New Methodist Parsonage

Methodist Parsonage Dedication Sunday

Sunday, Sept. 19, is the date when members of the First United Methodist Church in Robert Lee will dedicate their new parsonage. Members of the Methodist Church do not dedicate church property until it is free of debt. Debt on the present parsonage was paid about two months ago.

The Rev. Charles L. Giesler, district superintendent of the San Angelo District, will preach Sunday at the 11 a.m. service to be followed by a covered dish lunch at the church. At 1:30 p.m. the congregation will go to the parsonage, located at 6 West 15th Street, for the dedication service, to be led by Rev. Giesler, and an open house which will follow.

Ivey to Show New Mercurys Friday

Ivey Motor Co. will show the new 1972 Mercurys Friday, Sept. 17. Several of the new models will be on display in the Ivey showroom. Free coffee will be served during the day.

Cumby Ivey Jr. invited the public to come by and see the new model cars. He said earlier this week that they already have four of the new Mercurys and are expecting more before the Friday showing.

Showing of the 1972 Fords is set for Friday of next week, Sept. 24.

BAPTIST MEETINGS SET NEXT WEEK

Runnels Baptist Association Youth Rally will be Saturday night, Sept. 18, at the Third Avenue Baptist Church in Ballinger.

Pallbearers were Frank Sparks, Jack Sparks, Joe Bill Sparks, Dennis Sparks, Carlton Fields and Butch Dildach.

Members and friends of the church are invited to tour the parsonage.

Rev. Giesler was assigned to the San Angelo District June 1. He was born in Missouri, July 4, 1927, attended high school there, and is a graduate of Washington University of St. Louis, Perkins School of Theology at SMU, and Texas A & I University.

He came to San Angelo from the pastorate of the Methodist Church in McAllen. He is married and has three children. He served in the U. S. Army Medical Corps in 1945-46.

Also participating in the dedication service will be the present pastor, the Rev. Arthur A. Kendall, who is in his third year as pastor of the local church.

The new parsonage was built in 1967 and was first occupied by the Rev. Bobby Palmes and his family in September of that year. Rev. Kendall succeeded him as pastor.

Coke Paving Needs Care

A problem which is facing all the residents of Robert Lee and Bronte, and to a lesser degree, all the rural residents of the county, was brought up at Tuesday's meeting of the BCD. The problem is keeping the paved streets of Robert Lee and Bronte in a good state of repair.

Commissioner Fern Havins told BCD members that paved streets in both Robert Lee and Bronte are going to have to receive some care in the near future if they are to survive the weather and traffic hazards to which they are subjected.

The commissioner said the only answer to the problem is to have all the streets in both towns sealcoated as soon as possible. He predicted that unless this action is taken in the near future, the pavement investment in both towns will be beyond reclaiming within three years.

Commissioner Havins, who is the dean of the commissioners' court of Coke County, said the streets in the two towns were last sealcoated in 1959, some 12 years ago.

Havins said that about 90 per cent of the streets in both towns are paved and the almost complete paving of them is a source of pride to local citizens and a factor in bringing new residents to live in both towns.

The commissioner pointed out, however, that there is a problem in preventing the loss of the pavement—a method of financing sealcoating. The only answer Havins could see to this problem was for the citizens of Coke County who are interested in preserving the paved

The unofficial Coke County Championship is at stake Friday night when the Robert Lee Steers travel to Bronte to meet the Longhorns on their home field. Game time is 8 p.m. and a large group of Steer fans is expected to follow the team.

Austin—A major court decision last week left up in the air the question of how Texas is to achieve a valid reapportionment act for both houses of its legislature before next year.

State Supreme Court agreed with an Aug. 2 Austin district court finding that a House redistricting bill passed this year is unconstitutional because it unnecessarily split up 23 counties.

The decision left unanswered how the bill should be corrected or if it should be redone before 1973. Basic questions are these:

* Should House reapportionment and state Senate redistricting (left untouched by the Legislature) be the subject of an emergency special session?

* Should the five member constitutional Legislative Redistricting Board take on the job, since no valid reapportionment was done by the Legislature in the first regular session after the 1970 census?

system to help control and prevent air pollution.

Since Aug. 30, any industry that will emit air contaminants into the atmosphere must get a Board permit before starting construction. Similar permits are necessary to modify or change existing contaminant causing facilities.

Permits apply to specific, individual manufacturing processes, not entire industrial plants or complexes. Exceptions for minor contaminant causing plants will be listed later. Applicants have 60 days after construction is completed to apply for operating permits.

HEALTH STUDY ON — New studies to find ways of meeting health service, staff and facility needs of Texas' rural population will be undertaken by the Research Institute for Systems Development at Texas A & M University.

The study will be conducted in the West Central Texas area around Abilene which has both rural and urban characteristics typical of many regions.

Fewer than half of Texas' 492 hospitals meet federal medicare requirements for health and safety, so the project will focus on health facilities and services considered below medicare standards. Texas has more than twice as many qualified hospitals as any other state.

$150 MILLION BOND ISSUE POSTPONED — University of Texas regents postponed until Oct. 22 consideration of an overall plan for marketing the first block of $150 million in bonds authorized for new college construction.

About $30 million in bonds apparently will be sold by December. They are backed by tuition revenues. Money will go to build new institutions of UT at San Antonio, Dallas, Houston, Odessa and El Paso. The bonds were authorized by the 62nd Legislature this year to build newly authorized institutions.

D. A. STUDY PENAL CODE — District and county attorneys have launched their own committee study of needed changes in the penal code. They fought a sweeping, controversial revision of the code during the legislative session this year.

District Attorney Tom Hanna of Beaumont was selected as chairman of the committee in the first meeting last week. Prosecutors indicated they prefer a simplified, "more responsive" new code to the version introduced in the 1971 Legislature which had been five years in the making.

Short Snorts

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall has promised an announcement for lieutenant governor here Sept. 23.

Attorney General Martin held the State Board of Insurance can make rules for safe movement and operation of mobile gasoline service units.

Governor approved state participation in a $3.5 million federal pilot program of bank loans for businesses and residents of poverty areas. (Houston and Laredo banks will be among the sources of loans.)

Rio Grande Valley farmers suffered a $150,000 to $175,000 loss on harvested cotton due to recent heavy rains, reports Texas Agriculture Department.

Grand Prairie Bank and Trust Company seeks a state bank charter.

Shoup Voting Machine Company submitted its mechanical voting device for special inspection by the Secretary of State.

Public hearings were held this week (starting Sept. 14) on $23.3 million worth of new school textbooks.

Dual Sleep

Homemakers with a living space problem now have a handy solution—the dual sleep unit.

A dual sleep unit is a sofa that is also a bed by design and purpose. The units have become so popular that in 1969 they totaled $3 million in sales.

When shopping for a dual sleep unit, know where it will be used in the home, and know what you're looking for.

First, consider a design that will be in harmony with room decor. Fabric choice is important for color coordination, texture and easy care properties.

Another tip in shopping is the sit test. Sit and see which unit is best. Consider the height of seat from the floor, height of arms, and depth of seat. Bolsters and cushions lessen the seat depth for the person seated. Two constructions available are tight back, with no cushions, and softer back with cushions.

Check for ease of operation, by opening and closing the unit while at the store. Also try the mattress to see if it offers adequate body support.

Once the unit is purchased and on its way home, placement is the next factor to consider. Since the units are usually not as long as sofas (they range from love seat size, 64-66 inches, to 84 inches long), they should be located along a short wall. If the spot selected is along a long wall, you may want to flank the setting with a low chest of drawers, arm height, on one side and a large lamp commode on the other. These pieces, rather than slim end tables, will add more weight and importance to the grouping, and also provide extra storage area.

Once placed in a room, allow enough space to open the unit without too much shifting of furniture. Choose coffee squares or snack tables instead of a long, heavy cocktail table.

If the unit is to stand free, back it with a slim sofa table to hold books, magazines and a lamp to enhance importance to the grouping.

While sofas are frequently placed in front of windows, it is not practical for a dual sleep unit unless blinds and draperies will give adequate protection from daylight and sunshine.

Also, avoid placing the dual sleep unit on a wood floor unless the legs are cupped. Cupping prevents the furniture from "traveling" when it is being opened.

Appliance Product Guarantees
Be sure to read the product guarantee before purchasing a new appliance.

Certain performance and quality characteristics, things the consumer can expect from the product, are stated in the guarantee. And, it will specify remedial action to take if the product fails to live up to promised performance or quality.

Consider four important points about the guarantee before making a final decision.

First, does it cover the entire product or only certain parts? If only particular parts are guaranteed, decide if these are the important parts.

The guarantee should state who is responsible for appliance repair — the manufacturer, the dealer or a service agency. Check to see that the address of the seller or manufacturer responsible for repair is given. Also determine if it is physically and economically practical to return the product for service or repair under the guarantee.

Who is expected to pay for repairs? Some guarantees cover costs of parts only while others include both parts and labor costs. Or, they may cover parts and labor for a specified period, then only parts for an additional time period.

Finally, read to see how long the guarantee is effective. If it carries a "lifetime" guarantee, find out whose lifetime is referred to—that of the purchaser or some mechanism in the product. The term "lifetime" should be defined.

It is important that you file and keep these guarantees or warranties for future references. A file system should be set up for all such guarantees so that you have them when you need them.

R-Lee Steers Drop Season Opener To Wall, 7-2

By Ronnie Baker

The Steers had a repeat of the Wall speed that was costly in the early going. The defense toughened after the first quarter score by Wall and from then on it looked like it was the Steers' ball game. The Steer defense always seems to rate since they depend on it so much. Not to underrate the offense, but it just seems that the defense is the star. The defense is led by Mike Conley, Frank Box, Bobby Mumford and Alex Costilla on the line, with Donny Mauldin, Sid Burns and Danny Percifull at the linebacker posts. The new defense consists of four safety men who are Wibby Millican, Johnny Wolfe, Rudy Abalos and Bill Rowoldt.

Offense starters are Johnny Wolfe and Harvey Wink at ends, Frank Box and Sid Burns at tackle, Mike Conley and Alex Costilla at guard and Donny Mauldin at center. In the backfield are Bill Rowoldt at quarterback and at halfback are Danny Percifull and Rudy Abalos with Bobby Mumford at fullback. The backup men are Wibby Millican in the backfield; Jay Service and Randy Flanagan in the line.

Now that the Steers have a game under their belt and needed experience for the new starters, it seems that the Steers are going on a rampage. Hook 'em Steers!

First Quarter

Robert Lee won the opening kickoff and Wall kicked to the Steer 8 with a return to the 18. Wall held on downs at the Steer 23 and Mumford punted to the 50 yard line. A penalty against the Steers put the ball at the Steer 35. Wall made a good gain and they had a 1st at the Steer 12. One play later, from the 11, Wall skirted the end with lots of speed and they had a TD. They kicked their extra point and the score was 7-0.

The Steers took the kickoff with Abalos returning to the Steer 34. The Steers moved the ball with a pass from Rowoldt to Abalos for a 1st down, then another 1st with a pass to Wink to the Wall 27.

Then Percifull and Mumford hit the middle for a 1st at the Wall 16. But at the 8 yard line, the drive fizzled out and Wall held on downs. But Lady Luck gave the Steers another chance as a hard tackle shook the ball loose, with Conley recovering at the 20 yard line. The quarter ended on the next play.

Second Quarter

Wall again held on downs at the 16 yard line and took over. Again, Wall fumbled and Frank Box recovered the ball at the 20. Wall held again and took over on downs. Wall decided to go to the air and with a hard rush by Conley, the Wall quarterback threw a hurried pass, with Percifull intercepting, and with a return to the Wall 19 yard line. With Mumford and Percifull running behind a strong line, the Steers went down to the Wall 6 for a 1st down. But at the 1 yard line, the Steers ran out of downs. Wall, with their backs to the wall, was thrown for a safety and the score was 7-2.

Wall free kicked from their own 20 and the Steers advanced to their own 47. Wall held at that point and Mumford punted to Wall's 49 yard line. The Steer defense pushed the Hawks back to their own 20. Wall punted to the Steer 45 with no return. Two plays later the half ended.

Third Quarter

The Hawks received the kickoff and returned it to their 39, then made a 1st at the Steer 39, but a penalty took them back to their 47. The Steers held and Wall punted out of bounds at the Steer 7 yard line. Wall then held at the 12 and on the punt attempt the kicker was roughed and the Steers had another 1st at their own 27. Wall held at the Steer 22, and the Steers punted out to their own 47.

Wall made a 1st at the Robert Lee 31, but the Steers held and Wall had to punt. The ball went out of bounds at the Steer 24. The Steers plunged for a 1st at their own 35 as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

The Steers made another 1st at the 46, then Wall held at the 50. Mumford punted the ball out of the end zone and Wall took the ball at the 20 yard line. Wall then whacked out three successive 1st downs to the Steer 32. But again the defense jarred the ball loose, Wall fumbled and Percifull recovered at the Steer 30 yard line. The Steers made a 1st at their own 43, but then the Steers lost their 1st fumble and Wall had the ball at the 48 yard line. Wall turned their speed loose and tried to circle the ends, making a 1st at the Robert Lee 29, then another to the Steer 19. But with four seconds left, the Steers held at the 23 and one play later the game was over.

MRS. COALSON MEETS FELLOW TRAVELERS

While attending a meeting of the Theta Pi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma last Saturday night, Mrs. Frank Coalson had an interesting experience.

The informal, planning meeting began and Mrs. Billie Bolin, president, asked members to tell of any travels made during the past summer. When called upon, Mrs. Coalson replied, "I spent 15 days touring Ireland on a bus." "So did we," said her fellow members, Audrey and Willie Mae Parr.

Further conversation showed that the three friends were in Belfast the same night without their knowing it. The Parr sisters were visiting a friend who lives in Belfast. On the night of July 11, they witnessed the excitement caused by the burning of the effigy of the Pope at the celebration of William of Orange, who in early Irish history had liberated the Protestants.

Mrs. Coalson said she felt much safer that night housed in Conway Castle with other Americans on her guided tour.

WASHINGTON

"As it looks from here"

OMAR BURLESON

Congressman
17th District

Washington — If much of our foreign aid is not already wholly ridiculous and asinine, it has been made worse by recent action of the House of Representatives.

The Foreign Aid Authorization Bill, passed by the House and now before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, contains a section which prohibits military assistance to Greece because the country is run by a military junta considered to be a repressive dictatorship by the "liberals."

At the end of World War II and for several years thereafter, Greece was in a civil war. At least it was called that but it was obvious that it was not all Greek fighting Greek. The 300 mile northern border of Greece joins communist Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria. Elements of these countries joined the Greek communists to bring that nation behind the Iron Curtain with them.

With military aid from the U. S., the non-communists of Greece were able to stand and today it is the only Balkan nation outside the Iron Curtain.

If this personal reference may be pardoned, some 23 years ago, from a front line vantage point, I saw Greeks loyal to their country defending it. Finally a stable government was established and they have been our friends through turbulent times since.

Greece is a strategic imperative in the Mediterranean. She is the anchor of NATO. While flanked by two other NATO nations, Turkey and Italy, these latter show an instability which, to say the least, is not encouraging. The ports of Greece are really the only places in the Eastern Mediterranean where our 6th Fleet can go without resentment. Recent entry by our ships into the ports of Turkey set off riots, protest bombings and crippling strikes.

Look at a map of the southern rim of the Mediterranean and our relations with those countries it touches. Except for Turkey, once a bastion on NATO's south flank, Israel, Tunisia and Morocco, there is hostility towards the United States. Even the Island of Malta, only about 60 miles below Sicily, athwart the narrow channel along the north coast of Africa, is now taking anti-NATO actions and showing strong sentiment for Soviet Russia. For 150 years Malta was a key power point for the British but like England's other diminished positions, it slipped away. A Malta oriented to the U. S. S. R. would result in the ability of the Soviets to control the crossroads of the Mediterranean as the British had historically done.

The liberal New York Times and the liberals in Congress turn the heat on Greece because they say it is a military, dictatorial government. Greece took this course in April 1967, at a time when again a communist takeover was considered imminent. No one has to approve of this type of government but the fact remains Greece is our friend and vital to the defense of that strategic area.

The same voices of condemnation of Greece are not directed against the dictatorships of Yugoslavia, the Red juntas in Algeria, Syria, Libya and others—not Red China or the Soviet Union. Strange.

Yet the House of Representatives says that no military aid should go to Greece unless the President finds it is required for America's national security. To place this onus on the President or to extend this authority, is yielding to political escape.

S. B. No. 249 AN ACT

relating to the recording and re-recording of livestock brands and marks; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. (a) This Act shall apply to every county in this State. In all the counties each owner of any livestock mentioned in Chapter 1 of Title 121 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 shall within six months after this Act takes effect have his mark and brand for such stock recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county. These owners shall record the marks and brands whether the brands and marks have been previously recorded or not.

(b) The owner shall have the right to have his mark and brand recorded in his name who according to the present records of the county first recorded the brand and mark in the county, or in event it can not be ascertained from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have the brand and mark recorded in his name.

(c) After the expiration of six months from the taking effect of this Act all records of marks and brands now in existence in the county shall no longer have any force or effect and after the expiration of six months only the records made after this Act takes effect shall be examined or considered in recording marks and brands in the county.

(d) Immediately upon the taking effect of this Act the county clerk of the county shall have this Act published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county for a period of thirty days. The publication shall be paid for by the county out of the general county fund.

Sec. 2. All clerks in re-registering brands shall comply with Articles 6890 through 6899, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and with Section 1, Chapter 273, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1929, as amended (Article 6899a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and shall also be aware of and comply with Articles 1484, 1485, and 1486 of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 3. All brands and marks registered under the provisions of this Act shall be re-registered every 10 years in the manner prescribed in Section 1 of this Act.

Sec. 4. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both Houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended; and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.
