

Top citizens to be named at banquet Monday night

Three outstanding citizens will be honored Monday at the annual Dimmitt Chamber of Commerce Banquet, which will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the County Expo Building.

Recipients of the Citizen of the Year, Citizen Through the Years and the Teacher of the Year honors will be announced, and chamber officers will be installed.

Jim Killingsworth is returning for a second term as president of the chamber board of directors. George Lamberth will serve as vice-president, and Clara Patton returns as board secretary.

Newly elected directors of the board are Calvin Marsh and Doug Pybus. Board members elected to a subsequent term are Martha Jo Hyman and Joe Josselet.

Continuing directors are Bob Caddell, Killingsworth, Lamberth, Roger Malone, Leroy Maxwell, Mrs. Patton, Arlie Petty and George Sides.

Those whose terms are expiring are Maxine Childers and Thomas Falcon.

Music for the evening will be presented by Zelda Ellison, and the special speaker will be Dr. James "Doc" Blakely of Wharton, a noted humorist.

Dr. Blakely's weekly column is printed in 160 publications, and he is a recipient of the National Speakers' Association's highest award for excellence in communication. He is a member of the Platform Professionals group, and has conducted several seminars.

The cost of the banquet will be $10 per person. The menu will include sirloin steak, baked potatoes, tossed salad, bread, drinks and apple cobbler, and is being catered by K-Bob's of Dimmitt.

Tickets are on sale in advance at the chamber office, Tots and Teens, and the First State Bank.

Chamber manager Delores Heller said that a few tickets will be available at the door, but advised that people should purchase them as much in advance as possible to facilitate planning for the evening.

Seven people have been nominated for Citizen of the Year. The award winner will be announced by Gerald Hanners. Last year's winner was Laverne Bates.

Ten have been nominated for Citizen Through the Years, and the winner will be announced by Rev. Ed Freeman. Koma Ratcliff was last year's recipient. Teacher of the Year nominees total five. The winner will be announced by last year's winner, Avis Smith.

"In case of bad weather, people should listen to KDHN radio or TV Cable channel 6 for possible notice of postponement of the banquet," Mrs. Heller said.

COACH JOE LOMBARD with members of his 1982 team.

Lombard named 'Coach of Year'

"It's a great honor, not only for myself, but for the kids and the community," Nazareth's Joe Lombard said of his selection as Panhandle Sports Hall of Fame Basketball Coach of the Year for 1982.

Lombard has coached basketball only four years, but in those four years he has enjoyed the success most coaches can only dream about.

Each year he has guided the Nazareth girls to the state championship, and overall he's compiled a 165-15 coaching record. He's never lost a district or a playoff game.

Lombard is a fundamentalist, a perfectionist teacher and a subtle motivator.

He has coached seven all-state players, and produced four balanced teams which have won with machine-like precision.

Doretta Ramaekers, an all-stater on two of Lombard's teams, said she felt she could speak for all who have played for Lombard when she said, "He has the respect of his players."

"We always wanted to do our best, because we knew he was doing his best for us. He makes winning more special for the kids," she said.

"We never second-guessed a move he made, because they always seemed to fall right into place."

Lombard, a former player and graduate of Wayland Baptist College, wasn't planning on coaching girls when he finished college.

"I really thought I wanted to coach boys," he said. "But now, I don't have any regrets, and I don't know if I'd ever coach boys."

Lombard said each state championship team has been unique.

"Every year we had different kids, different personalities, and consequently we had to have a little different strategy to mold them into a team," Lombard said.

Of his 1979 team he said, "They were one of my most talented teams. I think probably they won in spite of me, because I know I'm a better coach now than I was then."

RR Commission ponders protests

By LINDA MAXWELL
At least 10 protest letters have been sent from here to the Texas Railroad Commission concerning the proposed closing of the Fort Worth & Denver Railway's agency in Dimmitt.

Railroad Commission employee Jackye Scivicque said that the letters will be turned over to an examiner, with the date and place for the hearing to be announced probably next week.

Brenda Mace of the transportation division of the commission estimated that at least six or seven letters had been counted so far, but added that it is not the final count.

"With even just one protest received, a hearing would be held, but they have generally been held in Austin in the past," Mace said, adding that all who sent protest letters will be notified by letter of the time and place of the hearing.

In an earlier news release from the commission, however, it was stated that in case of protest, a public hearing would be set in the affected area.

Those protesting the matter locally have said that they will present facts and figures to back up their position and most are willing to testify, but several stipulated that they could not do so if the hearing were held very far away.

Those who said they have sent protest letters include Amstar Corp., Bruegel & Sons Elevators, C&S Equipment Co., Inc., Cargill, Inc., Castro County Grain Co., Dimmitt Agri Industries, Inc., the Dimmitt Board of Aldermen, Goodpasture, Inc., Hays Implement Co., and Riverside Chemical Co.

Under the proposed closing, rail service would continue but a local agent would

Is this the Texas snow capital?

Is Castro County now the Snow Capital of Texas?

It has a good claim to the title, having received almost 34 inches so far this winter.

And the normal "snow season" — February and March — is just now beginning.

February started the same way January did — with snowfall.

The area received an additional four inches of snow Monday and Tuesday, according to KDHN Radio, Dimmitt's official weather-observation post.

This week's snow was the "bottom edge" of a widespread near-blizzard that paralyzed the central and northern Panhandle and surrounding states. Up to a foot of wind-driven snow blinded the northern Panhandle, creating drifts up to 10 ft. high and forcing the closure of highways, schools and all normal activity.

The latest storm here started as freezing drizzle Monday morning, changed to sleet at midday and to snow shortly before 3 p.m. The snow continued until midafternoon Tuesday, borne on winds of 15 to 20 mph.

The temperature dropped below 30 degrees during the day Monday and stayed below freezing through Tuesday, despite forecasts of a warming trend. Temperatures were in the mid-20's Tuesday, and a low of 18 was recorded Wednesday morning.

Because of the winds, the snow didn't build up on the roadways as badly as it had during earlier, gentler snows, but did cause drift problems.

Nazareth schools cancelled Tuesday classes and started an hour late Wednesday. Hart schools conducted classes Tuesday, but buses ran

ONE MORE TIME—A state highway grader blades a path along Highway 385 north of Dimmitt Tuesday morning as four more inches of snow fall, driven by winds of 15 to 20 mph. Grader and snow-truck operators have worked overtime in the aftermath of four major snows so far this winter, and more snow is forecast as the county appears to be on its way to a possible record for total winter snowfall.

Dimmitt to host TCGA meet

Dimmitt will again host the annual convention of the Texas Corn Growers Association next Wednesday, with a slate of major speakers on the agenda, including the head of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

The convention will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the County Expo Building, and is expected to attract producers and agri-businessmen from throughout the North Texas corn-growing region.

A free barbecue lunch will be served, and the program will continue in the afternoon.

The 10th annual meeting of the association could set an attendance record, with interest in the new Payment in Kind (PIK) Program, the roster of federal and state agricultural spokesmen, and reports of major TCGA progress in research and marketing as drawing cards.

Theme of the convention program will be "Farm Problems of the 80's."

Keynote speaker will be Everett "Bud" Rank of Washington, D.C., administrator of the USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. Rank agreed last week to appear on the program, and is expected to be the first speaker of the morning, since he has another appointment at midday.

Rank is expected to speak on the overall provisions and latest developments in the PIK Program.

Also on the agenda is Deputy Secretary of Agriculture John Ford of Washington, D.C., another key executive in the development of the PIK Program.

Texas Commissioner of Agriculture Jim Hightower will report on the progress and priorities of his new administration, and will give an overview of agriculture throughout the state.

Chemical engineer Don Ethington will outline a new technique for the use of hydrogen energy that is expected to be of special interest to irrigation farmers.

Weldon Davis of Hart, member of the Texas Corn Producers Board and president of the High Plains Farm Bargaining Association, will join TCGA President Carl King of Dimmitt in the convention welcome, and Secretary-Treasurer Harold Bob Bennett will give the financial report.

Other TCGA officers will report on progress in corn contracts, new products and market expansion.

During his president's report, King is expected to discuss several major developments in international negotiations and industrial research that could lead to big new demands for Texas corn in both domestic and foreign markets.

King will report on milling tests now being conducted that could lead to the establishment of a corn grit and corn-oil plant in the area. Large, high-quality grit flakes made of Texas corn are of special interest to corn-flake cereal manufacturers, and high-quality corn oil is expected to find a ready market among food-corn refiners and processors.

The milling tests are being financed by the Texas Corn Producers Board and conducted by several university and industrial laboratories.

King also will report on the progress of negotiations during the year with Egypt for the development of large-scale feedlots in that country. King met with Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak in New York Saturday to propose a turnkey project by which the TCGA and the Texas feedlot industry — working through the Texas Agricultural Products program — would supply the plans, expertise and feed for commercial feedlots in Egypt.

Also, King and other TCGA officers are expected to report on the provisions and impact of the new PIK Program — especially the TCGA's proposals for orderly marketing of "crop swap" commodities which farmers will receive in return for laying out additional land from production in 1983. The TCGA provided major input in the establishment of the PIK Program.

Mubarak opens the door to TCGA

Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak "seemed very receptive to our proposal" to help Egypt set up Texas-style feedlots that would use contracted Texas corn, Carl King of Dimmitt reported after meeting Saturday with the Egyptian president in New York City.

King, president of the Texas Corn Growers Association, was one of 15 American business and industrial leaders who were invited to meet with President Mubarak and his ministers during his visit to the US last week. King was the only American farmer — and also the only Texan — at the one-hour discussion meeting.

King and his wife, Frances, also were among 400 who attended a $100-a-plate luncheon in the Waldorf Astoria honoring President Mubarak after the discussion meeting.

Others taking part in the discussions were New York Mayor Edward Koch, David Rockefeller of the Chase Manhattan Bank, top officers of Agric Chemical Co., General Electric Trading Co., Motorola, Standard Oil of Indiana, Allis-Chalmers Corp., Morgan Stanley International, Inc.,

Armco, Inc., AT&T International, General Motors and Trans World Airlines, plus Egyptian and US government and trade officials.

King spoke "about five minutes" during the international trade discussion, which was arranged by the Egyptian-American Chamber of Commerce and the Egypt-US Business Council.

"We have been looking into the possibility of transferring technology and expertise in lamb and sheep feeding from Texas to Egypt," King told President Mubarak. "Based on the preliminary information we have, this type of operation could be undertaken because of environmental similarities between Texas and Egypt."

"This would involve using the Texas system of lamb and cattle feeding and confinement lots, concentrated rations of corn and other available feed ingredients to produce a tender, high-quality meat for local Egyptian markets," King continued.

"If we can contribute to the food security in Egypt through this type of project, we feel that this effort will be of mutual benefit to both Egypt and Texas," King told the Egyptian president.

The establishment of large-scale feedlots in Egypt to meet that country's growing demand for meat could create a significant new export market for Texas corn, King said.

"I also stressed to President Mubarak that we were very interested in selling him the highest-grade food grain corn in the industry — which comes from Texas," King said.

"We want an agreement between Egypt and Texas, not between Egypt and any other state," King added. "We want to do them a turnkey job of construction, expertise and feed supply, all through the TAP (Texas Agricultural Products) program."

King also presented the Egyptian officials with packets of industrial photos, application forms which the TCGA has filed with the federal government, and resumes of key individuals in the TCGA and the feedlot industry.

King described President Mubarak — a former officer in the Egyptian Air Force who was elected after Anwar

Sadat's assassination — as "a very congenial man who would rather listen than talk."

The meeting also included a question-answer session, but King said, "I didn't ask him any questions; I just told him we were looking forward to working with him in Egypt. He said, 'We look forward to having you there, Mr. King.'"

In a speech at the dinner that followed the discussions, President Mubarak appealed for increased American investment in his country. "Today Egypt enjoys a degree of stability unparalleled in many other countries," Mubarak said. "Social tension is reduced to a minimum. Our economic policy is geared to serve that purpose... Our open door policy is here to stay."

The American private sector's investments in Egypt are now estimated by different sources to be $200 million to $400 million, mainly in the oil and gas industries, banking and service sectors. US officials say Egypt especially wants additional investment in agriculture, textile plants, fruit canneries and food processing plants.

The volume of trade between Egypt and the US quadrupled from 1975 to 1982, according to Ahmed Zaki, executive director of the Egyptian-American Chamber of Commerce. Zaki said the total value of nonmilitary exports from the US to Egypt last year was $2 billion, while Egypt's exports to the US were between $600 million and $700 million.

King described the New York discussions and dinner as a "very interesting" experience.

"Not many people get the opportunity to go to something like that," he said. "They told me I was the only American chosen to represent agriculture. They treated me very well. I thought that being the only farmer there, and being from Dimmitt, Texas, it was quite a deal. I'll tell you, for a farm boy, that was tall cotton."

En route to New York, Mr. and Mrs. King stopped off at Washington, D.C., where he met Friday morning with Congressmen Kent Hance, Jack Hightower and Charles Stenholm.

State shows decrease in sales tax rebates

State Comptroller Bob Bullock last week sent $32 million to nearly 1,000 Texas cities as their share of the one percent city sales tax for January.

"These payments are down 7.7% from last January's checks," Bullock pointed out. "Collections are down in every major city in the state except Austin."

Citing depression in the Texas oil industry and the repeated devaluation of the Mexican peso, Bullock dropped his estimate of available state revenues by $1.5 billion dollars during the week.

Totals for the month of January for Dimmitt and Nazareth are down compared with the same period in 1982, while Hart had no rebates reported for January of 1982.

Dimmitt's January 1983 check was for $7,139.36 compared with $7,784.26 for January of 1982, a decrease of 8.28%.

The January rebates reflect taxable sales made in November and reported to the state by the end of December.

Of other towns in Dimmitt's school sports district, Abernathy and Tulia both showed gains, while Muleshoe, Littlefield and Friona showed losses.

A VITAL PART
A stop watch is a vital part in many sports. For instance, in track man races against time. The stop watch has enabled us to compare racers of one generation with that of another. In football it is a race to end up with the highest score when time runs out.
The Church is a vital part in man's life. The Church offers comfort, love, peace, and understanding. Just as we wouldn't leave the watch out of football, don't leave out the vital part in the greater things of life.
ATTEND CHURCH REGULARLY
EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE
The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

PIK deadlines are announced

By CHARLEY E. HILL
County Executive Director
We would remind you again that March 11 is the closing date to participate in the PIK Program. The operator is responsible for placing the farm in the program. ALL PRODUCERS WHO SHARE IN THE PIK MUST SIGN THE CONTRACT.

It takes quite a bit of time to complete these contracts — so, please don't wait until the last few days. If you have not signed into the program by the above date, you will not be eligible for any program benefits.

The final date to file a base or yield appeal is Feb. 15.

To be eligible for the PIK Program, a producer must also participate in the previously announced acreage reduction program. The PIK Program allows a producer to leave an additional 10-30% of his acreage base idle in 1983.

For leaving this land idle, a producer will receive the following compensation:

Wheat — 95% of the farm established yield.

Corn, Grain Sorghum — 80% of the farm established yield.

Cotton — 80% of the farm established yield.

Compensation for accepted whole base PIK contracts will be the bid percentage times the farm program yield, times the PIK acreage.

You do need to understand that if you decide to go into the PIK Program, you will be signing a binding contract.

The whole farm base bids will be opened in the Castro County ASCS Office at Dimmitt at 10 a.m., March 18.

PIK availability dates in Castro County are July 1 for wheat, Oct. 1 for corn and grain sorghum, and Oct. 15 for cotton.

PAYMENT LIMITATION
The total of deficiency and diversion payments is limited to $50,000 per person under the combined Upland Cotton, Wheat and Feed Grain Programs.

Sunnyside

Four-night Bible study scheduled for next week

By TEENY BOWDEN

January Bible Study will be held Sunday night, Feb. 6, through Thursday night, with the exception of Tuesday night, at 6:30 until 9:00 each evening, except at 6:00 on Sunday. Dr. Ronnie Littlejohn, Director of the Department of Philosophy and in charge of the graduate work at Wayland Baptist University, will teach adults, Mrs. Littlejohn will teach the children, Rev. Richard Clymer will teach the Spanish Department and a nursery will be provided. Dr. Littlejohn will preach during the morning service and there will be a covered dish dinner at the church following the morning services. Dr. Littlejohn had a previous commitment on Tuesday night.

Sunday, Jan. 23 was Baptist Men's Day in the church services with Gale Sadler bringing the message. Lee Brown led the singing, and Bennie Villarreal gave his testimony. He was also recognized by the church as an active deacon.

The community received at least 18 inches of snow with at least an inch of moisture from it. Lots of snow was still on the ground 10 days later. .25 of an inch of rain was received the 17th and 18th from light intermittent showers.

"What'd folks plant around here this year?"

"They planted a lot of XL-73 and XL-72aa."

"Which did better... the XL-73 or the XL-72aa?"

"To tell you the truth, Herb, it was kind of a toss-up. Both are consistent, high-yielding numbers. Can't beat that XL-73 for top grain quality."

"Will you plant them again next year?"

"I sure will. The way they yield and stand up to the weather, I can't afford not to."

"What will you back 'em up with?"

"I really like the way T1230 looks. I think I'll go with it."

"How do you think that mix will work out?"

"Should work out great. First of all, it'll let me spread the risk. And then too, plantin' several different maturities will sure take some of the pressure off at harvest time. Anyway, each of these numbers comes with a darn good track record."

"How good?"

"Tell you what, Herb, you guys keep supplying my dealer with hybrids like these, and he won't hear any complaints from me."

Herb Brown, Corn Product Manager for DEKALB-PFIZER GENETICS, talks with local corn grower about top-yielding hybrids.

New rail method for cattle tested

The US Dept. of Agriculture's Office of Transportation has made its first test shipment of cattle in an experimental rail car equipped with an onboard feeding and watering system.

The 91-foot long car, carrying 44 feeder calves weighing 456 pounds each, left Newport, Tenn., Jan. 16, and arrived in Amarillo Jan. 20.

This research was initiated last spring with stationary tests at the Beltsville, Md., Agricultural Research Center, according to Deputy Assistant Secretary of Agriculture John Ford.

More about

Snow capital of Texas?

only on paved roads. Dimmitt schools held a full schedule of classes.

Icy highways forced the postponement of most Tuesday night basketball games - Abernathy at Dimmitt and Cotton Center at Nazareth. However, the Olton-at-Hart games Tuesday night were played as scheduled.

Many meetings scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday were cancelled, but no business closings were reported, although business activity was slowed. Stores reported renewed surges in the sale of snow boots, tire chains, batteries and winter clothing.

Mail service was disrupted Tuesday by the storm and the closing of the Amarillo Airport. The Dimmitt Post Office received "only about a fifth of our normal volume of mail" via dispatch trucks Tuesday, Postmaster Bill Sava said, and local carriers weren't able to complete all their rounds Tuesday.

For cattle feedyards, this week's snow aggravated an already-serious situation as cattle suffer from the cold, deep mud and stress.

"At the very best, we're at a standstill here," reported George Bagley, manager of Dimmitt Feed Yards. "I don't think the cattle are gaining a pound, and have not over the last 30-day period. We've been very fortunate, I think, that we've just held our own. I don't look for any big gains at all until we get out of this mud situation."

Bagley said the mud problem in the feedyards "is as bad as we've ever had." He added, "A lot of the old-time feedlot managers in the area are saying they've never seen anything like it, and I know I never have, either."

Cattle losses have been "quite a bit more than ordinary" due to the stress problems, Bagley said.

"It will take 30 to 40 days of dry weather to get us out of this," Bagley estimated.

Only two snow-related accidents were reported on local highways Tuesday, and neither was major. A tractor-trailer rig jack-knifed west of Dimmitt on Highway 86 Tuesday morning, and moments later another truck slid off the ice-covered Highway 385 north of Dimmitt.

Those with cattle on pasture are having to haul hay and use tractors to feed their stock. However, no drifting problems have been reported.

This week's snowfall was the second major one of 1983 and the fourth of the winter.

The first snow of the season was the five-inch Thanksgiving snow on Nov. 24-26. Another six inches fell on Dec. 26-27, and New Year's Day brought a trace here while the South Plains area was being buried under 12 inches.

Then came the "biggie" - an 18-inch snowfall on Jan. 21-22, the deepest recorded snowfall here since 1906. Although it was a gentle snowfall, it paralyzed the area for a day or two, forcing the closure of most businesses and all schools and the cancellation of virtually all scheduled activities.

The remnants of that 18-inch snow were still visible when this week's snow started.

The 34 inches of snowfall, combined with in-between rains, have dropped 4.07 inches of soaking moisture onto the ground since Thanksgiving, providing bright prospects for the planting season to come.

Apparently, it isn't over yet. The US Weather Service has its eye on a new storm headed this way, with more snow forecast this week.

Castro County could be on its way to a record-breaking winter snowfall total before the first bud sprouts.

Police calls

Dimmitt police Monday arrested and jailed a 20-year-old Dimmitt man on a charge of passing a forged check for $246.50 at Taylor & Sons Grocery.

Taylor & Sons reported the incident Friday evening, and police made the arrest Monday after comparing and analyzing signatures and handwriting specimens over the weekend. When confronted with evidence, the suspect admitted to the felony, police said.

At the time of his arrest, the suspect was out on bond for a recent burglary at the Red X Travel Center, police reported.

The man is now in jail pending Grand Jury action on the felony charges.

City and county law officers arrested three persons during the week on DWI charges, one of which was classified as a felony. The felony charge resulted in a $750 fine and probation, while the misdemeanor cases resulted in a $275 fine for a 44-year-old Dimmitt man and a $275 fine and a year's probation for a 24-year-old Dimmitt man.

A Friona man, 54, was fined $81 on a public intoxication charge, and a 19-year-old Friona man was arrested by the Sheriff's Dept. and charged with violating probation. The younger man is in jail here.

Dimmitt police arrested two men on warrants issued from neighboring towns.

A 24-year-old Hart man was arrested on a warrant for burglary of a habitation. He is in jail pending Grand Jury action.

Three men were arrested during the week for driving with suspended licenses. A 36-year-old Amarillo man was sentenced to three days in jail and a 21-year-old Hart man was fined $95.

City police charged one man with unlawfully carrying a weapon, after recovering a .25 caliber handgun from the man's vehicle.

A Dimmitt police officer took two juveniles into custody after they were caught in the act of stealing gasoline from a vehicle on a used car lot.

City police arrested a 20-year-old Dimmitt man during the week on a simple assault charge.

Only one traffic accident was reported in the city during the week. A car driven by Graciela Marroquin collided with a parked vehicle owned by Richard Martinez on Saturday. The mishap caused only minor damage and no injuries, police said.

Lady Horns stop Olton

Hart's Lady Longhorns edged Olton 39-35 Tuesday night in Hart to move into a tie for first place (with Olton) in the District 5-AA race.

The Lady Horns, which had lost twice to Olton this season, were paced by Linda Washington and Melissa Kittrell with 10 points each.

Both teams are 6-1 in district play, and are expected to win the remainder of their district games. The district champion will be decided at a district tournament.

The Lady Horns are 17-4 for the year.

DHS parents to be honored Tuesday night

Tuesday night will be "Parents' Night" at Dimmitt High School's basketball games.

All varsity Bobbies and Bobcats and their parents, along with coaches and their wives, will be introduced in a special ceremony to be held in the Dimmitt Middle School gym between the varsity boys' and varsity girls' basketball games with Tulia.

The varsity girls' game will begin at 6:30 and the Parents' Night ceremony is expected to get underway about 7:30. The Bobcats will play the Hornets following the ceremony.

Swifts stop Happy in 6-A loop play

Nazareth grabbed the early edge in the second half of District 6-A basketball action Friday, with a 51-36 win over Happy.

The Swifts are expected to win the rest of their district games.

Nazareth finished the first half of district action with a 5-0 mark, are 15-6 on the season, and 1-0 in second half play.

The Swifts edged Happy 37-34 in the teams' first meeting Jan. 11 in Nazareth, but the game Friday was a different story.

Nazareth dominated — on the boards and inside.

The taller Swifts grabbed 32 rebounds to Happy's 24, and Mark Huseman led the inside attack.

The 6-3 post garnered 11 rebounds, blocked five shots and scored 13 points. Scottie Book added 8 points and five rebounds.

"We played a real steady ball game," said Nazareth coach Ken Cole. "Our big men inside played extremely well."

"We played a better ball-game than we did before, and they didn't sag as much on our big men. That helped us."

Nazareth was behind only once in the game, 2-0, when Happy scored on its first possession.

The Swifts then hit six-straight points and led by six or more points the remainder of the game.

More about Lombard ...

Of the 1980 group: "That team played probably as close to its potential as any team I've had."

Of the 1981 team: "Great talent, and the best inside game we've had since I've been here."

In 1982, Lombard said "unselfish players, great leadership, and great depth" led that squad to its state championship.

"It was the only year I've had five seniors. We didn't have any size, and our seniors felt a lot of pressure — they didn't want to be the team that didn't win a state championship."

Early in the season Lombard started the five seniors. "We weren't doing as well as we should, so I had to bring three of them in off the bench," he said. "They were the kind of kids who were willing to sacrifice being a starter to help make the team successful."

"Really, this honor should be awarded to the kids," he said. "You have to have the kids to play and make the sacrifices that make you successful."

Lombard will be honored in ceremonies at 2 p.m. Sunday in Amarillo College's Ordway Auditorium. The ceremonies are open to the public with no admission charge.

Lombard is the third local basketball coach to win PSHOF Coach of the Year honors. Dimmitt's Ken Cleveland won the honor in 1975, and Nazareth's Cathy Wilson was the honoree in 1977.

Railroad Commission receives protest letters ...

"The way they (the railroad) look at it, it's an expense to keep the office open," said Steve Burnett, plant superintendent of Cargill, Inc. "My company has authorized me to represent them at the hearing and to testify to try to get the railroad to keep the office open, but my company feels that the railroad will get what it wants."

"It (the closing) will not be a progressive step for our community," said Don Gregory of Castro County Grain Co. "It will be a step down."

Spokesmen for Dimmitt's major rail customers share the view that closing the local office may result in problems ranging from minor inconveniences to shipping delays and mix-ups, to possible loss of customers and even a loss of revenue to the businesses.

"I don't think the change would cause us to lose any business, but it would certainly increase our cost of operations," said Bill Clark, manager of Dimmitt Agri Industries.

"Without a local agent to work with, shipping by rail could turn into a costly endeavor," said Gregory.

Several noted that they would possibly end up paying demurrage charges more often because of delays caused by slowed communications.

"Once cars are sent to us for loading, there is a limit on the amount of time they can be held (24 hours). If something happens to delay the loading or pickup of a car, we must pay a demurrage charge of a certain amount per day for each day of delay," Clark explained.

"I can't see how we're going to be able to order cars, load them, have them inspected by a federal inspector, and finalize sales, all within the period of time the railroad allows," Clark said.

"We're able to do it now, but it's usually late in the afternoon before we get the cars filled and released to the railroad. It may come to putting in overtime hours at times in order to meet the rail schedule."

"The switching schedule is important to us," said Cargill's Burnett. "That is where the local agent really comes in. If we have to go through Plainview, it will be a hardship on us. It will be a lot harder to coordinate. We also might have to add an extra shift to work around the rail schedule."

"The closing could cost us money in the long run because of delays," said Hubert Backus, manager of Riverside Chemical Co. "We could also possibly lose customers if delays were at a critical time, or for as long as two days — they might go elsewhere."

For Amstar, the closing would principally affect convenience and flexibility, according to General Manager

George Lamberth.

"We'll have to spend more time on deliberate planning of schedules. In some senses, it could cost us some money," Lamberth said, although he added that he didn't think it would have much impact on Amstar.

Carl Collyer, manager of Bruegel & Sons Elevators, and Pete Stewart, plant manager of Goodpasture, Inc., agree that the closing would cause their businesses to have to put out a lot more effort and paperwork, and would definitely be more inconvenient.

David Hays of Hays Implement Co. stated that his firm's main problem would be in having qualified inspectors on hand at the time equipment is unloaded. Several businesses mentioned the possibility of having to use trucks to fill the gap of service or scheduling.

"With all the rail business generated here, I think there is enough to justify having a local agent," Gregory said.

Backus echoed the sentiments of most of the others when he concluded, "If they close the station anyway, we'll just have to work it out the best we can, but I sure would hate to see it."

Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District

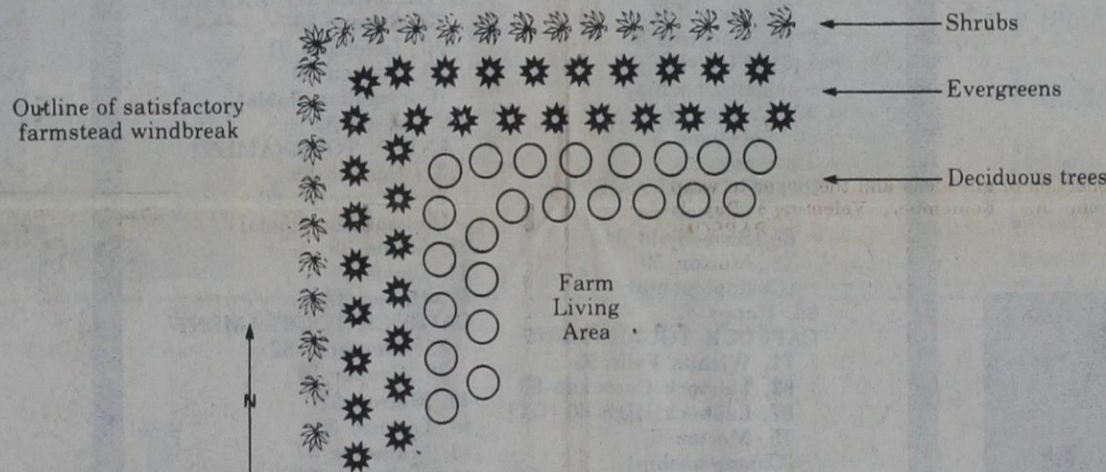

The snows that the Dimmitt area has received are going to be a very big benefit this spring to the farmers, ranchers and homeowners.

This badly needed moisture is nearly all going to soak into the ground. Many of the farmers who left their stubble will catch more snow, which will allow more moisture available for wheat and spring planted crops. The stubble also provides shade between the rows which will allow the snow to melt more slowly, putting more moisture into the soil.

Another benefit from the snow is that it does provide for a small amount of nitrogen to go into the soil. Generally, we will receive about one-quarter pound of nitrogen per inch of snow. With the snow we have had this year, we have around five pounds of nitrogen in the soil, which will be available to plants.

Quarterly Report January 1983

Windbreaks provide many benefits for man and animals alike. They help to reduce soil from blowing, protect newly-sown crops, provide wildlife habitat, give livestock protection from the cold, reduce soil moisture losses, and beautify the country side. The Running Water Soil and Water Conservation District is now taking orders for windbreak tree seedlings, and for the first time, we are taking orders on two varieties of 3 year old pecan trees. If you are interested in any of the above, contact the Soil Conservation Service office in Dimmitt.

When you talk about conservation tillage here in Castro County, most farmers just laugh at it. Some may come back with a statement like, "I can't use minimum tillage with my corn or milo crops; there's too much residue left and it blocks my furrows."

Statements like this are quite common. However, with the economy like it is, a lot of farmers may need to look a lot closer at minimum tillage and what it has to offer.

We all realize that minimum tillage saves time, lowers production costs, conserves moisture, reduces erosion, nets higher profits, and has many other benefits.

We also realize that the system has some drawbacks in equipment and in the use of chemicals for weed and insect control.

There are many questions to be asked by you, the farmer. A lot of these can be answered by dealers of farm chemicals, fertilizers or equipment, or by the county agent and the Soil Conservation Service personnel.

On Feb. 9-10, there will be a tillage conference held in Hereford at the Bull Barn. This could answer a lot of the questions you have on conservation tillage systems. Most of the speakers are area farmers who are using conservation tillage systems on irrigation and dryland farming and having great success.

MRS. JAY DON REEVE
 ... She's the former Rhonda Lynn Ross.

Couple establish home in Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Don Reeve are at home in Lubbock after their Jan. 10 wedding in Dimmitt.

The couple were united in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the First United Methodist Church of Dimmitt with Ronnie Parker officiating.

The bride is the former Rhonda Lynn Ross, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. (Gene) Ross of Dimmitt. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Reeve of Dimmitt.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride joined the groom before an archway of candles, flanked by two other candelabras, all decked with fresh greenery and accented with burgundy and white bows.

In keeping with tradition, the bride wore her great-grandmother's diamond ring on a necklace as something old; her gown as something new; a diamond pin belonging to the groom's great-grandmother as something borrowed; and a garter as something blue.

The bride's dress was of polyorganza fabric and featured modified Alencon lace accented with pearls and sequins. The natural-waisted bodice had a high Victorian neckline edged in modified Alencon lace, adorned with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The full, Bishop sleeves were gathered on Queen Anne cuffs, featuring button and loop closures and accented with the same lace. The naturally draped skirt of polyorganza formed a semi-chapel train.

A modified Juliet cap of Alencon lace accented with pearls anchored her double-tiered veil of lace-edged illusion that fell to a full chapel train. Satin wedge slippers completed the outfit. She carried a bouquet of burgundy flaked carnations, feathered white carnations, stephanotis and gypsophilia, centered by a white cymbidium orchid.

Wendy Jo Bruegel of Lubbock served as maid of honor. She wore a dress of burgundy lustreges, accented with Rachelle lace. The bodice was fashioned with a high Victorian neckline with a standing band collar. The lace embroidered yoke was outlined by a deep lace flounce, which also formed the mid-length sleeves. A sunburst pleated skirt was fastened to a natural waistline. Poole, Pohlmeier vows read

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Philip Pohlmeier are at home in Elk City, Okla., following a honeymoon trip to Orlando, Fla. after their Jan. 22 wedding.

The couple were wed in a formal, double-ring ceremony in St. Mary's Catholic Church of Amarillo with Rev. Pat Carthers officiating.

The bride is the former Donya Lynn Poole, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Poole of Lake Tanglewood. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pohlmeier.

In the church, two large baskets of purple tulips and daisies stood on brass pedestals and two seven-branch brass candelabras held white tapers. A lighted stained glass pane decorated with interlocking wedding bands stood behind the white unity candle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of Chantilly lace and bridal satin, trimmed with Venice lace. The Queen Anne neckline was outlined with lace appliques decked with pearls and sequins. The same appliques complemented the fitted empire bodice, which also featured Bishop sleeves of sheer lace ending in satin, gathered onto lace cuffs. Scalloped insets of Chantilly lace set off the full skirt, which was bordered with satin and Venice lace, and formed a circular chapel-length train.

Venice lace edged her chapel-length veil of illusion. Her Camelot headpiece was covered with Venice lace and sprinkled with pearls. A flowing cascade of lavender roses, purple violets and stephanotis formed her bouquet.

Maid of honor was Summer Lee Poole, sister of the bride. Valerie Ott of Buffalo, N.Y., and Marianne Duty of Amarillo served as bridesmaids. They wore matching dresses of lavender satin, accented with Chantilly lace. The dresses featured a sweetheart yoke of lace, gathered elbow-length sleeves, a basque bodice and floor-length skirts. The attendants each carried a bouquet of lavender roses and stephanotis, and wore hair clips to match.

David DeWees of Cedar City, Utah, served as best man, and groomsmen were Mark Maples and Phillip Jones, both of Amarillo. The male attendants wore silver tuxedos over white shirts with

The reception following the ceremony was held in St. Mary's gym.

A gathered, white satin cloth, draped with a lavender swag, covered the bride's table, which was centered by an arrangement of lavender-shaded silk flowers in a silver chalice. Four heart-shaped satellite cakes surrounded the three-tiered white wedding cake, embellished with grape clusters and topped with kissing doves. Silver and crystal appointments were used. Serving were Sherri Brown, Germaine Pohlmeier and Beth Powers.

An overlay of lavender satin accented the gathered white satin cloth covering the groom's table. A German chocolate cake in the form of double rings, iced with chocolate roses, was served from crystal and silver appointments. A silver coffee service was used to serve coffee. Newlyweds are taking honeymoon in Colorado

Rebecca Lynn (Becky) Street and John Page Holmes Jr. were united in marriage Saturday in a formal, double-ring ceremony in the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt with Rev. John Street, pastor, and father of the bride, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John Street of Dimmitt, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Page Holmes of Midland.

A brass archway covered with greenery, accented by bows of rust and peach, was flanked by candelabras. The unity candle was also surrounded with greenery, and arrangements of rust-colored mums decorated each side of the platform.

With Mrs. Shirley Peggram at the organ and Mrs. Zeldia Ellison at the piano, soloist Kimberly Peggram sang the selections "In His Time," "Walk With Me," and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was dressed in a formal-length candlelight gown of silk chiffon, accented with Alencon lace around the sweetheart neckline and down the front of the bodice. The lace was complemented with seed pearls. The skirt formed a chapel-length train.

Her ankle-length veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap appliqued with Alencon and needlepoint lace. She carried a bouquet of silk roses.

Sharla Street of Lubbock, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor, and Kay Merritt of Midland, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. The two wore identical dresses of rust-colored satin, accented by peach sashes. They wore peach hats decorated with rust flowers and ribbon, and they both carried bouquets of rust and peach-colored silk flowers.

John Truitt of Midland served as best man, and Clark Richards was groomsman. Charles Torti of Dallas, brother-in-law of the groom, and Kevin Englet, James Skees and Gary Elander served as ushers.

Candlelighters were Carrie Torti of Dallas and Barbara

Holmes of Canyon, both sisters of the groom. Carrie Truitt of Midland registered guests.

Jeff Robertson of Canyon served as ring bearer, and Becky Robertson, also of Canyon, was the flower girl. She wore a peach-colored dress with a rust-colored sash. Wearing a garland of roses in her hair, she carried a basket of peach-colored roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride's table was covered with a white eyelet cloth. An arrangement of silk flowers in the bride's colors rested in an antique crystal bowl, which was a gift from the groom's mother. Punch and cake was served from crystal appointments.

Coffee and chocolate cake were served at the groom's table from silver appointments.

Servers were Nancy Robertson and Barbara Holmes, both of Canyon, Carrie Torti of Dallas and Brenda Coats of Brownfield. Twelve ladies assisted in the houseparty. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Berger of Bartlesville, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robertson of Canyon.

The bride wore a rust-colored three-piece suit with black accessories as the couple left for their wedding trip to Breckenridge, Colo. They plan to be at home after Saturday. They will be living in Midland.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Dimmitt High School, and a graduate of West Texas State University. She is employed in the accounting department of MGF Oil Co. of Midland.
