Robert Lee citizens have been busy this week doing their part on the Cleanup Campaign which is in effect May 27-31. Everyone is asked to get all his trash and rubbish cleaned out, and placed

Northside Church Meeting June 2-9

Northside Church of Christ in Robert Lee has a Gospel Meeting planned for June 2 through June 9. H. L. Gipson, minister for West Amarillo Church of Christ, will be the preacher for the meeting.

Local Minister Leo Copeland, in announcing the meeting, said that the visiting preacher is a "dynamic speaker and a devoted disciple of Christ."

He taught school for 12 years and holds B.S. and M. A. degrees. He has been minister for the Amarillo church for almost 26 years. In addition to his regular duties, he teaches speech for public workers in the widely known West Amarillo Bible Training Work.

Mr. and Mrs. Copeland and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wilks are among the many preachers and their wives whom he has helped train.

Gipson has a wife, two children and three grandchildren. He recently wrote Copeland, "I am looking forward with a great deal of joyful anticipation to our meeting."

Copeland said this week that everyone is invited to come and "hear the Gospel delivered by one who not only knows the art of speech but also knows the Christ of whom he speaks."

Services are scheduled on week days for 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and on Sundays at 10 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Most Firms Closing For Memorial Day

Most businesses and offices in Robert Lee will be closed today (Thursday) in observance of Memorial Day.

Some business firms on the highway will remain open to take care of local business as well as travelers.

All offices in the courthouse as well as the city hall will be closed, county and city officials announced. Robert Lee State Bank will be open, according to President Gerald C. Allen. Postmaster H. L. Lewis said the U. S. Post-office will be closed; however, mail will be placed in lock boxes.

Memorial Day was first observed in 1868, mainly as a tribute to the dead of the Civil War. However, more modern observances pay tribute to veterans of all wars in which the U. S. has been involved. The holiday is also known as Decoration Day.

in containers so as to be ready for the big "haul off" slated for Saturday.

Two trucks will be working Saturday to get all the trash out of the city. In the event that there is too much work for the two trucks in one day, another day will be designated "haul off" day in the near future. BCD President Hugh Lewis Jr. said, "If we don't get your trash Saturday, we'll get it at a later date."

Everyone who has an appreciable amount of rubbish to haul is requested to call the city hall and report that fact. Mayor Wilson Bryan said Tuesday that the office would be open until noon

Teenage Baseball Schedule Given

A Teenage baseball team has been organized and a schedule worked out which started Tuesday night. Games will be played each Tuesday and Friday through June 28. Game time is 8:45 p.m. Orval Lee White is manager of the club and Lynn White is assistant manager.

The climax of the Teenage season will come July 15, 16 and 18 when the players participate in a tournament at Hermleigh. The club played a practice game with a Colorado City team Monday night but came out on the short end of the score.

The schedule follows:
May 28: Hermleigh here; May 31: Ira there; June 4: Roscoe there; June 7: Loraine here; June 11: Westbrook there; June 14: Hermleigh there; June 18: Ira here; June 21: Roscoe here; June 25: Loraine there; June 28: Westbrook here.

Members of the squad include: Infielders — Dale Freeman, Eddie Meredith, Bobby White, Mike Mumford, Jim Ballard, and Lynn Beal; outfielders — Bob Thomason, Randy Smith, Tooter Fields, Pat Lewis and Buzzy Wojtek. Playing either infield or outfield are Ricky Whitaker and Gary Parker.

Saturday to assist the project any way possible.

Sponsors of the drive are cooperating in furnishing labor, trucks, and other equipment and publicity for the campaign. Included among the sponsors are the City of Robert Lee, the BCD, Coke County, El Valle Garden Club and other organizations.

Everyone is requested, if at all possible, to have trash placed in some sort of container so it will be easy for the haulers to load. However, it was pointed out that no containers will be returned; so those cooperating with the drive should not use baskets or cans which they want.

Mayor Bryan has requested the full cooperation of the entire community in the Cleanup. He emphasized the importance of the project in improving the town's appearance, as well as in improving health conditions and decreasing fire hazards.

Lewis said, "this campaign requires the cooperation of everyone in order to be successful. I would like to point out that only two days remain for citizens to do their part. If we all take part, we can all feel pride in the accomplishment, so be sure you have everything in good shape by Saturday."

Rev. Michael Gott

Voters of Coke County will go to the polls Saturday to decide who their Democratic nominee for governor of the state will be. On the ticket are Preston Smith of Lubbock and Don Yarborough of Houston.

Saturday's election is a Second Democratic Primary and was made necessary because no candidate received a majority of the votes in the First Primary.

Yarborough led the ticket in the First Primary and Smith was not far behind in a field of 10 candidates.

Pecan Baptists Set Revival June 3-9

A revival meeting is scheduled at Pecan Missionary Baptist Church, located west of Robert Lee, for June 3 through June 9. Doing the preaching will be the Rev. Michael Gott, widely known for his evangelistic work in the Southwest.

Both morning and evening services will be held. Special services for children will begin at 9:45 a.m. with morning worship services at 10 a.m. Evening services will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Gott, who is 25 years old, has conducted over 100 revival meetings, preaching to crowds which on occasion exceed 1,500.

He is a graduate of Jacksonville Baptist College and Baylor University. For the past two years he has been engaged in post graduate studies at the University of Edinburgh in Scotland, where he was instructed by the Rev. James Stewart, chaplain to the Queen.

In 1965 he was invited to serve on the staff of the World Congress of Evangelism in Berlin, Germany. That same year he traveled extensively in Russia and Poland as well as in 14 other European countries. He and his wife recently returned from a month tour of Israel and Greece.

The growth of Gott's ministry is marked by invitations to participate in two evangelistic campaigns in Great Britain in 1968. This summer he will conduct 18 consecutive weeks of meetings in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

The Rev. Jimmy Rogers, pastor of Pecan Baptist Church, said that everyone in the area has a cordial invitation "to come and hear this outstanding preacher."

clerk, reported Wednesday morning that 23 Coke County citizens voted absentee.

Polling places will be set up in each of the commissioner precincts of the county: at Robert Lee, Bronte, Green Mountain and Tennyson.

County Democratic chairman D. K. Glenn urged everyone to vote. "Even though there are only two candidates on the ballot," he said, "this is a very important race, since the outcome will in all likelihood decide who will be the next governor of Texas. As chairman of the party in Coke County, I want to urge all Democrats to vote."

BCD Discusses House Numbers

Numbering new houses was the topic for a good part of the discussion at Tuesday's BCD meeting. It was brought out that many houses are not numbered since a numbering projects has not been worked on in about three years. Lone Star Gas Co., set up the system, giving each lot a number, and they are on file at the city hall if owners want the information.

Bill Beatty volunteered to check with the telephone company to see if the correct numbers will be listed in a forthcoming new telephone directory.

Vice President Bill Allen presided at the meeting, in the absence of President H. L. Lewis.

A short discussion was held on the Cleanup now being held in the city.

Supt. Jimmy Bickley said that plans for starting the new school building are moving along. However, more work has to be done before the school can advertise for bids.

Thirteen members were present for the luncheon meeting.

EDITORIAL

Saturday is election day. Even though there are only two candidates on the ballot, it is a most important election. The winner will probably be the next governor of Texas.

The two candidate's thoughts on what constitutes good government are at different ends of the political spectrum. Don Yarborough is well known for his liberal leaning, while Preston Smith is widely known for his conservatism.

Whatever your political philosophy may be, this is your chance to vote for the man who can represent your thinking. There is a definite choice.

The democratic way is for the majority to rule, but if the majority doesn't vote this is not possible. Your vote is important in the crucial contest, in order for the basic principles of our system to be effective.

It's a shame for a minority of qualified voters to determine the outcome of such an important race. We urge you to vote Saturday. Vote for the man whom you think can represent you the best. BUT, VOTE!

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sims and Terri of Houston spent last week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sims.

Sanco Homecoming Set Saturday

Next Sunday will be a big day for present and ex-residents of the Sanco community. The 14th annual Sanco Homecoming is set for June 2, which will commemorate the 80th anniversary of the community.

The Rev. Wilson Carwile will be master of ceremonies for the day's program.

The noon meal on Sunday will be the high point of the homecoming. Everyone is asked to bring a basket lunch to include all the foods needed for the meal, except meat. Meat will be provided from funds raised at the homecoming last year.

The homecoming is sponsored by the Sanco Community Association, which is under the guidance of President Ulmer Bird.

Activities are planned for Saturday night preceding the homecoming. There will be music, singing and visiting for the early arrivals in the community building, beginning at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend and bring musical instruments if they wish to participate.

Bird said that those coming early can find camping ground, and those who wish to go horse-back riding should bring their horse with them.

During the day Saturday, tape recordings of the story of Sanco may be heard. Bird also said that those interested in a guided tour of the community in their automobiles should meet at the Sanco Store right after noon Saturday.

Sanco is the oldest community in Coke County which still has a post office and an active community organization. The area was first settled in 1888, and the community has remained intact since that time.

It was announced Wednesday morning that a cleanup of the Sanco area will be held Friday and Saturday. Everyone who will help with the work will be more than welcome, the announcement said.

AUSTIN, Tex. — Your Capitol is bursting with life on the eve of the most significant political and governmental events — the June 1 runoff election, the June 4 beginning of a special session of the Legislature, and the June 11 conventions of State Democratic and Republican parties.

Although there are 15 runoffs in Legislative races to be decided Saturday, the main bout, of course, is that between Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Houston Attorney Don Yarborough.

Probably not more than a million voters will decide whether moderate-conservative Smith or Liberal Yarborough will be the Democratic nominee for governor.

Each is reaching for the other's voter potential. Smith boasts of his 18 year's governmental experience; Yarborough, without governmental experience, urges his own "fresh approach" and "constructive programs," including lower auto insurance rates and consumer protection.

Even name identification — usually considered the wellspring of political success — won't be the deciding factor between these two. Both men have been in statewide races nearly a decade and are well-known names on the ballot.

Incidentally, the winner may find surprisingly tough opposition in November from Republican nominee Paul Eggers of Wichita Falls.

Regardless of whether Smith, Yarborough — or Eggers — is the next governor, the battlewise Democratic legislative presiding officers, Lt. Gov. nominee Ben Barnes in the Senate and Speaker-to-be Gus Mutscher of Brenham in the House, will be powerful figures to be reckoned with. Barnes admittedly aspires to higher office and Mutscher reportedly is interested in a long tenure in the House.

LIQUOR LEGISLATION DUE — Gov. John Connally's June 4 special session of the Legislature almost certainly will come to grips with important liquor legislation, probably including a mixed drinks bill.

A House study committee's report on how to improve present statutes has been promised before the special session begins.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, chairman of the panel, and House Speaker Ben Barnes have indicated the report will contain major, controversial recommendations.

Results of the investigation made by Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin — and his recommendations — also are due by June 4.

Connally has strongly indicated he will urge lawmakers to come up with a mixed-drinks bill as a part of his tax program. Observers believe that, instead of a straight booze over-the-bar measure, he will ask for legislation permitting the sale of liquor in small, one-drink bottles on a local option basis. This would mean that, if the bill passes, Texans still will have to mix their own but at least they won't have to bring their own bottles.

CARL FREDERICK HATCH SCHREINER GRADUATE

Carl Frederick Hatch of Robert Lee was one of the 75 college department graduates at Schreiner Institute at Kerrville Monday, May 27. Dr. Andrew Ellington, Schreiner president, gave the president's message. Dean W. C. Weir introduced members of the Class of 1968.

The baccalaureate service was held at 6 p.m. Sunday, May 26. Dr. Richard G. Ryan, pastor of Kerrville's First Presbyterian Church, delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

4-HERS LEAVE WEDNESDAY FOR BROWNWOOD CAMP

A group of 4-H club members left Wednesday at noon to attend the District VII Leadership Camp. The camp is an annual event and is held in Lake Christian Retreat at Lake Brownwood through Friday.

Training for leadership is the purpose of the camp. Boys, girls and adults attending will be trained to help conduct camps, rally days and recreation in each of the 22 counties in the district.

Attending from Coke County are Sheri Pitcock, Linda Blair, Joy Cervenka, Sharon McSutchen, Rebecca Walker, and Marshall Millican; Mrs. Fay C. Roe, county home demonstration agent, and Sterling Lindsey, county agricultural agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Walker and children of Odessa were weekend guests in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Walker. Other visitors in the Walker home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wayne Walker and family of San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lackey and children are spending a few days this week in San Antonio attending the HemisFair.

H D Agent's News Dept.

By MRS. FAY C. ROE

Beginning in November 1967, major pattern companies revised their sizing. Although the companies follow a standard set of measurements, their patterns differ in fit.

Shoulder width and slant, shape of armholes and necklines and slant of the underarm may vary, along with ease allowed for body movement and comfort.

Because of these variations, some brands will fit you better than others. While bust, waist, hip and back waist length measurements are a guide, you may need to try different brands of patterns to find the best possible fit.

When selecting the size, compare your measurements with the chart and select the size which most closely corresponds to them. When you select the correct figure type and pattern size, alteration and fitting problems are kept to a minimum.

Take snug, but not tight measurements. Use a tape measure that is in good condition.

Take bust measurements around the figure over the fullest part. The waist should be taken at the natural waistline. Measure from the bone at the base of the neck to the waistline for the back waist length.

For the hip inches, measure around seven inches below the waist line for half sizes, junior petite and young junior-teen; and nine inches below the waistline for misses, women and junior sizes.

Appliance Danger Signals

Sick appliances have warning symptoms as do sick people. If heeded, these warning may prevent fire, damage to property and dangers to personal health.

Here are the four main symptoms:

Is your appliance blinking on and off? If it is, you're being warned that there is a loose connection somewhere. It may be only a loose screw, but repairing it is a good idea.

Ever touch an appliance and feel a little tingle? This is another sign of trouble. It calls for close inspection for loose wiring or poor insulation. In some cases, the appliance may need a ground wire.

Watch out for the short circuit. A symptom of this is a shock from a metal base lamp. The trouble is usually exposed wiring.

Blown fuses or tripped circuits, after plugging in your appliance, point to a serious malady — an overload. This is a major cause of fires within the home. Too many appliances on one circuit throw your electrical system out of balance. Something has to give, and too often it's the homeowner.

Remember the fuse must be fitted to the size of your wiring. If the fuse will let more power through than the wiring can safely carry, it is not a safety device. Overheated wires, damaged motors and costly fires are results of using the wrong fuse or substituting a penny for a fuse.

When you get any of these signals, prompt action will prevent trouble and save even larger repair bills. If you need help, call a repairman. If you're constantly replacing wires, the simplest and least expensive answer may be new wiring for the home.

Dairy Products Plentiful

June's a good time to examine your milk intake.

The dairy industry again is celebrating "June is Dairy Month." And as you might expect, supplies of dairy foods are plentiful. In addition to milk, plan to serve such dairy favorites as cream, cheese, butter and yogurt.

Other foods reported plentiful this month include eggs, seasonal vegetables and vegetable fats and oils.

June output of eggs is expected to come close to the record large supplies of a year earlier. Eggs and milk combine for many tasty, nutritious warmweather beverages.

You'll see the supplies of fresh vegetable on the increase this month. You'll probably find good quality field-grown celery, beans, cabbage, lettuce, green peppers, cucumbers and asparagus.

Supplies of edible oil products and raw material sources should be plentiful enough to satisfy all demand for vegetable fats and oils. Stocks during the year are expected to reach a four-year high of more than 12 billion pounds.

VOTE SATURDAY JUNE 1

TO: The Citizens and Voters of Texas FROM: Preston Smith, Candidate for Governor

The purpose of this message is to ask for your support and vote in the Second Democratic Primary Saturday, June 1.

As your Lieutenant Governor for the last six years, I believe I have qualified myself to seek the high office of Governor. You know I finished second among 10 candidates in the First Primary, about 29,000 votes behind the leader with 1,750,000 votes cast.

With your help we can win this runoff against an opponent who has no public record of any kind . . . one who is aligned with groups that want to reject the progressive, constructive programs built by John Connally and his predecessors and replace them with so-called "liberal" ideas of their own.

I want to continue and improve on the start we have made in education, pollution control, law enforcement, highways, water conservation, promotion of industry and tourism, and many other vital areas.

I am proud to have been a part of Texas government for 18 years. Opponents may harp about what is wrong in Texas; I happen to think there are a lot of things RIGHT in Texas. I am proud of my state and its people.

Things can be even better, and I want to work with you in that direction.

It's more or less in the political tradition to lambast your opponent and say a lot of ugly and cutting things about him. I don't want to engage in personalities; my opponent has no public record to criticize. Therefore I am running for Governor on my own merits.

It may be pretty ambitious for a farm-born, farm-raised Texas boy, who worked his way through Texas Tech and spent his adult years in business activities in Lubbock, to aspire to be Governor. You will be the judges as to whether my experience and proven qualifications entitle me to be elected. I will accept your judgment with real gratitude for your past support and friendship.

Please remember that if I am elected, my door will always be open to any Texan who has any problem whatever that the Governor can help with. I will always be interested in good government. I will always be interested in you.

Preston Smith

Seniors Awarded Diplomas Following Address By Dr. Thomas O. Kirkpatrick

Members of the 1968 graduating class of Robert Lee High School, at their commencement last Friday night, heard an ex-student of the school challenge them to set their ambitions at a high mark and wish them well in accomplishing their goals.

Dr. Thomas O. Kirkpatrick, a graduate of RLHS and now a professor in the Department of Business of the University of Montana, was the speaker for the evening.

Marilyn Wallace, salutatorian of the class, welcomed the guests and said the graduates were grateful to parents, teachers and others who have helped make their school careers so successful.

Jackie Counts, valedictorian, in her address touched on the ambitions and aspirations of the class members.

Following Dr. Kirkpatrick's address, Prin. Garland Davis presented special awards as follows:

Danforth "I Dare You" book awards to Miss Counts, and Donnie Devoll; scholarship from the Texas Council of Church Related Colleges, Thomas McBroom, high boy in the class, Miss Counts and Miss Wallace; trophies to Miss Counts and Miss Wallace; and Readers' Digest award to Miss Counts. He then declared that 37 members of the class had completed the prescribed course of study and presented them to receive their diplomas.

Supt. Jimmy Bickley was assisted by board members Lewis Heuvel, E. H. Ivey and J. W. Service Jr. in presenting the diplomas.

Kirkpatrick told the seniors of Plato's writing of four cardinal virtues, which "gave a very realistic concept of ideal human behavior. The virtues are prudence, fortitude, temperance and justice. He said whether the seniors know it or not, they have been learning the essence of these ideals during their 12 years in school.

Dr. Kirkpatrick reminded the audience that neither the world nor this country is without its problems. He pointed out that scientific advances have made it possible to destroy all human life on earth; advancements in other fields have given us stream and air pollution, automobiles accidents which kill 50,000 persons annually as well as other social problems.

The speaker warned his audience, however, not to become cynical and overly critical of this world, in spite of the problems which it faces. He said, "...it is quite fashionable to be against practically every institution we have. Undisciplined institutional critics abound. Unfortunately, for all of us, constructive criticism is a scarcer commodity."

He recommended that several ways may be used to help solve the problems of the age, and persons who would be a part of the solution must be able to adapt themselves to the method "which best suits the particular problem you wish to solve."

Dr. Kirkpatrick is the son of the late Editor and Mrs. A. J. Kirkpatrick and is a stepson of Mrs. Violet Kirkpatrick of Robert Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hendley are attending the Tax Assessors convention in Dallas this week. Jim and his grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Roane are spending the week in the Lowell Roane home while the Jacobs are away.
