Steers Topple Jayton In Thriller Here 20-14

By RONNIE BAKER

Determination and team confidence was the key Friday night when the Steers edged out the smooth working Jayton Jaybirds here at Griffis Field.

You don't hit that hard if you don't have determination and you don't pat a teammate on the back if you don't have self confidence.

There was no giving either way, and it was a football game to remember. As I said last year, it isn't a team of stand-out players. Where one is there, there's two more right behind him.

First it's one, then the other. I don't believe I have ever seen the pursuit in any game as it

Officer and Directors Of Farm Bureau Meet Tuesday in Robert Lee

The new board of directors and officers of the Coke County Farm Bureau met Tuesday night in Robert Lee. It was reported that present membership has reached a new high of 250.

A resolution was passed and sent to the state convention, urging that the Texas State Farm Bureau take no stand against the present drouth relief feed program. Further arrangements were made to send delegates to the state convention at Houston, Nov. 8-11.

Plans were also made to hold the quarterly directors supper in Bronte Monday evening, Nov. 2.

Who Can Vote

If you paid your poll tax you can vote for both state and national offices.

If you are 62 or over, you are exempt from poll-tax payments, and you can vote.

If you are not exempt and did not pay your poll tax but did register at the County Clerk's office by the end of February, you can vote.

If you did not pay your poll tax, did not register, and are not 62 or over, you cannot vote.

Information is from the office of County Tax Collector O. B. Jacobs, according to instructions issued to him.

was in this one.

First Quarter

Robert Lee received the opening kick-off, and with a short return to the 26, started their ground game. Gartman took the first call and went for 11 yards and a first down. Then on three tries the Steers failed to gain and were forced to punt.

Jayton moved the ball for only six yards, then the Steers forced them to punt, also. With a short return the Steers started their longest drive of the evening.

With Gartman, Vosburg, and Wink slashing over the tackles, they moved 67 yards with Wink going the final 3 yards for the T.D. Thetford cut back through right tackle slot for the extras, and the Steers led, 8-0.

Robert Lee kicked off to Jayton with less than two minutes to play. Williams kicked to the 15 yard line, and Morales of Jayton returned to about the 35 yard line. The Jaybirds ran one play for 12 yards and first down. The next play brought no yardage at all.

On 2nd and 10 to go, the birds drew a holding penalty, and had 2 and 15 to go. With a quick rush by the forward wall, they fumbled. C. L. Sparks bounced on it, and the clock showed just 45 seconds left in the first quarter with the Steers in possession.

Second Quarter

This quarter was fast and furious. Time went by just like it was flying instead of ticking. Neither side threatened, with Jayton getting the closest to scoring at the 35 yard line before Gaylon Pitcock intercepted and gave the Steers possession with short time remaining. Jayton kept the ball most of the time in this quarter, but to no avail.

Third Quarter

Robert Lee kicked off to Jayton to start the second half with Williams again kicking to about the 10 yard line. Morales took the ball and left behind a wave of blockers, carried it all the way

Glen Roach Gets Teammate Vote As Outstanding Player

Glen Roach, 215 pound sophomore center, 1 year letter man, has been designated Steer of the week following the game with Jayton here Friday night.

Glen plugged the gap left when his brother Bill graduated from the same position last spring, entering Texas Christian University this fall and working out with the Horned Frog Freshman squad there this year.

Glen earned the spot for himself this year, and has been voted outstanding player by his teammates.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Tom Roach of Robert Lee. His father played outstanding college football, and was coach of the Steers some years ago.

A HAND TO BRONTE

Give a big hand to our Bronte neighbors. They came over here Friday night, got on our side of the stands, as long as there was room, and gave us a boost.

That's the kind of football "rival" to have!

Something To Think About

By Ulmer Bird
Editor and Publisher

Well, next Tuesday is the day of decision.

We haven't heard very many political arguments in Robert Lee.

Over in another town several fellers I met up with the other day started talking. They had already done all their thinking. There wasn't any contribution a sheep herdin' editor could make.

By the way, what happened to all the demonstrations and the riots? Underprivileged youth were just spontaneously rising up and tearing towns apart.

Then they spontaneously stopped.

What'll happen when it is turned back on again? One thing we can be sure. Those who turned it off are the ones who turned it on in the first place. Nobody else could do it.

Gus Hall, Communist leader in the United States, about that time was making statements about the coming election. In the daily press of Monday, October 19, he was quoted just before he made a speech on "The Role of the Left in the Defeat of Goldwater."

Did you see the article in Friday's paper about the indictments for perjury at Jackson, Mississippi in Federal court? The acting Attorney General of the United States ordered the U. S. Attorney NOT to draw up indictments ordered by the grand jury.

That would put the Federal court pretty well under control.

Right to Work States Better For Working Men

Here are some figures on states with right to work laws and those who do not have such laws.

Texas has such a law. The average wage per hour in 1962 in Texas was $2.32. In Oklahoma, without a right to work law, the wage was $2.19.

Arizona, one of the first states to pass a right to work law, has $2.57 wage, New Mexico, without it has 30 cents less. Massachusetts, which has always fought the right to work law, has 33 cents less.

Both labor and industry have been moving to Texas from California, which does not protect its workmen against labor boss control with a right to work law.

The 20 states which have the law are three per cent above the other states that do not, in their average hourly wage.

Figures are from an article inserted by Senator Carl Curtis of Nebraska in the Congressional Record of Dec. 10, 1963, page 22855.

Friday is the last day for absentee balloting.

Don't forget the Halloween Carnival Saturday.

General Election Next Tuesday Ends Hard Fought '64 Campaign

In many respects the hardest fought campaign in the memory of many of us is coming to a close this week, with balloting set for Tuesday of next week, November 3.

Democratic and Republican primaries in May nominated the candidates of these two parties in the state, district, and county offices, while national conventions in the summer nominated the candidates for president and vice-president of the United States.

In 1960, the last presidential election, 67,964,155 votes were counted in the United States, and the vote this year is expected to be at least 75 million.

With President Lyndon Johnson given the advantage by polls in Texas, his home state, nevertheless Senator Barry Goldwater has waged a vigorous campaign in this state as well as throughout the country.

Real Close in Texas Since 1952 In 1824, 140 years ago, the entire United States polled 261,193 votes. Texas alone polled 130,000 more than that in 1960.

In 1952, Texas voted for Eisenhower Republican by 969,228 to 1,102,878, and again in 1956 voted for Eisenhower by 859,958 to 1,080,619.

Texas then went for Kennedy in 1960 by a considerably closer vote of 1,169,248 to 1,121,699.

Runnels county went Republican in '56, '60, and '62. (Do not have the figures for '52 by counties). Taylor county (including Abilene) went Republican the same years, so did Tom Green County (including San Angelo).

Coke County went Democratic those years by close to the same percentage those other counties went Republican —55.7; 58.2; 59.7.

Hard Race for Senate

But Texas has never elected a Republican governor, although one of the U.S. Senators, John Tower, is a Republican, and another, George Bush, is making a vigorous race against Senator Ralph Yarborough in this campaign for the other place in the U. S. Senate.

On the ticket are three parties: Democratic, Republican and the Constitution Party, which has nominees for President, Vice-President, U. S. Senator, Congressman at Large, and five state offices.

These nominees have not made a serious campaign, but evidently are named to keep the party a place on the ballot.

Of course the center of interest is on the contest between President Lyndon Johnson for his first elective term, with Senator Hubert Humphrey as his running mate, and Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona, with Congressman Bill Miller for vice-president.

Goldwater and Humphrey are presently members of the U. S. Senate, Johnson came out of the Senate to be vice-president, and the fourth, Miller, is a member of the House of Representatives.

The polls will open at 8:00 A.M. and close at 7 P.M.

Voters who have paid poll tax or who are exempt by reason of age may vote in both the national and state offices. Those who have not paid their poll tax and are not exempt may vote on national races, those above the heavy black line on the ballot, only if they registered before the end of February this year in the office of County Tax Collector, O. B. Jacobs.

Dogies Win 30-6 Over Shorthorns Thursday Night

The Jr. High Dogies trampled the Bronte Shorthorns in a 30-6 victory at Bronte Thursday night. Darrell Pitcock and Roy Blair, both made two touchdowns with Pitcock, Blair and Doug Burns each scoring a set of extra points for Robert Lee. The Dogies will play at Trent this Thursday.

COUNTY CLERK, OBSERVER OFFICES OPEN TUES. NIGHT

The Observer office will be open Tuesday night after the polls are closed until Coke County returns are in. The office of County Clerk J. L. Tinkler will also be open to receive returns. Election judges are requested to phone the returns in as soon as counted to the County Clerk's office, 453-4501.

WHEN YOU VOTE

Our country provides for a secret ballot. You need not have anyone see you vote unless you ask for help. No one is supposed to tell you how to mark your ballot unless you ask.

There is only one place for you to write your name — the back of the little square in the upper right hand corner, which you tear out and deposit in a small box, deposit your ballot in another box, which the election clerk will point out to you.

Do not mark on your ballot anywhere except to mark out the names of those you do not wish to vote for. If you happen accidentally to mutilate your ballot by tearing it or marking it improperly, you can get another ballot in place of it.

How you vote is up to you. You can vote for all the candidates in any one of the three parties—a straight party ticket. Or you can pick which ones in each party you wish to vote for and scratch out the others.

If Democrat or Republican is stamped on your poll tax receipt, that indicates which primary you voted in. You couldn't have voted in one party primary, then go over and vote in another primary in the other party.

But this is a general election. You are the judge and you are the only judge as to what party you vote for or what individuals you vote for in this election.

It has been called to our attention that ballots are shuffled and stacked bottom side up on the table. When done properly, this preserves the secrecy of your ballot.

You still, however, can pick your ballot out of the stack if you wish.

Our purpose in printing these facts is certainly not to question the integrity of those holding the election — far from it. It simply points out the safeguards that preserve a free ballot in this country. — Editor

A special 5-cent stamp in tribute to Homemakers will be first placed on sale at Honolulu, Hawaii on October 26, 1964, in conjunction with the annual meeting of the National Extension Homemakers Council.

The stamp is being issued to mark the 50th anniversary of the passage of the Smith-Lever Act, legislation that opened the way to improved homelife throughout all America by providing Home Economics experts to advise women on better ways to feed and clothe their families.

Norman Todhunter, member of the Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee, designed the stamp. The conception was inspired by an early American sampler. It will measure 0.84 by 1.44 inches and will be issued in panes of 50, with an initial printing of 120 million. It will be printed green and light purple on paper on the Giori presses in red.

Auto Brought on a "Revolution" in Coke

Coke County's population dropped from 4,045 in 1950 to 3,589 in 1960—a decrease of 11.3 per cent.

In 1930 the population was 5,253; in 1940 it was 4,590. The loss from 1930 to 1960 in thirty years was around one third—31 per cent, to be exact.

All the oil development therefore has not restored the population loss due to the failure of the family farmers. It has helped to keep the loss from being even greater.

County Agent Sterling Lindsey reviewed the family farm question in an article in the Observer, issue of September 10.

In the meantime, the county agricultural leaders have compiled a study of what we have now with a view of maybe finding some way to develop this area to sustain more people.

We believe the family farm should not be ruled out all together. We still have some families on the farm. Things should not be made harder for them with increased taxation.

Some emphasis somewhere in the educational system should be placed on learning how to operate your own business instead of EVERYBODY working for the other fellow.

We have undergone a "revolution." That word is overworked and means too many things to too many people. It can mean an economic upheaval and change. Or it can mean mobs and guerilla bands, assassinations, and dictatorships.

But this particular revolution has been in our day like the "Industrial Revolutions" that have gone before.

When everybody was farming by hand, the first man who hitched an ox to a plow threw a lot of people out of work, for that ox with that plow could work ten acres where one man with a hoe could work only one.

Egypt had to adjust to that, and it ended up with hundreds of thousands of people utterly dependent upon the government—slaves of the Pharaohs.

Then when somebody made a steam engine, and then figured out how to hitch it up to a new fangled spinning wheel, those who had spun and woven by hand went out of work, and the result was a mass of unemployment, and an upheaval in the whole society. England went through some troublous times as factories developed, hand work went out of date, and thousands had to find some other way to live.

Again when assembly line production came on and the tractor replaced the horse, we had it all over again—and now here we are in 1964 and don't know yet what all to do about it.

GREEN MT. HD CLUB

Green Mt. Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. Dave King. Seven members were present. Gift ideas were discussed and refreshments were served during the social hour. The next meeting will be Nov. 2 in the home of Mrs. Jessie Harmon.

STATE AMENDMENTS

Besides the candidates on the ticket, there are three state constitutional amendments on the ballot.

The first, which would stop taking money out of the permanent school fund should, we think be passed. Originally the permanent school fund which came from the sale of state school lands and from some oil income on them, could not be touched—only the income from it.

Then several years ago an amendment was passed to permit taking not to exceed one per cent annually from the permanent fund for the available fund.

This amendment would do away with that amendment. If it passes, only the income such as interest, royalties, etc. can be used.

Amendment No. 2 seems to be one of those things we are always having to do to the constitution to meet certain problems that should be handled by the Legislature.

Amendment No. 3 allows the state to match Federal funds for old age medical assistance. It evidently is designed to make it legal for the state to co-operate with the Federal government in the Kerr-Mills act, but at the same time, by the wording, it would leave the way open to match Federal funds from other acts that might be passed in the future for medical aid.

Story of Colorado Municipal Water District One of Progress

The Colorado River Municipal Water District, now seeking to impound a major lake on the Colorado River just above Robert Lee, has achieved a notable degree of success in little more than 10 years toward its aim of being a water servant in West Texas.

From the time the idea of a multi-city water supply was first advanced, 18 years have elapsed. Only a dozen years have passed, however, since the district has been able to furnish water to its customers. In that time, 95 million billion gallons have been pumped—some of it 600 feet up hill for a distance of 90 miles.

While the district has Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder as member cities, it has never confined its area of service to them. Indeed, it has at least three other communities or towns obtaining water, plus seven oil groups taking surplus water for waterflooding. Annually, the system produces well over 10 billion gallons.

To accomplish this, the CRMWD has issued three blocks of revenue bonds totalling $19,100,000 and has never found it necessary to levy an ad valorem tax. The system has been operated and maintained and the debt serviced solely out of revenue from sale of water. A small supplemental source of revenue from recreation has been plowed back into recreational facilities to enhance the public's enjoyment of Lake J. B. Thomas, the district's main source of supply.

In filing an amended application to move the proposed dam location 18 miles downstream to a point above Robert Lee, the district has asked communities in an 11-county area to make known their water needs.

If and when the Texas Water Commission grants a permit for the lake, the district is prepared to stick out its neck to the tune of $12 to $14 million to finance the project. The building of main supply lines a few years hence would probably be much more than this.

The idea of cities joining to do together what was too big for any one of them to do individually toward adequate water supplies was advanced at a meeting of five cities in Big Spring in April 1946. J. B. Thomas, president of Texas Electric Service Company, made the suggestion. It took three years for it to jell—Midland, Snyder and Colorado City—had dropped out of the picture, but Big Spring and Odessa ratified the district and authorized their cities to contract with it for water late in 1949. Early in 1950, on the eve of contract lettings, Snyder returned to the fold.

Almost miraculously, the district floated $11,750,000 in bonds and let construction contracts all within a period of 30 days and plunged immediately into building a dam and over 100 miles of pipeline. Having the power under terms of its act to acquire and develop underground sources of water also, CRMWD was able to deliver water to Odessa and Big Spring in 1952 when the cities were about to choke growth for lack of water. Snyder got the first lake water in 1953 after the dam for Lake J. B. Thomas was completed. Within another year the big reservoir was well on its way to filling to its 204,000 acre feet (70 billion gallons) capacity.

With more water than was immediately needed, the district contracted with oil companies to use surplus supplies for waterflooding. This had the effect of doubling or trebling recovery, thus bolstering the economy of the area over a far longer period of time and sharply increasing and providing the tax revenue to counties and school districts. All contracts were made subject to municipal demands, and all were designed to taper off the longer they operated. Thus, oil company demands would be decreasing as municipal and other demands were expected to be increasing.

The district has faced many problems. At the outset, it was necessary to move location of the dam for Lake Thomas upstream to get above a serious salt pollution problem. To recover part of the lost drainage area, a canal was cut two miles long and sometimes to a depth of 100 feet to divert water from Bull Creek into the lake. This same salt problem has cropped up in connection with the new lake. Over three years ago the Texas Water Commission granted a permit to the district to impound a lake in southern Mitchell County, but only if it could demonstrate an ability to control the salt pollution. Otherwise, the water impounded would have been useless. Attacking oilfield brine disposal in open pits as the major source of pollution, the district got a no pit order in the watershed. Then it developed a plan to intercept the normal low flow of the Colorado River, which is strongly concentrated brine, divert this flow and use it in its waterflood contracts. The flood waters coming down the river would yield a good quality of water. This set the stage for applying for the change in location, for better foundations for the dam and some additional drainage area was needed to insure adequate, quality supply.

The district has experimented with injecting lake water in the winter into dewatered well zones so that it can be pumped out in the summer periods of peak production. It also has pioneered in automation of pump stations, and most of its eight pump stations are controlled by microwave communications. The district has over 200 miles of pipeline ranging from 18-inch to 33-inch diameter, has four storage basins holding nearly 200,000,000 gallons of water. Most of all it has a record and a will to meet West Texas water needs.

LINDA HEUVEL

Linda Heuvel Is Miss Citizenship For High School

Miss Linda Heuvel, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Heuvel, has been chosen "Miss Citizenship for the Daughters of the American Revolution" by the Robert Lee High School faculty. Linda has been an active participant in school activities during her past high school years. During her sophomore year she was a class officer and a member of the pep squad, basketball and volleyball teams. When she was a Junior, she was a class officer and favorite, FHA treasurer, a member of the basketball and volleyball teams, and a member of the first place District Interscholastic League Typing Team. Linda, now a Senior, is a class officer, President of the FHA, and the Worthy Advisor of the Rainbow girls, Beta Club Treasurer, a member of the pep squad, and a member of the basketball team.

Of thirteen automobiles parked on one business block in Robert Lee Saturday, only two had bumper stickers showing preference in this election.

From now on, its the non-stickered voters will decide the election. This is no reflection on the work and influence of those who speak out and show their signs.

But those who have been pretty quiet, doing their thinking, and making up their minds will probably make the difference.

For that reason it is not at all easy to predict the outcome.

DOE PERMIT

WSCS Holds All Day Study Tuesday, Oct. 20

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church held an all-day study Tuesday, Oct. 20, in the home of Mrs. Raymond McCutchen, with eleven members and the Rev. Dempsey Salter attending. Mrs. Delbert Shoemaker, W.S.C.S. president, conducted the study based on "The Nation and the Kingdom" by Charles W. Foreman.

Beginning with Lebanon in 1943, the author discusses nations that have come into existence or have gained their independence in the past 20 years. All except one of the 54 nations discussed are in Africa and Asia. Principal theme of the text is "The Churches' relationship to the new nations — what they (the churches) have done and can do, with emphasis on Christian attitudes and responsibilities."

Assisting in the study were Mrs. W. B. Gardner, Scriptures; Mrs. F. C. Clark India; Mrs. Garland Davis, Korea; Mrs. Russell Coalsen, Indonesia; Mrs. Dorman Thomas, Burma.

After lunch, Mrs. Shoemaker concluded the study with a discussion of the African nations.

In November the WSCS will observe "A call to prayer and self-denial" with an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Bruce Clift.

Polls open at 8 a.m. Tuesday, close at 7 p.m.

VOTE FOR THE TEXAN WHO LEADS THE FREE WORLD!

For the past eleven months, for the first time in our history, a native son has led our nation and the free world. And every Texan can take pride that President Johnson has met the awesome burdens of the office with courage, wisdom and restraint.

THE ISSUE TUESDAY IS SIMPLE: WHO CAN BEST LEAD OUR NATION IN A TIME OF CHALLENGE AND PERIL?

To which man do you feel most comfortable entrusting the security and well being of yourself and your children for the next four years—

A man who wants to turn back the clock of achievement . . . a man who has worked consistently against progressive measures in the Senate . . . a man virtually untested in a time of crisis?

Or a man who has dedicated his entire life to public service . . . who has demonstrated, under five administrations, progressive leadership in working for a better way of life for all Americans. A man who has proved his courage under fire . . . has demonstrated his unwavering strength to meet any aggressor with firmness, yet restraint?

PRESIDENT JOHNSON HAS PROVIDED RESPONSIBLE LEADERSHIP FOR MORE THAN A QUARTER OF A CENTURY

For almost three decades, President Johnson has been a pillar of strength for Texas and the nation. As Congressman, as Senator, as Majority Leader, as Vice President, and now as Chief Executive, he has written a proud record of progress.

DON'T CALL GOLDWATER A COMMUNIST! THE COMMUNISTS ARE OPPOSING HIM WITH ALL THEIR POWER

In Monday's daily papers, October 19, the Associated Press carried an article that Gus Hall, head of the Communist Party in the United States, addressed the annual dinner of the Communist newspaper, "The Worker" on "The Role of the Left in the Struggle to Defeat Goldwater."

WE WANT THIS

THE CONSTITUTION OF
THE UNITED STATES
GUARANTEES THIS

Amendment IV

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the person or thing to be seized.

Amendment X

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, and to the people.

Article 4, Section 4

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this union a Republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the Legislature or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.

The Americans for Democratic Action is a left-wing group. It is so on the authority of GOVERNOR JOHN CONNALLY, who called it that during his campaign in 1962.

On May 23, 1962, on a state-wide telecast, Connally charged, "The most vicious, dangerous, undercover political campaign in Texas history has been launched against John Connally. The architect of that diabolical plan is the radical, left-wing ADA and their cohorts, who stand for everything Texas doesn't."

Hubert Humphrey was one of those cohorts, and openly so—an officer and a leading member since it was organized. He was chairman of the ADA in 1949 and 1950.

The ADA is not a bit better now than it was then—it has just taken over the Democratic party since then. Connally cannot be comfortable going along with it now, pulled in from the top. (See column by Ted Lewis, Page 8-a (Editorial page) Abilene Reporter News, Monday, October 26, 1964).

THE ADA GOVERNOR CONNALLY CONDEMNED HAS PUT THE SQUEEZE ON THE GOVERNOR OF TEXAS, WHO SAID—

"They Stand For Everything Texas Doesn't"

From the ADA World, official publication of this group their policies are quoted: "We should welcome the Castro regime into the South American Alliance for Progress" . . . . "The level of federal spending should be raised by several billion dollars a year" (Which, of course means that the $324 BILLION debt would be raised) . . . "We urge that the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives be discontinued. (No more checking on communist ACTIVITIES and so it goes—abolish restrictions on foreigners coming to the U. S., reinstate those fired as security risks, disarm the US and build up the UN police force, turn the Panama canal over to the UN.

According to the Saturday Evening Post of May, 1952, at a meeting of the ADA a resolution affirming belief in free and competitive enterprise was soundly beaten by a voice vote.

In the ADA World of September 1964 the ADA "enthusiastically and unanimously endorses the Johnson-Humphrey ticket."

NOT THIS

BUT IN PRACTICAL
ADA-REUTHER POLITICS

Inspectors from the Federal government enter places of business to search their records without warrants, and to give orders as to whom shall answer the telephone, sweep out the place, or work by the week.

We Want Less of This

Legislation recently jammed through Congress puts hiring, firing, and services rendered under Federal Control because merchandise is used that ONCE moved in interstate commerce.

Goldwater Has Voted For Less of This

Texas, along with 20 other states, has a right to work law, which says that a man cannot be forced to join a labor union in order to be employed.

But the ADA-Reuther amendment to the Taft-Hartley Act would forbid these twenty states to have laws passed by their own legislatures. Congress would say states cannot pass right to work laws.

The present Democratic platform supports that amendment.

Barry Goldwater has supported the right to work law in Arizona, in the Senate, and on the platform.

THAT BRINGS THEM TOGETHER

Goldwater is free of it, and from their viewpoint that's what's the matter with him. The ADA has taken the Democratic party away from Texans and from the Governor. The Republicans have adopted in Texas practically the same platform the Democrats adopted in 1960. But Lyndon Johnson and the national party left us for the ADA. There's no place left for us to go. to the Steer 45 yard line before being brought down. Morales went for two, Judy for 40, and Morales punched over for the TD from 3 yards out, then carried for the extra points, and the game was tied 8-8.

Jayton then kicked to Robert Lee, and it was returned to the 30 yard line by Wink. Gartman went for 5, then Thetford faked to Gartman and gave it to Vosburg, who went between Carl Bloodworth and Gaylon Pitcock all the way, 65 yards to pay dirt. Extras failed, and the Steers had a 14 to 8 lead.

The 3d Quarter then was quickly over, after a passing attack by Jayton that fell short.

Fourth Quarter

As quick as the second quarter went, the fourth made up for it — seemed like it would never be over.

Robert Lee stopped two fine drives of Jayton, one on downs, and one on a pass interception by Thetford at the 25 yard line. Robert Lee scored its final touchdown after driving downfield to the 13 yard line. Wink got the call and he went in standing up for the T. D. — no extras, and the Steers led 20-8.

The Jaybirds came right back and scored on a good drive to the 2nd where Judy punched in for the score, no extras, and now the score was Steers 20, Jaybirds 14.

In the final seconds, the Jaybirds had the ball, trying desperately to score again, but the Steers held. On the final play, Ricky Hatch intercepted a pass and returned it 47 yards, nearly breaking through.

The game ended as the referee blew the ball dead on that play.

Steers Lead 8-B Loop Now, For 1964 Season

Robert Lee jumped into the lead in District 8-B Friday night when they trounced the top rated Jayton Jaybirds 22-14. At the same time, Trent rolled over Lorraine 28-12 at Trent and Hermleigh Cardinals won 14-8 over the Bronte Longhorns at Hermleigh.

In district play this places Robert Lee, Trent, and Hermleigh all 1-0, but if non-conference play is included, the Steers rate one ahead of the Jaybirds, who tied one, besides the loss here.

When they go to Hermleigh Friday of this week, October 30, they can expect plenty of resistance, as Hermleigh had a 4-2 mark for the season, and has proved a tough contender.

The Steers will meet Trent here the following week, Nov. 6.

Rated last week as third B team in the area, Jayton, first, the Steers must be now about top for the area again.

A Robert Lee man in Abilene the other day saw high school students carrying placards for one of the candidates.

With conditions as they are today, if students are to do their thinking they may have to do own thinking, one of the first jobs is what and what not to join.

Fall marketing of wool is about over, with many ranchmen who shear twice a year.

A fair average of fall shorn wool has been just under fifty cents, with some bringing up to 54 cents, and with lamb wool just over fifty cents, in the main up to 55.

One small clip with two sacks of lamb wool, five sacks of five months clip, brought 50 cents straight across net.

The price averages 4 or 5 cents better than last year.
