"Nature does not GIVE anything. It LENDS. It will continue to lend as long as the loan is returned. When nothing is paid back, nothing is lent. Nature keeps a constant balance between its income and loans. When the loans are not repaid the borrower, man, and not the lender, nature is eliminated. Anyone who ignores the balance of nature does so at his own peril!" —From OUR USE OF THE LAND

Election Of Executive Committee Highlights Annual GSPA Meeting

The election of an executive committee, earmarking of funds for stepped-up research on water use, sorghum midge control, and continued promotion of foreign markets high lighted the annual meeting of the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

Sixty directors, officers and county leaders attending the one-day session in Amarillo Thursday, April 9.

Pat Northcutt, a farmer-rancher of Silverton, was elected as a new member of the executive committee as Vice President for Research and Education. The group set February 25 and 26, 1965 as the dates for the association's next regular biennial Research and Utilization Conference. Those held in 1959, 1961 and 1963 have attracted over 300 sorghum researchers and industry people from some 30 states and several foreign countries.

The board under leadership of President Elbert Harp of Abernathy authorized $7,500 for sorghum midge research in cooperation with Texas A & M University Entomology Department on a matching fund basis. Funds for active membership in the High Plains Water Institute to study and promote water conservation were also designated. GSPA will also continue its membership in the U. S. Feed Grain Council through which it conducts grain sorghum foreign market development programs.

Association leaders attending were given copies of a research report on the High Concentrated Grain Ration Research at Texas Technological College in the Department of Animal Husbandry.

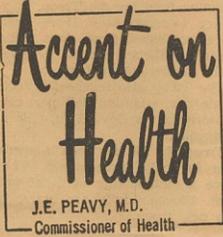

The association supports the study through a $2500. research grant.

Jay Taylor, Amarillo cattleman and grain producer and member of Secretary Freeman's Beef Advisory Committee told the association that groups such as the sorghum producers should not just support their organization when they are in trouble but should give continuous support to a strong association to help keep problems from developing for their commodity.

Dr. Willard Williams, Head, Department of Agricultural Economic at Texas Technological College, discussed some basic farm policy concepts with the group. He indicated that the idea of "perfect", "ideal and "free" markets are often confused by farmers and others. He said that farmers and their organizations should meet the challenge of developing "workable" farm programs, as "No government policy" is not always "good government policy".

In addition to Harp and Northcutt, other members of the GSPA executive committee are, R. G. Peeler, Hereford; Frank Moore, Plainview; and A. W. Anthony, Jr. Friona.

Increased Interest Shown In Soil Testing Program

Increased interest in the use of soil tests as a guide for more profitable fertilizer use in cotton production is being expressed. This is evident from the number of soil samples received by the Extension Service's Soil Testing Laboratory located at the Center. Since Jan. 1, 1964, over 5,240 samples have been processed.

South Plains soils are more uniform in appearance and general chemical characteristics than other areas of the State. But even here there are extreme differences in plant nutrient content and other factors that influence plant nutrition. Tests presently made by the Laboratory include pH (soil reaction), organic matter as a measure of nitrogen availability phosphorus, potassium, calcium, soluble salt, and sodium. These values, when considered along with information on past cropping history, soil type, water, and expected crop yields, give the best information presently available to the farmer for planning a profitable fertilizer use program.

The levels where response can be expected from the plant nutrients available from commercial fertilizers are determined from the cumulative fertilizer research that has been done in the area. It works like this—when a fertilizer test goes in, either on the Center's farm or on the replicated test, response from specific nutrients singly and in combination with others is noted for that particular crop. Due to the many years of research are needed to establish these response levels. Another phase of activity that has added to the acceptance of soil testing is the Fertilizer Result Demonstration conducted by farmers in cooperation with County Agricultural Agents. While not to be classified as research, such demonstrations where fertilizer is applied according to soil test has given much helpful information.

If a soil test is to be effective it is essential a representative sample be collected and that the Information Sheet be completed and sent in with the soil sample. County Agents have these forms with suggestions on sample collection and mailing.

Through April 4, an aggregate of 27,384 cases of measles (rubeola) has been reported from all parts of Texas. Compare that figure to the 7,541 cases reported for the same period in 1963, and it is clear that the State, in general, is indeed experiencing an epidemic.

Measles epidemics can be predicted with a fair degree of certainty. In metropolitan areas, a mild form of the disease can be anticipated to reach epidemic proportions every other year. In rural areas, outbreaks are usually somewhat more severe.

Outbreaks occur in keeping with population growths - that is, the birth of new babies who are unimmunized, and who are thus susceptible when the community is "seeded" with the virus.

Measles comes in two different varieties. Rubella - often called 3-day measles - or German measles is of shorter duration than rubeola. Normally rubeola is considered more serious in nature, with one exception. When rubella occurs during the first four months of pregnancy, it is thought to trigger malformation of the unborn child.

In any case, measles may not be lightly dismissed as a harmless childhood disease. Measles (rubeola) claims 34 lives per year, half of which are under two years of age.

Quarantining a measles patient of either variety - doesn't help the situation. A person is most contagious before the tell-tale red spots appear when symptoms simply resemble a cold.

Recently, a vaccine for rubeola was put on the market. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends that any child over nine months of age, who has no history of the disease, be given the vaccine.

Children with special problems, such as cystic fibrosis, asthma or heart disease, are particularly advised to take advantage of this protective measure. If any symptoms are suspected a physician should be contacted immediately.

Only the upper 15 per cent of Texas high school graduates ought to be taken in the state's top universities, the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School has been told.

A sub-committee also informed the panel that some type of higher education must be made available to all and that there is an urgent need for general upgrading of the college system. Enrollments must be built up, dropouts reduced and standards steadily improved, the study group heard at a meeting last week.

COURT SPEAKS—

State Supreme Court upheld lower court decisions that approval of $65,000,000 Milliean Dam on the Navastoa River is final.

Grimes and Brazos County landowners challenged feasibility of the big federal project. Cities of Bryan, College Station and Navasota asked dismissal of the suit.

High Court also held an East Texas oilman, Austin Stewart, can keep on operating two slanted oil wells that bottom under his own property. Decision overturned a district court order which had knocked out a Railroad Commission order permitting Stewart to produce from the wells.

Supreme Court upheld the right of an irrigation district to levy flat-rate assessments against land—regardless of the exact benefit it will obtain from irrigation—when it affirmed a San Antonio appeals court decision on a Maverick County case.

A resident of that county sued the Maverick County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 contending that a $5.25 per acre assessment on irrigable lands and a $2 per acre assessment on lands which could be irrigated by gravity was illegal.

He said his land is rolling and did not benefit as much as level land owned by others in the district but the trial court, appellate court and the Supreme Court ruled in favor of the water district's right to flat-rate assessment.

JUVENILE PROGRAM IMPROVING—

Texas Youth Council reports that there has been a sharp and welcome drop in the number of repeaters among juvenile offenders sent to Gatesville, Gainesville and Crockett correctional schools.

In the fall of 1961, the rate of returnees was 45 per cent. When the 1961 Legislature appropriated funds for expansion and improvement of school facilities and for five council parole officers. By August, 1963, the return rate was down to 29 per cent and youth council spokesmen say the hope to hold this since the parole personnel was increased to 20 last month. The Rev. Clint Kersey, council parole supervisor, said, "We believe that by an increased stay, we can keep them in school. Then when they are paroled, they are better able to adjust and hold a job, and that cuts the chance of return."

SCREWORM APPROPRIATION ASKED—

Gov. Connally has requested a $5,500,000 congressional appropriation for continued protection against the screwworm menace.

A two-year program has eradicated the screwworm from Texas, Connally told congressional leaders, and feasibility of a barrier along the Mexican border to prevent re-infestation is proved.

While southwestern states, livestock producers and sportsmen have financed over half the $12,000,000 program to date, Connally said, it now is an international matter and should be financed by the U.S. without local matching requirements.

The state, producers and sportsmen would continue to provide inspection, survey and other services in the U.S.

OIL FIELD BRINE—

The Texas Water Pollution Control Board scheduled a hearing for July 1 at 9 a.m. on its order prohibiting the surface disposal of oil field brine in Area II of the Ogallala formation—the Middle High Plains. All area II permit holders are to appear at the hearing and show cause why their permits should not be amended to conform to the no-pit order.

A May 27 hearing has been set for Ogallala area I—the Panhandle area—and a hearing on area IV will be held on August 5.

THE JUDICIARY—

All gubernatorial candidates have been asked by a State Bar committee to pledge that, if elected, each will consult the bar committee on judicial appointees.

Vernon B. Hill of Mission wrote all candidates that his committee would rate each considered for judicial appointees either exceptionally well qualified, well qualified, qualified, or not qualified.

He said a similar procedure is followed by the President of the U. S. and the Attorney General and the American Bar in appointments to the federal judiciary.

State Bar also has named a committee to consult with newspapermen and law officers about the problem of publicity on lawsuits and trials.

Talbot Rain of Dallas is chairman, with former District Judge Joe Frazier Brown of San Antonio and Joe H. Reynolds of Houston members. Apparently, the group will see to work out some sort of joint code for policing publicity.

"AIRPORT" OFF LIMITS—The airstrip at the LBJ Ranch, a single, 6,300-foot runway located 12 miles west of Johnson City, has been declared off-limits to all civil and military aircraft, "except those on official business with prior permission to use the airport."

An order published by the Texas Aeronautics Commission for the Federal Aeronautics Agency said aircraft also must avoid flying within one nautical mile of the presidential residence.

LEASE CALL—The State is offering 369,786 acres of public lands for lease to oil and gas producers. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler has called for sealed bids on 608 tracts to be submitted by 10 a.m. on May 5.

Sadler predicted the leases will increase the Permanent School Fund by several million dollars.

SLANT WELL SUITS—Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr announced that nine new civil penalty suits have been filed against 14 alleged slant-well oil operators in East Texas, making the suit total 106.

First suit to be filed outside of East Texas, as well as the first against an out-of-state defendant, was filed in Jackson County against John Wrather of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Carr also filed another "first" suit, claiming a Rusk County gas well was slanted.

APPOINTMENTS—Gov. Connally appointed Lewis R. Timberlake of Austin to the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. He succeeds the late Millard Cope, executive of the San Angelo Standard-Times. Timberlake is a past president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He named Charles H. King Jr. of Dallas Commissioner of Bureau of Labor Statistics. King resigned as president of the Dallas AFL-CIO Council to accept the appointment.

Connally picked Judge W. T. McDonald of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to serve as chairman of the Texas Judiciary Advisory Committee to the U. S. Olympics.

OPINIONS—Attorney General Carr held in opinions: Bee County Commissioners are not required to name a board of

IMPORT ISSUES REMAIN TO BE RESOLVED—

WATER COMMISSION—

South Texas Electric Cooperative received Texas Water Commission approval of application to take 23,400 acre feet of water a year from Guadalupe River in Victoria County to cool steam-powered generators of its new electric plant.

Commission has published a bulletin, "Research on Evaporation Retardation in Small Reservoirs, 1958-63," for the benefit of farmers and ranchers concerned with losing water through evaporation. Bulletin is available free from the commission's office, Austin, Texas.

SHORT SNORTS—

Gov. Connally issued an executive order in support of the Texas Education Agency's bid to get the Federal vocational education school contract for abandoned Gary Army Airfield at San Marcos—Water Pollution Control Board approved three applications allowing City of Orange to continue sewage disposal in Sabine River on condition it improves its plant facilities promptly—Texas May draft quota is only 258 men, compared to 449 for April—University of Texas Board of regents placed law school professor Hubert Winston Smith on leave of absence without pay during the time he is serving as Jack Ruby's attorney—Texas Industrial Commission's program of coordinating existing development activities may provide "the future pattern in industrial development for other states to follow," according to a University of Texas Bureau of Business Research staffer.

question: "How much of the sugar and how much of the meat consumed by Americans is going to be supplied by American farmers and ranchers?"

To sell abroad we must buy abroad. Trade is not a one-way street. We cannot export unless we import. But we must not cripple domestic industries by permitting such a high level of imports that our own produce or manufacturers are driven from our own marketplaces. In addition, we must continue to provide opportunity for the expansion of domestic agricultural and industrial production.

Hearings are expected to begin soon before the House Agriculture Committee on production quota allocations under the Sugar Act. A number of bills have been introduced to increase the tonnage quota permitted to American farmers, producers of cane and beet sugar alike, during the calendar years 1964, 1965, and 1966. This week I introduced a bill to increase the quotas for our domestic sugar producing areas by 1,500,000 tons in 1965 and 1966 and by 500,000 tons for this year.

Together with some 50 other Members of the House of Representatives, I sent a letter Thursday to President Lyndon Johnson asking that the Administration back a domestic sugar beet marketing quota increase of "at least 750,000 tons." The signers of the letter, both Democrats and Republicans, advised the President of their conviction that such an increase "is in the national interest."

The letter stated: "World sugar stocks this year are even lower than last year, when the sugar crisis mentioned in your Message on Agriculture occurred. Some of the foreign countries supplying the market are doubtful reliability because of present or potential political instability. An increase of at least 750,000 tons in the basic beet sugar quota will help materially to assure ample supplies of sugar for American consumers at reasonable prices. Moreover, reducing our nation's dependence on foreign sugar supplies will reduce the number of dollars we send abroad and therefore will help to alleviate our Nation's balance of payments problem."

The fight is going to be a tough one. The "off shore" sugar interest are indeed a strongly entrenched power. Along with other Members of Congress of both parties, I will do my best to see that the fight is won this year.

The second import problem—that involving beef and other meat—poses equally difficult problems.

Several weeks ago, I observed in this newsletter that legislative efforts would be made to correct the depressed economy of our domestic cattle industry as a result of an excessively high level of imports reaching the United States from foreign countries. A number of bills—again with bipartisan support—have been introduced in the House and Senate. I am the author of one of these bills designed to lower the import level to the point that our own cattlemen can be assured of a market in their own country, and a market that permits them to remain in business.

With the fate of these legislative proposals remaining to be determined, Agriculture Secretary Freeman this week announced that the governments of Australia and New Zealand have voluntarily agreed to reduce their beef and meat exports to the United States this year by 22 percent, or 220 million pounds below their exports in 1963—and below the level established in the recent (and, in my view, unsatisfactory) agreement negotiated among the three countries. However encouraging this news may be, the reduction is still not sufficient to avert the threatened ruin now facing many U. S. cattlemen.

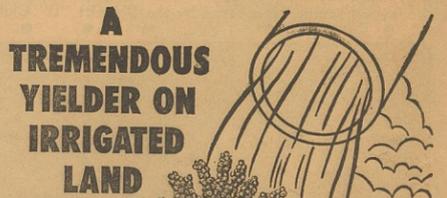

The United States exports a large quantity of agricultural and manufactured products than it imports. In the last crop year for which figures are available, in the 18th Congressional District of Texas (the 28-county area) exported $66.4 million worth of agricultural products—$62.1 million in field crops, $4 million in livestock and livestock products, $241,000 in vegetables, and $5,000 in fruits and nuts. In the same period, agricultural imports received in the 18th Congressional District totaled a value of $9.3 million.

Community To Celebrate Soil Stewardship Week May 3-10

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which places emphasis on man's obligations to God as stewards of the soil, water and other related resources, will be celebrated locally May 3-10, according to Wade Mills, Chairman, Running Water Soil Conservation District.

This year's observance, with the theme, "To Each Among Us... A Share", underscores the responsibility which each citizen has in meeting the responsibilities of soil stewardship. The Running Water Soil Conservation District and some 2,940 companion Districts throughout the nation and Puerto Rico, through their State and National Associations, are sponsoring this event for the tenth consecutive year.

The Running Water Soil Conservation District will distribute, upon request to churches of all faiths, programs, bulletin inserts, posters, and booklets created particularly for this year's observance. The materials were prepared by the National Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, in cooperation with a Soil Stewardship Advisory Committee composed of leading churchmen in the nation. The Committee consists of the Rev. E. W. Mueller, D. D., National Lutheran Council, Chicago; the Right Rev. John George Weber, National Catholic Rural Life Conference, Des Moines; the Rev. Harold S. Huff, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., Philadelphia; the Rev. Henry A. McCanna, D.R.E. National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., New York City; and the Rev. Lewis W. Newman, Southern Baptist Convention, Atlanta.

Members of the Running Water Soil Conservation District Stewardship Committee are Fred Axe, M. L. McFarland, Irvin Ott and Ernest Brockman.

Through the 1964 theme and in the attractively illustrated booklet, emphasis is placed upon the fact that there is a clearcut need and opportunity to improve upon the conservation, wise use, and development of the nation's valued soil and water resources. In this year's booklet each citizen is asked to consider his share—

"In the great Society of mankind, (since) each of us has a God-given purpose for being. In our time each among us fulfills a mission in the long progression toward the ultimate design of our Maker.

"To each among, God has assigned a share in the expanding brotherhood of stewards. It is a membership of service, dedicated to the husbandry of lands and waters, forests and ranges, and the fish and game He has placed at our disposal."

Beauty for You by Claire Parks. Includes an illustration of a woman's face and a bottle of beauty product.

Rites of Spring

Spring is a season that's hard to resist. Everything seems to come alive during this lovely time of year, including thee and me. Like a jeweler setting out trays of glittering bargains, it tempts us to be a bit extravagant, to throw second thoughts to the winds. And why not? Part of the fun of being a woman is to fight with temptation and lose.

Where do you begin? First, by removing all traces of winter from your skin. If your shoulders, arms and legs seem to lack smoothness and softness, you can get them back into condition by massaging them with Angel Skin Hand and Body Lotion after your bath or shower. This delicately scented pink balm penetrates deeply and quickly to moisturize and soften surfaces that appear to be dry, rough and weather-drained. Do this every day for at least a week.

At night before you go to bed, treat your complexion to two applications of Pond's Cold Cream. Apply it once to remove make-up, then wipe it off with facial tissues. Smooth on a second coat and spend a moment working it gently into your skin. Again, wipe off any excess with tissues. At the end of seven days you should notice a definite improvement on the general condition and appearance of your skin—a freshness that's very much in keeping with the season.

Celebrate spring with a new and quite different hairdo. Look for a picture in a newspaper or magazine of one you'd like to wear—clip it out and take it to your hairdresser. This will help him (or her) give you exactly what you had in mind. And finally: lend an exciting color accent to your spring ensemble. Choose a hat, a pair of shoes, a scarf or a flower in any of the clear, bright reds, blues, greens and yellows that Fashion could have lifted from the end of a rainbow...and look as fresh, as gay as the season itself.

TEXAN HELPS FIGHT HEALTH FRAUDS

Senator Ralph Yarborough of Texas, right, registers concern during testimony by Food and Drug Administration witnesses that no federal control now applies to metal parts now used in bone surgery, even though improperly tested metals can sometimes injure the patient. The testimony came at hearings of the Subcommittee on Frauds and the Elderly of the U. S. Senate Special Committee on Aging. The testimony was only one of several facts already disclosed in the subcommittee investigation. "Health frauds and quackery endanger health, and testimony indicates they cost the American consumer a billion dollars a year. This cannot go unchecked," Senator Yarborough said. At Senator Yarborough's right is Senator Neuberger and a committee staff member.

Land Management Needed In Area

With 37,000 playa lakes dotting the High Plains and sloping land leading into every one of them, the need for land management in the area is evident.

Jim Valliant, water engineer at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway is concerned with the problem. He estimates that at least 50 per cent of this sloping land, especially in Hale, Floyd, Swisher, Castro and Lamb counties, needs some form of land management.

At the Foundation farm at Halfway, Valliant has taken the land around one of the playa lakes on the 310-acre tract and subjected it to an extensive program of bench leveling to determine the value of land management in terms of dollars in the farmer's pocket.

Portions of the land around the lake have been cut to 8, 12, and 16 row benches and the remainder left in its natural, unshaped state.

Cotton and grain sorghum were planted in both areas and tests conducted to compare water use and yield, the factors which control net income. Since no facilities for measuring erosion were available, no studies were conducted on the amount of topsoil displaced.

Results of the tests have been significant. Based on a four-year average, the net income from cotton and grain sorghum produced on the benches was $20 per acre per year higher than that from the unshaped areas.

In addition to the increased yield realized on the benches, Valliant found that 30-40 per cent less water was required for grain sorghum and required 10 per cent less for cotton.

He also cites such things as less erosion, better utilization of rainfall, better utilization of supplemental water and a buildup of organic matter and fertility of the soil as hidden benefits realized in the bench leveling program.

"I'm getting a definite, stabilized yield on the benches and a declining yield on the unshaped ground," Valliant says. "This bears out the fact that crops grown on the slope require more nutrients, indicating a breakdown in the soil."

Valliant has experimented with 8, 12 and 16 row benches on the farm and has settled on a maximum length of 800 feet. The current experiments will be extended another year to arrive at a solid, 5-year average, and soybean benches will be added to the program.

The addition of 504 more acres to the research program may enable further research in bench leveling and terracing. Two lakes are on the new farm 10 miles southwest of Halfway, providing ample sloping land to be incorporated in the program.

JIM LANGDON—A WINNER!

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon is a 49-year-old native Texan with a winning record in public office. When John Connally appointed him to the Railroad Commission, the Governor said:

"I have for several weeks been attempting to find a man I consider to have outstanding ability, integrity and honor... I am happy we have found that man — Judge Jim C. Langdon."

Jim Langdon has fully lived up to Governor Connally's expectations. He has conducted his office in the spirit of Governor Jim Hogg, who had the Commission set up in 1891 to look after the public interest in railroad and freight rates. It now regulates also truck and bus rates and the production of oil and gas. Judge Langdon will continue to keep transportation rates in line and see to it that our oil reserves are protected against waste and greed. This will help keep down Texas gasoline prices, already among the lowest in the nation.

Jim Langdon was elected District Judge twice and re-elected Chief Justice of the El Paso Court of Civil Appeals.

ON THE OTHER HAND—

Jim Langdon's Opponent Is a 10-Time Loser!

Jesse Owens, 69-year-old attorney, is still running for office after 38 years and TEN DEFEATS. He has lost the following races:

1926—Defeated for Sheriff of Foard County by L. D. Campbell.
1930—Defeated for District Attorney by John Meyers.
1932—Defeated for District Attorney by Ed Gossett.
1940—Defeated for District Attorney by T. Gene Rogers.
1946—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by Tom L. Beauchamp.
1952—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by K. K. Woodley.
1956—Defeated for Court of Criminal Appeals by W. A. Morrison.
1958—Defeated for District Judge by Tom Davis.
1960—Defeated for Court of Civil Appeals by James Denton.
1962—Defeated for Texas Supreme Court by Meade F. Griffin.

PROPOSED NEW PIPELINES

WOULD MEAN LOWER PRICES FOR CUSTOMERS IN SOUTHWEST

El Paso Natural Gas Company's Annual Report for 1963 tells of the company's new plans for bringing needed natural gas supplies to Southern California.

This is good news, not only for residents of Southern California—but also for El Paso Natural's customers throughout the Southwest.

The reason? El Paso Natural's proposal, if approved by the Federal Power Commission, will mean another reduction in the price of natural gas furnished by El Paso Natural in the Southwest, as well as California.

The broad-scale rate reduction will be made possible through economies resulting from greater use of existing facilities to move gas from major Southwest fields located nearest to California.

Thus, gas consumers in the Southwest have a direct interest in the proceedings now under way before the Federal Power Commission to determine how Southern California's long term needs should be supplied.

We believe El Paso Natural's proposals offer unequalled benefits for consumers in the Southwest and in California. They assure dependable gas supplies in ample quantity—and another cut in the price of gas.

"Time 'n Tempo" Plays To Crowded Auditorium In Premiere Performance

An outstanding musical "Time 'n Tempo" directed by Kathleen Robinson attracted a near capacity crowd in the new High School auditorium Tuesday night, March 7. The audience was treated to a rare delight of musical excellence by choirs from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. The young students responded with a peerless performance under the remarkable direction of Miss Robinson.

"Another Op'nin' Another Show" from the musical "Kiss Me Kate" provided a striking opening for an evening filled with "Time 'n Tempo." Fifth and sixth grade choirs concluded the first section of the program with three selections taken from Rodgers and Hammerstein musical productions. The two choirs displayed quality training as they rendered the delicate tone shadings of "June Is Bustin' Out All Over" from "Carousel," "Oklahoma," and "You'll Never Walk Alone" from "Carousel."

Fourth grade choir matched the exuberance of the older singers as they poured forth the melodious sounds of "I Whistle A Happy Tune" from "The King and I," "Dites Mol" from "South Pacific" and "By the Beautiful Sea."

A negro choir entertained the audience with their first rate singing of "Go Down Moses," "Tramp in," and "Strolling Through the Park."

A group of young girls from the sixth grade dressed in pastel colored dresses and carrying matching parasols sang "April Showers". Special lighting effects added a touch of perfection to the singing group. Sixth grade boys dressed in tattered dungrees and sailor hats sang with masculine gusto "There Is Nothing Like A Dame" from Rodgers and Hammerstein's "South Pacific." The fourth part of the program was concluded with sixth grade choir singing "Lida Rose" from "The Music Man."

The Guys and Dolls from the sixth grade captured the hearts of the viewers with their swinging square dance. Mrs. Edd McLeroy did a fine job calling for the Guys and Dolls.

In the sixth section of the program, the fifth grade choir sang "Hey, Look Me Over," and "God Bless America," and "I Like It Here."

The grand finale came with a climaxing tribute to America. Over 300 students from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades filled the stage to pay tribute to America's Armed Forces through songs. The 300-voice choir filled the auditorium

EYE ON TOMORROW

BY 1970, the United States hopes to have a man on the moon. And John Q. Public will willingly fork over more than $250 million in tax dollars to make this dream come true.

That's fine and good. For the rewards will be great. But what about life on earth? What are we willing to spend today for basic needs tomorrow?

Take water, for example. America—the land of plenty—is in danger of a serious water crisis. The House Science and Astronautics Committee has warned that the U.S. will probably face a critical water shortage by 1970. But the crisis stems not from any lack of water. Rather, it stems from a lack of the facilities to store, transport, treat and bring water from where it is to where it isn't. In short, we are water rich but facilities poor.

One reason is the demand for water in our country has grown so fast. Right now, each person in the average American home uses 60 to 75 gallons of water a day. And every year, the daily amount increases another gallon per person!

Why? Higher standards of living have produced a host of household water-using conveniences like automatic dish washers, clothes washers, garbage disposals and two-bathroom houses. Now even a backyard swimming pool is no longer considered a luxury.

So people are using lots more water. But there are also lots more people. Our country's population has exploded! Meanwhile, water facilities have not kept pace.

The National Water Institute says most water "shortages" are symptoms of a single disease: lack of advance planning. Obviously then, many communities are falling to plan for current or future growth. How about ours? Isn't it time for John Q. Public to "dig into" the matter? If we don't plan for the future today, we won't have enough water tomorrow.

So it's up to us. We must find out the facts. Spread the word around. Support our city planners. Then vote for the bond issues to finance modern water facilities in our town. Don't let our town die of thirst! Keep an eye on tomorrow.

Thanks For The Memories

The Bobcat Tales Staff is presenting a series of articles from now until school is out which will be written by different graduating seniors. The article will be entitled "Thanks for the Memories" and the seniors will recall and share with you past memories of their school days in Dimmitt High School.

As graduation approaches I see myself very excited and glad, yet sad. I have many wonderful memories of Dimmitt High School which I will never forget. There have been times when I wished I was a Freshman again but at the end of every day a door closes and that part of my life I can never do over again. To me, graduation is not only the end of period but the beginning of my life. Graduation makes me sad because when it is over it means I will never be a part of Dimmitt High School again except through the ex-students association. I have done my part in High School and now I must go on to further my education.

One of the most lasting memories I have is of the wonderful people of Dimmitt High School. As I leave I will see new faces and have to make new friends, but I will never forget my friends in Dimmitt.

All of the school activities and things I have participated in will always live in my mind. I would like to wish everyone in High School the best of luck and may you take with you as many wonderful memories as I am taking with me.

F.H.A. Week

F.H.A. Week is a national affair that went on all over the United States this past week. In Dimmitt it was quite a gay affair.

Sunday started the week off with a special church service at the First Baptist Church for the F.H.A. girls.

Monday, you saw many candy striped girls walking down the hall. Yes, you guessed it; it was color day. All the F.H.A. girls had on red and white to show that they were a future homemaker of America.

Tuesday was quite exciting as the boys were buying privilege books. They had no worries for the rest of the week as to where they would get their candy and coke money.

Wednesday was Teacher's Appreciation Day. They were given a little special token of appreciation to show that they are appreciated by the F.H.A. girls.

Thursday was the bang-up day. It was nothing but slave day. Many girls were sold and the boys got a little excited because the prices kept going higher and higher, but the boys finally managed to get their girls. Those sold were:

Alice Acker - Richard Connell bought her
Vickie Beyer - A. D. Schreck stepped in and bought her
Evelyn Waggoner - Arnold Acker was lucky and got his girl
Nancy Hays - Freshman boys bought her
Miss Britten - Jim Aldridge, Joe Wright, Lynn Campbell, Eugene Oldham, and Ronald Young bought all 5 pound of Miss Britten.
Michele - The freshman boys also got poor Michele. It seems that Michele loves to wash cars.
Janis Baldrige - The Sophomore girls out bid Belee Goodwin and I hear are giving Janis a rough time.
Jan Willis - The Sophomore boys bought Jan. Good luck with your slaves, boys.

Friday night was the Twirp Party at the Legion Building. All enjoyed dancing, cards, and other table games.

Saturday was Hobo Day. The F.H.A. girls got their fill of future homemaking for a while or fit it until they have their own homes. After all the jobs were finished, the girls trudged home, got cleaned up, and bounced on their way to pick up their dates to go on the windy ride to Glenda Minchew's house for a Weiner roast, games, and a program. After all was finished everyone piled back on the truck and came to town.

The F.H.A. girls had a successful week. We hope the boys enjoyed it as much as the girls did.

Lodge Now Leads Republican Race

After Henry Cabot Lodge's write-in victory in the New Hampshire primary on March 10, Lodge has now taken the lead in the race for the Republican presidential nomination. Before, he held about 16 per cent of the popular votes, and now he is in the lead with 42 per cent. The latest Gallup Poll ratings, taken from Time Magazine, April 10, 1964, are the following:

Now:
Lodge 42 per cent
Nixon 26 per cent
Goldwater 14 per cent
Rockefeller 6 per cent
Scranton 4 per cent
Romney 4 per cent
Others 4 per cent

Before New Hampshire Primary
16 per cent
34 per cent
17 per cent
13 per cent
5 per cent
6 per cent
9 per cent

At the present time, Henry Cabot Lodge is the Johnson Administration's ambassador to South Viet Nam. Due to the nature of his post, he cannot campaign politically, and yet he is the most popular candidate. He won a sizeable victory in the New Hampshire primary elections, due to the write-in campaign waged by Lodge supporters. His supporters are entering him in the Oregon primary election in May. This election will determine whether he will be able to win votes far away from his home state, Massachusetts, where he served as a senator in the late thirties.

In the California primary election, Lodge's name is not on the ballot, and write-in votes are not accepted. But, according to local polls Lodge would be the favorite with 51 per cent of the vote, with Goldwater in second place, if California voters were allowed to write in his name.

When more and more voters go to the polls this spring, one candidate will move to the lead in each party. Three primaries have already been held, in New Hampshire on March 10, Wisconsin on April 7, and Illinois two days ago. Other primaries to be held include Massachusetts and Pennsylvania on April 28, Oregon on May 15, and California on June 2.

Our Campus

I think we, the face-feeders of the snack bar, all realized how important Mrs. Buchanan was when we had to do without her this last week. We do appreciate very much the efforts of Mrs. Mayes our stand-in.

O Boy!! new teachers. The students of all the Dimmitt Schools were very excited as they learned that they were to have student teachers from F. T. A. last Thursday. The teachers reported this experience as very enjoyable as well as educational. We hope the students received as much from this experience as did the student teachers.

Excitement is building steadily as graduation and the end of school is fast approaching.

The F.H.A. girls wish to say that they hoped the boys enjoyed Twirp Week last week as much as they enjoyed planning the activities for the occasions.

The National Honor Society members reported their trip last Saturday as being very enjoyable and educational.

Balls have been bouncing everywhere as the tennis teams have been working hard to be prepared for the District Tennis Meet held here last Monday.

We want to extend our congratulations to those winners in the annual interscholastic league contest held here last Saturday.

New Officers

In an election held April 20, 1964 Steve Hutton was elected president, and Ginger Kemp vice-president of the Student Senate.

The candidates nominated to run for the office of president were Linda Schreck, Robby Lindsey, and Steve Hutton. The candidates nominated to run for the office of vice-president were Ginger Kemp and Bob Bradford.

Through the years, campaigns for the Student Senate have often been criticized because of their lack of dignity; this year, a new precedent has been established which we hope will not only last but improve in the future. Posters and various other sorts of advertisements were used to bring attention to the candidates; however, when the assembly began, most of the foolishness of past years, except for an occasional joke, was dispensed with, and the importance of the offices being vied for was treated with respect.

Each candidate had convictions, stated them and was willing to uphold them to the best of his abilities. Each person nominated would have been an excellent choice; however, there can be only two persons chosen to represent the school in this manner.

The officers chosen were elected by the students of Dimmitt High School; therefore, it is your duty to actively support and aid them. Steve and Ginger have been elected to represent and serve you; let them carry out their duties by remaining loyal to them and to your school.

Once again, congratulations to the new officers, May your coming year by one that will benefit both you and the student body.

Spring Has Sprung!

The trees have begun to blossom and the birds to sing. Spring is in the air and the April showers have begun to wash away the winter months.

Spring not only brings changes in nature; it also brings changes in attitudes. Students in the classrooms began to become restless, and eyes began to glance out of the windows. Tennis rackets, swimming suits, and shorts of all lengths are retrieved from the mats and balls.

The last six-weeks of school has finally arrived. The teachers are rushing to finish the book, and are making their last attempt to prepare the students for the years to come. The final banquets of the year are planned for, and the organizations began to sum up their year's activities. The time has also come to make plans for graduation. The seniors are receiving invitation to all kinds of parties. Last decisions are made concerning graduation night, and the future is looked to with hopeful anxieties.

Yes, school days are completing their final round for this year. It has been a good year, and let's not ruin it this last six-weeks. Let's not slack up in our lessons, work, or duties, or responsibilities!

Education Is Vital

On Wednesday, April 8, 1964, the students of Dimmitt High School met in the auditorium for a special assembly on education. The guest speaker was Mr. Reagan Brown, a sociologist with the Department of Extension from Texas A. and M. Mr. Brown spoke on "The Importance of a Good Education" and his speech was accompanied by colored slides. During his speech he stated that in ten to twenty years that only five per cent of the jobs in the United States will be done by unskilled laborers. At the conclusion of his speech he received a standing ovation from the students.

Band Brings Home Sweepstakes Award

The Inter-Scholastic League Contest of Region I was held at Levelland High School, Saturday, April 4. The 120 piece Dimmitt Bobcat Band, after hours of preparation, participated in this contest and came home a "winner".

The three pieces performed by the Dimmitt High School Band were "The Klaxon" by Henry Fillmore, "Slavonic Folk Suite" by Reed, and "First Suit in E flat" by Holst. Judging the contest were Wayne Muller of Amarillo High School, Melvin Montgomery of Snyder High School, Charles Enloe of Seymour High School, and Dr. Joe Haddon of Midwestern University judged the sight-reading contest.

Two schools in Class AA were given Sweepstakes Awards: Dimmitt High School and Muleshoe High School. In order to be eligible for this award, the band must have made a 1 rating in marching, which was held earlier in the year, concert and sightreading.

Some of the comments made by the judges about the band on the criticism sheets were: "I believe you have done as the composer would have wanted" - "Very fine band; I enjoyed your performance thoroughly" - "An excellent director and students make this combination a fine band" - "I enjoyed listening to your fine band very much".

These and many other things made this contest a rewarding experience for the members of the Dimmitt High School Band.

Faculty Member Is A Celebrity

Our dear English IV teacher has done it again. This time he won himself a trip to Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Newman participated in an American Heritage writing contest along with thirteen other schools and his theme was graded highest. The theme title was "Definitions of American History".

In the previous years, the students have been asked to write themes to be entered but the American Heritage Foundation sponsored by schools and organizations all over the United States decided to let the faculty put their brains to work.

This year, our school was sponsored by Wayland Baptist College in Plainview, Texas. Mr. Newman's winning was announced a week ago last Monday night. Mr. Newman will be flown to Cleveland, Ohio, along with a staff of history professors from Wayland College, on April 29th. He and other area winners will attend the National Mississippi Valley Historical Association Convention. Mr. Newman will attend this three day convention listening to great speakers of subjects concerning the American Heritage.

The results of the theme contest were a great surprise to Mr. Newman, and he is excited about his trip. Mrs. Newman may get to attend the convention with him. The second and third place area winners will be given a year's subscription to the American Heritage magazine.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society of Dimmitt High School was the guest Saturday at Texas Technological College in Lubbock, Texas. The members toured the campus as a part of the recruiting program of Texas Tech. They were shown through various buildings and departments. Those attending were: Nancy Hays, Lou Ann Hays, Danelle Crowley, Linda Morrison, Pat Moran, Sue Hendrix and Michelle Bertonneau.

Letters To Josephine

Dear Nots,
We are not putting your letter in the paper because of its misleading qualities, but we think you do need an answer. I understand what you mean and I will try to answer your questions. Most girls go on dates just to have a good time and they usually judge the boy by how he acts on a date with her and not his life otherwise.

If you are keeping your morals standards high, be proud of yourself and keep them that way. If you think enough of your own self respect, it will make little difference to you who the girls date.

Girls are the same nearly everywhere, but if you think you might find a better girl in some other town, you might as well give it a try for your own satisfaction. Josephine

Interscholastic League Winners

Dimmitt was very well represented in the Interscholastic League Contests that were held here on our campus this past week-end.

These people worked very hard in preparation for these events. They deserve a hearty congratulations for their work and accomplishment. Among some of the winners of the different contests are:

Broken Tradition

Dimmitt's varsity and freshmen girls played volleyball at Friona and brought back two victories. Winning these two games gave Dimmitt the right to play in district against Olton, Muleshoe, or Morton on Thursday night, April 9, at Muleshoe.

The varsity girls won the last two games to bring in their victory. The freshmen won two out of three and came from behind to win the last. This is the first time that the Dimmitt Bobbies have beaten Friona in recent history.

Par—Anyone?

Dimmitt's golf team moved in to take over a second place in district with a team consisting of Dickie Dyer, J. F. Latimer, Steve Hutton, Robert Lindsey, and Paul Easterwood. Dickie Dyer sparked the Dimmitt team as he proved to be medalist, best golfer in the district. Dyer held the low score of 114 for 27 holes. The team had a total of 545 strokes.

Dimmitt will be represented by these five boys in the regional playoffs on April 24, at Lubbock.

New School Shows Signs Of Age

Well, the inevitable process that ages any new building has started. This process is not the wind, the weather, nor any other work of nature but the students themselves. In the short eight months that we have been in this school, little things have been done to spoil the looks of this building.

One of the most serious problems that we face is marking on desks and walls. This seems to the average student, not to be serious, but a minor thing. Think of it this way, you mark on the desks, it is short and will come off easily. Then someone in the next period comes along and marks over the same mark and it is no longer a mark, but a scratch. No longer will it come off, but remains there to mar the desk for the next twenty to twenty-five years.

Maybe the most serious of our problems is littering: That candy wrapper that is casually thrown to the side, gradually mounts up. Just think if each of the 300 students in D.H.S. threw one piece of paper in the hall. It would be some mess.

Just think of the many people that have commended us on our school. Do we want this impression to fade away? Are we do want the memory of our school to remain clear and beautiful.

It is our duty, as students of D.H.S. to keep the impression of our school beautiful. Let's all see if we can do a better job in the future.

MRS. TEDDIE JACK THOMPSON
nee Miss Carolyn Kay Shipman

Shipman - Thompson Wed In Double Ring Ceremony In Tulia Church

The double ring wedding of Miss Carolyn Kay Shipman and Teddie Jack Thompson was read at 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 10, in the First Methodist Church. Officiating at the views was the Rev. H. B. Coggin, church pastor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shipman of Tulia. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr.

and Mrs. W. E. Thompson of Dimmitt.

Mrs. Pat George of Canyon played traditional wedding selections on the organ and accompanied Mrs. Donald Ewing of Hart in vocal solos of "Whither Thou Goest", "The Lord's Prayer", and "Walk Hand in Hand".

Background decorations for the ceremony included a large center and two side baskets of white gladioli and yellow carnations, and candle trees bearing white tapers, entwined with white gladioli, yellow carnations, and emerald greenery. Pew markers were yellow bows with white wedding bells.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin with scoop neckline and long sleeves tapering to petal points over the hands. The bodice shaped to a V in the back and fastened with tiny self-covered buttons. The skirt, straight in front, was designed with pleats on the sides and back sweeping into a chapel train. She wore a bouffant veil of French illusion caught to a leaf crown of seed pearls and crystallines borrowed from Mrs. Mack Thompson, Dimmitt, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Her cascade bouquet was of white feathered carnations with white satin and yellow net trim.

Miss Carolyn Hastings was maid of the bridegroom: Her cascade bouquet of honor. Mrs. Thompson was bridesmatron. They were attired in yellow satin street-length dresses with round necklines, short sleeves, and bell shaped skirts of unpressed pleats. They wore matching yellow satin shoes, white gloves, and yellow satin pillbox hats, with seed pearls and brief veils. The attendants carried crescent shaped bouquet of feathered yellow carnations with white satin bow trim.

Best man was Darless Goolsby of Dimmitt. Mack Thompson of Dimmitt served his brother as groomsmen. Ushers were Sammy Kirk and Gary Moore, both of Dimmitt.

For her daughters' wedding, Mrs. Shipman chose a green shantung dress with jacket, green hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was of feathered white carnations with moss green trim.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige silk suit with beige accessories and beige hat. She had a corsage of feathered white carnations accented with brown.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the parlor of the church. Laid with a white lace cloth over yellow, the table was decorated with white candles and the bouquets of the bride's attendants. The three-tiered white swan, pedestal wedding cake was touched with yellow. Miss Millie Doan poured the yellow punch and Miss Jeri Weyer served the cake. Yellow rose mints and nuts were also served. Guests were registered by Miss Kay Bradley. Assisting with hospitalities were Mrs. Ershell Dallas, Mrs. Elmer Wood, and Mrs.

For the 3rd time in three years, Fred Lorenzen takes the grueling Atlanta "500" at the wheel of his Ford.

FORD TOTAL PERFORMANCE WINS ATLANTA "500" FOR 3RD YEAR IN A ROW!

Latest win gives Ford 11 out of last 12 NASCAR 500 milers!

ATLANTA, April 5: In a blazing exhibition of total performance, ace driver Fred Lorenzen piloted his specially modified '64 Ford to a stunning victory in the Atlanta "500" before a cheering crowd of 75,000 spectators.

This victory marks the 11th time that Ford has captured a NASCAR stock car event of 500 miles or more starting in May, 1962.

In the past two years, tough, dependable Ford-built cars have carved out an incredible history of victories in virtually every kind of automotive event possible—from stock car races to economy runs, from rallies to endurance tests.

This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed . . . and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing.

Ford enters special cars in open competition, in addition to its extensive laboratory and test track programs, because competition provides an intensity of testing that no proving ground alone can provide.

The lessons Ford has learned in racing have already led directly to such refinements as a stronger rear axle, streamlined "fastback" styling, better brakes and an improved ignition system.

Because Ford enters open competition, the cars at your Ford Dealer's are stronger, better handling, safer and thrifter in the long run. They're built for total performance.

VISITS IN BELL HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Griffith of Lubbock were guests Sunday in the home of her brother, Elmo Bell and Mrs. Bell.

453 Soil Tests Completed Here

The three soil testing laboratories operated by Texas A & M University's Agricultural Extension Service at College Station, Seymour and Lubbock were busy during January and February. County Agent Charles Hottel said he had received information from C.D. Welch, Extension Soil Chemist, that the number of soil samples handled by the three facilities represented a 50 per cent increase over the same two months of 1963.

A total of 453 samples were submitted for testing by Castro County farmers, Hottel said. The total for Texas was 10,058 samples and reflects, according to the information from Welch, the ever increasing interest that Texas agriculturists are showing in soil fertility improvement programs. The increase was noticeably high in the High and Rolling Plains sectors.

The county agent said the Extension Service in co-operation with the National Plant Food Institute had made available a folder which emphasizes that farm profits depend on high acre yields and the value of following recommended practices, including soil testing and using fertilizer. Copies of the folder are available from Hottel's office, he said.

Welch also said the spring rush seems to be over and that the laboratories can get results back on soil samples submitted now within a week to ten days.

The county invited farmers who have questions regarding the recommendations received from the testing laboratory to come by his office for additional information.

In addition to the samples analyzed for Texas farmers and ranchmen, the laboratories also received soil samples from eight other states and Mexico to give their work a national and international flavor, the county agent said.

Summaries Show Alkalinity And Organic Status

Texas A & M University tests show that most Castro County soils are alkaline and generally low in organic matter. This comes from soil test summaries prepared by Jim Valentine of University Soil Testing Lab in Lubbock.

Most Castro County soils tested in the soil reaction range from 7.4 to 8.3 About 42 per cent tested in the mildly alkaline range and 42 per cent tested in the moderately alkaline.

Surprisingly, almost 15 per cent of the soils tested in the slightly acid to neutral range.

The ideal range for good crop production is up to pH of 7.9. In this range, minor element availability is usually good and phosphorus can be efficiently used by plants.

In the moderately alkaline range of 7.9 and above, free calcium carbonate is usually present. As this increases in the soil, minor element availability is decreased and phosphorus needs to be banded for most efficient use. Yields will normally be lower at higher pH values.

Alkalinity or pH of a soil will usually increase with time. This is due to the presence of calcium in irrigation water. Calcium accumulates slowly as irrigation water is applied and, over a period of years, alkalinity will increase.

Brown clay and clay loam soils will usually test lower in pH than will sandy loam soils. Nearly all gray soils will have a pH of 7.9 or above and are usually highly calcareous.

The organic matter summary for Castro County shows that most soil range from 1.0 to 1.5 per cent. Approximately 10 per cent of the soils have less than 1 per cent organic matter and about 10 per cent have more than 1.5 per cent. No samples tested from Castro County contained more than 2 per cent organic matter.

Nazareth F.H.A. Chapter Conducts Candlelite Installation Ceremony

Nazareth F.H.A. officers for 1964-1965 were installed Thursday night in an impressive candlelite ceremony in the Nazareth School cafeteria.

Opening remarks of installation program were made by Valeria Ball outgoing president. The Chapter sang the F.H.A. Prayer song after which Chapter mothers and the Chapter advisor, Mrs. King were honored with red rose corsages.

Highlighting the evening was the revelation of "Miss F.H.A." Valeria Ball was selected "Miss F.H.A." She is a senior and served as F.H.A. president for the past year.

Shirley Brockman who earned her State F.H.A. degree last year presented the Junior degree and Chapter degrees to girls earning the honor.

Freshmen girls receiving junior degrees include Shirley Acker, Magdeline Birkenfeld, Stephanie Birkenfeld, Gail Dobmeier, Nancy Drerup, Raeline Schulte, Geneva Wethington and Joy Wilhelm.

Sophomores receiving Chapter degrees were Joan Acker, Monica Brockman, Suzanne Dobmeier, Sandra Huseman, Yvonne Huseman, Beth Pohlmeier, Ilene Lupton, Viola Schacher and Janice Steiert.

In the candlelite installation service the eight purposes of F.H.A. were presented with the lighting of a white taper from a central red taper.

Then incoming officers stepped forward individually to state her duties and pledge to fulfill her office. Officers for 1964-65 are Viola Schacher, president Raeline Schulte, vice-president; Sandra Huseman, secretary; Beth Pohlmeier, treasurer; Janice Steiert, parliamentarian; Nancy Drerup, reporter; Joy Wilhelm, historian; and Ilene Lupton, song leader.

Valeria Ball, outgoing president, presented the gavel to incoming president, Viola Schacher. The following speech was given by outgoing president. "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world". With this phrase we gather in our view the responsibility of the homemaker and mother," declared Valeria.

"It has been said that even in the cradle our reactions are formed, for better or for worse, we are conditioned by the attitudes and conditions of the home," she continued.

"As homemakers we are taught that life is a storehouse with many doors, if we obey the laws which are moral and right, we will be able to open them and receive the joy and happiness which these walls hold."

"On the key ring of the homemaker there are many keys," the president told the group.

"Turn the key of truth and you may hear a voice say 'Seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness many things will be added unto you.'"

"Open the door of honor and you will find a room filled with faith and honesty. In the room of justice you shall view things as they really are. Combined in the room of love and purity are moral truths and deep spiritual experiences."

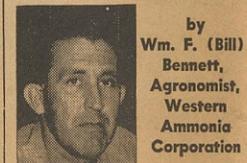

Then Valeria said, "Finally I give to you the Master Key. For in it you will find a homemaker's clue, it will tell you where a happy home key can be found by me and also by you. Homemaking is needed wherever you go, you learn how to cook and mop a floor, but where is the key to a happy home's door? Much more than homemaking arts are needed. I'm sure, a tender heart that's lovely and pure someone that's willing their love to share is the master key to the happy home's door."

The president concluded, "If you are a good worker and participator, you're on the road to a happy homemaker. Yes, this is the key to a home's well success. The Master Key to a home's great happiness."

A salad supper followed the program in the cafeteria.

Miss Janice Steiert will be attending the State F.H.A. Convention in Austin April 30 with Mrs. King and Viola Schacher, president. Janice was awarded this trip by earning the most points in the local F.H.A. Chapter this year.

AMMO NOTES

by Wm. F. (Bill) Bennett, Agronomist, Western Ammonia Corporation

PLANT NUTRIENT UPTAKE

The manner in which plants obtain nutrients from the soil is controversial. Several theories and ideas prevail.

The Soil Solution Theory suggests that plant nutrients which are in solution in the soil are carried into the plant as water enters the root system. The nitrate ion is a good example of this theory. It stays in the soil solution and apparently enters the plant as moisture is taken up.

The Contact or Exchange Theory is somewhat more complicated. The root comes into contact with the soil particle. Since both the soil and the root have negatively charged surfaces, positive ions are exchanged between the root and soil. An example is the potassium ion. Hydrogen from the root is exchanged with potassium in the soil. Once on the root surface, the potassium moves into the plant.

The Selective Absorption Theory is closely related to the contact theory. This assumes that the plant can select the plant nutrients it absorbs. To illustrate, visualize a conveyor system between the root and soil particle and soil solution. The conveyor has different types of sites or systems for each element. Perhaps a small slot for the small potassium ion or a large slot for the large calcium ion. If the site for a particular element is empty, the conveyor would move out of the root into the soil and pick up that element, then move back into the root. If the plant needs that nutrient for proper nutrition, it will be pulled off the conveyor and used—if it is not needed, it will stay on the conveyor until needed. The plant actually selectively absorbs the nutrients it needs.

It has been fairly well proven that all three of these systems are operative in plant nutrient uptake. The system at work depends on the type of nutrient, its electrical charge, the type of plant and the exchange capacity of both the soil and the plant root.

Senator YARBOROUGH'S REPORT

Dear Fellow Texan: My report this week is on a sad event in our nation's history, the passing away of General Douglas MacArthur, the greatest pro-consul ever to serve this Republic.

His great achievement in Japan is not yet fully realized by the American people. When the occupation of Japan began in August, 1945 I was there. Its cities were black scars on the land. Two of them, Hiroshima and Nagasaki, had been incinerated with atom bombs.

Millions of lives had been lost by Japan in the war. Tens of millions of its people were homeless. Its navy and merchant marine, the lifeline of the small island empire, had been utterly destroyed. Millions of its soldiers, gone from Japan for four years of war, were prisoners of war on distant islands.

The resources of Japan were drained. Ruin and famine stalked the land. Even their religious faith—that the emperor was the god-head and couldn't lose the war—had been disproven, destroyed. The bitterest war this nation ever fought left the defeated people of Japan embittered and fearful.

They had experienced four and a half years of destruction, defeat and despair. They were a proud and intelligent people who had never known defeat or occupation. With their losses, their sacrifices, their deprivation all around them, they looked up from the ruins to see the victorious troops occupying every city and crossroads.

Commanding those troops was a man of destiny, the only U. S. Congressional Medal of Honor winner whose father also had been a U.S. Congressional Medal of Honor winner, General Douglas MacArthur.

Twice in my lifetime I served in the Armed Forces of this Republic under General MacArthur. Once in my youth for a year as a cadet at West Point, where he had returned from his glamorous and victorious record with the Rainbow Division in World War I as a young brigadier general, to become superintendent; and a quarter of a century later as a lieutenant colonel in the Army in World War II, I served as chief military government officer under his command in Japan for nine months, my area being one-seventh of the area and population of Japan. In the succeeding years, I corresponded with him during his retirement.

General MacArthur was a soldier. I know of no higher tribute to pay to a man who dedicated his life to soldiering and who did it so well for this Republic, with a flair that inspired all Americans. His actions in Japan, his protection of private property, protection of civilians, protection of their rights, will go down as one of the greatest accomplishments of an occupying power in the history of this Republic or in the history of mankind.

In 1961, General MacArthur was sent back to Japan by our late beloved President John F. Kennedy. There, on his last trip to Japan, General MacArthur told the people that war had become too expensive for anyone to win. And in his final speech to his old comrades in the Pacific, he said:

"What, you may well ask, will be the end of all this? I would not know, but I would hope that our beloved country will drink deep from the chalice of courage." That was good night from General Douglas MacArthur.

There's a PIONEER sorghum to fit your farming conditions

Regardless of your soil's fertility—whether it's dryland or irrigated—whatever your needs or farming conditions, there's a Pioneer grain sorghum for you. And like hundreds of other High Plains farmers, you'll like the high, harvestable yields you get with Pioneer brand grain sorghum.

Short, stiff stalks, uniform head height, good head exertion and strong standability all add up to smooth combining with Pioneer grain sorghum. Your combine takes in less plant to get the grain. Harvesting losses are cut to a minimum. This means more grain across the scale next fall.

Ask your Pioneer salesman about the varieties for your soil and planting plans. Remember, you're on safe ground with Pioneer brand sorghum.

Mollie Grisham Receives Honors For Fifty Years Of School Teaching

Miss Mollie Grisham was honored Tuesday evening, March 31 in a surprise program presented by the Dimmitt Classroom Teachers Association for 50 years of loyal service in Public Schools.

Six fourth grade teachers gathered for a panel discussion with Miss Grisham being one of the panel members. In the farce panel, Miss Grisham was assigned the topic of music education in rural school. The other panel members preceded to reveal the story of Miss Mollie's life as a teacher. The following history was read by panel members to the delighted audience and the surprised Miss Mollie.

"Mollie was born in Erath County at Cow Creek, and has lived there all of her life except to the time she spent going to college and teaching away from home."

MOLLIE GRISHAM received recognition Tuesday night, March 31 at the Dimmitt Classroom Teachers Association for 50 years of loyal service as a school teacher. Paul Hilburn, superintendent made the presentation of plaque. See story.

"She probably claims a connection to the Mayflower since her mother was an O'Neal before her marriage to Mr. Will Graham. Mollie is the oldest of four children—a brother, Willis; a sister, Eula and a sister Jewel. We've been told that she always made a good spokesman for her family whether she was milking the cows or playing dolls."

"She has always liked school and even as a youngster in school, she enjoyed thinking up things to make every occasion lively. In spite of all of her fun-making and good times who was an alert student and did well in school."

Second panel member read "After Miss Mollie finished her secondary schooling and was ready to start making her own money, she took a test for a teaching certificate. She passed it with flying colors and was given a six year certificate. So through lots of talking and scheming, she was given her first job in her home community of Cow Creek in 1913. She taught there for four years."

"Miss Mollie's beginning salary was $50 per month but her greatest reward was that she received much personal satisfaction from teaching. Those terms were only six months long instead of our regular nine months."

"We don't know why Miss Mollie moved on to 'greener pastures' but she went to Comanche County the fifth year of her teaching. She stayed there only one year. Miss Mollie, did you get 'itchy' feet and want to move on to still greener pastures?"

"In 1918 Miss Mollie decided that she'd better get some schooling if she intended to stay ahead of the 'kids.' She attended Denton Normal Sub College which is now North Texas State University. She went from 1918-19 and started work on her bachelor degree."

"Miss Mollie wandered off up into Oklahoma to teach after this year of schooling. She taught at Paul's Valley, Oklahoma until the 'Indians' chased her out in 1922. She went back to Comanche in Comanche County and really put roots down there for she taught there in this one school for 25 years."

Fourth panel member revealed "Now, Miss Mollie has been around. She had no intention of 'Letting the moss grow under her feet.' She tried all of the colleges that would accept her. She received her Bachelor's degree from North Texas State in 1935 and her Master's from Hardin-Simmons in 1950. She has also done work at John Tarleton College, Howard Payne College, University of Colo., Texas Tech and University of California."

"So, you can see that Miss Mollie has entered many doors of higher education."

"Her thesis was entitled 'Experimental Study of Creative Music Procedure in the Third Grade.'"

"Miss Mollie used her own third grade children to do the study. They wrote song and music and probably even a few dance numbers."

At this point in the program, Miss Grisham went to the piano and a group of Dimmitt teachers dressed as "The Beetles" (wigs and all) rendered several musical numbers for the audience.

The panel leader ended the discussion with the following comments.

"Miss Mollie taught at Coleman for three years, at Dublin for ten years and came to Dimmitt in 1961."

"Mollie, there are still some deep dark secrets that we didn't get the details on. We hope we haven't uncovered too much from your File 13. And perhaps we got things a little mixed up."

"Mollie, you'll forgive us for making you think we were having a real panel discussion. You've done more with your part tonight than all of the rest of the panel could do. It's a pleasure to teach with you and we're looking forward to more fun together."

A congratulatory poem was read by Mrs. Joe Cowen honoring Miss Mollie for 50 years of teaching. Following the reading, Mrs. Cowen presented a corsage to Miss Mollie from the Association.

Nola Froehner sang the following song in honor of the teacher who has spent 50 years teaching young people.

(Tune) "Put on your Old Grey Bonnet"

If children could but speak of you, I know just what they'd say of you.
