WT Utilities Announce Rate Cut

Robert Lee consumers of electricity will benefit from the reduction in the income tax collected from them by the United States government when the new rates go into effect next month.

A company-wide $1,100,000 annual reduction in electric rates was announced today by West Texas Utilities Company. One hundred and sixty three towns and communities served by the Utilities Company will benefit from the rate reduction.

The revised schedule of electric rates was filed with the City by W. D. McAdams, WTU local manager. The new rates will be effective with meter readings made after August 31, 1964. The reduction of rates is wholly voluntary on the company's part, Mr. McAdams said.

These new rate schedules result from a reduction in the Company's income taxes due to recent changes in the federal income tax rates and the increased usage of electricity by present customers, together with greater company operating efficiencies and economies.

"These rate reductions," Si Phillips, WTU President said, "are evidence of our policy of reducing the cost of service to our customers whenever we can. The $490,- 000 direct reduction in our federal income taxes, plus the improved operating efficiencies of new generating equipment we have recently put into service, as well as the new facilities now under construction, make it possible for us to pass on again real savings to our customers. Based on 1963 sales, the new rate schedules will represent a reduction of about 3½ percent company-wide."

Belles Win From Ranger, Ballinger Tops Tournament

At the Women's Softball Tournament at Abilene Friday and Saturday of last week, the Robert Lee Belles won their first game with Ranger, 10-9, then after holding Ballinger scoreless until the bottom of the 7th, lost the game when Ballinger brought in seven scores to win 7-1.

Ballinger then went on to win the tournament, with Abilene second, and Hamby taking consolation, over San Angelo.

Ranger won the sportsmanship award. Kay Prince of Abilene was outstanding player. Sue Wojtek of Robert Lee was one of the 12 players receiving all-tournament awards.

The game was played on a wet field. It is the last of the season for the Belles, as the school bell rings this week.

QUARTERBACK BARBECUE SCHEDULED SEPTEMBER 5

The Quarterback club has already kicked off for the year, with plans for the annual barbecue Saturday night of next week, Sept. 5. Proceeds are to be used for work of the club.

Last year a fence was built, with additions on the stands, and a clock installed.

CITY WATER NOTES

Robert Lee now has 400 meters. The water rate beyond the minimum is 20 cents per 1,000 gallons, among the cheapest in the state.

The pump which was installed several weeks ago rated at 500 gallons per minute, cost $1,500 installed.

The city is using around 200 acre feet per year now.

Services Held Wed. For J. A. Childress

J. A. Childress, 69, retired farmer and life-long resident of Coke County, died at about 4:30 p.m. Tuesday in West Coke County Hospital where he had been hospitalized nearly three months.

Mr. Childress was born July 24, 1895, in Coke County near Robert Lee. After his retirement, he moved to Robert Lee.

Funeral was set for 4 p.m. Wednesday at Robert Lee Baptist Church, with the Rev. Bill Beatty officiating. Burial will be in Robert Lee Cemetery by Williams Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Mrs. Walter Hester of Robert Lee and Mrs. Lorene Meredith of Monahans; two brothers, Henry Childress of Robert Lee and Dean Childress of Mesa, Ariz.; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

P-TA District 16 Officers Meeting For Next Wednesday

An all-day meeting of Parent-Teachers Association officers is scheduled Wednesday of next week, September 2, at the Recreation Hall, county park.

Local officers and members are invited and urged to be present at 1:30 in the afternoon. The morning meeting will be for district officers, with Mrs. Alice Cole of Sterling City, President of the District, which extends from Lamesa and Big Spring on the west to Ballinger and Miles on the east.

Ballots Mailed For Election of ASCS Committeemen

Ballots have been mailed out for the vote on Community Committeeman for 1965 in Coke County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Five are to be elected. Those nominated by the Community Election Board are R. A. Bloodworth, B. D. Gartman, Carl Hurley, Oscar E. Kresta, J. P. Rives, Lowell G. Roane, J. W. B. Robertson, J. W. Service, Otto Wojtek and V. V. Wojtek.

Voters are to scratch the names of those they do not wish to vote for and, if they wish may write in names other than those nominated.

All ballots must be post marked by September 9, 1964, to be eligible to be counted, according to a letter from J. E. Quisenberry, office manager. The spouse of a person eligible to vote may also vote.

Round-Up For Boys Ranch Goes Through Aug. 29

The livestock roundup which finances West Texas Boy's Ranch at Tankersley continues through August 29.

Since January 1, 1964, the Ranch has had to turn down 119 boys who really needed to be there.

J. O. Rudd is local "wagon boss". Livestock donated may be left at Key pens in Robert Lee, or will be hauled in for the donors. Call Mr. Rudd or Key Feed Store.

When you go to the auction with stock, any culls etc. you wish to donate will be sold by the auction company free and the funds forwarded to the Boys Ranch.

Supt. Dorman Thomas, hired the year around, was here throughout the summer—did some hunting teachers, and went out deep sea fishing for one day on the coast.

The 1964-65 term of school opens here today, Thursday, with buses running and the first day's meeting of classes.

The Silver Peak school will open Monday morning, with buses running at their customary time.

Dorman Thomas enters his second year as superintendent, Garland Davis is High School Principal, and Bob Jameson, coming here from Iraan takes over as grade school principal.

Following is the school calendar for the year, Robert Lee Schools.

HD Camp Held At Arrott Cabin

By MRS. FAY C. ROE

Making decorated baskets and tote bags were crafts enjoyed by the Home Demonstration club members who attended camp last Thursday and Friday. The camp was held in the Arrott cabin south of Tennyson.

Mrs. Lowell Roane, Friendship, was in charge of making the decorated baskets. The wooden baskets were lined and then decorated to be used for sewing, toys, picnicking and other household uses.

Tote bags made from burlap and drapery material were made on Friday with Mrs. Floyd Harmon, Green Mountain, in charge. The bags were lined and trimmed with embroidery stitches and other trimming.

Mrs. C. E. Arrott, Bronte Sr. Club, showed slides and told of her recent trip into old Mexico during the Thursday night program.

Attending the camp were Mes. J. C. Boatright, R. L. Page, Glenn Waldrop, Roane, Harmon, Arrott, Vera Allen, Pat Rives, Homer Phillips, Gene Halamicek, Linzy McDorman, Fay C. Roe, County Home Demonstration agent, and Miss Gladys Waldrop.

JEWELL DICKEY FARMING AT HAMLIN, VISITS HERE

Jewell Dickey was in Robert Lee from Hamlin Monday, visiting his brother, County Attorney Frank Dickey and howdying with old friends including a friendly chat in the Observer office and a renewal for the home town paper.

After he left here, Jewell worked 42 years at railroading, and now he has retired and gone to work on his farm up at Hamlin, where he raises grain and other crops for the fun of it and pocket money, when the seasons are good enough to put it in his pocket.

Hester Is Given Suspended Sentence

In 1st District Court here last week, Ronald Hester was tried and convicted on a charge of breaking and entering a motor vehicle with intent to commit theft.

The accused pleaded guilty and was assessed punishment at two years in the penitentiary. The sentence was suspended and Hester was put on probation.

Mrs. Jessie Smith and Rufus Sawyers of Denver, Colorado were among those visiting relatives and friends while here to attend the Edith Homecoming. Mrs. Smith is the former Jessie Sawyers.

Shift of Principals Recalls Role of Home Town Boys

As Garland Davis goes back to high school work this year and Douglas Dean goes to Jayton, a team of home town product school principals parts.

Mr. Dean graduated from Robert Lee High School in 1947, Mr. Davis in 1953. The term 1963-64 was Dean's fifth year and Davis's eighth year with the local system.

Mr. Davis, who was reared here, joined the faculty at Robert Lee in 1956, as soon as he had completed his college work, teaching seven years in high school before moving into the administrative field when he succeeded Dean in the elementary principalship last year.

Coming back to the high school now as principal and head coach, where he had been assistant coach before last year, Garland Davis is on familiar ground. He has been working summers toward his Masters degree, at West Texas, Canyon.

Douglas Dean entered the eighth grade in Robert Lee in September, 1942, when he transferred from a Dawson County school near Lamesa. Active in high school sports, he was a member of the Steer football squad which won the district title three years, 1944-45, 45-46, 46-47, and the bi-district once.

He could have graduated in 1946, but at that time was so engrossed in helping win football games that he elected to take another year for it, to help the Steers bring home the regional title, which the Steers lost that year by a score of 6-7.

He did his undergraduate work in Sul Ros College, Alpine. He has done graduate work at Texas Wesleyan, Ft. Worth; the University of Houston; and at Sul Ross, Alpine, where he returned this summer to continue his work toward a masters degree with majors in science and school administration.

Before coming here in 1956, he had held principalships at Gonzales two years and at Weatherford two years. He had served as elementary principal here four years before moving up into the high school principalship last year when Dan Turner resigned to go to Alaska.

Because of the old home town

"jinx", he was reluctant at first to come back to the school where he had been a student, but his brother, County Judge Jeff Dean, was seriously ill, and wanted him.

In an interview with Mrs. Jessie Yarborough, who gathered most of this information, he said he had never regretted coming, that he had been happy here and his work had been rewarding.

Dean was in the Army two years at the time of the Korean war, but was never sent overseas.

Guest Editorial

(Editor's Note: The following editorial is from the Big Spring Herald of August 16, 1964. The Managing Editor, Joe Pickle, is also secretary of the Colorado River Municipal Water District and in close touch with its members. The CRMWD office is in Big Spring.

Good Beginning

Big Spring Herald Aug. 16, 1964

A good start has been made between the Upper Colorado River Authority and the Colorado River Municipal Water District toward satisfying area water needs out of a new reservoir proposed near Robert Lee.

Spokesmen from the two agencies, addressing a joint meeting of the two boards here Friday, emphasized one fundamental point which argues for settling matters of mutual interest. Both are committed to trying to meet the water needs of communities in the area. Therefore, meeting the needs of as economically and as expeditiously as possibly becomes the over-riding factor.

In indicating that about 25,000 acre feet of storage appeared to be ample for needs of cities for whom the Authority is responsible, UCRA has presented a figure which appears within reach of reserves under CRMWD plans. Engineers and representatives of the two boards will sit down and seek to reduce the matter to a workable formula.

Gerald Allen, Robert Lee banker and chairman of UCRA, noted that the two groups had an opportunity to set an example for the remainder of the state in resolving water matters, and indeed they have made a good start in this direction. Charles Perry, Odessa banker and president of the CRMWD, observed that this would not be the last time the two groups would be obliged to work together, for within less than two decades they may both be pressing for the development of the Stacy site below the confluence of the Concho and the Colorado. Such enlightened attitudes can lead to the optimum development of West Texas all-too-scarce water resources.

COUNTRYSIDE

By STERLING LINDSEY

The Commercial or Range ewe lamb program has become a popular program among the Coke County 4-H Club and FFA Chapter members. Present indications are that there will be 14 groups of lambs on feed this year.

Much of the credit for the sudden increase can be credited to the grant from the Ford Foundation for a commercial ewe lamb program among members of the two groups. Joe Rawlings, in winning the Ford Almanac Sheep Efficiency Award in 1963, won a grant that established the sheep improvement program.

Members expected to participate in the program this year that will receive support from the grant are Sharon, Rebecca and Audrey Dee Walker, of Robert Lee; Jimmy, Ronny and Marcia Varnadore, Robert Lee; Keith Waldrop, Robert Lee; Nicky and Mike Arrott, and Jerry Parker, Bronte and Roy Lee Baker, Tennyson.

In addition to the Foundation program members, Barbara and Connie Blaylock and Carl Blair, of Robert Lee, will be feeding groups of selected fine wool ewe lambs.

Our breeding sheep division of the County Show in January will be by far the largest ever as a result of the program. Approximately 50 of the ewe lambs will be shown in the County Show.

Cotton root rot was not the problem over the County that it has been in former years. Our limited amount of moisture probably was the major reason for the small amount of root rot.

Complete control of root rot on a field scale is impossible, but deep plowing and crop rotation can reduce this destructive disease in next year's crop. Stalks should be shredded immediately after the crop is harvested and then plowed under to a depth of 12 or more inches for best results. Also, using cotton land in rotation with a grass crop will reduce the cotton root rot incidence.

Texas had no cases of screw-worms last week. The State total for the year now stands at 96 cases. In 1963, at about the same week, 304 cases had been reported and in 1962, a total of 10,267 had been reported.

James A. Gray, Extension Animal Husbandman, from San Angelo will be working on sheep selection on the following schedule: Thursday morning, D. K. Glenn, Bronte; Thursday afternoon, S. E. Adams and A. V. Hughes, Robert Lee. Friday morning, Floyd Harmon, Wildcat and Connie Millican, on the divide towards Water Valley. Friday afternoon, Bob Gulley and Nolan Pentecost, between Saco and Silver.

Our Home Circle

If you're going to pot a plant or two, it's all right to use some of the soil in your back yard or the nearby woods. But, you shouldn't use it "as is". It needs to be purified to make it as disease-free as possible.

Put the soil in a shallow pan and bake it in your oven at 180 to 240 degrees for 45 to 60 minutes. This will pasteurize it.

Now, mix the soil with one-third sand — also pasteurized in your oven — and pasteurized peat moss. You'll be able to grow almost any house plant in this mixture.

Don't serve your family the same cooked green vegetable day after day. You should serve an occasional, not-so-familiar green vegetable. And try these seasonings to transform your family's regular favorites into something special —

With snap beans, blackeye peas, or summer squash, cook a tablespoon or two of minced onion, green pepper or parsley.

Put a small pinch of herb or spice in the water when you cook lima beans.

A little vinegar and sugar heated together make a good dressing for snap beans or cabbage, with or without a few tablespoons of cream.

Point up the flavor of any green vegetable with meat drippings, butter, margarine, or salad oil with lemon juice, horseradish, or garlic. Or add bits of crisply fried bacon, especially to spinach or other greens.

I have a bulletin in the office "Vegetables" that has more ideas for vegetable cookery. I would be glad to have you write, call or come by for a free copy.

"I can't believe it," exclaimed a young veteran's widow. "I had no idea at all that Tom's Air Force time would count for social security. You mean the children and I will get monthly benefits? How much will they be? How long will they last?"

These and many other questions were recently addressed to Floyd B. Ellington, social security district manager in San Angelo, by the widow of a young airman who died in a tragic automobile accident.

Mr. Ellington's office is located at 300 W. Harris, San Angelo. Anyone who thinks there is any possibility they might be entitled to social security benefits may see him about it, and secure a free bulletin, Pamphlet No. 31, "Social Security for Servicemen and Veterans, or other information."

Sterling City To Hold Worship For Masons of Area

Officers and members of Sterling Lodge 728 in Sterling City have been invited to attend a workshop which will be held at 7:30 p.m., September 1st, in the Masonic Temple.

The workshop is being held to enable Masons to study common problems of Masonic Lodges and their operations. It will be conducted by John E. Atkins of San Angelo, chairman of the Masonic Workshop Area covering seven nearby counties.

The workshop is part of a state-wide semi-annual program held for the quarter-million members of nearly 1,000 Texas Masonic Lodges. It has been authorized by John R. Collard, Jr. of Spearman, Grand Master Masons in Texas. He urged all officers and members of Sterling Lodge to attend and said other Masons are also welcome.

Attending the funeral of Curtis Lewis at Voca last week were Mrs. Pearl Schooley, Mrs. Laura Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams, Pete Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Davis, all of Robert Lee.

Mr. Lewis was a nephew to Mrs. Schooley.

Observations

(A Personal Word By The Editor)

A couple of years ago when I was working in the Observer for John King, just before buying it from him, I answered the telephone and a big voice belated: "I want to know how you stand on the Governor's race. If you are right I want to subscribe for the paper, and if you are not right I don't want the d— thing."

Well, I spoke right nice to the man. "Mr. —, I am working for the other fellow, and I can't speak for him. If he has taken an editorial stand in the race, I don't know it."

"Hell!" was the reply. "You know how the paper stands."

When I tried to assure him that I didn't know, he finalled with, "Well, I don't want it unless you can tell me how it stands in the Governor's race."

And he hung up. Now in case anybody feels that way about any election, here is the answer in advance;

In the first place, my vote and editorial convictions are not for sale.

In the second place, if they were, I would want more than $3.00.

Here at this desk, we have been watching this campaign very closely. I am not obligated to vote for any ticket simply because of what the party once stood for — between the Civil War and 1930.

Neither am I pledged to support the other ticket unless I can be pretty sure that to do so would bring about some changes we need in checking the rush to National Socialism in the United States.

Privately, I have just about made up my mind, but want to watch it a little longer.

Will Make it Clear

My long time friend didn't like neutrality in the Governor's race. Anyway I go in this newspaper, somebody isn't going to like it, and if I don't go at all, they won't like that either.

Regardless of all that, some time before the election, we will make it plain who we are for. But when we do it, let me assure you we will not consign to perdition those who are on the other side. We have never done that — don't intend to do it.

Whenever the time comes when the citizens of this United States are not free to support or to oppose any candidate or party and use all available media in doing it; then this United States will not be free.

What is Liberty Lobby?

A publication that was brought under fire last week by a neighbor is "LBJ, a Political Biography," put out by Liberty Lobby, 300 Independence Avenue, Washington 3, D. C. It bears a 1964 copyright. Liberty Lobby has been publishing leaflets or "letters" for several years and they come through the mails out of Washington.

We have not circulated them, but some good people have done so. These people who have circulated these publications in Coke County are not doing so out of any evil motive. They have been criticized harshly by people who may not have given the subject near the study they have given it.

In the last few days we have checked into Liberty Lobby a little. Since they are in Washington, the FBI wouldn't have to go far to find them if they were violating laws of libel and slander through the U.S. mails.

Here on my desk is a copy of their letterhead, 1963. Names on it include as Chairman of the Board, Col. Curtis B. Dall, United States Air Force Reserve, Retired, who married a daughter of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Another member of the Board is

Lt. Gen. Geo. B. Stratemeyer, U.S.A.F. Retired, famous in World War II for his outstanding military record. Another is former General is Brig. Richard B. Moran, U.S. Army, retired. Altogether there are thirty members on the board.

We have no call to defend the Liberty Lobby or their publication. But it is only fair to state these facts.

W. R. Denman of Baytown, in Robert Lee to attend the Bell family reunion over the weekend, came by the Observer office to renew Monday.

APPRECIATION DUE SUBSCRIBERS FOR STEADY RENEWALS

Appreciation is due our subscribers for the steady payment of subscriptions without special efforts on our part, except to notify each when the subscription has expired.

Postal regulations require that subscriptions be discontinued when they become past due. We find everyone gets along better when it is done that way.

Here at the office we fully understand that many who intend to renew forgot it when in town, sometimes fail to find us in, etc. When we stop a paper after the expiration date it is always with the hope that we may get to renew it soon, and in almost every case we do. On the other hand, if it runs on too long, the subscriber finds himself paying for months in arrears, with another subscription due soon.

Thanks to our subscribers for their prompt renewals. Occasionally one is paid and we don't get it credited properly. If that has happened to you, let us know at once. — Editor.

Word from Moscow is that the beer supply there is drying up. That grieves us sorely, but maybe we can endure our grief.

"DIFFERENCES" ARE MERELY COUPLE OF MEN MAKING TRADE

The Upper Colorado River Authority and the Colorado River Municipal Water District have all along had some contact with each other from the time the District first began to consider a Coke County site.

E. V. Spence, Manager of the district, has made it plain to this writer from the onset that he and those working with him recognized the interest of towns in this area and the UCRA had in water from this project.

On July 20, Spence wrote G. C. Allen, UCRA Chairman, and mailed us a copy of the letter. The first paragraph of the letter stated that the District board had determined that the site for their proposed reservoir should be situated in Coke County.

The second paragraph follows: "It now becomes pertinent to confirm our planning to accommodate the needs of those who may be served from such reservoir. We therefore request from you a statement of the needs of your body for municipal and industrial water to be used in Coke County."

The UCRA has now done this, naming 25,000 acre feet annually as their need.

Comment: Up to the present, this will indicate there has not been any marked "difference" between the two groups, other than what goes on when two outfits are working up toward a trade.

John Kinsey On Navy Exercise Off California Coast

USS Yorktown (FHTNC)—John M. Kinsey, fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kinsey of Robert Lee, Tex., participated in an operation called "Exercise Bird Dog" off the coast of California while aboard the anti-submarine warfare aircraft carrier USS Yorktown.

The operation, held July 10-17 is designed to test the Pacific under simulated battle conditions. Fleet's combat readiness in strike anti-aircraft and anti-submarine missions.

Both "friendly" forces and "opposing" forces will have carrier striking forces as well as support forces.

Operations of this type are conducted periodically to increase the combat readiness of Pacific Fleet units.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McBroom, Robert, Linda, Tom and Marilyn spent from the 5th of July to the 12th of August on their ranch near Quemado, New Mexico, 50 miles east of the New Mexico-Arizona line.

They had rain every day, with grass a foot high and green as a lawn, but the country as a rule is too dry for much farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dusek of Lowake were guests of the Bryan Yarbroughs Sunday afternoon. The Yarbroughs were teachers at Lowake for ten years.

Observations

(A Personal Word By The Editor)

When Edith and Paint Creek and others were live communities, one of the best known families was that of Mr. and Mrs. Sam King, whose home was open to all who knocked at their door.

Their children and kin met here for their annual reunion and to attend the Edith homecoming this year, with some 100 people attending.

From Robert Lee and other Texas points they came, and from several towns over New Mexico.

We believe Robert Lee is proud of the two home town boys who have served in the school as principals the past year — Garland Davis and Douglas Dean. Their success here shows that a graduate of Robert Lee High School does not every time have to leave home to find a field of service.

The stories of their life and work in this issue were written largely by Mrs. Jessie Yarbrough, and edited to fit the occasion.

To Attend College High School Head Started Froggy's

Robert Lee has always been home to Garland Davis, who was born here on September 25, 1935. In fact, it is home to four generations of his family. His grandfather, Grant Davis, at 84, is patriarch of the clan.

Garland entered the first grade at Robert Lee and completed his public schooling here. In high school he participated in football, basketball, baseball, and track. In football he suffered a broken shoulder, but that did not dampen his athletic spirits. In Interscholastic League contests he was a regional winner three times, advancing to the state meet as a contestant.

He attended San Angelo College two years, and received his bachelor's degree from West Texas State College in Canyon. During three semesters at SAC he was employed by the old Cox-Rushing Greer Co. During the fourth semester he commuted from his home in Robert Lee.

The new high school principal's childhood name was "Froggy." He says, "I worked every day that I attended college. I sold Froggy's hamburgers from the window of a 10x12 addition to the family residence to pay expenses as I commuted to San Angelo. In Canyon I worked at a filling station."

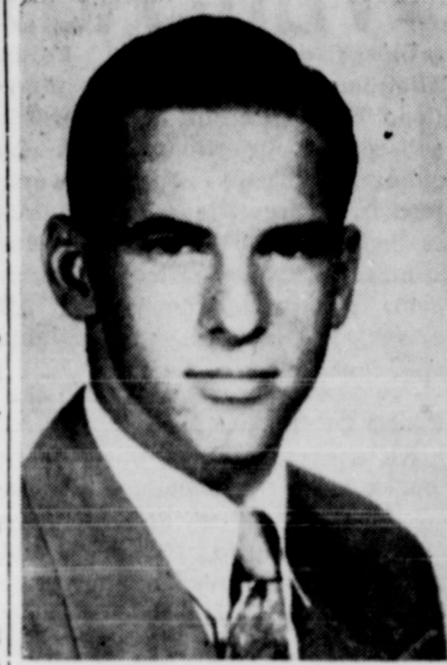

Froggy's hamburger stand kept standing until it became a full-fledged restaurant, which was operated by Garland's father, Emory C. (Doo-Dad) Davis until a few months ago, when it was leased to the present operators, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Williams.

Dr. Ralph Dusek, who went to school to Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Yarbrough at Lowake seven years, visited them recently in Robert Lee.

He is a psychologist with Army Research Institute of Environmental Medicine at Natick, Mass. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Missouri and his M.A. and Phd degrees from the University of Iowa, and got his foundation for his college work at the country school.

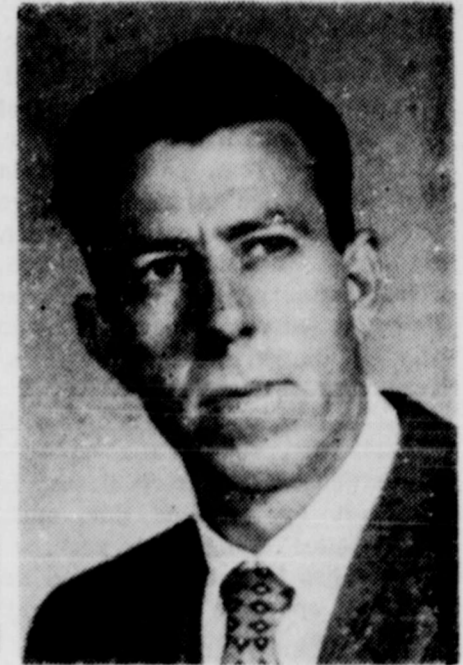

Mrs. Bud Johnson of Denver, Colo., spent last week in the home of her sister, Mrs. Genie Blair and visited other relatives here including Mrs. (Snooky) Jodie Williams who is receiving treatment in a San Angelo hospital.

DOUGLAS DEAN

He came back to teach where he had been taught.

A shorn wool incentive price of 62 cents per pound and a mohair support price of 72 cents per pound were announced recently by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for the 1965 Calendar year, which is now the marketing year.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

A great deal of attention is being focused on the plans for a so-called war on poverty. Yet so far, there really has not been developed by those who think big on the public payroll any reasonable guide as to just what constitutes poverty.

Neither have any reasonable answers been given as to why some people always seem to be afflicted with poverty.

Now, as is well known, C. W. Harder and widely acknowledged by all except by some of these public paid "big thinkers" many people are afflicted with poverty due to lack of opportunity.

And of course it would be heinous heresy for some of them to point out that a Big Labor monopoly of jobs and apprenticeships have barred employment to many, or that concentration of economic power into fewer hands with the resulting automation has created the lack of opportunity which leads to poverty. Neither would it be politic for them to point out that big government farm programs have driven many family farms out of business, and so on, et al, et al.

But what about the people afflicted with poverty because they fail to fit in with any social order. As every small town resident knows, there are always people who just cannot be responsible.

There are those who become addicted to drugs, there are the "winos," there are those who just cannot seem to get out of bed in the morning. Anyone who has lived in a small town where all aspects of life are more evident to observation has often wondered on this point. Why are there those folks, not vicious, and in fact, often most amiable, but who can never fit in, are the town's ne'er-do-wells, or sometimes described as just shiftless.

Big city dwellers are not so familiar with this element, although it does exist in the big cities. For example, over the nation there has been a series of so-called "civil rights" demonstrations. Most of them are conspicuous by the small percentage of any racial minority participating, with most of the clamor raised by the misfits who while in small towns stand out, in the big cities are never recognized as existing until some occasions such as have recently occurred bring them together at some rallying point.

This element, of course, figures large in any government statistics on poverty. Yet all the training, retraining, and re-retraining programs that can be devised, will not help a substantial part of this element become affluent citizens.

With the benevolent compassionate sense of reality that seems to exist only in small towns, people have long characterized these social misfits with the old homily "You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear."

It is quite apparent that the United States Treasury will never be able to perform any miracles with sow ears, either. This is a point that should be borne in mind when plans are debated to end all poverty.

Jerry Hester In Missile Practice At Fort Bliss Range

McGREGOR MISSILE RANGE, TEX. (AHTNC) — Army Specialist Four Jerry D. Hester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Hester, Robert Lee, Tex., participated in a Short Notice Annual Practice (SNAP) exercise with his unit, Battery B, 5th Missile Battalion, 517th Artillery, Dyess Air Force Base, Abilene, Tex., at McGregor Missile Range, near Fort Bliss, Tex., Aug. 9-16.

Each missile battalion, providing air defense for the nation's key cities and military bases, is required to perform one such short notice firing each year.

Specialist Hester is assigned as a radar operator in the battery in Abilene, Tex.

The 20-year-old soldier entered the Army in June 1962.

He is a graduate of Robert Lee High School.

Says He's About Decided To Join The Republicrats

It has been a little hard to decide whether to vote Democan or Republicrat, and if so, which is which.

Barry Goldwater has been campaigning for some years now mostly on about the same doctrines that the Democrats had before they went National Socialist in Washington.

Now President Johnson has about swiped Barry's foreign policy until the election at least.

Probably I am nearer a Republicrat than anything else. The Republicans have taken over the Democratic states right doctrine, while the Democrats have thrown it away and taken on Civil Rights, Washington D. C. brand, which in actual operation gives anybody about anybody the right to do anything, if he is young or black.

I may go Republicrat with Goldwater, but when I do, hope I don't meet Barry coming back.

What is a Republicrat? Well, something like one whose Papa was a Democrat who didn't go socialist and his Mama a Republican the Socialists wouldn't go, vice versa, or the other way around.

When I get the political picture drawn, don't know for sure whether to put a snout on it and call it an elephkey and ears on it and call it a donkeyphant. USB

In September 1963, Sun News had this paragraph: "Because Sun has agreed to the contract with CRMWD to take as much as one million gallons a day in salt water from the Colorado River, the way has been opened for impounding a second major lake on the Upper Colorado River. This is vital to the water security of mid-west Texas, according to E. V. Spence, general manager for the CRMWD."

Mrs. Kunath, Sister Of Dr. McDaniel, Dies in San Angelo

Mrs. Carl A. (Rachel) Kunath, 52, wife of a prominent San Angelo doctor, of 2535 W. Ave. J, died at 2:30 p.m. Monday in Shan-hon Hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Kunath was born Dec. 29, 1911, in Thailand and attended elementary schools there. She attended Wooster College in Wooster, Ohio, and Coe College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and was graduated from Johns Hopkins School of Nursing of Baltimore, Md. She was doing private duty nursing in Cedar Rapids, when she met Dr. Carl Kunath, then in his last year of residency. They were married there June 5, 1937. They moved to San Angelo in 1938 and have lived there since, with the exception of a four-year military stint during World War II.

Funeral was held at 11 a.m. Wednesday at First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Allan Guthrie, associate minister, officiating.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Carl E. Kunath of San Angelo; two sisters, Mrs. W. J. Clark of Antrim, New Hampshire and Mrs. Richard Trumbull of Bethesda, Md.; two brothers, Dr. John McDaniel of Robert Lee and Dr. Edwin McDaniel of Chiengmai, Thailand and her step-mother, Mrs. Agnes McDaniel of Eau Claire, Wis.

Rocky Counts, Jimmy Caraway and Carlton Boone are in basic training with the U.S. Army at Fort Polk, Louisiana. Leon Gregston has completed basic and is studying missile maintenance in Virginia.
