GOLDEN TEXT-But we belleve that The conference on missions in Jerusalem was not the result of an appeal to a $\begin{aligned} & \text { uning church organiza- } \\ & \text { tion tor a d discision }\end{aligned}$ titon for a decision, but rather angathering of the beievers trom Antioct ering of the beievers from Antioch with those in Jerusalem to confer regarding a serious difference of repinion. The earliest converts to Christianity were Jews, who had come by the way of Judaism into come by the way of Judaism into their new faith in Christ. But now, through the preaching of Paul and through the preaching of Paul and Barnabas, certain Gentiles had believed in Christ. Their new-found joy was soon beclouded by a theological problem. Certain teachers from Judea (Acts 15:1) declared from Judea (Acts $15: 1$ ) declared that the Gentiles were not saved unless they came into the Christian taith the way of the fullillment of the Jewish law. Paul and Barnabas at once The Vital Question-1s Salva:
I. The Vrace or Works? (vv. 7-11; tion by Grater see also vv. 1-5).
Paul and his fellow workers had rightly apprehended God's plan of salvation apart from works of the law. Paul realized that the entire future of the gospel ministry was in a sense dependent on the solution of this problem. Christianity is the only religious faith in the world that presents justification by grace as the way of redemption; all others follow (more or less) the path of salvation by works. The question now was: Shall works of the law be mingled with grace-can Jesus Christ alone save men, or is salvation through Jesus II. The Christian Solution-Coun-eil Rather Than Controversy (vv. 6 , 7, $12-18$ ).
There may be times when it becomes the duty of the Christian worker to take worker to thake an uncompromising stand for the truth of God and refuse to be moved, come what may. But to be moved, come what may. But certainly there should be no such spirit in dealing with differing in-tin terpretations of Scripture on the part of sincere and earnest Christian brethren. How much would be gained in the Church today if, ingained in the Church today if, instead of magnifying differences and permitting personal desires and amp permitting personal desires and ambitions to intervene, men were willing to sit down in the spirit of Christ around the tables and brotherhood, presided over cil directed by the Holy Spirit (see Acts The whole question was honestly and carefully considered by the and carefully considered by the council at Jerusalem, with the result that there was a vindication of the preachers of God's grace.
James finally spoke, giving the conclusion to which the Holy Spirit had led the conference (see v. 28). Here for all the future we have selves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." The teaching of Scripture is very plain on this point, and we do well to receive it in all its beauty and grace.

Let us observe, however, that the no further burden on these Gentile believers (v.28), did quite properly require of them that, as those who require of them that, as those who had been saved by grace, they must "walk in newness of life" (Rom. had the same thaught in mind when had he supplemented Ephesians $2: 8$ and 9 with verse 10 , declaring that God has ordained "in good works."
There are two opposite tendencies (both of which are wrong) in this Christian church. The one which we have already stressed tries to mix works with grace, making salvation either entively or partially by works.
Sel Sad to say, some who have sought to avoid this error have gone to the opposite extreme and have done violence to God's plan of salvation by lence to God's plan of salvation by making grace an exuse for sin, making grace an excuse for sin, using their fredom from law as a justification of lawlessness. We are God's "workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works" (Eph.
