there is "just one special someone for each of us" and that "sex is the ultimate expression

Big birthday party for county tonight

A presentation of music especially written for Castro County's Centennial Celebration will highlight the 42nd annual Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce Banquet, scheduled for 7 p.m. today (Thursday) in the Expo building.

Also, recognition will be given to the winners of Citizen of the Year, Citizen Through the Years, and Teacher of the Year honors, as selected from among nominations submitted to the chamber.

Adopting the theme, "Happy Birthday Castro County," the banquet will feature a steak dinner catered by the Methodist Men of the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt. Tickets are $14 per person, $10 for students.

Songs that will be performed include Sometimes Only Seasons Change, sung by Bill Sava; Windmills, Spinning Around, sung by Charles Axtell and Terri Loudder; Susan Coleman and Don Nelson singing The Little White Church; Don Sheffy and a chorus singing The Castro County Animals; and Come to Castro County, sung by the chorus; all with words and lyrics by Bill Sava and accompanied by Avie Lewis. Also, Here's To The Ladies, written by Terri Loudder, will be performed by her.

The three finalists in the Castro County Centennial Logo Contest will be announced by Reta Welch, with the winning logo presented in a large mock up. T-shirts bearing the winning logo will also be available for purchase.

The Centennial calendars will also be unveiled.

Don Nelson will serve as master of ceremonies, and Bill Sava is the program chairman. Banquet chairmen are Danry and Shelly Rice.

Doug Ware will introduce the guests. Garland Coleman, immediate past-president of the chamber board, will recognize the directors, then pass the gavel to incoming president Danny Rice.

The evening will conclude with everyone singing "Happy Birthday to Us, Castro County."

The Dimmitt High School Cheerleaders will be servers for the banquet, with the Dimmitt Dynamos and Chamber directors acting as greeters. American Fructose made arrangements for setting up the tables and chairs, and those helping with decorations included Shelly Rice, Carolyn Sides, Donna Newton, Sue Broderson, Dorothy Mayfield, Martha Jo Hyman, Reta Welch, Cindy Adams, Verbie Nelson, Brenda Bruton, Susan Coleman and others.

Advance tickets for the event may be purchased from the chamber office, Tots and Teens, the First State Bank or Sheffy's Western Wear. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

Jan. 25 last day to vote absentee

Absentee voting began Friday for the Jan. 31 Dimmitt school board election, and 31 ballots have been cast so far, according to voting clerk Bobbie Baldrige.

Vacancies to be filled include four school board members from single member districts and three members at large. The election was called after settlement of a lawsuit establishing the single-member districts.

Absentee ballots may be requested by mail from the Dimmitt City Hall through Jan. 23, and must be returned by Jan. 31. Voting absentee by personal appearance may be done at the City Hall Meeting Room at the southwest corner of the building from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each weekday, continuing through

Jan. 25. Seventeen candidates are vying for the seven vacancies on the school board, and are listed below in the order of ballot position.

Filing for Place 1 are Charles Lane and John Nino; Place 2 has S.M. Burke, Gary Thurman and Paul S. Garcia; Place 3 lists Lint Merritt, Terry Hill and Rita McDaniel; and Place 4 has incumbents Don Moore and David Schaeffer. At-large candidates include incumbents Cheryl Pybus, Max Newman, Rick Wright, and James Sims, along with Steve Olson, Connie Martinez and Jim Killingsworth.

To vote for a single-member district representative, the voter must live in the same district as the candidate. All voters may vote for at-large candidates.

It's hard to concentrate on anything except the prospect of war. As I'm writing, the deadline has passed, aircraft carriers and bombers have moved into place, Saddam Hussein still hasn't blinked, and Americans in Dimmitt, Hart, Nazareth, Washington and Saudi Arabia are waiting and praying.

It will help to keep in mind the question President Bush asked his National Security Council from the outset: "What if we do nothing?" The obvious answer was that the scenario could only get worse—not better.

We can hope that out of this conflict will indeed come a "new world order" for insuring peace, with international law and multinational cooperation at the core of it.

Best New Year's resolution I've heard so far:

I resolve to read and heed the Ten Commandments every week during 1991.

If everyone would do that, we would cure our hemorrhaging society.

It's not too late for us to take that vow ourselves. There's no law that says you can't make a New Year's resolution on Jan. 17.

Those of us who are in our mid-50's have come full circle. We were born during the administration of Texas' first woman governor, Miriam A. "Ma" Ferguson.

And now, as of Tuesday, we're living under the administration of our second woman governor.

Their gender is probably the only thing Gov. Richards and Ma Ferguson have in common. Ma was a stand-in for her husband, who had been impeached. Gov. Richards is her own woman, and isn't a stand-in for anybody.

Since Texas no longer has a "first lady," and since Gov. Richards is single, maybe she should appoint an official prince-consort or something, so we'd have some-

DR. TIM THEIS tells parents Monday night what he will be telling their children about during this week at Dimmitt High School. He will also visit with seventh and eighth graders. Dave Bellinghausen came out from Grand Prairie for the funeral of Herman Acker. He visited with his parents, William and Rosetta Bellinghausen.

Alice Ellison and family, Jerry, Coby and Heather of Huntsville, and Arnold Acker and family, Sharon, Andrew and Ashley, were here for their father's funeral, as well, and also a visit with their mother, Rosa Acker, Arnold and Sharon visited with Jack Flynt, also.

William and Rosetta Bellinghausen, Dave and Melody Bellinghausen and children, Jordan and Canaan all went to Los Angeles, Calif., for Christmas. Melody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Murphy of Levelland, and her two brothers, Mark and Truth Murphy, all went to Melody's sister, Joy and Michael Armstrong and family.

Back in Dimmitt, the Bellinghausens celebrated New Years along with the birthday of William's niece, Agnes Brandt. Her husband, Dave, and twins, Heath and Jessica, and Rosa Acker and her sister, Christine Grimm of Three Bridges, N.J., enjoyed dinner and a day with the Bellinghausens. Rosa and Rosetta took Christine to the airport on Tuesday for her return to New Jersey.

The Hereford Community Concert Association will present Terry Gibbs in concert on Jan. 20 at 3 p.m. in the Hereford High School Auditorium. Gibbs is associated with the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra.

I visited with Cindy Pottorff, the new librarian at Rhoads Memorial Library, who began work Jan. 2. Mrs. Pottorff, who lives in Hereford, described her first week of work as "hectic." Jewell Connell, another library employee, fell and bruised her back last week, so Marie Howell and Cindy were very busy. Mrs. Pottorff enjoys working at the library and describes people in Castro County as "very friendly." She says this is a fun job and with the support of the library staff (Marie and Jewell) and the community, the library will continue to grow.

Frank and Shirley Wise entertained about 36 relatives and friends last week—Kyle and Robin Wise, Evan and Camille from Massachusetts. Kyle is in Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary.

Others visiting were Julie Dexter, Diane and Aaron Clark and Joe of Lubbock, and Becca and Dan Dwyer and Danielle of Chicago, Linda and Kevin Welch and children, Kelsey, Katy and Dillon of Friona, Susan Cerday and children, Courtney, Clayton and Caroline of San Marcos, Nathan, Carol and Mary Ann Wheeler of Lubbock; Gary and Rhonda Wise and girls, Holly, Heather and Hayli, Garland and Susan Coleman and boys, Garland III, Ben and Daniel, and Ruth Coleman, all of Dimmitt.

Kyle Wise brought the sermon at the First United Methodist Church on Sunday morning, with the message titled "The Shepherd and His Sheep." Kyle and Robin's little daughter, Camille, was baptized on Sunday morning.

The Plains Memorial Hospital Auxiliary met on Wednesday morning with Betty Freeman presiding over the meeting. Reports were given by Barbara Sava, Mattie Seale, Ruby Wood, Claudene Langford, Nell Ingraham, Bea Hardy and Lucille Drerup. Reta Welch encouraged everyone to attend the meeting conducted by Dr. Tim Theis, "You Can Run, But You Can't Hide," held Monday in the Dimmitt High School auditorium. The Auxiliary is planning a bake sale for Jan. 23 at the hospital gift shop starting at 10 a.m. and continuing until everything is sold.

The Dimmitt Book Club met on a cold, snowy afternoon at the library with a few brave persons who ventured out for a fun meeting. Susie Bradford presided over the business meeting. Shirley Wise introduced her guest reviewer, Jean Morris, who gave a delightful review of the book The Bean Tree by Barbara Kingsolver. When Jean gives a review, she tells just enough to make her audience interested enough to want to read the book.

Ina Cleavinger and Darlene Collins were hostesses for the social hour. They served candy and delicious winter almond dessert squares from a pretty table decorated with books and a beautiful centerpiece of snowflakes, baby's breath and glitter on a miniature tree on a bed of snow. The books were darling little reproductions of antique books with pull-outs and moving parts.

Irene Carpenter had fun during the holidays with her daughter and family, Joyce and James Autry, Kelly and Debbie Autry and children, Trent, Kimbra and Whitney, all of Rocky Ford, Colo.; Steve and Lanette Soden and children, Stephanie and Brandon of McKook, Neb.; and Greg and Louann Gallegos and children, Alan and Kristy of Denver, Colo. After the holidays, Joyce and Irene had fun with several of Joyce's friends going to shows and eating out in some of the surrounding towns, such as Pueblo and La Junta.

Our sympathies to the family of Swain Burkett, a long time resident of Dimmitt and a lawyer.

Bob and Pearl Martin of Astoria, S.D. were Monday luncheon guests in the home of Ed and Betty Freeman.

TERRY GIBBS, will join the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra in performing at the Hereford High School Auditorium Sunday afternoon at 3. The concert will be sponsored by the Hereford Community Concerts Association and admission is by membership in the organization.

Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra to perform in Hereford

The Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra will perform at 3 p.m. Sunday at the Hereford High School auditorium.

The concert will be sponsored by the Hereford Community Concerts Association and admittance is by membership in the association.

The Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra was first heard nationwide on the Kraft Music Hall radio series in the early 1930s. With Dorsey's alto saxophone renditions and the unique vocal blend of Helen O'Connell and Bob Eberly, the band was soon at the top of the charts with hits such as Yours, Tangerine, Amapola, I Understand, I Get Along Without You Very Well and Green Eyes, which sold 90,000 copies in the first three days.

Bob Eberly Jr., continues his father's musical legacy, utilizing a baritone voice, sense of humor and a mastery of lyric interpretation.

Conducted by new leader, world-famous clarinetist and saxophone player Henry Cuesta, the Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra joins Eberly in recreating some of the great early music.

Cuesta has been the leader of the Lawrence Welk Orchestra in the past, as well as the star and conductor of two of our Big Band tours in recent years.

Also performing will be Fran Jeffries, Terry Gibbs and String of Pearls.

Jeffries began her professional singing career at age 16, and has since appeared in the country's top supper clubs, co-starring with Bill Cosby, Shecky Greene and Lou Rawls. She has toured Europe with Sammy Davis Jr. and joined Bob Hope for his last Christmas tour of Vietnam and Thailand.

Gibbs first toured as a vibraharpist at age 11. He went on to play with the bands of Buddy Rich, Benny Goodman and Woody Herman and later formed his own band which was named "Best Band in the World" in the 1959 Downbeat Critic's Poll. Gibbs has served as musical director for numerous television shows, including all of Steve Allen's appearances. He has recorded over 35 albums, written 300 compositions which have been recorded by Nat King Cole, Le Brown, Count Basie and others, and is the only person ever to be nominated in four categories of Playboy Jazz Poll every year since its inception.

String of Pearls combines the jazz stylings of Perry Hart, Katherine High and Warren Adams. The ensemble's three-part harmonies and intricate vocal counterpoint bring a fresh and exciting sound to the music of the Big Band era. The appear regularly with Joan Rivers, Jackie Mason and Marilyn McCoo at the country's top hotels and cabarets. The group was the featured entertainment at the Aids Project Los Angeles Benefit honoring Elizabeth Taylor and performed in the Glenn Miller Band Reunion which aired on PBS in March 1989.

We Salute

Bill Ballentine

When Bill Ballentine moves from Dimmitt back to his hometown of Hammond, Ind., Friday, he will leave behind him here a legacy of friendship and corporate goodwill.

When he came to Dimmitt from Decatur, Ala., in 1986 to become director of operations at the American Fructose Corp. plant here, the local facility was grinding 35,000 bushels of corn per day. Bill oversaw the $30 million expansion that increased the plant's grind to its present 54,000 bushels per day.

At the same time, this conscientious, soft-spoken man boosted American Fructose's reputation as a good corporate neighbor to a new level. Under his direction, the corporation has had a close working relationship with the city and county governments, the schools, our civic and service organizations, businesses, and the community as a whole.

"The plant should benefit the town," he said. "I've always felt that we should do what we could to benefit the community—especially the schools."

Anytime the American Fructose plant has surplus equipment or materials, the schools get first choice on it. American Fructose also has provided our schools with such materials as classroom maps, reference books, soft-drink cups for sporting events, etc.

The company also has supplied valuable office equipment to the Chamber of Commerce, and has benefited many local businesses by going to them for the goods and services it needs.

That policy of corporate caring, of being a good neighbor, can be very important to a community. Not all basic industries have such an open-handed policy.

When Bill returns to Hammond, Ind., he will have gone full circle. He started his career at Hammond with American Maize Products Co. (American Fructose's parent company), then went to Decatur, Ga., to take part in the construction of the American Fructose plant there in 1976. (His two sons, Kenny and Timmy, live in Decatur.)

"I had fully intended to retire, but wanted to do some consulting," Bill said. "Since they were expanding the Hammond plant, they talked me into coming back here."

Bill, we salute you, and wish you the best. We're glad you've been a part of Dimmitt and Castro County.

This much more air in your tires will save us over two million gallons of gas a day. And reduce our dependence on unreliable sources of oil.

DO YOUR PART. DRIVE SMART.

Sunnyside By Teeny Bowden, 647-5703

The big news of the week was the five-inch snow received Wednesday. There was fog, sleet, rain and freezing drizzle before it began to snow. There was little wind and some of the flakes were very large, so there was a good ground cover in a short time. .80 of an inch of moisture was recorded.

There were no church services Wednesday night due to icy conditions. There was still a lot of snow on the ground Sunday night because of near freezing high temperatures and very little sun.

Doris Armes of Gruver, mother of Debra Fletcher, underwent major surgery at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo Jan. 7. Rev. David and Debra Fletcher went up to be with her during the surgery. She was dismissed Thursday and they went to Gruver Friday about noon to check on her. David and the kids who were out of school stayed with Gene and Jo Fletcher Friday night while Debra stayed to help her mother, who cannot yet help herself. They got home Saturday night.

Lillian Carson left Dec. 27 for Dallas, to have a late Christmas with her daughter, Resa. She stayed through Dec. 29 to help Resa celebrate her birthday with friends. She returned home Dec. 30.

A friend, Phyllis Bates of Ruidoso, N.M., came on New Year's eve and visited with Lillian until noon Jan. 2.

Her sister, Ruth Brown of Dimmitt fell on the ice and hit her head on the concrete walk on Jan. 4 and Lillian went to stay with her since the doctor said she shouldn't stay by herself for a few days. Since that was the weekend Lillian had to stay with her mother, Mrs. A.L. Aven of Hart, she took Ruth with her and watched over both of them until Monday.

Gerald Elkins went to the doctor in Lubbock Monday and later in the week trying to get scheduled for his shoulder surgery, but his blood pressure has been too high. Pat spent the day in Littlefield with her mother Tuesday.

Robert and Frances Duke were rather active during the holidays. On Dec. 15 and 16 they hosted several guests including Frances' nephew, Ron Sanders and his wife, Daphne, and son, Sammy, all from Red Oak. Jeff Amyx of Seven Points and Chris Ranton of Lancaster were also guests and hunted pheasants with Ron.

For the Christmas holidays, Sandra Duke came home from El Paso on Dec. 21 and Bob and Jeannette Duke and their children, Daniel, Bethany, Joshua and Christopher arrived from Galveston on Dec. 22.

The James Hubble family of Dimmitt had Sunday dinner with the Dukes, then they all attended the candlelight service at the Methodist Church on Christmas eve. They awoke early on Christmas morning to exchange gifts, then enjoyed a week of good food and visiting.

On New Year's Day, the Duke clan traveled to Southlake where Frances' kin were gathered. Then they traveled on to Larry, Lori and Ashlee Duke's home in Carrollton for a day of visiting and exchanging gifts on Jan. 2. Frances, Robert and Sandra returned to Sunnyside on Jan. 3. Sandra went back to El Paso on Jan. 5.

Glenn and LaWanda Wilson flew to Philadelphia on Jan. 10 for a visit with their daughter, Gwen, and her husband, Dr. Keith Randolph until Jan. 14.

Rev. David and Debra Fletcher went with the Rev. Donald Webster family to the Baptist men's family night rally at Bovina Tuesday night.

Teeny Bowden had supper with Clara Vick Tuesday evening at K-Bob's. They got 22 letters in the mail for some of the Italians they had received Christmas cards from, and others.

Billie and Emma Jean King went to Eunice Tuesday morning to visit with Margret and Otus Williams and baby, Brini. Jimmy came over from Hobbs, N.M. and visited with them. They returned home Wednesday night.

Judy Loudder has spent several days in the hospital recently, staying with her father, E.A. Upchurch. He was admitted for the second time to Lubbock General Hospital on Jan. 4. He was dismissed Jan. 6 after doctors used an ERCP scope to remove gallstones from the bile duct through a small opening. He had been in the hospital earlier for 10 days with the same problem. He and his wife live in Muleshoe.

The Pastor started teaching the January Bible Study course on Acts Dec. 30 and has been teaching it both Sunday morning and Sunday night, and Wednesday nights.

Don Fry was back in church Sunday morning with Matt. Donnie was sick. After church he went by and visited awhile with Larry Sadler and his family.

There are dishes and pans at the church in the kitchen. They evidently belong to members of the community who help out during funerals, but belong to members of other churches. The items may be picked up at your convenience. Most of them are things I am sure you have been missing and can't imagine what happened to them.

Hadley Fletcher left after Sunday school Sunday morning with the youth group from First Baptist Church in Dimmitt for Floydada to attend a Youth Retreat.

A special season of prayer was a part of the morning service Sunday, remembering the crisis in the Persian Gulf.

Ronnie Blanton was admitted to the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo Jan. 9.

CARD OF THANKS
 A person who is chronically mentally ill or retarded sometimes lives a lonely, confusing and frustrating life. It is only due to the help and compassion of those of us who are not plagued by these problems that many mentally ill and retarded people experience relief from their problems and some pleasure in life.
 Each year at Christmas, the Central Plains Center for Mental Health Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse asks our friends in the communities we serve to donate gifts to our clients and consumers. Each year I am amazed at your generosity. Without these donations, well over 150 people would have little or nothing for Christmas. Again this year, the citizens of Hale, Swisher, Pomeroy, Floyd, Lamb, Briscoe, Bailey, Castro and Motley counties showed your concern in a real and tangible way.
 On behalf of our Board of Trustees and staff I want to thank you for providing a Merry Christmas for our clients and consumers. The individuals, clubs, civic and social organizations, churches and others who donated can feel good that you took the time, money and effort to demonstrate your love.
 Thank you for caring!

Hart ATPE honors Carlton, Barefield

The Hart Association of Texas Professional Educators (ATPE) recently honored two employees of the Hart School District.

Debra Carlton was honored as Teacher of the Year and Phil Barefield was named Administrator of the Year. Both have been nominated to compete in state-level contests for similar honors.

A teacher for 13 years, all of them in the Hart schools, Carlton attributes her success in the classroom to a combination of various teaching methods.

When questioned about the major issues in public education, Carlton favored the development of a system to include families, administrators and teachers in planning educational programs for students.

Other nominees for the teacher honor were Deborah Clinton, Debbie Emery, Lea Ann Malone, Lynette Barefield, Brenda Campbell and David Knox.

Barefield has been the HISD superintendent for two years. Including the staff in the district decision-making process has contributed to his administrative success.

Programs implemented during Barefield's tenure in Hart include Josten's Integrated Learning Computer Lab, Writing to Read lab, IBM teaching and learning with computers, whole language instruction, desk top publishing and word processing, and a JTPA at-risk grant program.

Barefield feels the major educational issue of the 1990s is the increasing demands of society on the school without provision of funding.

"Since schools are being asked to address many social issues outside of the traditional educational areas and since resources are scarce, perhaps we should consider bringing our social agencies under the umbrella of the schools," Barefield said.

NISD names Waldo elementary principal

The Nazareth Independent School District has named Glen Waldo as its elementary principal.

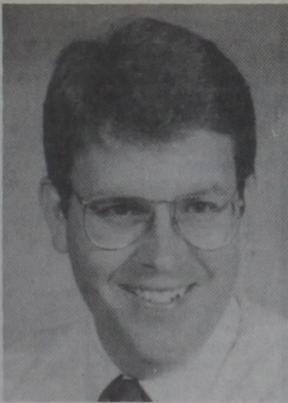

Waldo replaces Mary Nell King, who resigned in December to accept a position in Seminole. He started serving as elementary principal Jan 2.

Waldo grew up in Wheeler Country, graduating from Kelton Junior High School and Wheeler High School. He attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene for two years before transferring to Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford. He earned his bachelor of elementary education there in December 1986.

Following his graduation from college, Waldo accepted a position teaching the fifth grade at Shamrock. He later moved to Houston where he taught school in Galena Park while working on his master's degree.

He graduated with a master's degree in education management from the University of Houston in August 1990 and moved to Nazareth where he accepted the job of a sixth and seventh grade teacher.

Although he has been named elementary principal, Waldo continues to teach the sixth and seventh grades.

Schmucker and Russell wed in formal ceremony

A formal, double-ring ceremony performed at Holy Family Catholic Church in Nazareth on Jan. 5 joined Debbie Schmucker and Billy Russell in marriage.

Msgr. Harold Waldo officiated at the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Neal Dee, pastor of Holy Family Church.

The bride is the daughter of Ray and Mary Lou Schmucker of Nazareth. Parents of the groom are Donna Russell of Van Buren, Ark., and the late Truitt Russell.

The church alters were decorated with fresh poinsettias, Christmas trees trimmed in gold and brass candelabras containing forest green candles. Forest green bows marked the pews.

Musical selections including Just You and I, sung by the bride and Jim Hodnet of Lubbock; The Rose and I Always Will Love You, performed by Nicole Kleman of Nazareth, were sung before mass. The bride was escorted down the aisle to the theme from Terms of Endearment, which was played by pianist Mary Lynn Olvera and Marcia Hoelting on keyboards. During the mass, selections included El Shaidai and Only a Shadow, performed by Denise Parish and Gretchen Hoelting of Denver, Colo., cousins of the bride; Love Grows Here, sung by Melinda Schmucker, the bride's sister; and Ave Maria, played by flutist Michelle Schulte and pianist Marcia Hoelting. After the lighting of the unity candle, the bride sang Let It Be Me to the groom. Beginning Today was performed by the entire group as the bride and groom exited the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's dress, which had been redesigned by the bride, her mother and a friend of the bride.

The dress, made of peau-de-soie featured a fitted princess bodice and funnel neckline trimmed with flowers and pearls. The open back with loop and button closures was edged with hand-sewn pearls. Pearls also accented the long lace-edged sleeves. A band of delicate lace accented the hemline of the controlled front skirt which swept to back fullness. The detachable chapel-length train was trimmed with lace appliques, a large bow and drape.

For her headpiece, the bride chose a cathedral-length veil of tulle with a pouf in back attached to a band of pearls. The veil was designed by the bride and was made by her mother.

She carried a spray of silk flowers featuring a large cala lily surrounded by white assorted flowers and greenery. It was accented with small gold flowers and pearls. Entwined in the bouquet was the bride's First Communion rosary.

For "something old, the bride carried a hand-crocheted handkerchief made by her late Great-grandmother Albracht. "Something new" were pearl earrings given to her by her mother before the wedding. "For something borrowed," she wore her mothers' pearl necklace, and a traditional "blue garter" completed the outfit.

Matron of honor was LaDawn Schulte of Nazareth, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Traci Hill

MRS. BILLY RUSSELL
... nee Debbie Schmucker

of Wichita Falls, friend of the bride; Porche Graff of Lubbock, friend of the bride; and Natalie Schmucker of Nazareth, sister of the bride.

Junior bridesmaid was Melinda Schmucker of Nazareth, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Hayley Schmucker of College Station, the bride's niece.

The female attendants wore dresses featuring a gold metallic dropped waistline bodice made in the same design as the wedding dress, but with elbow-length sleeves. The black satin skirt was gathered to the bodice and featured a shaped hemline falling shorter in the front and to tea-length in the back. The back was accented with two large bows.

The flower girl wore a dress made of matching material.

All attendants wore black, gold and green metallic flowers in their hair.

Best man was Russell Hodnett of Big Spring, friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Jim Glenn of Lubbock, friend of the groom; and Chris Schmucker of Lubbock, brother of the bride.

Guests were seated by Johnny Schmucker of College Station and Chris Schmucker of Lubbock, brothers of the bride.

The groom was attired in a formal black tuxedo with tails accented with a gray ascot and cummerbund. The groomsmen and ushers wore black tuxedos with the groomsmen wearing gold metallic bow ties and cummerbunds and the usher wearing a forest green bow tie and cummerbund.

Candlelighters were Annette Schmucker and Kelly Schilling, both of Lubbock, friends of the bride.

Readings for the mass, chosen by the bride and groom, were read by Tom O'Donnell. Mass servers were Norbert Acker and Robert Schmucker.

The couple was escorted from the church in a decorated fire truck brought by friends from Lubbock, to the Nazareth Community Hall where the reception was held.

During the reception, punch was served to guests by Leslie Needham of Lubbock, friend of the bride.

Tables were decorated with green bows, marble-filled wine glasses and green, gold and black balloons.

The three-tiered traditional wedding cake featured black-tipped wedding bells and was accented with black, gold and green metallic flowers. The top was adorned with a Precious Moments bride and groom music box.

The groom's cake depicted a dart board design.

In the evening, a dance was held featuring music by the Rough Riders Band.

For her traveling attire, the bride wore a print pleated skirt topped with a matching cotton sweater. The outfit was a gift from her sister.

The couple is at home in Lubbock.

Hardee nominated to Naval Academy

Ryan Hardee, son of Dr. Gary R. and Cenci Hardee of Dimmitt, has been nominated to the US Naval Academy.

Hardee is a senior at Dimmitt High School and will graduate in May.

The nomination was made by US Rep. Larry Combest. Nominees from Combest are evaluated by the academics, and then offered an appointment based solely on their merits.

"I am always pleased to see young people pursue a commitment to education through service to their country," said Combest. "Seeking appointment to military service academies reflects a high level of academic achievement and motivation by many of our best students. Young men and women who choose academy education continue a legacy of leadership that has served our country well."

Applicants are urged to begin the nomination process in the spring of their junior year of high school, by writing the congressman with their test scores and class rankings. The military service academies require an above-average strength, endurance and agility. Congressional nomination is the most frequent route for application to the service academies. Students also can be nominated by the president or vice president of the US, through military service of one parent or through military service of a parent, or through Reserve Officer Training

A Few Facts About Reflexology

1. Reflexology is not a foot bath or massage.
2. Reflexology properly administered should not be painful.
3. Reflexology is stimulating the circulation which raises the body vitality which gives nature the strength to overcome and throw off poisons in the system.
4. It is estimated that the average pair of feet lift for their owner a total of at least ten cars of coal in weight daily. We forget all this and then wonder why so many people today complain of foot discomfort.
5. The point where the greatest amount of tenderness is found will determine the location of the greatest amount of congestion, and where congestion exists disease will result.
6. When the irritated crystal-filled nerve-endings are stimulated, the corresponding organ which is reflexly connected with this particular sensitive nerve receives an added supply of life giving blood. The congested tissue is thus relieved, and the healing process is hastened.
7. Our whole body is constantly in motion; the lungs, heart, liver, kidneys, intestines, etc., these, when in a perfectly healthy condition, are constantly, day and night, performing their respective duties.
8. The natural muscular activity of each organ does its part to see that its whole nerve canal is kept free from any detrimental obstruction.
9. But if any one of these members become sluggish, weak or injured in any way, it slows down its normal activity to the extent that the extremities of these nerve endings will become clogged. Although only to a slight degree, yet it may be sufficient to impede the circulation as it returns to supply that organ again with a fresh supply of blood.
10. It is by pressure correctly administered on certain nerve endings, by a certain part of the thumb, that produces the reflex that dissolves the crystals that the blood carries away.

Bob Phipps is one of our board members. Bob has been on the board of directors since 1988, he represents Zone 4. Bob farms in the southwest part of Castro County.

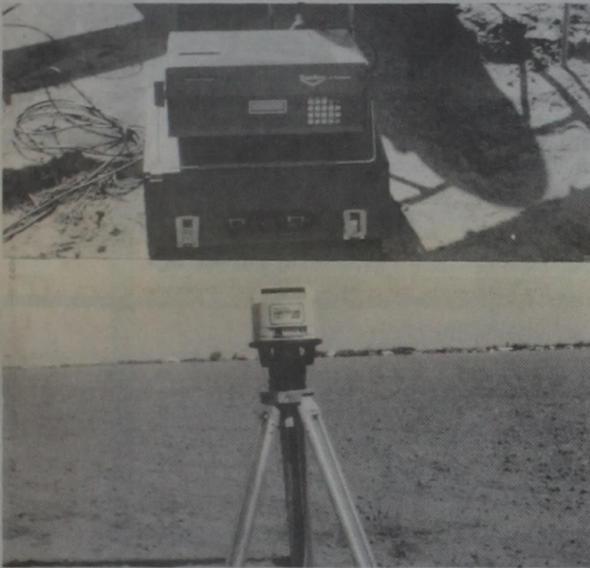

Ernest Brockman has served as a director of Zone 2 for 28-1/2 years. The Running Water SWCD would like to thank him for his time and dedication he has given to the district. Mr. Brockman retired as a director October of 1990.

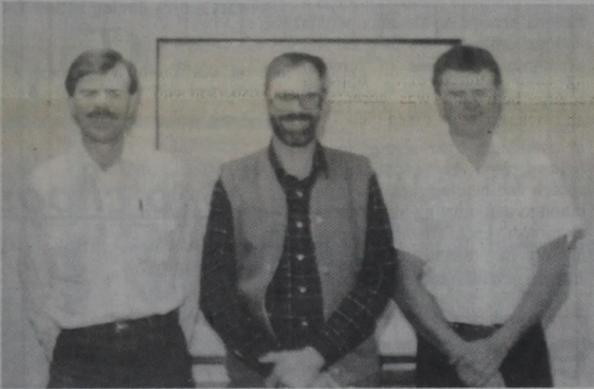

The Running Water SWCD board of directors are Clarence Behrends, he represents Zone 3; Louis Huseman, he represents Zone 2; Coby Gilbreath, he represents Zone 5; Arnold Huseman, he represents Zone 1. For 1991 Coby Gilbreath was elected chairman of the board. He encourages you to contact any of the directors if you have any questions or problems in your zone.

Lynn Ehly has served as bookkeeper for the Running Water SWCD since 1968. We congratulate her on her 23 years of service to the district and commend her on the good job she is doing.

Last year the Running Water SWCD purchased a Polysonic flowmeter and a Lazer level. With the Polysonic flowmeter more accurate and precise information can be gathered on what an irrigation well is pumping. The Lazer level has been used in checking out waterways, laying out ditches, making elevation maps and determining row directions. The Running Water SWCD would appreciate any donations to help offset the cost of these two instruments.

The Castro County SCS staff is made up of Mike White, Soil Conservationist who was brought on board in January of 1988, Gary Hunter, who came to Dimmitt as a Soil Conservationist in 1981 and has served as the District Conservationist since 1985; Earl Behrends, who became the SCS Technician in April of 1988. We encourage you to call upon any of the SCS personnel to assist with your soil and water conservation problems and practices.

Dena Wilkerson has been our Secretary/District Technician for the last two years. She has been assisting the Soil Conservation Service in providing assistance to the local landowners and operators.

Programs and services of the Soil Conservation Service are offered on a non-discriminatory basis without regards for race, color, national origin, age, sex, religion, martial status or handicap.

Red-hot Bobcats rip Floydada, 106-63

Last year, Floydada's Whirlwinds came to Dimmitt and handed the Bobcats their first home district loss in six seasons, 60-53.

But if the Whirlwinds had any hopes of doing it again Tuesday, those hopes were wiped out early as the run-and-gun Bobcats roared to a 106-63 victory to take sole possession of first place in the District 2-AAA race.

The Bobcats were hot-hot on offense, hitting 60% of their field shots (48 of 80). And they were bandits on defense, getting almost half their points after steals and defensive rebounds from the frustrated Whirlwinds.

You could say the game's turning point came when the Bobcats put their gym shoes on. It was apparent from the opening minutes that the Whirlwinds were in for a drubbing.

Paced by the hot hand of Jermaine Williams, the Bobcats surged to a 17-2 lead midway in the first quarter before Floydada's premier wingman, Kenneth Collins, canned a three-pointer for the Whirlwinds' second basket of the night.

Williams went on to swish 13 points from all angles in the opening period before going to the bench with a minute left in the quarter.

Scott Acker scored the final basket of the first quarter on a fast-break feed from Armando Arce to make it Dimmitt 27, Collins 8.

Then the Bobcats went into overdrive with a 31-point second quarter as they used a stifling defense, steals and fast breaks to extend their lead to 58-27 by halftime.

with Williams, Lincoln Stewart, Miguel Saucedo, Armando Arce and Richard Newman pacing the scoring attack.

The second-quarter running was interrupted only by whistles, which the refs blew early and often to keep the game under control. Both teams collected a lot of their second-quarter points on 1- and 1's from the free-throw line.

Williams won the first-half shooting match as he burned the nets for 22 points, while Collins scored 20 of Floydada's 27 points, including four treys.

The onslaught continued in the third as Dimmitt stretched its lead to 39 points, 80-41.

The highlight of the fourth came when Stewart got Dimmitt's first slam-dunk of the season to make it 90-51, after Floydada's Michael Henderson had muffed an attempted dunk at the other end.

Miguel Ontiveros put the Bobcats at the century mark for the sixth time this season as he sank a layup to make it 100-54, then the Bobcats coasted to a 106-63 final tally.

Cleveland is honored by Caprock ABC chapter

Dimmitt boys' head basketball coach, Kenneth Cleveland, was honored recently by the Caprock American Business Club Association for his "dedication and support" and participation in the Caprock ABC Holiday Tournament.

Cleveland was awarded the first annual Caprock Holiday Basketball Tournament Commemorative Award Dec. 29, during the tournament, and many current and former players were there to help congratulate him.

One of the factors contributing to his selection as the award recipient, was that he has entered a team in the Caprock ABC Holiday Tournament for 30 consecutive years.

"It was very much a surprise," Cleveland said. "I was talking to my daughter, Beth (Buckley), and I heard the announcer say something about a man who had had a team there for 30 years and then realized it was me they were talking about. I think the assistant coaches and Richard (Wood) knew, and so did Dimmitt's Williams and Floydada's Collins finished with 30 points apiece. Four other Bobcats scored in double figures — Saucedo 20, Stewart 16, Newman 12 and Robert Ruiz 10. Newman was the game's top rebounder with 10 boards.

The Bobbies also stayed unbeaten in district play with a 64-36 victory, although they had a fairly close game on their hands in the first half, leading by only 30-21 at the powder break.

The Bobbies tightened up on defense and allowed the Lady Whirlwinds only two baskets in the third while reeling off 17 unanswered points to build a 47-21 lead.

Halley Bradley paced the Bobbies on both offense and defense with 16 points and 11 rebounds. Wendy Ethridge contributed 13 points.

The Bobcats' and Bobbies' records remained identical at 20-5, 3-0 in district play.

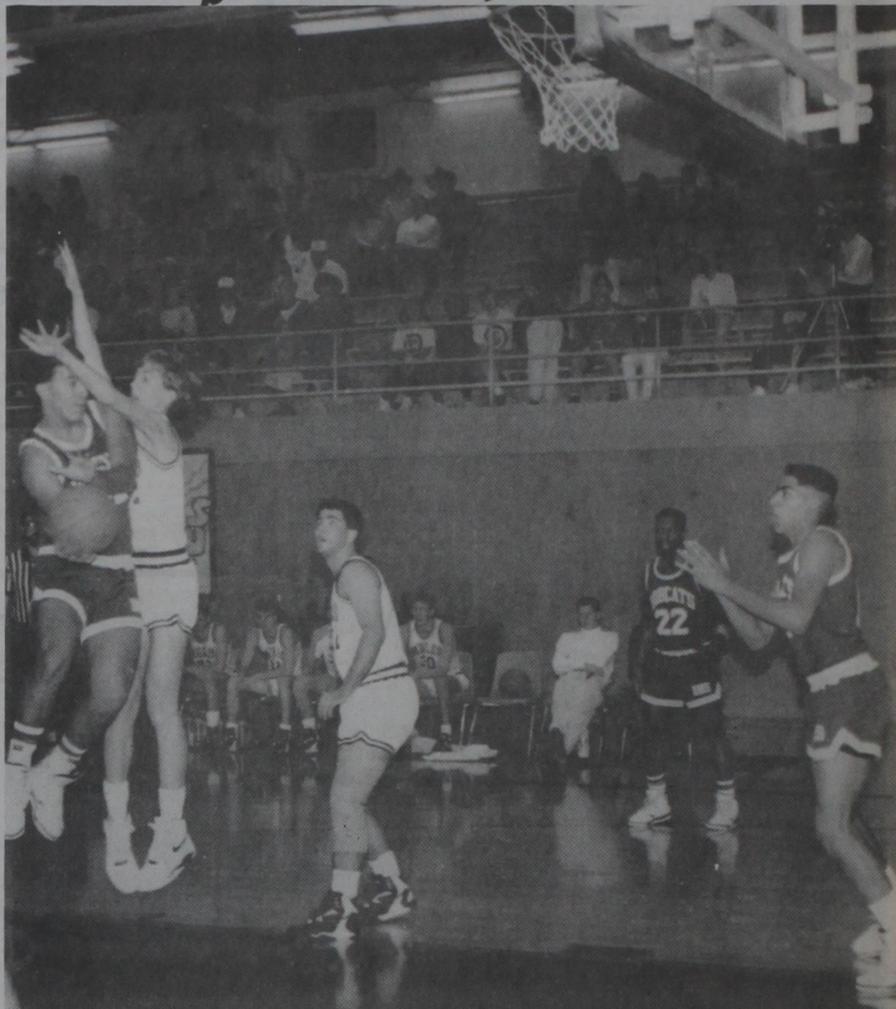

Dimmitt's junior varsity teams made it a clean sweep Tuesday night as the JV Bobcats won, 73-45, and the JV Bobbies posted a 51-37 victory.

my wife, Libby, but it was a complete surprise to me."

The association presented Cleveland with a plaque, and when he went down to accept it, he was joined by his team and several ex-players, something which he said made the honor "extra special."

The first American Business Club was founded in 1922 and has grown to a network of civic clubs, each dedicated to promoting a better community life.

Post game propels Swiftettes over Happy

The Nazareth Swiftettes shook off a dismal two-point second quarter performance and an 11-15 halftime deficit against Happy Friday night by adjusting to an inside game and walked away with a 38-33 victory.

The top-ranked Swiftettes couldn't get anything to fall in the first half, but had few problems in the third quarter, outscoring the Cowgirls 17-6 in the stanza to take the lead into the final eight minutes.

Nazareth held a 9-7 lead after the first eight minutes of play, but then its offense froze and Happy outscored the defending state champs 8-2 in the second stanza for a 15-11 halftime lead.

Post players Peggy Huseman and Monica Kleman keyed the Swiftettes third quarter heroics, scoring eight and six points, respectively, to boost their team to a 28-21 lead at the end of the period.

It was a classic comeback for the Swiftettes — and typical for a Nazareth-Happy showdown.

"This is what it's all about," said Nazareth Head Coach Denise Skinner, who is in her first year at the helm. "Anytime Nazareth and Happy show up in the same gym to play each other, you can bet it's going to be a good ballgame. That's what's fun. That's what makes this sport great and that's what fills gyms—rivalries between teams."

Skinner said the difference in the game was Nazareth's inside game.

"At halftime, we just talked about what we had to do to get the ball inside to our post players. In the first half we weren't doing it.

We just talked about how important it was to get that ball inside. Our post players came in and did exactly what we needed them to do to win."

Jodi Johnson pulled the Swiftettes to within a point, 14-15, when she nailed a three-pointer from the wing with 6:53 left in the third quarter, and that's when Huseman and Kleman took over.

Kleman scored two straight baskets to give the Swiftettes a one-point lead, 18-17 with 5:42 left, then Huseman spurred the team on.

The junior scored eight points in less than five minutes to boost the Swiftettes to a 28-21 lead.

"We knew we could do it when we stepped back on the court after halftime," Huseman said. Coach told us to get the ball inside, and I just got real confident when she said that. I was just ready to put that ball in the hole."

Happy fought back in the final period and narrowed the lead to 34-31, but Noel Johnson sealed the victory for Nazareth with four free throws in the final 30 seconds.

Ironically, the all-stater's charity tosses were almost the only points she scored in the game. Johnson had nailed a three-pointer early in the first quarter, but was held to that until sinking the free throws at the end of the game to finish with seven points.

"Noel's a big part of our offensive game, but when she was shut down, the other girls came through and did it for us. I'm sure it makes the entire team feel good about it (victory) being a team effort, which it was tonight," said Skinner.

"Happy's team did exactly what it needed to do to win. They had to stop Noel. And they did an excellent job on her. Holding her to what they did is a compliment to Happy's defense."

The victory gave the Swiftettes a little bit of revenge for an earlier non-conference loss to Happy in the Queen's Classic in November. The Cowgirls topped the Swiftettes 46-44, but Skinner says the team that beat the Cowgirls in Happy Friday night isn't the same team that played the first games of the year.

The Swiftettes had sported an uncharacteristic 0-6 record early in the year before their current streak of victories started.

"We're not the same team that played the first six ballgames. Our girls have gained a lot of confidence since then. They had a big transition to make from Coach (Sandy) Heiman's era to my era, and from the era of Darla Leavitt (who graduated last year) and her domination of the paint. The progress we've made is phenomenal. It's nice to see we've made the transition," Skinner said.

"That's not to say there's not a lot more work to be done, obviously there is. When you score two points a quarter... As a coach I'm not too happy about that. We're going to have to find some way that'll never happen again. We spent six ballgames just learning about each other. Now we're ready to play," she said.

PRESSURE MAN-TO-MAN defense, applied here by Nazareth's Peggy Huseman (12), Monica Kleman (30) and Noel Johnson (24) stifled Happy's leading scorers, Elaine Moudy (30) and Janale Stockett (40) in the third quarter Friday night, while the Swiftettes' offensive attack, paced by Huseman and Kleman gave the team enough of an edge to carry through the fourth quarter enroute to a 38-33 win. Huseman led the Swiftettes in scoring with 12 points while Stockett paced the Cowgirls with 14.

BASELINE BATTLE — Nazareth's Brandon Schilling (34) and Happy's DeJay White (24) battle for control of a loose ball on the baseline during action Friday night in Happy. After losing control of the ball on a baseline drive, White attempts to keep the ball from going out of bounds by knocking it in to teammates, but Schilling blocks the pass and steals the ball as teammates Scott Huseman (24) and Wade Hoelting look on. Nazareth went on to win the game, 68-43, improving its record to 9-7, 1-1.

Police Calls

Early Monday police received a call about a female passed out beside a residence in the 400 block of Northwest Seventh Street in Dimmitt. Officers found the 30-year-old woman on the ground, with large cuts around her neck. She was unconscious, but breathing.

She was taken by ambulance to Plains Memorial Hospital where she was treated and kept briefly for observation.

A neighbor told police the woman and her husband had been drinking at his house earlier. After they went home, he allegedly heard them arguing.

When officers arrived at the hospital, the woman was conscious and reported that her husband had cut her neck and kicked her on the leg. Investigation is continuing.

Valentin Villalobos Jr., 26, of Dimmitt is being held on violation of probation charges.

The home of Irene Carpenter on Northwest Sixth Street was broken into sometime between Jan. 8 and Friday afternoon. Items taken included a 21-inch color television set, a VCR, a microwave, some food from the freezer, and part of a nativity scene. Damage was done to a window pane on the back door, where entry was gained, and to the ignition switch of a car, and to part of the nativity scene. Items taken and damages totaled over $1,000. Investigation continues.

San Juan Martinez, 51, of Dimmitt told police Sunday night that a renter had moved out of one of her properties and took several items and damaged the residence. Items taken included a night stand, picture frame, curtains and two keys, total value $210. Damaged were three doors and a glass window and frame, with repairs estimated at $275. Investigation is continuing.

A 58-year-old Hereford man was arrested early Saturday for unlawful carrying of a weapon. A woman told police the suspect, her father-in-law, had argued with her father, and that the suspect had allegedly had a gun with him. A search of the suspect's vehicle turned up two Bowie knives.

An apartment at Country Arms Apts. in Dimmitt was broken into sometime over New Year's Eve or New Year's Day. Items taken included a VCR, two speakers and a Nintendo, total value $395. Entry was gained through a window, from which the screen and glass pane had been removed. A juvenile suspect has been arrested in connection with the incident, and was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Another juvenile was involved in two separate incidents on Monday. At 1:30 p.m., he reportedly threw a rock, striking another youth on the forehead, then hit and kicked the victim. At 3 p.m., Miguel Velasquez, manager of the Azteca Complex, reported him as a suspect in damaging a window screen and some light covers on a couple of apartments. Total damage was estimated at $40.

Friday afternoon, Southwestern Public Service Co. manager Calvin Marsh told police that eight mercury vapor light bulbs and three plastic globe covers had been damaged within the previous week, apparently shot out with a BB gun. The damages were within the 500 to 700 blocks of Southwest Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Streets, and repairs are estimated at $238.96.

Two bicycles were taken from the garage of a residence on Northwest Second. Elizabeth Sams told police the garage had been closed, but not locked. She valued the bikes at a total of $175. Missing were a 10-speed John Deere boy's bike and a pink and purple Huffly girl's bike.

On Jan. 7, the Castro County Sheriff's Dept. received a report from Dony McDaniel that a $500 pair of Kelly Brothers spurs was missing from the shop building beside his home, just east of Dimmitt. Two suspects were questioned and released. Investigation is continuing.

Jason Smotherman reported to police that he had been having a party around 1:30 a.m. Sunday, and after he asked everyone to leave, one individual forced his way back in, causing $50 in damage to the door latch.

Two Dimmitt women were arrested around 1:57 a.m. Sunday. The 24-year-old was charged with DWI and her 20-year-old passenger with public intoxication.

Wet, slippery roads contributed to three accidents in the city during the past week.

Last Thursday around 2:15 p.m., Leslie Heard, 30, of Dimmitt was ticketed for leaving the scene of an accident and for failure to maintain financial responsibility. He was driving his 1971 pickup south in the 500 block of Front Street, when he reportedly lost control and struck a dumpster. The pickup then spun around and struck a yield sign. Damage to the vehicle was rated light. Damage to city property was estimated at $300. No injuries were reported.

Friday at 5:10 p.m., a 1969 Ford pickup driven by Pedro Davila Gallegos, 70, of Dimmitt was attempting to cross Broadway at the intersection with Halsell, when his vehicle was struck by a small blue car driven by a female. The car left the scene of the accident. The pickup received moderate damage, but the driver was not injured. Investigation continues.

Monday at 2:50 p.m., Douglas Wayne Setliff, 27, of Hereford, was ticketed for backing without safety when his 1988 Ford Taurus backed out of a parking area at Dimmitt Middle School on Southwest Seventh Street and struck a 1987 Chevy Suburban driven by Jackie Byrnes, 39, of Dimmitt. No injuries were reported.

of love" encourages them to have sex with the first person for whom they have feelings of love, Theis said.

With the national divorce rate at 40% right now, "Tell them there's at least two people for them," Theis said jokingly.

"Teens commit suicide because adults lie to them," he told Monday's audience. "This is the best time of your life 'is a lie.' He pointed out that teens must deal with hormonal changes, peer pressure and "zits."

Theis pointed out that with a 40% divorce rate nation-wide, the divorce rate for persons who married at age 19 or younger is at 70%, and he noted that most will have children. He recommends the marrying age of 30 for males and 25 for females, unless the female wishes to have more than two children.

A strong proponent of sex education in schools, Theis said it would be ideal if such instruction was given in the home, but it is apparent that it is not being given.

"We expect children to make responsible decisions without adequate instructions," he noted. "We need to tell teens there are two choices to avoid pregnancy—either you say no, or if you say yes, then you use birth control."

Theis also remarked that parents need to encourage students to take responsibility for their own education, and tell them that an education is the only thing that will take them out of this town.

"You will not make it in sports," Theis said he advises young people, and he predicts that sports will be out of high schools in the US within the next 10 years.

"Schools can either pay teachers or continue sports," he commented. "I'm afraid some teachers will be surprised at what the choice will be."

Theis said he will talk to students about cheating and the importance of grades.

"There is very little relation between grade averages in high school and success in life," Theis said. "Twenty-five year reunions tell you that."

He recommends that young people travel, as youth in other parts of the world do, in order to broaden their perspective and gain a better view of the world as a whole.

5% acreage reduction announced for US cotton

A 5% acreage reduction program (ARP) for 1991 upland cotton crops has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter.

This compares with a 12.5% reduction for the 1990 crop and is in keeping with an earlier recommendation by the National Cotton Council which represents all segments of the US cotton industry.

Yeutter also announced an advance deficiency payment of four cents per pound, which represents 40% of the projected 10-cent total deficiency payment for the 1991 crop. The law requires the secretary of agriculture to make an advance payment of 30 to 50% of the projected deficiency payment for the year.

The reduction percentage is keyed to a provision of 1990 farm law that requires Yeutter to set the ARP at a level that allows the carryover of upland cotton at the end of the 1991 season to be equal to 30% of total upland offtake for the season. The law forbids the ARP to exceed 25%.

"Stating the carryover target as a stocks-to-use ratio permits the target to rise and fall with the expected level of total domestic and export demand for US cotton," said Dr. Mark Lange, the council's director of economic services. "The higher the level of demand, the more stocks you need to bridge the gap between seasons."

This is the first year the stocks-to-use ratio was used to calculate the acreage reduction program for cotton. Under the Food Security Act of 1985, the carryover target was fixed at four million bales. The secretary is confronted with a difficult job of trying to hit a carryover target, regardless of whether it is a fixed number or a variable number keyed to offtake.

"Remember, the target the secretary is trying to hit is the stock level on July 31, 1992. That's 19 months from the date he must make his final ARP announcement," Lange said.

Lange said if any one of several variables across the 19 months differs slightly from the secretary's projections, the carryover target will be missed.

"To hit the target, his projections have to be right for domestic and export demand, for acreage planted to cotton and for yield," Lange said.

The assignment is further complicated by new flexibility rules expected to result in a net increase in acreage planted to cotton in 1991.

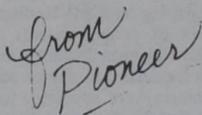

Council President Tommy Funk said the new procedure, which was a cotton industry recommendation, "is an attempt to do a better job of managing supply at a level adequate to meet domestic and export demand without adverse price consequences. We don't want supply to be so tight that price restricts demand. Nor do we want a supply so large that prices are depressed and program costs soar."

The Harlingen producer said the variable carryover level embodied in the stocks-to-use ratio is in harmony with the industry's general goal of market orientation in farm policy.

"While demand can be expected to fluctuate, as it always has, we think the outlook is good for long-term growth in global demand for cotton," Funk said. "And if our supply is adequate and our price is competitive, we fully expect US cotton to participate in that growth."

Corn, sorghum may be grown on a combined base for 1991

Secretary of Agriculture Clayton Yeutter has announced he is exercising, for the 1991 crop only, his discretionary authority to prevent the separation of combined corn and sorghum bases.

Producers deluged the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office in Washington, D.C., with protests after being notified in December by National Grain Sorghum producers that the bases might be separated.

"We think Secretary Yeutter's decision is a good one," said Jeff Casten, a sorghum producer from Quenemo, Kan., and vice president of the National Grain Sorghum Producers. "We are elated that we were able to draw attention to the problem and that producers responded with a barrage of phone calls to ASCS and members of Congress. And we received tremendous support from our legislators when they became aware of the extent of the problem."

Casten said the promised flexibility of the 1990 Farm Act would have been severely restricted if producers with a combined sorghum and corn base were not allowed to interchange the crops. Under the 1985 Farm Act, producers could plant corn or grain sorghum on a combined base. The option gave farmers the opportunity to plant the crop most suited to their needs.

"ASCS officials said the 1990 Farm Act required the separation of sorghum and corn bases," said Casten. "But we knew it would be disastrous for many producers. That's why we encouraged them to protest the change."

In his announcement, Yeutter said that to permanently correct this situation, he would urge the Congress to restore fully the authority to combine the feed grain bases for crop years beyond 1991.

In 1991, producers who enroll in the feed grain price support and production adjustment program have until the certification date established for corn and grain sorghum to declare which portion of the farm's crop acreage is planted to either crop. This reported acreage will be used in establishing 1992 crop acreage bases, which will be established in the same way as for all other 1992 program crops.

CONTROL EROSION AND INCREASE YIELDS!

The M&W Earthmaster Conservation Tillage System controls erosion by mixing soil and trash so trash can decompose while holding soil in place. The Earthmaster increases yields by breaking up the compaction "barrier" so moisture and fertilizer are carried deeper. Next year roots can grow deeper for more nutrition — and higher yields.

Windbreak trees may be ordered now

The Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District is now accepting orders for windbreak trees.

Fourty potted evergreen trees may be purchased for $65, while 100 bareroot trees can be purchased for $50. The trees will be delivered to the Soil Conservation Service office in March.

Anyone interested in ordering trees may do so by calling the Soil Conservation Service office at 647-4324, or by stopping by the office at 114 W. Belsher, Suite B.

The SCS is ordering trees from the Texas Forest Service and the Colorado State Forest Service Nursery. Colorado State Forest still has a good selection of trees left, while the Texas Forest Service has only a few trees available.

Having a windbreak is valuable to a homeowner, say SCS personnel. The trees protect your home from wind, snow and blowing dirt. It will save money on fuel bills and on heating your home. The trees can also provide good cover and food for wildlife, they said.

TSBGA meeting, banquet set

Imperial Holly officials and growers will discuss how the "better - than - bumper crop" of sugar beets came about and how production can be improved even more next year during the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association's annual meeting and banquet in Hereford Friday and Saturday.

"Know Your Partner" is the theme for the meeting, which begins at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the Hereford Community Center. The annual banquet will be held at 7 p.m. Saturday at the Hereford Bull Barn.

The close "partnership" between Imperial Holly Corp. and regional beet growers helped bring about a record crop of more than one million tons in 1990, according to reports.

"Never before has the relationship between growers and our processing partner, Imperial Holly, been as important or as strong as it is now," said Bill Cleavinger of Wildorado, Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association president. "The meeting and banquet will give all of us an opportunity to get to know our 'partners' even better."

The overall yields this year surpassed one million tons, a pleasant surprise to everyone, considering the October yield estimate was pegged at 887,000 tons. More than 40,000 acres of beets were harvested, about 2,000 acres less than were planted. Yields averaged 24.7 tons per acre and sugar content was in the 14.2 to 14.3% range, according to Dennis Printz, agricultural manager at Holly Sugar Corp. in Hereford, who will review the crop during the meeting.

Denny Kempner, chairman of the board for Imperial Holly in Sugar Land, will be the keynote speaker at the banquet. He is expected to address the expansion program at the Hereford Holly Sugar plant in which a $12 million ion exclusion facility is being built. The facility, expected to be operational for this year's crop, will enable the plant to extract 10% more sugar from beets produced in the region.

"Mr. Kempner is recognized as one of the world's leading voices for the sugar industry," said Cleavinger. "His family has successfully operated Imperial for many years."

Cleavinger added that the company is the oldest existing business in Texas, having been in operation since before the Civil War.

"When Imperial merged with Holly Sugar in 1988, it combined leaders in the cane and beet industry into what is now a Fortune 500 company and the second largest publicly held sugar company in the nation," Cleavinger noted. "Mr. Kempner is expected to discuss the tradition of the company and how its future will impact the Hereford beet producing area."

Holly research also will highlight the meeting. Stan Bischel, head of the new Holly research operation in Colorado Springs, Colo., will discuss the development of the new research program.

"He is recognized as the most outstanding researcher in the beet industry," said Cleavinger. "We are fortunate that he is working to benefit producers in our area."

Also discussing Holly beet research will be Steve Reynolds, head of the Holly Seed Division in Sheridan, Wyo. He will review how Holly's efforts to breed characteristics of European seed into domestic varieties may enhance yields and quality for area production.

Bob Atwood, Imperial Holly's head of marketing, will describe the various marketing programs run by the company. He will discuss how area beets are marketed by Imperial Holly and how the company's marketing efforts effect growers locally.

"How our beets are marketed by Imperial Holly and how the company's marketing efforts affect growers is something each of us should understand to the fullest," said Cleavinger. "It is especially important for growers to understand how 'nets' relate to us. Nets for the Hereford area are the highest in the Holly beet regions. Bob will provide us with sound information on how we, as growers, help generate higher prices for everyone concerned."

Extensive beet research efforts by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in Amarillo will be discussed by Texas Agricultural Extension Service researchers. Among the researchers on the program include Dr. G.B. Thompson, resident director of the Texas A&M University Research Center in Amarillo; Dr. Charlie Rush, TAES plant pathologist; and Dr. Steve Winter, TAES associate professor.

Cleavinger, who also is chairman of the legislative affairs committee of the American Sugar Beet Growers Association, will discuss General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs (GATT) negotiations and the new farm bill and how they impact area growers.

"The farm bill forces us to pay a 1% per pound assessment to the government," Cleavinger said, "meaning the industry will actually generate about $32 million in revenue for the government. However, our 18-cent loan rate remains intact, much like in 1985. We owe the success of our sugar program to the overall industry's unified effort the past two years."

Roger Hill, Holly president, also will be on the program. He will review the company's longstanding "partnership" with the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association.

Noted humorist Robert Gadberr of Wichita, Kan., will join Kempner as a banquet speaker.

For more information about the meeting or banquet, contact the Texas Sugar Beet Growers Association office at 364-1100 in Hereford.

one to invite to our parades and banquets. A son or son-in-law would be ideal, but the gardener or head butler would do, if it wouldn't interfere with their state duties.

We're going to have the 100th birthday party for our county tonight (Thursday) at the Expo Building, starting at 7. If you miss it, you're going to miss out on a great time.

Castro County is one of the youngest counties in Texas, if not the youngest. But we've made a lot of history in our first 100 years.

Our county wouldn't have gotten established in 1891 if some of J. W. Carter's horses hadn't been named and included as signers of the petition, because the county didn't yet have enough residents of the human persuasion.

You'll hear about that episode tonight in the debut of an original song, Castro County's Animals, by Bill Sava. ("Jim, and Bob, and Joe, and Pete—they four fellers had sixteen feet!")

The same song also tracks the legends of other animals that have played a role in the county's history—the elusive jackrabbits that were the object of the Great Rabbit Hunt of the '20s; Old Maud, the donkey that toted water from the town well on the courthouse square for the early-day residents; the young antelope that the Ramey brothers caught and tried to tame—until it sprouted horns; and, of course, the animal that has played the most important role in our history from the first days until now—the beef steer.

Castro County's Animals is just one of five original Sava songs that will be performed tonight, along with another by Terri Louder. The songs will become part of the Centennial Pageant next August.
