BCD to Seek New Members for 1970

Preliminary plans were made at Tuesday's BCD meeting for the annual membership drive. President George Newby appointed a committee consisting of Garland Davis, chairman, Hugh Lewis Jr. and W. D. McAdams to work up a letter soliciting members for 1970. An order for printing new membership cards also was turned in.

Cumbe Ivey Jr., chairman of the welcome signs committee, reported that all four of the new signs have been erected. He said more bracing remains to be done and as soon as pretty weather prevails the signs will be painted.

Mrs. Bryan Yarbrough, chairman of the Coke County Historical Survey Committee gave a short talk on requirements for Coke County to make the list of recipients of Distinguished Service Awards. She said that Coke County has fulfilled the requirements and received the award the past five years, and is one of 39 counties in Texas to be so honored.

Mrs. Yarbrough reported that Willie I. Tubb, longtime Silver resident, has purchased a historical marker to be set up at Cedar Hill. Also, Hayrick Masonic Lodge has purchased a marker to be set up near the entrance of Robert Lee Cemetery. The markers will give a short history of Cedar Hill and the cemetery.

Talent will be provided by local performance as well as those from surrounding towns. Some of the talent already lined up includes Jack Denman and his country-western band; a singing group composed of Sterling Allen, Jamie Craig, Kathy Prince and Nita Copeland; and "Purple." Many other prospects are expected to sign up before the show.

A practice session will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. Anyone who wants to participate in the show is invited to contact Jo Adkins, club president, and be present for the practice session. A spokesman for the club said, "We will greatly appreciate the help and support of everyone."

Another road trip took the local teams to Aspermont Tuesday night and again there were two losses. The boys went down, 69-33 and the girls lost, 47-38. Mumford was high for the boys with 17 and Sheri Pitcock led the girls with 18.

Upcoming games include Rotan here Friday night and Wylie there next Tuesday night, with both boys and girls contests.

Court Defines Justice Precincts

Coke County commissioners court met Monday to determine boundaries of justice of the peace precincts since lines of commissioners precincts were changed.

The court decided that the county would continue to have only two justice precincts, as in the past. The area of the justice precinct 1 will cover all of commissioner precincts 1 and 3, and justice precinct 2 will cover the area of commissioner precincts 2 and 4.

Incumbent Roy P. Ross announced a couple of weeks ago for reelection in precinct 1 and Earl D. Nutter is announcing this week that he will seek reelection in precinct 2.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Smith and David of Odessa visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Roane Sunday.

The report, as taken from an audit of the hospital district's books is required by law to be published at least once each year.

Hospital directors and officials invite all readers of the Observer to study the report, as it represents the financial condition of the hospital and nursing home which are partially supported by taxes paid in the two commissioner precincts.

Austin — Texas' increasing narcotics problem is getting a multiple-front attack at the state level.

State Board of Education endorsed two test projects to find the best ways of teaching young Texans about crime, drugs and driving. Latter will be offered in grades five through 12 under a new state law. A two-year study of driver education methods was assigned to the Texas A&M Transportation Institute.

Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin joined in a pledge to declare an "all-out war on drug abuse."

Smith called a meeting of state agency heads and set Feb. 1 as deadline for reports on their plans to fight the use of narcotics and to decide what else can be done.

Agencies represented included State Health Department, Public Welfare Department, College Coordinating Board, Texas Education Agency, University of Texas, Department of Public Safety and Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation.

Governor Smith called the drug use "one of the most serious problems that confront the people of this state today."

Barnes urged local grand juries to conduct their own investigations and to bring such cases to a prompt trial.

A 24-month project will develop teaching materials for a public school course on crime and narcotics.

Initial training of 2000 teachers will begin in February. Model programs will be tested in public schools, 1971-72. Universities, schools, regional education centers and community groups will help with course development work.

VOTERS SIGNING UP — About 1,347,040 Texans had registered to vote in the 12 most-populous counties by January 1, State Democratic Executive Committee reports.

SDEC says the medium-metropolitan counties have shown only a slight increase in registrations during the last 30 days. This group of 23 counties enrolled 282,851 or 35.9 per cent of a potential of 676,680. Same counties a month ago had signed up 230,764.

Some SDEC statistics bore out, some contradicted the warning of U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough that registration is greatest in Republican and conservative counties.

Greatest percentage of registration in any big county, said SDEC, is Jefferson, a liberal Democratic stronghold where 79.55 per cent of a possible 90,609 already have enrolled. Sign-up in liberal Bexar County is 62.8 per cent of the quota, but conservative Dallas register 70 per cent and Harris 69.9 per cent.

Midland County in medium bracket has 73.7 per cent registration, Brazoria 90.2 per cent. Midland is key conservative area. SDEC, through its "Operation: Everybody" is offering awards to counties which meet registration quotas.

WELFARE ROLLS GROW — Assistance payments totalling $364,673,953 went to Texans on public welfare rolls during fiscal 1969, Department of Public Welfare reports.

About 25 per cent of this, or $90.4 million, medical aid payments $147.9 million, aid to blind $36.3 million and aid to permanently and totally disabled $13.4 million.

More than 161.7 pounds of commodities valued at $45.8 million went to 1.4 million participants, and $7 million worth of food stamps were issued.

Average Texas old age assistance payment is $59.25 a month, 15th from lowest in nation. Average monthly aid to needy families comes to $76.20, compared with top (New Jersey) of $266.50. Texas AFDC is fifth lowest among states.

ECONOMY STRONG — Year-end reports by state agencies boast of strong economy and record breaking industrial development during 1969.

Texas Employment Commission says the labor force continues to grow rapidly. Employment went up four per cent from 1968, and the unemployment rate (averaging 2.6 per cent) was lower than for any period recorded by TEC.

Industrial development reached a new high. But what happened in 1969 was just "drop in bucket" to what can be expected in the future, reported Texas Industrial Commission Executive Director James Harwell.

TIC reports an estimated 350 new plants located in Texas last year, compared with 291 in 1968. About 465 plants reported expansions of facilities. Most of the activity was in the chemical, metal and transportation industries.

Spring Fashions

SPRING 1970 IS... a commentary on prettiness, naturalness and individualism. Colors are clear and fresh. Fabrics stress softness, flow and texture. Designs offer a completely unique variety of looks. The combination of all these ingredients results in one of the most appealing seasons ever.

THE COLORS ARE... WATER COLORS....soft tones with a lightness and whiteness. As a group, these colors will be applied to every fabric type. Mauve-Pink, Coral-Melon and turquoise will probably be the favorites. Often paler versions will be used in specific fabrics like crepe, linen and wool...or in tonal combination.

SUN SIGNS....more vibrant in tone than the Water Colors, with a sundrenched quality. They appear as accent, sport-type and warm climate tones. Here, the exciting new hues are...Marigold, Jade, Periwinkle, Petunia, Coral.

NEUTRALIZERS... and for Spring '70 they truly are! The range of neutrals begins with white and off-white as a total story by itself; progresses to pale Willow and cool Taupe; offers a new look with Skin and Butterscotch tones. The interesting trend in this group is the underlying color in each shade.

TRANSPARENCIES... Summer's sizzlers, Navy, Beet, Red Pepper, Spruce, Bark...are the most popular shades. The emphasis is on the "how to" of combining these crisp, clear Darks with Whites or with Neutralizers plus a bright color accent. They lend a dramatic feeling to the new prints and wovens, and will be especially effective for striking Summer looks.

THE DESIGNS ARE...Larger...in size and diversified in technique...open grounds, moving patterns, abstract forms and linear detail. PATCH PRINTS... become a major look, and utilize Dots, Geometrics, Paisleys, Tiles and Florals. Coordinates are any part of the pattern translated into an all-over design.

DOTS... come in all sizes and abstracted shapes...look newest when they form the pattern of a print...keep appearing unexpectedly and constantly. GEOMETRICS...tiny and refined or large and bold are a strong Spring trend. CONTINUING... influences of Bandana, Gypsy and Oriental styling. BORDERS... grow in popularity.

THE FABRICS ARE... SURFACE... influenced by subtle shine, by natural textures, by dimensional weaves. Glaze Finishes... Yarn Effects... Raised Patterns... Plushy Naps.

OPEN... via transparent Sheers and novelty weaves. Voiles... Lenos... Crochet Looks... Dimities... Burnouts.

SOFT... Moving and body conscious, lightweight knits Drappable Crepes... Slinky Silk types.

NATURAL... looks with their own respective personalities. Denims... Canvas... Linens... Raw Silks... Rustics.

If home remodeling is on your mind, consider including a "backdoor bathroom" in the plans. For families with young children, this can be a real work saver for mother. How often youngsters come in, wet and muddy, to use the bathroom, get a drink, or wash their hands! Of course, this bathroom needs a frequent sudscrubbing — including floor, wall areas, and fixtures — to keep it clean and sanitary. But it certainly saves wear and tear on the rest of the house — and mother's nerves!

Be Creative With Windows

Easy upkeep and good looks go hand in hand and homemakers are insisting on this. Window shades are a case in point. Gone are the dreary, though functional, shades and blinds. And gone with them are the hours of struggling and scrubbing. Most cloth shades are coated with washable vinyl which also makes them colorfast. When colors dull a bit, just whip out a bucket of suds and a sponge and have them sparkling again in no time.

In addition to washing ease, shades now have a definite decorative value. So when redoing a room give some thought to really being creative with windows. Home Fashion magazines and window shade departments abound with ideas and help. There's a world of high-key colors as well as the neutral and pastel tones from which to choose. And easy upkeep doesn't rely on smooth surfaces. Select any of the wide range of textures — as long as they boast sudsy ease-of-care.

Make Spreads of Terrycloth

For a new idea in decorating, how about a bedspread made of bright colorful towels, sewn together, then quilted to washable fill and lining? Bedspreads for twin beds can be made from face cloths. The patchwork design is limited only by your imagination and skill. These terrycloth bedspreads are easy to launder and come out of the dryer fluffy and fresh and hems of women's clothing. With Armoflexxx (with three x's) curling and wrinkling that are unsightly and uncomfortable, become a thing of the past. The interlining is made of cotton warp and a filling of Vylor nylon filament. Among its many virtues is complete washability. Look for it when shopping. At present, it is being used primarily in women's skirts, slacks, and shorts.

Interlining Features Washability

At last, there's a flexible interlining for use in wasitbands

Great Plains Conservation Program Extended 10 Years by U. S. Congress

The 10-year extension and broadening of the Great Plains Conservation Program in legislation recently enacted by Congress can mean a doubling of the needed soil and water conservation work on Texas farm and ranch lands, State Conservationist Clyde W. Graham of the USDA Conservation Service said recently.

The law extending the program, which was launched in 1957 to give landowners in the Great Plains help in building greater stability in farming and ranching enterprises, was signed by the President on November 18, 1969. The program had been scheduled to end December 31, 1971 but has now been extended to 1981.

The legislation authorizes an additional $150 million in Federal funds for the cost-sharing of conservation measures.

In addition to cost-sharing regular soil and water conservation work, the broadened program will provide for the enhancement of fish, wildlife and recreational resources on farms and ranches where it will improve the economic condition of landowners. It will also provide assistance on agriculture-related pollution problems in keeping with the program's overall objectives.

It also authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to enter into contracts on land not generally considered to be agricultural but where erosion is so serious that conservation work is needed to protect farm or ranch holdings. Graham pointed out that the law brings the responsibility of soil and water conservation districts more sharply into focus, stipulating that "approved conservation plans developed in cooperation with the soil and water conservation district in which their lands are situated shall form a basis for contracts."

In Texas, 10,908 farmers and ranchers have signed contracts covering 13.7 million acres and obligating $37 million in cost-share funds. Nearly 1,200 Texas farmers and ranchers have applications on file to take part in the program.

The seeding of unsuitable cropland to grass, development of water resources, reduction of the soil erosion hazard through various conservation techniques, control of invading brush on rangeland, improvement of irrigation systems to use available water most efficiently, and better grassland management are among steps taken by landowners in the program to create resistance to drought and other emergencies and reduce suffering and financial stress once common in the Plains. Plains farmers and ranchers have returned nearly 2 million acres of hazardous cropland to grassland use in the program.

Graham said that although the program in Texas has reduced dust storms on the Plains, the job is far from complete. He said a recent survey showed that only 15 percent of all needed conservation work on the Plains has been done.

Coke County Soil and Water District, which was designated originally as a part of the Great Plains Area, will continue to receive benefits from this program of cost share to farmers and ranchers. Some 80 land owners and operators have participated in this program on approximately 100,000 acres since 1958, according to W. E. Jacoby, District Conservationist. Practices carried out locally are primarily range seeding, brush control, rotation and deferral of grazing pastureland, and terracing of cropland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aldridge and baby of Dallas spent the New Year's weekend here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robertson. Mrs. Robertson returned home with her daughter and came back to Robert Lee last Sunday.

Voter Registration Deadline Jan. 31

The period for voters to register is becoming short, according to County Tax Assessor-Collector O. B. Jacobs. Deadline to register so as to be able to vote in all elections during the coming year is Jan. 31. The voting year begins March 1, 1970, and ends Feb. 28, 1971.

Everyone who wants to vote must register, as there is no automatic exemption because of age. Back when a poll tax was required, persons over 65 were automatically qualified to vote, if they met other voting requirements. However, that is not the case now, as everyone must register.

A person may go to the tax office in person and register, or he may request an application by mail.

Registration, for the most part, must be done by the voter himself. However, a husband, wife, father, mother, son or daughter of a voter may act as the voter's agent and applying for registration if the relative is a qualified voter of the same county.

Qualifications to be eligible to register to vote are:

1. Citizen of the United States.
2. Over 21 years of age on the
