Jack Mathews, president of the BCD, told the Observer that all old junk cars will be hauled off free of charge but permission from the owners is needed. Those who would like old cars hauled off are asked to call the Observer Office, Bob Fields or Jack Mathews.

Assistance in hauling trash will be provided by the county and volunteer workers are needed to help the county employees with the loading. If additional information is needed, contact Mrs. Wilson Bryan or Mr. Mathews.

Sponsors are urging everyone to take pride in the cleanliness of the city by helping clean it up and then do your part to help keep it clean.

County Landmark Burns

A Coke County landmark for almost 40 years was destroyed by flame early last Friday morning. The old Edith Store Building owned by Theresa Phillips and located about 8 miles west of Robert Lee on the Sterling City Highway, was a total loss.

The Robert Lee Volunteer Fire Dept. was alerted at 4:45 a.m. Friday but by the time the firemen arrived there was little left of the wood frame building or its contents. Because of hazards presented by nearby gasoline storage tanks and downed electrical lines, no attempt was made to extinguish the ruins.

King "Boots" Ransom, who lives near the building, told firemen that he was awakened by the sound of the fire and drove to the home of Royce Phillips who in turn phoned in the alarm.

At the time of the fire and in recent years, the building housed a store and bait stand, selling mainly camping and fishing supplies, gasoline, etc., being leased and operated the past two years by E. A. "Dink" Lanier. The business was previously operated by Phillips and prior to that by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tierce.

According to information obtained from present and past residents of the Edith community, the building was moved to its present location from Water Valley in 1937 by D. A. Neal and his son, Loren Neal, who opened the business, also moving a small store and the Edith Post Office into the building from the Ralph Garvin place about one mile north. The Neals ran the general store and post office until the early 40s when it was acquired by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thetford who operated it until 1951 when it was leased to Mr. and Mrs. Finnell Smith. Mrs. Smith was the last Edith postmaster, as the post office was closed in 1953. The building was subsequently bought by Coke County in 1958 and was used as an equipment yard and storage for Precinct 3. In 1969 it was sold by the county to Ernest Varnadore, who shortly afterwards sold it to the Tierces and it was then converted back to use as a store.

There was no way to determine how the fire originated.

Conserve and Save Tips for your

Electric Range

- ★ Using your range more carefully can mean significant savings on your fuel bills. Avoid the temptation to keep opening the oven door. You lose up to 20% of the heat every time you do.
- ★ Pre-heating the oven and baking only one dish or heating a few rolls is wasteful. With a little planning you can cook an entire meal in the oven.
- ★ Reduce heat as soon as practical. When water is boiling, medium heat will keep it boiling. Use pans with tight-fitting lids to conserve heat.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

I am sending you a check in the amount of $6 for a renewal of the Robert Lee paper. I don't know why I waste good money on a paper like that (ha) but you see it is like an old friend coming into my house or a letter from home. You see, I have had the paper in my home for almost 70 years, I guess, as I moved to Coke County sometime between Christmas and New Year of 1905 with my dad, the late J. L. Reid.

We bought a place 2 miles east of Sanco, known as the Carwile place now.

I moved to Grannis, Arkansas, about 36 years ago, but I have lots of friends still in Coke County.

Ulmer Bird was my closest neighbor, with only barbed wire fence between us. Junior Prine was another, although he was a small boy when I left in 1938.

Bryan Gartman, Alice Preslar Fronee Scarborough and Velma Denman are my mother's brother and sisters, and Harvey Reid, my brother, owns the old home place.

If you should print this letter, tell all my friends hello for me and wish them a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Sincerely
E. L. Reid
